

The Queen 281

Chapter 281: Too Outstanding!

The incident involving Zi You meant he could not affect Su Cha's life for now.

At present, this person would be too embroiled in a mess. With so much dirt on him, no matter how popular he was, he would not be able to rise up again no matter how capable he was.

Because this had already caused damage and tainted the youth's minds, he would probably be directly banned.

Moreover, he never would have expected that just one phone call would get him into such big trouble.

If a person had no morals, they would eventually hit a wall.

Su Cha did not care, and while she did not need to compete right now, she did have to go to the studio recommended by Dai Xiaofu to practice her vocals.

Su Cha did not go there these past two days due to the production crew's situation. When she arrived, Su Cha found that it was just another workplace for Dai Xiaofu, not run by a friend.

Dai Xiaofu came over after her class. Although she was friendly to Su Cha, Su Cha could tell that Dai Xiaofu was hiding something from her.

She transferred her here not because it was convenient but because Dai Xiaofu did not want Su Cha to continue her studies in the other studio.

But what could be the reason that Su Cha was not allowed to be there?

As Su Cha thought about this, Dai Xiaofu came over. She asked her casually, "Is the child from last time doing fine?"

She had asked the same question twice.

Dai Xiaofu did not expect her to ask this question. Her face stiffened for a moment, but she quickly calmed down. "He's fine. What are you worried about?"

"I'm not worried."

Su Cha spoke slowly, so Dai Xiaofu could not detect anything unusual from her tone. "But since the child had that accident in your classroom, I'm afraid it has affected you."

After all, it involved Dai Xiaofu's class.

Dai Xiaofu was stunned.

Although she and Su Cha were mother and daughter, they were not close. It was not an exaggeration to call them strangers after not seeing each other for so many years.

It was awkward.

However, when she heard Su Cha's words, she had a complicated look in her eyes. She forced a smile and said, "Thank you for your concern. I've already settled the child's matter. It's not a big deal. His family members are reasonable."

Although Dai Xiaofu appeared relaxed on the surface, Su Cha felt that this matter had not been an easy thing to deal with.

But she did not probe further.

She continued to practice what Dai Xiaofu taught her. Dai Xiaofu was not stingy and could not hide her smile. "I also heard about the results of your competition yesterday. You took first place in your group and directly passed into the Top 50, right?"

Su Cha nodded. "I'm lucky to be popular."

Dai Xiaofu glanced at her. "What's so strange about your popularity?"

She was so pretty that many people liked her.

She was also talented at singing. She was simply God's biological daughter.

It was not surprising that such a person was popular.

“But I didn't expect that you were the champion of Jiang'an Province!”

As she mentioned this, Dai Xiaofu looked at Su Cha with bright eyes. After all, this girl was the top scorer in the college entrance examination!

Dai Xiaofu had been working her whole life, but she had never encountered a child who became the champion of the college entrance examination.

Not to mention that this child was her own daughter. Even if they were not blood-related, there was still this connection.

Dai Xiaofu felt proud at the thought of it. After she found out yesterday, she mentioned it to her current husband. His husband was very happy and wanted Su Cha to come home for a meal.

How glorious it was for her to be able to become the champion.

Dai Xiaofu specially checked and even refreshed the highest score in the liberal arts in Jiang'an Province. This was simply too outstanding!

Chapter 282: Unbelievable Truth

Dai Xiaofu felt that even though Su Cha had grown up with a person like Su Mingzhe, she still became so outstanding. Su Mingzhe simply must have spent eight lifetimes on this. However, she did not understand why Su Mingzhe would let a girl like Su Cha come to the Imperial Capital and join the entertainment industry.

Dai Xiaofu had changed the topic quickly, which made Su Cha smile lightly. “It's good that Jiang'an Province's liberal arts exams were relatively simple this year.”

That was true.

Jiang'an Province took the same national exam. This year, the difficulty of the national exam had been reduced. The scores could not be compared to the other provinces' given the higher difficulty of their college entrance examination. However, the fact that Su Cha's score could break records in Jiang'an Province proved her ability.

