

The Queen 66

Chapter 66: Danger! Who Exactly is in Danger?

Yang Nuanru would know when Su Cha arrived at school.

But, she would not dare to act recklessly in school. The third lesson in the afternoon went smoothly.

The past two days of learning deepened her knowledge of the courses, and there were no signs of unequal improvements. All in all, it could be said that Su Cha understood all the classes she was taking.

If she could maintain this rate of improvement for a month, Su Cha was confident that she would excel in her national college entrance exam.

She wanted to enter the Imperial Capital.

Because the learning conditions were the best in the Imperial Capital, and her goal was to enroll in the performance academy.

All the top performance academies were concentrated in the Imperial Capital.

Even in her first life, the old Su Cha's enrolment into a performance academy was guaranteed. But, Su Cha wanted to put in her best effort to improve herself.

She could excel, so why not strive for a higher score?

The competition's national division would also be held in the Imperial City.

What would Bo Muyi think about me moving to the Imperial City...

But, it was still too early to be concerned about that. Su Cha did not dwell on that thought for long.

Towards the end of the third lesson, the school atmosphere became tense.

Le Anqi's mobile phone rang, and she checked the news before turning to Su Cha who was packing up to leave, "Yang Nuanru and a couple of people are waiting at the school gate."

Su Cha narrowed her eyes momentarily before she curled the sides of her lip into a faint smile, "It doesn't matter."

Li Anqi's eyes widened in shock.

Su Cha left the class after packing her belongings.

"What the hell, she has guts!"

"Damn it, we are classmates. We can't just watch her get beaten up, right?"

"Then, do you dare to provoke those guys? Be careful. You might die after they stab you with a knife."

Hearing what the classmates said, Cai Ziya's face turned pale.

She subconsciously turned to Li Anqi, "What do we do? Should we call the teacher?"

Le Anqi was dumbfounded, "Yang Nuanru and her gang would not be so stupid to attack right in front of the school gate. They would lead Su Cha to another place, and the teachers would not be able to manage it."

Upon hearing that, Cai Ziya panicked, "Then, what should we do? The main issue here is not Su Cha being beaten up. What if those people..." she lowered her head and whispered, "do something brute to her?"

Students fear that the most, especially the teenage girls.

Society's scoundrels are all a bunch of scumbags. They would not consider the consequences of their actions. If they see how beautiful Su Cha is, they might develop indecent thoughts and lead Su

Cha to a secluded area where there will be no one to help her. If something happens, Su Cha's life would be ruined.

Le Anqi was reminded of Su Cha's recent success during the competition judging round, her great career had just begun. Although Le Anqi appeared to be confident, she had a soft heart. She lowered her head and sent a message to someone.

After that, she pulled Cai Ziya, "Come, let's take a look."

The two girls immediately ran after Su Cha.

It was true that many people followed Su Cha.

Yang Nuanru had declared that she would take her revenge on Su Cha. Everyone was waiting for the show to unfold. There were only a small number of people present who did not wish to see Su Cha getting hurt, but they could not intervene.

Because they did not dare to do so.

Many students walked out of the school gates. As Su Cha passed by the guardhouse, she noticed a pile of wooden rods placed next to the security guard. The rods were round, and her hands could be wrapped nicely around it. The exterior of the rod had a light greyish color, and they looked like materials to build a chair.

Su Cha immediately broke into a broad smile, "Uncle, can I take one of the wooden sticks? I have some use for them. I will return them to you tomorrow. I am Su Cha of Grade 12's Class Five."

The old man recognized Su Cha, but he was unaware of the things she would be faced with afterward. He took a glance at Su Cha, and replied without probing, "Sure, take it. We will be assembling the chairs tomorrow, so you must return it!"

Su Cha smiled as she picked up a wooden stick before leaving.

Le Anqi and Cai Ziya who were following behind saw Su Cha's movement, and they shivered.

As soon as Su Cha exited the school gate, she was approached by a few bald young men with ill intentions.

Chapter 67: She's Alone

Those men in T-shirts and vests were all bald.

Their egg-like heads glared in the sunlight, which made people's eyes sore.

Su Cha squeezed her eyes a bit and sniffed their stink of sweat, cigarettes, and even body odor while they approached her.

The mixed smell was nauseating in this weather.

Su Cha took a step back to dodge it.

Those loafers were not aware of it. They found Su Cha to be a beautiful girl and exchanged lustful looks with each other.

"Little sister, you have the guts to fight against our younger sister Nuanru, don't you? Come here. Why don't we have a private conversation about life?", said one rascal.

There were some students nearby who were about to leave but stopped.

They lowered their heads and whispered. Yang Nuanru walked slowly out of the crowd.

She saw that Su Cha had been stopped by her people and became a little excited.

