

The Queen 721

Chapter 721: Gu Technique

Qi He was speechless. After a while, he said, "I'm sorry."

The centipede was still flaunting its might under his chin. Its head was at his throat. It seemed that with just a light bite, this 1.8-meter-tall man would immediately fall to the ground.

"Look, you can't even defend against my centipede. How can you defend against her? Don't test her. I said that she's very dangerous. I can't deal with her."

Greya sounded irritated. "Uncle, you are always disobedient!"

Qi He could only nod and frown slightly. "You can't see through her?"

Greya shook her head as if she did not want to be entangled in this matter. Then, she said angrily, "We have to find that fool from Tree Hall as soon as possible. He has given us a troublesome matter. If he doesn't appear this time, I will have him fed to my worms next time."

The girl's delicate voice made people's hearts turn cold. She turned to leave directly. Seeing this, Qi He immediately followed.

The centipede quietly climbed down from his body and disappeared after a while.

***

"What is this?"

When she arrived at the underground parking lot, Fu Mo saw Su Cha suddenly throwing a silver needle at the ground when she got into the car. In the end, she saw a strange worm.

It looked like a centipede, but it did not seem like it. After being nailed by silver needles, it kept twisting its body. Even so, it made one's scalp tingle. After a while, it stopped moving. What was unbelievable was that after the worm died, its body gradually melted and turned into a pool of blood.

Fu Mo was shocked and angry when she saw it.

When Su Cha saw the bug, she suddenly became excited. “Is this... a Gu[1] worm?”

“Gu?”

Fu Mo frowned. “Isn’t that something from the Miaojiang region? Why is there such a thing here and now?”

“Even the martial arts world can exist. What’s so strange about the existence of Miaojiang?”

Su Cha glanced at it and got into the car. She rested her elbows on the car window and pondered.

She recognized the worm at first glance. It was a Gu worm.

Ordinary bugs would not be like this, and it had followed them all the way to the underground parking lot.

She never thought that Greya would be good at creating Gu worms.

In ancient times, the Gu poison was especially prevalent in the Miaojiang region. Even if the person who was good at using the Gu worm did not know any martial arts, they were still feared by martial artists. Their Gu worm could kill people without leaving a trace, and it was impossible to guard against it.

Someone who practiced such an art was not an existence that the martial arts world wanted to provoke easily. However, since this was the modern world, Greya’s Gu poison might not be very strong.

But this at least explained why Su Cha could not feel her inner force.

Moreover, the Gu she'd raised did not seem to work properly.

However, people who raised Gu usually used their heart-blood to refine it. This method was too inhumane, so the person who raised the Gu would have all kinds of problems, and they would usually die before their time.

Was her condition because she had been injected with too many drugs, or was it because of the after-effects of the venom?

Fu Mo suddenly came over and said, "Classmate Su, could it be that Greya used such a Gu worm on herself?"

Su Cha nodded. "Probably."

She opened her mouth in surprise. After a long while, she suddenly fell silent. "No wonder she could become the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance."

The Gu worms she raised could kill people without a trace. Perhaps those who fought with her did not even understand how they died.

Just like now, she did not see Greya's movements clearly, nor did she understand why the worm would listen to her orders.

[1] From Wikipedia: a venom-based poison associated with cultures of south China. The traditional preparation of gu poison involved sealing several venomous creatures (e.g., centipede, snake, scorpion) inside a closed container, where they devoured one another and allegedly concentrated their toxins into a single survivor, whose body would be fed upon by larvae until consumed. The last surviving larva held the complex poison. According to Chinese folklore, a gu spirit could transform into various animals, typically a worm, caterpillar, snake, frog, dog, or pig.

Chapter 722: Just Her

Su Cha returned home first and asked the driver to send Fu Mo back.

After a while, Bo Muyi returned.

Su Cha told Bo Mui what had happened today. Bo Mui was obviously surprised. "Raising Gu?"

He listened to Su Cha carefully and thought for a while. "I've heard of the Miaojiang Gu technique before, but according to the current tone of the martial arts world, orthodox martial arts have mostly declined. It's even harder for these side arts to survive, so it's very important to know where Greya learned the Gu technique."

