

The Queen 651

Chapter 651: Awkward Tang Hefei

“Taking advantage of the time after the competition between the two Alliance Masters when their stamina is exhausted, he’s really vicious!”

It was rare for Elder Yun to be so serious. He gritted his teeth and cursed!

What important day was it today? If Mo Weiyuan were to die here, what kind of bloodbath would it cause?

Mo Weiyuan came back to his senses. His expression was ugly, but he thanked Su Cha first. “Alliance Master Su, thank you for saving me.”

Su Cha retracted her hand and said calmly, “You’re welcome. I expected it.”

She had guessed that someone would take action, but she did not expect that the target would be Mo Weiyuan.

The others examined Ming He’s corpse and came forward to report, “Alliance Master, there was poison in his mouth. He bit it and committed suicide, but there was also poison on the silver needle.”

In other words, even if he had not committed suicide, he would still have died. However, he chose to die without explaining anything.

If the silver needle had pierced Mo Weiyuan, it was obvious that Mo Weiyuan would have died here today.

Everyone from the Tang Sect had ugly expressions. The person in charge today was Tang Hefei. He was considered the most prestigious person in the Tang Sect. The person who’d attempted the assassination was from the Tang Sect, so Tang Hefei had no choice but to bite the bullet and stand up. “I will have the Tang Sect to investigate this matter thoroughly.”

Seeing that he was an elder of the Star Alliance, Mo Weiyuan did not want to give him too much face. He only said firmly, “This happened when I just succeeded the position. The other party clearly came prepared.”

Tan Yeluo walked forward with an iPad and said, “Ming He grew up in the Tang Sect. It doesn’t seem like he was planted. He must have been bribed.”

This other person could only be someone from the Killing Alliance.

Su Cha lowered her eyes and suddenly said slowly, “By using this person, they have lost a good chess piece. This man must be determined to die. If they don’t want Alliance Master Mo to live, they might be someone from the Killing Alliance.”

“Who else but the Killing Alliance!”

Someone said angrily, “The Killing Alliance definitely doesn’t want to see a new Alliance Master appear. They just want to see our Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance fall into chaos!”

This matter was a little awkward. There were so many people who could not react in time, but Su Cha caught it before they could. Even these elders did not dare to rashly receive a silver needle that had already been shot. This logic was the same as catching a bullet empty-handed...

Everyone looked at Su Cha strangely.

Su Cha’s expression did not change. She just nodded. “This is not a place to discuss matters. Let’s change locations. Elder Tang, this matter must be investigated thoroughly. Other than the elders, the Vice Alliance, and the Stone Door Master, everyone else will return to where they came from first. The succession ceremony will be witnessed by Alliance Master Mo and us alone. Although it doesn’t make sense, please forgive us.”

Everyone looked at each other. Master Buzhou was the first to jump out. “Amitabha. Please understand during special times. The Alliance Master’s safety is the most important.”

That made sense. Everyone nodded and left. Su Cha, Mo Weiyuan, and the rest left quickly on another path.

Su Cha had felt it when the person attacked just now, but since it was someone from the Tang Sect, it was hard for her not to think deeply about it.

On the way to the inauguration ceremony, Su Cha glanced at Tang Hefei. Tang Hefei felt awkward. After all, this matter was caused by the Tang Sect, and the other party was a disciple who had grown up in the Tang Sect.

He had to say, “Alliance Master Su, I swear to God that this matter has nothing to do with our Star Alliance’s Tang Sect. If I’m lying, I will be struck by lightning!”

Su Cha tilted her head. “Elder Tang, you are being too serious.”

Chapter 652: Unease

When he arrived at the place where the inauguration ceremony was held, although he was almost killed just now, Mo Weiyuan had to calm down and offer incense to the previous Alliance Masters.

Upon Shi Wei reciting the complicated rules and kowtowing a few times, the ceremony was over.

Su Cha instantly felt that the succession ceremony of the Star Alliance was too convenient.

Shi Wei could just deduce who the next Master was.

Mo Weiyuan had brought the jade ring representing the Alliance Master. Su Cha remembered that she did not bring it with her because she was too busy.

