

The Queen 551

Chapter 551: An Early Internship

Lian Ye's face stiffened.

He was the genuine young master of the Lian family. Everyone had seen him on the cruise last time. When Bo Muyi led her to be introduced to them, Su Cha clearly saw every one of them.

She did it on purpose.

Lian Ye felt that this woman's attitude was too arrogant. He did not know what Bo Muyi liked about her. He felt irritated and said, "I am Lian Chi's brother."

"Oh?"

Su Cha looked at Lian Ye and clicked her tongue.

Lian Ye's face darkened as he looked at Fu Mo. "Fu Mo!"

Fu Mo's body trembled and she looked at Su Cha with fear in her eyes. Su Cha ignored her and asked Lian Ye, "Why did you call out to my assistant? Do you know her?"

Lian Ye looked at her and suddenly curved his lips into a sneer. His eyes were filled with contempt. "Miss Su, Fu Mo's father is my butler."

"Oh? What does that have to do with Fu Mo? She's my assistant. What's your name?!"

Su Cha almost wanted to put her hands on her hips to show off her arrogance. She rolled her eyes and told Fu Mo, "Fu Mo, come with me. I still have many things to tell you."

Fu Mo looked at Su Cha awkwardly and then at Lian Ye.

Lian Ye's eyes were dark and gloomy. It was as if a strong storm was brewing in them. It was scary.

Su Cha took two steps. Fu Mo did not move. She turned her head and saw that Fu Mo was not leaving. She seemed to be angry. “Fu Mo, are you leaving with me or not? Do you have the guts?”

Alright, the villain’s standard line!

While Fu Mo was feeling wronged, a woman’s gentle voice came from the car. “Alright, Lian Ye, let her go.”

As soon as the woman spoke, Lian Ye lifted his chin slightly. Fu Mo followed Su Cha in trepidation.

Before she left, she whispered to Lian Ye, “Thank you, Young Master.”

The two of them did not walk far. Su Cha’s car was waiting for them. They still had to put on an act. Fu Mo got into the car and left with Su Cha.

“If I become a big shot in the future, you’ll have to take full responsibility.”

Just now, Su Cha saw a few students targeting her.

They would probably be able to make a story about Fu Mo being a pitiful person who was being bullied by her tomorrow.

Fu Mo was a little embarrassed. “Sorry, Classmate Su.”

Su Cha waved her hand. “Were you referring to that woman just now? The two of them are obviously laughing at you. If he really wanted to treat you sincerely, he would have told you not to do this job after seeing my temper.”

It was obvious that with Su Cha’s temper, Fu Mo would not have it easy.

Lian Ye did not stop them as he wanted to indulge in everything that was happening. He did not want to see Fu Mo doing well.

There was a deeper meaning to Su Cha's words. Fu Mo's eyes darkened and she did not speak.

"I didn't expect you to be from the Lian family."

Su Cha chuckled, thinking that it was a coincidence.

Fu Mo looked at her curiously. "You know the Lian family? I think the young master knows you."

"Not really. My boyfriend knows someone from the Lian family."

Su Cha's expression turned cold at the mention of the Lian family. She was no longer as arrogant as before.

Even if she was arrogant, she would show it naturally and would not act it out.

It seemed that she had to continue acting in the future. She was still a weak little white flower on Tang Keruo's side. If she became overbearing now, she would be exposed sooner or later.

However, Su Cha was not worried about being exposed. She just enjoyed acting.

Just treat it as an internship for a future acting career!

Chapter 552: Overnight

That night, Su Cha went to the Zong family residence.

She did not expect to see her manager, Tan Jinsui.

To be honest, Tan Jinsui was very charming. Otherwise, how could he have so many fans online with his low-profile manager identity?

Almost all of Zou Manni's fans liked this manager.

People in modern society were very honest.

But Su Cha never thought that Tan Jinsui would have anything to do with her father.

When Zong Yanxiu introduced him with a smile, Su Cha was stunned.

