

The Queen 861

Chapter 861: I Don't Hate You

Time flies, yet some things that should have been left in the past a long time ago were in fact always still here. They'd left behind traces that could not be forgotten.

When Zong Yanxiu came to the hospital with his walking stick, he saw Zuo Zhici standing guard.

Zuo Zhici did not expect the visitor to be him. She was surprised to see Zong Yanxiu. She had cried a while ago, and her eyes were now red. When she saw Zong Yanxiu, she called out with difficulty, "Uncle Zong."

Zong Yanxiu nodded and smiled gently at her. He asked softly, "How is your mother now?"

Zuo Zhici pointed to the ward. "She's inside. She just woke up."

She came out after she was notified that someone had come to see Ruan Yin.

She thought it was Su Cha, but she did not expect it to be Zong Yanxiu.

She looked behind Zong Yanxiu and asked expectantly, "Didn't Sister come?"

Zong Yanxiu shook his head. "Your sister said that she has something on."

Zuo Zhici's eyes darkened. Everyone knew that that was just an excuse. If she did not want to see someone, she did not want to.

Actually, she could not be blamed.

She looked up and smiled sadly. "Uncle Zong, I'll bring you in."

She brought Zong Yanxiu into the room. The pale-faced person sitting on the bed turned around and was stunned to see Zong Yanxiu.

It was as if the memories overlapped. It was as if time had passed and finally painted the familiar face of the person in front of her.

Her hands were trembling in shock. The moment she saw Zong Yanxiu, her tears fell and she said in a trembling voice, “Yanxiu...”

He stood there. Even though he was holding a walking stick, he was still as elegant as he was back then. It was just that he had become more mature over time.

It was just like the first time Ruan Yin saw him. The lights and shadows were intertwined. He was wearing a white suit and stood in the middle of the crowd. His features were picturesque, and he was magnificent. He was the perfect existence that time favored the most.

He called her gently, “Ruan Yin.”

Ruan Yin.

Even after so many years, he still did not hate her.

There was a smile in his eyes, which was filled with the familiar light in Ruan Yin’s memory.

Zuo Zhici watched silently for a while before closing the door.

Some things could be discussed by the adults themselves.

He walked to the bed with his walking stick. Only then did Ruan Yin realize that something had happened to his leg. Her face turned pale as she recalled what had happened back then. She covered her face abruptly. “Why did you still come here? Why did you come to see me after what I did to you? You should hate me. You should hate me!”

“I don’t hate you.”

That’s what he said.

These words were more uncomfortable than a sentence conveying hatred.

Ruan Yin's heart ached.

How could she have done such a thing to hurt this gentle and kind person in front of her?

He had a noble background, and everything around him was perfect. He'd had such a bright future.

All of this was destroyed by her and Zuo Shaoxin.

Even though he was back now, everything had changed. They had destroyed more than ten years of his life.

Ruan Yin's body was trembling. Her body was already weak, but at this moment, she felt even worse. She had been in bad shape these past few days, and her complexion was ugly. She'd quickly aged.

Once a person started to age, they would try their best to maintain their looks. Once they relaxed, there would be a terrifying outcome.

Ruan Yin did not want Zong Yanxiu to see her current state.

"Ruan Yin."

He called her softly again, put down his walking stick, and sat on the chair by her bed.

Chapter 862: What Are You Doing Here?!

He did not say anything, which made Ruan Yin feel even worse.

She had waited for a long time. She would rather let Zong Yanxiu call her a "vicious woman" and call her shameless.

But there was nothing worse than him saying “I don’t hate you.”

Why was he so kind?

He was so kind that it was almost unbearable.

She cried, “I would rather you scold me and blame me. I don’t want to see you like this. I really regret it.”

She should have persevered back then. She should rather have died.

She should not have thought about the love in her heart and lived an ignoble life.

She could not accept the truth.

Her biological daughter was unwilling to acknowledge her, as if she was constantly reminding her of what had happened back then.