However, it did not matter if she did not bring it along. As long as Shi Wei was here, he would know that she was the Alliance Master.

However, during the inauguration ceremony, Su Cha’s eyelids kept twitching. She felt inexplicably unhappy.

Logically speaking, it should not have happened. Nothing had happened to Mo Weiyuan, and she had saved him. Even if these elders had malicious intentions, they would definitely not have the guts to attack in front of her. At least they were safe.

There were security checks everywhere, so firearms could not be brought in. Su Cha was not afraid of weapons like silver needles.

Where did this frustration come from?

At the thought of this, Su Cha summoned Ah Chen from the shadows. “Why don’t you call your young master and ask him what he’s doing?”

Bo Mui had a group of secret guards protecting him, so it should not be easy for something to happen.

Su Cha could not explain her frustration and asked Ah Chen to notify her father after asking about Bo Mui.

Tan Yeluo and the rest saw Su Cha’s behavior and walked over to ask softly, “Alliance Master, what’s the matter?”

Su Cha shook her head but revealed her concerns. If she did not say it, it would arouse suspicion.

“Although I saved Alliance Master Mo, I have a... very annoying feeling in my heart. I’m not sure what it is. My intuition is not good.”

Her eyes were cold, but there was still a trace of worry in the depths of her eyes.

The others frowned.

“Is Alliance Master Su worried about others?”

After Mo Weiyuan completed the inauguration ceremony, he stood up and asked her this directly.

Su Cha nodded.

Mo Weiyuan thought for a while. “Since there’s nothing to do in the afternoon and the inauguration ceremony has been completed, why don’t you go back first, Alliance Master Su?”

Shi Wei suddenly said, “Since the assassination attempt has just happened, I think the people from the Killing Alliance will not let it go. Today is a good opportunity. Our two Alliance Masters are here, so they will not let go of this opportunity. It’s expected to take a plane. On the way, I’m afraid that they will attack in a crowded place. Why don’t you wait for a while, Alliance Master Su? After we find out some information about the Tang Sect, it won’t be too late then for Alliance Master Su to leave, right? The Imperial Capital is an important camp of the Martial Alliance, and there are troops guarding it. The chances of something happening to the people you are worried about are not high.”

At this moment, Ah Chen walked over and nodded at Su Cha. “Miss Su, don’t worry. The young master and your father are fine. The young master is in the company. In order to protect them, I’ve asked the Imperial Capital army to send people over. With the army watching, nothing will happen.”

Su Cha calmed down. “That’s fine.”

She turned to look at Shi Wei. “Okay, I’ll stay here for a while and go back later.”

The assassination attempt today made everyone wary. Tan Yeluo was not in a hurry to go back. After Mo Weiyuan completed the inauguration ceremony, he still had to comfort everyone.

Even if something had almost happened, he had to fulfill his responsibility. On the first day of his appointment, he could not let the Martial Alliance panic.

Su Cha was the same.

Hence, she sent a simple message to the group to report her safety.

Chapter 653: The Vixen Has Transformed into an Old Witch

The report about Ming He was soon released.

It showed that he had been acting strangely in the Tang Sect for a while. His duty was to protect the people from the Tang Sect who were in Shanghai. He had followed them here this time. Logically speaking, they would not be on guard against him.

Tan Yeluo pointed out the reason he was acting strangely. “He fell in love with a girl. This girl is...”

Tan Yeluo frowned when she saw the person in the information. Even Mo Weiyuan was surprised.

Su Cha looked up and asked, “What?”

“This girl is a staff of a clubhouse. What are the Tang Sect people doing? They didn’t even notice?!”

After saying this, Yun Zu looked at Tang Hefei.

Tang Hefei was also furious. His gentlemanly manner was a little unstable. “Why are you looking at me? These are people from the Martial Alliance’s Tang Sect. I can’t interfere. Who knows what they usually do?”

“Who else could be asked in this meeting?”

Su Cha could sense his intentions.

Tan Yeluo nodded and continued, “This clubhouse is the only lead we have. It’s one of the commercial forces that are involved with the Killing Alliance.”

