

The Queen 481

Chapter 481: Are You Sure? This Is Too Heavy

The Imperial Capital University was the number one university in China. Those who could enter this university relied on their grades. All of them were top students.

Moreover, there were many other excellent students.

There were a few provincial champions like Su Cha every year.

As the provincial champion, Su Cha had chosen the acting department. Moreover, Dreams in Progress was very popular. Even the students from the Imperial Capital University paid attention to it. When they saw her along the way, they recognized her.

“Is that Su Cha?”

“The provincial champion of Jiang’an Province chose the performance department?”

“Her walk is so imposing...”

“A super-genius like her is just willful. She got such a high score, but she chose the useless acting department.”

“How is it useless? She belongs to the entertainment industry!”

Was a straight-A student supposed to be gossiping?

These straight-A students were gossipy.

Some people could not help but discuss with each other when they saw Su Cha. Some even wanted to come up and ask for autographs, but because the Imperial Capital University was different from ordinary schools, they were a little embarrassed. While Su Cha was looking for her way using the school map, she passed by a female dormitory.

Downstairs, many freshmen were carrying their luggage and cotton quilts as they entered the dormitory.

At this time, boys could also enter and leave the girls' dormitory. This was a good opportunity for them to be attentive and bring in new students. Even in the Imperial Capital, many boys had good family backgrounds. They basically knew how to dress up. With just a little flirtation, they could attract a girl's heart.

Su Cha looked at the map and was not sure of the route. She was about to ask someone when she saw a girl with short hair pushing a suitcase with great effort. There was a pile of cotton quilts in her hand.

However, she was not good-looking. There were still some bumps on her face. Some of the boys around her did not want to approach her, and the girls did not have the strength to help her.

Su Cha paused and walked over to ask the auntie in charge of the dormitory guarding the door about how to get to the acting department. The auntie saw that she was pretty and told her the route very warmly. As she spoke, there was a sudden "bang." Beside Su Cha, the cotton quilts fell to the ground. The short-haired girl fell on it in a sorry state.

Her face flushed red. Her embarrassed look made some people snicker, as if they were watching a joke.

Although some people were frowning, no one came to help. In addition, Su Cha was standing there.

Su Cha paused and lowered her body to help her pull the quilts away. The girl saw Su Cha's movement and immediately showed gratitude. "Thank you."

Seeing that Su Cha had moved, the dormitory manager also reacted and helped her. When she saw the short-haired girl, she said, "Aiyo, this little girl doesn't have anyone to help her... Hey, hey, hey, that guy over there, come over."

The dormitory manager waved at a boy who was watching from the side. The boy looked a little handsome, but he was reluctant. He glanced at Su Cha and walked over slowly.

Su Cha helped the girl with the quilts and the small suitcase. When she picked it up, she paused. The short-haired girl was also surprised.

The boy walked over and smiled at Su Cha. "Let me do it."

Su Cha picked it up and said casually, "Are you sure? It's a little heavy."

"How heavy can a box be?!"

The boy did not care. When he took it, Su Cha loosened her grip and the boy fell to the ground.

Chapter 482: No Excuses

It was a hilarious scene.

Su Cha was the center of attention. Almost everyone's eyes were on her, and others heard what the boy had said.

Hence, when he fell to the ground, the people around him burst out laughing.

"What's wrong, Gao Zhe? You can't even compare to a girl!"

"Hahahaha, how weak is he?"

When Su Cha was carrying the box just now, others saw it. Su Cha could carry it, but why couldn't Gao Zhe?

Not to mention that the owner of the box was carrying the suitcase and the quilts. He was simply a weak man.

Gao Zhe's face turned red. He did not believe it.

When he took the box, it did not seem to be heavy, but the moment Su Cha let go and the box landed on him, Gao Zhe felt like it was a huge rock weighing a thousand pounds.

He lost his balance and fell to the ground.

