

The Queen 731

Chapter 731: Borrow Money

However, Zuo Zhici was the legitimate eldest daughter of the Zuo family. How could she have such a good relationship with an illegitimate daughter?

It was not that Su Cha did not hear about the rumors. When she saw Zuo Zhici, she felt complicated.

She knew that the hatred of the previous generation should not be brought to the present one. Moreover, this person was indeed related to her by blood, but when she thought of her parents' actions, she found it hard to calm down.

She held back her nasty attitude and frowned. "Why are you here?"

One did not need to look to know that she did not feel good seeing her.

Zuo Zhici felt wronged. Why did she feel that Su Cha's attitude was worse each time she saw her? Then why did she save her on the cruise?

"Can't I come and see you?"

She had never been so obviously shamed by others before. The only person who had done it was Su Cha.

Despite her attitude, she did not lose her temper. She walked over and said to Su Cha, "Can I have dinner with you? My treat."

Her voice was low, but others could tell that she was trying to please her.

Her eyeballs were about to fall out. What kind of personality did Zuo Zhici usually have? How could she lower her head in front of Su Cha?

The gazes of the people around her made Zuo Zhici feel a little uncomfortable. She did not care about what others thought. She just felt that such a shocked expression was actually because of their surprise at the difference in status between her and Su Cha. She could not accept such a situation, but Su Cha should be the one who felt the most uncomfortable. She was suffering on Su Cha's behalf.

Su Cha did not think much about it, but there were too many people around. They kept staring at her as if they were looking at a monkey. Su Cha looked at the time and said directly, "I don't have much time. I still have to go to the company."

Zuo Zhici did not give up and followed her. "Then I'll go to your company with you to take a look, okay?"

Su Cha pursed her lips and did not say anything.

Seeing that she did not object, Zuo Zhici followed her with a smile.

When they got into the car, the driver was surprised to see Zuo Zhici. However, he did not say anything and drove away.

As soon as Zuo Zhici got into the car, she started talking non-stop. Only when Su Cha became familiar with her did she realize that she was really talkative. Halfway through, Su Cha's phone rang. Su Cha gestured in the air and Zuo Zhici fell silent.

"Yes, just speak."

Su Cha's voice was light, but her smile showed that she was on good terms with the other party.

Zuo Zhici felt unhappy.

Su Cha did not smile when she spoke to her.

"Borrow money?"

Le Anqi was the one who called Su Cha. Her voice was as lively as usual, but she was a little embarrassed. “Oh my, I’m sorry. I’ve exceeded the limit with my card recently. I want to buy something, but my mother won’t give me money. I’m in a hurry, so I’ll give it back to you next month!”

Le Anqi’s financial situation was not bad. She had started off as an online streamer. After participating in the show, her popularity rose again. Not to mention a million, she earned hundreds of thousands every month, but she usually gave money to her parents.

Her family’s living conditions were not bad. Although she looked like a casual girl, she was actually controlled by her family and did not spend money recklessly. This was the first time Su Cha heard her wanting to borrow money.

She did not think much and asked directly, “How much do you want to borrow?”

“Not much. Ten thousand is enough. I’ll give it back to you next month!”

Su Cha agreed and hung up the phone to transfer the money to her.

Now that she had accepted an endorsement and had participated in acting, she had a million yuan on her. She was a rich lady.

Chapter 732: Grandpa’s Words Are So Discomfiting

As Su Cha transferred the money, Zuo Zhici’s gaze was subtle. “You only just became popular, yet she already wants to borrow money from you?”

She seemed to have misunderstood. Su Cha paused. “We have a good relationship. This is an urgent matter. Can’t I lend it to her?”

She sounded unhappy. It was obvious that Zuo Zhici’s words made her uncomfortable.

Zuo Zhici was not stupid. Hearing this, she felt that the person must have an extraordinary relationship with Su Cha. She apologized, “No, no. I was wrong. I thought she was the kind of person who would borrow money from you once you became popular.”

She pouted and felt wronged.

Su Cha was not fooled by her behavior. She smiled coldly. “So don’t say anything you shouldn’t say before you’ve figured things out. How old are you? Don’t you know your limits?”

