

The Queen 831

Chapter 831: The Unfairness of Her First Life

When she arrived at the Zong residence, Su Cha met an unexpected person.

She saw that Zuo Zhici was also there.

She frowned and asked, "Why are you here?"

Zuo Zhici pouted. She was originally smiling, but when she heard Su Cha's words, she whispered like a punching bag, "I just came to ask something."

After saying this, she seemed to realize that she was a little afraid. She raised her head and answered, "I saw your results too. I came to celebrate with you today."

Su Cha glanced at her. "What rank did you get?"

She knew that Zuo Zhici was also in the same grade.

Zuo Zhici felt wronged. "I'm fifth! I'm right behind you. Didn't you notice me?"

Fifth place was a remarkable result.

Su Cha snorted. "It's not easy to notice someone three spots behind me."

Zuo Zhici was furious.

There was no one around. She saw Su Cha walking towards the back garden. She guessed that she was going to find Zong Yanxiu, so she followed her.

There was no one in the backyard. Su Cha felt Zuo Zhici following her and turned to look. "What do you want to say?"

She seemed to have something to say.

Zuo Zhici thought for a while and looked a little sad. "Sister, can you visit Mom? Mom hasn't been in good health recently. She has been hospitalized..."

The more she spoke, the lower her voice became. She probably knew that Su Cha would not be going any time soon, so her willpower started to decline.

Ever since Ruan Yin was hospitalized, her health had been deteriorating day by day. Her body had gradually collapsed.

Zuo Zhici did not know the truth. She'd thought that she had angered Ruan Yin by asking her such a question, and she regretted it now.

Zuo Shaoxin had invited all kinds of doctors from around the country to check Ruan Yin's body. The doctors said unanimously that Ruan Yin was not sick. The root cause was psychological, but her body would not stop deteriorating day by day.

Su Cha had heard about it, but she did not care much.

Outsiders did not know why such a thing had happened to Zuo Shaoxin and Mrs. Zuo, who used to love each other. Perhaps it was because God could not bear to see such a beautiful love.

Mrs. Zuo did not seem to be in trouble, but now that it became serious, no one could say anything for sure.

They obviously did not know the truth.

Zuo Zhici felt that if Su Cha visited Ruan Yin, things might become much better.

"I won't go."

Although this answer was within Zuo Zhici's expectations, she was still a little sad. She lowered her voice. "Sister, I know that our parents have let you down in the past, but on account that she's your mother, can you go and see her? Just one meeting is enough. I think she will feel much happier."

Su Cha never thought of herself as a good person.

However, looking at Zuo Zhici, her heart could not help but tremble. She did not know if she felt compassion.

But it was only for a short moment. Soon, Su Cha turned her head away. "I won't go. Go back and persuade her. What happened in the past has passed. Think about it. Haven't you all lived without me for so many years?"

So why are you still acting like this?

She would not be moved at all.

She knew that she hated Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin more.

But whether it was because of hatred or resentment, Su Cha did not want to have anything to do with the Zuo family.

Just as Zong Yanxiu thought, what she hated was not the abandonment these many years but the unfairness of dying miserably during her first life.

Chapter 832: Of Course Not

If that had not happened in her first life, Su Cha might have been able to pay a visit.

Seeing Su Cha's insistence, Zuo Zhici knew that it was useless to say anything more, so she stopped talking.

After looking around, Su Cha saw Zong Yanxiu and Tan Jinsui chatting together. She went forward and called, "Father."

Zong Yanxiu turned around and saw Su Cha smiling gently. "You're here?"

Tan Jinsui smiled and congratulated her when he saw her. "Congratulations, you are second in your batch."

He was convinced of Su Cha's excellence.

Su Cha waved her hand. "I'm still very regretful that I didn't get first place in the whole batch."

Actually, she was joking. She knew that she had already surpassed most people.

Zong Yanxiu quickly said, "It's already not bad that you came in second despite being so busy with television programs and endorsements. Who doesn't admire you?"