“Xiao Cha, this is your Uncle Tan Jinsui. I’ve heard from your Uncle Tan that he’s your manager now? What a coincidence. Your Uncle Tan has been my brother since I was young. I can rest assured with him taking care of you.”

Zong Yanxiu was overjoyed and kept talking. Su Cha sat down and looked at Tan Jinsui.

She might not have been able to tell in the past, but now, she felt that something was wrong.

Her father was too happy. Su Cha could see that Tan Jinsui was looking at him as he spoke. His expression was as serious as ever, but there seemed to be something else in his eyes.

After Zong Yanxiu finished speaking, Su Cha immediately smiled and said, “Yes, Dad, what a coincidence. I didn’t expect Mr. Tan to be your brother.”

Zong Yanxiu corrected her, “Call him Uncle Tan, don’t be so distant.”

Su Cha continued to glance at Tan Jinsui. “Why didn’t I see him when I was young?”

“You’ve seen him before.”

Zong Yanxiu reminded her gently, “But you were too young at that time. You don’t remember.”

Tan Jinsui smiled and said, “Yes, you were still insensible back then. How could you remember me?”

Su Cha’s expression darkened. “Then why didn’t Uncle Tan tell me that you know me?”

Su Cha was sharp now and immediately noticed why Tan Jinsui wanted to be her manager.

Su Cha was surprised that the network was there.

Tan Jinsui smiled seriously. "At that time, I wasn't sure that you were Xiao Cha, and I just found out. After all, I only saw you when you were young. I don't know what you look after you grew up."

With this layer of relationship, the atmosphere between Su Cha and Tan Jinsui became a little strange. In the past, they were clear about public and private matters and were very polite. Now, there was a layer of ambiguity.

Su Cha felt that there was a problem, but she could not say it out loud.

She just felt that Tan Jinsui's goal was not so simple.

They had not seen each other for more than ten years.

Zong Yanxiu probably noticed that Tan Jinsui and Su Cha did not seem to have a cold relationship. He smiled and changed the topic. "I heard from Jinsui that Xiao Cha has an advertisement contract to sign this week. Is your career on the right track?"

She would naturally answer Zong Yanxiu's question. The three of them could still chat about Su Cha's career.

That's right, Old Master Zong had something to do. He went to the company to settle it and did not eat at home.

There were only the three of them in the Zong family.

After the meal, although Zong Yanxiu really wanted to keep Su Cha, the driver sent by Bo Muyi was already waiting. If she went back a little later, who knew how anxious he would be. Anyway, now that communication was convenient, Su Cha said that she would come often in the future, so Zong Yanxiu reluctantly let her go.

Tan Jinsui stayed overnight at the Zong family residence.

Chapter 553: Very Few Know

When Su Cha returned home and saw Bo Mui, she raised her eyebrows. “Mui, did you know that Tan Jinsui agreed to be my manager because he knew that I was my father’s daughter? I only found out today that Tan Jinsui and my father are brothers.”

Bo Mui was sitting on the sofa with his elbow on the edge. He waved at Su Cha with one hand. When he saw her coming over, he smiled and said, “Yes.”

He answered Su Cha’s question honestly.

“Then why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

The girl frowned and walked over to sit next to him. She reached out to hold both sides of Bo Mui’s cheeks and pressed hard.

His handsome face was deformed and looked a little funny. If others saw this, they would be scared out of their wits.

Bo Mui felt a little helpless, but he did not take her fingers away. He tilted his head and kissed her palm. “If I had told you earlier, wouldn’t there have been no surprise?”

Su Cha found it amusing. “What kind of surprise is this? It’s none of my business how Tan Jinsui is...”

Su Cha paused.

She suddenly remembered something.

Bo Mui had said before that Tan Jinsui was gay, so he was assured to let Tan Jinsui be her manager.

He never got married because he had someone he missed.

Su Cha widened her eyes and lost her composure. “Could Tan Jinsui have any improper thoughts about my father?”