Su Cha said, "Didn't her information say that she grew up in America? Where did the Miaojiang Gu technique come from?"

The Miaojiang Gu technique was nowhere to be found in the country. Why would it be overseas?

Bo Mui pinched Su Cha's cheek. "It doesn't mean that she has always been in the United States. There are many problems with her information. At least now, all of that is just what's on the surface. I will ask Bai Kun to investigate it carefully. According to you, she doesn't want to admit it. She probably doesn't want to have a conflict with you for the time being."

"She doesn't dare to confirm my strength."

Su Cha thought about the Gu worm in the underground parking lot. "She was the one who released it to test me. She did not want to have a conflict with me without knowing my strength."

Bo Mui nodded. "If Tree Hall is not under her control, I believe it. There should be many factions in the Killing Alliance, and they do not deal with each other. It's understandable if the Alliance Master and the Vice Alliance Master have different jurisdictions. However, I've recently found some information. The hall master of Tree Hall, Ah Chen has found his whereabouts and has sent people there."

Su Cha's eyes lit up. "You guys found him?"

Then her expression turned fierce. "Arrest him and interrogate him!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Bo Mui suddenly touched her cheek with his fingertips and pinched it. Su Cha pouted and slapped Bo Mui's palm. "What are you doing?"

He smiled and looked at Su Cha. "You looked fierce just now, like a cat with bright claws."

Su Cha reached out and pinched Bo Mui's face. "I'm like this for you!"

"Yes."

He grabbed her palm happily and rubbed it gently. He suddenly thought of something and said, "Anyway, I did what you asked me to do."

He frowned and thought about it. "But I can't. I don't feel anything."

"No?"

Su Cha was in disbelief. "How can that be?"

Bo Mui had a special physique. If such a seedling was placed in ancient times, he would be a top-notch genius. Why did he say that he did not sense anything?

"Don't be angry. In order to verify what you said, I looked for Ah Chen and the rest. They are all my trusted secret guards. I let them try doing it according to your method."

He shook his head. "They can't either."

Su Cha fell silent.

None of them felt anything?

She found it strange. Had she thought wrong from the beginning?

At that time, she just wanted Bo Mui to cultivate well so that he could have top-notch martial arts to protect him. But now, Su Cha vaguely understood something.

Why did the martial arts world gradually decline? She had never met anyone else with inner force.

It was not that they could not do it, but...

The times did not allow it.

In modern society, basic laws were also needed. In the past, Su Cha had never thought about martial arts. If not for her rebirth...

Rebirth?

Chapter 723: Special Invitation

A light flashed in her mind.

Was it because she was reborn?

She had lived in a martial arts era in her past life.

Reincarnation was fundamentally out of the realm of science, so it was not surprising that she had achieved something when she tried. But others, who had always been in this era, could not.

“What’s wrong?”

Seeing Su Cha in a daze, Bo Muye asked softly, “It’s okay if I can’t do it. I don’t care.”

Even if he could cultivate, given how busy he was, he might not have much time.

Moreover, at least to a certain extent, he could avoid other troubles.

None of them could do it. Only Su Cha could, which proved that his Cha Cha was unique.

The unique Su Cha took advantage of the fact that she was reborn. She looked at Bo Muye innocently. “It seems that I was wrong. I thought you could do it.”

Bo Muye rubbed Su Cha’s cheek. “Maybe your master saw your talent.”

Su Cha: "..."

It was rare for Bo Mui to say such a casual thing.

She changed the topic. "How about this? We are currently going to investigate the matter about Greya and the Vice Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance. Tree Hall is under his control. He must know about someone being sent to kill you. I'm still worried about not uncovering who this person is."

Bo Mui: "Okay. Wait until Ah Chen and the others have sent back the results."

Ah Chen and the rest had already gone overseas. They would probably send back some news soon.

***

The next day, Su Cha received a message from Tan Jinsui. He asked her to prepare for a recording and for a photoshoot for the fruit candy endorsement.

When Su Cha heard about the recording, she said slowly, "Recording songs...?"