Now that everyone was laughing at him, he felt a little indignant and wanted to pick up the suitcase.

The girl quickly said, "This box is a little heavy..."

"Go away!"

He felt uncomfortable being mocked. He vented his anger on the owner of the box. The girl bit her lips and glanced at Su Cha.

Su Cha looked indifferently at the boy who was trying to show off.

Gao Zhe reached out and gritted his teeth to lift it up. The box did not budge.

His eyes widened.

The surrounding people laughed louder and louder. "Gao Zhe, what's wrong with you? Why are you so weak?"

"Gao Zhe is too useless!"

"Hahahahaha, this is too funny!"

When Gao Zhe heard these words, he flew into a rage out of humiliation and shouted to the people around him, "If you think you can do it, come and bring it up. This box is heavier than it looks!"

After he finished speaking, the girl squatted down and silently picked up the suitcase. Then, she grabbed the pile of cotton quilts.

The situation could no longer be controlled.

The surrounding people could not stop laughing.

Gao Zhe stared at the girl with his eyes wide open. For a moment, he wanted to curse.

After the girl finished, Su Cha looked at her and asked softly, “Do you need help?”

There was something wrong with this girl’s suitcase.

She knew that even boys could not lift it. The moment she picked it up, she’d used her inner force.

The girl looked at Su Cha and shook her head with a friendly smile. Although her face was covered with small pimples, her skin was dark red, and her smile was a little scary, making it really not beautiful, Su Cha could tell that this girl’s eyes were especially bright and her shape was very good.

She was carrying these things and pushing a suitcase, looking a little burdened.

However, Su Cha noticed that her footsteps were steady and strong, even though she was on the verge of collapse.

Someone from the martial arts world.

She immediately understood.

Although people from the martial arts world were rare, it was not unusual for them to appear in the Imperial Capital University.

However, she felt that this girl was a little strange.

She did not want to help. Su Cha left after asking for the address, leaving the boy named Gao Zhe behind. He walked towards his friend while cursing and explaining, “That box is really strange...”

His friend laughed like a dog. “Stop talking. Even Su Cha picked it up, and she’s a woman. Why can’t you? What excuse are you trying to go for?”

“F*ck!”

Gao Zhe could not explain himself.

After this episode, Su Cha asked for the address of the acting department and quickly found her dormitory.

She was going to study acting at the Imperial Capital University for four years.

Chapter 483: Mentor

There were not many people in the acting department. The school building was not as luxurious as other departments, but it still took up a building.

The venue for the performance was relatively large.

However, there were really not many people.

Compared to the lively scene in front of the other departments, the performance department looked a little sad.

However, there was also some value in this place. After all, those who could enter this place were genuine top students.

When Su Cha arrived downstairs, a girl approached her. “Hello, Su Cha.”

The girl was young and pretty. She at least had a face suitable for the entertainment industry. When she looked at Su Cha, she smiled sweetly, and one could see she had an excellent figure. “I’m your senior. The Director of Education said that you were coming over and asked me to bring you to see your class director. He’s also our drama teacher.”

Su Cha nodded politely. “Thank you, senior.”

The girl smiled. “You’re welcome. My name is Tian Xin.”

After greeting her, Tian Xin brought her to the teaching building to meet Director Pan.

On the way, Tian Xin chatted with her and looked at Su Cha with envy. “Junior Su Cha, we thought you would go to a professional music academy. I didn’t expect you to be interested in acting.”

Since they had been watching the show recently, and compounded with the incident involving Tan Jinsui, almost everyone in the acting department knew about Su Cha.

The news of Su Cha entering the Imperial Capital University spread on the first day of school. After all, she was the famous provincial champion.

Su Cha smiled lightly and naturally. “I’m quite interested. Singing and acting are both my hobbies, but it’s easier to practice singing if you have some talent. Acting is different, so I chose the acting department to learn more about acting.”

