

The Queen 771

Chapter 771: I Don't Know Who Zhai Yao Is

Su Cha's angle was tricky and her question was strange. Lian Chi did not expect it.

He was speechless and quickly said, "I was really too busy..."

It was obvious that what she had said was unrealistic, but Lian Chi could not find a reason to refute her.

Su Cha just smiled and did not say anything.

Lian Chi was a smart person. He knew that he had made too many mistakes. He suddenly asked about Bo Mui. "Have you and Bo Mui... been together for a long time?"

As he spoke, he lowered his head and drank his coffee to hide his emotions. No one could understand what he was thinking.

"Does it have anything to do with us?"

Su Cha could not be bothered to answer his question.

"You..."

Lian Chi raised his head. He seemed to be a little angry because of Su Cha's repeated attacks.

Pain flashed in his eyes. "You weren't like this in the past. I said that I've had my difficulties. Why can't you understand me or forgive me?"

"Forgive?"

Su Cha raised her eyebrows in surprise. "Why do you need my forgiveness? Your matter has nothing to do with me. How can I forgive you?"

She had always been very clear about not mixing Lian Chi's matter with her.

This made Lian Chi very uncomfortable.

He was finally a little angry. "I know you still blame me in your heart, but you can't erase our relationship just like that."

Su Cha remained calm and said, "We never had one."

Lian Chi's heart skipped a beat. He wanted to say something, but in the end, he suddenly became calm. His smile was even a little cold. "When you were young, you always followed me. 'Brother Xiao Chi, Brother Xiao Chi,' you called me. Do you think I didn't know back then? You always treated me as his substitute. I only felt that you were looking at his shadow through me."

His sudden words stunned Su Cha.

A substitute?

She didn't have her memories at that time. She did not even know who Bo Mui was, but Lian Chi said that she only regarded him as Bo Mui's substitute?

But how did Lian Chi know about her childhood with Bo Mui?

Seeing that she did not speak, Lian Chi thought that he had guessed her thoughts. Unexpectedly, she smiled and said, "If you think I was using you as a substitute, then that must be how it was."

It was too funny.

She only treated Lian Chi as a family member, but to him, she was doing something that should make her feel guilty. In that case, Su Cha admitted it.

Perhaps she really remembered Bo Mui subconsciously, so she treated Lian Chi as his shadow.

These words made Lian Chi's expression turn ugly. He could not bear it anymore, but Su Cha's words stunned him. "I don't care if you had difficulties in the past or if you think that I only saw you as a substitute. I want to know what you intended by making Zhai Yao get close to me."

She had kept this matter in her heart from the beginning. In the end, she had to ask.

She used to be so close to Lian Chi. Why did he send Zhai Yao to get close to her in the end and lie to her that he had difficulties when it came to contacting her?

He could contact Zhai Yao, but he could not contact her directly?

From the beginning, he had been lying to Su Cha.

When he heard Zhai Yao's name, Lian Chi's pupils constricted. He restrained his emotions and picked up the coffee cup to stir. "Who is Zhai Yao? I don't know him."

Su Cha sneered.

Chapter 772: You Are Not Su Cha

"You can investigate everything about Bo Muyi that's related to me, but you don't know about Zhai Yao."

Despite knowing that he was lying, Su Cha could not tell what he was thinking. Anyway, she could not be bothered to put on an act with him.

Due to her timely rebirth, many things that happened in her past life did not take place, but Su Cha could not pretend that they did not happen.

Those things had been done.

No matter what the reason was, it was not enough for Su Cha to forgive him.

Lian Chi's fingers tightened. "When did you know?"

Since Su Cha had already said it so clearly, there was no need for him to lie anymore.

“Early on.”

She gave a vague answer, but it also showed that she had known about it long ago.

Su Cha looked at the man’s expression. He was very subtle. There were many psychological activities, but there were not many emotions on his face. Even if it was such an awkward matter, she could only see a flash of defeat in his eyes.

