

The Queen 521

Chapter 521: Can You Give Me a Call?

After Su Cha rebutted, she found a new comment that mentioned her.

“@S. Hahahahaha, Master, you don’t have to argue anymore. That brainless account has been banned.”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows.

He was actually banned. He had no self-awareness at all.

A message popped up on WeChat.

ACD: “Why did you say so much?”

This was Master Yun Zu.

When Su Cha saw his comment, she thought of the old man behind the WeChat. He was really extraordinary!

Cha Yi: “Of course I will rebut. He was the one who started it.”

ACD: “I’ve asked people from the Cultural Center to notify Weibo. They’ve banned the account.”

ACD: “You little girl, many people want to find you. Tang embroidery is very important. It’s preferable if you are willing to come to the cultural center for a class every week, but if not, upload a video. [Look at how capable you are. JPG]”

Cha Yi: “I’ll send you a video and teach you in detail. I’m very busy with work and studies, so I don’t have time to attend classes. Oh right, Master, remember not to expose my identity.”

ACD: “Do I look like that kind of person?”

Cha Yi: "..."

After Su Cha had been arguing with Master Yun Zu, the bell rang.

She would not be able to rest in peace for a while. S's Weibo account had become famous. Now that she was the official successor of Tang Embroidery, many people would definitely look for her. She could not expose her real identity.

When she was about to leave with her bag, Su Cha suddenly received a message from Fu Mo.

Fu Mo: "Student Su, can you call me to say that you have something urgent to tell me?"

Su Cha saw it and did not think much about it. She called Fu Mo directly.

Fu Mo quickly picked up the call. She asked cautiously, "Hello, Student Su?"

Su Cha said coldly, "Yes, Fu Mo, are you free now?"

Fu Mo's voice had a strange echo. "What's wrong, Student Su?"

Su Cha squinted. According to the app, she had turned on the loudspeaker.

Was someone else there?

Did Fu Mo do it on purpose?

"I have something urgent to attend to. Come over now. I'll wait for you at the school gate."

Sensing the reason, Su Cha changed her probing tone to a commanding tone. It sounded cold and hard to refuse.

Fu Mo paused and said directly, "Okay, I'll be right there."

With that, she hung up.

In the luxurious suite of the hotel, Fu Mo, who was wearing a pleated dress, looked a little cold. She looked at the two people who were looking at her. "I'm sorry, Young Master. I have to go."

The handsome and tall man stood up. The woman beside him was elegant and noble. She had the aura of a cold beauty. The way she looked at Fu Mo occasionally revealed a hint of mockery.

The man walked in front of Fu Mo. His ink-black eyes exuded a cold aura. His slender fingers suddenly pinched Fu Mo's chin, forcing her to raise her head. The only beautiful feature on her face, her eyes, were calm, as if she was not surprised at all.

"Fu Mo, you won't hide anything from me, right?"

The man spoke with a deep and hoarse voice. Every word sounded like the vibration of a cello.

Fu Mo nodded, her eyes unchanged. "Yes, Young Master. I will not hide anything from you."

Hearing her words, the man put down his hand in satisfaction, as if he was showing kindness. "Go."

Fu Mo lowered her eyes. "Yes, Young Master."

Chapter 522: It Should Be a Lesson Learned

Su Cha wanted to go back directly. After thinking about it, she decided to wait at the school gate.

After a while, she saw Fu Mo rushing over. Su Cha rolled down the car window and said indifferently, "Come in."

Fu Mo was stunned. She opened the car door and got in. She said timidly, "Student Su."

Su Cha looked at her with deep meaning in her eyes. "Fu Mo, I've helped you. Although I'm not interested in other people's private matters, I think you should explain this to me."

Fu Mo blinked and said, "I'm sorry, Student Su. I just didn't want to stay there."

When she said this, her breath became unstable. She sighed softly. "I don't want to face them."

Su Cha asked, "Family?"

Fu Mo was stunned for a moment before she forced a smile. "He could only be considered family if he treated me like one."

Su Cha nodded and did not probe further.

Seeing the girl's calm face, Fu Mo suddenly asked, "Student Su, is it a mark against a person if they didn't want to see someone they didn't like? Even if the other party didn't do anything wrong? Does that make the person's heart ugly?"

"Hmm?"

