

The Queen 621

Chapter 621: What a Sin

“There’s a Lantern Festival in the city tonight. Classmate Su, shall we go take a look?”

Fu Mo checked online and found out that there was a local holiday in the city tonight. It had been a tradition for many years.

The locals would light lanterns by the river. At night, almost all of them would come out. It was very lively.

Since they were done filming, Fu Mo wanted to go with Su Cha.

Su Cha thought for a while. It was not a big deal if she didn’t stay in the hotel all day. Besides, she would not be noticed if she went out at night.

She nodded. “Okay, let’s go.”

She was wearing a pair of sunglasses. Her delicate chin looked a little serious, and she looked a little cold.

It had already turned cold in October. Su Cha put on a coat and went out with Fu Mo.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she arrived at the gate, she bumped into two sneaky figures who were about to get into a nanny car.

Su Cha asked curiously, “Sister Mu Jiao, Best Actor Shao, where are you going so late?”

The two people wearing coats and sunglasses turned their heads. When they saw that it was Su Cha, they could not help but laugh. “We’re going to watch the Lantern Festival. You too?”

Thinking about it, it was obvious why she went out at this time.

Su Cha nodded. Mu Jiao waved at her. "Come up. The driver will take us there."

Su Cha did not decline and got into the car with Fu Mo.

Neither of them had an assistant, but Su Cha knew that they were just friends.

It was just that they were filming now. For the sake of fame, the two of them had a tacit understanding. If a photo was taken, it would cause a stir on the Internet.

Of course, even if it was not, they would still watch the show.

Su Cha sat in the backseat while Mu Jiao and Shao Tianwen sat in the front. When the car started, Mu Jiao suddenly asked, "Su Cha, don't blame Sister Mu Jiao for being straightforward. I'm a little curious. Do you know Miss Tan?"

Shao Tianwen looked at Mu Jiao in surprise. Su Cha raised her eyebrows. "Sister Mu Jiao, are you talking about that Miss Tan?"

Mu Jiao nodded. "I heard from the director that Miss Tan was very satisfied with your audition."

Shao Tianwen coughed. "Su Cha's acting is good. Miss Tan perhaps enjoyed it."

Su Cha glanced at Shao Tianwen with a smile and said, "Miss Tan and I do know each other, but we are not as familiar as you think. We've only met a few times, and there's nothing special about it."

The Star Alliance naturally did not count. After all, this relationship could not be made public.

"Is that so?"

Mu Jiao chuckled. "That's strange. I thought you knew Miss Tan well and wanted to ask you about it."

"What do you want to know?"

Su Cha asked deliberately, “Could it be that Sister Mu Jiao is interested in gossip? You are the movie queen. What kind of news do you not know?”

“About Miss Tan herself.”

Mu Jiao raised her voice. “Like what Miss Tan likes.”

“Cough cough cough cough.”

Shao Tianwen coughed heavily and said in embarrassment, “Mu Jiao, what are you talking about? Su Cha said that she’s not familiar with Miss Tan.”

“Ah, I was just asking. Brother Tianwen, why did you have such a big reaction?”

Mu Jiao was obviously teasing Shao Tianwen.

Su Cha could tell what she meant.

She glanced at Shao Tianwen. Through the sunglasses, Shao Tianwen could not see the sympathy in her eyes.

What a... sin!

Chapter 622: Flower Lamp

Today was the city’s Lantern Festival. Before they officially arrived at the city center, the entire city was decorated with lanterns and streamers.

The warm red light illuminated the entire city.

They drove to the center of the city by the river. At this time, many people were gathered around the river, holding lanterns of different colors in their hands. The adults and children were all smiling, waiting to place the lanterns in the river.

This was their tradition, and also a kind of lantern tradition. On a designated holiday, they would place the lanterns that bore their wishes in the river, and their wishes would be fulfilled.

Although it was just a legend, it had been passed down for thousands of years. People nowadays just wanted to be lively.

As the new year became colder and colder, the concept of a holiday seemed to become increasingly vague.

Mu Jiao was a little excited. She pulled Shao Tianwen's sleeve and said, "Hey, I'm going to put the lanterns down. Are you coming?"

She turned to ask Su Cha.