Tan Jinsui: "Why? Have you forgotten that you debuted as a singer?"

Although the matter regarding the contest had caused unhappiness, at the end of the day, singing was Su Cha's main selling point.

She had just debuted, yet she had not even produced a new song.

Su Cha had no objections. She raised her eyebrows and asked, "Have you made arrangements?"

"Yes, it has been arranged. There are songwriters along with the recording studio and the producers. The entire process has been arranged. As long as you turn up, recording a song will be easy. Then, you can choose a time to release the song."

Tan Jinsui completely displayed his speed as a manager. Before Su Cha could even regain her senses, he said that everything had been arranged, and Su Cha just had to make an appearance.

Su Cha could not help but think that finding such a manager really saved her a lot of trouble. Usually, a manager would run away when song recording was involved.

However, Tan Jinsui had a lot of clout. After he contacted the other parties, they agreed to his request immediately. In fact, there were also a few old employers who had worked with Zou Manni before. Although they had changed people this time, they still gave Tan Jinsui face.

Su Cha exhaled slowly. “Okay, I’ll go to the company after class.”

“Yes. Also, in order to express their apologies, Zhang Sen Media has given you a spot in the coming fashion week. For this year’s New York show, a big shot invited you. They recommended you. The brand is Chanel. Do you want to go?”

Su Cha was surprised to hear this news right before hanging up. “Chanel gave me a special invitation?”

Tan Jinsui nodded and smiled slightly. “That’s why I said I’m sorry. I’m very sorry, but I also have some bad thoughts.”

Chapter 724: We Will Always Support You!

This show was different from Fashion Week, but the difference was not huge.

They were all jointly held by various luxury brands.

Every year, the entertainment industry would always fight to the death to invite the big brands on the red carpet, especially for endorsements. Even an A-list celebrity would fight to the death.

Su Cha knew about the latest New York fashion show, but she was not interested. With her current status, it was not suitable for her to go.

She did not have any orthodox works. Her works in the entertainment industry and in the singing industry were temporarily at zero. At most, she could be known as a talent show singer. Her endorsement was just for a fruit candy.

Tan Jinsui said that it was a big apology but with malicious intent.

Chanel was a world-renowned luxury brand. Its status and influence didn't need to be stated.

The special guests invited by them on the show were usually from the top of society. Zhang Sen Media had spent a lot of effort to get a recommendation spot. If an artist under them could go to the show under the guise of a special invite, it would be a great honor as they'd be able to watch the show.

However, because of Su Cha, they were forced to use this spot as a bargaining chip to express their apologies.

However, they felt that Su Cha would not dare to take it.

This was a top-notch resource for the artists of Zhang Sen Media. This was because one could not be sure if they would meet any big shots or superstars in the field of fashion. There were countless connections and resources to be had in that field.

They were forced to give it to Su Cha, so it was none of their business if Su Cha did not dare to accept it.

If Su Cha accepted it, the netizens would probably mock her when they found out. There was nothing to represent her. Could it be any more obvious how a talent show singer who could not even be considered a celebrity could become a special guest of a brand?

Under most circumstances, anyone would feel embarrassed.

Thinking of this, Su Cha hummed. "A hot potato."

"Yes," Tan Jinsui agreed. "It's a pity to have to throw it away."

Since Zhang Sen Media had given up the spot to Su Cha, it was impossible for them to send someone else, so it depended on whether Su Cha dared to accept it or not.

While Su Cha was still thinking about it, Tan Jinsui suddenly said, "I've accepted it for you. On December 13th is when the first show will be held. Manni will also be there. I can introduce the two of you."

Su Cha: "You just said that it was a hot potato, but in the blink of an eye, you said that you accepted it?"

Tan Jinsui could not help but laugh. "Although it's a hot potato, I believe that you can handle it. The netizens don't believe in you, but I do. Show them your strength."

Su Cha thought about it carefully. "Tell me, how strong can I be on the show? I can't even tell which outfit is better."

"No, you are different from others. As long as you appear on the show, I believe you will give people a surprise."

Tan Jinsui hung up without giving Su Cha a chance to rebut.

