

The Queen 631

Chapter 631: Su Cha Is Acting Big

As she was busier than usual this week, Su Cha took the time to practice her songs.

In fact, now that she was in the top three, many merchants and media were contacting Su Cha for interviews. However, Tan Jinsui, who was backing her up, shielded her and asked her to just compete well.

His goal was clear. From the beginning, he planned to train Su Cha to be different from the current celebrities, so he tried to accept as few interviews as possible.

Therefore, other than the basic Weibo information out right now, Su Cha rarely revealed any information.

Even the variety show she participated in was low-key. Although it was popular, not many people knew about Su Cha's situation.

Other than the regular classes in school, Su Cha also handed in a few embroidery classes to the Embroidery and Culture Center this week.

Her S Weibo account was also very popular. It was a pity that since the last time she had argued with Myriad Mountain Embroiderer, she basically did not say anything. There were many people who came to learn from her on Weibo. Occasionally, Su Cha would go up to take a look, and she would see many comments that were between laughter and tears.

For example, [I'll give you 100,000 yuan. Will you embroider a 10,000-strong outfit for me?]

[How much can your work be sold for? Money is not a problem!]

[I want to acknowledge you as my master. Would I get paid OK?]

You have to admit that sometimes, the existence of some humans can surpass your imagination.

“Classmate Su, do you know Qin Bei?”

While Su Cha was preparing for the national finals, Fu Mo sent her a message.

It was a link. Su Cha clicked on it and saw an obscure piece of information.

The general idea was that when Su Cha participated in the “Who Will Be the Parent Today?” show, she had a dispute with Qin Bei. Then, she showed disrespect to Qin Bei and instigated a child-like Li Miyi to treat Qin Bei badly.

The information was reasonable and detailed, just as if the person had been at the scene.

Su Cha could guess who it was.

The comments were as Su Cha expected.

[Why is it her again? Why is she always offending people since she first joined the show?]

[I think it’s fine if it’s just one or two people. Now that she has been exposed to be a big shot on a show, isn’t she turning out to be too hot-tempered?]

[She can enter the entertainment industry with such a personality? Sooner or later, she will fail miserably.]

[Qin Bei is also her senior, yet it’s fine if she doesn’t respect her. Oh my god, she’s too nasty...]

[Didn’t Li Miyi treat her badly in the previous episode? How could she incite Li Miyi to attack Qin Bei now?]

[I think Su Cha is better. Qin Bei is not a good person.]

[The person who said that about Qin Bei, please show us the evidence. What did our Bebe do? We are discussing someone acting like a big shot. Don’t blame it on our Bebe, thank you!]

...

Soon, a heated argument broke out. Su Cha's fans were criticizing the other party, and Qin Bei's fans were attacking Su Cha non-stop, as well as passersby who were waiting to watch a good show.

This piece of news was quickly bumped up by a marketing account. There were a few accounts that Fu Mo had sent to her. She told her that they were instigated by Qin Bei's studio, and that some of them were instigated by other celebrities. Anyway, it was not a big deal to watch the show, and the goal was to blow it up.

Su Cha and Qin Bei were at loggerheads.

There was no need for them to add fuel to the fire. Su Cha felt that Qin Bei was a thorn in her side.

She did not give her any face during the last recording of the show, which directly led to her and Li Miyi completing the recording of the last episode when Su Cha was not around. The production crew had spent a lot of effort to edit the scene of her and Li Miyi getting along peacefully. They were just short of recording a fake person.

Most of the plot had been taken over by other children.

Chapter 632: So What If He's a Top Manager?

Although Tan Jinsui did not like her arguing with Qin Bei, something would definitely happen.

They were all from the entertainment industry, so it was Su Cha's call to admit defeat so easily.

This revelation was within Su Cha's expectations, but Qin Bei was too slow.

This was only released after the broadcast.

However, it was still useful. Su Cha had just snatched Jin Jiayu's role, and now she was arguing with Qin Bei. The rumors of her being a big shot were becoming even worse.