Zuo Zhici: “...”

Her tone was strangely similar to when Ruan Yin usually talked about her. Her lips pouted even more.

When she arrived at the company, she followed Su Cha to watch her busy herself.

Su Cha came to the company to record an album. The song producer Tan Jinsui mentioned had arrived. She saw a few people. Zuo Zhici was quite out of place beside her. In the beginning, these people thought that she was her assistant, but she looked like she was not an assistant at all. After all, Su Cha did not introduce them.

Only when Fu Mo had rushed over did everyone know that Zuo Zhici was not an assistant, but they did not know who she was.

Before recording the songs, they had to test her vocals. Today, they were just introducing themselves. Among them, the music arrangement master had given Su Cha the melody of a song to test her vocals before making appropriate modifications. This was also the first time Zuo Zhici had heard Su Cha sing live.

It was just a few simple lines of humming, and there were no lyrics. Zuo Zhici heard a pleasant voice that sounded like the clashing of clear bells. Her ears seemed to be enjoying it to the extreme. When the pitch was raised, it was like the sound of nature. It was filled with charm and was extremely ear-piercing.

It was no wonder that she could suppress all the contestants when she participated in the show. It was not easy for her to have such a voice. She was not afraid of the high notes that used strength to be belted and could totally rush out to the crowd.

She was stunned for a moment. When Su Cha started to sing the melody of the lyrics, Zuo Zhici secretly recorded it on her phone.

Because she was sitting at the side, although the song demo was a secret that could not be revealed, no one bothered about her or dared to be worried about her.

Su Cha tested her voice for a long time. She ignored Zuo Zhici, who was bored. When it was time, she received a call from Ruan Yin.

The woman on the phone said gently, "Why are you not home yet?"

Zuo Zhici sat at the side and swung her legs. "Mom, I'm watching Sister record a song. She's going to release a song."

As soon as she spoke, Su Cha, who was in the recording studio, suddenly turned to look at her with a faint smile. Zuo Zhici thought that she had heard it.

But this place was soundproof. No matter what, Su Cha would not have heard it, right?

While she was in a daze, she heard Ruan Yin's surprised voice. "So you're at your sister's place? Then you can stay there. You can come back after dinner... If you want, you can stay with her..."

Before she could finish speaking, before Zuo Zhici could answer, she suddenly heard her grandfather's old and dignified voice. "Why is the eldest daughter of the Zuo family staying out? Don't we have a home for her to stay in? Have her come back quickly!"

Zuo Zhici heard it clearly. Ruan Yin's embarrassed voice continued, but Zuo Zhici could not hear what she said clearly.

She just wondered why her grandfather's words were so discomfiting.

Chapter 733: Untitled

Actually, Zuo Zhici felt that her grandparents' attitude was strange the last time she went home.

Didn't her parents say that they wanted to take Su Cha home? Even if her sister was unwilling, they should still contact her, right?

It was not that Zuo Zhici did not know about the matter on the Internet. She originally thought that these things regarding Su Cha were definitely slander. At least, she knew that Bo Muyi was Su Cha's boyfriend, but why did her father not care?

There were many nasty comments online. Zuo Zhici could not stand it.

Moreover, when someone came to ask if Su Cha was the Zuo family's daughter, her grandparents were vague and did not want to admit it.

Zuo Zhici could not understand.

When she came back to her senses, the voice on the phone became clearer. "...Remember to come back early. I'll get the driver to pick you up, alright?"

She was inexplicably unhappy. "No, Sister would ask her driver to send me back."

Ruan Yin paused and said awkwardly, "Then... come back early and have fun."

She could not say much and hung up.

After hanging up, Zuo Zhici looked at the number on the phone screen and fell into deep thought.

The door of the recording studio was suddenly opened. Su Cha pushed the door open and walked out. She was wearing a coat. "Did your family ask you to go back?"

"Hmm?"

Zuo Zhici looked up at her. "Aren't you recording songs inside?"

"I saw you on the phone. She must be urging you to go back."