Su Cha was silent for a while before sending a message to Zong Yanxiu: "Father, I think Uncle Tan is blindly confident in me."

Zong Yanxiu replied quickly, "That's because you will always be the best, the best! I will always support you! He is my good brother, so of course he will also support you. All the best!"

The second message followed: "Oh, right, what's the matter?"

Su Cha: "..."

She suddenly fell into deep worry.

This worry was not for the show, but for her father and her uncle, who trusted her so blindly. Was that a good thing or a bad thing?

Chapter 725: Something Happened

Zhang Sen Media's Che Hong was so anxious that his hair was turning white.

He was middle-aged and high-spirited. His black hair had never shown white before. Unexpectedly, he felt that he was rapidly aging.

When did things start to go wrong?

It seemed like Qin Bei had had a dispute with a talent show artist who had not debuted yet.

He doted on Qin Bei, so he did everything she asked. Qin Bei did not give the other party any face, and nor did Zhang Sen Media. At that time, he'd wanted to force the other party to submit. After seeing a photo of this talent show artist, he had to say that the other party's coldness was very seductive. At that time, he was still in a trance. If this girl yielded, he might have been able to take her in the future.

What happened next scared him out of his wits.

In just a few days, Che Hong, who could call the wind and summon the rain in the entertainment industry, experienced what it meant to be absolutely crushed by a powerful tycoon.

All his artists' collaboration resources had been withdrawn, and it had also begun to affect their cooperation with other brands. The suppression from such a huge figure made him feel disbelief and despair.

He could not understand how things had become like this.

"Hey, Miss Qin, you can't go in for the time being—you can't go in—!"

The secretary's anxious voice was heard. With a bang, the door opened and Qin Bei walked in angrily. "Didn't we agree to recommend me to the Chanel spot for this year's New York show? How did it become someone else's? And it's Su Cha. Director Che, are you crazy or am I the one who's crazy?"

Che Hong raised his head from his anxious state and looked at Qin Bei with red eyes. Seeing that this unreasonable woman did not know the severity of the matter, he hated himself for being blind back then. How could he have fallen for such a big-breasted and brainless woman?

Oh, he was wrong. He had fallen for Qin Bei's brainless chest.

And now it was time for retribution.

The secretary looked at the chairman in fear. The moment he stood up and walked towards Qin Bei, he quietly retreated and closed the door.

Slap!

After walking a few steps towards Qin Bei, Che Hong slapped her hard on the face.

Qin Bei had always been controlling her diet and her body was very thin. This slap made her stagger and her body fell uncontrollably onto the tiled office floor.

Not only did her face hurt, but her entire body also hurt.

She was dumbfounded.

"It's all because of you, it's all because of you!"

The man's face turned red in anger. He panted heavily, and his veins popped out. He looked especially scary.

"At a time like this, you are still whining about the matter of a spot with me. How many times have I told you not to provoke that Su Cha? How dare you question my decision?!"

A slap was not enough to vent their anger. Recently, due to this matter, the stock price of Zhang Sen Media had fallen. They had also offended the television station behind Dreams in Progress. Because of this matter, they had changed the results of the competition on account of Zhang Sen Media's face and coercion. Now that the matter had been announced, the decades-old reputation of their entire production crew had been destroyed. The television station was like an ant in a hot pot, not to mention that the international tycoon, Imperial Mu Group, was involved in this matter.

Right now, it was still a question of whether Che Hong could keep his position as Chairman. Of course, he had to think of ways to save himself. Yet Qin Bei was still acting out. She simply did not know what was good for her!

Chapter 726: Beaten Up

This slap made Qin Bei furious, but her tears came out immediately.

She covered her face and looked at Che Hong with hatred. In the end, she realized that this man was in a very scary state. Fear slowly rose in her heart.

Che Hong suddenly walked to the other side and took out a golf club from a golf bucket.

Qin Bei had an ominous feeling. She subconsciously crawled back and apologized while trembling, “I’m... I’m sorry, Director Che. I was wrong... I won’t ask anymore, I won’t ask anymore!”

