Chapter 401: I Beg Miss Su to Save the Star Alliance from Danger

When she got into the taxi, Su Cha leaned against the car window, looking a little sleepy.

It was not because she was sleepy, but because she was in low spirits.

Just now, she'd had to force herself to use her inner force to attack. It was a little difficult, and her body had been drained.

Hence, she seemed to be down.

After all, her inner force was not strong enough.

If it were otherwise, such a sneak attack would not have stopped there.

Jin Mou was shocked. Everything that had happened tonight was beyond her imagination, although she did not see any other way to explain it.

She lay in Jin Duan's arms while Jin Duan kept his eyes on Su Cha.

The man's thin lips were slightly pale. Seeing Su Cha's pale face, he asked hoarsely, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine. I just need to rest."

Su Cha knew what he was thinking. "You better not ask anything."

Jin Duan: "..."

The taxi driver looked at Su Cha and Jin Duan in surprise through the rearview mirror, as well as at Jin Mou, who was sitting between them.

He must be imagining that a long drama had gone down.

When they arrived at the villa, Jin Duan brought Jin Mou in. Although he was very grateful to Su Cha, his sister was currently in shock. He wanted to comfort Jin Mou first, so he said to Su Cha, "I'll bring Jin Mou back to the room first and call the master. You can sit here and rest. Don't worry, it's very safe here. Those people won't dare to come."

Su Cha did not look as exhausted as before. She just lowered her eyes and sat down, rubbing her temples. "I'm not worried about them. It's you who need to worry."

Jin Duan glanced at her worriedly and eventually brought Jin Mou with him.

After entering the room, although Jin Mou was still flustered, she had recovered a lot. She looked at Jin Duan nervously and pointed outside. Jin Duan immediately said gently, "Don't worry, she should be fine. I will look after her."

Jin Mou nodded.

Jin Duan went out of the room and knocked on another door.

He opened the door and saw that the master was not asleep.

He'd lit a candle and was sitting in meditation.

Although the scene was a little scary, it also exuded a sense of desolation for no reason. The candlelight contrasted with Jin Duan's pale face. "Master, they still made a move. Jin Mou and I were attacked."

The old man opened his eyes. There was no panic on his face. Instead, he said calmly, "I've calculated that the fact that you can come back today proves that something has happened."

As he spoke, he stood up. "Let's go. The one who really must be welcomed this time is your benefactor!"

As soon as he walked out, Jin Duan followed him.

When he arrived downstairs, he saw the view of someone's beautiful back sitting in the living room. He was not surprised at all. A faint smile finally appeared on his aged face. "Miss Su, I'm sorry for not welcoming you."

Su Cha turned around and saw him. She stood up and nodded at Shi Wei. "Hello, old sir."

"Please have a seat."

Su Cha sensed that Shi Wei was much more polite than before.

Perhaps Jin Duan had already told him about what happened.

Jin Duan followed behind Shi Wei. Seeing this scene, he did not say anything, but because he had not recovered from what had just happened, his face was more tense than usual.

After Shi Wei finished laughing, he suddenly said to Su Cha with a sad expression, "Miss Su, I know that this is out of the blue, but I beg you to save the Star Alliance from danger."

Su Cha was stunned.

Chapter 402: The Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect

Jin Duan was surprised.

After a long while, Su Cha finally smiled and forced out, "Old sir, what are you talking about? I don't understand."

"Miss Su, I've already predicted what has happened today. If my disciple and his sister could return alive, it means that the person they are destined to meet has really appeared. Given that, why else would Miss Su appear here?"

Su Cha raised her eyebrows, “Old sir, it’s now the 21st century. Why are you still talking about feudal superstition? What kind of noble person are you speaking of?”

Although she was smiling calmly, she was obviously pushing back at him.

Shi Wei sighed. “Miss Su, the first time I met you, I knew you were not an ordinary person. We can also speak openly. If you really refuse to agree, I will not force you. I will just take it that our Star Alliance has run out of time.”

Su Cha fell silent.

Star Alliance.

