

The Queen 206

Chapter 206: She Is Number Two

As long as Su Cha could enter the top three among all the pending contestants, she would pass to the next round.

But after the pass, her votes would be cleared.

The others were advantageous since they could directly pass. But for Su Cha, many audience members had voted for Su Cha before and could not do it again, which could affect Su Cha's ranking.

They used to believe that Su Cha could surely become one of the first three, but now they found it hard for her to become a number five.

The Top Three of this division would enjoy preferential treatment, and therefore many contestants would like to win a place in it.

Dong Yishan and the rest saw Su Cha walking to the pending area and could not help grinning.

Su Cha patted on Le Anqi's shoulder, "Go ahead. Do your best."

Le Anqi would perform soon and she should not be affected by her.

Le Anqi was aware of it, so she cheered herself up and walked on the stage.

She smiled very aggressively because of her opinion against Yu Siqing, and performed very well. Yu Siqing knew that Le Anqi got along well with Su Cha, but she still gave her a blue pass. Nobody knew what she was thinking.

Le Anqi passed directly.

Other contestants found it hard to believe. Dong Yishan's felt instantly unhappy.

She had a similar style to Le Anqi. Once Le had passed, she would have a small chance to also pass.

Le Anqi found it unbelievable herself. But Su Cha understood Yu Siqing immediately.

She is sowing discord.

Su Cha did not pass, but her bestie passed.

Yu Siqing wanted to watch them have a falling out.

Alas, that would never happen.

Le Anqi was still confused after she came off the stage. Su Cha was relieved, “You are safe now that you have directly passed to the next round. I won’t have to worry about you.”

Le Anqi was less happy than her as she pouted her lips, “How about you?”

She had almost figured out Yu Siqing’s attempt and worried that Su Cha became unhappy.

Su Cha shook her head. Nobody can tell the result before it is all done.

After all the contestants finished their performances, seven seats of Top Ten had been taken, and the final three would be selected from fifteen contestants within the pending area.

Su Cha chose a song from her list and gave a steady performance. Her voice and melody were both impeccable. Onsite audiences would vote for them. Su Cha became number one among all the nervous contestants. Then all the votes from the judges and audiences were cleared.

Each vote weighed five points. Su Cha got seventy, which meant that there were twelve members of the audience who voted for her.

These twelve audience members were her fans. Other contestants gained a dozen points in total. Almost thirty audience members lost their chances to vote again.

Most contestants were happy with it.

The higher points that Su Cha got now, the lower she would rank in Top Ten.

She could hardly become a number five.

Most audiences here were selected from each contestant's fans. Even a common person would also have his/her preference.

After the host announced the names of Top Ten, he asked the audiences—except those who had voted for pending contestants before—to vote again. Their votes plus the judges' would decide the rankings of Top Ten.

Dong Yishan and the rest grinned before the result came out.

The Top Ten stood in line on the stage. Su Cha stood alone at the edge of the whispering crowd as she was the last one who had passed. But once the audience looked up, they found the laughing contestants very petty in contrast with Su Cha.

She was the one who deserved to stand in the spotlight and be worshipped by others.

The result finally came out. Mona ranked the first.

It was quite natural. She had an appealing performance and many fans. Her becoming the division champion was no surprise at all.

But when the name of number two was called, everyone on the stage including Quan Jia and Xu Cunjian was all dumbfounded. Yu Siqing almost dropped her eyes.

Su Cha was number two.

Chapter 207: They Could Change Their Minds

How could Su Cha become number two?

Everyone was shocked.

[I'm shocked by her comeback!]

[What? She has bought the votes, hasn't she?]

[It can't be. Weren't the audiences chosen randomly?]

[Even if she could buy the votes, she had no time to arrange it. And why should Yu Siqing aim at her if she has paid?]

[Wasn't Jin Mou the one who had been allegedly chosen as the division champion....I knew I can't trust the gossip!]

[Hahahaha. If this doesn't go with an inside story, what else could? How can she pass as a pending contestant and become the number two of the division?]

[The judges are shocked as well. Didn't they expect it to happen?]

[She has definitely bought the votes! Otherwise, there can't be so many fans of hers. I don't buy it!]

[Can't fans of other contestants vote for her? Su Cha sang so well that I find it natural for other fans to change their minds. It's better to let Su Cha pass than those who could not sing.]

[Aha I can't stop laughing at Dong Yishan's expressions. She was so happy when Su Cha went to the pending area. No wonder she had slandered Su Cha out of the show. She was so jealous of her!]

The host was surprised the minute he read Su Cha's name.

Out of instinct, he looked in the eyes of the backstage directors, who shrugged and nodded back at him.

They meant that they did not cheat in it and Su Cha was truly the number two.

Xu Cunjian and Quan Jia looked at each other in surprise. And the contestants were even more shocked.

Mona's smile froze for a second.

Even though she had become the division champion, she became unhappy when their points were announced.

Mona: 145 points.