She got up and wanted to leave, but Che Hong suddenly hit her with the club. “Stop asking! Stop asking! I’m already in this state, and you still don’t want to stop. You want to force me to death! Force me to death!”

The fear of losing his position as Chairman enveloped him. Now, the panic that Che Hong had fallen into had turned into incomparable rage. He vented this anger on Qin Bei, who had come knocking on his door.

***

“Classmate Su, something big has happened at Zhang Sen Media.”

Su Cha was still in class when Fu Mo sent her a message.

She immediately thought that the Imperial Mu Group had done something again, but Fu Mo sent her a news link. She clicked on it and stopped.

[The famous female star, Qin Bei, was beaten up and sent to the hospital for emergency treatment. The mastermind behind this is the Chairman of Zhang Sen Media, Che Hong?]

[The Chairman of Zhang Sen Media has been arrested. Suspected to be involved in a violent crime.]

#Qin Bei Emergency#

#Zhang Sen Media Chairman Che Hong#

#Zhang Sen Media#

#Qin Bei was beaten up badly#

These several consecutive hot topics on Weibo could be considered an unprecedented event in the entertainment industry this year.

It was noon.

The police car drove directly to the building of Zhang Sen Media. At the same time, there were also 120 cars.

When Qin Bei was carried out in the stretcher, the paparazzi saw it and the matter was exposed.

Then, they saw the police escorting Che Hong into the police car. They were terrified and dispirited.

There were countless pictures of the scene. Even if Zhang Sen Media immediately did public relations and deleted the thread, when they suddenly saw such a thing, there were countless companies who wanted to cause trouble for them. No matter how much they suppressed it, there would always be continuous news being exposed.

Not only were the netizens shocked, but Su Cha was also shocked.

She replied to Fu Mo, “Why did someone almost die?”

The higher-ups said that they wanted to hide this matter. In the end, it was said that Qin Bei had been beaten up until she was only left with half a breath in Che Hong’s office. She was covered in blood. The company only wanted to call the ambulance, but a newbie in the company called the police. It was said that she was afraid that someone would die. In the end, she was seen by the paparazzi and it caused a big scene.

This matter would instead send Che Hong to the guillotine. No matter what, he would not be able to hold the position of Chairman of Zhang Sen Media and would be sent to jail.

Fu Mo quickly replied to Su Cha’s message: “I’ve checked their company’s internal records. There are surveillance videos that haven’t been deleted. There are only the following scenes. You can take a look.”

Fu Mo: [Video]

This was the good thing about having an omnipotent assistant. Even very secret information was instantly known.

Su Cha watched the video and realized that Qin Bei and Che Hong had quarreled. Che Hong was not in a good state at that time, but Qin Bei had poked a hornet’s nest.

There was only the first half of the video. Che Hong had hit Qin Bei a few times before he remembered to turn off the surveillance camera in the office.

Of course, no one knew why he had set up surveillance cameras in his office. In the end, he was caught by Fu Mo.

There was no audio though, only a video.

Su Cha watched it carefully several times before catching Qin Bei at a good angle. There were two words on her lips: Su Cha.

Their discussion was related to Su Cha.

Chapter 727: No Pity

Judging from Qin Bei's expression, she had said the name angrily.

Everything that had happened recently was indeed related to her. Zhang Sen Media was in a mess, and it was not hard to guess that Che Hong's mentality had already collapsed. However, she thought that Qin Bei should have calmed down after this matter. Why did she get into a conflict with Che Hong because of her?

She confirmed it several times and finally got the key information.

Chanel.

She quickly replied to Fu Mo.

Cha Yi: "Go and check if the recommendation spot from the Chanel brand that Zhang Sen Media received for the New York show has anything to do with Qin Bei."

Fu Mo: "Okay, wait."

When Fu Mo went to investigate. Su Cha also checked online, but there was no related news.

However, there was a strange point. Before the matter between Qin Bei and Che Hong came to light, Qin Bei had the highest chance of getting a special invite from Chanel.

Fu Mo: "I've found out. Chanel has given a special recommendation spot to Zhang Sen Media. The previous recommended artist was Qin Bei."