She spoke naturally and did not show that she cared. She just said, "I'll ask the driver to send you back first."

Zuo Zhici pouted. “I haven’t eaten yet. Aren’t you going to eat with me?”

Su Cha paused and sighed silently. “What do you want to eat?”

Zuo Zhici’s eyes lit up. “Let’s eat Japanese food. I haven’t eaten it in a long time, but I still want to eat.”

“Whatever.”

Su Cha put on her coat and brought Zuo Zhici downstairs for dinner.

There was a Japanese restaurant downstairs. It was definitely incomparable to what Zuo Zhici usually ate. However, Su Cha was too lazy to find a place to deal with it.

Zuo Zhici ordered a few sushi. Su Cha ordered a bowl of ramen and a cup of fruit juice.

She ordered the normal amount, but there was still a lot of ramen in a bowl. Zuo Zhici felt full after eating two sushi. She was a little surprised to see Su Cha eating the ramen. “Sister, shouldn’t you pay attention to your food intake while maintaining your figure?”

Zuo Zhici had seen many celebrities and were friends with many socialites. They did not eat much usually. Some people did not even eat carbohydrates. Staple foods like rice, noodles, and steamed buns were collectively called carbohydrates.

Basically, they would be full after drinking some water and eating a piece of cake at a gathering. In order to maintain their figure in front of the camera, celebrities would do even more. They were very strict about eating.

Su Cha did not eat as little as the average person. In fact, she might have eaten as much as three or four female celebrities.

She slowly rolled the noodles with her chopsticks. It had an elegant taste, and she had already eaten most of it.

“What are you paying attention to? Shouldn’t you eat when you are hungry?”

She usually practiced martial arts and expend a lot of energy. She had eaten now, but she had to eat supper too.

She was never afraid of getting fat.

Zuo Zhici felt that this sister was really different from ordinary people. She could not help but laugh. "You're right."

After eating, Su Cha got into the car with her. As expected, she asked the driver to send Zuo Zhici back first.

Chapter 734: Taking the Bait

When she reached home, she was later than usual. Bo Mui was also back.

Recently, the weather had turned cold. He was reading the company documents in the study room. He was wearing an azure sweater, and it was probably not long after he came back. The cup of coffee in his hand was still steaming.

When Su Cha returned, he looked up with a cool and gentle expression. "You're back?"

Su Cha nodded and took off her coat. She placed it on the rack and sighed silently.

Her expression made him frown. "What's wrong?"

"A little... annoyed."

She walked over and told him about what had happened today. "I don't have any good feelings for the Zuo family, but Zuo Zhici makes me feel especially annoyed."

She felt conflicted. "I don't want to treat her too well, but I can't be too harsh on her. When she came over, I didn't know how to deal with her."

Overall, Zuo Zhici was not involved in the Zuo family's matters. She was only a member of the Zuo family and was indeed Su Cha's sister.

However, based on Su Cha's hatred for Zuo Shaoxin, she was indeed conflicted about Zuo Zhici.

She really did not know what to do.

Hearing this, he raised his hand to let Su Cha go. When she sat on his big legs, he caressed her face and said lightly, "Look at you. Just do whatever you want."

He knew that these things were complicated, so he could understand Su Cha's frustration.

"She's just an irrelevant person. You can treat her like an ordinary person."

He sounded unhappy. "Don't keep thinking about others."

No one was worth worrying about.

She should be happy forever.

If Zuo Zhici was not her sister, Bo Muyi would not want her to appear in front of Su Cha forever.

Su Cha looked at him and could not help but laugh. "Actually, it's nothing. It's fine as long as it passes."

After she said this, her phone rang. She looked at the caller and picked up the call.

After the caller said a few words, Su Cha looked at Bo Muyi and narrowed her eyes. "Okay, I know. I will come over personally."

She hung up and asked, "Has the plan succeeded?"

Bo Muyi smiled. "Since the call came, it must have been a success."

It was from the Star Alliance.

About Cheng Deyue.

Previously, Su Cha and Bo Mui had been planning this matter. They first dealt with Cheng Deyue and used his grandson and granddaughter as bait.