After a long while, he said, “I just wanted Zhai Yao to take care of you.”

Su Cha chuckled. “At that time, you thought I was an innocent girl who’s easy to fool, right? Don’t you know what happened to Zhai Yao? At that time, I really wanted to break his legs, but I thought that since you were the culprit, I shouldn’t take it out on him too harshly.”

Lian Chi looked at Su Cha and suddenly felt that she was a little unfamiliar.

In the past, Su Cha was obedient and cute. She would not show such emotions in her eyes. Now, she was so cold that people could not look at her.

“Zhai Yao told you?”

Lian Chi had always thought that he had hidden this matter well. How did Su Cha know about it?

Unless Bo Mui told her.

But...

Bo Mui might not even know that Zhai Yao was sent by him.

He did not tell anyone.

“Ah...” Su Cha raised her eyebrows. “At that time, I asked Zhai Yao if you sent him. It seems that he doesn’t know who you are, so do you think he told me?”

Lian Chi’s eyes darkened.

Zhai Yao had never told him about this.

Of course, after that, Su Cha had already left Yonggu City. He had not completed his mission, and Lian Chi could not be bothered to contact Zhai Yao. But he did not expect that Su Cha had already asked about this matter and Zhai Yao had not told him.

There was a murderous look in his eyes, but Su Cha did not see it.

When he looked up again, he was much calmer.

“What did you want Zhai Yao to do?”

Lian Chi remained silent.

Perhaps he did not know whatever it was Zhai Yao did.

When he left, he did leave without saying goodbye.

But he was worried about her.

Except that, with his father’s strength, he would not let Lian Chi be associated with someone like Su Cha. He needed to marry a lady from a better family.

When he found out about Su Cha again, she was Bo Mui’s girlfriend. At that time, Lian Chi knew that he had no chance.

He was just indignant.

Faced with his silence, Su Cha looked at the time. "It's about time. We've talked about it. Since there's nothing else to say, let's say goodbye here and pretend we never met. Forget about the past."

Pretend that there was no past. This way, when she wanted to attack in the future, she would have no scruples.

He suddenly looked up and said in an ethereal tone, "You are not Su Cha."

Chapter 773: Worm

Su Cha paused and stopped moving. She smiled mockingly. "If I'm not Su Cha, who can I be?"

"I don't know."

There were complicated emotions in Lian Chi's eyes, but there was no warmth.

He shook his head as if he was talking to himself. "She's not like this. If it were her, she wouldn't be like this."

If it were in the past, she would not be like this.

Perhaps with just a few words from Lian Chi, Su Cha would soften her heart.

However, after experiencing so much, it would be stupid to fall for the same trick twice.

She snorted. "Just pretend that I'm not Su Cha."

He could tell that he was not the original Su Cha.

He did not know what could have caused such a huge change in her. After all, at this time, other than her suddenly participating in the competition and being with Bo Mui, nothing else had happened that would cause such a huge change.

Naturally, he did not know that Su Cha might have died long ago.

Su Cha left and went out to settle the bill.

She only had her cup of fruit juice. She did not want to owe him, nor did she want to be involved with him anymore.

The kidnapping incident had not happened yet. For a moment, Su Cha could not determine if Lian Chi had done it.

Now that it was clear, if Lian Chi refused to give up, he would definitely do something.

She was waiting.

When she was about to leave after settling the bill, Lian Chi did not come out. Su Cha glanced in his direction lightly and paused.

Just outside their private room, there was a black centipede worm lying at the bottom of the wall.

The location was very hidden. There were not many people in the cafe, and the waiters who came and went did not notice.

If they saw it, they would definitely scream.

Su Cha was not unfamiliar with such bugs.

Greya?

She narrowed her eyes and did not understand Greya's intention. If she was following her...

She started to feel angry, but soon, her anger turned into doubt.

