

The Queen 661

Chapter 661: I Will Show You Unreasonable

Su Cha looked over calmly.

The person was a woman with a good figure, but judging from her age, she was obviously in her fifties or sixties.

She was not as young as Bo Muyi's grandma. She looked older and had more wrinkles on her face.

However, she had an elegant temperament and walked with a graceful bearing. Just this figure alone exuded a peerless aura. When she was young, she was definitely an absolute beauty who could bring chaos to all living things.

She was still as charming as ever.

Su Cha did not know her, but she could guess that she was from the Killing Alliance.

She just stood there and looked at the old woman. She tilted her head. "I'm sure you know why I came here today. I don't like to beat around the bush. Hand over the culprit who attempted to assassinate the Bo family's head."

Su Cha crossed her arms and spoke bluntly. She did not seem to realize that she was in someone else's territory.

The woman who looked like an old enchantress clapped her hands and plastered her mouth with a smile. "Alliance Master Su, I've misunderstood. How can the person you're looking for be in our Dawn Club? Assassinating the person in charge of the Bo family is such a big matter. How can Alliance Master Su directly push the blame to our club? This is a big issue that can cost people their lives!"

While she was talking to Su Cha, guests went in and occasionally glanced over.

Although they had extraordinary backgrounds, they also realized that the situation here was not simple. They would not come forward to join in the fun. After glancing at them, they would quickly leave.

“Wouldn’t you know if there’s someone I’m looking for?”

Su Cha spoke bluntly, and the smile on the old enchantress’s face eased. “Alliance Master Su, we respect you as the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, which is why we are so polite to you. However, this is the territory of Dawn Club, after all. Everyone who comes here is a guest. But as a guest, one naturally has to know their limits. Our Dawn Club is not a place that others can trample on casually. Otherwise, how can we live up to our reputation? Alliance Master Su, if you wish to be unreasonable here today, we can only seek out an explanation from the Star Alliance another day.”

“I’m the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. That should be enough explanation for you.”

Su Cha curled her lips into a sinister smile. “I’m standing here today to tell you that if you don’t hand that person over today, I’ll see to it that you can’t operate Dawn Club anymore. How about that?”

She tilted her head and smiled innocently as if she was joking.

However, the old enchantress’s expression changed. “Alliance Master Su, what a loaded tone!”

The internal staff of Dawn Club aside, even the connections of the higher-ups were unimaginable. Even if it was the Bo family that wanted to cause trouble, they had to pay a price. Was it still the same as before?

As soon as she finished speaking, many people suddenly walked out from all directions. All of them were wearing black clothes and sunglasses. They exuded a murderous aura and surrounded Su Cha, who was in the middle. If one counted carefully, there were actually 30 to 40 people.

No one here could compare with some secret guards. Even if the rest were weak, their aura was intimidating.

The old enchantress felt that victory was in her grasp and smiled brightly. “Alliance Master Su, our Dawn Club is also reasonable. But if you are determined to be unreasonable today, don’t blame us for being unreasonable as well.”

“Oh, then I’ll be unreasonable and show you what that means. What do you think you can do?”

Su Cha suddenly waved her hand. “Pa!” Not far from the hall, a huge vase fell to the ground.

Chapter 662: Unusual Method

The sudden sound made everyone look over. The huge porcelain vase fell to the ground and shattered.

The broken pieces of the vase fell to the ground. At this moment, a strange scene happened.

The broken pieces on the ground suddenly flew up.

Everyone’s eyes almost popped out.

The people who were looking at Su Cha aggressively just now were dumbfounded.

At that moment, the old enchantress suddenly realized that something was wrong. She turned her head to look at Su Cha, but she only saw Su Cha exerting force on her arm, and the fragments flew towards them with a thunderous force.

It was as if someone had thrown them.

“Hide!” the old enchantress screamed.

However, at this moment, the fragments had already flown towards these people. She suddenly leaned over. “Chi!” The sound of porcelain cutting flesh made people shudder.