Su Cha found every question Fu Mo asked interesting. She thought for a while and smiled. "How can you say that? Some people are born to be at odds with others. It's normal for others to dislike you and vice versa. You might know that a person didn't do anything wrong, but if you don't like them, then you don't like them. Don't force yourself. If you don't like someone, don't get close to them. Some people don't like coriander, right? Could it be that there's something wrong with coriander? Is it wrong for them to dislike coriander?"

Fu Mo hummed as if she was deep in thought.

"Thank you for your answer, Student Su. I'll be going back to school now. You must look for me if you need anything."

Fu Mo got out of the car with a faint smile. She waved her hand and watched Su Cha leave.

The driver today was Ah Chen. He was surprised by what Su Cha had just said. "Miss Su is quite patient with her."

Su Cha chuckled. "What's wrong with answering the doubts of a little friend? Maybe I have even saved a fallen soul?"

Ah Chen: "..."

It was his fault. He should not have tried to understand Miss Su's way of thinking.

Ah Chen changed the topic. "Young Master already knows about what happened online. How do you plan to deal with it, Miss Su? We plan to sue the other party according to what you said."

"Find another legal team to sue him."

Su Cha curled her lips. "Don't let anyone know that S and Cha Yi Entertainment are related. Just follow your young master's instructions."

"Of course."

Ah Chen nodded. Someone who dared to offend Miss Su was indeed seeking death. However, he thought that since the other party's account had been banned, that would be the end of it. But judging from Miss Su's attitude, she was clearly not a kind person.

He also thought that whether it was online or in reality, that person should be taught a lesson.

After returning home, Ah Chen and the rest started to deal with this matter. Su Cha was recording the official teaching process of Tang embroidery in the basement. After all, she had promised Master Yun Zu, and he had helped her. Naturally, she had to give him something in return.

Su Cha was busy until dinner time. After recording the video, she returned upstairs and saw Bo Muyi.

Chapter 523: I'll Take You to See Him

"Cha Cha."

The man smiled when he saw Su Cha.

Su Cha walked over. Bo Mui entered the room and took off his suit jacket. Su Cha took it and hung it for him.

Although the weather was hot, the man still looked fresh and clean. The weather in September was cooler than usual.

Bo Mui reached out and wrapped his arms around Su Cha's waist. He lowered his head and rested it on her forehead. He asked gently, "Are you happy today?"

Su Cha understood what he meant and nodded. "I'm quite happy. Hmm... very straightforward."

Seeing how those people were so agitated that they did not know what to say and how ugly some people were, Su Cha felt very good.

As a person, it was enough for her to be straightforward without going against her morals.

"As long as you are happy."

Of course, Bo Mui gave in to her unconditionally. The two of them did not mention what happened online.

He pulled Su Cha over and took out a box from the drawer of the study desk. He opened the box and revealed a bracelet inside it.

It looked ordinary, but the style was better than ordinary, and it was made of crystal.

Bo Mui handed it to her. "A friend asked me to give it to you."

Su Cha found it strange. At first glance, she felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity. She subconsciously picked up the bracelet. Under the light of the room, the crystal on the bracelet appeared transparent.

"Who is it from?"

She was stunned for a moment, but she subconsciously put the bracelet on her hand. With a light press, the bracelet was clasped on.

She actually knew how to put on the bracelet.

She paused and looked at the bracelet carefully.

Bo Muyi watched her movements and saw that she was very familiar with the bracelet. He smiled and said, "It seems that you still remember?"

Su Cha looked up. "Hmm? Did I use it before?"

Bo Muyi did not answer directly nor deny it. "Do you like it this way?"

"I don't really like this style..."

Su Cha looked at the chain. "I just find it familiar. I like it very much."

Bo Muyi reached out and brushed the hair on her forehead. "Well, as long as you like it."

In the end, Su Cha did not ask who this friend was.

After putting on the bracelet, Su Cha pondered for a while and asked Bo Muyi, "Should I go and see that person?"

Bo Muyi paused and instantly understood who she was referring to.

He smiled gently. "If you want to, go ahead. I respect your decision."

He had once said that not knowing was a good thing.

But if Su Cha wanted to know what had happened in the past, he would not stop her.

Su Cha thought about it carefully. The past was like a fog. If she kept delaying, it would always be a fog.

There would always be a time when the truth was revealed. When she saw the bracelet, Su Cha realized that even if she deliberately ignored the past, it would still exist.

She paused and said softly, "I want to see that person."

The person who gave her the bracelet must be someone from her childhood.