His granddaughter, Cheng Xisha, had a bad temper. They simply hired someone to provoke Cheng Xisha on purpose. It was not a serious quarrel, but Cheng Xisha beat the person up and sent them to the hospital.

That person's parents were not easy to deal with. They found someone to deal with Cheng Xisha and got some real-life power struggles involved. In the end, Cheng Deyue personally took action and used his identity as an elder of the Star Alliance to oppress the other party. Now that the other party had informed the Star Alliance, they were actually here to seek help.

It seemed like an ordinary thing, but no one knew that the source was actually Su Cha and Bo Mui.

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. "I thought this plan would not be fast, but Cheng Deyue is so impatient, huh?"

His granddaughter had fought with an older person, yet he was really willing to let her go.

Since she had received a call, Su Cha had to deal with this matter.

Bo Mui also knew that it was not convenient for him to go. He rubbed Su Cha's chin and said, "Go."

Su Cha nodded and said goodbye to Bo Mui before she left.

Chapter 735: Untitled

Cheng Deyue's family was also in the Imperial Capital. Although the position of an elder in the Star Alliance was not very high, the Cheng family had still gained a lot of benefits in the Imperial Capital with this relationship. With the Cheng children's parents currently overseas, the ones who remained in the country were Cheng Deyue and his grandchildren.

In the spacious hall of the villa, Cheng Xisha was still crying. Her brother was comforting her.

In the hall, other than Cheng Deyue, there was also a middle-aged woman whose chest was heaving. She looked very angry.

“Elder Cheng, let's talk about things. Your Cheng Xisha and my daughter were just arguing. My husband just stepped up for her. What right do you have to break his tendons?!”

The woman looked at Cheng Deyue with tears in her eyes. Cheng Deyue's face was gloomy, but he seemed to not want to pay attention to her.

Hearing her words, Cheng Xisha, who was crying, said, “Grandpa was just taking revenge for me. That man deserved it!”

The woman was furious and wanted to slap Cheng Xisha.

It was just not a good idea.

Her brother was also looking at the woman gloomily from the side. His eyes flickered with a vicious light.

The doorbell of the villa's main hall suddenly rang. A servant waiting by the side went to open the door. When she saw the person, she was a little surprised. “You...?”

Su Cha and Tan Yeluo walked in sideways. When they saw Cheng Deyue, they smiled. “Hey, Elder Cheng, it's so lively here.”

When Cheng Deyue saw Su Cha, the person who was originally calm could not sit still anymore. He stood up and said directly, “What are you doing here?!”

Su Cha raised her eyebrows slightly. “Elder Cheng, can't I come here to see you?”

Cheng Xisha's and her brother's eyes widened when they saw Su Cha.

"You, you, you..."

Cheng Xisha pointed at Su Cha, looking agitated as if she was about to go into shock.

When the middle-aged woman saw Su Cha, she was so excited that she almost knelt down. Tears welled up in her eyes. "Alliance Master Su, you have to stand up for me. You have to! Elder Cheng crippled my husband's meridians indiscriminately and even made someone suppress our business in the country. Tell me, how can this be? He's an elder. Can he bully others?!"

The moment Cheng Deyue saw Su Cha, he realized that something was wrong.

He was arrogant and domineering when he did things, but the Star Alliance also had rules. It was just that he hid things from people. Moreover, no one dared to do anything about it, so they kept letting him be free.

Even the matter with Su Cha was forcefully suppressed. Su Cha did not deal with it.

Now that Su Cha had suddenly come, if Cheng Deyue could not tell that there was a problem, he would be stupid!

Seeing the crying woman, Cheng Deyue felt his head start to throb. He pointed at them and said angrily, "You... You!"

Tan Yeluo walked over with a coquettish smile. "Elder Cheng, what's going on? Why are you so excited to see our Alliance Master? That's right, the Alliance Master came to visit you. She's really giving you a lot of face!"

On the other side, Su Cha was already holding the woman's hand. "Don't worry, we will definitely help you with this matter. I just took over the position, so I will not sit back and watch such a thing happen!"

