

The Queen 376

Chapter 376: It's Best to Be Cautious

"Xiao Cha has just returned home. She's likely not familiar with us yet."

Ruan Yin did not think that it was wrong for Su Cha to ignore her. She was happy that Su Cha did not object to Ruan Yin calling her Xiao Cha.

Zuo Shaoxin gave Su Cha a meaningful look. "Maybe."

After he said that, he hugged Zuo Nanfan and said, "I'll ask the butler to make arrangements for our eldest daughter to come back tonight. We should celebrate."

Su Cha felt that this family was unusual.

Did a paternity test not need to be done?

"Don't you need to do a paternity test?"

Before Su Cha could do so, someone else had impatiently asked this question.

Zuo Zhici looked at Su Cha and at Zuo Shaoxin, looking a little anxious. "Father, how do you know that she is your daughter? Why didn't you tell me about it beforehand? Did you ever plan to explain it to us?"

Zuo Shaoxin turned around. Although he did not agree with Zuo Zhici, there was still affection in his eyes. "Zhici, isn't it the same if you know about these things now or before? As for your sister, we've already investigated her before she came back. She has been outside for so many years, unlike you who has always been by our side. You should be polite to her."

Zuo Zhici: "..."

She clenched her fists and glared at Su Cha reluctantly.

Su Cha restrained herself.

At least she was a younger sister. Maybe she was even a biological one.

It was illegal to strangle her.

Zuo Shaoxin kissed Ruan Yin's forehead. "I still have some things to attend to. Tell Xiao Cha about it. It doesn't matter if we don't know each other right now. We will get to know each other sooner or later."

With that, he carried Zuo Nanfan and left.

It was obvious from his words that he was very domineering.

He gave orders, or rather, he was used to being followed. It never crossed his mind that Su Cha's unfamiliarity with this dynamic would be a problem.

It seemed that the moment Su Cha returned to the Zuo family, some things were already destined.

Su Cha could tell what he was implying. Her lips suddenly curved into a smile. Ruan Yin looked over and was stunned by Su Cha's smile.

She felt that Su Cha was indeed her daughter.

But apart from her appearance, this daughter looked more like her husband, Shaoxin.

She could tell from that cold smile.

After all, children resemble their parents.

Ruan Yin comforted herself in her heart.

"Xiao Cha, eat here tonight, okay?"

Ruan Yin continued with a pleading tone, “We know that all of this is too sudden for you, but we are too happy. We’d wanted to bring you back earlier. I will slowly explain what happened in the future, so can you come back to us?”

Su Cha looked at the time and stood up. “I still have to participate in an audition tomorrow. I believe that you know that I’m participating in a singing program? Before the proof is revealed, you shouldn’t have such high hopes for me. At least let me see the paternity test first, okay?”

She was smiling, but her smile did not reach her eyes.

The word “proof” made Ruan Yin’s heart turn cold.

She was distant and cold, without any affection at all, and poured a bucket of cold water on Ruan Yin.

“We look so alike...”

She could feel that Su Cha was her daughter. Her daughter.

She gave birth to her after ten months of them being together. Could she not feel it?

“It’s impossible to determine just by looking. There are many people who look alike in this world. Madam, your family is wealthy. It’s best to be cautious about these things, right?”

Chapter 377: How Can She Be So Arrogant Before She’s Even Returned?

Every word seemed to be in consideration for the Zuo family, but Ruan Yin could tell that Su Cha felt the opposite.

She did not like them.

Ruan Yin was both disappointed and sad. Why did this daughter whom she had not seen for many years dislike them?

They were her biological parents!

Zuo Zhici was surprised by Su Cha's decisive rejection.

At first, she thought that Su Cha had come back to the Zuo family shamelessly. As the only daughter of the Zuo family, Zuo Zhici had immediately disagreed when she thought about the possibility of her exclusive love being shared.

Some time ago, when her friends saw this contestant on television, they'd called her to mock her for having such a close relationship with that contestant's family. Zuo Zhici felt uncomfortable.

She was the daughter of the Zuo family, the famous daughter of the Zuo family in the Imperial Capital. What right did a lowly family have to be like her?

At that time, she did not think much about it, but she disliked Su Cha and thought that she must have had plastic surgery.

A few days later, she suddenly appeared in the Zuo family.

What did her mother and father say? Oh, this was her sister.

What a world-class joke!

Zuo Zhici almost went crazy. No matter what the reason was, Zuo Zhici was happy that Su Cha rejected them. She quickly said, "Yes, yes, Mom, we must do a paternity test. Who knows what she's here for? Doesn't she know the identity of our Zuo family? Mom, we should weed out those who enter our Zuo family with unknown motives. We can't let others see us as a joke."

Ruan Yin's face turned pale at her words. She looked at Su Cha awkwardly. "Su Cha, your sister does not..."

"Have you finished acting?"

There was a hint of mockery and coldness in Su Cha's smile. "If you haven't acted enough, I recommend joining a production crew so you could perform to your heart's content."