The discussions about Su Cha on Weibo were endless. Su Cha did not intend to pay attention to the dirty words, but regarding Qin Bei...

Soon, Tan Jinsui sent a message. “How do you plan to deal with the matter between you and Qin Bei?”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “Why are you asking me? Isn’t this something you should do as a manager?”

Tan Jinsui: “...I’m a little regretful now.”

Su Cha smiled. “No, you can’t get off the pirate ship. Otherwise, I will tell my father.”

Tan Jinsui: “...”

He seemed to be having a headache. “I know you have a backup plan. I can use other methods to get rid of Qin Bei, but it’d be best if it’s related to you. Otherwise, if Qin Bei can get rid of it, you won’t be able to get rid of the dirt on you.”

Su Cha hummed. “Go and investigate. Li Miyi is the child I’ve been on the show with recently. Did he accept any interviews recently? If not, you can interview him with the official media and direct the question to Qin Bei. He knows what to say.”

Tan Jinsui was puzzled. “He’s just a five or six-year-old child. What does he know?”

Su Cha smiled gently. “He already knows a lot even though he’s only five or six years old, not to mention that a rascal like Li Miyi can’t bear a little grievance. As long as you can guarantee that the reporters are fair and will not be swayed by others, Li Miyi can help me get a confession.”

“Okay, I’ll make the arrangements.”

Tan Jinsui went over after receiving Su Cha’s instructions. Su Cha thought about it and hoped that Li Miyi would not disappoint her.

The matter with Qin Bei was still in the middle of the storm. Su Cha did not intend to clarify anything for now. Anything she did would be wrong.

On Qin Bei's side, she felt slightly better after seeing the netizens bashing Su Cha.

Her manager eagerly lowered her shoulders. "Bebe, are you satisfied now? Now that the Internet is bashing her so badly, no one can clear things up for her. She can only swallow this matter in silence."

"What swallowing are you talking about?"

Qin Bei raised her chin in dissatisfaction and said arrogantly, "You have no idea what happened. It was her bad attitude. Who does she think she is? She even instigated..."

Qin Bei suddenly stopped talking. She sat up from the recliner and looked at her manager. "Have you greeted Li Miyi? Are you sure his family won't say anything?"

The manager nodded quickly. "It's been arranged. Don't worry, the other party will definitely not dare to say anything. The production crew will take care of it... for our sake, they won't expose it. Don't worry, no one will interview Li Miyi about the child."

Qin Bei was relieved and lay back down. "That's good. That bitch got Li Miyi to sue me when she came to record a show. Hmph, how naive!"

The manager smiled obsequiously but soon became worried. "But behind Su Cha is Tan Jinsui."

"So what if it's him?"

Qin Bei raised her chin. "In the industry, one has to follow some rules. So what if he's an ace manager? Can he mess around?"

Chapter 633: What Two Families Said

Last time, her agency went to look for Su Cha's agency, but this Tan Jinsui ignored them!

A cold light flashed in Qin Bei's eyes.

The manager nodded immediately and massaged her shoulders. "Yes, yes, yes. What can that Tan guy do?"

Qin Bei closed her eyes in satisfaction and prepared to rest for a while.

...

While Qin Bei was still gloating, Tan Jinsui had already started to investigate Li Miyi.

If he was just an ordinary manager, or rather, Zou Manni's manager, even with the many years of connections in the entertainment industry, he might not be able to find out what Qin Bei had done behind the scenes. However, he was not just a manager. He relied on many unimaginable strengths to find out about Qin Bei.

Looking at the information in his hand, Tan Jinsui smiled and called Su Cha. "This 18th-tier person is quite secretive. The production crew, including the child's parents, have all been dealt with. It turns out that she has the backing of the Chairman of 'Zhang Sen Media.' I always said that some people do things without scruples."

Su Cha nodded. "What's the Zhang Sen Media?"

"It's the best film and television production company in the industry. Their production company has released many explosive movies. Their chairman is only in his fifties. He has a good eye for things, but he's not a proper person."