She was not unfamiliar with it. She had occasionally heard Bo Muyi’s conversations.

There were also two other associations, the Killing Alliance and the Martial Alliance.

Su Cha did not know what they were.

Seeing her silence, Shi Wei knew that she was not just being flippant.

He smiled slowly and sat down. He looked as amiable as an ordinary old man. “Miss Su has watched TV before. You must be familiar with the martial arts world, right? Have you heard of the martial arts world, the Tang Sect, and the Shaolin?”

Su Cha nodded and smiled. “That was all done on TV. It’s the 21st century now.”

“Isn’t Miss Su very familiar about such knowledge?”

Shi Wei was confident and started to speak without shying away. “In fact, in the hundreds of years since the rise of the martial arts world, our heritage has never been broken. But in the end, too much time has passed. The ancient martial arts manuals and legends left behind by our ancestors from ancient times have mostly been lost. As Miss Su has said, the world has begun to develop rapidly. Technology is the future of mankind. Our traditional martial arts schools in China have also begun to decline. Among the few major sects, only the Shaolin, the Wudang, the Tang Sect, the Beggar Sect, and the Heaven's Secrets Sect, which is where we are, still have their inheritance. Most of the other sects have already ceased to exist. In order to continue our lineage and legacy, we have to build our own hidden clans, enter the countryside, and work with the dust. Only then could we maintain our current situation."

Su Cha was speechless.

She really did not expect that what she had thought was in the past really still existed.

Seeing that she was silent, Shi Wei continued, "Our Star Union has been created by different factions in various sects over the years. In order to consolidate and repair the decline of the current Pugilistic World, there are only two such associations. One is the Star Union and the other is the Martial Union. They have been established during the Ming dynasty and have been continuing to this day. In the existing sects, different families have chosen to attend different alliance meetings. Every thirty years, the Union will hold a martial arts assembly and select the most capable people to become the leader of the Union."

Hearing his words, Jin Duan seemed a little agitated. "Master..."

Shi Wei waved his hand and looked at Su Cha with a pair of amiable eyes. "Our Star Alliance is different from the Martial Alliance. The candidate to be the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance has always been the Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect. The Sect Master uses a divination technique to find the most suitable candidate for the position of Alliance Master. As for me, I am the Sect Master of this generation."

Chapter 403: The Star Alliance Is in Your Hands

Su Cha's eyes flickered.

In fact, she was no stranger to these sects because, during her time in Yun Tang, martial arts did exist.

Otherwise, she would not have possessed heaven-defying martial arts.

At that time, martial arts sects and the Imperial Court were in charge of their own matters. Due to her change in circumstances, she had become someone who suppressed martial arts sects for decades until she suddenly returned to the modern world.

She had heard of the Heaven's Secrets Sect before. Most of the people in the sect used the art of fortune-telling. Even the Imperial Court trusted the people of the Heaven's Secrets Sect and often asked them to predict the luck of the Imperial Court.

At that time, Su Cha did not believe in such things. However, after experiencing two rebirths, she'd started to respect fate.

Hence, she believed Shi Wei's words.

However, she did not expect the Heaven's Secrets Sect to still exist.

Su Cha suddenly understood what the old man meant.

As Shi Wei spoke, tears welled up in his old eyes. "A few months ago, I predicted that a new leader of the Star Alliance was going to be assassinated. I saw the Star Alliance's end."

"Now, it's not just us and the Martial Alliance. Those who had betrayed their factions have formed an alliance called the Killing Alliance. Their goal is to get rid of the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance. Such a war has even spread to the surface world. If we fight to the death among you, the country will be affected. Now, not only are we facing the threat of the Killing Alliance, but the internal unity of the Star Alliance will also fall apart. If I can't find a suitable candidate, I'm afraid those people will rebel."

Shi Wei slammed the table angrily.

Jin Duan quickly held him up. Even though his face was tense, it was evident he could not bear to see this sight. "Master, don't be angry over those people."

"But I don't understand why you are telling me this."