Cheng Deyue's vision darkened. Seeing the woman's tears that almost instantly disappeared, he felt that she was really stupid. "You guys are working together to cheat?! Su? What are you trying to do?!"

Chapter 736: Want to Make a Move

Su Cha walked over with a bright smile, but it seemed to be able to shake people's minds. "Elder Cheng, you said that we are cheating? But you first had to be willing to take the bait!"

These words seemed to be an admission of something, but they also seemed to be a denial.

Cheng Deyue sat back in his chair angrily.

When he made a move, he naturally knew how to end it. But before he could wrap up the matter, Su Cha came directly to him.

The woman's husband was indeed lying in the hospital, so what went wrong?

Of course, Su Cha did not expect Cheng Deyue to have taken the bait so quickly. She did not expect Cheng Deyue to cripple someone first thing after a dispute of words. His methods for the sake of his grandson and granddaughter were so vicious that it made one's hair stand on end.

Cheng Xisha and her brother were dumbfounded. "Grandpa, did something happen?"

Cheng Deyue was so angry that he could not say anything. Su Cha glanced at Cheng Xisha lightly and did not say anything.

Tan Yeluo said, "Elder Cheng, what did you do? In the past, the old Alliance Master did not have the time to be bothered about you. Even now that the new Alliance Master has come up, you are still so arrogant. You are an elder of the Star Alliance after all. Even if you don't care about your reputation, you should still think about our Star Alliance. People who don't know might think that our Star Alliance is really the Killing Alliance. You rely on your power to bully others and are ruthless. It's really amazing!"

Cheng Deyue's face darkened. "So what are you trying to do? What are you two up to?"

"Elder Cheng should think about the consequences when you do things like this."

The girl looked around the hall and said casually, “Our Star Alliance can’t tolerate someone like you. Tomorrow, I will hold an internal meeting of the Star Alliance and let the elders judge your behavior. If it’s found you’ve broken the rules, you will naturally be dealt with according to the rules of the Star Alliance. The consequences will depend on the elders.”

The meaning was obvious. His position as elder was definitely gone. There would be other punishments.

How could Cheng Deyue accept this?

He had been in glory for decades and had worked hard to become an elder. How could he be willing to let go now?

Cheng Deyue’s face darkened.

He gritted his teeth and shivered. His grandson beside him did not know what was going on. Even if Su Cha was the Alliance Master, he did not care about it too much. He also forgot that he had been taught a lesson by Su Cha in the parking lot last time. He stood up and scolded Su Cha. “My grandfather is an Elder of the Star Alliance. No one has the right to decide his matters. Not even you, the Alliance Master!”

He spoke loudly and aggressively. As soon as he finished speaking, Cheng Deyue said angrily, “Go back...!”

Before he could finish speaking, Su Cha glanced over and he felt a huge force coming at him. He watched helplessly as his grandson was sent flying like a broken bag. His body fell back a few meters. Cheng Deyue’s pupils constricted. On one hand, he was afraid of Su Cha’s unfathomable strength, and on the other hand, he hated her for attacking his grandson.

“You... You’ve already calculated it. You just want to set me up!”

He could tell, but it was useless to say anything now. He jumped into the trap himself.

His eyes were bloodshot as he looked at Su Cha. For a moment, he wanted to attack her.

But he did not dare to.

He knew how mysterious the new Alliance Master's strength was. She dared to enter the territory of the Killing Alliance alone and could leave safely. It was obvious that she was extraordinary.

The elders had secretly had people investigate many things about Su Cha, but they did not find out who Su Cha's master was.

She was from no sect and no one knew where she came from. Shi Wei must have seen a ghost for him to pick this person out.

The flesh on his face was trembling violently. His fingers gripped the armrest of the chair tightly. It was obvious how furious he was.

The girl in front of him was still smiling calmly. Her light-hearted appearance seemed to be able to cancel out all her impetuosity.

Such an appearance was actually a silent threat. In front of her, even the most furious person had to force themselves to calm down.

"Elder Cheng, some things have to be said only with evidence. If you were clean, would you be worried that others would set you up?"