His tone was full of pride for his daughter. Seeing Zong Yanxiu like this, Su Cha felt a trace of warmth in her heart.

Although they were not related by blood, there was no better father than Zong Yanxiu.

Zong Yanxiu went in and instructed the kitchen staff to add more dishes because Zuo Zhici was also here.

After he left, Tan Jinsui told Su Cha something. "Is this person your ex-boyfriend?"

He took out his phone and showed Su Cha a report.

"He entered an agency not long ago and was preparing a solo debut. There were specialized producers who prepared everything for him. I heard that there were also several resources prepared for him. This is not a typical treatment for a newbie at all. He has someone backing him up. Someone also mentioned it, so I came to ask you."

Su Cha narrowed her eyes when she saw the photo Tan Jinsui had given her. "He is indeed my ex-boyfriend."

The person in the photo was indeed Zhai Yao.

He'd appeared in an agency and was accompanied by a girl. Su Cha could tell that she was Sang Shishi with a mask on.

The two of them had almost been scared out of their wits by her in Yonggu City. She had wanted to use Zhai Yao to lure people out, but it seemed that there was no need.

Of course, she still remembered the hatred in her past life. Now that she saw Zhai Yao suddenly appear here and was preparing to debut as a newbie, her lips curled into a dangerous smile.

It was impossible for Lian Chi not to know that Zhai Yao had come to the Imperial Capital. It could only mean that Lian Chi had orchestrated this matter.

"So what's the situation with your ex-boyfriend?"

Tan Jinsui frowned. "I don't want anyone to step on you to climb up the ranks, especially if they have anything to say. We will face the media's harassment in the future."

"No, he wouldn't dare."

If Zhai Yao dared to reveal information and step on her to climb up the ranks, she would definitely not let Zhai Yao have it easy.

However, why would Zhai Yao join the entertainment industry for no reason? This matter was obviously not simple. She planned to send someone to investigate first.

Even better was to ask what that lunatic Lian Chi wanted to do. It was just that she did not have a phone number, and it was impossible for her to call Lian Chi.

She said directly to Tan Jinsui, "It shouldn't be that simple. Help me watch him. I will act according to the situation."

Tan Jinsui nodded. "I will also ask the company to pay attention to his movements at all times. However, there hasn't been any dispute or ambiguous matter between you and your ex-boyfriend, right?"

When he came back to the country, he knew only that Su Cha was Bo Mui's girlfriend. He did not know much about Su Cha's ex-boyfriend.

Su Cha looked up and smiled meaningfully. "Of course not."

Even if there were, there would not be.

Chapter 833: The Handsome Can Be Unreasonable

At night, Bo Mui came over.

He did not seem to be in a good mood.

When he saw Su Cha, he stared at her for a long time. Su Cha felt uncomfortable under his gaze and quickly guessed that he knew that Zhai Yao had also come to the Imperial Capital.

After all, there was no reason for Bai Kun not to tell him...

After dinner, Bo Mui did not speak much on the way home. Occasionally, he would respond to Su Cha's words.

He was throwing a tantrum.

Su Cha frowned and quickly became angry. "You know that my ex-boyfriend came to the Imperial Capital?"

She deliberately did not use Zhai Yao's name. Even if he was indeed her ex-boyfriend, as long as she mentioned the word boyfriend, it would make the person in front of her furious.

As expected, Bo Mui suddenly looked at her. His whole body was filled with tension, and his gloomy aura was instantly emitted. He looked at Su Cha and said word by word, "Why didn't you tell me?"

"So, are you suspecting me now? I just found out!"

Su Cha only found out today that Zhai Yao had come to the Imperial Capital. Did Bo Mui think that she simply didn't tell him?

Bo Mui did not say anything. He lowered his face and did not know what to think. He looked wronged, but when she really felt his aura, she felt that it was a little scary.

Outside, a plaza came into view. Seeing that, Su Cha could not help but tap at the car door. "Stop the car. I'll get off here."

Who would not be angry?