Screams were heard continuously in the hall. Those who were standing upright suddenly fell down one by one. Their bodies were trembling, and blood kept flowing out from their ankles.

The pieces that cut their ankles quickly fell to the ground and broke into smaller pieces.

There were also a few pieces that shot towards the surrounding cameras and smashed the monitors.

In the blink of an eye, dozens of people were kneeling or lying on the ground.

Their hamstrings were temporarily cut. Of course, if they were rescued in time, they would be able to recover.

It was the easiest way to get rid of them in one go.

They did not want anyone's life. It was not because of Su Cha's conscience, but because this was the Dawn Club's territory. Killing people would bring trouble to the Star Alliance.

What she wanted was to kill Bo Muyi's assassin.

That person may not necessarily be a member of Dawn Club.

Su Cha looked at the only other person left standing in the venue. With a pale face, she looked at Su Cha as if she had seen a ghost. Su Cha chuckled. "Do you like my first gift to you? Do you need me to give you more?"

The old enchantress's limbs trembled. Under normal circumstances, she might not be afraid of Su Cha, but she had lived for decades and had never seen such a strange method.

It was like the kind seen on TV. Superpower?

However, she did not know that Su Cha had used her inner force to move those objects. Although she had expended too much, she could at least find the culprit and leave Dawn Club.

Besides, Ah Chen and the rest were waiting outside, but they did not know how Su Cha moved inside.

The old enchantress closed her eyes as she looked at Su Cha, who was standing there like a demon king, even though she did not look threatening.

“The fifth room on the third floor, room 99,” she said with a trembling voice.

The moment Su Cha turned around, she suddenly took out a gun from behind her.

Bang!

Gunshots rang out as bullets shot out.

The bullet was extremely fast. It only took a few seconds, but in the old enchantress’s eyes, it became extremely slow.

With her own eyes, she saw Su Cha turn around. The bullet seemed to have hit an invisible wall and suddenly fell to the ground.

A strong force hit the old enchantress, and her body hit the wall behind her uncontrollably, causing her to see stars.

Su Cha lowered her eyes and looked at the bullet on the ground. She said softly, “Smart.”

Her inner force was almost exhausted, and her body’s speed could not keep up with the exhaustion. If this woman came at her a few more times, Su Cha would only be able to rely on her fists and legs to fight. Naturally, she could not waste time here.

After dealing with her, Su Cha quickly went upstairs.

Chapter 663: Untitled

The old enchantress wanted to harm her, but under normal circumstances, what she had been forced to divulge earlier might not be fake.

Su Cha followed her instructions and went upstairs.

It was a clubhouse with high security and confidentiality, but Su Cha did not meet anyone when she took the elevator upstairs.

There were closed doors all around, but though their styles were different, they all had the charm of ancient times.

Occasionally, the sound of a lute could be heard, mixed with a girl's soft Jiangnan singing.

It was ironic in such a place.

It seemed that they liked the feeling of being elegant.

Of course, as she went upstairs, she had already destroyed all the cameras in the elevator.

Then, Su Cha saw a carved door. On the wall next to it was a gold sign with the number 99 written on it.

This was the place.

She pushed the door open.

There was a faint sandalwood fragrance in the air, very similar to that in the hall.

This room was relatively small, like a woman's bedroom. There were some modern leather sofas in the middle, and inside were layers of beaded curtains. When Su Cha opened the door, the beaded curtains collided with each other, producing a crisp sound.

Su Cha narrowed her eyes, indicating that she knew someone was hiding inside.

She also smelled the blood mixed with the sandalwood fragrance.

There were some bandages and a simple first-aid kit on the sofa. It was obvious what that meant.

Su Cha tilted her head and walked into the room. She seemed to be observing. Suddenly, a dagger flashed and attacked Su Cha. There was a clear sound of breaking. Su Cha tilted her head slightly and the dagger brushed past her cheek. The sharp blade cut off a few strands of her hair.