“Killing Alliance?”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. She was no exception.

Yun Zu added, “This founder betrayed the Martial Alliance and is now hiding overseas.”

Lin Yin chuckled. "How dare a traitor mention it."

Yun Zu glared at him. "What does it have to do with you? Is there no traitor in your Beggar Sect?"

Mo Weiyuan had a headache and gestured for Tan Yeluo to continue.

Tan Yeluo looked at Su Cha, mainly to explain to her, "Even if we know that it's the territory of the Killing Alliance, we can't deal with it. You know that, right? Right now, the ones leading the people are officials, after all, not us, who are already outdated martial artists. The government forces across the Imperial Capital are very complicated. They are involved with each other. It's not strange for the people of the Killing Alliance to bribe some high-ranking officials. Since they are under their protection, it's naturally not good for us to interfere. However, the people of the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance are absolutely prohibited from going there. Everyone knows that it's the territory of the Killing Alliance. Don't you understand what it means to go there?"

Su Cha nodded. "So this Ming He who liked the girl in the clubhouse might have come into contact with someone from the Killing Alliance and been instigated."

"It seems to be the best guess."

Tan Yeluo pointed at the girl's information. "But the information shows that this girl is just a college student. She simply works in the clubhouse. I don't know the specifics. The timeframe is too short, and her information is not detailed enough. She only has basic family information. Her family is difficult, and she is quite good-looking, so she entered the clubhouse to work. This is easy to understand. We can't speculate that it has something to do with the people from the Killing Alliance."

Yun Zu suddenly rolled his eyes. "But the people of the Killing Alliance like to cultivate some young and beautiful women to seduce our people or the high-ranking officials of the Imperial Court."

Tan Yeluo snorted. "How dare you say that when you almost fell for it?"

"How many years has it been? Why are you talking so much here?" It's rare that Elder Yun was impatient. "The vixen has already evolved into a witch. She is still in an important position in the Killing Alliance. How many years has it been since we last met?"

Tan Yeluo looked at him with a smile. “Elder Yun, although I don’t know much, why were you so sure that you couldn’t reverse the situation?”

Yun Zu raised his hand, his face red with anger. “I’m afraid you really want me to smash your porcelain face to the ground today!”

Chapter 654: We Have No Scandals!

Seeing that the two of them were about to fight again, Su Cha had to stop them. “Okay, okay. You’re almost a hundred years old, yet you’re still arguing and not blushing about it? Let’s not talk about the past for now. We have to send someone to take control of this girl and investigate her. If she’s not involved, we will let this go. Then we will investigate whether Ming He entered the clubhouse because he liked her and was found out by the other members of the Killing Alliance. I believe that at least not all the martial artists in the Killing Alliance know others’ identities. Did the people of the Killing Alliance find out after Ming He had exposed himself?”

Mo Weiyuan pondered and nodded. “Alliance Master Su is right. Our Martial Alliance is enemies with the Killing Alliance, so we have been keeping a low profile for the past few decades. On the surface, we are from aristocratic families. Basically, it’s very difficult for martial artists to expose their identities. It’s very likely that his identity has been exposed and he has been instigated to rebel. No matter what, we should send people to investigate this first. It might be very difficult for our people to enter the clubhouse, so we should find a stranger to investigate.”

“That’s simple. Among the guests in the clubhouse, we have many spies.”

Tan Yeluo made an OK gesture and went to give instructions.

Mo Weiyuan gave some instructions and temporarily moved to the hotel with the others.

Su Cha stayed in the hotel. There would be other people busy with the assassination attempt today. She took time to look at her own matters.

She was still having a good time online.

Zhang Sen Media had made things difficult for her yesterday and made her third. Today, it had started to ferment.

All kinds of scandals started to spread. Some of them seemed to have been secretly exposed by the production crew. They said that the production crew had tampered with the votes, but in fact, Su Cha was number one.

Every staff member of the production crew had signed an agreement. It was hard to say who had exposed it. Even if it was out of a sense of justice, that person would never be hired by the entire industry again.

Hence, Su Cha was inclined to let the people in the company take action.