She did not waste her efforts.

"It's not every year that it's easy."

Dai Xiaofu could not stop grinning. "Your uncle wants to see you. Do you want to eat at my place tonight?"

Su Cha hesitated.

She was staying at Bo Muyi's house now and returned there every day.

However, Dai Xiaofu was her mother at least in name. It should not be a big deal for Su Cha to join her for a meal.

Su Cha nodded. "Okay."

Dai Xiaofu smiled happily when she heard Su Cha's agreement. "Okay, you can come back with me after the practice."

After making arrangements, Dai Xiaofu asked curiously, "Say, did Su Mingzhe really agree to let you come to the Imperial Capital?"

Su Cha's smile disappeared.

At the mention of Su Mingzhe, her eyes became colder. "He doesn't care all that much."

"..."

Dai Xiaofu saw Su Cha's expression and a thought occurred to her. She asked carefully, "Did you quarrel with him?"

Su Cha shook her head. "It's not a fight. He never agreed from the beginning, and I never planned to ask for his permission."

"Since you are so outstanding, he was blessed to have been able to pick you up."

Dai Xiaofu continued unhappily, "Even if you're not his biological child, it's been so many years. He also received so many benefits back then..."

Su Cha frowned and asked, "What benefits?"

She had heard from Dai Xiaofu before about Su Mingzhe taking payment, but she did not probe further.

She had thought that her biological parents had given her to Su Mingzhe as a form of adoption.

Now that Dai Xiaofu mentioned money again, it was obvious that Su Mingzhe got more than that.

Dai Xiaofu realized that she had slipped up, but now that she thought about it, Su Cha already knew that she was not Su Mingzhe's biological daughter. In addition, Su Mingzhe was not a good person in Dai Xiaofu's eyes. She thought it through for a while and said, "I'm not sure about your father's family background, but he must have some means. He even gave a sum of money to Su Mingzhe. I think it couldn't have been less than five hundred thousand. When we divorced, I didn't ask for his money. After all, the money was prepared for you. Also, I don't know if Su Mingzhe has changed his job. He doesn't have much ability. He was arranged to be a manager of a big company..."

Su Cha could not believe it.

Five hundred thousand!

This was a huge sum for an ordinary family back then!

And a job was even arranged for Su Mingzhe?

She always did think that it was strange. Su Mingzhe was mediocre, so how did he become a manager? However, he had also changed jobs halfway and transferred to a smaller company. Now that she thought about it, it was very likely that he could not continue working in a big company. However, because of this condition, he could continue to work in other companies as a manager. Otherwise, what right did Su Mingzhe have to such a position?

However, Su Cha's face turned pale at the thought of the treatment she had received.

Chapter 283: I'll Make a Call

What should she say?

She had never been scolded or beaten by Su Mingzhe.

However, she was never valued since she was young. Without ever receiving her father's love, she lived in a cold environment.

Su Mingzhe had then married his current wife, Gu Yanfang.

As far as Su Cha could remember, Gu Yanfang had come to their house a long time ago, so she could not recall ever enjoying Su Mingzhe's fatherly love.

The occasional show of care was a luxury, especially after Gu Yanfang became pregnant.

Even so, it was for Su Mingzhe that Su Cha felt resentment, confusion, and hatred.

Because he was still her father.

But now Su Cha found that Su Mingzhe had not only earned a huge sum of money back then, but he had also earned a living of his own.

Su Cha could not believe it!

If Su Mingzhe had a conscience, he would have treated her well!

Her personality became like this because of Su Mingzhe. In her first life, while some things did have something to do with Su Mingzhe, Su Cha did not want to think too badly of him.

Now, her heart was cold.

She did not know what kind of attitude she should have when facing such a person.

He should not have said that he deserved it.

However, Su Cha could not think well of him no matter how many times she thought about it.

Dai Xiaofu noticed the change in Su Cha's expression and realized that something was wrong.

She thought about it carefully and could not figure out why Su Cha was being like this. She had said those words in one breath just now, but she could not help but regret it. She did not know the truth and was afraid that Su Cha would think that she was trying to sow discord between them. After all, Su Cha was still raised by Su Mingzhe.

