

The Queen 741

Chapter 741: What More Do You Want to Say?

Su Cha wasn't wrong. She was telling the truth.

The Star Alliance and the Killing Alliance had been in conflict for hundreds of years. The elders had been in power for decades. Modern society was peaceful, and they did not contribute much to that.

Back then, they were more outstanding than others in certain aspects.

However, Su Cha's words were really heartbreaking. These men could not say that the Alliance Master should also discount their contributions because of this, that it was fine if they were no longer elders. They were really afraid that Su Cha would directly say "okay." That would really be impossible to take back halfway.

Hence, their plea was cut off.

Mo Weiyuan wanted to applaud Su Cha.

This little Alliance Master's words were really vicious.

Moreover, she really did not show any mercy. Ordinary people would at least save others some dignity when they spoke. She really did not give one any face.

It was too easy for this kind of person to attract hatred, but looking at Su Cha, it could be seen that she did not care about the hatred of these people at all.

Jin Mou was also very impressed.

These old men were all powerful figures. Su Cha, a little girl, sat in the main seat with a stronger aura than them. They did not dare to rebut her words. It was really an eye-opener.

However, she could not say it out loud. Su Cha quickly added, "Elders, don't be agitated. I've already said that I'm dealing with Elder Cheng's matter today. Elder Cheng has made an unforgivable mistake. Are you speaking up for him to put yourself in the same position as him? Do you know what kind of shameful thing Elder Cheng has done? If you still think that what Elder Cheng has done is not a big deal, then I...”

She leaned back lazily. “I really think there’s something wrong with you having the position of an elder.”

This completely blocked the way to beg for mercy. Tang Hefei and the others shivered and did not dare to speak.

She looked at Cheng Deyue, who was glaring at her angrily. With a smile, she told the others what Cheng Deyue had done.

“...He crippled someone else and even tried to use the position of an elder of the Star Alliance to bury this matter. The person involved begged me. If I don’t intervene myself, I don’t know what the Star Alliance will do to such a scum. The Star Alliance was established for the sake of peace in the martial arts world. Now that the martial arts world is declining, is the Star Alliance going to go against its own beliefs and become an organization like the Killing Alliance, which is abusing its power to bully others and is extremely ruthless, immoral, and hateful?”

In the end, her words became increasingly harsh and powerful.

The entire hall was filled with Su Cha’s voice. After she finished speaking, everyone fell silent.

Cheng Deyue was about to faint from anger. Su Cha had accused him of such a big crime. He was indeed the one who did it though, so there was no room for rebuttal.

He wanted to speak, but for some reason, his throat felt like it was being choked. Other than barely breathing, he could not speak at all.

Naturally, he watched on as Su Cha said whatever she wanted.

Tan Yeluo was smiling as she watched the show. Shi Wei sighed slightly. He was wholeheartedly doing things for the sake of the Star Alliance. He was the one who’d pushed Su Cha up. Now that Su Cha had done something, he naturally could not say anything. Cheng Deyue had brought this upon himself. He had to accept Su Cha’s accusation.

After hearing this, the others naturally could not say anything about being lenient. Su Cha said lightly, “Elder Cheng, what else do you have to say?”

Chapter 742: Fantasy

Cheng Deyue now felt that he could breathe freely. It was as if fresh air had rushed in. He opened his mouth and found that he could speak.

He was really stupid to not realize who had done it.

He looked at Su Cha in shock and anger. It was too late for him to say anything. He opened his mouth and glared at Su Cha for a long time before saying, “I have nothing to say!”

He had given up.

“Okay.”

Su Cha did not waste her breath and looked at the others. “The elders shall decide how to punish Elder Cheng. According to the original rules of the Star Alliance, the position of an elder has to be removed. Secondly, Cheng Deyue’s martial arts ability will naturally be abolished. Considering his status as an elder for so many years, he will be exempted from other punishments and expelled from the Star Alliance. Because of his special identity, the Star Alliance will monitor him routinely. What do you think?”

Tang Hefei, Wan Youtian, Lin Yin: “...”