Su Cha looked up. A figure suddenly jumped out from behind the beaded curtain and raised his hand to attack Su Cha.

Su Cha dodged to the side quickly and jumped behind the person. He was also injured and could not react faster. Su Cha raised one leg and kicked his knee at lightning speed. The other party's legs went soft and he knelt down.

Su Cha picked up the sharp edge of the candlestick on the table and placed it beside the man's neck. She said coldly, "If you don't want to die, behave yourself."

He was taken down in just one round. The other party was very smart and did not resist. He just kept a straight face and did not say anything.

Su Cha could tell that he was a man, but after sniffing carefully, she did not smell the scent of blood and felt that something was wrong.

"Aren't you..."

Just as she finished speaking, a loud gunshot came from behind. "Bang!"

The moment the figure appeared, the wind was felt by Su Cha. She did not move at all, and the bullet almost instantly reached Su Cha's back.

However, such a small bullet stopped behind Su Cha's back in an instant. Only 0.01% more and it seemed it would have hit Su Cha's heart.

"You are not the real culprit!"

With a cold face, Su Cha raised her hand and knocked out the person in front of her.

She twisted her neck and turned her head casually. The bullet stopped in front of her without any reaction, as if it had been immobilized.

It was not until she saw the person who had attacked her with a gun that the bullet fell to the ground.

Ding! The crisp sound made the person holding the gun break out in a cold sweat.

Chapter 664: Taking Her Off

His face was very pale, and his features were very ordinary. He had the ordinary appearance of thousands of people, and there were no characteristics of his that would stick to others' memory.

It was just that the smell of blood on him was especially strong.

This smell of blood was not the ordinary kind, but one that had been tainted by killing intent. It was as if he had killed many people.

As long as he stood in the crowd, he would stand out from ordinary people.

Ordinary people would instinctively feel afraid when they met him.

However, no matter how scary some people were, they still could not simply regain their senses after seeing Su Cha's methods.

They had both grown up in modern society. Even though they were part of the martial arts world, they had never seen anything that went against scientific principles.

How did the bullet stop?

Although the killer's face was pale, his expression was much colder. He did not have much thought, but the cold sweat on his forehead revealed his emotions.

Only such a person had the ability to dodge the secret guards' pursuit and hurt Bo Muyi, who was under the protection of so many people.

Despite all that, Bo Muyi was shot.

Su Cha looked at him. The two of them were in a deadlock for a while. Suddenly, Su Cha smiled. "Are you one of the assassins who went after the Bo family head?"

He said nothing.

Su Cha knew that he would not say it, but that could not stop her from catching this person today.

If he did not speak now, he would naturally speak when she takes him back.

The moment Su Cha was about to approach him, he was probably still in disbelief and fired another shot at her.

However, the recoil from the gun made his face turn paler. He must be injured and could not bear the recoil.

Something unimaginable happened again. The bullet did not stop in front of Su Cha this time. When it approached, it seemed to have angered her. Hence, the bullet was even made to rebound by a powerful force.

The killer watched helplessly as the bullet ricocheted towards him. It was impossible to dodge at lightning speed. Just as he was about to close his eyes out of reflex, the bullet stopped between his eyebrows.

“If I killed you, how would I get the crucial information?”

Her calm and indifferent voice seemed to hide the silence of the abyss. As she spoke, her figure suddenly sped up and shot over like a thunderbolt, landing a punch on his stomach.

Bang!

The heavy punch reopened his wound. The killer groaned and curled up uncontrollably. Blood even seeped out of his mouth.

Thinking of Bo Mui, Su Cha felt the urge to kill these people. But right now, she could only allow them to keep their lives and bring this killer back for interrogation.

She knocked him unconscious and grabbed his collar. She lifted him up like a rag and dragged him out.

As for the man who had helped him block the attack, Su Cha did not even look at him.

When Su Cha carried the person downstairs, the old enchantress saw her walking down with a fierce look. The old enchantress's mouth twitched when she saw this scene, and there was obvious fear in her eyes.

