

The Queen 476

Chapter 476: The Most Important Person Beside Him

After returning from the old lady's place, Su Cha was thinking about the Star Alliance.

It was obvious now. If she did not tell Bo Mui everything now, she would not be able to explain herself later.

"You said you have something to tell me."

Bo Mui hooked Su Cha's fingers. "I'm listening."

He was ready to listen attentively. Su Cha thought about it several times and decided to tell him.

"Aren't you curious why I let the Cheng family go?"

"I'm curious."

He curled his lips and said the answer in his heart, "But I think you will say the reason when you want to."

Su Cha had mixed feelings. "You always knew that I was hiding something from you. Don't you want to know what it is?"

A strange light flashed in his eyes as he said in a low voice, "I only know that if Cha Cha was willing to say it, you would have said it long ago."

Because he knew that she would not say it, he did not ask.

Su Cha sighed in her heart.

How could she not love someone like Bo Mui?

She reached out and touched Bo Mui's hair. "I wanted to tell you earlier, but I didn't know how to say it. I already know about the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance. The Sect Master of the Star Alliance's Heaven's Secrets Sect, Shi Wei, had been looking for me. He found out that I'm a benefactor of the Star Alliance and entrusted the Star Alliance to me, so I'm the new Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. As for the Cheng family, I will settle scores with them during the Star Alliance Meeting, so I let them go."

"The Star Alliance?"

He did not look as surprised as Su Cha had imagined. Instead, he looked amused. "How did Cha Cha get involved with the Star Alliance?"

He had always talked about these things in front of Su Cha, but he had never explained them in detail. He'd been sad that this naughty girl did not ask.

In fact, he knew it clearly in his heart.

"Did you know that I had a roommate called Jin Mou who was participating in the show? Her brother is Shi Wei's disciple. Besides... he was the one who'd dealt with the death of someone downstairs back in Yonggu City. However, I just took over the position and don't know anything about it yet. Shi Wei once said that a Tang Sect traitor died in the hands of the Bo family. Is this Bo family referring to you?"

This was the only thing Su Cha could not understand.

Bo Mui's eyelashes fluttered. Instead of answering Su Cha's question, he asked, "How does Cha Cha know martial arts?"

It was obvious that he had been wanting to ask about it for a long time.

However, it was something that Su Cha could not answer.

Her expression was a little awkward. The main reason was that the time was not right. She could not say it for now, but she did not want to lie to Bo Mui.

Seeing her expression, Bo Mui understood and said disappointedly, "If Cha Cha doesn't want to say it, so be it."

Su Cha could not bear it and held his palm tightly. "I can't say it right now. I can only say that it was an accident. When the time is right, I will tell you, but believe me, I will not lie to you."

"Yes."

He was not angry and said naturally, "I believe in Cha Cha."

He trusted her unconditionally.

From the beginning, Bo Mui did not think that Su Cha would lie to him. Even if she did, he was willing to accept it.

As if he saw that Su Cha did not want to say it, he said that he would not ask.

There were many things that were not as important as Su Cha being by his side.

Chapter 477: The Person Inside

Su Cha felt a little helpless. She had many things to explain.

Reincarnation was too strange, and it was because of this that she could face her heart directly and have a chance to be with Bo Mui again.

What if she was not reborn?

Su Cha could never figure it out. If Bo Mui were to decipher this mystery, he might have some ideas.

"Cha Cha, the Star Alliance is not a good fit for you."

After saying this, Bo Mui told Su Cha about the current situation of the Star Alliance. “The Martial Alliance’s Selection was held because of the incident with the Alliance Master. Now that you are the new Alliance Master, the people from the Killing Alliance will definitely target you.”

As he spoke, his expression turned serious. “The Star Alliance is not as important as you.”

“But to me, this is also a chance.”

Su Cha winked at him and smiled. “I understand what you’re saying, but I have the identity of the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. It will make things easier for me. I also have a way to control those people from the Star Alliance. This way, I can protect you better.”