Su Cha suddenly curled her lips.

Fu Mo: "Why does she think so much? She had a scandal video with Che Hong. Is Chanel crazy to agree to let her go?"

There was indeed a scandal video.

The impact was huge.

However, netizens were already forgetful. Besides, Qin Bei was still struggling against her fate. She insisted that the person was not her but a look-alike.

The netizens were not stupid, but some of them were.

There were actually some people who believed this explanation and thought that Qin Bei was innocent.

Just like this, if Qin Bei's skin was any thicker, she could barely survive in the entertainment industry. At most, she would be mocked once, but at least she would still be popular, right?

However, it was true that Chanel would not invite Qin Bei again. Even if they did not give it to Su Cha, it would not be her turn to come.

Su Cha did not know what Qin Bei was thinking. She actually went to argue with Che Hong.

To be honest, she did not sympathize with Qin Bei's accident. However, if she were to add insult to injury now, she would just treat it as a joke.

This matter had blown up. If Che Hong was going to prison, he would definitely not be able to keep his position as the chairman. Then, Zhang Sen Media would have to be purged. No one knew who would take advantage of this.

The share price of Zhang Sen Media had been falling continuously due to the recent attacks. However, a starving camel was still bigger than a horse. No matter what, it was still a leading company. It was not difficult for it to make a comeback after switching up its resources.

It would depend on who would take over Zhang Sen Media this time.

Su Cha soon found out.

The Alliance chat group was also discussing this matter. A group of martial artists was discussing the entertainment industry. They were gossiping, especially the Alliance Master of the Martial Alliance, which made Su Cha learn something.

Martial Alliance Master, Mo Weiyuan: “What a pity. I’ve seen the television drama that Qin Bei has acted in. The young lady’s parents were quite beautiful. I’ve never paid attention to the entertainment industry’s news, but why did I see it on the legal news? Was she beaten up badly? How infuriating!”

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: “Alliance Master, it’s not your fault that you don’t pay attention to the entertainment industry’s news. But before you sympathize with her, you’d better search up her name along with Alliance Master Su’s on Baidu. I guarantee it will surprise you!”

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: “From this, it can be seen that your Martial Alliance and our Star Alliance are not on the same side. You sympathize with the person who is going against our Alliance Master? EXM?”

Martial Alliance Elder, Hong Hangyi: “Sigh, we are family. Of course, we are united against outsiders. This woman is not worthy of sympathy!”

Martial Alliance Master, Mo Weiyuan: “How infuriating! She’s not worthy of sympathy!”

Chapter 728: If Qin Bei Is Dirty, How Clean Is She?

It had only been a few seconds—how could he have had the time to check the information?

It was obvious that he changed his stance after seeing the others’ words.

Su Cha curled her lips and watched without saying anything.

She was still in class, and the students around her were distracted. Everyone was paying attention to the entertainment industry, and they could not help but show sympathy when they saw the news.

“No matter what, she was beaten up too badly.”

“What kind of hatred is this? The scandal video... Che Hong was also in the wrong. How could he hit someone?”

“Who doesn’t know about Che Hong? Qin Bei was probably forced... I think this has something to do with someone...”

“Yes. If she hadn’t caused trouble in the beginning, this matter wouldn’t have blown up. She’s so domineering. Who in the entertainment industry will take her on in the future?”

“Hey, hey, hey, this is a separate matter. What does this have to do with her? We are classmates, after all. You can’t be so unreasonable, right?”

...

There were faint conversations around her. They were very soft, but Su Cha could hear them.

Normal people would definitely not be able to hear such disparaging discussions, but her hearing was too good.

She knew that in private, this group of people had never liked her. They were all from the acting department, but Su Cha was already on the right track in the entertainment industry. Her popularity was not low, and all she lacked was a project to consolidate and stabilize her popularity.

Now that she was the second female lead in a big production, with such a big commotion online, the students naturally knew about the gossip news.

However, she did not expect that in some people’s hearts, the fact that she was being blacklisted and the reason for her dispute with Qin Bei could become that she was the one who’d caused trouble?

These people were really independent.