She could not bear it.

“Why?”

He just asked this lightly, his voice light and gentle. “Why don’t you ask me if I regret it? I just want to tell you that I don’t regret what I did back then, for you or for Su Cha. I came to the hospital just to persuade you. Everything has passed. You just have to be fine. Now that you have two children, you can live happily.”

“I can’t pretend that nothing happened.”

She looked up, tears streaming down her face.

“She must hate me, right?”

Zong Yanxiu was silent.

Actually, Su Cha's insistence on not visiting her proved many things.

She could not forgive the Zuo family.

Zong Yanxiu's silence also made Ruan Yin despair. "I know."

She was still timid and cowardly. Even if she asked Zuo Shaoxin the truth, she did not dare to ask Zong Yanxiu again.

She was afraid of getting a more terrifying answer.

She was afraid that he or Su Cha would tell her the truth.

She had always been like this, weak and fearful.

If she had persisted a little more back then, would she have been able to get rid of Zuo Shaoxin?

She could not get rid of it.

She smiled self-deprecatingly. If it were not for this face, why would Zuo Shaoxin have fancied her? And if she did not provoke Zuo Shaoxin, he would not have been tempted.

He was perfect back then. Who would not be tempted by such a person?

Hence, after she fell in love with him, she became even more cowardly. She did not have the courage to leave. Saying anything dignified was hypocritical. She could not leave Zuo Shaoxin.

So why did she drag Zong Yanxiu down!!

The more she thought about it, the more her head hurt. Frustration and regret filled her mind all the time. She started to lose her willpower. Sometimes, when she thought about it, she felt that she had been a hypocrite for half her life. She might as well just go.

Zhici had already grown up. The Zuo family would not neglect Nanfan. She had no worries, even if some people would be sad for her.

Despite being sad, they would still have to live well.

At the thought of this, Ruan Yin smiled weakly at Zong Yanxiu. Her lips quivered. Just as she was about to say something, the ward door was suddenly opened.

Zuo Shaoxin appeared at the door of the ward. His face was gloomy and full of anger. “Zong Yanxiu, what are you doing here?”

His sudden appearance scared Ruan Yin. From outside the ward, Zuo Zhici ran in in a panic, stammering in fear, “Mom, Dad came too suddenly...”

It would have been fine if she did not say it, but once she did, Zuo Shaoxin glanced at Zuo Zhici angrily, scaring her.

She had never seen Zuo Shaoxin look like this before.

Chapter 863: Jumping Down

It was so terrifying and twisted.

It was as if he was looking at an enemy.

Zuo Zhici retreated subconsciously, her eyes filled with fear.

Zuo Shaoxin was not completely blinded. He seemed to have realized that Zuo Zhici was his daughter, but he did not know what to say. He turned his head and looked at Zong Yanxiu fiercely.

Ruan Yin was stunned. Seeing that Zong Yanxiu was about to get up, she immediately stopped him and said to Zuo Shaoxin, “Yanxiu just came to see me. What do you think he was doing?”

Zuo Shaoxin smiled sarcastically. “Yanxiu, you sure are affectionate at this time.”

Ruan Yin was furious when she heard that. She scolded him, “Zuo Shaoxin, are you crazy?”

She almost screamed.

For so many years, she had endured this man. She thought that he had changed, but she did not expect that after seeing Zong Yanxiu, he would return to his original nature.

So he had never changed. He had always been like this!

Zong Yanxiu stood up. Zuo Shaoxin looked at him coldly. There was no shame in his eyes.

Zong Yanxiu smiled lightly. “What can I do? I know Ruan Yin is your wife. Don’t worry, I won’t do anything I shouldn’t. We are old friends. We haven’t seen each other for more than ten years. Ruan Yin is not in good health. Can’t we meet?”

“She doesn’t need you to see her!”