Su Cha smiled lightly. "I want to, but I haven't bought any lanterns."

"Then!"

Mu Jiao pointed in a direction. "See that? There are sellers everywhere."

Su Cha looked in the direction she was pointing. There were indeed a bunch of vendors selling flower lanterns.

Fu Mo whispered, "Classmate Su, I'll buy it for you."

Su Cha nodded.

Mu Jiao took out her sunglasses and mask and put them on. Shao Tianwen was a little speechless. "It's already so late at night. Isn't it obvious that people will have a problem with you wearing a mask?"

Celebrities nowadays could bank on others to not recognize them. In fact, she only needed to disguise herself a little. If she was fully armed, she would attract suspicion.

Of course, some of them were deliberately putting on an act to attract attention.

Mu Jiao glared at Shao Tianwen, but she still took off her mask.

The sunglasses covered her facial features so that she would not be easily recognized.

Although it was strange to wear sunglasses in the middle of the night, some people just liked to show off, so the people would think that was just the case.

Su Cha also put on her sunglasses. Fu Mo got out of the car and went to buy lanterns for them. The driver found a secluded corner and parked the car. The three of them got out.

Shao Tianwen rubbed his arms and said awkwardly, "I haven't seen such a holiday in years."

He was too busy.

He had been filming movies and TV shows for so many years. He had also been receiving all kinds of interviews, but he never stopped.

He was not the kind of person who could disappear after reaching a certain stage. He had been active on the front lines for so many years, and it was also the reason why his status was as stable as a mountain.

Shao Tianwen did not even go home after the new year, let alone on such a holiday.

Mu Jiao sneered. "That's why you only know how to make money and go on shows. People need more fun. Don't you have enough money?"

Shao Tianwen smiled in embarrassment. "This has nothing to do with money. I'm used to my life with the production crews. I'm not used to stopping."

"If this continues, you won't be able to find a wife!"

Mu Jiao was implying something. Shao Tianwen glanced at Su Cha and felt embarrassed.

Su Cha just smiled and did not speak.

Naturally, she would not be so tactless. Strictly speaking, Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao were not very familiar with her, so they could not joke about it.

It just so happened that Fu Mo had bought the lanterns then while Mu Jiao was fully prepared. Seeing this, she took out two pens from the pocket of her coat and gave one to Su Cha. “Come, write a note. I brought these out of the room.”

Chapter 623: Those Who Like You Don’t Go Out

Su Cha took it. Shao Tianwen felt a little awkward. “Forget it...”

This kind of lantern looked like something a girl would play with. As a man, and a middle-aged one at that, playing with it would make him seem out of place.

Mu Jiao pushed the pen to him. “Just write whatever I tell you to. If you don’t know how to work hard, can’t you at least make a wish?”

Mu Jiao seemed to have a good relationship with Shao Tianwen. Otherwise, she would not be angry at him.

After receiving the pen, Shao Tianwen did not know what to write.

The lantern was accompanied by a wish slip. Su Cha thought for a while and wrote on the red paper with a pen: I want to be happy forever with Bo Muye.

It was a simple and direct wish.

After she finished writing, she folded it and stuffed it into the lantern.

Fu Mo also bought one for herself. She took Su Cha’s pen and wrote a long line. Su Cha did not look at it, but Shao Tianwen tilted his head to look at Mu Jiao’s.

Mu Jiao pushed her head. "Go away. My wish won't come true."

Shao Tianwen said awkwardly, "I just don't know what I should write."

Mu Jiao was exasperated. "If you don't know how to make a wish, why don't you write a wish to live a long life?"

Shao Tianwen: "..."

It was rare to see Movie King Shao, whom everyone respected, being defeated. Su Cha could not help but laugh.

Mu Jiao said, "Look, even a little girl is mocking you!"

Shao Tianwen covered his face, feeling a little embarrassed.

In the end, he picked up the pen and wrote a wish. Other than Su Cha, who'd brought her assistant, the two of them did not bring any followers. The four of them squeezed into the river and placed the lanterns into it.

The surrounding people could not help but take a few more glances at the imposing people.