Tan Jinsui clicked his tongue. "Basically, most of the female artists signed by their agency have something to do with him. Qin Bei is the most favored one."

It was definitely a big company, yet Su Cha had never heard of it.

But thinking about how arrogant Qin Bei was, it was time to confirm.

She chuckled. "No wonder she's not afraid."

Tan Jinsui said helplessly, "I managed Manni. Her status is indeed legendary, but she is respected by everyone in the industry. If it were any other person, I would indeed not be qualified to be mentioned in the same breath as these capitalists. In this world, those who can speak are the richest and most powerful.”

Hence, even as an 18th-tier celebrity, she could be arrogant in front of Tan Jinsui.

Su Cha smiled. “That’s true.”

Tan Jinsui pondered for a while. “I’ve found out that the child is not allowed to be interviewed. That’s what you thought of it in advance. Was he involved in the dispute between you and Qin Bei?”

“Yes. I just want him to be honest. Have you arranged the interview?”

“I’ve made arrangements, but after this matter, we might officially go against Zhang Sen Media. Have you thought about it before we expose Bo Mui?”

“What are you afraid of?”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “My boyfriend can’t be involved for now. But my father and grandfather are still around.”

Tan Jinsui: “...Old Master Zong would never have thought that you would use his name to do bad things outside.”

A cunning light flashed in Su Cha’s eyes. “What are you talking about as a family member?”

She still had doubts about Bo Mui. After all, he was too powerful.

But relying on her father, Su Cha felt no pressure.

Tan Jinsui also hung up the phone helplessly and went to deal with Li Mui’s matter. On Su Cha’s side, she did not look at those nasty comments on Weibo and just waited for the final result.

However, this matter also affected her competition. Due to the series of accidents, many fans of the production were unhappy, especially the fans of the show itself. They could not wait for Su Cha to quit Dreams in Progress because of this matter.

Chapter 634: Li Miyi's Accusations

It was a pity that she had already made it to the top three in the country. It was impossible to boot her out.

Qin Bei's matter had been going on for an entire day. She and Su Cha had been on the hot searches several times. Although most of the discussions were on Qin Bei's side, Qin Bei's reputation was not good. Many people thought that there was something wrong with both sides.

Some people suspected that since Su Cha had just debuted, was she really so capable as to offend people everywhere?

But very quickly, other fans jumped out to rebut. How could she not have the ability if she'd snatched away Jin Jiayu's role? Was this what you called having no ability?

Under all kinds of coercion, such comments about Su Cha quickly disappeared.

But at this time, an official Weibo account of a local media outlet suddenly reported an interview with Li Miyi.

This report appeared silently the next day. When Li Miyi's fans saw the news about this child, they subconsciously clicked on it. In the end, they were furious.

The child was more lively and active in the interview. Although he was a little naughty, he still followed the rules.

The reporters' questions were very normal. She was a very patient big sister, but when she asked the last question, Li Miyi's answer made the fans erupt.

The reporter asked normally, "In the last two episodes, we all know that you and Su Cha's sister, Sister Qin Bei, filmed the show together. What do you think their merits are?"

Wasn't this question normal?

It was not to the extent of being leading. After all, the difference was too great. Who knew that Li Miyi would suddenly change his attitude?

The child said in a childish voice, "What merits does that Sister Qin have?"

At least he called her sister.

Then, he tilted his head and continued, "I like Sister Su Cha because she doesn't hit me. There were so many episodes and so many brothers and sisters took care of me. Only Sister Qin would hit me..."

The child spoke slowly and imitated the movements as he spoke, "She asked me to eat and wash my hands, but I didn't wash my hands. She scolded me for being stupid, and then... Bang!" Li Miyi did an image pose, rolled up his sleeves, and slapped his arm. "She hit my arm, it's all red! Sister Su Cha happened to come over then, but if she hadn't, I think Sister Qin would have hit me!"

The reporter seemed surprised. "She hit you? Really?"