Su Cha: 105 points.

She had passed to Top Ten directly and had got 15 points from the judges. In other words, she had got 130 points from 26 audience members.

Su Cha had gotten 19 audience's members votes along with the judges' 10 points.

If she had not been sent to the pending crowd before because of Yu Siqing, she would have definitely become the division champion.

Mona found it troublesome.

She did not outrun Su Cha greatly, so she could be criticized by people in the future that if Su Cha had not been sent to pending, she could never become the division champion.

A ruthless look flashed on Mona's face. It disappeared quickly in the camera and hardly anyone noticed it.

Number three was Jin Mou. Number four was Huang Xiaojia. Number five was Le Anqi...

Number nine was Dong Yishan.

Many people were already shocked when Su Cha was announced number two. Dong Yishan's face lost color when she found that she was number nine.

The last few contestants did not get many votes because most audiences had voted for Su Cha. Their points could not compare with those of the Top Three.

Su Cha remained calm and quiet as she stood at the center of the crowd on the stage.

She was still smiling, which made her look like the most glamorous queen who was as beautiful as the sun and had attracted everyone.

Her appearance and performance on the stage had won many audiences' favor. They came to watch other girls and found them incomparable with Su Cha, so they changed to support her.

The production crew was right. Each contestant had an average number of fans. But fans could change their minds.

Chapter 208: Someone Did Not Want To Accept It

Yu Siqing stopped smiling. She did not expect Su Cha to be ruled out since she was very popular.

But she never predicted that she could become number two.

And if she was not sent to pending, she would almost certainly be the champion. Yu Siqing felt happy that she had taken the champion from Su Cha. But she did not want her to go easily.

After all the results came out, Yu Siqing said to the production crew, "Is it all fair and just? Is there any vote left or miscounted?"

Su Cha squeezed her eyes a little.

The director was puzzled by Yu Siqing's words. Quan Jia suddenly shouted, "That's enough!"

Her scold was loud and startled everyone. They all became quiet.

On-screen comments were all filled with "Teacher Quan is angry!"

"Our contest is open, fair, and just. We have watched every contestant's performance. No one can sabotage it by playing dirty. After all, the audience can tell who is good!"

Quan Jia was really irritated by Yu Siqing. She almost scolded her by her name. It sounded like Quan Jia was clarifying Yu Siqing's question and claimed the votes were fair.

But everyone could tell that she was criticizing Yu Siqing.

She was angry about Yu's tricks.

It was very obvious that she was opposed to Su Cha.

The contestants who did not want to accept the result could not say anything.

Yu Siqing kept aiming at Su Cha and finally enraged Quan Jia.

Now that Quan Jia had said so, Yu Siqing dared not to rebuke, even though she was unhappy.

Xu Cunjian stood out to mediate and smiled, "Now let's congratulate the Top Ten and also wish the best of the rest of you. Just keep faith in yourself as you have many other chances in the future. For those who have entered the national contest, we wish you splendid performances in the Imperial Capital!"

After he spoke, people started to applaud.

That was the end of the division contest!

***

“Su Cha, stay here. Teacher Quan wants to speak with you.”

After the contest, Le Anqi was so thrilled with Su Cha. She never expected that Su Cha should have a comeback. And Yu Siqing had given her a pass to sow discord between them. Now that she could go to the Imperial Capital together with Su Cha, she was quite relieved and delighted.

And after the contest, Teacher Quan wanted to speak with Su Cha alone!

Le Anqi would accompany Su Cha as she waited. But when the officer came to pass the message to Su Cha, she did not hide it from others. Mona and the rest were all disturbed by it. Dong Yishan's eyes almost turned into a flame-thrower.

She could no longer pretend to be innocent and naive.

Jin Mou walked out from the crowd and smiled at her, “Congratulations, Su Cha. We should all step up efforts in the Imperial Capital and try to become the national Top Ten.”

Su Cha nodded, “Let's try our best.”

She said quite calmly and naturally.

Jin Mou nodded and left.

The other contestants did not speak with Su Cha before they left as they felt ashamed.

Le Anqi hummed, “I can see that someone finds this very hard to accept.”

Chapter 209: She Has More Important Things to Do

Su Cha just curled up her lips.

Almost all had left. They came to the backstage and saw Quan Jia and Xu Cunjian.

Yu Siqing was also there.

She was freshening up her makeup and did not change her look at the sight of Su Cha. She snorted, “What a lucky dog!”

Many workers heard her and looked over to Su Cha and her. They were going to gossip.

Le Anqi thought that Su Cha would respect Yu Siqing as a judge and swallow it as she once told her to do so.

But to her surprise, Su Cha smiled and said, “I might be a lucky dog. But Teacher Yu has used up all her luck.”

Her words were cold and cruel and soon spread around the studio.

The temperature started to drop. Le Anqi shuddered at the side of Su Cha.

Yu Siqing could not believe her ears. Her face with heavy make-up looked terrible, “What do you mean, Su Cha?”