A strange light seemed to flash in the girl's eyes. Her deep and bottomless eyes made her look mysterious. She smiled lightly at the woman and then looked at Cheng Xisha. "Elder Cheng, if you have anything to say, just wait until tomorrow's trial assembly. Not to mention that I've wronged you, I will also call the Martial Alliance Master to bear witness."

Cheng Deyue was stunned. Suddenly, he collapsed like a deflated balloon.

He was visibly dispirited.

This girl was really vicious. No matter what, the Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance were two separate associations. It was already embarrassing for an Elder to go through such a judgment, but she did not care at all. She even wanted the Martial Alliance's Alliance Master to come and watch. In fact, she did not care about this problem at all.

She wanted Cheng Deyue dead.

For a moment, Cheng Deyue regretted his rashness and anger.

There were now people from the Star Alliance monitoring the Cheng residence's premises. These people were all transferred over temporarily by Tan Yeluo.

After leaving the Cheng residence, the woman thanked Su Cha. "Thank you for helping me, Alliance Master Su. It has made our family feel better."

Their family was not comparable to the Cheng family, but they were also a famous martial arts family. It's just that they had been hiding for a long time.

The woman really did not know about Cheng Xisha.

The Chengs would not have done such a disgraceful thing if Bo Muyi had hired someone else to do it. He had only arranged for Cheng Xisha and these people to clash with each other. Cheng Xisha and Cheng Deyue deserved the subsequent development.

Cheng Deyue had been spoiled by having the status of an elder of the Star Alliance. He did not have any scruples and was used to being arrogant.

Who could have guessed that Su Cha was waiting for him to fall into a trap?

When Su Cha heard the woman's words, she opened her red lips and smiled. "Even if Elder Cheng is an elder of our Star Alliance, he should be treated equally when he commits a crime. This time, he'd gone senile and did not show mercy. As the Alliance Master, I naturally have to uphold justice for you. If I indulge them, how can I continue to take care of the others in the Star Alliance in the future?"

The woman looked at Su Cha gratefully and said some words for Su Cha to visit her before leaving.

Tan Yeluo watched her leave before she pinched her chin and clicked her tongue. "Alliance Master, you speak beautifully."

Su Cha glanced at her. "You think that is just a formality? I was speaking the truth. As long as someone commits a crime, I will deal with anyone, including you."

After saying that, she left.

Tan Yeluo smiled and placed her hands behind her back. She was not angry.

Shi Wei had been making calculations his entire life. It was the best thing for him to let Su Cha ascend the throne.

Su Cha did not have any power, and the person behind her was from the neutral Bo family. She had no scruples in doing things, which was much better than others getting to this position.

Chapter 738: Scheme

When the other elders of the Star Alliance received the news, they were not informed of the specific reason.

But when they heard that it was about Cheng Deyue's trial, the others immediately realized that something was wrong.

Why did she pass judgment on Cheng Deyue for no reason?

They felt that things were not so simple.

The three of them avoided contact and finally confirmed the matter.

"Cheng Deyue is really an idiot!"

Even if they were unwilling, everyone had to come back. After Tang Hefei got on the plane, he called Wan Youtian. The first thing he did was to scold Cheng Deyue.

Wan Youtian sneered. "If he's not stupid, why would he be controlled by you for so many years?"

All along, Cheng Deyue had been following Tang Hefei's lead. The other two elders could feel it even if they did not say it in their hearts. Now that something had happened, they did not say much. Soon, he said fiercely, "The key is that she really attacked Cheng Deyue. The meaning is obvious. If we don't do as she said, she will target us."

Tang Hefei was so angry that he laughed. "Hahahaha, how long has it been since she took over the position? Her wild ambition has been revealed all of a sudden. The old Alliance Master had been in power for so many years, but he couldn't do anything to us. Even if she continues to mess with Cheng Deyue, I don't believe that she can deal with us. We are not like that fool Cheng Deyue! We will not do anything that she can use against us!"

The air stewardess brought a cup of steaming coffee to Tang Hefei. Tang Hefei smiled at the air stewardess. His elegant and gentlemanly appearance was flawless.