Didn’t she say that they would decide?

Su Cha had already said it. They just needed to confirm their agreement. What was there to decide!

Tang Hefei and the rest were unhappy and almost rolled their eyes on the spot. Tan Yeluo covered her mouth and raised her hand. “I agree with the Alliance Master’s decision.”

Master Buzhou said, “Amitabha. A monk should be merciful. The Alliance Master’s action is benevolent, so this monk naturally supports the Alliance Master.”

Buzhou's heart was not with the other three. Tang Hefei and the others could not say anything. This punishment was good for Cheng Deyue. At least he was spared.

Tang Hefei closed his eyes. "Agreed."

Lin Yin and Wan Youtian naturally nodded in agreement.

The so-called abolition of one's martial arts ability actually involved breaking the toughest part of a person's meridians. To a large extent, it would cause damage to the human body. If it was not done properly, the person might even become a cripple. Cheng Deyue's face turned pale when he heard that.

Su Cha looked at him with a ghost-like smile. "Since the elders have agreed, there's no need for others to do anything about your martial arts. Elder Cheng is old, and I'm afraid that others will hurt you. Let me do it myself."

As she spoke, she raised her hand as if she was casually waving it. She did not do anything. Cheng Deyue, who was on the other side, felt his expression change drastically. It was as if a cold aura suddenly surged into his body and went straight to his organs before finally returning to his wrist and ankle.

There was a slight pain. It was not obvious the first instance, as if he had only been pricked by a needle.

Other than that, there were no other changes.

Everyone was shocked.

They had never seen such a crippling martial arts technique before. It did not seem unusual, but they saw Cheng Deyue's expression change for a moment.

Cheng Deyue felt that his strength was still there. He did not think that Su Cha had done anything with just a wave of her hand. Just as he was trying to exert force, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his limbs. He screamed and fell to the ground.

Su Cha glanced at him and smiled. “Elder Cheng, I haven’t explained it yet. Don’t use force in the future. The more you use force, the greater the damage to your body will be. You just have to spend the rest of your life like an ordinary person. You’re old, so don’t bother.”

Everyone was shocked.

What exactly did she do?

It was really unheard of and unbelievable.

Such uncertain methods were the most terrifying.

Could they really be the legendary real martial arts techniques?

But these people had never seen such martial arts before. For a moment, they thought that it was a fantasy.

Chapter 743: Is She Setting an Example?

No matter how they thought about it, they could not figure out the truth. Su Cha called someone in who brought Cheng Deyue out.

Before he left, his eyes were no longer as bright as before. They had started to become cloudy. He looked at Su Cha with hatred.

An ordinary person would probably shudder at the old man’s vicious expression, but Su Cha did not care. After Cheng Deyue’s figure disappeared, she smiled slowly. “Thank you for coming here today, elders. I won’t say much about Elder Cheng Deyue. I hope that the other elders will set an example and not do anything stupid. Elder Cheng’s position cannot be left empty for too long. In the future, you can discuss with the elders and choose a suitable person before reporting to me.”

She suddenly handed this matter to Tan Yeluo. Tan Yeluo raised her head and immediately understood what Su Cha meant. She chuckled. “Okay.”

Tang Hefei and the rest looked at each other with ugly expressions.

This meant that Tan Yeluo would be in charge. Since she won't even ask the elders for their opinions, it was obvious that their rights were being reduced.

On the surface, it looked like Tan Yeluo was discussing with them, but most of the candidates were suggested by Tan Yeluo and had to be reviewed by her. No one cared about their opinions from beginning to end.

The elders understood it in their hearts. They wanted to say something but could not.

Master Buzhou was still kind. "Amitabha, whatever the Alliance Master says!"

Although they knew that he had always been aloof from worldly affairs, he was only biased towards Su Cha. Tang Hefei and the others glared at Master Buzhou.

Mo Weiyuan felt that he had learned something new.

Usually, he would have to discuss with at least a few elders in the Alliance. He had never been as decisive as Su Cha. For a moment, he was impressed.