“Really? Don’t take me for a talker. It should have been the Department of Acting of a professional art academy. After all, they offer specialized training. The Imperial Capital University is ultimately a university that provides formal education. If it were not for my family’s insistence for me to go here, I would have met the requirements somewhere else. I also wanted to go to an acting academy.”

Tian Xin was very good at finding topics to talk about, so she naturally closed the distance between them. Su Cha maintained her politeness, and her words did not make the other party feel distant.

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “Actually, I think it’s the same no matter where you study. The performance department of the Imperial Capital University is not bad. The teachers are quite famous.”

Before she came, she had done some research. There were several mentors in the Imperial Capital University's acting department who were all top actors in the country. They were very famous.

Tian Xin nodded. "Yes. For example, your teacher is a famous drama master and a professor in the acting department."

Su Cha was a little surprised when she heard that. "Are the assignments out now?"

Tian Xin: "Yes, you have been assigned to Teacher Jing."

Jing Yilan was also a first-tier actor in the country. She used to play an important role in several early blockbusters and had superb acting skills. She was now 60 years old, but there was no doubt about her professionalism. After she left the entertainment industry, she had been teaching in the acting department of the Imperial Capital University. She was kind, but she had strict requirements. It was good that Su Cha could learn from her.

Besides, drama was one of the most important courses in acting. The more professional a teacher was, the more beneficial it would be for Su Cha.

Coincidentally, Jing Yilan sang some songs when she was young. She might be able to give Su Cha some insights about singing.

Chapter 484: Not Much

Tian Xin brought Su Cha to the office building to meet Jing Yilan, the national drama master.

At that time, she was sitting quietly and filling in some documents. As there were few people in the acting department, no one was coming to look for her except Su Cha.

Tian Xin shouted, "Teacher Jing, your student is here."

When Jing Yilan saw Tian Xin and Su Cha, she smiled and said, "You're here?"

She was a kind old lady.

Although her face was old, she still had the charm of someone who often performed. When she spoke, she was elegant and looked kind and amiable.

Su Cha followed Tian Xin and said respectfully in greeting, “Teacher Jing.”

The other party had been in the acting industry for many years. Whether it was her profession or her status, she was worthy of Su Cha’s respect.

“You must be Su Cha. Aiyo, you look as good as on TV.”

When Jing Yilan saw Su Cha, her smile did not diminish at all. She seemed to be very fond of her. “I say, shouldn’t a good seedling like you enter a music academy? Why did you choose our profession?”

Su Cha repeated what she’d said to Tian Xin, “Because I’m also interested in acting. I have talent for music, so it’s easier for me to learn it. Acting would require me to learn more professional knowledge.”

“That’s a good thought. Your performance is worth studying seriously, unlike the current entertainment industry where most young actors are demons and monsters...”

As the teacher spoke, she changed the topic to the entertainment industry. Tian Xin and Su Cha could not help but laugh.

The old lady had been around for a long time and could see the entertainment industry clearly.

Jing Yilan: “Today is the first day of school, so I won’t be teaching you. Here’s a form. After filling in your basic information, you can go home. After the day after tomorrow’s opening ceremony, there will also be an official class. Oh, right, will you stay in the school dorms?”

Su Cha shook her head. “I won’t live on campus.”

When she heard Su Cha say that she did not want to stay on campus, Jing Yilan’s expression changed. She seemed to be greeting her while explaining some things clearly, “I know that you have already made a name for yourself and are participating in a show, but I’ve already said it clearly. You have to participate in the classes that you should participate in. If you delay your studies because of the matters in the industry, I won't give you any face. Your grades would be deducted or you'd receive demerits. You can't blame me if you fail at the end of the semester."

At first glance, Jing Yilan had felt that this girl was neither arrogant nor impetuous. However, she was already very famous when she entered the school, which was a source of conflict.

The more famous she was, the busier she would be, and the more she would delay her classes.

Jing Yilan did not like it.