“So it’s for my protection...”

What would a man think if he was being protected by his woman?

Most men would think that they were useless and cowardly.

Bo Mui was not an ordinary person. He could hear the seriousness in Su Cha’s tone. Suddenly, he thought of something and smiled. “Okay, then, I’ll let Cha Cha protect me. You deal with the Alliance’s matters. I will help you deal with the rest.”

He then kissed Su Cha on the forehead.

Su Cha smiled brightly. “Okay!”

After entering the room, Su Cha asked him, “Was the previous Alliance Master really killed by the Alliance?”

Bo Mui paused and nodded. “Probably.”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “Probably?”

Bo Mui smiled slowly. "Cha Cha, sometimes, people will do anything to achieve their goals. The Killing Alliance is a live target. Even if it's not them, it must be."

Su Cha immediately understood.

When the culprit was not found, it could not be confirmed that the culprit was from the Killing Alliance.

Shi Wei had said that someone in the Star Alliance might be plotting a rebellion.

What was the point of rebellion?

It was for this position.

At the thought of this, Su Cha narrowed her eyes. If it was not the Killing Alliance, it was very likely that it was someone from the Star Alliance.

If that was the case, Su Cha, the new Alliance Master, would be in a more dangerous situation than expected.

Shi Wei was right. The Star Alliance was entrusted to Su Cha, and the Star Alliance was in danger.

What a mess.

However, she had chosen it herself, and Shi Wei did not force her.

Seeing Su Cha's expression, Bo Mui pinched her face. "Cha Cha is so smart."

Su Cha could not help but laugh. "Good advice."

It seemed that if Bo Mui was certain of something, it might be the truth.

The Killing Alliance might be the scapegoat. The real culprit was within the Star Alliance.

Thinking of this, Su Cha felt that it was a little tricky.

It was not that the culprit was hard to find, but she did not know anything about the internal branches of the Star Alliance. Even if the culprit was placed in front of her, she could not tell.

It seemed that she had to find Shi Wei and get to know him better.

Otherwise, she would be too incompetent as the Alliance Master.

From the moment Su Cha took over the Star Alliance, she had consciously drawn the Star Alliance into her camp.

Chapter 478: Vice Alliance Master

Since her identity had not yet been announced, things would be much easier as long as she did not expose herself.

Moreover, she was so high-profile.

No one in the Star Alliance would have thought that the new Alliance Master would be a celebrity.

Su Cha asked Shi Wei for a list of the forces within the Star Alliance. After studying it for a few hours, she finally figured it out.

Currently, the Star Alliance was mainly led by three factions. The Elder Cheng who came to see them was actually just one.

Other than the Alliance Master, the Star Alliance also had a Vice Alliance Master and five elders. Among them, Elder Cheng, whom they met yesterday, was one. The others were all overseas, except for one who was in seclusion in a small border city. Other than the Vice Alliance Master, the other three elders were overseas.

Shi Wei had said that these three were ambitious.

Although the Vice Alliance Master was in power, he was also a mysterious person. This Vice Alliance Master was personally arranged by the previous Alliance Master. Back then, the upper elders were unconvinced of this person's authority, so the differences within the Star Alliance became greater.

But when Su Cha saw the name of the Vice Alliance Master, she was stunned for a moment.

Was this world so small?

It was clearly written: Vice Alliance Master: Tan Yeluo.

Did anyone else know that the deputy master of the Star Alliance was a pervert in female clothing?

Su Cha suddenly thought about how the current Alliance Master was an exceptionally high-profile celebrity and how the Vice Alliance Master was a pervert who pretended to be a big shot. No wonder the elders were so opposed. If she was an elder, she would also have objections. At the same time, those who saw the Alliance Master position felt that the future of the Star Alliance was uncertain.

Su Cha was uncertain and called Shi Wei to ask about the Vice Alliance Master.