Zuo Shaoxin walked to the other side of the bed with a pale face. He put his arm around Ruan Yin’s shoulder and kept his eyes on Zong Yanxiu.

They were all on guard.

Ruan Yin felt a sharp pain on her forehead. She scolded in a low voice, “Zuo Shaoxin, you crazy dog. You bite anyone you see.”

Zuo Shaoxin looked at her with red eyes. “You can scold me however you want. But if you do, I will kill this man.”

“Do you dare? Do such a thing again?! How can you be so vicious!”

Ruan Yin was agitated and scolded Zuo Shaoxin loudly. The more she scolded Zuo Shaoxin, the angrier she became.

Zong Yanxiu frowned and realized that Ruan Yin was in a bad state. He said, "I'm just here to take Su Cha's place and persuade her. I'm sorry if I disturbed you."

As he spoke, he smiled at Ruan Yin. "Goodbye, Ruan Yin."

These words made Ruan Yin cry again. Zuo Shaoxin clenched his fists tightly when he saw her cry. His gaze was fierce and ruthless.

Ruan Yin pushed Zuo Shaoxin away. "I need to go to the washroom."

Zuo Shaoxin had no choice but to let go of her.

Zong Yanxiu had just walked to the door of the ward when he suddenly heard Ruan Yin calling him. "Yanxiu."

Zong Yanxiu turned around. Ruan Yin smiled and blinked at him. Although her face was covered in tears, she said, "I've let you down the most in my life, and after you, my daughter. You have to take good care of her."

Zong Yanxiu nodded.

Zuo Shaoxin flew into a rage. At this moment, Ruan Yin looked at him and sneered. "Zuo Shaoxin, you were right to scold me back then. I'm indeed quite cheap."

After saying this, she ran towards the window.

Just a few steps away, Zuo Shaoxin was still by the bed. When he saw this scene, his pupils constricted.

He subconsciously grabbed at her, but Ruan Yin had already flipped over the window sill. His fingers only grabbed the corner of Ruan Yin's clothes.

“No!!!!!!!!!!”

Zong Yanxiu’s smile froze.

Chapter 864: His Thoughts Were Destroyed

Su Cha was embroidering at home when she suddenly felt suffocated.

The feeling was strong without any warning, making her feel uncomfortable.

It did not hurt anywhere, but it was uncomfortable everywhere.

Her throat was swallowing non-stop, as if something in her stomach was about to roll out and push up.

Su Cha frowned and covered her stomach, stopping her embroidery.

Bo Muyi noticed her reaction and felt that something was wrong. “What’s wrong?”

Su Cha shook her head and took a deep breath. “I don’t know. I feel uncomfortable everywhere, and my heart feels stuffy.”

She did not know how she felt.

“Are you sick?”

Bo Muyi walked over and hugged her. He touched her forehead. “Is it normal?”

He frowned. Su Cha suddenly pushed him away. “No, I think it’s not right. I want to call my father.”

***

Time seemed to have stopped.

Zuo Zhici was afraid that her father would blame her. When she heard that something was wrong, she rushed in and saw her father jumping off the window sill.

And this was the seventh floor.

“No!!!!!!!”

Zuo Zhici went crazy. She rushed to the window sill and looked down. She could only hear screams from downstairs and two figures who had fallen on the lawn.

There was a white hospital gown and a pool of red blood beside them.

Her vision blurred, and the world seemed to have gone silent.

She could not hear anything. She could only see the pool of blood expanding in her eyes.

“Mom!!! Dad!!!”

Then, she let out a shrill scream. Her body swayed as if she wanted to jump down.

Someone came forward and grabbed her tightly. “Zhici!!”

It was Zong Yanxiu’s desperate and heartbroken voice.

The moment he saw Ruan Yin jump down the building, he’d felt something collapse.

He was more desperate than anyone else. At that time, he also had the urge to jump down, but his short rationality stopped him completely.

Su Cha was still at home.