Dai Xiaofu explained, "Actually, I didn't mean anything by saying that. I mentioned those conditions for your own good. After all, as a girl, you have to have someone to rely on. That money is all yours..."

Before she could finish, Su Cha's expression changed.

Her eyes were filled with sadness and tears. "You know what? I want to cry right now, but I can't."

She was so disappointed that she forgot about her sadness.

Dai Xiaofu's expression changed and her lips turned pale. "What... What exactly happened?"

Su Cha lowered her head. There was only sadness in her heart. She did not intend to hide anything anymore. She had a feeling that she needed to vent it out, especially after today's incident.

She briefly explained what had happened to Su Mingzhe over the years. She did not deliberately say anything. The main point was that she had talked to Su Mingzhe during the recent college entrance examination.

Dai Xiaofu was increasingly shocked. In the end, even her face turned pale.

The more Su Cha spoke, the calmer she became. In the end, she became more relaxed. In fact, she just felt aggrieved and needed a channel to vent.

Dai Xiaofu knew that Su Cha would not feel pressured if she said those things in front of her.

In the end, Dai Xiaofu's eyes turned red. She covered her mouth in disbelief. "Su Mingzhe is a f*cking beast!"

She was trembling with anger. She could not believe that Su Cha had received such treatment for so many years.

"He, Su Mingzhe, should never have treated you that way! He has no conscience. To whom does he owe everything he has today? Who is it?"

Dai Xiaofu was furious. She took out her phone and said to Su Cha, "Stay here. I'll go out and make a call."

Chapter 284: Following Fate

Su Cha knew what Dai Xiaofu was going to do.

She nodded quietly and did not stop her.

She also wanted to give him an earful, but with everything she had experienced, she could not bring herself to criticize him.

Su Cha continued practicing her vocals in the room. She closed her eyes and hummed a song while thinking about the past.

Her voice sounded heavy and oppressive. Just hearing it made her heart ache so much that she could not breathe.

Not far away, she could hear Dai Xiaofu's scolding.

“You are not human! You are a beast!”

“So what if she's not my biological daughter? Can I not care if she's not my biological daughter? Can you tell others that she's not your biological daughter?”

“Su Mingzhe, everything you have today, don't forget who you owe them to. When he gave you the child, he asked you to take care of her. She became the champion of the college entrance examination. She is so pretty and smart. Even if she is not your biological daughter, you should have cherished her. So many people could only dream of having such a daughter in their lifetime!”

“If you took care of her, then why will she never go back? Didn't you have it good to have a daughter like her? You still call yourself a human despite what you f*cking did. And let me tell you, your wife is no good either. What, the moment you had a biological child, you began doing such a shameful thing?”

“What do you mean by let's not talk about her? Not only will I talk about her, but I will also talk about you, you dog...”

Although she was practicing her songs, Su Cha's ability to hear had reached a shocking level. Naturally, she heard everything clearly.

She wanted to laugh.

And it was all because of Dai Xiaofu.

Still, she was afraid that the comparison would only make her feel worse.

Dai Xiaofu took care of her for only a while. She then had nothing more to do with Su Cha. But now that they had met again, she was treating Su Cha better than Su Mingzhe ever did.

And now, she was standing up for her.

“Let me tell you, after everything that you have done, the moment Su Cha becomes famous in the future, you better not lay your hands on her!”

Dai Xiaofu hung up the phone and walked in aggressively.

When she saw Su Cha, however, her expression quickly returned to its usual graceful and peaceful state. Even so, her aura was still that of a goddess who had just been enraged.

Su Cha took off her earphones. The girl’s eyes were luminous like the moon hanging in the sky. She was bright and gentle, emitting a gentle glow. “Teacher Dai, are you okay?”

“I’m fine.”

Dai Xiaofu pulled a face and smiled. She did not want to tell Su Cha that she had just quarreled with Su Mingzhe. In the end, the dog had not dared to hang up.

Dai Xiaofu was still furious.