If the worm had been following her, she would have noticed it, but she had just noticed it.

So the bug... came with Lian Chi?

In an instant, Su Cha seemed to have thought of something, but it disappeared too quickly. She did not manage to catch it, but an instinctive question arose in her mind. Why was Greya monitoring Lian Chi?

All along, other than her dispute with Lian Chi, she had never associated with Lian Chi about anything else. But now that she saw this bug, Su Cha suddenly had a strange feeling.

She retracted her gaze and pretended that she did not notice anything. She left the cafe and got into the car. There was no sign of her being followed. The bug did not follow her.

Su Cha was deep in thought. When she got into the car, she instructed the driver to drive straight home.

Her phone vibrated. Bo Muyi had called her and asked, "When are you coming back?"

He was trying to hide his anger.

Su Cha found it funny, but she quickly answered, "I've finished the discussion and will be back soon. I'll tell you something strange when I get back."

Hearing that Su Cha had something strange to tell him, Bo Muyi reluctantly turned his attention to it. "Hmm?"

Su Cha coaxed him, "Just wait a little longer."

The man replied softly, "Okay."

Chapter 774: Him and the Killing Alliance

When she returned home, a certain someone had been waiting for a long time.

When Su Cha saw him, he was sitting alone. His handsome face was cold and tense. It was obvious that he was gloomy.

Everyone knew that he was in a bad mood.

No one dared to provoke him when he was in a bad mood. At this time, no one was waiting around.

Seeing that Su Cha had returned, he raised his head. His tense expression gradually eased.

“Didn’t I tell you I’ll come straight back after the talk?”

She walked over and sat next to him. Holding his forehead, she lifted Bo Mui’s face. This joking action did not disgust him. He looked at Su Cha with bright eyes and said in a clear and hoarse voice, “I just don’t want you to meet another man.”

“I interact with other male celebrities every day when I’m with a production crew.”

Bo Mui frowned. “That’s different!”

The nature of work and private contact could not be compared.

He would be jealous, but not unreasonable.

Su Cha found it unreasonable.

“Okay, I’ll tell you what I talked to him about.”

She told Bo Mui what she had said to Lian Chi today and did not hide anything from him. When he heard about Lian Chi asking Su Cha if she could forgive him, this petty man felt that something was wrong. “What does he need your forgiveness for? He has nothing to do with you!”

It did not matter why he left.

At that time, Bo Mui thought that Su Cha had someone to rely on and did not pay much attention to her. Of course, as he grew older, Bo Mui felt increasingly anxious. Fortunately, Lian Chi had left early, so he did not investigate him.

However, in his eyes, such a person did not deserve to have anything to do with Su Cha after he left without saying goodbye.

Even if Lian Chi jumped out to say that he wanted to become like siblings with Su Cha again, he would never allow it.

“Yes, I said it very clearly.”

She really did not have any feelings for Lian Chi now. Even her hatred had faded a little. It was not that she did not hate him, but her mind was now a little calm.

However, she still told him what she saw at the cafe. “Muyi, didn’t I tell you that Greya is a parasite breeder? I saw that Lian Chi has a parasite following him today. I can’t be sure if Greya is the only one raising a parasite in the Imperial Capital. Or does it mean something else? Why would someone send a parasite to follow Lian Chi?”

Bo Muyi’s expression turned serious. “A Gu worm?”

Su Cha nodded, and Bo Muyi frowned slightly.

“I’ve never relied on him in the past.” Su Cha pondered. “But would Greya send a Gu worm to a stranger for no reason?”

That would really be hard to explain.

Bo Muyi suddenly said, “If the Gu worm is really Greya’s, have you thought that she did it on purpose?”

The angle of his conjecture was different. Su Cha was stunned and found it unbelievable. “Are you saying that she’s giving me hints on purpose?”

What was it?

Greya sent a Gu worm to follow Lian Chi, and this was to warn Su Cha that Lian Chi was related to Greya.