She lowered her head, but she could not hide her happy face.

"Alright!"

Unexpectedly, Su Cha agreed. She smiled innocently, "Shall we find a quiet place?"

The bald young men were dumbfounded. Apparently, they did not expect that Su Cha would have the guts to go with them.

Someone saw the stick in Su Cha's hands and found it strange. He tried to take it over, "This is dangerous. It's not for a girl. Give it to me."

But before his hand could reach Su Cha, the girl had already taken two steps away from him. Her smile died down, "Why do you care? Can't I like it?"

She said unhappily. The baldies were irritated and embarrassed as many people were watching them.

A man tried to touch Su Cha's head but she dodged right away.

She did not wait for them to react, and walked straight into the crowd to catch Yang Nuanru's neck and dragged her out violently. "Since they are your big brothers, let's go together, Nuanru, shall we?"

Yang Nuanru was caught off guard by Su Cha and was out of breath. She couldn't help shrieking, "What are you doing?!"

Then she found that everyone was looking at her.

Yang Nuanru felt cold as if she had fallen in an ice cellar.

She had always been a woman of power in school. How could she be scared of Su Cha's touch?

Yang Nuanru could not face the students.

Nor she could ignore Su Cha's strength. She was about the same height as Su Cha, only a little shorter than her. However, she was caught by Su Cha at the neck and dragged to her big brothers. Su Cha smiled more sweetly than a blossom, "Come on, big brothers, shall we find a place to talk about life?"

She held a wooden stick with one hand and captured Yang Nuanru with another. She looked even more like a bully than the real ones....

But Su Cha's smile was able to enchant people. If she waved, all men would follow her.

The students got excited as they could not believe how bold Su Cha had become.

Did I see it clearly? Did Yang Nuanru show fear of Su Cha's approach?!

What had happened yesterday? Why does Yang Nuanru fear Su Cha?

Isn't Su Cha always a good girl in school?

Le Anqi and Cai Ziya were still worried about Su Cha. They glanced around and followed them.

After all, Su Cha was alone.

Chapter 68: Attacking Without a Reason

They really led Su Cha to a secluded corner.

After walking for a while, they entered a residential building that would soon be demolished. A demolition notice had been pasted at the front of the building, and no one really passed by the area.

The residents nearby were mainly ordinary civilians.

Yang Nuanru had been tightly held by Su Cha, she attempted to struggle free but to no avail. Yang Nuanru and Su Cha walked at the very front while the older boys followed behind them.

As they went further into the remote area, Yang Nuanru became increasingly distressed. She did not know where her anxiety came from.

Yang Nuanru gritted her teeth, "Su Cha, I already gathered my people here with me. If you dare hit me again, you will not be able to leave this place safely."

Su Cha turned her head towards Yang Nuanru. As she exhaled, her breath hit Yang Nuanru's ear, "Yang Nuanru, I told you yesterday, right? If you dare to trouble me, you will end up in a worse state. Today, I will let you guys die here."

Although she spoke softly, there were no traces of jokes at all.

Yang Nuanru shivered, "Dream on, there are a few of them..."

Su Cha snickered and stopped talking.

After seeing that there was no one around, the few older boys quickly caught up and tried to grab Su Cha, "Why do you keep holding onto Yang Nuanru? What are you trying to do?"

When his hand was about to touch Su Cha, the girl's eyes shifted as she rapidly rotated the wooden rod in her hand. Taking advantage of the rotation speed, Su Cha hit the side of the bastard's head with the wooden rod.

The loud "bang" made everyone shudder with fear. As the wooden rod landed directly on the boy's temple, he saw stars and the whole world turned around him.

His entire body swayed as if he was drunk before landing on the floor.

He did not pass out, but he was caught off guard by the wooden rod. Su Cha did not show mercy, his head felt like it was about to explode.

His head was buzzing in pain, the buzzing was so loud it felt like Venus was moving in his head.

Seeing what Su Cha had done, Yang Nuanru's heart raced.

She felt like screaming, but a hand tightly pinched her throat.

Is Su Cha Crazy?!

She has gone mad!!

“Fuck you! Are you looking to die?”

“You stupid bitch, are you crazy?!”

“Don’t you dare attack, you stupid play thing!!”

The rest of the boys were stunned as they watched Su Cha attack using a wooden stick. As they came to their senses, they were boiling with anger. The rod that Su Cha had brought along was meant to hit people!

The few boys charged towards Su Cha, thinking that she would not be able to deal with them all at once.

As they thought that they were dealing with a girl, the boys did not bring along any weapons.

The following scene was unforgettable for Yang Nuanru. She was stupefied, as she remained restrained under Su Cha’s arm. Su Cha dodged the attacks at a fantastic speed, the wooden rod in her hand was like a murder weapon as it only landed on the lethal spots.