Wasn't she such a monster?

How could a normal person have such strength?

She went up and down quickly. It took just a few minutes, and the people lying on the ground were not even dealt with yet. It seemed that the medical staff of the Dawn Club had rushed in, carrying stretchers.

When they saw Su Cha dragging someone down, her cold and heartless gaze made their legs tremble.

She openly carried the person away. The old enchantress did not dare to say a word from beginning to end.

Chapter 665: How Did Su Cha Do It?

The security guards at the entrance were stunned when they saw Su Cha dragging someone out.

There were many people coming and going here. There were also a few customers who were preparing to enter Dawn Club.

They were stunned when they saw Su Cha.

The security probably received the news and did not dare to stop her.

When Ah Chen and the rest saw Su Cha dragging someone out, their eyes widened.

They could not believe what had happened.

It was not without reason that the Killing Alliance could go against the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance for so long. They had a huge influence, and the Dawn Club was a foundation.

But even if Ah Chen had brought people in, they could not have guaranteed that they would come out 100%, let alone brought people out.

Su Cha went in alone and dragged this person out openly. Of course, the method used was definitely not negotiation, so how did she do it?

They felt as if they had seen a ghost, but when they saw Su Cha dragging someone, they moved quickly and drove over in an instant. Su Cha threw the person into the car and was about to get in when she turned around and saw the old enchantress walking out of the clubhouse.

Looking at her, her lips twitched slightly.

Perhaps the scene just now had left a shadow in her heart.

However, she still looked at Su Cha with anger.

No matter what, she had lost a lot of face today.

They'd been picked on by the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance and got someone taken away from their premises, and this was seen by a few guests. If this spread, Dawn Club's reputation would be greatly reduced in the future, and it would no longer be deemed safe.

Su Cha, who was about to leave, suddenly smiled slightly. Her eyes curved into crescents when she smiled, full of cuteness and innocence. Her lips opened slightly and she spat out a few words.

They were so far away that she might not have been able to hear them clearly. But the old enchantress clearly heard a few words in her ears that made her tremble. "If this has something to do with Dawn Club, I will not let you off."

Her voice was hollow like a puppet's, and there was also a hint of naive laughter. But after the laughter, a series of creepy sounds was left in the air.

The old enchantress shivered. It was not a cold day. She was wearing a cheongsam yet seemed to be shivering from the cold.

She watched as Su Cha got into the car and left. In the end, her body softened and she almost fell.

She stabilized her body and said with a trembling voice, "Quick, make a call. We have to get the Alliance Master back for this matter! A monster has appeared in the Star Alliance!"

Her voice was filled with fear, and her expression affected the rest of the club.

The Killing Alliance, which had been unreasonable all this while, finally understood what fear was.

Monster...

After Su Cha got into the car and left, she looked at the unconscious person behind her.

It was Ah Chen who was driving. She supported her head and said casually, "This person is one of the culprits. At present, I can't be sure. You and Bai Kun have to investigate whatever methods they used. If it's not this one who did it, I will continue to go to Dawn Club to ask for that person. They will find the culprit for me."

Her tone was casual and domineering. No one could rebut her.

Ah Chen paused and asked, "Miss Su, how did you do it?"

Even if she'd used the identity of the Bo family to threaten people, now that something had happened to the Bo family, Dawn Club would definitely not get involved in this matter. They would definitely try their best to deny it and not even let Su Cha go in to find the culprit.

So, how did Su Cha do it?

Chapter 666: Killing Alliance's Tree Hall

"How? Just beat them until they submitted."

With a lazy look, Su Cha squinted as if she was a little sleepy. "As long as one is not a desperate person, who would not care about their life? Dawn Club's people are definitely no exceptions."

Hence, when they faced Su Cha who had the ability to kill them at any time, they naturally cowered.

Ah Chen: "..."

Beat them until they submit.

Even if he'd brought other people with him, he would not dare to say such a thing. How many people could Su Cha subjugate by herself?