The driver was generally obedient. When he heard Su Cha's instructions, he subconsciously stopped the car.

Bo Mui immediately looked at Su Cha. He probably realized that Su Cha was angry and wanted to apologize, but he could not say it. With red eyes, he looked at Su Cha like he was a pitiful cub.

Su Cha suppressed her anger and snorted on purpose. She opened the car door and got out.

There was a playground outside. Children ran around, and the dance music from the plaza was deafening.

It was obvious that this was a place for families to spend time in.

The moment Su Cha got out of the car, Bo Mui shouted, "Su Cha!"

He did not call her Cha Cha. His tone was not fierce, but it was cold, indicating that he was angry.

Su Cha turned around and glanced at him. Then, she turned back and took two steps forward.

Bo Mui clenched his fists tightly. "Su Cha, I'm angry!"

The driver glanced at the rearview mirror and wondered who would win.

Most likely, the young master would have to pay a hefty price.

The music from afar was too loud. If Su Cha did not have good hearing, she would not have heard him.

Su Cha turned around and looked at Bo Mui in disbelief. "I'm impressed by you. You were the one who caused this trouble, yet now you're saying that you are angry. Am I not also allowed to be angry?"

This scene was too much like an argument. A few children who were skating around surrounded them as if they were watching a show. When they saw the man from the car, even the children could not help but cry out.

Big Brother is like a celebrity!

No, he looks even better than celebrities!

There was also a little girl who could not help but say to Su Cha in a childish voice, "Big Sister, Big Brother is so handsome. Why are you quarreling with him?"

It was as if being handsome meant having special privileges.

Su Cha squatted down and poked the little girl's chubby face. "Because Big Brother is being unreasonable, I have to teach him a lesson."

The little girl blinked and said after a while, "You woman..."

Su Cha: "..."

Is it a law that handsome people can be unreasonable?

Chapter 834: Heartbreaking

The car door was not closed, and the traffic police had not targeted them.

When the man by the car saw Su Cha poking someone's face, his pupils constricted.

However, he knew what was good for him. He did not flare up at the little girl. He just looked at Su Cha for a long time. His eyes softened. In the end, he looked at Su Cha with a wronged expression. "You never let anything slide."

He had never won a fight against Su Cha.

"If I gave you a chance, you would go to heaven."

Su Cha was very calm. She refused to give in since she did not do anything wrong.

The driver was anxious. Young Master, show your masculinity. Where's your usual dominance when you're at the office? Where's your usual madness?

How could you let a woman ride on your head!

Unfortunately, no matter how anxious he was, he had to pretend that nothing had happened. He had to step back and just watch the show.

He even wanted to eat some popcorn.

Bo Muyi was probably thinking about something. Su Cha stood outside and did not leave. There were children around her. A few adults stared at her for a while. They probably felt that Su Cha was familiar, but they were not sure where they had seen her before.

A little boy was blowing bubbles. As soon as the bubble machine was within reach, Su Cha leaned over and blew more than ten bubbles for others. The little boy was stunned for a moment and looked at the bubbles.

Seeing that Su Cha was in the mood to play with children, the man wanted to go home even more. He could only say helplessly, "I was wrong."

He lowered his voice and apologized skillfully. Su Cha snorted. "I can't hear you."

The driver: "..."

Look, she was indeed spoiled.

The young master could not help it.

Bo Muyi had no choice. He looked at Su Cha with his bright black pupils and said awkwardly, "I'm sorry... I wasn't doubting you."

He apologized nicely. Su Cha did not care much for the words. She smiled.

Then she opened her arms to Bo Muyi. "Then stop being angry. Come, give me a hug."

She was like a normal young woman being coquettish. She even tip-toed a few times.

The man, whose face was originally covered in dark clouds, seemed to be in a better mood after seeing this scene. He stepped away from the car, and Su Cha walked a few steps towards him and hugged him.

Bo Muyi immediately buried his head in her neck, looking a little coquettish. Su Cha hugged him with her head tilted and touched his hair.