Su Cha was still smiling, “I think Teacher Yu could figure it out.”

She called her Teacher Yu as if she respected her. But when she looked at her with her dark eyes, its depth scared people off.

Yu Siqing got her goose pimples all over and did not want to speak with Su Cha out of fear. But she did not want to lose face either, so she stared at Su Cha and walked away from her.

She carried a fragrance with her, which was a strong perfume. Le Anqi did not save her face and choked and coughed hard.

Quan Jia and Xu Cunjian saw it and laughed as they walked to them, “Congratulations, the best scholar Su! You would be the division champion if it weren’t...”

Quan Jia did not see much nor brought up what had just happened. She patted on Su Cha's shoulders, "You are lucky but you are also talented. I believed in you. Teacher Xu and I both believed that you can be among the national Top Ten. Don't let us down."

Su Cha nodded. She was neither proud nor humble, "I'll do my best. Thank you for believing in me."

Quan Jia looked at Xu Cunjian and laughed.

How interesting! Other contestants would say that they were not good enough to become the national Top Ten. But Su Cha did not say so and her words showed her confidence.

They did say many polite words. Quan Jia did not mention Yu Siqing. She just took out her phone and showed it to Su Cha, "Let me add you on WeChat? Your voice is very rare. I knew a vocal teacher in the Imperial Capital. After you go there, she can teach you more techniques."

Quan Jia really wanted to help her as she had spoken so clearly.

In the entertainment industry, the more people you knew, the more resources you would get. Su Cha accepted it and thanked her seriously, "Thank you, Teacher Quan, I wish I could not let you down."

"You are really the very best student as you speak so scholarly...."

Quan Jia could not stop laughing. Xu Cunjian also added Su Cha on WeChat. Le Anqi felt happy for Su Cha. Although Quan Jia and Xu Cunjian were not very famous, they had good reputations after spending all years in the entertainment industry. They could be very helpful to Su Cha.

After the chat, Le Anqi and Su Cha went to have dinner. Le Anqi wanted to take her to celebrate, but Su Cha refused her.

She had more important things to do today. After it, she could feel free to leave for the Imperial Capital.

Chapter 210: You Can't Be Disappointed

“Aya, you are so annoying~”

Yu Siqing came out of her car in the dim underground garage. She was speaking with someone on the phone. There was an enchanting smile on her face and her voice was extremely coquettish.

Ordinary men would fail to resist her.

The man’s voice was inaudible, but Yu Siqing laughed even more bashfully, “Alright~ I’m at the garage downstairs now. Don’t rush me. I’m taking the elevator and coming to you.”

Then she hung up and rolled her eyes, “Dirty old man.”

Because of her heavy makeup, she looked like a female ghost when she rolled her eyes.

But as she walked in the garage and made “Ding Ding Ding” noise with her high heels, Yu Siqing could not help recalling Su Cha’s words after the contest this afternoon. She was terrified by Su Cha’s expression and walked faster into the elevator.

She did not know that a ghost shadow was climbing the outer wall of this building.

Su Cha stood at the railings next to the balcony and counted the floors.

She was on the 11th floor and there were still five floors above her.

She looked down and saw the unclear ground in the dark. A person who got acrophobia would definitely be scared to death.

Yu Siqing lived in the separate building of a high-end housing estate, which had extremely strict security. But people could still sneak in via unusual methods.

Su Cha jumped off from a high tree outside the housing estate.

Normal people did not have the strength to climb over it or the balls to jump off it into the housing estate, but Su Cha could do it easily with the help of her exercise. Once she regained her inner power, she could even fly over it.

All households were of rich and important people. But most of them had not moved in for the time being. The apartments had a balcony to the north with railings. No one would dare to go there except Su Cha.

Most people who lived here would not go outside in the evenings because of its strict rules. Plus the protection of the night, no one had seen Su Cha climbing on the wall.

Su Cha had got Yu Siqing's address from Bai Kun. She could manage Yu Siqing by herself, but she needed someone to find out her address.

Su Cha landed gently on the balcony of the 17th floor. She could hear people's voices vaguely and was certain that Yu Siqing was here.

"Why are you so hurry~ Aya, slow down~ Did your old wife ask when you went out today?"

Su Cha squeezed her eyes after she heard Yu Siqing's flirtatious grumble. She had made a plan but now she had bumped into something totally different.

She opened the door of the balcony narrowly and peeped through the curtains. She saw two people caressing in the living room.

What a nasty scene!

The man lying face down on top of Yu Siqing was a fat middle-aged man.

Su Cha found it nauseating and took out her phone.

She never expected that Yu Siqing could give her such a good opportunity, so she changed her former plans.

The two people were busy with each other and did not notice Su Cha who was hiding behind the curtains. While she recorded the video, she was enraged by Yu Siqing's words—

“Don't you like young students? The show I worked in today~ There was~ There was a girl called Su Cha. You can't be disappointed~!”