Seeing that Zuo Zhici almost fell off due to her agitation, he could only stop her in time. “Your brother is still at home.”

Zuo Zhici’s mind was in chaos. She could not hear anything.

After her heart-wrenching scream, she fell to the ground and could not hear anything.

What parents, what sister, what brother? In an instant, they all stopped mattering.

She seemed to not know what had happened as she curled up on the ground. Her whole body was in pain as if it was spasming.

After three seconds, she suddenly thought of something and remembered something. She suddenly got up and ran downstairs crazily.

Zong Yanxiu could not run fast with his legs. He had no choice but to endure the pain in his heart and follow her downstairs.

The medical staff was so scared that they could not come back to their senses. They all ran downstairs. Zong Yanxiu was halfway there when his phone rang. He heard Su Cha’s voice. “Father, are you okay? I feel uncomfortable. Are you okay?”

He seemed to have come to his senses in an instant. The usually gentle man finally realized something. He stood on the spot and stopped. On the other side of the phone, he was like a child and cried.

“Xiao Cha, Ruan Yin jumped off the building.”

His thoughts were extinguished.

Chapter 865: Already Dead

When Su Cha and Bo Muyi arrived at the hospital, Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin were in the emergency room.

Their current situation was completely unknown, but it was definitely not optimistic.

Seventh floor.

The ground was covered in grass and mud, and it was not as lethal as cement.

A few witnesses who'd fainted from fear said that one of them had crumpled on impact. It was obvious that it was hopeless.

Bo Mui's sudden appearance in such a place attracted the attention of many secret guards.

Su Cha saw the man waiting outside with red eyes. Her heart ached. "Father."

She shouted and walked over.

Zong Yanxiu looked at her with a sad expression. He looked at Su Cha and could not say a word.

Su Cha hugged him. "Father, don't say it. I know. I know."

For so many years, he had always loved Ruan Yin.

To others, he had been unconscious for more than ten years, but to him, it had only been a short time.

His memory of Ruan Yin was still that from the past. His love for her still existed.

That was why he'd asked Su Cha to give up her revenge.

But no one expected that after she gave up on revenge, such a thing would still happen.

Su Cha did not know what to say. From her standpoint, she should have all kinds of emotions, but she had nothing.

She'd felt suffocated at home. She thought that something had happened to Zong Yanxiu, but she did not expect it to be Ruan Yin.

After all, they were related by blood. Even after more than ten years, that feeling still existed.

Even though she had arrived at the hospital, her heart was still beating faster than usual.

Bo Muyi also sat down.

He was expressionless. Seeing Su Cha hugging Zong Yanxiu, he did not say anything.

When Su Cha turned around and was about to open her mouth, Bo Muyi pressed her into his arms.

"Don't say it, I understand."

He was not joking, nor was he imitating Su Cha.

Su Cha remained silent and stayed in his arms for a while.

Zong Yanxiu, who was at the side, did not pay attention to them as he was concerned about other things.

Su Cha looked up and glanced at the surrounding people. She frowned and said, "No one from the Zuo family? Where's Zuo Zhici?"

"She fainted."

Zong Yanxiu sighed. "She's resting in the ward. Nanfan is still in piano class, so I didn't dare to inform him. As for his grandparents, they went to Hong Kong for some activity today and will be back soon."

Su Cha nodded and did not ask further.

Two hours had passed. The lights in the emergency room were switched off first. Su Cha looked up. A doctor in a white coat walked out first with a serious expression. "Mr. Zuo is still in the midst of emergency treatment. Basically, his leg has been fractured. He can only be in a wheelchair in the future... As for Mrs. Zuo."

He sighed and shook his head. "I'm sorry. We've tried our best. Mrs. Zuo has passed away."

Zong Yanxiu's face turned pale. Su Cha turned her head away in an instant. As if she realized that she had the wrong reaction, she looked back and said calmly, "We know."

If one listened carefully, they could tell that her voice was unstable and trembling.

She should have been prepared for this.