Putting aside the fact that they were wearing sunglasses in the middle of the night, this handsome man and beautiful woman did not look like an ordinary person. An auntie even recognized Shao Tianwen. "Aiyaya, are you that Shao Tianwen..."

There was a commotion around. Luckily, the auntie's voice did not attract much attention.

It was obviously not Shao Tianwen's first time facing such a situation. His expression did not change. "Auntie, you are overthinking. But you are not the first person to say that I look like Best Actor Shao. I just look like him. I am not a celebrity."

"Oh? I'm sorry."

The auntie was in a daze and was fooled by Shao Tianwen.

A little girl exclaimed, “Su Cha?”

Su Cha: “...”

Unexpectedly, there was someone who knew her here. Su Cha did not speak, but the little girl became more certain when she saw her. “Su Cha! It’s you!”

Fu Mo blocked her. “Young lady, you’ve got the wrong person.”

It was a little girl who was only 15 or 16 years old. When she saw Su Cha and the others, she called out to her twice, but when she heard what Fu Mo said, her eyes rolled around and she looked at Su Cha silently.

Seeing that there were so many people here, even if they were wearing sunglasses, it would be very dangerous. They left after putting down the lanterns.

On the way, Mu Jiao was amused. “Hey, hey, hey, there are so many fans of yours around. They’ve already recognized you two, but no one recognized me. It seems that I’m really not famous. Sigh!”

She was not angry. She just said it on purpose. It was rare for Movie King Shao to rebut her, “Those who like you are all staying at home and not going out.”

Mu Jiao: “...”

She was pretty, so there were indeed more otakus among her fans. But Shao Tianwen’s words were infuriating.

She rolled her eyes and snorted as she sped up.

Chapter 624: True Birthday

Although it was lively tonight, they were currently filming, so it was not advisable for them to cause a big commotion. Hence, they did not go to the mall.

They walked along the streets in the dark for a while, attracting a lot of attention.

They only returned to the hotel when it was about time.

After this incident, the group got to know each other completely. Su Cha got their phone numbers and added them on WeChat, so she had two more friends.

They looked like a high and mighty Best Actor and Best Actress. Yet upon entering this industry and working with them, it was easy for her to get to know them.

They were just normal people.

Late at night, Su Cha received a call from Zong Yanxiu.

“Xiao Cha, it’s your birthday in a few days. Come back, okay? I’ll celebrate with you.”

Su Cha was stunned and puzzled. “That’s not right, Dad. Wasn’t my birthday earlier?”

It was her 18th birthday.

Zong Yanxiu coughed. “No, that birthday was the day your mother gave you to me. There were some... other things going on, so I registered your birthday for you in advance. But it’s different now. You should celebrate your real birthday.”

Su Cha: “...”

She suddenly had an ominous feeling. “I... am actually not an adult yet?”

“Of course not. You’re already 19. When your mother handed you to me, you were just a half-year-old child, so your real birthday is in a few days.”

Su Cha: “...”

Although it was unexpected, Su Cha felt relieved. It was fine as long as she was an adult. Bo Mui did not break the law...

But she was already 19? Wouldn't she be shameless if she claimed to be 18?

Su Cha felt a little awkward.

"Xiao Cha, are you free in a few days?"

Zong Yanxiu spoke again. Su Cha thought about it. Not only was she free, but she also remembered that the Martial Alliance Meeting was about to begin.

As the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, she had to attend.

"I'm free. I'll be back in a few days."

"Then it's settled. Daddy will wait for you at home."

Home. The word warmed Su Cha's heart.

She now not only had Bo Mui's home, but also Zong Yanxiu's home, which was naturally her home.

After hanging up, Su Cha was still in a daze.

After so many years of celebrating her birthday, she did not expect it to be fake.

At the first moment of hearing that, she was nervous. If she was still underage, then Bo Mui...?

Thinking of this, she blushed. Luckily, Zong Yanxiu said that she was already 19.

Otherwise, it would be too awkward.

Fu Mo was checking Su Cha's daily necessities when she suddenly asked, "Classmate Su, do you usually like anything?"

Su Cha turned her head. "Hmm? Why are you suddenly asking this?"

Fu Mo turned around and smiled at her. "I want to know. I'm your assistant."