Su Cha did not reject such a preference. Anyway, it would not affect her state.

Perhaps there were people like them living around her, but Su Cha had never met them before. She’d mostly only seen news of them online.

Moreover, it was Tan Jinsui.

During her stay in the ancient times, there were many people who were fond of Long Yangzhi[a]. Many royal families even raised young courtesans. But now that she knew that Tan Jinsui might have feelings for her father, Su Cha felt disgusted.

It was an indescribable feeling.

Bo Muyi paused and held Su Cha’s hands. Although he did not say anything, his eyes showed that Su Cha might be right.

Su Cha: “...”

Sometimes, she hated her quick reaction.

Her expression was complicated. “How did you know?”

“This is nothing new. You will know everything.”

Bo Muyi explained carefully, “Everyone knows that Tan Jinsui is gay, but I can tell that he likes your father.”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “Have you interacted with them?”

Bo Muyi chuckled. “With Tan Jinsui’s temper, if he didn’t like your father, even if you were his brother’s daughter, he wouldn’t have become your manager. He finds it troublesome. If he doesn’t find it troublesome, it would seem like trouble to others. Then, the meaning behind it can be investigated.”

This showed how scary Bo Mui was. Actually, he had never seen Tan Jinsui with Zong Yanxiu. After all, that was a long time ago.

He had only speculated based on some rumors and the fact that he had asked Bai Kun to look for Tan Jinsui.

From the looks of it, it was confirmed.

With Tan Jinsui’s personality, it was not difficult to guess who he liked.

It was just surprising, and few people knew about it.

[a]might need to be corrected

Chapter 554: Sign a Contract

Su Cha was surprised.

After all, that was her father, and she had never seen anything like this around her.

She did not know if she should warn Zong Yanxiu or Tan Jinsui himself.

After thinking for a long time, Su Cha said something out of sorts, “I think my father is very straightforward.”

Bo Mui: “...”

He took a few seconds to understand what she meant.

He knew that he was gay, but it did not mean that he knew what was popular nowadays. He did not care about this.

But she understood what Su Cha meant.

Bo Muyi raised his eyebrows. “So?”

Su Cha rubbed her forehead. “I don’t want to say anything, and I don’t want to care. But if my father doesn’t agree, I won’t let Tan Jinsui have a chance.”

In the end, Su Cha could not stop him.

She only supported her father. As his daughter, she could only do her best to protect him.

Tan Jinsui could only have this thought. If Zong Yanxiu did not want it, or if Tan Jinsui had any inappropriate thoughts, Su Cha would definitely stop him.

But in this situation, she could not intervene.

Judging from the way he ate tonight, Zong Yanxiu obviously did not know.

He really treated Tan Jinsui as a buddy.

Bo Muyi twirled a strand of Su Cha’s hair and said lovingly, “Up to you.”

He would do whatever Cha Cha did.

...

During the weekend, Su Cha went to the head office of the snacks company to sign the endorsement contract.

This snack brand was very famous. It was called “San Jiayi.” Most of the snacks were dried fruits and snacks of other types. For example, the Creamline Fruit Candy this time was a new product and was quite popular in the snacks industry.

Su Cha was a newbie. She had a lot of fame, but she did not have any solid standing. After all, this was a fast-paced era. The show she's on was currently popular, but it did not mean that Su Cha could continue to become popular after it ended. However, Su Cha's manager was Tan Jinsui, which was a safeguard.

Tan Jinsui was not someone to be trifled with. He negotiated the price of one million yuan for Su Cha during their first endorsement deal.

After the tax.

Moreover, this money did not have to be divided for the company shares. Tan Jinsui was paid by Bo Muyi from the company, which was equivalent to Su Cha taking it for free.

Su Cha was surprised when she found out.

The first official advertisement endorsement deal was a million yuan. No wonder so many people were trying to climb into the entertainment industry every year. If they had some fame, it would be too easy to earn money.