Why did she feel sad?

Chapter 866: Meeting Her Last Time

The doctor looked at them strangely. He knew clearly who Mr. Zuo and Mrs. Zuo were, but the ones in front of him...

Why haven't I seen them before?

However, there was no one else here. They were guarding here, so he could only inform them temporarily.

Zong Yanxiu suddenly said, "Can we see Mrs. Zuo one last time?"

The doctor paused and did not speak.

Zong Yanxiu pointed at Su Cha. "This is also Mrs. Zuo's daughter. She was raised outside and did not come back to the family."

The doctor looked at Su Cha and felt that she looked like Mrs. Zuo. He also knew that most of the people who lived here had complicated identities. After thinking for a while, he agreed.

“Please wait a moment.”

It was confirmed that she had passed away and could not be saved. The hospital could not do anything about it. If they wanted to see her for the last time, it was fine.

Bo Muyi touched Su Cha’s finger. She looked over and smiled sarcastically. “Sometimes, God is unfair.”

The evildoer had kept his life, and the other one departed.

Bo Muyi held Su Cha’s hand completely. His eyes were deep, but his words were merciless. “Maybe this is the result she wants.”

Zuo Shaoxin’s ability to jump down without hesitation proved that he really loved Ruan Yin.

Ruan Yin was dead, but he was alive.

There was no situation more desperate in this world.

Su Cha looked at Zong Yanxiu. “Father, what happened?”

She had only asked Zong Yanxiu to visit Ruan Yin once. Her original intention was to persuade her, but in the end...

She did not sympathize with Zuo Shaoxin at all, but towards Ruan Yin, she hated her for being disappointing, but she could not resist feeling sympathy.

After all, she had given birth to her.

Just forgive her. When she thought of everything in her first life, she could not help but feel resentful.

Just like how she could not forgive Lian Chi. Everyone was the same.

Zong Yanxiu lowered his eyes and recounted what had just happened. “I thought that after so many years, Zuo Shaoxin had changed. People outside said that they are very loving now. I didn’t expect it to be like this. Ruan Yin... Ruan Yin is just tired.”

Zong Yanxiu could see her hatred, resentment, timidity, and cowardice.

These turned into mountains that pressed down on her, making it hard for her to breathe.

Even after so many years.

Zuo Zhici’s questions were the last straw.

However, Zong Yanxiu did not know what the real shock was.

He just thought, feeling lonely, “Maybe I shouldn’t have woken up from the beginning?”

Nothing would have happened if he hadn’t woken up.

“What are you thinking about, Father?”

Su Cha grabbed his sleeve and stared at him. “This has nothing to do with you. Don’t take responsibility for everything.”

Just like Bo Muyi had advised her, she said, “You are the most innocent one here. Some things should not even be borne by you. Zuo Shaoxin’s actions are retribution. Ruan Yin... Ruan...”

Actually, she could not say it.

A pitiful person had aspects that were hateful. Sometimes, these were justified, but sometimes, they were not entirely right.

Some people were hateful because they were pitiful.

Zong Yanxiu raised his lips and realized that he could not smile anymore. He did not know how to smile.

Just then, the doctor came over and said that they could see Ruan Yin for the last time. Just as Su Cha and the rest were about to go over, a girl's shrill cries suddenly came from the ward.

Su Cha's ears pricked up as she looked over. "Zuo Zhici is awake."

Chapter 867: Untitled

Since she was awake, Su Cha, Zong Yanxiu, and the rest immediately rushed to Zuo Zhici's ward.

As to be expected, the ward Zuo Zhici was resting in was a small ward. The windows were closed.

She had woken up and knew what had happened. She was crying miserably.

Hearing the voice, she looked up and saw Su Cha and Zong Yanxiu coming in.

Bo Muyi stood outside. He did not care much about the Zuo family. He was a cold person.

Zuo Zhici was stunned for a moment when she saw Su Cha. She choked and called out, "Sister."