When people were discussing, they would subconsciously look at the main character at the center of the topic. A few pretty female students were gathered together. The teacher on stage was just an unimportant assistant teacher. She turned a blind eye to everyone's actions. These people discussed while looking at Su Cha.

"If Qin Bei is dirty, how clean can she be? Is she in the clear about the Imperial Mu Group?"

When a female student said this, Su Cha looked over.

Her eyes were fixed, and her usually calm eyes were cold and murderous. Everyone saw Su Cha's sudden movement. When she looked at the female classmate, almost everyone felt the temperature in the classroom drop.

Not only was it cold, but it also made people feel fear from the bottom of their hearts.

Caught off guard by her gaze, the female classmate who spoke earlier was shocked. Her heart tightened as she grabbed her textbook and looked at Su Cha with a pale face.

She spoke so softly. Could it be that she had been heard?

Otherwise, out of so many people, why would she look at her alone?

Su Cha, who had become the center of attention, did not say anything. She just looked at the female student for a few seconds. An invisible pressure spread from all directions, and the entire classroom fell silent. It was so quiet that even a pin-drop could be heard.

Even though she slowly turned her head and continued to look at the blackboard, the pressure did not disappear.

No one discussed this matter anymore. For the next ten minutes, they felt that the air was suffocating.

When the bell rang, everyone heaved a sigh of relief. When they saw Su Cha packing her textbooks and walking out of the classroom, they stopped and waited for her to leave. Then, they started packing.

Chapter 729: Why Didn't You Reveal That You Are the Zuo Family's Daughter?

That afternoon, the matter between Qin Bei and Che Hong more or less came to involve Su Cha.

The netizens had a strong imagination. This matter did have something to do with her. After all, the reason for the quarrel was Su Cha.

The main reason was that someone suddenly revealed that Zhang Sen Media and Chanel originally had a partnership. There was a recommendation spot for a show. It was originally for an artist under Zhang Sen Media, but in the end, Zhang Sen Media gave it to Su Cha, who was unrelated to them.

This was equivalent to proving the fact that Zhang Sen Media had offended Su Cha, completely revealing Su Cha's relationship with the Imperial Mu Group.

The informant was definitely malicious. Needless to say, this matter would be exposed sooner or later. Su Cha did not ask Tan Jinsui to investigate who the informant was. It was not easy to find out where the source of the news came from, and this was the truth anyway.

[Is this the source of all the quarrels between Qin Bei and Che Hong? I heard that the special invitation spot was originally given to Qin Bei. Since Qin Bei could not go after the scandal, it should have been given to other celebrities. Why would it be given to Su Cha? Without a representative work, can she get the special invitation spot even if she is not an official celebrity as she has just debuted?]

[Isn't this due to the official relationship between a certain someone and the Imperial Mu Group? With a backer, they can really do whatever they want.]

Logically speaking, if it was to express an apology, even if Su Cha was backed by the Imperial Mu Group, it was understandable for Zhang Sen Media to apologize using this spot in a big show...

[Actually, I've always been suspicious. If the Imperial Mu Group really has a close relationship with Su Cha, why didn't they just give Su Cha an endorsement directly? At present, I've only seen you spreading rumors, but I've never seen Su Cha having any substantial resources. I heard that she got the second female lead in the production crew only because Jin Jiayu, who courted death, was replaced by the director. Since when did it become the Imperial Mu Group interfering? With such a background, shouldn't she directly act as the main female lead? Isn't it rare for people in the industry to rely on their status and have their sugar daddy to directly invest in a production?]

[Qin Bei is seeking her own death. But don't take the opportunity to clear another's name. Without resources, she, an artist who debuted in a talent show, won the role of the second female lead before the competition ended? How did she make Zhang Sen Media lower its head without any background? Don't you know that it's too easy for an existence like Zhang Sen Media to deal with Su Cha? Why were they forced to apologize? She's a newbie with no background!]

[I'm not sure about something. Back then, someone exposed Su Cha's identity and background. She was a genuine young lady, but her family did not support her, so this identity was not exposed...]

