

The Queen 396

Chapter 396: This Hobby Must Not Be Revealed

After hanging up the phone, Su Cha followed the man into a waiting room in the audition hall.

Someone poured her a cup of hot water. When the man was about to go out, Su Cha suddenly asked him, "How long have you been working for Miss Tan?"

The man glanced at her and left without saying anything.

Su Cha did not probe further.

After a while, Tan Yezhu arrived.

He was still dressed in a female outfit, which was a white jumpsuit and wide trousers. Other than his tall and slender figure, there was no trace of a man to be found.

He was also wearing a pair of pointed flats.

His face, to be honest, was stunningly beautiful. He had the aura of a strong woman.

His amorous eyes were upturned but appeared charming. He seemed to have put on some light makeup.

This was an existence that women would doubt was real if they saw it.

Su Cha was the same.

As soon as he entered, he smiled at Su Cha. "Hello, Sister Su Cha."

Su Cha did not want to put on an act with him. She could not help but laugh as she said, "Young Master Tan, I just asked Muyi about it. Let's stop pretending."

Tan Yezhu was not nervous at all. His narrow, upturned eyes blinked innocently. “What are you talking about? I don’t understand. If you are referring to Young Master Tan, he is my brother.”

Su Cha nodded. “That may be so, but that means the Tan family’s genes are truly excellent. You look as tall as your brother.”

Tan Yezhu covered his mouth and smiled again. “Yes, I’m very similar to my brother. Even our height is about the same. It’s just that very few people know that I have an older brother. I didn’t expect Sister Su Cha to know so much about it. Do you also know my brother’s good brother, Bo Muyi?”

Su Cha’s eyelids twitched.

He could not help but act like a woman. If Su Cha had not seen through him, she would not have suspected him.

Since the other party wanted to act, Su Cha would go along with him. She nodded seriously and said, “Yes, but Muyi doesn’t have a good impression of your brother. He said that your brother is a pervert.”

Tan Yezhu’s smile did not change, but he also complained, “Yes, I also think Brother is very perverted.”

Su Cha: “...”

He was really an extremely talented person.

Since the other party had been playing as a woman for a long time, he was very familiar with matters like this.

Even if he knew that Su Cha had seen through him, he could still act well and continue playing the role.

Tan Yezhu’s female guise must be famous. Su Cha had only been speaking to him for a short while when someone came forward to call him over. She was very polite with Miss Tan.

As Tan Yezhu left, he winked at Su Cha flirtatiously. “Sister Su Cha, I’m leaving. It was nice to chat with you. Let’s meet again next time.”

“...Goodbye.”

I hope I don’t see her again.

Although Tan Yezhu was good-looking in female clothing, it did not mean that Su Cha found him eye-catching.

It was purely an accident that she met Tan Yezhu while he’s in a female outfit, but that aside, the fact that Su Cha had passed the audition meant that she was officially entering the entertainment industry.

She sent the good news to Dai Xiaofu and Le Anqi.

She also informed Sister Wu He, who had been concerned about her.

Everyone was shocked and surprised by Su Cha’s decision to enter the entertainment industry.

But while everything else was unclear, Han Yongbing was at least a famous director.

Su Cha would really be in good hands acting under him.

Chapter 397: Meeting Jin Mou

That same day after the audition, Jin Mou asked Su Cha out for a walk.

Jin Mou had been staying in the villa this whole time. She was very tired of not being able to come out, so she secretly went out without telling her brother.

She had suddenly informed Su Cha of her plans, and Su Cha had not expected Jin Mou to come over. After receiving her call, though, she went out.

Jin Mou was waiting for Su Cha outside a restaurant. When Su Cha arrived in a taxi, she saw that Su Cha was very happy. She took out the mobile phone she had prepared and said, "Let's go eat together. After dinner, accompany me for a walk."

Su Cha asked subconsciously, "Does your brother know that you came out?"