Ordinary people would never be able to imagine the sky-high salary of tens of millions or even hundreds of millions.

Fu Mo was surprised when she read the contract for Su Cha. She whispered to Su Cha, "Classmate Su, are endorsement and advertisements so profitable?"

Su Cha rested her chin on her hand and glanced at the contract. She then glanced at Fu Mo. "This is also because of the endorsement. If it was just an advertisement, it would be very rare to get this amount. Besides, this money was negotiated by my manager, not entirely because of my fame. However, it is indeed a very lucrative industry. Fu Mo, aren't you short of money? If it's possible, you can try it out in the industry. Your face is actually not bad, but your skin is not. If you are willing, I can get someone to help you."

She spoke meaningfully as if she had other intentions. Fu Mo's eyes flickered and she shook her head. "Thank you, Classmate Su. However, I'm not interested in the entertainment industry. The salary as your assistant is already high enough. I don't need anything else."

Chapter 555: Empress Dowager

Su Cha smiled and did not say anything.

After signing the contract, the brand's representative prepared a copy of the official contract for them. According to the contract, Su Cha only needed to shoot two advertisements. The rest of the endorsement packaging would take some time to change. It would take at least two months before Su Cha's endorsement of Creamline Fruit would be released.

There was little time involved.

After signing the contract, they would shoot the advertisement after some time.

Other than that, Su Cha also participated in the competition in the industry.

Time passed by slowly in October. The competition for Dreams in Progress had reached a certain level of popularity and was in a stable state.

The contestants who were still around were all popular, especially Su Cha.

Nowadays, when she was leaving the campus, if she did not pay attention, she would meet fans who came especially for her.

Hence, she usually asked Bo Mui's driver to pick her up in a nanny car. She could treat it as a car sent by her agency to prevent people from noticing.

And now, only the top five were left.

Su Cha did not expect that Chen Shengjun, who had quarreled with her before, would have steadily made it to this point. Ka Lian and two other contestants were also left.

Since she did not stay in the dormitory, she did not interact with these people. She only occasionally glanced at them during the competition.

These people probably thought negatively about how Su Cha did not live in the dormitory and deliberately ganged up against her. Their attitude towards Su Cha was obvious.

They also knew very well that if Su Cha entered the top three, she would definitely not choose to be in a group. Her situation was not the same as theirs from the beginning.

They had all signed with Xinhua Entertainment, which was backing the production crew. Only Su Cha had signed with a newly established company, and her manager was a legendary manager whose name resounded in the entire entertainment industry. She was no longer on the same path as them, and they were no longer on the same path. Of course, they would not have any interaction.

It was worth mentioning that after Su Cha participated in the “Who Will Be the Parent Today?” show, the next half of the show was broadcasted to save Su Cha’s image. People were surprised that she got Li Miyi under her control, but they did not like Su Cha because her attitude towards Li Miyi was a mixture of good and bad.

Due to the fact that there were no major events happening now, this group of people’s attitude towards her was that of a passerby who would usually view things as half-black and half-white.

The competition was getting more and more intense, but Su Cha was not nervous at all. With everyone paying attention, the “Legend of the Crane” that Su Cha was going to participate in finally announced its start.

On the day the production was announced on Weibo, the trending searches exploded. The topic of the Best Actor and the Best Actress was very intense. Su Cha, who was not an important character, was not worthy of being announced. She was only informed to participate in the opening banquet and had received her own set time. The script was complete.

She took a look. It was only for five episodes. The number of episodes was not bad, but her actual appearance time was not long.

However, Su Cha was surprised to see the character in the script.

There was an outstanding female supporting role in Emperor He’s story. It was the Empress Dowager, a young Empress Dowager.

She became the Empress Dowager at a very young age, and she did not get along with the male lead, Emperor He. Moreover, the Empress Dowager was vicious and merciless, causing Emperor He many troubles before she finally died in his hands.

Su Cha's role as a servant was given to her by the Empress Dowager, so she had a scene with her.