The moment Bo Muyi walked out, the surrounding children exclaimed even louder.

It was like the light had penetrated through the dark clouds. Against a colorful night sky, a man's handsome face made the best scenery in the world. Some people who turned around to take a look were stunned.

They could not believe that there was such a stunning beauty in the world. If he were to casually post a photo, it would become popular without question!

Those who reacted quickly subconsciously wanted to take out their phones to take pictures, but Su Cha reacted quickly. She blocked Bo Muyi's face without a trace and pushed Bo Muyi into the car first. Then, she entered the car and closed the door, blocking all vision.

The driver felt that Miss Su could really broaden his horizons every time.

The young master's usual principles seemed to get fed to dogs whenever he saw Miss Su.

Love makes people fall, makes people not think about progress, makes people have no principles.
It's really painful!

Chapter 835: Zhai Yao's Mischief

After arguing with Bo Muyi about this matter, she had to sort it out.

Moreover, Su Cha had said before that she had an ex-boyfriend. If the media found out about it, they might go digging further.

And there were definitely media outlets who already knew about this news. They just had to see when it would be released.

Of course, before it was exposed, with Tan Jinsui's connections in the media industry, many people would definitely ask for his opinion first.

Tan Jinsui had been in contact with people for so many years. If he did not agree to some news, he could even suppress Su Cha's dirt, let alone this kind of thing that was only convenient for hype.

Even when it came to the matter between Su Cha and the actresses Qin Bei and Jin Jiayu, there was no media outlet that would dare to expose Su Cha's dirt without permission.

Unless they were crazy about money.

Su Cha soon found out that Zhai Yao had indeed arrived in the Imperial Capital a while ago.

But he did not seem to have made any preparations to enter the entertainment industry.

Everything seemed to have been arranged for him.

Someone who was drinking with Zhai Yao as a friend found out that he seemed to be being supported by someone to enter the entertainment industry.

Su Cha already suspected who this person was.

It was probably Lian Chi.

Su Cha was still suspicious about Lian Chi's matter last time. Now, she was even more suspicious about what Lian Chi wanted to do. She carefully discussed some plans regarding the future of the Star Alliance with Tan Yeluo.

The Killing Alliance was not a source of comfort. Since Greya refused to take action, Su Cha might as well force her to take action.

Tan Yeluo had some information about the officials backing the Killing Alliance. Now, these officials had to be dealt with first to ensure that the Killing Alliance's career in the Imperial Capital would continue to collapse.

The Killing Alliance was true to its name. But then, most under it dealt in gray areas. Only some were directly black.

As long as their protective net was destroyed, it would be easy to deal with the Killing Alliance.

"I do have some information, but it will take some time to destroy them. The Imperial Court is currently in the midst of a dispute between the major forces. Once the war starts, our forces will also be affected. Alliance Master, are you sure?"

Tan Yeluo asked this meaningfully. She was not afraid and seemed to be asking Su Cha to make a decision.

"Yes."

Su Cha sighed. "It's about time. We can start now. I'm not as good as you where outright competition for power is concerned. You have full responsibility. I will be responsible for everything else privately, even if it becomes a war. Don't worry."

“Okay.”

After Tan Yeluo agreed to this matter, she started to give out comprehensive instructions.

They naturally had to work with the Martial Alliance. Mo Weiyuan and the rest were on the same side as the Star Alliance, so they naturally agreed quickly.

The three of groups had been fighting for decades. There had to be an end.

In this modern society, it was not suitable to start a war on a large scale. The first step was of course to start with the forces behind them. Only by getting rid of the other party's people could they attack other things.

Of course, this plan was not suitable to be made public. After all, no one knew how many spies there were between the two associations. Even the Alliance group chat might not be safe.

The Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance had spies in the Killing Alliance. What secrets could they hide?

While Su Cha was watching Lian Chi's movements and busy with her own matters, Zhai Yao was still up to no good.

He officially announced his debut as a newbie.