The girl's eyes were still calm. Even after she heard these things, she did not seem to be affected. "I am not from the Pugilistic World. Before this, I did not know about your existence."

Shi Wei looked at Su Cha and smiled slowly. There was a hint of pity and helplessness in his smile. “I know what you mean, Miss Su. However, the Star Alliance now has no leader. The old leader of the Star Alliance has already passed away. I have not dared to announce this news yet. The next meeting will be held in two months. If I can’t find a suitable candidate by then, the Star Alliance will fall apart and the people of the Killing Alliance will be satisfied.”

Su Cha blinked. “Jin Duan is also your disciple? Then why was he attacked?”

Jin Duan said in a deep voice, “The dispute between me and the Star Alliance has nothing to do with it. The reason why I was attacked and Jin Mou was implicated was because of what happened to you last time. A rather unexpected person died. He was a traitor of the Tang Sect and had joined the Killing Alliance. Among the hidden clans, there is one called the Bo family whose influence is the largest among all the aristocratic families. The person in charge now is temperamental and unpredictable. Last month, he sent someone to kill this traitor, yet now the Tang Sect is still looking for trouble. The people of the Killing Alliance don’t dare to find trouble with the Bo family for the time being. They put the blame on us because the Tang Sect traitor passed through the Earth Domain, which is my territory.”

Su Cha: “...”

Could this Bo family be that of the one she doted on?

Before Su Cha could ponder over the matter, Shi Wei had already revealed his true intention: “My request is for the Star Alliance to be handed to Miss Su.”

Chapter 404: Reason

Su Cha was surprised.

Although she was mentally prepared, she still found Shi Wei’s request ridiculous.

“Old sir, do you believe in your divinations so much that you’d hand over the so-called Star Alliance to a stranger like me? Do you know my background?”

Even the Heaven’s Secrets Sect could not believe his actions.

It was like a gamble, and Shi Wei was the crazy gambler.

How could he be sure that if he handed the Star Alliance to Su Cha, the result would be good?

Shi Wei sighed. "I've never made a mistake in my life about my predictions. When the Star Alliance is at its end, I saw a chance to turn things around. And Miss Su is the turning point. When you appeared, I knew that the Star Alliance has a chance."

Ordinary people would think that Shi Wei was talking nonsense.

Although Su Cha believed him, it did not mean that she was willing to be involved. It was just that she had just saved Jin Duan. Not only would Bo Muyi find out about it, but he would also be afraid that she would be targeted.

After all, she was too eye-catching.

At the thought of this, Su Cha asked, "The person chasing after Jin Duan is the person who killed the Alliance Master?"

Jin Duan nodded. Now he understood what his master meant. Moreover, he did not hide the fact that Su Cha had saved them outside.

"Every sect is divided into several family clans and factions. Each faction chooses a different alliance, and those who betray the alliance have mostly entered the Killing Alliance. My senior brother also died in their hands. Their goal is to prevent the Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance from having peace so that they could take advantage of the situation and infiltrate. The person who died under your building last time was killed by a passing Tang Sect traitor. We don't know why he killed this person, but there is no evidence. That traitor is also dead."

At this point, Jin Duan's expression suddenly changed. "Were you aware when that person died last time?"

Su Cha suddenly smiled without saying anything.

Seeing her expression, Jin Duan knew that he had made a mistake.

Not only did the person in front of him know, but she also knew very well.

He frowned.

From the information he'd gathered, Su Cha was just an ordinary person. She had no way to get in touch with the martial arts world. Where did she learn all her martial arts?

It was dark just now and he was too far away. He did not see how Su Cha had forced those people to retreat, but he knew that her martial arts was definitely not weak. Otherwise, she would not have shown such strength.

Of course, if Jin Duan knew what Su Cha had done, he would be dumbfounded.

Seeing Su Cha's expression, Shi Wei sighed again. "If you don't agree, I will not force you."

Su Cha glanced at Shi Wei and Jin Duan thoughtfully.

Actually, regardless of whether she agreed or not, she was already in trouble.