"Yes!" Li Miyi nodded. "It hurts."

At this point, he added, "I told the uncles and aunties who are filming." He pointed at the camera. "I wanted them to change that sister to someone else. But they didn't agree, and they didn't tell my parents that I was beaten up..."

The reporter asked, "Didn't you tell them yourself?"

Li Miyi pouted. "I'm always disobedient. They think I'm lying and don't believe me."

It was obvious why the interview was recorded here.

The reporter did not ask more, but there was no need to.

After the video was released, all the fans who had watched the whole process were trembling with anger. Even if Li Miyi was a child, at least he had never shown any signs of lying in the show. He was just naughty!

Could it be that Li Miyi was lying in this video? Then why did he target Qin Bei instead of others?

This time, the fans exploded. They directly attacked Qin Bei's Weibo, scolding and questioning her.

Chapter 635: Vibration

Today's Exciting Gossip Official: "A famous female star with the surname Qin was accused of mistreating children on a show? The exclusive interview of the reporters revealed the truth. 'Who Will Be the Parent Today?' also helped to hide the news and did not tell the children's parents. So those shows with children?????"

"— It's the most magical news I've seen this year."

"Oh my god, we can't tolerate mistreating children!! How can she bear to hurt such a cute child? No matter how naughty a child is, you should at least remember that you are on a show. It's enough to teach him a lesson. What's wrong with her, beating him up directly?"

"Qin Bei is really a vicious woman! She even scared children?"

"Wait, I saw the whole interview. Li Miyi said that Su Cha came after Qin Bei beat him up, so could the main reason for Su Cha and Qin Bei's conflict be because Su Cha saw Qin Bei beating up a child? My god, it's so exciting. Is a famous female celebrity buying trending spots?"

"Toxic Qin's fans have chased after Su Cha and bashed her for two days. In the end, it was their master who was exposed for beating up a child. Su Cha could not stand it and spoke up for the child. Toxic women are really awesome!"

"Why didn't anyone from the production crew scold her and even helped the celebrity hide it from the child's parents? I don't dare to imagine how dirty the deal is!"

"The show 'Who Will Be the Parent Today?' is really the source of the stink. My heart aches for those children who are on board."

“Do you think Li Miyi is lying?”

“Why is the commenter above so awesome? Would a child lie just to target your Toxic Lady Qin? A child’s likes and dislikes are very simple. It’s obvious that he dislikes Qin Bei. His and Qin Bei’s CUT is the only one that did not even hit five minutes. I’ve never seen that in any other episode or show. Think about how awesome that is. Most of the time, you can tell that Q Ball is very dissatisfied with Qin Bei. Even if he hated a person, Q Ball shouldn’t be like this, right?”

“After watching this show, I felt that Qin Bei wanted to imitate Su Cha. In the end, she failed to draw a tiger and ended up like a dog. She might be angry. Su Cha has obviously gained Li Miyi’s trust. If she were to hit a child, she would definitely not be trusted, right?”

...

#Qin Bei accused of abusing children#

#Qin Bei sued by Li Miyi’s parents#

#Who Will Be the Parent Today?#

#Qin Bei Su Cha#

As soon as this video was released, several topics were exposed.

Li Miyi’s parents were also stunned when they saw the video. They never thought that their child would be beaten up after going on a show!

The production crew did not tell them about this at first. Although the child had said it casually, they thought that Qin Bei was just fooling around and taking pictures of Li Miyi. Sometimes, Li Miyi was indeed naughty. It was understandable that celebrities had a bad temper, but they did not expect Qin Bei to really hit the child.

In other words, they knew that they had spoiled Li Miyi, but they had never hit a child.

Who would be responsible if something happened?

The production crew was also responsible for this matter. His parents naturally sued the production crew as well.

This matter had been exposed, and the situation was very serious. Children would be beaten up if they went on a show. Who would dare to let children go on such a show in the future?

Not only that, but many celebrities who had participated in children's shows were implicated. They were dug out one by one to see if the children had been abused.