The Internet was in an uproar.

The passersby remained suspicious. After all, the votes this time were indeed strange. Su Cha's fans kept making a scene. No matter who may have won the championship, the fans would blow up because they could not accept the results.

Ka Lian and Chen Shengjun's fans were mocking and ridiculing them. It was mainly the fans of Ka Lian. They said that their idol had relied on her own strength to become number one. Why did the others say that it was due to a shady deal just because their side could not become number one? Wasn't their faces too ugly?

Although the fans of Ka Lian were annoying, what they said was the truth without evidence to say otherwise.

Other than Su Cha's fans making a scene, there were also anti-fans who took the opportunity to join in and curse Ka Lian and Chen Shengjun. Of course, Su Cha also received a lot of insults.

The passersby who were originally suspicious gradually leaned towards the other two sides.

In the end, more and more news accounts came forward. They vaguely exposed the fact that the votes were fake, causing more and more passersby to waver.

Although this matter was strange, perhaps it was just a coincidence?

Until the last bombshell from the production crew came.

Dreams in Progress Official: “For decades, the production crew has been holding a talent show. We have always maintained our original vision and conducted a fair and just talent show. We will let our popularity as well as our votes speak for us. Every result was chosen by the live audience. Perhaps there were mistakes made by the audience, but the production crew guarantees that the votes were fair. There were no shady dealings! We also congratulate the three contestants from the bottom of our hearts!”

Chapter 655: If You Can’t Win the Championship, Go and Make a Scene

The production crew had jumped out and said, “We are fair, we have no shady dealings!”

They also hinted that they might have chosen someone else’s favorite during the auditions, but at least the final votes were fair.

In other words, it was very likely that only Ka Lian and Chen Shengjun’s fans were in the audience. Hence, Su Cha was sure to lose.

It was impossible for the votes to be blocked.

Once this proof was released, the trending searches exploded.

“For decades, I’ve witnessed your persistence and how much fresh blood you’ve sent to the entertainment industry. Your fairness and justice are obvious. That you were able to post this clarification on Weibo has already proved your innocence. A certain someone’s fans, please do not jump up and down. A loss is a loss!”

“They’re just saying that there can’t be any shady dealings. I don’t know where the staff came from, but if the staff is so casual, they will lose their job. Are Su Cha’s fans to blame?”

“Maybe there was a mistake in the audience’s selection? Doesn’t this mean that you might have chosen only certain contestants’ fan and tried your best to filter out others, or did you do it on purpose? Impressive, you clarified and pushed the blame to the audience?”

“One could tell that the audience members were randomly selected. Otherwise, they would not be able to explain why, after the live broadcast results were released, at least hundreds of audience members had dumbfounded expressions. Tell me, if these audience members really voted for the contestant they liked and she won the championship, would they be unhappy? Explain this matter clearly!”

“Why are there still Su Cha’s fans jumping up and down in the building? If your master doesn’t care, why do you care?”

“She secretly took on endorsements and snatched someone else’s second female lead role while participating in the competition. What’s so strange about the live audience not liking her?”

“What do Su Cha’s resources have to do with her participating in the show? When did her resources get in the way of participating in the show? What do you mean by private? If you point out shady business, then talk about shady business. Why are you talking about other things?”

“Am I the only one who feels that this matter is strange? Didn’t someone else say that Su Cha offended Zhang Sen Media because of her relationship with Qin Bei? With Zhang Sen Media’s power, it should be easy for them to deal with Su Cha and make her lose the championship...”

“Some fans really make me laugh to death. If they can’t become the champion, they will throw a tantrum and push the blame to Zhang Sen Media. What kind of existence is Zhang Sen Media? Do they think highly of a small celebrity like her? And they even specifically targeted her? What can a champion even do?”

The production crew’s clarification was equivalent to pushing Su Cha to the center of attention.

Su Cha remembered that Bo Muyi had said that he had taken action, but the matter was getting increasingly fierce.

Su Cha suddenly smiled as she thought of something.

Poison. If her boyfriend really attacked, it would be for the kill.

Cha Yi Company did not take action for the time being. They were waiting for the production crew to deal a fatal blow.