Chapter 836: Someone Is Angry

It would have been fine if he merely debuted, but his debut had caused people to pay attention to him. Soon, someone found out that Zhai Yao was Su Cha's ex-boyfriend.

She had already said that Zhai Yao's appearance was not bad. Otherwise, he would not have been able to start his career so easily.

He was a singing newcomer. He did not participate in any talent show programs and directly started to appear on variety shows. At the same time, he started to participate in activities.

His debut was sudden. As a newcomer, logically speaking, he should not be popular yet, but because he had the identity of Su Cha's ex-boyfriend, he quickly appeared in the public eye.

Huayu Entertainment Official: "Today's latest gossip. A certain fresh meat celebrity, Zhai Yao, is actually Su Cha's mysterious first love ex-boyfriend. How many points do you think he has? [Picture] [Picture]"

"What the hell? He just debuted. Why did he bring up Su Cha's name? Will he die if he doesn't make use of his identity as Su Cha's ex-boyfriend? It's obviously a publicity stunt. Disgusting!"

"Some people are very agitated. Is this person Su Cha's ex-boyfriend? Yes! Your master, Su Cha, admitted it herself. He only brought it up to explain the matter. What's wrong? Can't he do that?"

"Actually, he's not bad-looking. Looks like handsome guys and pretty girls indeed go together. But now that he's debuted as Su Cha's ex-boyfriend, hmmm, something seems up."

"Why did he suddenly debut? Is he trying to rekindle the spark with Su Cha?"

"I wonder what Su Cha will think when she sees it? First love is always hard to forget. Didn't Su Cha admit that she had an unforgettable past? It depends on that whether the two of them have a chance."

"What the f*ck is this talk of them getting back together? They've been over for so long already. Now that the girl has become popular, he wants to take advantage of her again? He still wants to get back together? Disgusting!"

...

Zhai Yao began to trend on the Internet. At least, for a short while, he did.

A show that he participated in was directly dug out by someone. They commented that something about him was difficult to explain in a few words. His singing was not very good, and it felt like he was lip-syncing.

Other than his being slightly good-looking, how did such a person manage to debut?

Su Cha's fans could not accept his use of Su Cha to become famous.

However, the anti-fans were very happy. The more Su Cha didn't want something, the more they wanted it to happen. For example, Su Cha's fans hated the thought of her reconciling with her ex.

"Actually, this newbie called Zhai Yao is quite compatible with Su Cha, isn't he? There's nothing wrong with his looks."

"Su Cha is usually quick to refute things, but she hasn't done so yet. Why are you all so anxious?]

"What if Su Cha wants to rekindle her old flame...?"

...

When the media saw such big gossip news, they naturally wanted to interview Su Cha at the first instance. However, Tan Jinsui blocked them with a sentence. "This is the truth. We won't refute it, but Su Cha is now focused on her career, and her past relationship has ended. There are some things that I hope you won't casually say. This is a young woman's reputation we're talking about, right?"

These words sounded a little threatening. He admitted that Zhai Yao was Su Cha's ex-boyfriend, but he hoped that the marketing account would not spread rumors. Otherwise, their side would sue.

After this warning was released, the media's reports came out normal. They did not reveal any other information, but it could not stop the netizens and haters from causing trouble.

As long as they did not clarify, they would always think that there was a possibility that the two of them had rekindled their relationship.

The more the people spoke, the angrier someone became.

Chapter 837: Disgusting

Bai Kun was suffering. Every time, because of some lousy matter, they were forced to bear the anger of the young master.

He lowered his head and explained what had happened online. “Young Master, should we just ban Zhai Yao?”

With the Imperial Mu Group’s ability, it would not be easy for Zhai Yao to rise up again.

“Ignore him.”

Unexpectedly, although the man was angry, he answered with a gloomy face, “I’d asked someone to expose this news. Don’t let Cha Cha know for the time being.”

Bai Kun: “...”

Young Master????

Are you crazy?

Usually, he would be angry with just her name being mentioned with someone. Now, he actually took the initiative to report Miss Su’s scandal. Didn’t it involve her?