Chapter 556: Switching On

Although Su Cha saw the role, she did not think much about it.

This role suited her previous life, but she could not deduce her attitude from the short scene.

Moreover, she was not ruthless. She was just hard-hearted and decisive. Otherwise, how could she suppress those who refused to submit to her?

There were still some differences. She was auditioning for another role. Su Cha did not have enough status to have any thoughts about this role, because the one who'd play the role of the young Empress Dowager was the newbie Jin Jiayu, who had made a name for herself in the first half of the year. She had a very beautiful and pleasing face, and she was very popular. Unexpectedly, she's also popular with the female audience. To be honest, she was on a completely different level from the current Su Cha.

Su Cha did not think too much about the role of a popular starlet.

It was enough for her to act well.

At around the same time, she looked at her recent classes and asked for leave for her scenes. The production crew knew that she was participating in a competition, so they did not focus her scenes on the weekend. It was also because there was a producer behind her, Tan Yeluo. Otherwise, with her status, she would definitely follow the production crew's arrangements, and they would not care if she was participating in a competition.

Almost every character in the production crew was played by people more famous than Su Cha. Unless they were especially unknown, they were all veteran actors with superb acting skills and who could not be easily offended.

Su Cha taking leave from school was the best solution.

After that, Su Cha packed up and went to join the production crew with Fu Mo.

She only brought Fu Mo.

The main reason was that it seemed like there were more things to do. Although she was more popular, her status in the film industry should be the lowest among the production crew, not counting the other minor characters.

There was only one room that the production crew had arranged for her. Of course, Su Cha could choose another room or bring her makeup artist there, but it would inevitably attract gossip. Moreover, there was a hidden rule in the entertainment industry.

She should not be too high-profile right now.

Besides, the production crew had makeup artists. There was nothing inconvenient.

When Su Cha brought Fu Mo to the Legend of the Crane set, she found it strange.

It was Su Cha's first time coming to the film studio.

Many period dramas were usually filmed in specialized film and television cities. After all, specialized TV sets did not have such conditions.

These film studios were built according to the landmark buildings left behind by the ancient city. It could not be said that they did not resemble the ancient times. Anyway, Su Cha's Yun Tang was too far away.

As this was a big production, there were many people. The producers were wealthy enough to reserve a few five-star hotels for the production crew. As an actress, Su Cha was assigned to an administrative room. Luckily, it was a five-star room, and it had been renovated. The conditions were not bad, and she was used to living in Yonggu City's simple and crude house. Of course, Su Cha had no objections to this condition.

Even Fu Mo had to stay in the same room as her.

If she had a higher status, the production crew would have arranged a room for Fu Mo. However, Su Cha and Fu Mo were not particular about it, so it was fine for them to live together.

Today was the opening ceremony. After she got the room card from the hotel, she brought Fu Mo to join the production crew. At this time, the production crew had already started preparing what they needed for the opening ceremony. It was a busy scene. When Su Cha arrived, many staff were surprised to see her. There were also some actors.

Chapter 557: Late

Su Cha was new to being a talent show singer.

The contestants were still in the midst of a nerve-wracking talent show. How could she have time to join a production crew?

It was fine for the others to be there. After all, this was a top-notch production. It was not easy for them to get a role. How did Su Cha, a newbie who had just debuted, get one?

Many things in the industry were not new, so many people looked at Su Cha with subtle expressions.

Of course, they recognized Su Cha, so they did not think too much about it.

A few veteran actors did not know Su Cha. When they saw Su Cha's clean and clear appearance, they asked the people around them who she was.

She was so good-looking and looked like she could become popular, but no one knew what role she was playing.

Logically speaking, Su Cha and Fu Mo should be feeling a little awkward. They were newcomers, and the director and assistant director were busy and did not have time to greet them. Even familiar faces on television were unfamiliar with them.

The two of them would not deliberately try to get close to other actors. They found a place to sit down. Fu Mo looked at the production crew as she searched for information about these actors on her gadget.