He felt that though Su Cha was young, she did not seem like a girl who knew nothing. Instead, she looked like a scheming tyrant!

No one could disobey.

For a moment, Mo Weiyuan's thoughts were complicated. As an outsider, it was not good for him to intervene in the Star Alliance's matters. He did not know if Su Cha's behavior was good or bad.

However, he knew that the elders of the Star Alliance were troublesome. It was a good thing that Su Cha could suppress them.

Su Cha looked at everyone with different expressions and said loudly, "Now that Elder Cheng's matter has been settled, what else do you have to say to me? If there's nothing, the trial will end today. It will be hard for the elders to rush back overseas. I will treat you tonight at the most famous hotel in the Imperial Capital."

After saying that, Su Cha prepared to leave. The others looked at each other. Shi Wei and the rest nodded repeatedly. Just as they were about to say that this was enough, Tang Hefei, Lin Yin, and the rest looked at each other and realized that they might not have a chance if they did not say it. Since Mo Weiyuan was here, it was a good time to make him suspicious of Su Cha.

Tang Hefei glanced at Lin Yin with a grin. “Alliance Master, you said just now that you want us old guys to set an example. Then I would like to ask if you’re setting an example?”

His words had deep meaning. Su Cha immediately looked at Lin Yin.

The others looked at Lin Yin in surprise. What’s wrong with the Alliance Master?

Seeing everyone’s eyes on him, he reached for and took something out. A stack of photos was thrown on the table. The contents were very eye-catching.

Chapter 744: How Can You Prove It?

The photos were very eye-catching. They were of Su Cha entering Dawn.

It was no secret that Su Cha went to Dawn. The key thing was that she went a second time to see the Killing Alliance Master and brought Fu Mo along.

There was a whole stack of photos. Back then, Su Cha had destroyed the internal surveillance cameras in Dawn’s territory, but she did not bother about the surveillance cameras outside. Hence, when she saw the photos, she narrowed her eyes and smiled.

She did not panic and looked at Lin Yin slowly. “What do you mean?”

Lin Yin was a smiling tiger. He usually looked crazy, which made him seem more sinister than anyone else.

He chuckled as he looked at Su Cha. “I think Alliance Master Su is not unfamiliar with the scene in the photo. The first time you went to Dawn Club, it was because that kid from the Bo family was attacked. We can understand why you were angry. But the second time, rumors about the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance had appeared, and you still went to Dawn Club. Everyone knows that Dawn Club is the territory of the Killing Alliance. The Killing Alliance has never been on good terms with us. Dawn prohibits anyone from the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance from entering. As the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, you have been entering and exiting Dawn Club repeatedly. It's hard for us not to make conjectures. Alliance Master Su and this Killing Alliance..."

He paused, but his words were enough to make one's imagination run wild.

That's right. The Killing Alliance had never been on good terms with the Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance. If Su Cha could come back safely after going in and out twice, that was akin to slapping that Alliance's face again and again. How could the Killing Alliance let Su Cha in so generously?

Moreover, Su Cha was the Alliance Master. Even if she could enter, shouldn't she avoid suspicion?

Moreover, the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance was here. How did Su Cha come out safely?

Or did she have something to do with the Killing Alliance?

Su Cha immediately understood what he meant, but she was fully confident when she entered the room that day and did not panic.

Shi Wei's expression turned ugly. "Elder Lin, what do you mean?"

Su Cha was selected by him. If Lin Yin suspected that Su Cha was a spy, then what did that make him, the Sect Master of the Heaven's Secrets Sect, who had personally predicted Su Cha's existence?

Tang Hefei looked at Shi Wei and raised his hand to suppress him. "Hey, Stone Door Master, Elder Lin is doing this for our own good. You might believe that the Heaven's Secrets Sect's deductions are never wrong, but Alliance Master Su's background has always been unclear. What if you made a mistake? What kind of place is the Killing Alliance? It's too unbelievable for Alliance Master Su to come and go as she pleases."