Zuo Zhici kept silent as if her throat was being choked.

She was clearly someone she did not want to admit it, but why did she feel that Su Cha resembled her father at this moment?

Sometimes, her father had such a scary expression when teaching them.

The confrontation between the two sisters gave Ruan Yin a headache. At this time, as a newly found child, Su Cha was definitely favored. “Zhici, go back to your room and prepare the materials for school. Don’t be so unruly. By the way, your sister is the provincial champion of this year’s examination. She will also study at the Imperial Capital University like you.”

Both of their expressions changed when they heard her words.

One was in disbelief that the other was the provincial champion while the other was not expecting such bad luck.

Moreover, the Zuo family had indeed investigated the matter. The news of her applying for the Imperial Capital University’s performance department had not been spread out yet, but they already knew about it.

As if worried that Su Cha would ask, Ruan Yin could not help but smile as she explained, “Zhici wanted to get into college as soon as possible, so she skipped a grade. She will be in her first year in the Imperial Capital University like you.”

Zuo Zhici rolled her eyes at Su Cha.

Her expression had changed and she almost shouted in anger:

Who is she looking down on? I’m a genius!

How could she be so arrogant before she’d even returned to the Zuo family?

The more Zuo Zhici thought about it, the more aggrieved she felt. She felt that if this sister returned to the Zuo family, her life would no longer be good.

She felt that it would be impossible. She wanted to complain, and she wanted to go to her grandparents so they could back her up.

Chapter 378: Hatred for Her Biological Parents

Su Cha could feel that Zuo Zhici was quite a drama queen.

On the other hand, Ruan Yin was good at love scenes. If her expression softened and her eyes turned red, Su Cha would have a headache.

This headache was not pity. What she wanted to do was curse.

Hence, Su Cha refused to eat with them.

Since Ruan Yin could not stop Su Cha, she had to ask a driver to send her back.

Of course, they could only follow Su Cha's request for the paternity test.

After all, it could be seen that if Su Cha did not see the report, she would never acknowledge them.

After returning to the dormitory, the first thing Su Cha did was to call Bo Muyi.

"Muyi, I saw my biological parents today."

Back when the girl took a shower, he'd watched the video of a man lying asleep on the bed, looking as handsome as a god. He saw a girl's legs swaying from side to side, looking pure and lively.

She was an innocent girl who was only 18 years old. Su Cha should be in this state, but she had to face many complicated things.

Only in front of Bo Muyi could Su Cha completely relax. She did not mind showing him her relaxed state at all.

Although she was talking about her biological parents, her tone did not contain much emotion.

Bo Muyi raised his eyebrows slightly. “Hmm, how does Cha Cha feel?”

The girl frowned and tried hard to come up with an adjective. “I feel... a headache...”

She did not tell him about the inexplicable hatred in her heart, but she stated what she felt directly on the surface. “One of them seems to like to cry, the other is like a drama queen, going crazy from time to time. Then there’s a little brother and a father. I can feel that my father is very controlling.”

If Zuo Zhici heard Su Cha’s description, she would definitely die.

Bo Muyi hummed in acknowledgment and asked Su Cha gently, “It’s Madam Zuo who likes to cry. Is your sister an actress? Hmm, I know Zuo Shaoxin. He’s not easy to get along with. But if you feel wronged, you have to tell me that you won’t acknowledge them anymore.”

Su Cha: “...”

To be honest, in this world, no one could compare to Bo Muyi in terms of being difficult to get along with.

But as a girlfriend, how could she embarrass her boyfriend?

Su Cha could not help but say, “How can I suffer? I didn’t say anything to him, but I still have to wait for the paternity test...”

“The Zuo family’s paternity test is out.”

Bo Muyi continued to tell her the truth gently, “They will not do anything baseless. The result of the paternity test came out today. You are indeed their biological daughter.”

Su Cha frowned. “Then why didn’t they say anything?”

Bo Mui's eyes flickered. "Maybe they are preparing something. But, Cha Cha, you don't have to worry about it. The Zuo family can't trap you. If they do anything, just let nature take its course. Do what you want to do. Don't worry about other things."

"Yes!"

Su Cha was not surprised by Bo Mui's quick news.

Although she had confirmed it in her heart, Su Cha was still puzzled when she found out.

How could there be a daughter in this world who hated her biological parents?

She remembered that she was abandoned when she was young. She had no memories...

Su Cha's eyes narrowed. The memory she lost was related to her biological parents. How could they appear again?

What exactly made her hate them so much?

Chapter 379: Untitled

Other than being surprised by it, the Zuo family's matter was within Su Cha's range of acceptance.

At this moment, participating in the competition was the most important.

Under the increasingly tense atmosphere, the semi-finals began.

This was the crucial period of the competition.

Su Cha did not pay much attention to the competition, but at the end, she felt that singing was a joyful thing.

She liked singing in her past life, but she did not pay much attention to it.