Su Cha did not know if it was an illusion, but under the light, she felt that the marks on Fu Mo's face were no longer as heavy as before. There was a strange luster.

She looked better than before.

Unconsciously, Su Cha felt that her assistant had changed somehow.

She paused and said, "Actually, there's nothing special."

There was indeed nothing she liked.

Hearing this, Fu Mo nodded. She looked at her wrist. She was wearing the old bracelet Zong Yanxiu had given her.

Fu Mo retracted her gaze and smiled lightly. She continued packing and did not speak.

Chapter 625: A Martial Artist's Red Packet

After a few days, it was Su Cha's birthday.

Bo Muyi was surprised that it was such an important day, but he quickly accepted it. He sent Su Cha a happy birthday message at midnight, but Su Cha was still on set.

She left the production crew in the morning and only arrived at the Zong family home at noon.

After all, Zong Yanxiu was her father. Since Zong Yanxiu wanted to hold a birthday banquet in the Zong family home, Bo Muiyi could not say anything.

Although it was said to be a birthday banquet, Su Cha did not invite anyone. Only the Zong family's internal staff and Tan Jinsui were invited.

She wanted to invite Le Anqi and her friends, but Bo Muiyi did not agree.

He only said that the Zong family's situation was complicated and it was not suitable for ordinary people to enter. Su Cha could eat alone with them at night.

Since he'd said so, Su Cha did not invite them. She just invited Le Anqi and the rest for dinner.

Although Zong Bingyi did not like Su Cha, he had changed his mind a lot. Besides, because of Zuo Shaoxin, he had a common enemy with Su Cha. Hence, he was present for her birthday.

At the dining table, everyone gave Su Cha gifts. They were all expensive gifts that Su Cha had received for the first time.

After all, the people around her used to be poor.

Bo Muiyi had given her a mansion in the United States and said that it was a new home.

He looked a little dissatisfied. "If you were not of a certain age, I would have sent you a marriage certificate directly."

Although she was 19 years old, she was still a year away from marrying age.

Su Cha: "..."

Tan Jinsui's gift was much more polite, a lady's watch worth millions. A family treasure was given by Zong Bingyi, which was a priceless agate headband. He said that he would let Su Cha wear it after she got married. All of them basically thought about Su Cha's future marriage.

Su Cha felt that she was being forced to get married at the age of 19...

Zong Yanxiu gave her a car, which was quite practical at the moment.

However, Su Cha did not plan to open it after finding out the model.

After receiving these gifts, Su Cha sighed countless times that she was really poor.

The celebrations was not just in real life. She did not expect someone to know about her birthday on WeChat.

Tan Yeluo: "Alliance Master, happy birthday" [red packet]

Su Cha opened it and saw 188.

The red packet was meant to celebrate. It was not that Su Cha disliked it, but she had just received such a valuable gift and suddenly received 188 red packets. She suddenly felt like she had been sent back to reality.

However, Su Cha still accepted it.

Cha Yi: "Thank you, Vice Alliance Master. But how did you know it was my birthday today?"

Tan Yeluo: "My brother told me. You're welcome. Remember to give double on my birthday."

Cha Yi: "..."

Shameless. It was the perfect word to describe her.

But since she knew, Bo Muyi must have said it.

After a while, Ancestor Yun suddenly sent her a red packet.

Obviously, Tan Yeluo had told someone else.

She opened it and saw 0.1!

Cha Yi: "..."

Cloud Ancestor: "What, are you complaining that it's too little? Old people don't link their bank cards here. I got this small amount from your Vice Alliance Master."

Cha Yi: "..."

Once the Cloud Ancestor found out, soon, the entire alliance group found out.

Since it was the Alliance Master's birthday, everyone had to express their congratulations.

But no one had seen her in real life, so it was a little awkward.

The red packet was only 200 yuan. Hence, these people added Su Cha and transferred the money to her.

It was a simple and crude method. The lowest was 8888 yuan.

Su Cha was too embarrassed to accept their money, so she took a screenshot and recorded it, waiting to return it on their birthday.

Chapter 626: Fu Mo's Gift

However, looking at others and then at the Vice Alliance Master and the Cloud Ancestor, Su Cha had the urge to vomit blood.