Jin Mou shook her head then lowered it as she typed: [He's been refusing to let me out all this while, but I'm really going crazy staying in the villa. He wants to work, and there's only the master in the villa. What can I do?]

She was wearing a mask, but the helplessness in her eyes could not be concealed.

Su Cha also understood her. She was a patient to begin with. Now that she was trapped in the villa, she could not go anywhere. It would be hard for her to continue staying here.

"Forget it, I'll eat with you before sending you back."

Su Cha did not know what to do. Since Jin Mou was already here, of course she had to follow her around.

With her around to look after Jin Mou, nothing would happen. She just had to return to the villa after.

Jin Mou nodded happily when she heard Su Cha's reply.

The two of them entered the restaurant. Jin Mou told her that this was a restaurant that she often visited. It was delicious here, and she had been starving recently.

Su Cha did not understand Jin Mou's current situation. "Your brother just asked you to stay there and not let you go anywhere. Why?"

If it was so dangerous, could Jin Duan not give up whatever he was working on for his sister's safety?

Jin Mou shook her head. [I don't know either. Brother just said that it was very dangerous. He said that the suspect's partner would seek revenge, but would that place be any safer? Besides, he didn't tell me when it would be resolved.]

Su Cha could not help but ask, "What about your parents?"

He was worried about his sister's safety, but what about his parents?

[Brother said that they will be fine. The only one who is not safe is me, and he doesn't want me to go back. He can only let me stay in the Imperial Capital. I don't know why.]

After she finished her sentence, she paused for a while and continued to send a message to Su Cha. [I don't know what Brother does exactly. He seems to be a police officer, but he is often busy with strange things. My parents are the same. They always say things that I don't understand. I don't know when my brother's master met him or what kind of master he is. When I was in the villa, he refused to say anything. Sometimes, I feel very gloomy.]

Su Cha immediately understood.

Jin Mou knew nothing about the things that Jin Duan had been busy with in the shadows.

But Jin Mou's parents were well aware of the situation.

Otherwise, there was no reason why only Jin Mou was being protected.

There must be another reason. Jin Mou's parents were safe, but Jin Mou was not.

She was just an ordinary person. Jin Duan could not protect her, so he entrusted her to his master.

Yet it seemed that Wu Lin's existence was being kept a secret. She had lived for so many years and had never heard of Wu Lin. This had only started to change after she was reborn.

Even if he existed, that knowledge could not be exposed to ordinary people.

If he were to go out into the open, Wu Lin would be very dangerous for ordinary people.

Chapter 398: Ambush

After eating with Jin Mou, who did not seem to be in a good mood, Su Cha accompanied her around the Imperial Capital.

They were quite famous now, so Su Cha simply put on a pair of sunglasses, which could at least block most probing eyes.

The girl's mood was also very comforting. Jin Mou was walking around the mall. After buying some perfume and clothes, she looked quite happy.

The difference between Su Cha and Jin Mou was obvious. Whenever Jin Mou saw something, Su Cha would just stand there and look at her. In contrast with Jin Mou, she seemed to be disinterested.

Jin Mou's hands were never empty. She was busy trying on clothes and did not have time to type messages to Su Cha. Therefore, she could only use her expressions to relay her confusion, and Su Cha shook her head but did not say anything.

After she came out with a bag of things, Jin Mou's phone was bombarded by Jin Duan.

It was obvious he'd discovered the fact that Jin Mou had run away secretly. Jin Mou just stuck out her tongue, pressed on the phone, and sent a message to Jin Duan.

The general idea was that Su Cha would send her back since they were together.

Jin Duan stopped calling.

Even so, he was still worried and even wanted to pick her up.

Jin Mou thought about it and asked him to go to the subway station.

They lived in the suburbs where only cars could get to. The nearest subway entrance was a few thousand meters away from them. Therefore, after Su Cha had sent her to the subway station, she could take the subway back immediately.

However, Jin Mou felt that this was a little unfair. It was not safe for Su Cha to return home alone after sending her home.