These words were almost transparent. Mo Weiyan did not expect the situation to become like this. He was dumbfounded.

He could only brace himself and say, "Sigh, there are some things that must not be said carelessly. Alliance Master Su is the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. If such wild speculations are spread, it will cause damage to the stability of our two associations. Without solid evidence, the elders cannot speak nonsense!"

Su Cha suddenly held her chin and looked at Lin Yin and the rest with a smile. "Elder Lin, aren't you just trying to say that I might be a spy who came from the Killing Alliance? Of course, it's your freedom to suspect me like this, but Elder Lin, listen carefully. I, Su Cha, am not the kind of person who will remain indifferent after being splashed with dirt. I can prove my innocence, but after disproving your allegations, Elder Lin, I don't know if you can bear the price."

These words were full of threat. Tang Hefei's face twitched and he calmed down. He smiled and said, "Alliance Master Su, this is a reasonable doubt. If you prove your innocence, we will apologize if we guessed wrongly. But how can you prove it now?"

Chapter 745: Strange

The atmosphere became strangely silent.

Su Cha still had a smile on her face. Even when Lin Yin directly accused her, her expression did not change.

However, everyone could clearly feel the change in the air. It was as if half of the air had been sucked out while the remaining half filled the room. Breathing gave people the illusion that they would lack oxygen in the next second.

After a while, Su Cha, who put pressure on everyone, said slowly, "Elder Tang, don't you want to know how I got out of the Killing Alliance territory safely? It's very simple. You just beat them until they are afraid of you and don't dare to stop you. Isn't that enough?"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

So simple?

But it seemed to be as simple as that.

Since Su Cha entered the Star Alliance, she had not fought many times, but her methods were indeed unbelievable. She could even handle Mo Weiyuan with ease, which proved how strong she was.

But it's not for nothing that the so-called Killing Alliance had been able to go against the two associations for so many years. How could Su Cha deal with so many people from the Killing Alliance at the clubhouse so easily?

Wan Youtian was the first to sneer. "What kind of joke are you making? How many people have the Killing Alliance killed? We believe in your skills, but isn't it a fool's dream to attempt to deal with so many people? Could it be that the Alliance Master is already strong enough to fight 100 alone? No matter what, there are still guns in there!"

In the current martial arts world, one had to admit that no matter how strong one's martial arts skills were, they still had some reservations about guns.

Unless they were fully prepared to face the enemy head-on, the elders were confident that they could dodge one or two bullets. This was already beyond the imagination of ordinary people. Tang Hefei and the rest could not do anything else.

Dawn's territory was heavily protected. How could Su Cha fight there alone?

Were the Dawn members stupid? They fought Su Cha head-on and did not want to threaten her with guns?

They did not believe it.

"A gun?"

Su Cha frowned and relaxed. The smile on her lips was a little strange. "Since Elder Wan doesn't believe me, why don't you try it yourself?"

As soon as she finished speaking, before Wan Youtian could react to what she meant by personally trying it, he suddenly felt a strong force coming at him. Wan Youtian and the chair seemed to have been pushed by someone, and the chair quickly retreated.

Bang!

He only stopped when he hit the pillar behind him. He was shaken by the force and almost vomited blood.

This almost caught everyone off guard. When they saw Wan Youtian, the others shouted in shock, “Elder Wan...”

Mo Weiyuan looked at Su Cha with his eyes almost popping out.

There was no need to think or guess anymore. A living fantasy had appeared in front of them. They had to believe it.

In other words, Su Cha wasn’t being unreasonable!

Tang Hefei’s pupils constricted violently. He recalled the previous Star Alliance Meeting when Cheng Deyue rebutted Su Cha. At the end, when he held Cheng Deyue down, the powerful force he felt at that time still flashed in his eyes.

In the past, he was just suspicious. Now that the truth had appeared in front of him, he had to believe it.

This new Alliance Master’s strength and methods were on a completely different level from theirs!

Shi Wei was also very shocked. He could not predict Su Cha’s fate before, but now it seemed that it was extremely strange.