[I'm dying of laughter. Now that the identity of the sugar daddy has been cleared, she has started to hype up an identity as a lady with a mysterious background. Why is this method so familiar?]

***

The matter of Chanel's special invitation had not been officially confirmed. The name list had not been announced, and many netizens were not sure about it, but it did not stop them from wanting to bash her.

She felt that Qin Bei was in the wrong, but Su Cha was definitely not clean.

Also, the name Chanel was too famous, but not many people suspected that Su Cha would not be able to get it. After all, even if she did not have Zhang Sen Media's apology, she still had her manager, Tan Jinsui.

Tan Jinsui called in the afternoon and suddenly asked something that Su Cha found strange. "I heard that when you participated in the competition, Zuo Shaoxin's daughter, Zuo Zhici, went to look for you and called you sister. They should know that you are the Zuo family's daughter. Why didn't this matter spread?"

Chapter 730: Secret Daughter

Su Cha was silent for a while and suddenly curled her lips. "Since you asked, shouldn't you have an answer in your heart?"

Tan Jinsui was silent for a while before saying, "For Zuo Shaoxin to be so heartless..."

Su Cha's voice turned cold. "Don't forget how he treated my father. I always remember this."

Tan Jinsui was silent.

The reason why the matter did not blow up was very simple. The Zuo family must have stepped forward to deny it or mentioned something to prevent this matter from being exposed.

Otherwise, if the production crew knew about Su Cha's identity as the daughter of the Zuo family, they would at least give the Zuo family face. They would never do anything like changing Su Cha's votes.

Moreover, Su Cha had been in trouble several times, but the Zuo family had not done anything.

They kept saying that they wanted to make it up to the young lady who had led a wandering life, but they just watched on coldly.

Su Cha did not care about this at all. In her eyes, the Zuo family was just a hostile force.

Perhaps they also felt that Su Cha was too hard to chew. Until now, nothing had happened. This was already ridiculous.

Tan Jinsui just could not believe that the Zuo family would do such a thing.

Zong Yanxiu's beloved daughter was nothing to her biological parents. How ironic was that?

However, Tan Jinsui also hated the Zuo family because he knew what Su Cha was talking about.

In fact, Tan Jinsui felt a little gratified that Su Cha was so hostile to the Zuo family. At least he did not have to consider Su Cha's relationship. Compared to that, Zong Yanxiu and Su Cha were definitely more important.

Now, Tan Jinsui had to do his best to help Su Cha.

He simply changed the topic. "Someone exposed your special invitation to Chanel. I'm currently investigating the person who spread the news, but this person is very careful. It'll probably be difficult to investigate."

“Don’t worry about it. It will be exposed sooner or later.”

Some of the information was deliberately spread by others, so they would naturally be very careful. They would not leave any clues on the Internet. There were many ways to expose information, especially if some people in the industry knew about it. Finding the source was equivalent to a fantasy. Su Cha did not want Tan Jinsui to put his attention on these things.

“Yes, I know. But you should prepare well now. I can contact a brand for you to watch the show. It’s not difficult for them to lend you clothes. Also, be careful about recording songs.”

“Yes.”

Su Cha remembered everything Tan Jinsui had said. Not long after she hung up, it was as if she spoke of the devil. The person she’d just mentioned appeared in front of Su Cha again.

“Sister.”

When she saw Su Cha, Zuo Zhici smiled sweetly.

Zuo Zhici was also a famous person at school. However, Su Cha was not in the same department as her. She often went out and had different interactions. She had heard of her name a few times.

Zuo Zhici had been here before.

She did not come into contact with this industry. She was lively and outgoing. She was very popular in the school.

When they saw her appear again, the expressions of the surrounding students changed slightly, and they were even surprised.

Looking at the similar faces, they could not say if it was a fake relationship. They suspected the relationship between Zuo Zhici and Su Cha again.

Last time, they already knew about the relationship between Zuo Zhici and Su Cha. In the end, they received news from somewhere that the Zuo family had denied Su Cha’s identity. However, she did look very similar to Zuo Zhici, so many people thought that Su Cha was an illegitimate daughter of the Zuo family.