Once they clarified this, they would never be able to clear their name.

As long as it was the truth, once it was exposed, it would be devastating for them.

However, because of Zhang Sen Media, they had to swallow this result.

They did not know that they had offended someone more terrifying than Zhang Sen Media.

The comments on the Internet became fiercer and fiercer. When the production crew clarified, they even felt inexplicably confident. Of course, they made the wavering passersby completely stand firm.

Just because she could not become the champion, she was pulling all kinds of dirty tricks?

And Zhang Sen Media was targeting her. What a joke!

Would such a big company target a small celebrity like her?

Chapter 656: Something Happened to Young Master

[What a joke. A certain S's fans are really worthy of the word "B." Just because she can't become the champion, why do they have to make such a big splash? So it's a shady deal, eh? Even a big corporation wants to target her!]

Today, we will learn how to bark like a pig (OP): "I've been eating melons on Weibo for the whole day. I'm dying of laughter. Ever since she didn't become the champion last night, a certain someone's fans have started to throw tantrums and performed in all kinds of ways. Not only did they insult the DIP champion and the runner-up, but they also said that if their idol can't become the champion, there's a conspiracy. What right does she have? The other contestants' strength is not worse than that of your main character, okay? The most hilarious thing is how they said that it was because their idol had offended Qin Bei and Zhang Sen Media, so the reason she couldn't become the champion this time was because Zhang Sen Media forced the production crew to change the outcome. Not giving her the championship is a lesson. How big is Zhang Sen Media? You actually think that they'd think so highly of your idol? Your idol is about to skyrocket after snatching a second female lead role. Do you really think that the entertainment industry is going to persecute her?"

Most Like: “I’ve long disliked her fans. What super genius, what beauty without an enemy, what sweet songs. If she can’t become the champion, all the bad deeds will be exposed.”

Most Like: “To be honest, I think fandom is as fandom does. I think Su Cha’s reaction was quite good. She calmly accepted the results at the venue, okay...? It’s too much to involve her. She has not appeared to lead fans in mentioning any shady dealings. After all, she has always been number one in popularity. The finals have set the lowest number of votes for her. Ordinary fans will definitely not be able to accept this abnormality. I think it’s natural for them to suspect something.”

Most Like: “Don’t wash it. Damn it, I just don’t agree with you. Just because the production crew can’t explain the dumbfounded expressions of most of the audience in the video, it can’t be washed clean! If you’re voting for the championship, you will either be unhappy at the end or you will soar. Even if you are unhappy, you should applaud to celebrate. How many audience members were happy when the results came out last night? The passersby found it unbelievable, let alone the live audience!”

Most Like: “What’s the point of using a video to clear her name? I saw that there were only so few unhappy viewers in the video. Most of them were clearly happy, okay? They had to use a small group of people to cover the majority. Did they really think that someone was too popular? Drunk!”

1L: “Watching from the Front”

It seemed that most people could not accept the result last night. At least even after the production crew had clarified, there were still sensible people who spoke up for Su Cha.

When Su Cha saw these comments, she was not angry anymore. She saw that her fans were still arguing for reason, and some of them sent private messages to her, saying that their hearts were about to break. She sighed and planned to send a Weibo message to comfort them. At the very least, she had to hint that the matter would be resolved soon. But just as she touched the Weibo page, Su Cha’s heart stopped.

Her heart raced. At the door that was not closed, Ah Chen's voice suddenly drifted inside. "What? Nothing happened to us. We haven't gone back at all. Where did you get the news?! ... Damn it, go and protect the young master!"

Ah Chen's sudden harsh words made Su Cha stand up. Ah Chen pushed the door open and entered the room. His expression was strange and ugly. "Miss Su, something might have happened to the young master in the Imperial Capital..."

In an instant, her heart tightened. It was as if she was being held by someone's Alliance Master. The intense pain turned into an incomparable coldness that seeped into her limbs. Her vision blurred for a moment. She heard buzzing sounds around her, which kept ringing in her ears, so loud that her head was about to explode.