Chapter 746: Aircraft

Everyone knew what the martial arts world was like. Those legendary methods had already become mere legends.

This was the first time they saw someone use a non-scientific power... It was even supernatural.

Being pushed in front of everyone, Wan Youtian felt as if his organs had almost shifted. He was old and nearly could not breathe after being tortured. When he looked at Su Cha, his eyes were gloomy and angry, but deep in his eyes, everyone gradually saw a hint of fear.

No one was unafraid of the unknown.

They did not know much about Su Cha, so they naturally did not know that Su Cha knew how to use true inner force. They could only think of this power as unknown, and they were afraid of the unknown.

Even Jin Mou, who was standing by the side as a bystander, could not help but cover her mouth and almost scream when she saw this change.

It was too unbelievable!

She did not expect to encounter such a thing on this trip.

She looked at Su Cha in shock. She did not know where to begin. She had developed an unfathomable feeling towards this girl who had participated in the competition with her.

This emotion was not unfamiliar. It was just Jin Mou's understanding of her.

She now knew how shallow her understanding of Su Cha had been.

There was dead silence. No one spoke. Only Su Cha, who had attacked Wan Youtian, was left. She held her chin and looked at Tang Hefei with a strange light in her eyes. "Elder Tang, you saw it too. In front of me, you won't even have the chance to use a gun. I'm not afraid of modern equipment at all. I can tell you clearly that I did the same thing when I entered Dawn's territory. Forty people were instantly crippled by me. They are still lying in the hospital. If you don't believe me, you can ask around. I don't believe that Elder Tang doesn't have a spy in the Killing Alliance all these years."

"The so-called spy in your eyes is a joke. I had easy access to the Killing Alliance Master. The reason why I'm willing to waste my time with you is that I had my own considerations when I promised the Stone Door Master that I would be the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. I can guarantee that the Star Alliance will not be finished in my hands, but it will be different with you old things interfering."

Her words gradually turned cold, which was equivalent to completely stepping on the faces of Tang Hefei and the rest.

They felt that something was wrong. Even if Su Cha's methods were heaven-defying, it should not be like this.

However, under her strong deterrence, Tang Hefei and Lin Yin's eyes flickered wildly, but they could not speak.

She looked at everyone in turn. When Mo Weiyuan met Su Cha's gaze, his heart trembled.

Only now did he know that he, the Martial Alliance's Alliance Master, was probably invited to serve as a contrast...

After saying that, her voice became lazy again. "You are slandering me by saying I'm a spy from the Killing Alliance. Elder Tang, I've said before that you won't be able to afford the price for such an act. From today onwards, you should return to your country and stay safe. I will watch over the country. Nothing will happen. You are already old. Rest well for a while. The people outside can't say that I, as the Alliance Master, don't know how to be understanding."

The three of them were furious. It was obvious that she wanted to take them down.

She had just crippled Cheng Deyue, and now she was directly controlling the three of them. Su Cha might really be able to do whatever she wanted in the Star Alliance!

Chapter 747: Enlightenment

The difference between Su Cha and others was that she did not know how to talk nonsense with others. For example, what she was saying now might seem like she was being considerate on the surface, but who could not tell what she was trying to imply?

Mo Weiyuan was dumbfounded by Su Cha's series of actions.

Why did he feel that if Tang Hefei and the rest had just left obediently like Su Cha had said and not done this, this would not have happened?

It was obvious that Su Cha wanted to mess with them. She had just dealt with Cheng Deyue and did not have an excuse to deal with them. Tang Hefei and the other elders... she was sending them to their deaths?

Seeing that Tang Hefei and the rest did not dare to say anything, Su Cha frowned. "Why? Are you unwilling?"

She sneered and mocked, "Just now, you were so muddle-headed that you thought I was a spy. With your current vision and ability to act, I don't expect you to be able to take the Star Alliance away. I asked you to go back and retire. It's for your own good. Don't you appreciate it?"

Tang Hefei's and the other two's ears were ringing.

The three of them looked at the others. The others more or less avoided their eyes. It was obvious now that whoever went against Su Cha would die.