His heart was in turmoil, and he had to pretend to be calm. “Young Master, what do you mean?”

“Behind Zhai Yao is Lian Chi.”

Bo Muiyi frowned. “I didn’t care about this person at first, but now it seems that he is more capable than I thought. I suspect that he is the Vice Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance.”

“Vice Alliance Master? The one that the Hall Master of Tree Hall refused to give up?”

Bai Kun was shocked. It was obvious that they had not investigated this matter enough, and he was also a little angry. “Then doesn’t that mean that your accident last time was also related to him?”

“He has other motives.”

Bo Muyi raised his hand and thought carefully. “It was not only related to the Killing Alliance, but also to Su Cha.”

“Miss Su?”

Bai Kun was stunned. “Could he have...”

To be honest, Bai Kun could not understand the series of tricks Lian Chi had done to Su Cha. They were childhood sweethearts, but today, they were in such a mess. The key was that he did not know what Lian Chi had intended by ordering someone to seduce Miss Su.

The young master must feel worse than him.

Bo Muyi did not say much and his aura turned cold. “I want to show them just who is worthy of Cha Cha.”

Bo Muyi chuckled softly. His smile was a little ghostly. “Is anyone else qualified to be mentioned in the same breath as Cha Cha? A while back, Su Cha had wanted to announce our relationship, but Tan Jinsui had stopped her. I don’t care about the entertainment industry. Let him go to hell!”

He wanted to see if Su Cha would fight to the end or announce his existence directly.

Even if she did not announce it, mentioning that she had a boyfriend would at least calm him down.

Bai Kun’s eyebrows twitched. In the past, the young master’s methods were direct and ruthless. Why was there a hint of black-belliedness now...

Bai Kun understood what Bo Muyi meant and lowered his hands respectfully. “Then, do we just focus on Lian Chi?”

Bo Muyi nodded. “The Star Alliance and the Martial Alliance have started to take action. Give them some information if necessary.”

“Yes.”

Everything had already begun. There was always a feeling that a storm was coming.

It had indeed been snowing in the Imperial Capital recently. It was a rare snowstorm. Even when the snow covered the ground, there was only enough to build small snowmen that would melt quickly.

It was rare to see the people in such a university at the Imperial Capital celebrating. There were photos of people from the Imperial Capital everywhere on their Moments and Weibo.

Su Cha was wearing a white down jacket, and her face was covered up completely.

She was taking a break from embroidery, so she decided to play in the courtyard.

The matter online was indeed bothering her.

The main reason was that those people kept saying that she wanted to reconcile with Zhai Yao. God knew that she felt disgusted just by seeing Zhai Yao's name.

Chapter 838: Explosion

Because of her recent frustration, Su Cha started to think about Tan Jinsui's suggestion.

He did not want to expose Bo Mui's existence, which meant that she could not admit that she had a boyfriend for the time being.

But now that the public was upset, she wondered if she should announce that she had a boyfriend.

However, that would definitely attract some speculations. She would instead be seen as someone with a sugar daddy.

But the situation was different now.

In fact, when news about Zhai Yao broke out, the first thing she wanted was for the company to suppress it. However, it exploded rather quickly and could not be suppressed at all. Zhai Yao also had a backer, and she felt that it was Lian Chi.

However, Bo Muyi usually knew that this kind of news would explode immediately. Yet he did not do anything to completely kill off Zhai Yao's chances.

She'd also asked last night. Bo Muyi said that he wanted to see Lian Chi's movements.

Su Cha did not know why Lian Chi would report that Zhai Yao was her ex-boyfriend.

She could not help but feel that Bo Muyi's reaction was a little unusual.

After playing with the snow for a while, Su Cha soon received another piece of news. Tan Yeluo told her that resulting from the recent movements of the Star Alliance, which involved collecting materials to target the officials behind the Killing Alliance, an internal official from the Star Alliance who went out today died in a car accident.