She wanted to know what had happened to the Zuo family and why they had abandoned her.

Moreover, in her memory, why did she hate the Zuo family so much?

Bo Muyi looked at her with bright eyes. He said, "Okay, I'll take you to see that person."

However, it was not yet time for them to meet. Su Cha was about to start a new round of competition, so she planned to go after the competition.

Chapter 524: Untitled

Dreams in Progress continued at the start of the week. There was no doubt that Su Cha would pass again.

Even if she was number one every time, even if she was popular, the audience seemed to have become used to it.

The remaining contestants were Yu Shuran, Chen Shengjun, Pei Yushu, Feng Tian, Luan Xuesong, Xiao Jiaming, and Ka Lian.

The person who surprised Su Cha was definitely Yu Shuran.

Her strength did not seem to be outstanding, and this person was not the most popular, but she had unknowingly passed.

However, Su Cha did not care much about the others' advancement. After this episode, the results of the previous episode were released.

At this time, the reality show "Who Will Be the Parent Today?" that Su Cha and the others had participated in was officially broadcasted.

This episode of the show was already full of gimmicks. It released several announcements about Li Miyi. Naturally, it was about Su Cha teaching him a lesson.

But when looking at the trailer alone, Su Cha's attitude towards Li Miyi seemed harsh and impatient.

Many of Li Miyi's fans exploded.

Although there was a short preview that showed Su Cha walking around the supermarket with Li Miyi in her arms, it did not seem to save Su Cha's current image.

In the eyes of the viewers watching the show, she had become a new target.

Compared to the other contestants, Su Cha was bashed more.

The show was divided into two episodes. The first episode was broadcasted.

The recording took only two days. How many scenes could the contestants get after they were divided? Of course, only scenes with conflicts and explosive points could be broadcasted.

Hence, a few scenes of Su Cha rebutting Li Miyi were edited out.

Since she had just entered the new house, she did not greet Li Miyi. After Xian Zi found an excuse to go out, Su Cha took care of the child alone. Li Miyi said that he wanted to eat an apple, but Su Cha rejected him as his attitude was not good enough.

But the fans could not help but curse Su Cha in the comments. They could not believe that she could be so mean to a child.

Yes, that's right. In their eyes, this was meanness.

[Isn't Su Cha too much? She doesn't even want to give Li Miyi an apple?]

[What do you mean you didn't agree with Xian Zi? Don't you know why you came to participate in this show?]

[She was asked to take care of the child. Why does it feel like she needs someone to take care of her? Is she trying to promote herself with the persona of a giant baby? What a stinky person.]

[She doesn't even know how to peel an apple. She's really useless.]

[Logically speaking... I wouldn't have helped Li Miyi if I were her, would you? He's already six years old. Doesn't he at least have manners?]

[The commenters are attacking Su Cha. I can't believe it. She's only 18 years old. In what way is she being malicious? I'm saying Q Ball was spoiled. Do you have any objections?]

[What does a child know? Su Cha obviously doesn't like children. I really don't know why she's on this show. It's too disgusting.]

[It's common knowledge that Q Ball has a bad temper. He's so rude, and Su Cha is the only one taking care of him. If it were someone else, they would have broken down. Look at how badly Xian Zi has been tortured. How can someone push all the blame on Su Cha? If Su Cha has a bad temper, then Q Ball is just as bad. Can he do whatever he wants just because he's good-looking? But Su Cha is not bad.]

[Why do I feel that Su Cha is deliberately teaching this child a lesson...]

Chapter 525: Brigading

Although the comments were nasty, some viewers who did not think much of it actually found the show amusing.

They saw that Su Cha could rebut Li Miyi's every word. They found it interesting to see Li Miyi, who had always been arrogant and domineering, speechless.

Although she did not spoil Li Miyi, those who often watched this show found that Li Miyi was not so... impulsive after this episode.

It was usually a state of hysteria.

Before this, if any of Li Miyi's requests were not fulfilled, he would start rolling around on the ground.

But in this episode, he seemed to be much calmer when facing Su Cha.

At the end of the first episode, the production crew deliberately edited the argument that had erupted at the beginning of the shoot towards the end. The segment that had not been fully broadcasted was about Li Miyi venting his anger over not getting to eat an apple and yelling for Su Cha to scram.

Su Cha had placed the money on the table and went out.

In an instant, the audience's hearts were in suspense. Su Cha left just like that, leaving the child behind?