Su Cha's young age was not the main issue. More pertinent than that was her strength. None of them was stupid. If Su Cha really wanted to kill, the three elders would probably have died several times.

Shi Wei sighed and suddenly said, "I know the three elders' concerns. I, Shi Wei, the Sect Master of the Star Alliance's Heaven's Secrets Sect, swear here that if the person I chose does anything that goes against the Star Alliance's will, I will be struck by lightning and the legacy of the Heaven's Secrets Sect will be terminated!"

Jin Mou exclaimed, "Master..."

Shi Wei waved his hand, and Tang Hefei almost could not help but curse. Everyone knew how much he valued the Heaven's Secrets Sect, and they also knew how much he valued passing it on. Making such a vicious oath was equivalent to throwing his life away.

But who needed him to swear!

Su Cha's words just now were to take them down. Now that Shi Wei had made an oath, it was equivalent to helping a tyrant do evil. He could help Su Cha prove her innocence, and there was a guarantee. But the three of them were taken down!

Master Buzhou was not involved. Now that the Alliance Master had made a move, he naturally would not get involved in this muddy water. He kept saying Amitabha. A monk was merciful, but he refused to help them say anything.

Lin Yin wanted to curse.

Since the threat was already at this level, no matter how many people there were, they could not afford to lose face. What could they say now? If they said that they were unwilling, Su Cha had already shown her strength, and they did not know what methods she would use to deal with them in the future. They might as well go overseas now. At least Su Cha's hands could not extend that long. It was not like they did not have power overseas!

Tang Hefei stood up and snorted. He flicked his sleeves and left.

Lin Yin also knew to bring Wan Youtian along. After being pushed just now, Wan Youtian would probably have to rest well for a while.

Seeing them leave, Su Cha suddenly smiled and clapped her hands. "Today, happiness has come!"

Before coming here, she had actually had the other three's names blacklisted. Foreign countries were not within their jurisdiction, but at least, these people could not ask for help within the country.

Everyone glanced at her, thinking that if Tang Hefei and the others saw her reaction, they would probably be angered to death.

Mo Weiyuan's admiration for Su Cha could not be expressed in words. Strength was secondary. Just with Su Cha's words, she could control everything. It was simply too much!

Chapter 748: It Won't Be Good

Su Cha was very happy and invited the others to eat.

On the way, Tan Yeluo smiled and said to Shi Wei, “The Alliance Master is really powerful.”

This was easy to understand. Everyone cherished their lives. The power that Su Cha displayed was too strange. She did things so irregularly and strangely. Now, she was only hinting at making a move. What if something really happened to Tang Hefei and the others?

No one could guarantee that Su Cha would not do that.

More importantly, no one would have evidence.

Although she was the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance and did not advocate killing each other, in the current situation, either Tang Hefei and the rest continued to control her or Su Cha took all the power.

Shi Wei knew very well that he had taken advantage of Su Cha.

Shi Wei sighed. “Ever since she took over the position, she has been able to do whatever she wants.”

In a short period of time, the four elders were settled. The remaining Master Buzhou, who was originally dedicated to Buddhism, would not care about these matters. No one in the Star Alliance could restrain Su Cha.

He did not know if this was good or bad, but he had chosen her. At least from the looks of it, Su Cha did not seem to be a bad person.

Shi Wei believed in his own judgment.

The group of people did not tell anyone about what had happened today. However, Tang Hefei and the others were angry. A few people in the alliance group had left the WeChat group. This was hilarious.

In addition, Cheng Deyue's matter had to be made public. Later on, some news spread. Cheng Deyue was crippled because he deserved it. However, the other three elders had been sent overseas, and the authority in their hands was now concentrated in Tan Yeluo's hands. People could still smell the difference. Wasn't this what being controlled looked like?

D*mn, the Alliance Master has only been in office for a few months. Is she so decisive?

It's true that the reputation of these elders in the Star Alliance was not good.