Not only was she a little strange, but how many secrets did Miss Su have that the young master did not know about?

Su Cha did not return to the Lookout Pavilion but to the hospital.

At this moment, Bo Muyi was still in the hospital. He had been shot, and the doctor wanted to check if he had been infected. He was to rest for two days.

When she returned, Bo Muyi was still unconscious. Su Cha heaved a sigh of relief.

Bai Kun, along with a secret guard who had woken up, saw Ah Chen. He glared. "Is it him?"

Su Cha nodded. "Don't you think so?"

As an assistant, Bai Kun basically followed Bo Muyi back to the Lookout Pavilion. When Bo Muyi was attacked, he was also there. However, he was a secretary and did not have much combat strength. The other party's target was not him, so Bai Kun was fine.

His memory was top-notch, though. After all, being an assistant to someone like Bo Muyi required him to have many specialties.

He looked at the killer and hesitated. "I don't dare to confirm."

The killer had already woken up. His complexion was very bad. He had been seriously injured by Su Cha, and he was already injured before that. If not for his strong physique, he would have died.

He was shaking his head and looked a little unconscious. Bai Kun suddenly grabbed his clothes.

Ah Chen's eyes twitched in surprise.

Bai Kun lifted the killer's clothes and saw the marks on the other party's waist. At this time, blood was seeping out. It was also a wound that had just been bandaged.

Bai Kun pulled it off without hesitation. The intense pain made the killer gasp. He did not scream because he had a strong will.

Bai Kun looked at the hideous wound and nodded directly. "It's him. One of the killers' wounds is here. That's right. It was made by 17's silver leaf dart."

He was being protected at that time and did not panic. Instead, he committed to memory some of the people who'd attacked, especially those who were injured. As long as he saw them, he remembered their location very clearly.

Ah Chen nodded and covered the bandage again perfunctorily. The assassin hissed in pain.

After this struggle, the blood on his waist could not be stopped and kept flowing.

"Don't kill him."

Su Cha said lightly, "Kill him after the interrogation."

Bai Kun: "...I know."

As he spoke, he looked at the killer. Suddenly, he thought of something and tore off the killer's left sleeve.

On his arm was a tattoo of a tree vine winding up. It was particularly eye-catching. Ah Chen and Bai Kun frowned at the same time. "Someone from the Tree Hall?"

"Tree Hall?"

Su Cha was puzzled. "What's the Tree Hall?"

"A branch of the Killing Alliance."

Bai Kun gestured for Ah Chen to take him away. He would stay here and explain to Su Cha about the Killing Alliance.

"You know how assassins are directed to bite their tongues and commit suicide if they were caught? Well, these ones are reluctant to die. Indeed, they can't afford to die. They are elite killers from the Tree Hall."

Chapter 667: Killing Alliance

Bai Kun gave Su Cha some information. "Tree Hall is one of the branches of the Killing Alliance. Even if this matter has something to do with the people of Dawn Club, Dawn Club is not the Killing Alliance's Tree Hall. They are just part of the Alliance, and their relationship with the rest is not good."

Bai Kun's expression was a little grave. "Tree Hall has always had very few elite assassins. It has always been a big threat to the Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance. In fact... most people suspect that the previous Alliance Master of the Star Alliance was killed by Tree Hall's assassins. Their movements are strange, they are cunning, and they are very skilled. None of the ones we killed before were from Tree Hall. I didn't expect that there would be someone who'd escaped."

Su Cha frowned. "So what?"

"The key is that the teachings of Tree Hall are like that of a cult."

Bai Kun pounded his fists. "Every killer in the entire group will seek revenge. This time, our young master has also gotten in trouble. It's unreasonable to kill people within the Alliances, but the hall master of Tree Hall is sinister and cunning. This matter will definitely not end. If this killer can't be found, he will definitely find trouble with us. We are not afraid, but the young master cannot be in danger at all times."