The revelation of this matter was no less than a small earthquake in the entertainment industry.

As one of the parties involved, Su Cha's presence was much weaker. Although she was trending, the focus was no longer on her.

Chapter 636: Untitled

Once something had gained popularity, netizens were the easiest to attract to it.

They had been bashing Su Cha before, but now they were going after Qin Bei.

As long as things changed, there would definitely be a lot of bashing.

Some people were smart, but some would never be smart.

...

When Qin Bei received the news, she received an emergency call from the company.

Although the company had removed the trending searches on Weibo and asked the Internet Water Army to take full control of it, this matter had blown up too much, and it would not be easy to get rid of it for a while.

Most importantly, if she left, other celebrities would also take advantage of the situation and buy hot searches to put this matter on the Internet.

When Qin Bei saw the Weibo post, she was stunned.

She was still busy taking a set of magazine photos. At this moment, the staff around her looked at her strangely.

It was fine if celebrities had ordinary dirt on them, and news like sleeping with others did not seem to be a big deal. But now, it involved child abuse.

While waiting for Qin Bei's manager to arrive, she shouted hysterically in the dressing room, "How is this possible? How is this possible?! Why did they blow it up? Why didn't you notify the Chairman? What are you doing? Ask him clearly. How dare that media outlet interview Li Miyi?!"

After she shouted, she hung up the phone. When she saw her manager, she flew into a rage. "This is what you said! You said you handled it well. But now that video has been exposed, and that little bastard directly said it. How did you even handle it?"

She wanted to smash the phone in her hand.

The manager was sweating profusely. At this moment, he was exhausted. His phone kept ringing, but he still had to deal with Qin Bei.

"I don't know either. This matter has clearly been dealt with. I've already greeted the media reporters. They won't act rashly on account of the Chairman. I've just asked. The media outlet that interviewed Li Miyi did not know about our company at all. It seems like it was a sudden attack. We suspect that it was Tan Jinsui who instructed it..."

"Who does that Tan guy think he is?"

Qin Bei's eyes widened. "He's just a manager. How dare he? Does he not want to survive in this industry anymore?"

The manager was also in a difficult position. "After all, Tan Jinsui has the backing of the Heavenly Queen, Zou Manni. Besides, maybe he doesn't even know that we've given notice?"

“Bullshit, he must know!”

Qin Bei was about to go crazy. “Look at it yourself. The trending searches are so thorough that even the production crew is dragged down. It was clearly planned!”

The manager quickly comforted her. “Don’t be anxious. This is also a good thing. Think about it. The production crew is backed by a satellite channel. Offending their group is equivalent to offending this satellite channel. In the future, she can forget about going on this satellite channel’s shows.”

“That’s it? What about me?!”

Qin Bei gritted her teeth and said with a trembling voice, “Now that I’ve been exposed, look at how the netizens are bashing me! After this matter, how can I continue to be on the national stage?!”

The phone rang crazily. The manager glanced at it and quickly said, “It’s from the Chairman.”

Qin Bei’s eyes darkened and she immediately went forward to take it.

At this time, she tried to calm herself down and answered, “Hello.”

When he listened carefully, he could hear that her voice was trembling. She was actually very scared.

Chapter 637: Untitled

“She framed me. I didn’t know she would.”

It was unknown what the other party said, but Qin Bei’s tears fell in just a few sentences.

The manager was amazed. If only this top actress had such good acting skills, she would not be in such a state where no one would speak up for her.

“I know it’s my fault, but now, are we just going to let her step on our heads and behave atrociously? You’ve already stepped forward, but they don’t care at all! This is equivalent to not putting you in their eyes at all. When did our Zhang Sen Media become so easy to bully?”

She was still crying, but her voice was louder. The other party was probably coaxing her. Soon, Qin Bei's expression calmed down.

"Okay."

After hanging up, the manager hurriedly asked, "What did the Chairman say?"