This meant that Lian Chi was related to the Killing Alliance!

She straightened her body and suddenly thought of something.

Her expression became serious. "I can't be sure. There's no evidence."

Even if Bo Muyi hated Lian Chi, he would not do anything to slander others.

It was indeed possible.

Firstly, she had to confirm if the Gu worm was Greya's.

Chapter 775: Very Far

But her relationship with the Killing Alliance was hostile. Even if she rushed to where Greya was, she might not admit it.

They could not be sure if there was anyone else in the Imperial Capital who could have sent it besides Greya.

"I will send someone to monitor Lian Chi."

Bo Muyi's mind moved quickly. His gaze turned cold as if he had thought of something.

He did not say anything for the time being, and Su Cha did not object to it. She just nodded and said, "Okay, I will also ask the Star Alliance to monitor it."

This matter was rather subtle. Logically speaking, the Lian family belonged to the Martial Alliance's Tang Sect branch family, which was also their people.

If Lian Chi was connected to the Killing Alliance, it would be a big deal.

It just so happened that she had sent a few elders overseas for retirement. They had temporarily handed over their power in the country, and Su Cha could command some people from the Star Alliance.

Just as Su Cha started to send people to monitor Lian Chi, Lian Chi left the cafe after meeting Su Cha and made a call.

The person on the other end of the phone sounded a little impatient. "Who is it?"

Lian Chi said coldly, "It's me."

The person on the other end of the phone fell silent. It was obvious that he had heard his voice before.

After a while, a careful voice sounded, "Why are you looking for me?"

Lian Chi had naturally contacted Zhai Yao.

Zhai Yao thought that it had been a long time since the incident. Su Cha had almost crippled him. He was still holding his anger in. He did not have the ability to take revenge then, but Su Cha had left too quickly.

Seeing that Su Cha had become famous, he wanted to take revenge and spread some rumors about her. However, if he was found out, there was still Lian Chi. He did not dare to act recklessly without saying anything.

It had been a long time since he received a call from Lian Chi. He did not dare to ask for the rest of the money before the mission was completed, although he'd still called him as usual.

But he had never felt at ease.

Zhai Yao was a little flustered when he suddenly received this call today.

Beside him, Sang Shishi saw Zhai Yao's expression suddenly turn ugly. She was puzzled and mouthed, "Who?"

Lian Chi lowered his eyes to hide his strong murderous intent. His voice was calm and gentle. "Did Su Cha ask you about me?"

Although the voice sounded fine, Zhai Yao still felt a chill on his body. Something was crawling into his limbs.

He felt as if someone was strangling his throat, and it was difficult for him to speak. "I... I think... I forgot..."

His hesitant words were enough for Lian Chi to understand.

At that moment, if Zhai Yao were in front of him, he would have torn this person into pieces.

He took a deep breath and calmed himself down. His voice was no longer as gentle as before. "I'll get someone to book a plane ticket and arrange everything for you. Come to the Imperial Capital. I have something to tell you."

He hung up quickly.

At that moment, Zhai Yao panicked. Why did this employer whom he had never met want him to go to the Imperial Capital?

He wanted to refuse, but the other party hung up so quickly that he could not refuse. Besides, if he declined, he felt that he would die miserably.

His expression was ugly and fearful. Sang Shishi had not seen him like this for a long time. She asked anxiously, "What is it? Could it be that Su Cha..."

Unexpectedly, she thought of Su Cha, who had become a celebrity.

Thinking about it now, it felt very far away.

Chapter 776: Vicious

The next day at school, Su Cha received a message from the dean. He said that something had happened to Cai Zhongyi.

This matter had nothing to do with Su Cha, but when the school received the news and went to visit him, they found something they should not have found in his house. They also found out that Cai Zhongyi had an aunt who had HIV/AIDS, so they naturally guessed the whole story.