"Oh," Su Cha replied with a smile. "If the Hall Master of Tree Hall is looking for trouble, I will deal with him first. I will deal with that group of houseflies one by one."

It was impossible for her to deal with so many people at once. Recently, she had been practicing her inner force, but due to other matters, she was not as diligent as before. Bo Muye's injury made Su Cha realize the urgency of the matter. She even wondered if she should let Bo Muye practice it.

Although he did not have a channel to direct his inner force, the fact that he had absorbed so much of her inner force last time proved that his body was not ordinary.

However, Su Cha did not know if it was feasible.

Thinking of this, Su Cha prepared to tell Bo Muye when he woke up.

Bai Kun looked at Su Cha and stared blankly. "There are as many people who want to kill him as there are people who want to kill the young master. But no one has found his hiding place all these years. He basically stays overseas most of the time and rarely comes back."

It was indeed safer overseas than in China. After all, the world was too big. If he wanted to hide, it was indeed not easy to arrest him.

"If he's in a hurry, he will come to me."

Su Cha sneered. "Those killers will die no matter how many they send."

If they came one by one, it would be perfect. It would seem like they were simply here to deliver food.

Bai Kun felt that his worldview had been challenged. “Miss Su, how did you catch this person today? Did you ask for him directly from Dawn Club’s people? Why would they agree?”

“They are kind-hearted. When they heard it was such an urgent matter, they immediately agreed to hand him to me. Really, where did this person come from?”

After saying this, Su Cha turned around and entered the ward.

Bai Kun: “...”

Was he hallucinating just now? Miss Su actually said that the people from the Killing Alliance were kind-hearted...

After entering the ward, Su Cha saw that Bo Muyi was still sleeping soundly. Seeing that the time was fine, she wanted to rest after being busy just now and took a shower in the ward.

An independent VIP ward had everything.

After showering, she went to bed and lay in Bo Muyi’s arms. Bo Muyi seemed to have felt it and subconsciously hugged her tightly. His handsome and flawless face leaned over her head as she fell asleep.

Chapter 668: I Suspect That the Person Who Hired the Murderer Is You

Su Cha felt someone touching her face when she was almost asleep.

It was as if she was being caressed with someone’s fingers. The slight itch quickly woke Su Cha up.

She opened her eyes and saw a pair of dark eyes looking at her.

His deep, starry eyes were filled with gentle emotions. Seeing that Su Cha had woken up, he curled his lips gently and smiled lovingly. “Good morning, Cha Cha.”

Her smile was so beautiful that it could make people give up everything.

Hence, Su Cha could never imagine that something might happen to Bo Mui.

How could such a beautiful smile disappear? Everyone who ruined him was sinful.

Su Cha also smiled and fell lazily into Bo Mui's arms. She remembered that his arm was injured and asked lazily, "How's your arm? Is it okay?"

"It's okay."

Bo Mui shook his other arm. "Nothing serious. What did you do yesterday?"

He squinted as if he was asking. Actually, he already knew what had happened yesterday.

Su Cha blinked and looked at him obediently. "I didn't do anything. I just went to help you vent your anger."

Bo Mui chuckled. "Shall we look at the group chat?"

Su Cha paused and stood up. "I'll wash my face and brush my teeth first."

She had broken into the scene of the Dawn Club yesterday, so something must have leaked.

At the very least, there should be discussions in the group.

Thinking of Tan Yeluo and the others, Su Cha felt that they would not say anything good.

When she came out after brushing her teeth and washing her face, Bo Mui was already up.

He could not leave the hospital for the time being, but he had many things to do.

While he was washing up in the bathroom, Su Cha sat on the bed and looked at WeChat.

As soon as she entered the group, she saw many private messages. Most of them were from the martial arts world, asking her how she was doing. Some even praised her directly.

After Su Cha replied that she was fine, she saw the latest news in the group.

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Little Alliance Master Su is really awesome. What is this? Were you angry because of a beauty?”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Do you mean that Bo Muyi is that beauty? @Bo”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Trash!”