Qin Bei squinted her eyes. Although there were still tears on her face, there was an inexplicable gloominess in her eyes. "The Chairman said that he would stand up for me. This matter will end soon."

The manager was relieved. "That's good."

Zhang Sen Media was a well-known company in the industry. Almost all the celebrities in the industry had to give them face. Now that Su Cha had provoked Zheng Sen Media, it was obvious that she was slapping the company's face. In addition, there was also the production crew of the satellite channel who'd been forced to pull the strings. This matter would not end so easily.

...

"Yes, I know. Children are often impulsive..."

Tan Jinsui sat in the Zong family's garden. He looked at the person in front of him with a gentle expression. He spoke to the person on the other end of the phone casually.

Zong Yanxiu was sitting in a wheelchair in front of him. He was watering the flowers with a water flask. When he heard Tan Jinsui's words, he turned his head to look at him.

He did not know what the other party said, but Tan Jinsui frowned and said bluntly, "Director Che, you know it's just a misunderstanding. How can you make such a ridiculous request? Qin Bei did nothing wrong, and my Su Cha did nothing wrong."

Hearing Su Cha's name, Zong Yanxiu paused and looked over slowly.

The person on the other end of the phone was a little angry and sneered, “Tan Jinsui, don’t tell me all this nonsense. If you don’t want to apologize, you know what to do about this matter. Do you still want to maintain your reputation and status? She has just debuted, but she’s a good seedling. Do you want to watch her be destroyed?”

Tan Jinsui clicked his tongue. “Director Che, I’ve already said that it’s just a small matter. Is there a need to be so serious?”

“Nothing?! Qin Bei has been bashed to such an extent, so how can it be a small matter!”

“When Su Cha was the one being bashed, I didn’t call you.”

This casual tone made the other party even more furious. “Tan Jinsui, do you really not want to continue working in this industry? Not only did you harm Qin Bei, but the main thing is that our people have already spoken to each other. Why did you want that media outlet to interview that child? How dare you let them expose it? Aren’t you clearly going against me?”

“Since you can tell, Chairman Che, why are you still talking about this? Don’t look for me over this matter. That child is wild and disobedient. I can’t control her. If you are free, why don’t you call her and chat? I can send you her number.”

After saying this, Tan Jinsui hung up the phone as the other party was about to explode. He smiled while commenting, “You are a dignified Chairman, yet you still deal with such lousy matters.”

Chapter 638: Arrogant Tan Yeluo

Zong Yanxiu pushed his wheelchair and went towards him. He frowned. “What did you say about Xiao Cha?”

“Hmm?” Tan Jinsui looked at him and explained with a faint smile, “Su Cha had a dispute with a small celebrity during the recording of a show. That small celebrity bought the trending searches to frame her, and we took revenge on her. Now that the small celebrity is being criticized badly, the sugar daddy behind her called us. Not only does he want us to let her go, but he also wants us to apologize.”

“Who?”

Zong Yanxiu was a little angry. “Xiao Cha is such an obedient person, how could she argue with others? It’s most likely that little celebrity who doesn’t know her place. What kind of gall does she have to find trouble with Xiao Cha?”

Tan Jinsui: “...”

This father had a thick filter on his daughter.

“Who called you just now?”

“Director of Zhang Sen Media, Chairman Che. Don’t worry, I can handle it.”

Zong Yan glanced at him. “Didn’t you let me hear you on purpose?”

Tan Jinsui laughed. “Since you’ve seen through it, I won’t hide it anymore. This was your daughter’s idea.”

Zong Yanxiu was a little gratified. “Of course. My daughter has suffered in the outside world. As her father, I have to stand up for her. Good girl, you even know to complain to your family.”

Tan Jinsui: “...”

...

Someone from the company called Su Cha and said that someone from Zhang Sen Media had contacted them and asked Su Cha to explain this matter.

Su Cha casually replied to the people in the company, “Do you think I’m very free? Transfer all the random calls to me. In the future, this kind of matter can be dealt with by Manager Tan. Tell Zhang Sen Media to do anything they want. If Qin Bei doesn’t know what’s good for her, I won’t let her off.”