In order to confirm this, he spent more than a day before telling Su Cha.

“He fell down the stairs and hit his head. The doctor said that there was a large amount of damage to his brain. If he doesn’t wake up now, the doctor said that the chances of him becoming a vegetable are very high.”

The dean sighed. “He’s muddle-headed. Student Su, I’ve told his mother about this. His mother wants to apologize to you personally...”

“No need.”

The girl’s voice was extremely calm, as if she was listening to someone else’s business. “Tell his mother that this matter is over. If she comes to apologize, Dean, you should know that this matter won’t be pleasant if it gets out. I don’t want to be entangled by the media.”

Cai Zhongyi had paid the price. It was enough.

“Okay.”

However, because of the seriousness and specialness of this matter, they did not spread it out openly.

It was best for Su Cha to not pursue the matter.

Cai Zhongyi had already gotten his retribution.

Of course, with the testimony of Cai Zhongyi's mother, no one would have thought that this matter was related to Su Cha.

It did not matter. Before she could attack, Cai Zhongyi ran out in fear and fell down the stairs. It saved her the effort to attack.

During lunch with Fu Mo, Fu Mo had already hacked into the school's computer and learned everything. She felt that Cai Zhongyi's actions were purely for retribution, but she was puzzled. "Does he not know that while HIV is infectious, it will die soon after leaving the human body? Even if you were pricked by the needle, you wouldn't have been infected. What harm would that do you?"

"He knows. If he didn't know, he wouldn't have arranged a backup plan. He said that he entered the changing room to steal a few personal clothes. What he needs isn't me getting infected. I just needed to be pierced by the needle."

Su Cha lowered her eyes and explained while eating, "My identity is that of a celebrity and a public personality. Everyone knows about the HIV virus, but not many people know about it in-depth. Once I'm pricked, even if I'm not infected, as long as the needle is revealed to be infected with HIV, everyone will subconsciously suspect me. People's words are scary. In such an environment, a person can easily be driven crazy. Even if I'm not infected, I will feel that I'm infected. I may not feel that way, but... This is the same as knowing that a person is an HIV patient. Even though they know that as long as I don't have contact with them, they won't be infected, people will still subconsciously reject me."

"When the time comes, rumors about me will spread, just like what happened with the Qin Bei he adores. He thinks that Qin Bei has been destroyed by public opinion, so the same should happen to me. Indeed, if a celebrity is rumored to be HIV-positive, even if it's fake news, do you think he or she will stand up and clarify? The more they clarify, the more suspicious they will appear. It's the same if one doesn't clarify at all. It's obvious what would happen next. This would be a dead end. This is the result he wanted."

Fu Mo glared and felt a hint of anger. "He's really vicious. Thankfully, you were alert enough to notice the needle."

Chapter 777: It's Showtime

"He said it himself. If it didn't succeed this time, there would have been a next time."

At this point, the girl smiled lightly. “So there won’t be a next time.”

Fu Mo was stunned.

“He’s not...”

She suddenly thought of Cai Zhongyi’s accident and was surprised. “Student Su... You went to his house?”

She lowered her voice in fear of being heard.

She knew that if Cai Zhongyi could do such a thing, why would he suddenly have an accident at home?

It sounded strange for him to step on empty stairs.

Su Cha immediately understood her thoughts and said directly, “I didn’t believe him from the beginning. I went to his house and found out that it was really him. However, it really had nothing to do with me that he fell unconscious. I went in at that time, and he wanted to kill me with a knife. Later, he realized that it was useless to attack me, so he rushed out the door in fear and fell.”

Fu Mo sneered when she heard that. “What retribution.”

She had no sympathy for Cai Zhongyi. As Su Cha had said, if he failed this time, there would have been a next time. Who knew what he would have done next time?

It was really scary for a female celebrity to have such malicious intent directed at her.

She thought about it and was a little worried. “Will they find out?”