Martial Alliance Elder, Weng Zhinan: “The Little Alliance Master dared to enter the territory of the Killing Alliance alone and brought someone out. I heard that the person is an assassin from Tree Hall? Tree Hall will definitely not let this go, but I really admire the Little Alliance Master!”

Martial Alliance Elder, Hong Hangyi: “I don’t know how the Little Alliance Master did it. I heard that Dawn Club is heavily guarded. Yesterday, when the Little Alliance Master went, many people in the club were injured. The Little Alliance Master’s martial strength is terrifying!”

Martial Alliance Master, Mo Weiyuan: “It seems that the Little Alliance Master is really pressuring me to...”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Alliance Master, don’t be discouraged. After all, you are more than ten years older than her. You are old and can’t keep up with her energy. Now, it is the world of young people.”

Martial Alliance Master, Mo Weiyuan: “I... I... I... I’m only 30 Tears”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Stop fooling around. There has to be a solution to this matter. The people who attempted to assassinate Bo Muyi are from Tree Hall. Can this matter still be treated like a game?”

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “The assassins of Tree Hall are all rich. We can’t be sure that these ones are from Tree Hall. At the very least, we have to make the people of Tree Hall tell us who’d hired the culprit!”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Are you saying that it’s not Tree Hall’s doing? We acknowledge Tree Hall. Elder Wan, if you are being like this, I’d suspect that you were the one who’d hired someone to kill.”

Chapter 669: That Would Be on the Killing Alliance

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “You!”

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “Don’t slander people. How can you say such things?”

If it was not happening on WeChat, Su Cha could imagine Wan Youtian vomiting blood.

Star Alliance Elder, Buzhou: “Amitabha, the problem now is how to deal with Tree Hall. Tree Hall is not so easy to deal with. This matter might implicate Alliance Master Su.”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “It was your Little Alliance Master who rushed into their nest to be arrogant. I heard that this matter was blown up. I don’t know what your Alliance Master did, but the old enchantress was so scared that she asked their Alliance Master to come back.”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Are you serious? They called the Killing Alliance Master?”

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “Is this true?”

Martial Alliance Elder, Hong Hangyi: “Incredible. The Hall Master of Tree Hall did not come out, but they directly invited this great Buddha back. What did the little Alliance Master do?!”

Cha Yi: “Who is the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance?”

Su Cha found it strange that they were talking about the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance. Since the Killing Alliance was an alliance, it was not strange that it had an Alliance Master.

But Su Cha had never heard of that person.

However, she did not even know about Tree Hall, so it was normal that she had not heard of the Killing Alliance Master.

However, this group of people looked a little afraid.

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “I don’t know.”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “I don’t know him.”

Martial Alliance Elder, Hong Hangyi: “=”

Star Alliance Elder, Buzhou: “...”

Star Alliance Elder, Wan Youtian: “...”

Martial Alliance Elder, Weng Zhinan: “This Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance is similar to you, Alliance Master Su. However, it is said that he is the successor chosen by the previous Killing Alliance. We don’t know who he is, and we have never seen him before. The Cloud Ancestor received news that Dawn Club has invited this Alliance Master back to uphold justice.”

Cha Yi: “Oh... they’re making trouble for me.”

For some reason, everyone felt a chill in their hearts when they heard her words.

They felt that the Alliance Master’s words were very subtle.

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “Alliance Master, tell us how you went to Dawn Club to capture that assassin!”

Cha Yi: “What’s there to talk about? It’s all because the lady from the Dawn Club is beautiful and kind. She directly told me which room the killer is in. I went in and negotiated with someone, and he followed me.”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: "..."

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: "Why did I hear that you were the one who beat him up and dragged him out?"

Cha Yi: "You're mistaken. No one saw that happening. He came willingly."

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: "..."

Suddenly, a light laugh was heard. Su Cha looked at the source of the sound. Bo Muyi was standing at the door of the bathroom. At this moment, he had already changed into a formal suit. There were no signs of his weak injuries from yesterday at all, if not for the fact that his right arm was hanging from the wound.