The Star Alliance was dominated by families and sects, so this matter did not affect the upper-class people much. However, it was still a blow to the families who had been in close contact with the elders. It was just that Su Cha's heart was focused on dealing with the elders. These families did not care about them. Some families were quick to act according to the situation. When they saw the elders fall, they did not hesitate to defect.

Su Cha went home to rest for a few days. The internal families of the Star Alliance came to visit several times. The Lookout Pavilion did not allow people to enter, but they were still allowed to visit, even if only in the main hall.

It was rare for her to have some free time. Now that her time with him was being taken over by a group of outsiders, Bo Muyi could not hold back his jealousy for two days. After that, he got someone to spread the word that the Lookout Pavilion officially prohibited outsiders from entering.

Su Cha found it amusing. "They just want to show their loyalty as soon as possible. It's hard for me to do this."

"I don't care. You spend your time with me at home."

Bo Muyi rested his chin on her neck and hugged her waist. He rubbed against her and said, "Dawn hasn't been peaceful these days. I heard it has something to do with Greya."

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. "Oh? Why is it not peaceful?"

Bo Muyi opened his mouth and said softly, "Internal strife."

Su Cha was stunned.

“Could there be internal strife in the Killing Alliance?”

Bo Muyi nodded. “It must have something to do with our actions. I’ve captured the hall master of Tree Hall.”

As he spoke, he narrowed his eyes and kissed Su Cha’s neck. His eyes turned bloodthirsty. “He killed more than ten of my people. I won’t let him have a good ending.”

Su Cha nodded and whispered, “He hurt you. I won’t let him have a good ending.”

Hearing this, the man was in a good mood. He did not seem to think that the girl was going against socialist values. He smiled gently and kissed her.

Chapter 749: Cold Heart, Soaring Heart

The Hall Master of Tree Hall had been captured while he was on the way back.

Over the past two days, Su Cha had taken a set of cover photos.

Among the more famous fashion magazines in the industry, Su Cha had a solo promotional episode. This was her first photoshoot, which was also given to her by Tan Jinsui.

The style of the magazine was inclined towards teenagers. For the current Su Cha, it was too easy to act out.

She was wearing a high-waisted, tight pair of pants and a sports jacket that exposed her abdominal muscles and waist. This was not a popular style of clothing, but it was a retro style in terms of clothing. Especially after Su Cha’s performance, one could not say that she was not good-looking.

Her figure was too good!

She had long, straight legs and abdominal muscles. It was obvious that she had been exercising often. Many female staff looked at her enviously.

It was simply too perfect. It was rare that she did not have a flat figure. Not only did she look good, but she also had nice curves.

With such a figure, one really did not know which beastly man would benefit in the future.

In fact, compared to boys, girls preferred to look at girls with good figures and good looks. If a person's aura was generous and easy-going, basically those with normal intelligence would not be jealous of her because they knew the difference was too big. It was useless to be jealous.

During the shoot, Su Cha listened to the photographer's advice and did whatever he asked her to do. She was also very easy-going with the staff. Her assistant also bought snacks for the other staff. This way, she won the hearts of many people.

Everyone in the industry was saying that Su Cha had a powerful background, but even if she had a powerful background, she was very quiet. With such good looks, just looking at her made one feel that she had lived a peaceful life. How could anyone not like her?

Indeed, there were some things that could not be seen if one was only looking online. One had to witness it with their own eyes.

Even if Su Cha was pretending, Su Cha was willing to pretend in front of the staff. Some celebrities would at most pretend in front of the audience, but in private, they could be nasty.

After filming many times, they had seen all kinds of celebrities.

In the middle of the shoot, Fu Mo handed over a small cake filled with cream. It was the kind that female celebrities would not touch after seeing it. However, when she gave it to Su Cha, Su Cha ate it in one bite. It was fine if she ate one, but Su Cha ate two in one go.

Then, Fu Mo handed her some water to drink. Su Cha finished it and said, "It tastes good. Buy more from this shop next time."

Fu Mo smiled. "Okay."

The photographer was a little surprised, and he looked a little distressed. "Su Cha, you can't be frivolous with your good figure! A cake like that has such high calories, so eat less!"