Shi Wei pondered for a while and answered, "Alliance Master, our Heaven's Secrets Sect is only in charge of the deductions of the Alliance Master. The Alliance Master has personally promoted the Vice Alliance Master. The previous Alliance Master was the one who'd selected this Vice Alliance Master. Although I haven't had much contact with her, I know that this Vice Alliance Master is also a person with skills. The elders in the Star Alliance oppose her mainly because the family of the Vice Alliance Master has conflicts with their power."

"It's just that this Vice Alliance Master has a temper and is often absent. I only know that she has an older brother called Tan Yezhu."

Su Cha: "..."

Hearing this, Su Cha understood that even the Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect, who could predict the future, was deceived by the cross-dresser.

"Alliance Master, let me tell you the truth. Although I am the Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect, in my life, the only people whose fate I can't predict are you and this Vice Alliance Master."

Su Cha wanted to laugh, but she held it in. “You said that I’m a benefactor, so it’s normal that I can’t figure it out. I want to ask, when you are deducing other people’s fate, do you need a name or a date of birth?”

“The name is one. There is no need for the birth characters. I just need to look at the person’s face. The Vice Alliance Master’s face is very strange. I have not figured out the reason.”

Because he’s a man, Sect Master!

Su Cha smiled. “Sect Master, I think you can benefit from learning more about modern pop culture. Maybe you can then find out the reason.”

Shi Wei was speechless.

If he paid attention to popular culture, he would know that there was a kind of person called a cross-dresser.

Chapter 479: Happy Cooperation

Although she knew that Tan Yezhu was the current Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Su Cha did not deliberately look for him.

Before the Star Alliance Meeting, she did not intend to expose her identity to others.

During this period, Tan Jinsui officially announced that he would be managing Su Cha.

Although he was not a celebrity, he was also a very famous manager. However, he did not have a Weibo account, so he used his friend’s account to spread the final news.

Huayu Big Bang Official: “Emmmm it has been confirmed. Tan Jinsui returned to the country to take care of a newcomer. This newcomer is the popular contestant who is currently participating in Dreams in Progress, Su Cha! [Picture] @ Su Cha!”

In addition, the verified account sent a picture of Tan Jinsui's conversation with his friends. The friend asked who the newbie was, and Tan Jinsui replied directly. He also added that Su Cha was participating in the show.

The direction was clear. Even if the fans wanted to say that it was a lie, it was impossible without this person confirming it.

“What the hell!! It's actually true?! Who is Su Cha?!”

“I've realized that this woman is not ordinary. She is actually a newbie that Tan Jinsui is going to take on?”

“Is she really qualified to be guided by Uncle Tan?”

—“Logically speaking, Su Cha's dream is to be popular, capable, and a super genius. She is also generous... Her future is much better than those of fresh meat celebrities or starlets.”

—“Back then, many heavenly kings and queens did not get him to agree, but now, he is willing to manage a newbie.”

“How powerful is this newcomer? How can she invite Tan Jinsui?”

“Uncle Tan, if you are being forced to do it, blink your eyes.”

“The comments are so f*cking hilarious. No one in the entertainment industry has been able to force Tan Jinsui to take on newbies for so many years. Now that he wants to take on newbies, do they really think that he is being threatened? According to the screenshot, it is clear that Uncle Tan is trying to create hype for this newbie. Once Uncle Tan makes a move, he is extraordinary. Even if Su Cha could not become the second Zou Manni, her future is definitely going to beat some A-list celebrities.”

The news of Tan Jinsui taking on a newbie was officially announced. This really caused a big explosion on Weibo.

The popularity of this explosion was not something that Su Cha's subway video on LovMusik could compare with.

Basically, as long as it was a large-scale entertainment forum, there would be people who'd keep on posting about and discussing this matter. They had thoroughly dug up Su Cha's information. Then, they saw that someone had spread rumors about Su Cha last time. In the end, someone was sued by Su Cha's agency and seemed to be responsible for it. Immediately, some haters who heard about it were terrified.