What the hell, does she have such a bad temper?

Because of this controversial point, the topic of this episode became very hot after the show ended.

However, most people had a clear attitude towards Su Cha. Li Miyi's fans kept bashing her.

What did they mean by she was vicious to children? She was simply inhuman. After this episode was broadcasted, everyone on Weibo was criticizing her.

Occasionally, Su Cha's fans would argue for her, but the effect was minimal.

Of course, not everyone on the Internet was against her. Some viewers stood up to explain that Q Ball had a bad temper.

How could they blame Su Cha alone?

However, perhaps the parents of Q Ball did not know about this at the beginning. After the show was broadcasted, they seemed to have something against Su Cha. Li Miyi's mother made a new Weibo post. In it, she said something about this episode. The general idea was that the children were doted on by their own family. If the children were immature, the adults had to be the mature ones.

Anyway, she was not satisfied with Su Cha's performance in the show. She even felt sorry for her son who was being bullied.

Su Cha was criticized for her attitude.

Compared to Su Cha, the other contestants had put in so much effort to please the children, but their combined popularity was not comparable to Su Cha's.

Although the popularity was all criticisms.

For a moment, no one knew whether to laugh or be angry.

Su Cha also watched this episode.

No matter what, it could not be said that the production crew was deliberately defaming her. What was revealed was the truth. It was normal for the production crew to edit these scenes. The only unusual thing was that they moved the conflict at the beginning of the shoot towards the end of the episode, making the wait for the next episode suspenseful.

That was why the audience reacted so strongly.

Li Miyi was so angry that he'd asked Su Cha to scram. How many people hated Su Cha?

Although this child's reputation was not good, everyone was united against outsiders at this time. After all, Su Cha was older than him.

A child was not being sensible, but what's her excuse?

The production crew sent Su Cha a message to apologize. They said that they did not know that Li Miyi's mother would post on Weibo, and they had now explained the situation to her. After all, when Li Miyi went to his Taekwondo class, Su Cha was the one who'd resolved the conflict between Li Miyi and the other children.

She should not have deliberately caused people on Weibo to brigade against Su Cha.

Chapter 526: Zuo Zhici Is Here Again

After receiving the clarification, Li Miyi's mother quickly deleted the Weibo post.

But it was too late. The fans were already coming after Su Cha, and no one cared about this.

For a while, Su Cha had gained a few more posts on the Internet and various forums.

Popularity was popularity. Whether it was the real kind or the one where she's being criticized by others, it did not matter.

At least Su Cha now had more than a million fans.

Despite being a talent show singer who was still participating in a competition, Su Cha was already very popular.

After Tan Jinsui saw the show's broadcast, he went straight to the production crew.

Even though he was Su Cha's manager, he did not know about the recording of the show before he took over. After all, Su Cha had been in charge then.

But now that he'd seen the discussions online, he felt very dissatisfied with the production crew's editing. They clearly knew that he was the one supporting Su Cha from behind. Wasn't the production crew seeking death?

He used his status to get the latter half of the production crew's edited episodes. After watching it, he quickly thought of a solution.

The production crew's editing could not be considered as deliberately defaming Su Cha. The bottom half was obviously a reversal. Anyone with discerning eyes could tell that Li Miyi became a little clingy towards Su Cha the next day. He was also much more polite.

He thought for a while and decided not to make the company suppress the public's opinion. Instead, he added fuel to the fire.

He was well aware of how far to take it and when to stop.

At the same time, he also asked the public relations department of the company to strictly control other posts. Su Cha was now a celebrity. News about her singing career could be released, along with her participation in variety shows, and when she'd started her acting career, news about that could also be released, but her private life could not be revealed.

This was not a must to hide, but Tan Jinsui could not tolerate the fact that the people he brought along would be reduced to the same level as other celebrities.

You can be privy to everything she shows to you as a celebrity, but her private life cannot become a topic of discussion for you.

This was a form of protection. Tan Jinsui used to protect Zou Manni in this way.

Even though Zou Manni's private life was eye-catching, the people who paid attention to it would habitually filter it.

As she was a superstar, no one dared to voice their opinions.

Not long ago, it was revealed that Su Cha had been taken up by Tan Jinsui. Now that Su Cha was being criticized on the show, many people wondered if Tan Jinsui had made a mistake.

Zou Manni's fans, in particular, made their relationship very clear, afraid that Su Cha would drag Zou Manni along to gain attention.