As a photographer, he loved to shoot beautiful things. Su Cha's beautiful figure was something the photographer could not bear to see destroyed.

Su Cha smiled and handed the water to Fu Mo. "It's okay, I don't gain weight."

She practiced martial arts every day and was very busy. She could not keep up with her consumption. It would be strange if she became fat.

Gasps came from all directions. Indeed, good-looking people were favored by God.

It was fine if she had a good figure, but she did not get fat!!

This was very infuriating!

The photographer sighed. He felt that his heart was broken, as if it was cold and his heart was flying.

In the past, he did not believe that God would allow someone to be perfect to this extent. Now, he believed it. Hence, the saying that all living beings were equal was meant to fool the ignorant masses.

Chapter 750: LeiGO!

Su Cha's magazine shoot was released quickly.

The magazine was called "LeiGO!" and was a popular fashion magazine among adolescents.

The sales of the product manufacturers that worked with them would increase every issue, so it was a magazine that many people in the industry thought highly of.

The magazine that Su Cha was working with mainly focused on sports. Together with the cover photo, she had a photo where she was holding a basketball and swinging her leg. Her expression was sweet but she was in high spirits. With her excellent figure, she was very convincing.

Soon, fans gathered on Weibo and praised her beauty.

The feedback on the forum was quickly released. If they could not find anything to mock, they could only create a neutral title.

[What do you think of Su Cha's first photoshoot?]

OP: "Like the question. This is the latest issue of [LeiGO!]. The theme is sports style, and the model is Su Cha. This is also Su Cha's first shoot, do you think it's okay? [Picture] [Picture] [Picture] [Picture]"

1L: "It's very beautiful. Her face is perfect, and her figure is excellent. Anyway, it's definitely a figure that girls are envious of."

2L: "Completely OMG!!!!!" This girl looked at her abs and long legs with tears streaming down her face!!

3L: "Oh my god, it's simply indescribable with just the word beauty. The key is that looking at her figure, she really has a very healthy and top-notch body. It's not exaggerated, but she looks very healthy and strong. In this issue of LeiGO, they seem to have found someone who fits the theme. I'll lick the screen again."

4L: "I wonder which beastly man will benefit from such a good figure in the future..."

5L: "I can't imagine that she's only 18..."

6L: "Hehe, the licking dogs out here are actual dogs. Is it that good? It's not beautiful at all. The shape of her face is strange!"

7: "I'm f*cking impressed. Such a perfect set of magazine photos can even be mocked. The photographer has even posted several comments on Weibo to express his satisfaction with one of his works. Let's not talk about anything else. Some people must be jealous of her perfect figure. After all, even if an ordinary person were to work out, it would be very difficult for them to compare with her waist. She also has breasts and a butt. Let's not talk about anything else. The best proof of God's gift of food is that..."

8L: “I agree with the comment above. With such a superb figure, if her future husband is not satisfactory, the fans might strongly protest... I really don’t know which beastly man will benefit in the future.”

While Su Cha was recording songs in the company, Tan Jinsui called her to congratulate her. “The sales of this issue of [LeiGO!] are not bad. The sales of the clothes you are wearing have increased significantly. The magazine is very satisfied. Their editor wants to work with you again. They will inform us when they are ready.”

Su Cha looked at the song sheet with the fruit candy she endorsed in her mouth. She said vaguely, “It doesn’t matter to me. I get paid for it anyway.”

Tan Jinsui: “...Can you get any more successful?”

It was not an exaggeration to call her boyfriend the richest man in the region. Her father and grandfather were also very rich, but she actually thought much of this little bit of money.

He expected better from her. “Now, we have to make a name for ourselves. You have a good figure, so you have to maintain it for me. Don’t let anything go wrong. As long as you are strict and self-disciplined, you can attract a lot of fans in this aspect. To maintain this momentum, I will not take on jobs that make it easy for you to get mocked. If I had found you earlier, I would not have let you participate in Dreams in Progress.”