Su Cha shook her head. “There are no surveillance cameras there. No one will know about my visit.”

She was not worried that Fu Mo would tattle because she knew that she would not.

Besides, no one would believe it.

After all, Cai Zhongyi's mother was at home. She had said that her son had stepped on air. Who would think that there was someone else in the room?

As long as Su Cha made the arrangements, it was enough. The students who had some connections soon found out the truth.

Even if the school did not announce it, it was enough for them to know in private.

However, some people said that they could not tell that Cai Zhongyi was such a vicious person.

He usually appeared thin and weak, and his family background was not good. He was very wooden and did not often interact with his classmates. He was silent and looked very easy to bully.

Some boys with strong personalities liked to tease him.

They did not expect him to use such a move without saying anything.

What Su Cha could think of, some people could also think of. Even if it was not infectious, if it were them, they would definitely not have interacted with people who had directly come into contact with such an infectious object.

Cai Zhongyi was very vicious.

Many students in the school were also afraid. There were still some students like Cai Zhongyi in the school. After this matter, most of the students in the Imperial Capital University kept a low profile and tried to be friendly to their classmates.

In recent years, many dormitory mates had gotten into trouble. Even the Imperial Capital University was afraid, so the students of the Imperial Capital University started to encourage each other to love each other.

Even if they had objections, they would not say it in person.

For a moment, the school's atmosphere became harmonious.

On the one hand, the school leaders were shocked. On the other hand, they felt gratified after getting to see the bad behavior that the students could be capable of. However, they would definitely not say this out loud. After all, it was an unbelievable vicious method.

Even if there was some silver lining in the end, this could not change the nature of the matter.

People nowadays were forgetful. Soon, with the arrival of other events, this matter was gradually forgotten.

It was almost time for the New York show.

Chapter 778: Glory for the Nation

Before the show, Su Cha received a task.

Though it could not really be considered a task since it came from Yun Zu.

Elder Yun called her and told her, "Alliance Master Su, it's time for you to bring glory to the country!"

Su Cha: "..."

Actually, her eyelids twitched when she saw the call from him. As expected, nothing good happened.

She sighed. "What is it?"

"Do you know about the Spring Festival Gala held in China every year?"

When they talked about serious matters, Yun Zu spoke more normally. "Originally, the plans for this year were all done being arranged, but there was a sudden change. At the beginning of next year, our country will hold a world cultural art exhibition with the United States, the United Kingdom, and dozens of other countries. There are many aspects to this exhibition. Due to the re-appearance of the Tang embroidery this year, the higher-ups had an idea. They want you to produce a Tang embroidery work. They want you to appear at the Spring Festival Gala first, and then submit it to the exhibition as a representative work of China next year. This is a matter of pride. Alliance Master, as a citizen of China, can you refuse?”

Su Cha: “...”

It was not difficult for her to embroider a piece of work, but the key was that she did not know how big it would be.

Su Cha had an ominous feeling about attending the Spring Festival Gala. “What kind of embroidery do you require?”

“You can decide what to do with the theme. It’s fine as long as you meet our country’s requirements. Isn’t next year the year of the monkey? Can’t you just do an embroidery related to a monkey? Let’s follow the national standards and make it about ten meters in length. How about that?”

“Ten meters!”

Su Cha almost vomited blood. “Do you think I’m a god? Am I supposed to only embroider for you before the Spring Festival Gala? Do I not also have to go to school or work?”

“Sigh...”

Yun Zu was also quite embarrassed. “I think you can still do it with your strength. If you hurry up, I promise to compensate you properly. I’ve mentioned your matter to the others. If you do this embroidery, we will give you a reward of about 5 million. Of course, this is your reward. The work still belongs to you, this money is not payment for it. Also, if the official television station has any resources, they will give you a spot. Aren’t you also a celebrity? Isn’t this very beneficial to you?”

Su Cha: “I’ll think about it.”

But she changed her stance quickly and said three seconds later, “I agree.”