He stood there and smiled at Su Cha. Su Cha asked him, "What are you laughing at?"

Bo Muyi walked over and touched Su Cha's head with his other hand. "I was happy to see you. It was great. I thought I would never see you again."

Su Cha's eyes turned sour. "How could that be? You can see me if you want to. It's fine."

Bo Muyi sighed and sat down. "I know you. Bai Kun has already said what you want to do. That person from Tree Hall would rather die than tell me who wanted to kill me. Then, I will put this matter on the Killing Alliance. Don't worry, they lost the gamble this time. It's not so easy to deal with the Killing Alliance."

Chapter 670: On the Contrary, My Legs Are a Little Numb

There was a hint of murderous intent in his voice.

Whether it was because of Su Cha or not, the people from the Killing Alliance had dared to attack him. This was already a sign of war.

The Bo family was a neutral family. Perhaps they had not been involved in these matters for a long time, but they were not easily bullied. They even dared to lay their hands on him, the only person in charge.

In particular, they had used Su Cha as a catalyst at the beginning. This meant that they were aiming at Su Cha.

No matter what, Bo Muyi would not allow anyone to hinder his and Su Cha's happy life.

The moment the Killing Alliance attacked, they were destined to end.

He did not say much to Su Cha because he did not want her to worry too much about him.

"I believe you."

Su Cha also smiled at him. The way her eyes curved into crescents was very lovable. She looked obedient.

When Ah Chen looked at her, it was as if the murderous look on her face when she came out with the killer last night was an illusion.

Women... were indeed scary creatures.

Ah Chen lowered his head, thinking that he was too inexperienced.

Su Cha looked outside the door. Seeing that there were no outsiders, she suddenly waved Bo Muyi to lower his head. Bo Muyi bent down and lowered his head. He was very obedient. Su Cha whispered into his ear, "I want to teach you how to cultivate inner force."

Bo Muyi looked up and narrowed his eyes. "Cha Cha, are you serious?"

Su Cha nodded. "I'm always worried about you. If you learn from me, no one will be able to touch you."

Bo Muyi tilted his head and thought for a while, then nodded. "I can learn, but Cha Cha, you have to tell me, how did you learn these things?"

“Hmm?” He lowered his head and lifted Su Cha’s chin gently with his fingers. He looked down at her. “Cha Cha, these are not things that we have in this era.”

Su Cha blinked her eyes. “Muyi, I had a fortuitous encounter. It was all taught to me by my master. However, my master has not come out of seclusion and did not allow me to say his name. Naturally, I could not say it.”

Bo Muyi chuckled. “You can lie to others, but you can’t lie to me. However, I don’t blame you if you don’t want to tell me now.”

He moved closer to Su Cha’s lips and bit them. It was not forceful, but it was slightly painful. It was as if blood would seep out if it was any more forceful. His eyes darkened. “Anyway, you are already mine.”

As long as she had him in her heart, it was fine if she refused to say it.

Seeing that she seemed to be thinking about something, Su Cha was afraid that he would do something inappropriate early in the morning. She quickly pushed him and urged, “Okay, okay. Let’s try it now. It will take a long time.”

It was not easy to clear the meridians first.

She told Bo Muyi her mantra and what to do.

However, this kind of meditation method might have made the man a little disgusted. At first, Bo Muyi was a little reluctant. When he sat there and started to do as Su Cha said, Bai Kun suddenly came in. When he saw Bo Muyi like this, he almost thought that the young master was possessed.

But he was chased out by Su Cha.

Bai Kun had a strange look in his eyes when he left. Why was Young Master and Miss Su playing so strangely now?

Young Master was really wild!

After about half an hour, Bo Muyi opened his eyes and looked at Su Cha with anticipation. He frowned slightly. “No, I don’t feel anything. My legs are numb.”

Su Cha: “...”