However, the gift was light and sincere. No matter how little it was, it was still a gift.

Su Cha did not know whether to laugh or cry.

This group of martial artists was actually very direct. Their intentions were unusual.

In the afternoon, although it was Su Cha's birthday and Bo Muyi wanted to take a break to accompany her, Su Cha had too many things to do, so he returned to the company.

She went shopping with Le Anqi.

But before that, Fu Mo called Su Cha and asked her to wait for her.

Su Cha waited for Fu Mo at a cafe.

She was wearing sunglasses and had a cold temperament. She was already very famous. However, there were not many people in the cafe on a working day. There were only a few passersby who glanced at Su Cha and did not pay much attention to her.

Soon, Su Cha saw Fu Mo exiting a taxi outside the cafe.

Fu Mo walked in with a paper bag in her hand. She approached Su Cha and smiled shyly.
"Classmate Su, this is my birthday gift to you."

Su Cha was a little surprised, but she still answered, "Thank you, but... How did you know that it's my birthday today?"

Why did so many people know about it?

Fu Mo smiled in embarrassment. "I heard it during the call that day."

Su Cha: "..."

She pursed her lips. That day, Su Cha had reacted in surprise, which meant that Fu Mo had heard it.

However, it was strange that Fu Mo remembered it.

She would just accept the birthday gift and return it when it was Fu Mo's birthday.

Su Cha would not stand on ceremony in this aspect.

Since Su Cha had accepted the gift, Fu Mo's smile deepened. "I hope you like it. I've been looking at it for a long time. I still have something on. I can't come to your birthday banquet tonight. I'm sorry, Classmate Su."

"It's okay. You don't have time, so just go and do your work."

Su Cha nodded. Fu Mo did not seem to have much time. She left after giving Su Cha the gift.

Su Cha opened the paper bag and saw that the logo was from a famous brand.

It was a famous jewelry brand. She opened it and saw a platinum bracelet.

Although it was not diamond or gold, the workmanship was not cheap. Su Cha subconsciously recalled that Fu Mo had just received her salary from the company this month.

Her salary was higher than an ordinary assistant's. This bracelet...

She recalled how Fu Mo had said that she lacked money when she came to apply for a job.

But now, she had given Su Cha a gift that must have been very expensive?

Su Cha frowned, but soon, her eyebrows relaxed and she put the bracelet on.

Since no one else had given her a bracelet, nothing conflicted with what Fu Mo had given her. She could have it on her.

When the time came, she would find a reason to give Fu Mo a bonus.

It seemed that she had to make time to investigate Fu Mo.

When she met Le Anqi, Le Anqi gave her a necklace.

She was a small influencer herself, so she raked in quite a profit. But when she saw the bracelet on Su Cha's hand, she was surprised. "Oh my, you happen to like this brand?"

"The jewelry pieces of the Amabana family are not bad. Your bracelet is the latest. It costs 30,000 yuan!"

"Thirty thousand?"

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. "So expensive?"

Le Anqi nodded. "The necklace I gave you is only 10,000 yuan."

Only...

Su Cha chuckled. She was indeed a rich lady.

To her in the past, 10,000 yuan was definitely a huge sum. It was just that the environment they were in now was different.

Seeing that Su Cha did not know the price, Le Anqi immediately understood. "Oh, someone gave it to you, right? Your boyfriend?"

She blinked her eyes ambiguously. Su Cha felt that if Le Anqi found out that her boyfriend had given her a mansion worth billions, she would faint. She said softly, "No, this was given by another friend."

"Su Cha, now that you are a celebrity, your friends are a different level!"

Chapter 627: Untitled

Su Cha tapped her forehead. "What nonsense are you talking about?"

But she could not help but smile.

After having dinner with Le Anqi, Su Cha returned home and received a piece of news from Bo Muyi. “Cha Cha, there’s a birthday banquet tomorrow. Go with Grandma.”

Su Cha was surprised. “Whose?”

Who could be so lucky as to have a birthday so close to hers?

Bo Muyi looked at her meaningfully. “Lian Ye.”

Lian Ye?

Su Cha found the name familiar. After thinking about it carefully, Su Cha suddenly realized that this was the young master of the Lian family.