Su Cha nodded. "I know. Teacher Jing, I will study hard and not get delayed. I can use my spare time for the competition."

If she really did not have time to apply for leave, Su Cha was confident that she could make up for it.

"Okay, go fill out the form."

Su Cha sat down and filled out the form. Tian Xin stuck out her tongue at the side. "Teacher Jing is like this. Although she is kind, she has very strict requirements for us. However, she can't not be strict. She always tells us about the quality of the entertainment industry. Anyone who is not professional can become popular in the industry. Teacher often said that the entertainment industry is too dry and deformed."

Su Cha filled the form and smiled without answering.

What the entertainment industry was like had nothing to do with her.

As long as she did not let him down.

Chapter 485: Misunderstanding

After settling the matter, Tian Xin sent her off.

Although Tian Xin was probably trying to get close to Su Cha because of her fame, she did it naturally. Su Cha did not dislike it. Besides, she had just entered the school and could do with befriending her classmates, so she did not show any signs of discomfort.

When it was time for Su Cha to leave, Tian Xin gave her her contact details.

After she left, Tian Xin heaved a sigh of relief. She called her friend happily. “Oh my, I saw our department’s popular champion, Su Cha, today. Yes, yes, I was the one who brought her to meet Teacher Jing. Let me tell you, she’s a little different from when she’s on TV. She looks so cold and distant on TV, but she’s actually quite kind. She just doesn’t like to talk too much. I’ve already asked her to contact me... Oh my, is there a need to pretend? She just entered school. There’s no need to. After all, she’s already famous. It’s only right for her to be arrogant. I think she has a good temper...”

On the way out of school, Su Cha was picked up by the Bo family’s driver.

It was noon, and there was still a long afternoon to follow. Su Cha received a call from Tan Jinsui. “You’ve entered university, but based on your schedule, you’ll need to hire two assistants now.”

Su Cha thought for a while. “That’s one too many assistants. I’ll still need to be focused on my studies. It’s enough to hire one.”

“Up to you.”

Tan Jinsui did not argue with her and went along with Su Cha’s wishes. “I will ask the company to release a recruitment advertisement directly. We will hire people within three days. Have you settled the admission procedures at school?”

Su Cha: “Yes.”

Tan Jinsui: “Who is your teacher?”

“Teacher Yilan.”

When Su Cha said this name, Tan Jinsui seemed to pause for a moment. “You don’t have to doubt the old lady’s professionalism. It’s good to have her teach you, but she doesn’t like it when students skip classes. Going forward, as much as possible, try to follow the curriculum. Otherwise, I think your grades in school will not be good. Don't let the media make an issue out of your grades in the future. Remember that you are a top student."

He obviously knew about Jing Yilan. Su Cha curled her lips. "What a coincidence. Teacher Jing said the same thing. As for what you said, of course I know. There will be no problem with my studies. You can rest assured."

The girl's confident words made Tan Jinsui fall silent. From the moment he came into contact with her, he'd felt that she was not an ordinary person. She was calm and reserved, and she would not deliberately try to get close to him.

With his status and position, and with him as her manager, she would have to cling to him tightly. After all, the resources and connections he had could make many celebrities lose decades of hard work or even the best resources.

However, this girl would never say anything unnecessary to him, nor would she call him privately.

Either she was deliberately playing dirty, or she did not care at all. After all, the person behind her was enough to let her run wild in the entertainment industry.

Sometimes, Tan Jinsui thought highly of her and felt that she was arrogant. However, she was only 18 years old, but she had already become a canary. He did not know if it was a blessing or a curse. His feelings were complicated. For a moment, he felt that Su Cha was disappointing. Why was she willing to be wrapped up by someone?

Of course, Su Cha did not know that Tan Jinsui had already misunderstood her pure relationship with Bo Muyi.

Even if she knew, she could only laugh bitterly and helplessly. Could it be that Tan Jinsui believed her explanation of her relationship with Bo Muyi?