They could not control what Tan Jinsui did, but they would never allow Su Cha to use Zou Manni to climb up.

[The endorsement deal has been negotiated. Let's sign the contract next week.]

Su Cha replied simply, "Okay."

It was another new week. She was studying in class. Bo Muyi had promised her that he would take her to meet that friend tonight.

She was sitting in class today and felt unsettled.

She felt uneasy.

After class, Su Cha rushed to another classroom for a new class, but she met Zuo Zhici halfway.

She was dressed fashionably and looked very outstanding in the Imperial Capital where there were many beauties. Many students in the acting department were surprised by her beauty. Some even recognized her as the lady from the Zuo family.

After all, this was the Imperial Capital. Many netizens had access to whatever was happening, but it was far beyond what the outside world could imagine.

Chapter 527: No, I Don't Believe It

"Hey, Sister! Sister!"

Zuo Zhici immediately saw Su Cha coming out of the classroom. In front of so many people, she ran over excitedly and called Su Cha sister.

The others were dumbfounded.

Isn't this the genius who joined the business management department this year?

As she was young, it was rumored that she had skipped a grade and managed to enter the Imperial Capital University. She was an extraordinary person.

She was the biological daughter of the business tycoon, Zuo Shaoxin. She was a real daughter of a wealthy family from the upper-class society. How could she call Su Cha sister?

Before then, they had not seen Zuo Zhici often and had not compared the two carefully. Now that they were comparing her to Su Cha, everyone was shocked to find that Su Cha and Zuo Zhici actually looked alike.

Zuo Zhici had already run to Su Cha's side. She held a bag of sweets in her hand and handed one to Su Cha with a smile. "Sister, eat this."

She sounded very familiar and intimate.

In an instant, the blood of the students who usually tried to distance themselves from Su Cha flowed back.

Su Cha was Zuo Zhici's sister?

Judging from her appearance, they were at least related by blood. In other words, she was also the Zuo family's daughter?

Everyone was stunned.

They knew very well what the Zuo family was.

Su Cha saw that Zuo Zhici's expression was not how it usually looked. She felt a little complicated. "Why are you looking for me?"

It had been a long time since school started, but she had never seen this person around before. Why did she come here today?

Is the business management department very free?

“Isn’t it because I missed you?”

Zuo Zhici was not embarrassed at all when she said this. She seemed to have forgotten how she could not wait for Su Cha to not have anything to do with her. Now, she said sweetly to Su Cha, “I saw the reality show you participated in online. Look at that stupid child. How can he compare to our Nanfan?”

She was merciless when it came to criticizing other children.

Su Cha: “...”

Su Cha regretted saving her last time, especially now that she was following her.

Why didn’t she know that Zuo Zhici was so good at talking back then?

She followed Su Cha all the way to the classroom. Before she entered, Su Cha said coldly, “I’m going to class. Aren’t you leaving?”

“Ah, if it’s just one class, I’ll go with you.”

Zuo Zhici followed Su Cha into the classroom.

The teachers did not care about how many people came to this kind of elective class. Occasionally, they would call attendance on a whim, but after all, such a classroom could not be filled.

Su Cha could not say anything as Zuo Zhici sat there.

When they sat down, the people around them found it unbelievable that Su Cha and Zuo Zhici were together.

Zuo Zhici was one of the more famous ones around here. It was mainly because she was considered a celebrity in the school, but they never thought that the two of them could be associated with each other.

Now that they took a closer look, why did the two look so alike?

Zuo Zhici did not care about the looks around her. She was even a little proud. “Sister, look at us. Many people will understand our relationship at a glance. There’s no need to say anything.”

Su Cha suddenly tilted her head and moved closer to Zuo Zhici. She said seriously, “Actually, I had plastic surgery. I really don’t look like you.”

Zuo Zhici: “...”

She looked at Su Cha’s face carefully and shook her head. “No, it’s impossible. I don’t believe it!”

She acted like the female lead in Qiong Yao’s drama.

Su Cha rolled her eyes.

Chapter 528: You Will Know When You See It

“Just say it.”

Zuo Zhici must have something to tell her. Otherwise, she would not have stayed here for so long.

The teacher had arrived in the classroom. He glanced at Su Cha and did not say anything. While he was giving a lecture on the stage, Zuo Zhici had already revealed her intention.