As she was worried about Su Cha, Jin Mou simply went to the subway station where she could instead wait for her brother.

This subway station was not the last stop. It was just the nearest transit station. Usually, there were few people around, and it was almost nighttime.

Occasionally, only two or three passersby would come down from a few cars. When it got dark, the subway station lit up with dim yellow lights, and Jin Duan arrived shortly.

He reprimanded Jin Mou and thanked Su Cha before they left for home.

Jin Mou waved goodbye to Su Cha. After they got into the car, Su Cha smiled and watched them leave.

The moment she turned around, she heard a loud explosion.

Bang!

Her pupils constricted. She quickly turned around and saw that Jin Duan's car had stopped before it left the subway station.

At the same time, from the faint darkness, a few figures rushed towards the car.

She could hear Jin Mou screaming in fear and Jin Duan's angry voice.

Without hesitation, Su Cha ran towards the car.

As she rushed over, the shadows of two secret guards behind her also rushed out.

Jin Duan did not expect to be ambushed. The sudden explosion of the tires was obviously caused by someone using something to blow them up. The hard tires looked as if they were just toys after those people messed with them. A few figures rushed towards Jin Duan and Jin Mou.

Jin Duan could only shout, "Run!"

However, the only place Jin Mou could run to was the back of the car, and she was horrified to see his brother jump out and fight with this handful of figures. His movements were beyond ordinary fighting.

After that, there were too many people. Two people wrapped around Jin Duan and headed straight for Jin Mou. When the masked man reached his hand past the car window to grab Jin Mou, Jin Mou felt a sharp pain in her throat. She wanted to scream but could not.

Bang!

At that moment, the person who wanted to grab her head suddenly bumped against the car roof uncontrollably.

Jin Mou noticed that the person's mask had slipped off and he fell to the ground in pain.

Behind her, Jin Mou saw a pair of familiar cold eyes, which were filled with hostility that she had never seen before.

Chapter 399: Forced Back

The scene changed almost instantly.

Jin Duan never thought that Su Cha would suddenly turn around and come back. But now that he was being pestered by someone, there was no way he could divert more attention to Su Cha.

Jin Mou, who was sitting in the car, looked at Su Cha with fear in her eyes.

The girl's expression was no longer as cold and indifferent as usual. Instead, there was a rare ruthlessness.

After one of them was knocked out by her, another man quickly reacted and attacked Su Cha. Jin Mou saw Su Cha's head turn away as if she was in a martial arts drama. The man's attack slid past her ear, and in the next second, the sound of bones breaking could be heard.

Su Cha grabbed his arm with lightning speed. The sound was so loud that it could make one break out in a cold sweat.

The two secret guards who were protecting Su Cha were stunned when they saw Su Cha's actions. However, there were more than a few people who were attacking them, so they were quickly entangled by the others.

At this moment, Jin Mou only saw the girl lowering her head and speaking to her without hesitation. "Stay in the car, close the car window, and don't come out."

Jin Mou nodded instinctively and closed the car window as Su Cha had instructed.

It was dark outside. After closing the car window, Jin Mou could only make out the general situation.

Whoosh...

There was a piercing sound. Su Cha squinted her eyes and moved her fingers. In an instant, she grabbed a silver needle.

She looked in the direction the silver needle had come from. There were black shadows in the green belt on the roadside.

This aura gave Su Cha a sense of familiarity.

The villa...

She recalled the person she'd sensed when she was talking on the phone with Bo Muyi in the villa.

Su Cha immediately understood that it was Jin Mou who had been targeted.

However, time did not allow her to think too much. The silver needle missed, which surprised the other party for a moment. Then, multiple silver needles shot out from the green belt.

The speed was very fast. Su Cha already knew the power of the silver needle. The performance Tang Keruo had displayed in front of her last time was very exciting.

Without hesitation, she circulated her inner force until she reached her limits. Her body became like a ghost as she quickly dodged all the silver needles.