Su Cha felt uncomfortable hearing the Lian family’s name.

She recalled the last time she met Lian Ye. Fu Mo even called him young master. She immediately felt disgusted.

She did not have a good impression of the Lian family.

Su Cha pouted. “I don’t really want to go.”

Bo Muyi walked over and pinched her cheek gently. “Actually, I don’t want you to go either, but your Alliance might want you to go. Now that your identity has been revealed, they all want to see you.”

Su Cha: “...”

Although it was a little difficult, Su Cha thought for a while and agreed.

However, Lian Chi was also going to be there. Bo Mui already got so furious when she spoke to Lian Chi last time. Why was he letting her go alone now?

Even if the old lady was going with her, something wasn't right.

Su Cha pinched her chin and looked at Bo Mui meaningfully. "If I go, you can't say anything."

Bo Mui tilted his head, his eyes deep. "Cha Cha, what can I say?"

Su Cha chuckled and did not say anything.

Last time, she went to a cruise, and this time, the Lian family's birthday banquet was in a luxury hotel outside.

Su Cha went with the old lady. The old lady did not seem to know Su Cha's identity. When she was with her, she was concerned about Su Cha's embroidery. Naturally, Su Cha smiled and agreed.

When she arrived at the banquet, she saw a familiar person.

But this time, everything was different.

Due to her identity as the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, many people were secretly sizing her up when she appeared.

Unexpectedly, Su Cha saw a familiar figure.

Tang Keruo stood there and glared at her as if Su Cha was her enemy.

Seeing her expression, Su Cha curled her lips with interest. Facing Tang Keruo at this time, since she had already been exposed, what show would she need to put on?

At the critical moment, she just had to be addicted to acting as a little white flower.

To Su Cha's surprise, she met Tan Yezhu this time.

Yes, Tan Yezhu in a male outfit.

Just as Tang Keruo was glaring at her and wanting to eat her up, Tan Yezhu suddenly appeared with a cynical smile on his lips. He placed his hand on Tang Keruo's shoulder and met Su Cha's gaze with a hint of playfulness. "Ah, Little Keruo, aren't you surprised? How did the soft white rabbit become a big bad wolf?!"

Tang Keruo's mouth twitched. She lowered her eyes and smiled at Tan Yezhu. "Boss, it seems that we were all blind."

Tan Yezhu looked at her and suddenly lifted her chin. "So, Little Keruo, what should we do?"

Tang Keruo lowered her eyes and concealed her emotions. "Boss, of course we must go up to greet her politely. You don't want us to be targeted by an Alliance Master, do you?"

Chapter 628: Why Did Tan Yezhu Allow You to Be His Assistant? So Stupid!

"I think she has the hots for me."

Tan Yezhu turned around and winked at Su Cha, who was looking at him from afar.

Su Cha: "..."

Tang Keruo: "..."

Boss, think about your brother's looks. Where did you get the confidence that she would like you?

Tan Yezhu's actions also attracted some attention. The old lady was unhappy when she saw Tan Yezhu. "He doesn't look like a good person. Su Cha, don't get too close to him."

Su Cha chuckled. "Grandma, isn't he Muyi's brother?"

“Only Muyi can talk to him. Everyone in the Imperial Capital knows that he is a playboy.”

Su Cha: A big shot in female clothing.

The old lady glanced at Tan Yezhu. She had been called by others to socialize.

Although there were martial artists here, there were also ordinary people from the high society who did not know about these things. It was impossible for anyone to approach Su Cha with great fanfare.

Su Cha saw the male lead of the banquet, Lian Ye. Fortunately, she did not see Lian Chi.

From the discussions of others, it seemed Lian Chi had gone overseas.

No wonder he was not harassing her all this time, which did not match his style. He was overseas.

She suddenly noticed that Tang Keruo’s eyes were following her. She curled her lips and turned to walk to the washroom.

As Su Cha expected, someone soon followed.

She went into the washroom. There was no one inside. In front of the washbasin, she held a cup of water and covered her face. When she looked up, she saw Tang Keruo reflected in the mirror.

At this moment, her bright face was a little gloomy. If she was timid, she would have been shocked by this sudden scene.