But even so, they could not resist many malicious speculations.

How could Su Cha be taken care of by Tan Jinsui?

Was Tan Jinsui forced to do it?!

However, although Tan Jinsui was old, he was publicly acknowledged as a handsome uncle. Even if he was 40 years old, he looked like he was in his thirties. Could it be that... he liked Su Cha?

Otherwise, it would be hard to explain.

All kinds of ridiculous speculations emerged. Tan Jinsui did not have Weibo, so it was impossible for him to clarify this matter. On the other hand, Su Cha replied to Tan Jinsui at the heart of the matter.

Su Cha Official: /Shake hands, Uncle Tan, happy cooperation going forward.

Her business-like tone directly stated that Tan Jinsui was indeed her manager.

Not only were the others dumbfounded, but the production crew of Dreams in Progress was also dumbfounded.

Chapter 480: School Starts

“She actually hugged a big Buddha without saying anything?”

The higher-ups of Xinhua Entertainment who were backing the production crew wanted to sign Su Cha as well, but after they found out that Su Cha had her own agency, they stopped. Unexpectedly, Su Cha could even poach a god-like manager, Tan Jinsui. The production crew knew very well that Su Cha was the daughter of the Zuo family.

It seemed that it was not that Tan Jinsui could not be poached, but that it depended on whether a person's background was good enough to poach him.

No one in the entertainment industry could compare with Su Cha. After all, the Zuo family was really powerful.

Zuo Shaoxin was an influential person in this life. If Miss Zuo was Zuo Shaoxin's daughter, wouldn't it be fun for them to call Su Cha “Sister”?

If Su Cha knew that everything Bo Mui had done was placed on the Zuo family's shoulders, she would want to curse for Bo Mui.

The Zuo family had not contacted her since Zuo Zhici's accident.

She did not care, though.

There must be many people now who wanted to interview Su Cha, but Su Cha was participating in the competition, so Bai Kun rejected all interviews.

Although Tan Jinsui was Su Cha's manager in name, Bai Kun would send someone to deal with many things.

After Tan Jinsui announced the news, he sent a WeChat message to Su Cha a few hours later.

Tan Jinsui: “Don't accept an interview with a reporter. Just keep quiet.”

Su Cha: “I know.”

But some things could not be done without explanation.

It was because Su Cha's matter was too hot and baffling that many people had guessed that Su Cha had a huge backer or that Tan Jinsui had taken a fancy to her.

These two reasons seemed to be the most plausible.

Su Cha, this contestant, was rather subtle with her popularity, but it was obvious that she had the characteristics of being popular.

She was pretty and strong, and she was also a super genius. There was nothing to say.

And Su Cha was about to start school.

After the national Top 10 contest began, Su Cha successfully entered Top 9.

It was also at this time that universities from all over the world officially started school. Su Cha's popularity was still high. The topic brought on by Tan Jinsui was enough for people to discuss her for a few days and nights. Under the attention of countless people, Su Cha entered the Imperial Capital University at the registration time.

On the day of registration, Su Cha officially entered the Imperial Capital University.

She had received the notice a long time ago. As the champion of Jiang'an Province, Su Cha was warmly received by the dean of the Imperial Capital University.

Although the dean felt a little regretful that Su Cha had chosen the acting department, as long as she entered the Imperial Capital University, she would be a part of the university.

There were many people on the first day of school. The dean did not say much to Su Cha. He said some nice words and asked her to report to the department after helping her with the registration.

The performance department of the Imperial Capital University was not as famous as other professional schools. Besides, there were not many art students who had high scores. The performance department also had a fixed score. There were very few people who could get high scores and choose the performance department of the Imperial Capital University. There were only about ten people who were accepted this year.

The future was bleak.

However, having fewer people meant that the teachers had more time to take care of every student.

While Su Cha was looking for a specialization in the registration form, many people from the Imperial Capital University had noticed her.