Chapter 657: Changed Since a Long Time

Su Cha's hands were trembling when she boarded the private plane with Ah Chen.

Ah Chen could not care less about her emotions. He kept calling Bo Muyi, but he could not get through. The people from the Imperial Capital had done their best to rush over. Ah Chen kept calling the army and asking for their location.

With the protection of the secret guards and the protection of the army, no one knew what had happened.

All the secret guards around him seemed to have been disturbed by something and did not respond.

For the first time, Ah Chen was sweating profusely.

He called everywhere, but even to Bai Kun, he could not get through.

The Bo family's branch had already been notified. There was really no other way. The plane had already advanced at the fastest speed and had to be approved by the flight route. No matter how fast it was, it would take an hour. They could only sit here and worry.

Su Cha curled her body and hugged her knees as she stared blankly ahead.

Ah Chen's face was pale. He said in a trembling voice, "Miss Su, someone intercepted our phone signal and pretended to be us to inform the young master that something had happened to us. The young master was too anxious and fell for it... The signal was cut off by someone. We are informing the government to use the satellite to provide signal assistance. Nothing can happen to the young master. For so many years, the young master has been very calm and composed. He should have seen through this trick, but after he met you, everything changed."

He was blaming her.

A person like Bo Muyi had always been like a god, perfect and unfathomable. There seemed to be nothing in the world that could stump him.

Ever since he met Su Cha, his bottom line had been broken and changed.

Before, he could have seen through such a shallow move with a closer look. But he panicked when he heard that it was about Su Cha.

Although the other party had set up an inescapable net to confuse him, he would definitely see through it after some time.

But when it involved Su Cha, how could he have the time to judge?

He did not have time to investigate much. When he rushed over, he must have realized that he had been tricked.

Perhaps he was still happy because nothing had happened to his Cha Cha. She was just fine.

But something had happened to him!

It was uncertain if he was dead or alive. Because of him, the night in the Imperial Capital was destined to not be peaceful.

Su Cha's entire body was trembling as if she had entered a frozen hell. Her teeth were chattering. "What does he want... I... I can't control it... I want their lives... I want to kill everyone... everyone... everything!!!"

Her eyes turned red and she fell into a trance.

In the past, she had never been so crazy.

However, after her rebirth, she'd finally regained her happiness. Now that Bo Mui was in trouble, she really did not know how to continue.

In the past, she thought that she was alive to take revenge. Now, she realized that she was alive because she had someone more important to protect. She wanted to protect him forever.

Ah Chen felt a little resentful because Bo Mui had broken his bottom line for Su Cha. He was ordered to protect Bo Mui, but he did not expect such a thing to happen.

He's blaming Su Cha, but she was also the victim.

But because of what had happened to his young master... Seeing Su Cha's state, Ah Chen turned his head and could not bear to say it.

Actually, he also understood that if anything happened to the young master, she would find it harder to accept than anyone else.

Some things had changed since a long time ago.

Chapter 658: Who Did It?

When they arrived at the Imperial Capital, they finally received news of Bo Mui.

Bo Mui was found, but the situation was not good. He had been shot.

He had been shot.

The words stabbed Su Cha's heart.

She almost lost her mind as she followed Ah Chen to the special-class hospital in the Imperial Capital.

The entire floor was tightly guarded. When Ah Chen and Su Cha arrived, they saw Bai Kun looking a little nervous.

“The young master is inside...”

Before he could finish, Su Cha had already entered the ward next to him.

There were only a few people in the ward. Bo Mui was lying on the bed and had not changed into his hospital gown. The doctor was bandaging the wound on his left arm.

There was bloodstained gauze on the side. Judging from the amount of blood, the incident must have been a little shocking.

He had his eyes closed and was half lying on the chair. He looked a little tired, but this did not affect his aura. It was still cold and oppressive.

Perhaps sensing something, he opened his eyes and sat up when he saw Su Cha. “Cha Cha.”

His sudden action shocked the doctors and nurses. They did not dare to stop him sternly and could only comfort him. “Young Master Bo, you can’t move. It will be fine after you are bandaged.”

Su Cha quickly pressed his shoulder. “Don’t move.”