It looked like an accident, but Tan Yeluo knew that it was murder.

"The Killing Alliance has made a move."

They were much more ruthless than the Star Alliance. They killed people directly.

Su Cha was expressionless. "Let's do it."

Once such a war started, there would always be casualties. The people sitting in this position more or less had interests involved. The Killing Alliance aside, if they died, it would be considered as contributing to the country.

If it were another Alliance Master, they might have paused to consider it. Su Cha's direct order made Tan Yeluo hesitate. "Shall we attack directly?"

Su Cha exhaled and white mist came out of her mouth. "Someone will eventually die. I'm being watched by someone. Now, it's time to see who will survive."

If she lost, she would be finished. If the other party lost, the other party would be finished. It was that simple.

This battle was not only private but also unstoppable, even by the Imperial Court. Once she lost, Su Cha would definitely not be able to gain a foothold on the world above.

Perhaps she could only keep her life.

So, they wanted her to behave like a gentleman?

Of course she would not.

Dawn would still make a move. Even if they did not, Greya would.

After giving the order, Su Cha went out.

She drove a car out herself. In the Imperial Capital, cars worth millions were not too high-profile. Her hat was big and she was wearing sunglasses. Basically, no one could tell it was her.

Unless it was a paparazzi with sharp eyes.

Su Cha drove to a mall and bought some things for embroidery.

After that, she went to the underground parking lot. The moment she approached the car, her expression suddenly froze. Then, she quickly retreated and ran to the other side.

Three seconds later, her car exploded.

The impact was so strong that Su Cha could feel the huge wave even if she was far away. The entire mall was shaken by the explosion. Su Cha turned around and saw flames filling the sky. At that moment, her inner force surged wildly and she forcefully moved the cars parked beside hers to avoid them being burned by the fire and causing more explosions.

Only her car had started to burn after the explosion.

Chapter 839: Running Out of the Country

She arrived at a safe place with a gloomy expression.

The mall was filled with screams. No one knew where the violent explosion came from. Fortunately, there was no one else around except her.

Naturally, no one died.

Su Cha quickly left the parking lot. It would be a matter of minutes before someone found her here. The fireproof device should have automatically called the police, and the fire department would arrive soon.

She was still being targeted by someone. She'd been driving alone and was not in the car that the Bo family often used to pick her up. This was the first time she drove out. It should have taken a lot of effort to recognize her among the crowd.

It had only been a while since she went to the mall.

What could have happened if she had not suddenly felt that something was wrong and heard an extremely soft voice? She could not even be sure, but her body had already reacted instinctively.

As long as she was not in the car, or even just near it, it might not have killed her. But if she had gotten into the car, she would have died.

When she returned home, the explosion had already been reported on TV. Soon, Su Cha received a call from Bo Mui. "Cha Cha, are you okay?"

He sounded anxious, but it was normal. He probably knew that Su Cha was fine.

"I'm fine. I was suddenly attacked."

Su Cha explained what had just happened in detail. "I didn't sense anyone following me. They must have found me somewhere and took the chance to attack."

"I will investigate. Don't leave the Lookout Pavilion for the time being."

Even after he found out that Su Cha was very skilled, although there were still secret guards following her, he also still kept track of her activities.

No one had expected what happened in the parking lot.

“The Killing Alliance was probably the one who attacked you...”

Su Cha frowned. “Are you sure it’s the Killing Alliance?”

It was easy to understand that the Killing Alliance wanted to deal with her. If they wanted to kill her because of recent events, it was within expectations, but Su Cha had to be sure.

“The results will be out soon. There are surveillance cameras in the mall. Even if they are destroyed, there will be other clues.”

Bo Muyi assured her, “Stay at home and wait for me. Be good and don’t go out. Let me worry.”

Su Cha hummed. “I’ll wait for you.”

She did not idle at home and asked someone to investigate what had happened at the mall.

She had just told Tan Yeluo that it was time to attack, and now the Killing Alliance was attacking her?