It was possible to kill someone by hitting them on their heads. Su Cha attacked without mercy as she landed another direct hit on one of the boy’s head.

After suffering such a deadly blow, the boy instantly lost his will to fight.

After spending so many years in ancient times, she had lost her martial arts ability. But, she clearly remembered some basic martial arts movement. With a weapon in her hand, these boys were no match for her.

When Yang Nuanru regained her senses, she saw that one of the boys had tried to escape. But Su Cha exerted her strength and the wooden rod in her hands flew towards him. “Bang” the wooden rod landed on the round, braided egg-like head!

The boy immediately fell to the ground.

Chapter 69: After All, She Was A Good Student

Yang Nuanru shuddered.

Then, Su Cha let her go. She seemed to have found it amusing, “Did you send THESE people to deal with me?”

Yang Nuanru kept shaking and could not respond.

She hated Su Cha for beating her up. But it was beyond her imagination that Su Cha could beat up those aggressive unemployed loafers.

Her legs could hardly move as if they were loaded with lead. She wanted to run away but dared not to do so. And she had to watch Su Cha picking up her stick.

Su Cha dusted it off. A man wanted to sneak away while Su Cha was locking her eyes on Yang Nuanru. But she still struck his leg without turning her eyes away.

Her move was as fast as lightning. And she used her full strength violently.

“Ah!!!!”

The man screamed so loudly that people nearby all heard him. Yang Nuanru was so scared that she cried, “Sorry, I’m sorry. It’s my fault. I’m really sorry...”

She was really scared. Aggressive as the men seemed to be, they were not able to take a full strike of the stick. Yang Nuanru regretted deeply that she had fallen out with Su Cha.

No wonder why Su Cha has been so confident. No wonder why she had asked to come over.

She had already planned to beat them, and she didn’t waste a word.

Su Cha smiled and walked to Yang Nuanru. Her strong charisma impressed people. Yang Nuanru found it hard to breathe. She even felt an urge to kneel on the ground.

Su Cha stopped in front of Yang Nuanru. Pat. She slapped her hard on the face.

Its power threw Yang Nuanru onto the ground.

But she dared not disobey her and only lowered her head to weep.

Su Cha did not feel for her at all. She knew this girl all too well. If she did not beat them up, nobody knew what would have happened.

The men standing in front of her were all dregs of society. They could commit any crimes.

She wanted to beat them harder. But as she had already become an adult, it would be very troublesome if she were arrested. As a result, she had only wounded them in the way that would take them a few months to fully recover, instead of crippling them.

They dared not call the police for a fight like this due to their status.

“We will have the national college entrance exam soon. Yang Nuanru, I don’t want extra trouble.”

After she finished her words, her lips curled slightly.

She did not let Yang Nuanru go as easily as it appeared to be. The people she sent had been greatly humiliated today, they would surely find a punchbag for it.

Yang Nuanru was the perfect one to bear the brunt of their temper.

If they went on harassing Su Cha, she would deal with them later.

She took her stick and left, wasting no time.

She had to dine with Bo Muye tonight at a place half an hour away. After this fight, she was already over ten minutes late.

She walked a few steps and saw Le Anqi and Cai Ziya who had been hiding behind the building.

The girls shuddered at the sight of her.

Obviously, they had seen what had just happened.

Cai Ziya and Le Anqi looked at each other. Before Su Cha could speak, they said nothing and ran away like startled rabbits.

Su Cha chuckled as they fled away.

Am I so scary?

She did not beat people for no reason. She just had to do it today.

After all, she was an ‘innocent and well-behaved’ student.

Chapter 70: I Do Not Like Children

When Su Cha arrived at the location where she was meeting Bo Mui, she was already ten minutes late.

The pair had agreed to meet at a relatively high-end restaurant. They had booked a private room, and it would cost more than 500 yuan per person.

This price was nothing for Bo Mui, but for Su Cha, this was the maximum she could afford to spend on a meal.

Since she had invited Bo Mui for dinner as a heartfelt gesture, it would be impossible for her to bring him to any ordinary restaurant.

That would not be suitable or good.

When Su Cha arrived at the private room, she saw Bai Kun anxiously standing outside. He was drenched in sweat.

As soon as he saw Su Cha, Bai Kun cried out as if he finally met his savior, “Miss Su, look at you. How could you be late for such an appointment?”

Embarrassed, Su Cha replied, “I was delayed by some matters, and my phone ran out of battery so I could not inform Bo Mui.”

As she spoke, she handed the wooden rod to Bai Kun, “Can you safeguard this for me, I need to bring it to school tomorrow.”

Bai Kun was a little puzzled by that. After Su Cha entered the room, he carefully inspected the wooden rod and found traces of blood on it?