When the air stewardess turned around, his expression darkened.

Wan Youtian's voice on the other end of the phone was not so confident. "You can't be too complacent. We are not afraid of her tricks, but the main point is that we are old. Our age can't keep us safe. It would be fine if she did not cause trouble, but if she did, who knows what info she'd dig up and use to force us to abdicate? She has the Bo family backing her up, so we might not get a chance to object."

"The Bo family..."

Tang Hefei's expression was grave. The Bo family was indeed a troublesome matter.

He suddenly said, "Didn't you say that the Killing Alliance attacked the Bo family?"

"Yes, something almost happened to Bo Mui. The Bo family was furious, but the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance has returned. That Alliance Master is also mysterious and hard to deal with. Didn't she enter Dawn alone last time?"

Tang Hefei narrowed his eyes as if he had caught onto something important. "She entered alone?"

Wan Youtian paused. “Yes!”

Tang Hefei suddenly laughed as if he had encountered something funny. The air stewardess who came over heard it and glanced at him. Tang Hefei nodded slightly and continued, “Isn’t it obvious? She entered alone. What is that place? That is the territory of the Killing Alliance. What right does she have to go in and come out safely? Do you have any evidence? If you have a photo of her entering Dawn, I have a way to deal with her!”

Wan Youtian was also an old fox. Hearing this, he shivered. “Are you sure? If this matter is not done well, once she takes the opportunity to counterattack, we will have to follow Cheng Deyue.”

“No.”

Tang Hefei sneered and calculated the possible consequences. “At that time, we will just say that we guessed wrongly and apologize. Could she force us to do anything? She can only swallow it! But even if she clarifies, others will suspect her. We have worked for the Star Alliance for so many years and enjoyed our rights. It’s not something a little girl like her can control!”

Chapter 739: Settlement

The elders had to rush back from afar. The Star Alliance’s trial was scheduled that night.

The location was at the Star Alliance headquarters in the Imperial Capital.

It was an old courtyard house.

The ordinary decoration style was maintained by professionals. Usually, only the children of the Star Alliance were stationed here periodically. Very few people came.

Su Cha had just finished class and came over. Tan Jinsui urged her to record a song, but she said that she had something to do. She pushed the recording schedule for today, and she did not let Fu Mo follow here.

Sitting on the chair, Su Cha played with her nails in boredom.

Cheng Deyue had wasted a lot of her time.

Mo Weiyuan had arrived. He sat in the main hall awkwardly. It was hard for him to speak.

Before he'd arrived, he did not really want to come.

He already knew that this interrogation was a trial session within the Star Alliance. The key was that the person on trial was Elder Cheng Deyue. Mo Weiyuan had grown up hearing of this elder's name. He did not know why Su Cha had called him over. Although the Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance were in an alliance, they had not exactly merged, right?

Besides, this was a scandal.

Looking at Su Cha, Mo Weiyuan felt that she was probably going to deal with Cheng Deyue this time.

He heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. He had always admired this little Alliance Master. It was fine if she was more capable than him, but she was also very decisive. If the Martial Alliance had such a person as an Elder, Mo Weiyuan might have weighed the pros and cons first and not done anything in the end.

There were too many things involved for him, unlike Su Cha, who could go to trial just like that.

For a long time, the two could not find a word to say. It was really awkward for the two of them to be here. Suddenly, Mo Weiyuan asked about the Killing Alliance. "Alliance Master Su, I want to ask, have you seen the legendary Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance?"

The Martial Alliance had hated the Killing Alliance for a long time. However, it was not easy for them to start a war now. He was very concerned about the Killing Alliance Master.

Su Cha looked up and admitted, "Yes."

Mo Weiyuan was a little puzzled. "Is she really a little girl like the rumors say?"

Su Cha nodded. "That's right."

She pondered for a while and told him about Greya. "I should have told you about this long ago so that you could be prepared. However, I could not guess what the Killing Alliance was planning to do, so I did not do anything for the time being. The leader of the Killing Alliance is called Greya. She is an American Chinese. She is actually 23 years old. However, something happened to her which resulted in her not growing up and maintaining the appearance of a little girl. The information they sent was the same. They did not say that the leader of the Killing Alliance was really a little girl."