She did not know much about the entertainment industry, but now that she was with Su Cha, she naturally had to take care of her no matter how big or small the matter was. At least she should not see an actor that she did not know.

As an assistant, she could not be so arrogant.

Su Cha was looking around the production crew.

Other than the busy production crew and other actors, the place they were at was a scenic spot in the film studio. In the distance, there was a banner that belonged to “The Legend of the Crane” hanging on a roof. There were also some cameras, but they did not seem to be people from the production crew as they were waiting outside. They must be media reporters.

After a few glances, Su Cha realized that the main leads were not here.

Those who came were all veteran actors and actresses on the bottom ranks.

After all, this was a director’s show. A popular person had the right to be late, but others did not.

She sat for a while before the other popular actors arrived.

The main lead of this drama was Shao Tianwen, the current popular mid-generation Best Actor. The female lead was the A-list Best Actress Mu Jiao.

Shao Tianwen was already 40 years old, and he was not married yet. However, he was handsome and elegant, and his acting skills were outstanding. He was the eternal love in the eyes of thousands of girls. He had always been on the front lines in the entertainment industry, and he was the best male lead in several high box office movies. The reason he accepted “The Legend of the Crane” was, firstly, because this film was suitable for a small screen, and, secondly, because the director was Han Yongbing.

Mu Jiao, the movie queen, was slightly inferior to him. Although she was a movie queen and had good acting skills, her reputation was not good. She was an A-lister, but her status was not stable. It was also because she was 30 years old and too young.

Next was the popular star, Jin Jiayu, followed by the second male lead and other actors.

However, the second male lead was also a newcomer. He was inferior to other veteran actors.

When Su Cha saw the second male lead, she felt that he was unfamiliar and that she had never seen him before. Fu Mo whispered in her ear, "He's a trainee from South Korea. He was able to join the production crew because there's someone backing him. I think that's what the news said, but I'm not sure."

Su Cha came to a realization. If it was a big production, it would not be congested with people getting in through special relationships. At the very least, there were people who were better than her here when it came to connections.

Looking around, Su Cha found that almost everyone was here. Jin Jiayu was not here yet.

It was not until the assistant director took a loudspeaker and shouted that the opening ceremony was about to begin that Jin Jiayu's nanny car arrived.

Chapter 558: Second Male Lead

Su Cha felt that Jin Jiayu was the center of attention.

There were two nanny vans, and at least seven or eight people came to take care of her. When she got out of the car, her assistant held her hand in fear and trepidation, as if she was not acting as the Empress Dowager but was a real Empress Dowager.

Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao saw it from afar. They glanced at it indifferently as if they were mocking it, but also as if they didn't care about it at all.

Others might think that Jin Jiayu was extraordinary, but she was nothing in front of these two.

Jin Jiayu was currently popular. When she got out of the car, she smiled sweetly at the director Han Yongbing from afar. "Director Han, Uncle Tianwen, Sister Mu Jiao!"

As for the others, she passed by them.

Other than these three, no one was more popular than Jin Jiayu.

However, there were some veteran actors in the production crew who had been in the entertainment industry for many years. They had good reputations. When they saw Jin Jiayu ignoring others like this, they could not help but feel unhappy.

She was different from Su Cha. Su Cha ignored everyone.

Han Yongbing frowned slightly when he saw Jin Jiayu in the crowd. He did not respond to her but turned his head and shouted, "The opening ceremony is ready."

Although he did not respond, Jin Jiayu did not care. When the others heard this, they went to gather.

When Jin Jiayu passed by Su Cha, she paused when she saw her.

Su Cha noticed that she had placed her hand on the back of the assistant's hand as she walked. The assistant seemed to be serving her.

Before Su Cha could speak, someone explained this strange scene for her.

An actress who did not know her sneered, "I heard that she is acting as the Empress Dowager. Now she has started her internship. What a joke."

"Could she keep this role? She only slept her way in. I'm afraid she will be crushed when she acts with Best Actor Shao."