“Sister, Grandpa and Grandma are coming to the Imperial Capital this week. Dad and Mom want you to go home for a gathering. Let’s have a good meal together. Even if you don’t want to go back to the Zuo family, it’s fine for you to go for a visit, right?”

Perhaps Ruan Yin had told Zuo Zhici very clearly that Su Cha did not want to go back. Only now did Zuo Zhici realize that Su Cha was not joking.

She had not called the Zuo family at all, nor had she told anyone about the Zuo family. Her attitude was obvious.

In addition, even though Su Cha had saved Zuo Zhici on the cruise last time, Zuo Zhici could see right not that Su Cha had put up a barrier.

Su Cha frowned and did not speak immediately.

Seeing this, Zuo Zhici continued, "Grandpa and Grandma also want to see you. They've been staying overseas. When they heard that you'd returned, they immediately said that they wanted to return."

Su Cha smiled silently.

She was amused.

Return to China immediately?

How long had it been since she'd confirmed her relationship with the Zuo family?

She had been back for a long time. What kind of plane took hundreds of hours to arrive?

What Zuo Zhici said was a little different from what Su Cha thought.

"We'll see."

Zuo Zhici panicked when she did not get a clear answer. "What do you mean by that? I've checked. You have no classes after this class."

"I have something important to do today."

Su Cha emphasized, "Let's talk about unimportant things later."

Zuo Zhici was stunned.

She looked at Su Cha and did not know what to say.

It turned out that the Zuo family's matter was not important to her. Zuo Zhici could not explain her feelings, and she did not have the right to criticize her. If Su Cha still had resentment in her heart after so many years, it seemed understandable.

At the thought of this, Zuo Zhici murmured, "Do you feel that our parents are to blame for not finding you after you've been suffering for so many years outside?"

Su Cha looked at her with a playful smile. "Miss Zuo, sometimes, you are really innocent. You might as well go back and ask your parents what exactly happened back then."

Zuo Zhici was stunned.

During the rest of the class, Su Cha did not want to talk to her anymore. After class, she left.

Bo Muyi was waiting for her at the school gate.

For today's matter, he ended work early.

Su Cha got into the car and asked the man in the car, "Why are you off so early today?"

Bo Muyi smiled elegantly. He held Su Cha's hand and gently pulled her to his side. "I made a promise to you today, so I naturally have to take it to heart. Let's go over now. You don't have anything to prepare, right?"

Su Cha shook her head. "What can I prepare?"

At this time, she did not feel anything much. She could not help but ask, "I just want to ask now, is the person you want to bring me to see the one who'd raised me for a period of time before my adoptive father adopted me?"

At first, she'd thought that it was someone from the Zuo family, but Ruan Yin's words did not match.

Bo Muyi looked at her deeply and clenched his fists. "You will know when you see that person. They don't know that you will come to meet them. They might be surprised."

Chapter 529: The Zong Family

The car started to drive slowly across the Imperial Capital.

Su Cha looked at the bracelet on her hand and vaguely saw some scenes.

Those scenes were not very clear, but there were traces of this bracelet. The only thing that was clearer was the color of this bracelet, which seemed to be particularly dazzling in her memory.

"Xiao Cha, this is your birthday present..."

These words seemed to come out of nowhere. It was unclear whether it was a man's or a woman's voice, which made one feel inexplicably disappointed.

"Cha Cha."

Bo Muyi held her fingertips. "As long as you see them, you will understand some things. I also want to know what exactly happened back then that made you lose your memory."

Su Cha looked at him in confusion. "Don't you know?"

Bo Muyi shook his head slowly. "I'm not sure about this."

That was why he was worried.

He was afraid that something serious had happened inside Su Cha's memory. It was like a time bomb. Bo Muyi could not tolerate it.

Hence, he did not stop Su Cha from looking for that person.

The car gradually drove to the outskirts of the Imperial Capital. Many wealthy families had bought villas there and lived halfway up the mountain. Bo Mui brought Su Cha to such a place.

At the foot of the mountain, Su Cha saw a private noticeboard.

There were surveillance cameras installed on the road up the mountain.

Looking up from the foot of the mountain, one could see a magnificent building at the top.

Su Cha narrowed her eyes when she saw it. It looked familiar.

She looked up and found that it was the residence of the chairman of an online trading group. This chairman's surname was Zong.

This place had been exposed as one of his mansions, but it was just a simple outer appearance. No one knew what was inside, and outsiders were usually prohibited from coming here.