Today's incident was an accident. In time, Su Cha might be targeted by the people from the Killing Alliance.

At that time, she would be a celebrity. If she was too ambitious, someone might attack her.

Taking over the Star Alliance...

"Old sir, do you think many people in the Star Alliance are plotting against us?"

Shi Wei's eyes flickered. In the end, he said helplessly, "It's not that they want to rebel. It's just that the people from the Killing Alliance have been coveting us for a long time. It's hard to guarantee that the people after the Star Alliance would not be able to infiltrate it. If the Star Alliance does not have a successor this time, they will overturn my fate. If the people from the Killing Alliance were to rise to power, I can't imagine what would happen."

Shi Wei had no choice but to explain everything to Su Cha.

Chapter 405: Which Side Does the Bo Family Belong to?

Su Cha squinted her eyes.

According to her observations of the secret guards and the group of people who had just retreated, many ancient martial artists had weakened even now.

It was basically impossible to see anyone with inner force. Su Cha could practice such martial arts and so had a huge advantage.

She was not afraid of taking over, but she did not know if it would be a problem for her.

Su Cha thought for a while. "Then why did this affect Jin Mou?"

If the people from the Killing Alliance wanted to deal with Jin Duan, how could they attack Jin Duan's sister, Jin Mou?

"Because Jin Mou is the successor chosen by Master."

Jin Duan's words raised Su Cha's eyebrows.

Shi Wei did not hide it anymore. "Jin Mou has great talent in predicting fate. I have already internally chosen her as my successor. However, she doesn't know about it yet. The Heaven's Secrets Sect has taken on the role of finding the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. Every generation's Alliance Master has been divined by the Heaven's Secrets Sect. The Alliance Master and the Heaven's Secrets Sect rely on each other. If we lose any one of the two, we will fall into chaos. In recent years, the Heaven's Secrets Chapter has been declining due to the difficulty of finding a successor, not to mention the fact that there are people from the Killing Alliance eyeing it."

Su Cha thought that Jin Duan was just Shi Wei's disciple, but she did not expect the real successor to be Jin Mou.

"Jin Mou doesn't know?"

Shi Wei nodded. "Jin Mou is different from being in the martial arts world since she was young. She has great talent, and my mantle can be passed down to her at any time. We just didn't want to expose her existence, but it's already too late. I don't know who leaked the news. If I have to guess, the people of the Killing Alliance have most likely suspected it, which is why they attacked Jin Mou. Once the successor of the Heaven's Secrets Sect is no longer around, I don't know how long it will take for me to find another suitable successor. Therefore, I really can't hold on for long."

Su Cha finally understood that Shi Wei was at the end of the road.

Jin Mou had to be kept a secret. There was no successor in the Star Alliance. There were indeed internal and external troubles.

Finding Su Cha was his last hope.

Destiny had always been unpredictable. Su Cha did not ask why it was her. She was just hesitating whether she should take over.

She was not afraid of trouble. She was actually very interested in the martial arts world.

Moreover, this matter seemed to have something to do with Bo Muyi.

After much thought, she asked, "Which side does the Bo family belong to?"

Hearing her mention the Bo family, Jin Duan and Shi Wei were slightly surprised. Then, Jin Duan answered, "Strictly speaking, the Bo family does not belong to any side. It can only be said that it has a deep relationship with the Martial Alliance. There is no sect backing it up, and it is a relatively neutral family. As the Bo family head is in control of the situation on the surface, Master is worried about the safety of the Star Alliance. We have no connection with these families now, and they hold power and wealth on the surface world. Many people are watching, which is why the people from the Killing Alliance are trying their best to get the Star and Martial Alliances."

Su Cha instantly understood.

The current martial arts Imperial Court was different from the past.

Hence, these sects and families were involved. The wealth and power of these families were the wealth and power of these associations.

They had already intertwined with each other.

If anything happened, the foundation of several families might get involved.

Seeing her hesitation, Shi Wei was filled with hope. “I am very sincere. If Miss Su is willing to take over the Star Alliance, I will not let Miss Su suffer.”