Perhaps it was because of her relief that the matter was not as bad as she had imagined, but Su Cha’s voice was still a little broken.

Her eyes were red. Bo Mui subconsciously grabbed her hand. “You cried?”

Su Cha shook her head. “I’m just too flustered.”

She was really afraid that something would happen to Bo Mui. If anything happened, she did not know if she could bear it.

Hearing this, Bo Mui felt happy and uncomfortable.

He was happy that Cha Cha was so worried about him, but he was sad that she cried.

He did not want Cha Cha to cry.

When he thought of this, Bo Mui's face darkened and he apologized to her, "Cha Cha, I'm sorry. This was an accident. I made a mistake."

At that time, those people had used Su Cha. It was the first time that such a thing had happened, and he had lost his vigilance.

The doctor and nurse who were bandaging his wound were extremely surprised. They did not know Bo Mui, but after coming here, the master did not say a word even when he was injured and took the anesthesia. He only frowned and his expression did not change much. He was quiet and calm, without any anger.

Now that he'd seen this girl, he changed.

It seemed that in an instant, he became much more humane, making this perfect man more realistic.

Moreover, this girl looked familiar?

After bandaging the wound, the doctor and nurse left after packing everything, leaving the two of them alone.

Su Cha sat down and grabbed his hand tightly. "You only know how to worry about me. Now that something has happened to you, of course I will be sad. Don't you know that?"

Bo Mui's eyes darkened. "I was only thinking about you back then and didn't think too much about it. It was my fault."

In fact, he was glad that something had happened to him. It was better than Su Cha.

Su Cha looked at his wound. It had been bandaged. It was white and there were no marks on it, but the bloody gauze looked scary. She touched it with trembling fingers and asked in a low voice, "Who did it?"

Bo Muyi held her wrist tightly. "I haven't found anything yet, but I had someone following me."

Chapter 659: Let Them Pay the Price They Should Pay

He seemed to not want to tell Su Cha the truth.

He tilted her head and thought for a while before saying honestly, "Someone cut off your phone signal and forged a number to call me. They said that something had happened. At that time, I... didn't think too much. Those people came prepared."

"When I rushed to the location to save you, I was ambushed. The other party had a gun, and they'd sent a large number of killers. I lost a few subordinates. At that time, the signal was cut off. The others could not save me in time. I was injured. Fortunately, it was just a small injury."

After being shot, he casually said that it was just a small injury.

Su Cha gritted her teeth. "I won't let them off. Are they from the Killing Alliance?"

Bo Muyi shook his head. "There are many people who want to kill me."

In other words, it was not just the Killing Alliance.

However, Su Cha was currently in a fit of anger. Seeing that Bo Muyi was fine, she could only temporarily relieve the anger in her heart.

Bo Muyi grabbed her wrist, not wanting her to leave him. He said softly, "Cha Cha, I want to rest for a while. Can you accompany me here?"

Su Cha nodded. "Okay."

He was indeed tired. He had not had a good rest since the attack. Seeing that Su Cha was safe, he relaxed.

Su Cha let him lie on the bed in the VIP ward. He held Su Cha's palm and fell asleep after a while.

Bai Kun walked in at the right time and said in a low voice, "Young Master just took some medicine. There's a sleeping substance in the medicine. He hasn't rested for a long time."

Su Cha squinted at him. "What happened yesterday?"

"The details are too complicated."

Bai Kun explained slowly and went forward to show Su Cha a document. "Most of the killers who were chasing after the young master yesterday have been killed. Only five people escaped. We only installed a tracking device. The last signal showed that he disappeared here."

Bai Kun pointed at a place. "Dawn Club."

Su Cha's heart skipped a beat.

The Dawn Club was the place that Tan Yeluo had mentioned, the territory of the Killing Alliance.

Bai Kun saw Su Cha's expression and whispered, "It's the territory of the Killing Alliance. Our informants have already sent news. The situation at the clubhouse today is indeed a little strange. A guest has bumped into a bloody person. We are preparing to negotiate with the Killing Alliance."

"Negotiation?"