She was on the verge of breaking down. Her voice was filled with despair.

Su Cha walked over and remained silent, not knowing what to say.

Zuo Zhici had now lost her mother, and she did not know what happened to her father. After all, she was innocent.

Zong Yanxiu stood by the side sadly. Other than him, the girl in front of him was probably the most desperate.

She had been raised in a greenhouse and had never experienced such strong stimulation. After all, she had grown up under Ruan Yin's love and care.

Now that such a thing had happened, she found it harder to bear.

After she cried a little, she finally calmed down. Her voice was hoarse and she was still crying. "Where are Dad and Mom?"

Zong Yanxiu glanced at Su Cha. Su Cha thought for a while and said directly, "Your father is still being rescued... We are preparing to see your mother for the last time. She has passed away."

Sometimes, Su Cha felt that she was cruel.

Just like now, she could actually say this fact indifferently.

However, it was the truth.

Ruan Yin had passed away.

No one could change this result.

She did not expect it and could not change it.

Perhaps she would be like her, reborn at the beginning.

If there was such a chance, she hoped that Ruan Yin could at least stop something from happening. Even if she could not return to the Zuo family, at least Zong Yanxiu's safety had to be guaranteed.

Su Cha gradually calmed down.

But Zuo Zhici could not understand. When she heard this news, her face turned pale.

She had just woken up. At this moment, she was agitated and felt her vision turn black as if she was about to faint again.

The moment she fell, Su Cha held her and whispered in her ear, "I know you are sad."

Other than that, she could not say anything else.

Zuo Zhici's face was pale and she had lost her spirit. She suddenly wanted to get off the bed and staggered up. "Where's Mom? Where's Mom? I don't believe it. She definitely didn't. She didn't... Maybe I was thinking too much. I was just having a nightmare..."

She was so anxious that she wanted to run out. As soon as she woke up and got off the bed, she almost fell. Su Cha grabbed her but did not stop her. She knew that Zuo Zhici must have thought of this incident as a nightmare.

However, when Zuo Zhici ran out of the ward, she saw the lights in the emergency room and the busy doctors.

She stood outside the ward as if she had regained her focus. When she regained her senses, she screamed in the corridor.

She completely broke down and cried, screaming hysterically.

Chapter 868: Preparations

This was normal.

No girl who grew up in a greenhouse could face such an accident calmly.

Su Cha and Zong Yanxiu did not stop her.

It was better to let her cry than to keep it in her heart.

In the end, she went to see Ruan Yin for the last time.

The once magnificent and devastatingly beautiful woman was already lying on the bed, covered by a white cloth.

They asked the doctor if they could take off the white cloth so they could look at her for the last time.

Zuo Zhici was supported by Zong Yanxiu and had no strength to cry. She looked at the white cloth as if she would collapse at any time.

Su Cha slowly lifted the white cloth.

Ruan Yin's pale face was reflected in everyone's eyes.

Even Zong Yanxiu could not help but close his eyes.

Zuo Zhici was trembling as if she had fallen into a cold cellar.

Su Cha looked at her face and was in a daze.

There were still some marks on her forehead. If one took a closer look, they would see that they were deformed. However, the doctor had dealt with them and removed the dirt on her face.

She just lay there quietly, still maintaining her original appearance, just a little haggard.

She seemed to have fallen asleep.

However, her face had already started to turn gray.

After watching for a minute, Su Cha could not help but put the white cloth back. "Forget it."

Zong Yanxiu glanced at Su Cha. His eyes were filled with loneliness and sadness. Zuo Zhici, who was supported by him, was in a daze as if she had lost all her emotions.

“Someone from the Zuo family will deal with it.”

Su Cha glanced at Zuo Zhici and could not bear it. “You have to go back.”

Zuo Zhici did not react. It was as if she was frozen in space.