Su Cha curled her lips. Maybe Jin Jiayu had watched too much drama.

Did she really think that the Empress Dowager was like this?

Fu Mo was dumbfounded by Jin Jiayu's attitude. "Classmate Su, are celebrities all so exaggerated?"

Naturally, she also knew that the person next to Jin Jiayu was an assistant. Now that she was comparing, she felt that Su Cha was simply an angel.

Su Cha chuckled. “Individuals are different.”

Some people liked to keep a low profile.

Especially in the entertainment industry, if one was praised too highly and worshipped by tens of thousands of people, it was inevitable that they would lose their original intentions.

During the opening ceremony, Su Cha was stuck in the crowd according to her position. There were also people taller than her around her, blocking her figure. The photographer did not take pictures of Su Cha, so her participation in this drama did not cause any waves.

After the opening ceremony, the first scene would begin in the afternoon.

This scene was an outdoor scene. In the script, there was a scene with Emperor He fighting a war. It was a big scene, and Su Cha had nothing to do for the time being. Her scenes would begin tomorrow.

However, she needed to stay with the production crew to learn some experience today.

“Su... Su Cha...”

Su Cha and Fu Mo sat on the stool and looked at their scripts. Suddenly, someone called her. Perhaps it was because he was a little nervous, but his voice was quite cheerful.

Su Cha and Fu Mo looked up and saw a handsome man who was dressed fashionably.

He had a fashionable style, but he was not feminine. The outline of his face was still firm, but his eyes were especially big and he looked more cheerful.

It was the second male lead, Hua Nie.

Chapter 559: She Doesn't Like You

When Fu Mo mentioned the trainee from South Korea, Su Cha's impression of him was that he had entered through the back door.

But what if the other party was selected based on acting skills?

However, Su Cha could not tell that the other party was good at acting.

She quickly realized that she was judging people by their appearance. What if they were really good at acting?

"Hello?"

Su Cha smiled gently. There was no need to offend others in the production crew before others had revealed their intentions.

Seeing Su Cha's smile, Hua Nie felt a lot more relaxed. He sat next to Su Cha. He was very smart. He took the stool and made some space before he said happily, "I heard that you are a singer. Are you participating in a competition right now? When I was in South Korea, I also participated in a singing competition. However, I was not strong enough and got eliminated, so I went back home."

Su Cha and Fu Mo looked at each other. They did not know why he approached them and one said, "Then why did you return to the country to act?"

Hua Nie smiled in embarrassment. "I just like it a little. My uncle is the investor of this show. He asked me to come in and try out the second male lead role, so I came in..."

Su Cha, Fu Mo: "..."

So honest?

His words were a little hateful. Fortunately, there was no one else around. Su Cha herself was suspected of taking the back door. She did not say anything about righteousness and just raised her eyebrows.

Han Yongbing's requirements were very strict. Yet it seemed that he could not resist the investors' demands.

Other than the fact that her situation was a little special, she had at least undergone an audition. At present, Jin Jiayu and Hua Nie did not seem to have entered the group under normal circumstances.

"Hua Nie!"

A woman's voice came from afar. Jin Jiayu walked over and saw Hua Nie and Su Cha. She had a faint smile on her face. "What are you talking about?"

Seeing Jin Jiayu calling him, Hua Nie felt a little uneasy. "Ah? We weren't talking..."

She came over after they'd exchanged just a few words.

"Let's go, then. Let's go and rehearse together."

The role that Hua Nie was playing was that of someone who had always admired the young Empress Dowager played by Jin Jiayu. It was normal for the two of them to have a scene together. However, despite how Hua Nie was talking to Su Cha, Jin Jiayu could not help but ignore Su Cha.

Hua Nie was a little unhappy. "Don't we have to wait until tomorrow morning? Since Brother Tianwen and Sister Mu Jiao are filming right now, let's wait."

"Aiyah, you should rehearse beforehand. That way, there won't be any NGs during the filming. Why are you talking to a female number N here? Do you have any scenes with her?"