Su Cha smiled lightly. “Miss Tang, what a coincidence. Are you going to the washroom again?”

Tang Keruo looked at her and suddenly smiled as if she was angry. “Miss Su is really extraordinary. She even deceived me.”

Su Cha wiped her face and hands with a tissue and said slowly, “You are just stupid.”

Tang Keruo's expression changed when she heard this. She glared at Su Cha. "I don't know how you got so lucky to become the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. You will be toppled sooner or later. It's just that old man with the surname Shi who picked you. It was his doing!"

After saying this, she flung a silver needle at Su Cha.

Swish!

Su Cha's hands were as fast as lightning. She caught the silver needle with two fingers and smiled under Tang Keruo's shocked gaze. "Last time, I was interested in acting with you. This time, I thought you could keep your cool. I am the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. How can you be disrespectful to me?"

After she finished speaking, the silver needle shot out. Tang Keruo's eyes widened as she tried her best to dodge the silver needle.

But the moment she dodged, her body was hit by a strong force and she crashed into the cubicle of the washroom.

"Uh..."

Tang Keruo felt suffocated in an instant. Her legs were suspended in the air as Su Cha lifted her up by the neck.

Her face turned red and she struggled subconsciously to slap Su Cha's wrist. She could not react at all when Su Cha attacked.

As her body was about to lose its willpower, she heard the devil-like mocking voice. "How could Tan Yezhu allow you to be his assistant? How embarrassing."

Su Cha pinched her mercilessly. Any other time, she would not have bothered with Tang Keruo. Tang Keruo's eyes rolled, and she could not rebut Su Cha.

Chapter 629: Untitled

A voice came from afar. Someone was coming to the washroom.

It was an open banquet, so it was normal for people to come.

Su Cha let go and Tang Keruo fell to the ground.

The floor of the washroom was also covered in carpet. She did not fall miserably, but she looked extremely pathetic.

She coughed and almost cried.

She felt even more embarrassed.

This was the first time she was treated like this, and she was called stupid!

She raised her head and looked at the back of the person who had left arrogantly without mercy.

Someone entered the washroom and was surprised to see Tang Keruo on the ground.

“Madam, what’s wrong?”

The other party saw Tang Keruo’s sorry state and asked after her kindly, but Tang Keruo felt extremely humiliated. She stood up, pushed the other person away, and walked out.

...

“Fu Mo, where’s my birthday gift?”

Su Cha felt that some things were too fated with her.

She had just come out from the other side and did not follow the original route back to the hall when she heard this voice.

It sounded familiar, like Lian Ye's. The main reason was that the mention of Fu Mo immediately stopped her.

"I'm... I'm sorry, Young Master. I don't have much money. I'll owe you a birthday present this year, okay?"

This timid voice was indeed Fu Mo's.

Su Cha became interested and hid her aura. Looking ahead, she saw a tall figure standing there. It was probably Fu Mo.

"I don't want to be owed a birthday gift!"

Lian Ye seemed to be very unhappy. "Didn't you say that you would buy me a gift with your first salary after you went out to work? Could it be that Su Cha deducted your salary and did not give it to you in full?"

Fu Mo was a little terrified. "No... No, I couldn't save up my money and used it on myself. I'm sorry, Young Master. If you want a gift, I can give it to you in a few days, okay?"

"Forget it. It's as if I was the one who asked for it!"

Lian Ye was a little impatient. He walked around Fu Mo and left.

Fu Mo stood on the spot with a blank expression. Su Cha walked out. "You didn't buy him a gift because you bought one for me?"

Su Cha raised her wrist. The platinum bracelet was very eye-catching.

Fu Mo was stunned and suddenly smiled. "Classmate Su, it looks good on you. I didn't buy it wrongly."

The bracelet was worn along with other pieces, but it did not conflict with them, nor was it noticeable which was more noble or cheap. Su Cha looked good with it.

Su Cha touched her bracelet and whispered, "If you have any difficulties, just tell me. I can give you a gift first."

She did not want to trouble Fu Mo.

Fu Mo shook her head. "No, Classmate Su. I don't want to give him a birthday gift."

Su Cha was stunned. "Why?"