The people in the company naturally replied.

Zhang Sen Media exploded.

They'd called her manager, but the person in question was even more arrogant.

She was just a small celebrity who had just debuted, but she was lawless just because she had Tan Jinsui.

Zhang Sen Media immediately started to take action. They mobilized their network and status, requesting Su Cha to stop participating in the show. They also requested others to sign a contract to terminate their partnership with Su Cha.

Even The Legend of the Crane was under some pressure.

With the power of Zhang Sen Media, it was reasonable for them to request such a thing. There was no better way to ban a celebrity than this. Even Weibo had gradually started to ban news about Su Cha.

Su Cha's competition was about to begin. Now that such a big thing had happened, the production crew was under a lot of pressure.

They could only hold on and not give a clear answer to Zhang Sen Media. However, the person who replied the fastest was Tan Yeluo.

After Han Yongbing found out about this matter, he felt that something was wrong, so he called Tan Yeluo and tried to talk about this matter. In the end, Tan Yeluo called the Director of Zhang Sen Media directly. "Who do you think you are? You asked her to leave, but what right do you have to tell me to do that? I haven't even spoken to the person I've taken a fancy to, but you have already made arrangements. Get your Director Che to call me back. Otherwise, Zhang Sen Media will change its name tomorrow!"

Naturally, Director Che had not made this call himself. He had instructed his subordinates to do it.

In the end, the person who dealt with this matter was dumbfounded by Tan Yeluo's call. Although Tan Yeluo had a powerful background, she was also very mysterious. Not many people knew about her. They only knew that she was very rich. When she said this, the person naturally told the Chairman first.

Chapter 639: The Two of Them Kicked Out

Her attitude on the phone was even more arrogant than when she was pressuring the other families.

Tan Yeluo complained in the WeChat group.

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “What’s going on? I am acting as the Alliance Master’s investor, but a pheasant company wants me to kick the Alliance Master out?”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “This is a crucial moment of the Martial Alliance Meeting. No one has time to look at WeChat except you. Didn’t I tell you that other people’s boyfriends are not anxious? Those who don’t know might think that you have some feelings for your Alliance Master.”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Old thing, did you just wash your hair? Did water get into your brain?”

Bo Mui: “?”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Does this big brother think that we are just casually comparing notes?! Aren’t you busy with work? You actually have time to look at WeChat?”

Bo Mui: “What does it have to do with you?”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Impressive...”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: [Coward.jpg]

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “I will make arrangements for you sooner or later.”

Star Alliance Elder, Buzhou: “Amitabha. The Martial Alliance has produced many talented people this year. It has broadened my horizons. This meeting is very exciting!”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “The last round between me and the old man will be more exciting.”

“...”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Look, he pretended to be dead when I mentioned this. He knew that he could not beat me.”

Cha Yi: “Aren’t you afraid that he will touch you?”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “That makes sense, Alliance Master!”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Shameless rascal, how dare you slander us! Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, I didn’t expect you to have such thoughts. You bullied the Martial Alliance’s old man so I am waiting for our new Alliance Master to avenge me!”

Cha Yi: “O.O Okay.”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Hahahahahaha, our Alliance Master is so stubborn.”

Bo Muyi: “Cha Cha is awesome!”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “...”

Star Alliance Elder, Buzhou: “...”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “...”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Who are these group leaders? Can they be kicked out?”

Cha Yi: “My Muyi is so obedient, so why should he be kicked out!”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “They should be kicked out together.”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “I support you with my real name.”

Cha Yi: “...”

Su Cha curled her lips and chatted with them happily.

Tan Yeluo’s move had successfully affected Su Cha.

Chairman Che was about to curse. He had helped his lover vent her anger, but he did not succeed. He was ignored, and now she was ignoring him. Almost all the calls were about guessing Tan Yeluo’s identity. Of course, as the Chairman, he was about to lose face.