Su Cha smiled coldly. "My boyfriend was nearly assassinated, and the culprit escaped to their clubhouse. You want to negotiate? No, I just need them to hand over the person."

Su Cha stood up and gently pulled her hand away when she saw Bo Muyi sleeping soundly.

Bo Mui seemed to have reacted to her movement. The person who was asleep frowned instinctively and moved his fingers gently as if he was about to wake up.

Su Cha stuffed a corner of a blanket into his hand and let him hold it.

After all, he had taken sleeping pills and was in a deep sleep. Before he fell asleep, Su Cha was by his side, so he could not tell. He grabbed the corner of the blanket and fell asleep again.

Bai Kun's eyes twitched.

Looking at Bo Mui's state, a gentle light flashed across Su Cha's eyes. She whispered, "I'm someone great. I can protect you."

She knew that Bo Mui almost went crazy from anger. He hated that he could not kill those people on the spot. Now that she knew the culprit, Su Cha would definitely not be able to hold back.

She wanted to personally capture these people and make them pay the price.

Chapter 660: Excuse Me for Not Welcoming You

"The current boss of the Dawn Club is overseas. Usually, it's managed by some managers, but the power behind them is huge. It has something to do with the central power. The Bo family will not care about this. But the problem is that if the Killing Alliance refuses to admit it, we are afraid that we will have to snatch the person by force. We might not be able to succeed. Moreover, there are many big shots there. After that, we have to have concrete evidence. Otherwise, there will be many troubles."

Su Cha walked quickly. She just listened to Bai Kun's report and said, "I want to have settled this matter by the time Mui wakes up. Let Ah Chen follow me. You just have to provide information."

Ah Chen followed Su Cha. His expression was subtle. "Are you really planning to snatch him from the Killing Alliance?"

Su Cha turned around. "What else? As long as you confirm that he's inside."

"We can be sure, but..."

Bai Kun was a little hesitant. “Even Ah Chen might not be able to get out of that clubhouse...”

They did not know Su Cha’s strength.

They now knew that Su Cha was the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, but so what? Two fists could never beat four hands.

“So what?”

There was a hint of madness in her eyes. “It’s fine if they don’t hand that person over. People are always afraid of death. They’ll be willing to tell you everything before they die.”

The cold-blooded and heartless words echoed in the corridor, stunning both of them.

Why did Miss Su suddenly become... violent?

Even so, it was not a wise choice to go to that clubhouse to snatch people. Bai Kun asked Ah Chen to bring enough people, and the group went straight to Dawn Club.

It was noon. Dawn Club was in business.

However, the people who came here were all extraordinary figures. Almost everyone hid their identity to avoid being discovered.

Occasionally, low-key cars would drive in from the underground garage. Only when one took a closer look could they see how amazing the person in the car was.

When Su Cha and the rest arrived at the Dawn Club, they were stopped by someone.

“I’m sorry, Alliance Master Su. People from the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance are not welcomed here.”

Standing by the luxurious glass door, a muscular bodyguard in black stopped Su Cha.

Su Cha stood there alone, surrounded by the Bo family's secret guards.

He directly revealed Su Cha's identity. It was obvious that he knew about it and said it clearly. He did not want the people from the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance to enter.

Hearing this, Su Cha did not seem to be angry. She showed her teeth and smiled innocently. "Do you want me to do it here?"

Her threatening words were so cold that they made people freeze.

The bodyguard in black looked at Su Cha with vigilance in his eyes. After a few seconds, Su Cha heard a voice coming from his earpiece. The bodyguard in black turned sideways. "Alliance Master Su, please."

Su Cha did not even look at him. She walked past him and walked in.

The glass door opened directly, and the scene in front of her changed instantly. It was not a magnificent style, but it was elegant as if it was an ancient residence.

A few huge potted plants were arranged in a row in the hall. There were a thin sandalwood fragrance and the soft singing of a girl from Jiangnan. It was very easy for people to get lost here.

Su Cha walked in and a graceful figure walked out from a small door on the side of the hall.

The person smiled when she saw Su Cha. "The Alliance Master of the Star Alliance is here. I'm sorry for not welcoming you."