She could participate in the competition because of her voice.

She might not be able to immerse herself in it yet.

Only when the real deal started would she feel that love.

All contestants had to go all out for the Top 20 in the national competition. No one could easily pass, not even Su Cha.

At the very least, she had to work hard to make people see her improvement.

Faced with the audience, Su Cha chose a song this time around that was more normal and lyrical. With her unique voice, the feeling that her singing gave was intoxicating. Moreover, she was in love, so her interpretation of the love song was quite good.

The judges had changed to famous people in the industry. Basically, the judges would change every week. Soon, a superstar would appear. Other than Yu Siqing, the judges did not show any malicious intent towards Su Cha.

Her performance was fair.

The Top 20 would become Top 15. This time, six would be selected.

Ten people in one group. Top three.

The selection standards for Dreams in Progress had always been fair and rough.

After the ten contestants finished their performances, the audience would vote. Together with the judges' scores, the top three would pass.

As expected, Su Cha passed again.

And she was number one.

Even the host was surprised.

It was not surprising that Su Cha could pass. She was exceptionally beautiful among the contestants, and her aura was imposing. Many people would favor Su Cha's appearance.

However, the audience who came in every week was different, but Su Cha always managed to keep the first place in the competition and directly advance to the top. It was basically impossible for other contestants to do this.

Some of the remaining contestants never had to enter the waiting area, but they were also never the first to pass.

Even so, the votes were not fake. This was simply how a person was promoted. But while no one would say anything, it was a sign that a storm was approaching.

After the competition, Su Cha returned to her seat. Many contestants congratulated her.

There were fewer and fewer contestants left. Su Cha would at least be familiar with these contestants, but at present, she did not have any special interactions with anyone. Ever since Jin Mou left, she had basically never talked to other contestants.

Everyone was also afraid of Su Cha. No one dared to say anything to her.

It was not until today's competition ended that everyone returned to the villa.

Since there were only 20 people, the results were out very quickly. Currently, only 14 people were left. The atmosphere was not as pleasant as before.

No one knew who would go next.

Chapter 380: Divide

When Su Cha and the rest returned to the villa, they saw many fans surrounding it with signs in their hands.

There would always be fans who would find out about their living here, so there were more and more people who came.

Many people would lie in wait for these contestants, hoping to get their attention.

“Ahhhh I’m back, Ka Lian, look here!!”

“Ka Lian! Ka Lian!!”

“Baby Shu Ran, look here!!!!”

“Handsome Gong, look over here!”

“Yin Tongying! Yin Tongying!!”

“Mingru, Mingru!!”

Today was the end of the competition. They would be back, so many fans would be waiting for them early.

Almost everyone screamed when they saw them.

With the crowd surrounding them, they felt like an international superstar.

Even though the competition had just ended, the contestants gathered their spirits to face this group of fans. They were happy to see their fans welcoming them. They got out of the car and smiled as they waved at their fans.

Su Cha was the last to get out of the car. When she got out of the car, she planned to enter the villa directly. However, through the crowd, she saw a group of fans who were standing at the side holding a support card for her.

Although the fans shouted, they did not expect Su Cha to really come over. When they saw her looking over, their eyes lit up and they screamed even louder.

Su Cha lifted her lips and walked over.

Those fans must have formed a group. Seeing Su Cha walking over, they were a little excited. “Su Cha... Su Cha!!”

“Su Cha, I like you so much! Can you give me an autograph?”

“Cha Niu... You are so beautiful!”

Su Cha smiled slightly. Her long hair was slightly draped over her shoulders. The light makeup on her face had not been removed, but it gave off the pure and quiet aura of a young girl. It felt as if one would be safe forever upon seeing her.

She tilted her face slightly and lowered her head. She took a pen and notebook from a fan and signed her name seriously.

As they were too close, a few fans could smell the fragrance of the shower dew coming from Su Cha’s body. The way she signed her name seriously showed that her skin was perfect and flawless. The fans became increasingly excited, and they could not help but want to touch her.

Even the fans of the other contestants could not help but look over.

When she was on TV, they did not think much of her. Now that they’re seeing her like this, they felt that she was indeed thinner than on TV, but she was still very healthy.

She was really beautiful.

Almost everyone sighed in their hearts.

After signing autographs for her fans, Su Cha returned the notebook to them with a bright smile. “Here, thank you for supporting me.”

“Ahhh, I will always support you!! Cha Niu, you have to do your best!”

“Su Cha, we will always call you CAL!”

The fans who got her autograph almost fainted in happiness. Su Cha smiled and turned around to follow the path the staff had blocked.

At this moment, everyone could clearly feel her strong aura. While other contestants were still smiling, greeting their fans, and signing autographs, she had already walked into the villa with her back straight and graceful. Compared to others, the feeling she gave was completely different.

Sometimes, this was how people differentiated.

The fans sighed in their hearts. No wonder Su Cha stood out so much during the photoshoot. The difference in aura was too obvious...