They could vaguely find out something about Tan Yeluo’s identity, but they did not know the specifics. After the call, the other party’s attitude was not the same as when she made the first call. She just sneered and said, “Do you think I’m threatening you? No, I’m saving you. If you touch her, putting your whole family in danger is the least of it. You should thank me since I’m helping you avoid such a fate.”

After saying this, the other party hung up.

The director of Zhang Sen Media was furious when he realized what had happened. How could he pretend that nothing had happened just because she said a few ambiguous words? How could he, the chairman, bear the consequences?

Tan Yeluo’s vague words did not scare Director Che. Instead, he wanted to ban Su Cha.

If he could not even deal with a small celebrity, wouldn’t everyone ignore their company in the future?

Chapter 640: Not the Champion

The contest between Su Cha and Zhang Sen Media was on the trending list.

The Internet Water Army kept attacking Su Cha on the Internet, and Su Cha's agency occasionally bought hot searches for her.

They not only threatened to terminate her career, but her life was also in danger. At this critical moment, Su Cha welcomed her last competition.

Dreams in Progress was broadcasted live across the country.

Under the attention of the whole country, Su Cha, who was trending on several hot searches, performed steadily again, causing the audience to cheer.

Her singing seemed to have some kind of magic that could make people fall into it and reminisce about it. It took a few minutes for them to recover.

Although Chen Shengjun and Ka Lian performed well, they were not as influential as Su Cha. They just had an advantage with their voice.

At the crucial voting stage, everyone thought that Su Cha had obviously won the competition. In the end, when the voting came out, Su Cha's votes were much worse than Chen Shengjun's. Ka Lian, who was a rock singer, got first place.

In other words, Su Cha was third.

When the voting results appeared on the big screen, even the host was stunned.

The competition used live voting. There was no problem with the voting system. In the previous round, Su Cha had barely won against Ka Lian, but Chen Shengjun had no advantage at all. How could the votes in this round be so different overnight?

Ka Lian was leading far ahead. Su Cha, who originally had 500 votes, only had 100 votes in the finals. Ka Lian had more than 500 votes, while Chen Shengjun had more than 300 votes.

When the votes were released, Ka Lian and Chen Shengjun were dumbfounded.

The fans below the stage were in an uproar, but it was not that the other two did not have fans. When they saw the votes, their fans screamed and almost went crazy with joy!

They had thought that victory was in their grasp, but they did not expect such a huge reversal at the crucial moment. Everyone looked at each other, not knowing what went wrong.

However, many viewers below the stage were questioning each other in confusion. There was a huge silence. Just by looking at it, there were already hundreds of people present. If the person they voted for had won the championship, how could they not be happy?

Just by looking at the audience's reaction, one could tell what was wrong.

Although something was wrong, the host reacted quickly and started to host the show. Su Cha, who was in front of the stage, saw the results of the voting and frowned slightly. It was so fast that the camera did not notice it. Soon, she regained her composure.

Regardless of whether she won the championship or not, Su Cha's reaction was shockingly calm.

She was already the champion that everyone thought highly of, but the result was unexpected. She did not react at all. If it were someone else, they would have broken down long ago, right?

Ka Lian and Chen Shengjun were stunned for a long time before they were pushed to the podium with stiff smiles on their faces. After so many episodes of the competition, they had already recognized the reality. Su Cha's popularity was not something they could compete with. But now that the results of the competition were out, they did not know whether to laugh or react.

The fans below the stage screamed louder and louder. Su Cha looked backstage. The director of the production crew looked at her with a bitter expression.

In an instant, Su Cha understood something.

She curled her lips. How nice.

As soon as the competition ended and it was broadcasted live across the country, the audience exploded the moment the results were released.

Su Cha was not the champion?

Are you kidding me?!

It would have been fine if it had been an average performance at the beginning, but Su Cha's popularity had surpassed everyone else's. There were a few times when her score was lowered due to her own mistakes. But in the finals, she had performed perfectly yet became third?

The audience was also dumbfounded!