Su Cha lowered her head and went out alone. Bo Muyi was standing there. When he saw Su Cha coming out, he walked over and held her hand. “You don’t look good. Maybe you’re uncomfortable. Let’s go back early. Grandpa Zong will be coming soon. Many people have already received the news.”

This matter was too unbelievable and shocking.

How could the loving Zuo couple jump off a building?

Moreover, Zuo Shaoxin was usually cold and hard in the business world. He had offended many people. In the past, they did not dare to provoke him. Now that such a big thing had happened, it was hard to say if anyone would attack the Zuo family.

Now, Zuo Zhici and his brother were the only ones in the Zuo family, and the old couple did not have much control.

However, Zuo Shaoxin was not dead.

Su Cha thought for a while and nodded. “I’ll go back with you first.”

It was better to go back now. It was useless to stay here. The Zuo family would come to deal with Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin.

As an outsider, Su Cha felt a little uneasy.

Su Cha went to take leave of Zong Yanxiu. “Father, I’m going back first. Do you want to go back with me?”

Zong Yanxiu glanced at Su Cha and sighed. "Grandpa will be here soon. I'll go with him. You and Mui can go back first."

Su Cha glanced at Zuo Zhici, who was sitting by the side in a daze. Zong Yanxiu said, "There are people watching. Nothing will happen."

Su Cha nodded and went downstairs with Bo Mui.

As soon as she went downstairs, she saw Old Master Zong rushing over.

Zong Bingyi saw Su Cha and Bo Mui coming out and quickly asked, "How are things now?"

Chapter 869: How Did It Provoke Her?

Before Su Cha could speak, Bo Mui answered on her behalf, "Zuo Shaoxin is in the emergency room. Ruan Yin has passed away."

Hearing this news, Zong Bingyi's old face showed a hint of disappointment.

He had always hated the Zuo family, especially after what Zuo Shaoxin had done to his son.

But now that these things had happened, he reacted and gritted his teeth. "Why didn't he die?"

He knew that Zuo Shaoxin was the source of everything.

Naturally, he hated Zuo Shaoxin to the core and had no sympathy.

When he had received the news, he was surprised that his son was here, so he came to take a look.

Su Cha and Bo Mui did not say anything. Zong Bingyi glanced at Su Cha and saw that she was doing fine. He nodded and said, "I'll go in first. You can go back. Someone will inform you."

Then, he went up.

After returning home, Su Cha looked at her phone and received some messages of concern.

These messages came from martial artists, such as Yun Zu and Mo Weiyuan. They were all private messages.

In fact, these martial artists knew about Su Cha's matter. After all, she had to be involved with these families on the surface. It was just that they did not have a deep relationship usually, but everyone knew about the big news now.

They did not discuss it in the group because this matter was awkward. It was said that the Zuo couple was Su Cha's biological parents.

Her biological parents had jumped off a building. Who would dare to gossip in the group?

Elder Yun sent private messages to Su Cha, asking if she was doing well.

Doing well?

Not really.

Not good, that's all.

After all, Su Cha did not have much say in this matter.

She replied to almost all the messages. She thanked them for their concern and expressed that she was fine.

However, while she was embroidering, she still felt uneasy and uncomfortable. She felt mentally exhausted and went to bed early.

Bo Muyi did not disturb her and let her rest quietly.

Su Cha was dreaming.

In the dream, she seemed to have returned to the past, back to her first life.

She lived an ordinary life and did not know who she had offended for her to be kidnapped.

The moment the gunshot sounded, she saw Bo Muye's soul-stirring face filled with pain and sadness.

In the end, when he fell, Su Cha seemed to have screamed in her dream.

Then, she went to her second life.

From the shock and confusion of her birth, she familiarized herself with the ancient life step by step. She avoided all kinds of schemes and hidden harms and gained a foothold in the palace.

She had someone in her heart. When she was betrothed, she refused firmly and ended up with the reputation of an old princess. Later on, her brother died in battle, and the princess consort also hanged herself at home. She only had a son who was a few years old. The old emperor thought that she would not marry or have children, so he let her raise him.