For a moment, Yun Zu did not know whether to be shocked that the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance would give in for money or rejoice that Su Cha had agreed.

After hanging up, Su Cha frowned.

She really agreed not because of money, but because even a fool would know not to give up the resources of the official television station.

At least, S's identity would bring benefits to her celebrity status, so she agreed.

Since Yun Zu said that it would be the Spring Festival Gala, she would hand it to him a few days before the new year.

There was not much time left. It would be the new year in three months.

Three months, ten meters...

Ordinary embroiderers could not do it at all. Yun Zu only asked her because he knew she used seven needles. She was thus much faster than others, but she still had other business to attend to.

She was at home with Bo Muyi. When Bo Muyi saw Su Cha pick up the phone, he looked a little troubled. He walked over and was buttoning his shirt. Su Cha saw that and helped him button it. The man lowered his eyes. "What's wrong? You seem to be in a bad mood."

After buttoning his clothes, Su Cha shook her head. "I'm not in a bad mood."

She took Bo Muyi's coat and told him about what Elder Yun had said.

Chapter 779: Different Treatment

"They want you to embroider a ten-meter-long work before the New Year?"

Bo Muyi did not know much about ordinary embroidery. After all, people like him were only suited to be audiences.

However, he knew what ten meters meant. “Isn’t that a little too much?”

Even if it was a request from the country, he still frowned and suspected that someone was deliberately targeting Su Cha.

“Not really. Master Yun Zu knows me well. If it were me, I would indeed be able to do it. It’s just that I can’t rush my work right now. I’ll have to use the rest of my free time to embroider.”

This was the marvel of Tang embroidery. It was difficult for ordinary people to embroider anything as quickly as her.

Your usual embroidery work would take a year, not to mention such a complicated one.

Bo Muyi put on a coat as well as a black windbreaker. He was so handsome and tall that he looked like a model on the runway. However, even a model would not be as dazzling as him.

Su Cha smiled. “Go to work. I have to go to class soon.”

Bo Muyi curled his lips and suddenly lowered his head. “I want a goodbye kiss.”

Su Cha gave him a big kiss. Not far away, Bai Kun walked over and saw this scene. He wished he had not seen it.

What an eyesore! He bullied his girlfriendless subordinate every day.

In the past, he was worried about what would happen if Bo Muyi could not find a girlfriend. Now, he suddenly regretted worrying about his superior.

If he had not managed to find someone as beautiful, what of it?

It would have served him right for showing off their affection every day.

After Bo Muyi left, Su Cha officially started to busy herself with embroidery.

Since she had given her promise to Yun Zu, she could not go back on her words. There were only three months left. On the way to school, she drew the template of the embroidery on the drawing board.

Since it was a monkey year, she might as well draw a picture of a monkey hugging a peach.

It was also a metaphor for the Immortality Peach Banquet.

There were lively and intelligent little monkeys jumping around on the peach trees. Occasionally, a few little monkeys would hug a peach that was as big as their faces and laugh, looking very happy.

Other than the trees, peaches, and monkeys, there was no need to draw anything too complicated like a diverse scenery. Add a few pieces of gravel and grass, and it would be a vivid and lively embroidery. It was only a drawing right now, but Su Cha's drawing skills could not be considered godly, which was common with people who could master embroidery.

As she headed to school, she drew on the drawing board. However, this work would be displayed at the Spring Festival Gala. She avoided the crowd and did not let anyone notice what she was drawing.

The embroidery was ten meters long. Her drawing board was digital since ordinary drawing boards would be too bulky to use.

When Fu Mo came to look for her, she was in a secluded corner of the campus. As it was her, Su Cha did not hide anything. Fu Mo saw Su Cha holding a drawing board and drawing non-stop and smiled curiously. "When did you start drawing? Is it a new hobby?"

After a few simple glances, Fu Mo praised, "It's not bad. That's quite a cute little monkey."