Mo Weiyuan was a little shocked. "There's such a thing? But she can never grow up. To be able to get the position of the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance, this girl must be extremely terrifying."

As he spoke, his expression became a little serious. "I can't guess what she wants to do when she returns to the Imperial Capital. But Alliance Master Su, we think it's most likely related to you entering Dawn's territory."

This was obvious.

Su Cha nodded. When she went to Dawn last time, Greya's attitude made it obvious.

She was indeed here for Su Cha. Su Cha did not know what she wanted to do for the time being. She planned to settle this matter after the Tree Hall investigation was done.

Chapter 740: Infuriating Someone

While the two of them were talking, voices came from outside the door.

The two of them looked up. It was Tan Yeluo, who had brought the elders in.

Tang Hefei, Lin Yin, Master Buzhou, Wan Youtian, and the Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect, Shi Wei.

Behind Shi Wei was no longer Jin Duan, but Jin Mou.

She had fully recovered and was officially learning from Shi Wei. She had seen Su Cha last time and knew about her. This time, she came here with a cold expression. When she saw Su Cha, she smiled.

Su Cha nodded at her. It was not appropriate to say anything to Jin Mou in front of so many people.

The elders had different expressions. Anyway, the situation was not good.

There was a long table in the main hall. Su Cha sat on the main seat while Mo Weiyuan sat on her right. This was the home ground of the Star Alliance.

When everyone arrived, they saw Su Cha, who was sitting on the main seat, looking up at them with a smile. She pointed casually. "Everyone is here. Please sit."

Tan Yeluo walked over and sat on her left. Shi Wei and the elders were left behind. Jin Mou stood behind Shi Wei and winked at Su Cha again.

Su Cha smiled. As soon as Master Buzhou sat down, before Wan Youtian and the other two could speak, he said kindly, "Alliance Master Su, I heard that Elder Cheng made an unforgivable mistake, which is why you called us here today?"

Su Cha leaned on the left side of the chair and said lazily, "Yes. I asked the elders and the Sect Master to come today because of this matter. You should decide what punishment Elder Cheng deserves."

As she spoke, she raised her hand. Someone outside soon brought Cheng Deyue in.

He was an elder, after all. She did not make things difficult for him and did not restrain him. He walked in with a gloomy expression and looked at everyone with an unclear feeling in his heart.

In the past, everyone sat together. Now that he was standing here, he looked like a prisoner.

Why did they look so happy?

Lin Yin's expression was different. After a moment of silence, Tang Hefei chuckled and said, "What's the big deal, Alliance Master? Elder Cheng has made great contributions to the Star Alliance. Even if he didn't contribute, he has worked hard. Even if he made a mistake in a moment of folly, there's no need to force Elder Cheng to such a state. Why don't you show mercy?"

After all, they were on the same side. It was inevitable for them to beg for mercy.

Everyone looked at Su Cha in unison, wanting to see her reaction.

Su Cha looked at Tang Hefei with exceptionally bright eyes. Her smile was still so obvious, but her words were like knives. “Elder Tang, what you are saying amounts to this: since Elder Cheng’s ascension, the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance have been at peace for decades. There have been constant conflicts with the Killing Alliance. For hundreds of years, this has been the case. Elder Cheng has always regarded himself as an elder of the Star Alliance. He has done a lot of shameful things, but he has not done much. If you think that a few decades of peace counts as a contribution for an elder, then I think that anyone who takes the position of elder would have such a contribution. Don’t you think so, Elder Tang?”

Tang Hefei’s next sentence was that Cheng Deyue had been in power for decades...

Cheng Deyue did not contribute much, but Wan Youtian and the rest were unconvinced. “Alliance Master, are you also referring to us old guys who don’t have much contribution? Why are we still staying in the Star Alliance?”

Su Cha glanced at him and said indifferently, “I only talked about Elder Cheng, I didn’t talk about you. Why did Elder Wan take the initiative to speak?”

Wan Youtian: “...”

He was furious!