Zong?

Su Cha tilted her head. There was another family with that name.

Su Cha only saw the real face of the building when she reached the top of the mountain.

It was a modern manor. There were no tall buildings, but the interior was very spacious.

There were secret guards around Bo Mui.

They had already reported the news when they came, so the people at the door only confirmed Bo Mui's identity and let them in.

The car drove into the courtyard and stopped on the flat and open ground. Bo Muyi pulled Su Cha's hand and got out of the car. He whispered gently in her ear, "Someone might be talking to you later. Don't bother with them."

Su Cha: "Who? Someone from the Zong family?"

Bo Muyi nodded, indicating that Su Cha would know.

He led Su Cha two steps. A middle-aged woman in a formal suit walked out of the spacious courtyard. She looked a little serious, like a meticulous butler.

When she walked out, she saw Bo Muyi and Su Cha, who was beside him.

Her expression was obviously not good.

"Master is under the impression that Young Master Bo was coming alone."

She was obviously picking on Su Cha.

Bo Muyi did not give her any face and said casually, "They have to meet sooner or later. What's the difference if it happens now?"

The butler's face stiffened. She glanced at Su Cha again and lowered her body to lead them in.

Su Cha was puzzled because she was sure that she did not know her.

But her attitude made Su Cha realize that the Zong family obviously knew her.

Chapter 530: Meeting

The room they entered was a simple one with a Japanese-style decoration.

Even the wooden chairs were arranged in a reserved manner.

There was an incense burner in the middle of the table. There was smoke lingering in it, and it had a special sandalwood fragrance.

Sitting in the middle of the room was an old man.

He was wearing a suit and holding a string of beads in his hand. He seemed to be resting with his eyes closed. When he heard movement, he opened his eyes.

Before the butler could bow and report, the old man saw Bo Muyi and Su Cha, who was next to Bo Muyi. He stood up abruptly in disbelief. "Why did you bring her here?"

Su Cha was stunned.

She recognized him at a glance. This was a person whose pictures were all over the Internet. The person in charge of the Zong family was also the Chairman of the Zong family corporation.

A powerful person who could summon clouds and rain with a flip of his hand, he actually knew her?

Su Cha started to wonder what she had done to know so many big shots.

However, judging from his expression, the old man was unhappy with her.

Bo Muyi chuckled. "Grandpa Zong, you know that it's useless to keep running away from certain things. I believe you must want to know what happened to your son back then. Even if you don't want to see her, she's innocent in some things."

"Innocent? Isn't my son also innocent?"

The old man's face turned red, and his emotions fluctuated wildly. The butler was shocked and went forward to support him. She patted his chest gently and asked worriedly, "Master, are you okay?"

Then, she looked at Bo Muyi. "Young Master Bo, our old master's health is not what it used to be. He can't take this. If you would take this lady away for the sake of his health, you may come back another day."

“Did I ask you to interrupt?”

Bo Muyi looked over with a cold glint in his eyes, and the female butler fell silent.

Although the other party was younger than her and was considered a junior, his ruthless aura was really scary.

“Do you think this is the Bo family’s territory?”

Zong Bingyi was furious. After saying this, he sat down as if he was exhausted. He looked at Su Cha with undisguised hatred. “I’ve already made myself clear about what happened back then. It was my son who failed to live up to expectations. All these years, I’ve tried my best to save him and saved his life. Now that he has woken up and returned to my side, I’ve long stopped pursuing the past.”

Su Cha was a little confused, but there seemed to be a layer that dragged her into the fog, allowing her to gradually understand the truth.

Bo Muyi smiled slightly. His smile was full of deadly temptation, but it also seemed to hide a chilling feeling. “Grandpa Zong, you said that you will not pursue this matter, but is that really the case? Do you think that your son’s accident was truly an accident?”

“What are you suspecting?”

Zong Bingyi slammed the table. “No matter what you think, you have to stop immediately!”

He was all-powerful in the business world. No one dared to rebut him easily, except for Bo Muyi, who was not afraid of him at all.

He was so outstanding. If nothing had happened to his son back then, he would have taken over the Zong family well. But now, he had become like this!

Bo Muyi tilted his head and looked at Su Cha. “Grandpa Zong, since you’ve said so, of course I can’t say anything more. But I’ve brought her here, so why don’t you let them meet and clarify everything? Do you want to see her again in the future? Why don't you ask your son for his opinion?"