Su Cha smiled. "Is there anything scheduled this afternoon?"

Fu Mo exclaimed and took out a small laptop. "Yes. Uncle Tan has already prepared a few sets of clothes for the Chanel show. You have to go over to try them today to see if they are suitable. If they are not, we have to change them."

Usually, the size of such branded clothing was based on the model's standard size. Only celebrities could see if they looked good in it first. For others, it did not matter if they were suitable or not.

But Su Cha's treatment was different.

Chapter 780: In My Eyes, You Are the Most Beautiful

Su Cha and Fu Mo went to the company to try on clothes.

Although it was called a company, it was actually equivalent to an ordinary celebrity studio. There was no one else who could serve her in the entire company.

Occasionally, when Su Cha came, the company would be busy for a while. When Su Cha was not around, these people were mostly free.

Occasionally, they would handle news about her on the Internet, eliminating the need to worry.

The ones in charge of the management were originally transferred from the Imperial Mu Group. Now that they felt too free, they were asking to be transferred back.

Since she was going to the Chanel show, she naturally had to wear Chanel's clothes.

Usually, it was not easy to borrow a limited edition Chanel outfit, but those who had been specially invited by Chanel could borrow them.

Tan Jinsui did not use his relationship with the Imperial Mu Group. He relied on his connections to borrow a few sets of new clothes from Chanel. Naturally, they were expensive and trendy.

Chanel usually went with an exquisite lady-like style. Their clothes were very retro, and they gave off an aristocratic feel.

The clothes were all hanging in the closet. With her figure, Su Cha could wear them.

It was said that Chanel was suited to exquisite ladies. In fact, it was the same as long as one's face was good-looking. However, it was indeed a disaster for some celebrities to wear it.

Su Cha tried on a few sets of clothes that suited her. These few sets of clothes were suited for everyday wear. Needless to say, the new season's clothes had a noble aura. When she tried out the most outstanding black and white classic lady dress, Fu Mo gestured. "I feel like you need to wear a hat with that."

The stylist next to her also suggested, "Yes, you need to go with a retro style, flaming red lips and all. Don't be afraid that this makeup style is not in vogue. In this world, as long as the makeup is done well, you will look very stunning."

The girl in the mirror had a simple hairstyle with her long hair down. With the dress on her, she looked lazy and casual, but it could not hide her beauty.

She would definitely look beautiful after the styling.

Fu Mo smiled from the side. "You will definitely do the brand proud."

"Whether I look stunning or not is secondary."

Su Cha did not care about this. She casually combed her hair. There was a natural noble aura around her, which was very suitable for this kind of clothing that needed to be complemented by one's temperament. Her nobility was natural. "It's enough if it makes the local netizens shut up."

Every year, there were countless celebrities who got mocked in the country.

Ordinary people didn't know that celebrities who might be so beautiful or handsome as to reach the top were not always able to control what clothes they wear. Everyone had their own insecurities, but big shots would always have some distinctive features. If these big shots could not pick an outfit that complemented their figures well, the ones who'd mock them the most were the local netizens.

Of course, foreign netizens did not think highly of celebrities who went to watch shows from other countries. Basically, their focus was the European and American celebrities.

More to the point, Su Cha's nomination for this big show was not justified. Although this invitation was a form of apology to her, in the eyes of the netizens, Su Cha had obtained it through unusual means.

“They will definitely shut up. It doesn’t matter if they mocked you in other aspects, but they’d really be reaching if they tried to mock your looks.”

Fu Mo spoke the truth. Su Cha glanced at her. “You don’t understand. Some people just want to hate. One might be as beautiful as a fairy, but those people would still find something to criticize. Even the publicly acknowledged beauties from the older generation would still get mocked by others, let alone me. I’m not beautiful enough to shut people up.”

Fu Mo’s eyes lit up. “In my eyes, you are the most beautiful.”