Bai Kun’s eyes widened in shock, what’s Miss Su doing with this bloody wooden rod!

As soon as Su Cha entered the private room, she felt a cold, icy aura.

It was as if there was a self-contained air conditioning system in the room.

In the middle of the room, there was a handsome man who was continually tearing the paper towels. His thin lips were tensed, and the man appeared restless.

It could even be said that he was irritable and in distress.

“Muyi?”

The girl’s voice was like a light that broke the darkness that enclosed the man. Bo Mui turned his head, and the moment his eyes rested on Su Cha, his cold eyes lit up, and before he broke into a smile, his mood sank, “Chacha, you are late...”

It was as if he realized something, his accusatory tone instantly turned aggrieved, “You are late.”

“I’m sorry, I was delayed by some matters.”

Su Cha walked over and hugged him. She dragged a chair close to Bo Mui, “It’s my fault. Mui, my phone ran out of battery. I will not let this happen again, I promise.”

The man lowered his eyes. Under the light, his long lashes cast a shadow on his cheeks, and it showed his unhappiness.

There were many pieces of napkins on the ground. Due to extreme anxiety, the man forced himself to shred the napkins as he tried to distract himself.

To not think about things I should not. For instance, does Chacha regret dating me, does she not want me anymore.

These thoughts gave him the urge to destroy everything.

Su Cha knew that he was in a foul mood. As she hugged his waist, Su Cha rested her head on his neck as she softly coaxed him. After a while, she felt that he had gradually calmed down.

Su Cha sighed as she poked Bo Mui’s flawless face, “Why are you like a child?”

Bo Mui lifted his head, his star-like eyes were dead serious, “Chacha, I do not like children.”

Su Cha: “...”

She buried her head in Bo Mui’s neck, and could not help but chuckle.

Chapter 70: I Do Not Like Children

When Su Cha arrived at the location where she was meeting Bo Mui, she was already ten minutes late.

The pair had agreed to meet at a relatively high-end restaurant. They had booked a private room, and it would cost more than 500 yuan per person.

This price was nothing for Bo Mui, but for Su Cha, this was the maximum she could afford to spend on a meal.

Since she had invited Bo Mui for dinner as a heartfelt gesture, it would be impossible for her to bring him to any ordinary restaurant.

That would not be suitable or good.

When Su Cha arrived at the private room, she saw Bai Kun anxiously standing outside. He was drenched in sweat.

As soon as he saw Su Cha, Bai Kun cried out as if he finally met his savior, “Miss Su, look at you. How could you be late for such an appointment?”

Embarrassed, Su Cha replied, “I was delayed by some matters, and my phone ran out of battery so I could not inform Bo Mui.”

As she spoke, she handed the wooden rod to Bai Kun, “Can you safeguard this for me, I need to bring it to school tomorrow.”

Bai Kun was a little puzzled by that. After Su Cha entered the room, he carefully inspected the wooden rod and found traces of blood on it?

Bai Kun’s eyes widened in shock, what’s Miss Su doing with this bloody wooden rod!

As soon as Su Cha entered the private room, she felt a cold, icy aura.

It was as if there was a self-contained air conditioning system in the room.

In the middle of the room, there was a handsome man who was continually tearing the paper towels. His thin lips were tensed, and the man appeared restless.

It could even be said that he was irritable and in distress.

“Muyi?”

The girl's voice was like a light that broke the darkness that enclosed the man. Bo Mui turned his head, and the moment his eyes rested on Su Cha, his cold eyes lit up, and before he broke into a smile, his mood sank, "Chacha, you are late..."

It was as if he realized something, his accusatory tone instantly turned aggrieved, "You are late."

"I'm sorry, I was delayed by some matters."

Su Cha walked over and hugged him. She dragged a chair close to Bo Mui, "It's my fault. Mui, my phone ran out of battery. I will not let this happen again, I promise."

The man lowered his eyes. Under the light, his long lashes cast a shadow on his cheeks, and it showed his unhappiness.

There were many pieces of napkins on the ground. Due to extreme anxiety, the man forced himself to shred the napkins as he tried to distract himself.

To not think about things I should not. For instance, does Chacha regret dating me, does she not want me anymore.

These thoughts gave him the urge to destroy everything.

Su Cha knew that he was in a foul mood. As she hugged his waist, Su Cha rested her head on his neck as she softly coaxed him. After a while, she felt that he had gradually calmed down.

Su Cha sighed as she poked Bo Mui's flawless face, "Why are you like a child?"

Bo Mui lifted his head, his star-like eyes were dead serious, "Chacha, I do not like children."

Su Cha: "..."

She buried her head in Bo Mui's neck, and could not help but chuckle.