As Jin Jiayu spoke, she had already reached out to grab Hua Nie's arm. Moreover, her tone was coquettish.

Hua Nie was a little dumbfounded. He did not seem to understand her tricks, but he was a man, after all, so he allowed himself to be pulled up by Jin Jiayu.

However, he struggled to break free. "Let's not be like this before we start filming. Otherwise, we might be criticized. You are a famous person..."

Su Cha and Fu Mo were amused by their situation.

It was obvious that Jin Jiayu was trying to seduce a straight-laced man.

She did not expect Hua Nie to be so pure.

Jin Jiayu's expression darkened. She glanced at Su Cha and dragged him away.

After she left, Fu Mo said, "She doesn't like you."

She sounded very certain.

Chapter 560: End of Work!

"I know."

Of course, Su Cha could tell that Jin Jiayu disliked her.

She did not think that she had offended Jin Jiayu in any way.

However, women were strange. There was at times no reason for their dislike.

Coincidentally, she also disliked Jin Jiayu, but since there was no direct conflict between them, she would not do anything.

At most, she would pretend that she had never seen this person.

The scenes in the afternoon were very exciting. The first scene was a grand war scene. Han Yongbing was very good at it, and Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao's acting skills were also extremely wonderful.

Although they had NGed several times for various reasons, there had never been a problem with their acting skills.

Emperor He, played by Shao Tianwen, was standing below the city wall. The female lead, Mu Jiao, was dressed as a man beside Emperor He. She was his loyal subordinate and regarded him as a big brother.

The two of them would fall in love over time, and Mu Jiao's character was very popular among the audience.

They were both a best actor and a best actress, so they knew how to control their emotions well. Even though there were many cameras and modern facilities around them, when one really watched them act, they could still make people feel like they were in the middle of a real scene through their lines.

Su Cha wanted to applaud them for their excellent acting skills.

The surrounding people could not help but nod when they saw the two of them. The veteran actors also gave their affirmation. Hua Nie looked at them with admiration. Jin Jiayu curled her lips with an unclear expression.

They spent the whole afternoon filming a war scene. Although it was already October, Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao's foreheads were covered in sweat as they were wearing thick and heavy armor costumes. However, neither of them said anything nor complained. They just took a few sips of water during the break and were extremely professional.

Su Cha felt that it was not unreasonable for some people to be paid well. At least they were worth it.

But some were obviously not worth it.

After filming, they went to change out of their costumes. The assistant hurriedly followed them in. After Su Cha finished watching the scenes in the afternoon, she did not stay around. She only greeted the assistant director and left with Fu Mo.

After she left, Han Yongbing looked at the scene that had just been filmed and suddenly thought of something. He asked the assistant director, "What about the girl who acted the role of Chaoyun? The one who sang."

The assistant director was stunned and looked around. “She seems to have left.”

Han Yongbing was stunned.

Then, his face seemed to twitch. No emotions could be seen.

Not many actors had left yet. Some people were taking the opportunity to greet the veteran actors and actresses. Even Jin Jiayu, who came in the most high-profile manner, did not leave. Yet Su Cha left early.

However, since she did not have any scenes in the afternoon, Han Yongbing was satisfied that she’d stayed with the production crew for the whole afternoon to watch.

At least for the whole afternoon, apart from Jin Jiayu’s noisy chatter, he did not hear Su Cha ordering people around.

The assistant director did not know what he meant and asked cautiously, “Director Han, you have something on. Do you want to call her back?”

Han Yongbing glanced at him. “Talking about the person the producer admires, you’re so casual.”

The assistant director:v”...”

A cold sweat broke out on the assistant director’s forehead. He smiled awkwardly and said, “I thought you had something to discuss with her. I don’t think she would care about such a trivial matter.”

“That’s hard to say.”

Han Yongbing waved his hand and stood up. “Let’s call it a day!”

Today’s scenes officially ended.