However, she was decisive. “Since he has treated you this way, don’t bother yourself about him anymore. In the future, if you have any problems in the Imperial Capital, just look for me. The money he received back then is enough for him to spend the rest of his life in retirement. Don’t worry about his future.”

Su Cha smiled and did not say anything.

She would not care, but she did not say it.

Dai Xiaofu was still angry. She looked at Su Cha and hesitated. She thought of something and asked tentatively, “Su Cha, do you want to look for your biological parents?”

“Hmm?”

Su Cha looked up at her indifferently. “I’ll let fate decide.”

If she could find them, so be it. If she could not, so be it.

“I see...”

Dai Xiaofu lowered her head as if she was thinking about something.

It was obvious that something had happened.

Su Cha’s eyes flickered when she looked at her. But soon, she regained her composure.

Chapter 285: Different Treatment

After Su Cha finished practicing her song, Dai Xiaofu brought her back home for dinner.

While Su Cha was in the washroom, she called Bo Muyi.

“Muyi, I’m going to my mother’s house for dinner today. I’m not going back to the Lookout Pavilion for dinner. I’ll be back later.”

“Mother?”

Bo Muyi frowned slightly. He knew that Su Cha had met his mother, but he also knew that she was not Su Cha’s biological mother.

Dai Xiaofu’s current situation had been investigated. Although Su Cha could not return to the Lookout Pavilion on time, Bo Muyi himself was still in the company. Since Su Cha was going to her mother’s place, Bo Muyi thought about it for a while and agreed. “Okay. I’ll get the driver to pick you up after you eat. I’ll go home later tonight.”

Right now, he was busy with a lot of work.

“Okay.”

As soon as Su Cha hung up, Dai Xiaofu shouted, “Su Cha, are you done?”

“Yeah.”

Su Cha walked out. Dai Xiaofu asked her in amusement, “Who were you calling just now? A friend?”

“Um... boyfriend...”

She did not want to hide the existence of Bo Muyi, making it seem as if he could not be seen.

She was 18 now; it was normal for her to date.

Dai Xiaofu was surprised. “Boyfriend?”

She looked at Su Cha from head to toe, not finding it hard to accept. “You actually have a boyfriend, but with your conditions...”

There was nothing strange about Su Cha having a boyfriend. After all, she was so pretty, and there must be many suitors after her.

Su Cha smiled and did not explain further. Dai Xiaofu casually said, “Who is your boyfriend? Do you want to bring him to meet me someday?”

Although she was not Su Cha’s biological mother, Dai Xiaofu had always felt responsible for Su Cha. Though she said this herself, she was just stunned for a moment. Then, she looked at Su Cha and could not help but laugh.

Su Cha nodded. "If there's a chance, I can bring him to meet you. But he's busy with work. I've been busy with participating in the competition recently. If there's a chance in the future, I will bring him along."

Dai Xiaofu waved her hand. "You don't really have to. You're still young. It's not a big deal for you to be in a relationship. I was just saying it casually. You don't have to take it to heart. You haven't even entered university. You're making it seem like you're going to be in a relationship for life."

Wasn't that exactly Su Cha's intention?

Su Cha curled her lips and did not say it.

Su Cha followed Dai Xiaofu home and saw Dai Xiaofu's current husband. He was a very honest local.

His name was Qu Hai.

Their son was currently at school, so Su Cha did not see him.

Su Cha called Dai Xiaofu's husband Uncle, but this uncle was friendly to her. He could not help but keep mentioning the fact that Su Cha was a top scorer. During the meal, he could not stop smiling, but he was a little reserved. He probably did not dare to show too much affection to Su Cha. He was just an uncle.

He seemed to be very proud of Su Cha's high score. Even when Su Cha was about to leave, he said, "From now on, you can treat this place as your home. Come, your brother is about to enter high school. His grades are average. With a sister like you as an example, he will definitely work harder."

He was already treating Su Cha as a family.

However, he did not go overboard. After all, he knew that Su Cha was living elsewhere, so he did not tell her to stay over.

But this attitude was like heaven and earth compared to Su Mingzhe's treatment of her.