Fu Mo smiled mysteriously. "Because what you said makes sense. I don't want to give him a birthday gift."

Su Cha: "..."

She had almost forgotten what she had said, but she had indeed given Fu Mo some advice.

However, she did not know what was going on between Fu Mo and Lian Ye.

At the thought of this, Su Cha raised her eyebrows and did not ask further. "It's up to you. You can tell me if you need anything. You don't have to feel that you can't say it."

"Okay. Thank you, Classmate Su."

Su Cha nodded and left after chatting with Fu Mo.

But this time, Su Cha saw Ruan Yin in the hall.

When she saw her and Zuo Shaoxin, she frowned and left the banquet without saying anything.

She really did not want to see them. It was frustrating.

Anyway, she had already made an appearance. This was enough.

Chapter 630: I Want to Compete with Elder Yun

Dreams in Progress officially entered the final national championship. She was competing with Chen Shengjun and Ka Lian for the top three spots.

She did not expect that it would be them in the end. Moreover, Chen Shengjun had had conflicts with her before. Su Cha admired her for reaching the top three in the country.

It was the last week. Everyone was practicing nervously. Su Cha's production crew had also arranged not to shoot her scenes for the time being. She had to practice her songs.

However, she still had to attend school during this period of time. Most importantly, the Martial Alliance Meeting had begun.

The Martial Alliance Selection that was supposed to be held early had officially begun. The venue was also in a small city nearby.

Su Cha asked how long it would take, and Tan Yeluo told her that she could go on the last day.

That day was the competition between the top experts of the major sects. They were also the final candidates to compete for the Martial Alliance's Alliance Master position.

It was in a week.

Su Cha chatted in the group.

Cha Yi: "I have something on this week and can't go to the Martial Alliance Meeting. I will be present on the last day. You can send me a video of the progress of the competition. Thank you, everyone."

Martial Alliance Elder, Hong Hangyi: "It's okay, Little Alliance Master can come on the last day."

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: "You have to be prepared. You have to have a friendly competition with the Martial Alliance's new Alliance Master on the last day. I bet that you will win if I bet 100 yuan."

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Impossible. Our Alliance Master will lose. I will bet 100. She will lose.”

Cha Yi: “...”

Stimulating others’ aspirations and lowering one’s own prestige?

Martial Alliance Elder, Weng Zhinan: “It’s good that you’ll be here on the last day. I’m just afraid that the people from the Killing Alliance will cause trouble.”

The group fell silent.

Jin Duan suddenly spoke.

Star Alliance, Jin Duan: “My master said that he would set up an inescapable trap that day. The people from the Killing Alliance would never be able to enter.”

Martial Alliance Elder, Weng Zhinan: “That’s good. I believe the Stone Door Master’s words.”

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “You believe your master’s words? How did the previous Alliance Master die?”

Everyone fell silent.

This was the first time Su Cha saw such disharmony in this group.

Su Cha frowned when she saw the spokesperson.

Cha Yi: “My life is short, but mine has been hard. Do you think otherwise, Elder Wan?”

She was very straightforward. After all, she was the new Alliance Master and the core member of the Star Alliance. He did not expect Su Cha to speak so bluntly.

Wan Youtian remained silent while Tan Yeluo jumped on.

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “I don’t know where this is coming from. You are members of the Star Alliance, but you couldn’t even protect the person who was about to succeed the throne. How can you elders have the gall to criticize others? The Stone Door Master is a person who makes predictions, but is protecting his own business? The Star Alliance has been stepped on, but you elders have been so laidback.”

The group got filled with tension for the first time. After Tan Yeluo finished speaking, no one spoke.

Suddenly, a red packet popped up.

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: [Red packet] “Everyone, calm down.”

Su Cha reacted quickly and pressed 0.5.

She suddenly felt even more depressed.

Tan Yeluo started to scold her.

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “How can you be so shameless? Old man, you are so stingy! Isn’t your embroidery worth a few million yuan?”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Aren’t you very rich? Why are you still arguing with me over a red packet?”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “I want to compete with Elder Yun on the last day of the Martial Alliance Meeting. I hope everyone can fulfill my wish.”

Cha Yi: “I’ll bet against you.”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “...”