Bang!

A silver needle pierced the tire again, causing it to explode. The loud noise and the shaking of the car made Jin Mou panic.

“Miss Su!” a secret guard said anxiously.

They saw the dense attack, but they were also entangled in it. They’d wanted to escape to save Su Cha, but when they saw her ghostly movements, they were shocked.

Su Cha went straight to the green belt. At that moment, she circulated her inner force in her body. She had only been cultivating for a short time. It was too difficult for her right now, but she did not think much about it to save others.

The moment she approached the green belt, the neatly trimmed plants suddenly swayed violently. The figures who were hiding in the darkness were surprised upon suddenly encountering something beyond their expectations. At that moment, Su Cha approached the green belt and attacked one of them.

The few people who were hiding in the darkness retreated quickly. At this moment, the one-meter-long layer of branches in front of Su Cha seemed to have been cut off by a strange force. The cut looked like it was made by a sharp knife, and it shot towards the retreating people with a cold light.

Chapter 400: Exhaustion

Those people were especially caught off guard.

They had retreated quickly, but before they could get far, they were struck by a bunch of branches. At that moment, their black clothes were torn apart.

While everyone was shocked, Su Cha was already approaching. The secret guards behind her had already finished dealing with their own opponents and rushed over. A man shouted anxiously, "Let's retreat first!"

Everyone immediately retreated without hesitation.

Su Cha saw that and stopped in her tracks.

In the shadows, only Su Cha's porcelain white face could be seen through the light from the subway station not far away.

There was no emotion on her face, and while it was pale, it did not affect the aura around her.

If an Asura[1] stood before them, it would naturally give people a sense of horror.

Everything had seemed complicated, but it only took a few seconds.

The retreating people were quick. When the secret guards finally caught up with her, one of them asked nervously, "Miss Su, are you okay?"

Su Cha suddenly coughed softly and said tiredly, "I'm fine."

Her eyes were shockingly bright as she walked toward Jin Duan and Jin Mou.

The two secret guards looked at each other and saw a bunch of branches scattered on the ground. There was obvious shock in their eyes.

They were entangled just now, and the time was too tight. They did not see what was happening here, but Su Cha had dared to attack alone and had even forced the other party to retreat.

What kind of person was this girl whom their young master had ordered them to protect?

Su Cha was exhausted.

She was too anxious just now and had had no choice but to circulate all the inner force that she could use in her body. She used her inner force to draw out heaven and earth's origin energy, turning it into a physical attack method that cut the vegetation in front of her.

This might seem unbelievable in modern society, but in fact, it was just the tip of her iceberg when she was in ancient times.

If she could cultivate to the peak, she could use a leaf and a petal to hurt people.

She was not joking.

However, in this current society, such methods were almost extinct. Su Cha had exposed herself tonight, so she did not know if the other party could guess.

Although Su Cha did not know who had attacked Jin Duan and Jin Mou, she reckoned that it had something to do with the Tang Sect.

Other than the Tang Sect, there was no one else who used silver needles as an attack method.

Jin Duan had just been injured in his hurry and his face was pale. When he saw Su Cha, he had just finished confirming that his sister was fine. Now that he saw Su Cha, he was shocked. "You..."

Although Jin Duan did not see it clearly, he knew that Su Cha was not an ordinary person.

Jin Duan knew very well who'd sent the people who attacked them.

Su Cha was really scary to be able to force back a few people at the same time.

Su Cha stopped Jin Duan from continuing. "It's not safe here. Let's go back to your villa. I'll call a taxi."

At this time, Su Cha was still in the mood. After saying that, she took out her phone from her pocket and called for an online taxi.

Jin Duan: "..."

He had many questions to ask, but when he saw the exhaustion on the girl's face, he did not speak.

[1] A member of a class of divine beings in the Vedic period, which in Indian mythology tend to be evil and in Zoroastrianism are benevolent.