In the end, this matter quickly drew to a close. To Su Cha’s surprise, it was not the Killing Alliance that had attacked but an assassin organization. It was a high-tech assassin organization composed of civilians, and it had nothing to do with the Killing Alliance.

They knew about the existence of the Killing Alliance, but they did not know much about Su Cha. They only took action after receiving the mission.

They knew that Su Cha had spent a lot of effort to investigate the matter in the mall. They only planned to take action when they saw Su Cha’s figure in the mall. Of course, the investigation was so clear because the person who did it was caught directly. The organization could not resist the pressure from China and directly exposed the employer who’d paid for the assassination.

When Su Cha saw them, she was surprised.

She had thought that the two of them had already gone to the underworld. One of them had almost died and should have been as quiet as a chicken. Who knew that they would dare to hire someone to harm her?

These two people were Qin Bei and Jin Jiayu.

The two of them had jointly offered 10 million yuan and paid an assassin to attack Su Cha. Now, other than Jin Jiayu, Qin Bei had run overseas.

Chapter 840: Unconscious

“The plan didn’t succeed?”

Qin Bei was already overseas and not in a popular country. She was as far away from China as she could be.

She still had injuries on her face, so she had to go to the local hospital every day to see if her face could recover.

She came there alone. No one knew her. She had a huge sum of money on hand as she was originally in the entertainment industry. As long as nothing happened, she could continue living here peacefully.

Her only connection to China was Jin Jiayu.

Of course, she had to pay attention to the matter of ending Su Cha’s life that she paid five million yuan for. But now that she was on the phone with Jin Jiayu, she used a foreign language to ensure that she would not be exposed.

Hearing that Jin Jiayu’s plan had failed, Qin Bei’s face twisted. “How can it not succeed? We spent 10 million yuan. Do they think it’s for charity?”

“I heard that she ran away before the explosion happened. It did not affect her.”

Jin Jiayu took a deep breath. She was in the swimming pool at home. When she received the news, she could not accept it.

She did not understand how Su Cha had managed to escape from such a terrifying explosion.

The person who contacted her only told them that the bomb plan had failed but that there'd be further attempts. Everything else was unknown.

This made Jin Jiayu uneasy, so she quickly tried to inform Qin Bei.

This person had already gone overseas, an emperor at a safe distance. Jin Jiayu gritted her teeth and wondered if she should also go overseas to lie low.

But she could not let go of everything in this country.

“Then what should we do?”

Qin Bei's face was gloomy. Her eyes were filled with madness and hatred. She did not want anything except for Su Cha to die. Only with this woman dead could she live happily and peacefully!

Otherwise, why would she go overseas like a stray dog and hide for the rest of her life?

Su Cha could live a carefree life in the country.

The more people hated something, the more they cared about it. She even saw the recent news that Su Cha's drama was going to be broadcasted. However, this drama was originally Jin Jiayu's. If we're talking about hatred, Jin Jiayu hated her even more.

“We didn't pay them for nothing. They will naturally think of another way.”

Jin Jiayu was taking a sip of red wine as she spoke on the phone. However, just as she finished speaking, she seemed to have sensed something. She turned around in the pool and her face froze.

Then, it became a mess.

There were three men in black in front of her. They were wearing sunglasses and, without any expression, they had three guns pointed at her. The black muzzles seemed to be announcing something scary.

Jin Jiayu's scream was stuck in her throat. She suddenly stopped talking. Qin Bei had said a few words and noticed that she did not respond. "Hey." Then, she became anxious. "Jin Jiayu, what are you doing? Don't give me any trouble at a time like this!"

It was also at this moment that Qin Bei was suddenly covered over the head by something. She suddenly lost her vision and screamed subconsciously. She felt that she was being pushed forcefully. Fear started to fill her heart. There was also a disadvantage to her being overseas without any relatives. It was very easy to encounter dangerous situations.

She kept screaming and struggling. The other party probably found her annoying and hit her neck. She instantly fell unconscious and quietened down.

After a while, the sound of a car driving away could be heard.