Scenes of the past played out in her dream. Everything was clear and complete.

Su Cha did not sleep well the whole night. She wanted to wake up but could not. It was as if she was experiencing everything. For a moment, she did not know if she was in a dream.

It was not until she suddenly opened her eyes that she realized that it was already bright outside. The temperature in the bed beside her had already cooled down, which proved that Bo Muye had left.

It had been so long, but this was the first time she did not feel anything.

She touched her forehead and found that she was sweating.

She curled her lips and smiled helplessly. What had triggered her yesterday?

Chapter 870: Funeral

“Zuo Shaoxin has been rescued. His legs are fractured. He can no longer walk upright. He can only spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair.”

Unexpectedly, Tan Jinsui called to inform her about the Zuo family.

When he spoke about Zuo Shaoxin’s fate, he could not hide the joy in his voice.

Yes, Su Cha and the rest had complicated disputes, but he did not.

He regarded Zong Yanxiu as his best brother and the person he loved the most. In the end, after what had happened, he only had complete hatred for Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin.

Now that Zuo Shaoxin had ended up like this, it was already extremely kind of him not to applaud and cheer.

He wanted to mock Zuo Shaoxin.

Su Cha had just woken up. She washed her face to wake herself up. She asked, “When is Ruan Yin’s funeral?”

“Three days from now.”

Tan Jinsui said, “You don’t know how interesting Zuo Shaoxin’s expression was when he woke up and heard that Ruan Yin was dead.”

As he spoke, he started to laugh. However, as he smiled, there was a hint of sadness. “Your father did not sleep well last night. He said Ruan Yin’s name the whole night.”

He did not take the opportunity to do anything. He usually slept with Zong Yanxiu in the Zong family. Of course, there were two beds.

The two of them were brothers. Zong Yanxiu was never by that.

When he heard the news last night, Tan Jinsui came to accompany him. Zong Yanxiu had a nightmare and called Ruan Yin.

Tan Jinsui felt worse than anyone thought, but he could not confess his feelings out loud.

Let's not talk about Zong Yanxiu for now. He loved Ruan Yin so much, how could he be in the mood to tolerate others?

Su Cha asked with concern, "Is Father feeling better now?"

"He felt better when he woke up in the morning, but he doesn't look good. If you have nothing to do these next few days, come to the Zong family home to accompany your father."

"I know."

Needless to say, she would go over when the time came. After all, Zong Yanxiu had also been agitated.

Perhaps he was thinking that if he had not gone over, these things would not have happened.

He always took responsibility for everything.

Ruan Yin's funeral was held very quickly. Three days after the incident, some people who had connections with the Zuo family from overseas rushed back.

The funeral was organized by the Zuo family's parents, and Zuo Zhici helped. Although the family did not have any particular thoughts on the matter, someone had to make the decision.

On the other hand, Zuo Shaoxin seemed to be unwilling to face everything. He locked himself in his room and refused to come out.

The servant who delivered the food said that he had not eaten for a few days. The Zuo family was also worried about his health.

His parents cried every day. No matter how they tried to persuade him, it was useless.

When he just woke up, he'd wanted to move Ruan Yin's corpse away, but he was stopped.

Of course, Bo Muyi was the one who stopped him. Su Cha felt uncomfortable. He could not let Zuo Shaoxin continue to be a mad dog.

The funeral was held as scheduled. Su Cha also went.

Even if they did not want to see Su Cha, the Zuo family's elders could not do anything about it. Everyone outside knew that Ruan Yin's jump was an accident. They only dared to say that it was an accident. If they really investigated carefully, the scandal back then would be exposed.

In any case, Zuo Shaoxin would not deny that he had tried to kill Zong Yanxiu. No one else dared to admit to this responsibility.

In the end, they followed Ruan Yin's wishes and cremated her before throwing her ashes into the sea.
