

The Queen 921

Chapter 921: Untitled

“You know each other?”

Mary walked over and saw Bill’s expression. She felt that something was strange.

Bill and Su Cha reacted at the same time.

Bill: “No.”

Su Cha: “Of course.”

Bill stiffened.

Su Cha smiled at him. “It seems that Mr. Bill has a bad memory.”

Mary Craig was surprised to see Su Cha like this. She looked at Bill again. “You know each other? Oh, Bill, I thought you didn’t care about this at all...”

She did not finish her sentence because she realized halfway that she should not say it.

Su Cha immediately understood.

Bill did not know that her real identity was that of the Asian spokesperson. Despite his identity as the creative director, it did not seem right for him to be in charge of Su Cha.

He was a racist.

It was also possible that this person did not pay attention to who she was because he looked down on Asians.

Hence, when Bill saw Su Cha in the hotel yesterday, he did not wonder about her identity at all and directly expressed his disgust and impoliteness.

Bill's cheeks twitched as he forced a smile. "Or... I think we met yesterday."

Hell.

He felt uncomfortable looking at Su Cha.

Asians' looks were not good enough for Europeans and Americans. Even if Su Cha had the type of elegant and retro beauty that European and American people rarely had, Bill still thought that Su Cha was not good-looking.

"It seems that your memory is not good. I told you that Su also checked in at your hotel yesterday. You must have indeed met."

Mary smiled as if she could not notice Bill's strange expression.

Bill lowered his head as if he did not want to stay here for long. "I'm just here to take a look. Mary, you've done well. You can continue your cooperation with her. I'll leave first. Perhaps the chief has something to tell me."

"Okay. Bye, Bill."

After Mary said goodbye, Su Cha did not say anything. She stood on the spot and smiled as she watched Bill leave. Then, Mary turned around and whispered to her, "Did you meet Bill yesterday? What... happened?"

She asked hesitantly, obviously knowing Bill's nature.

She knew that Bill despised Asians, especially the Chinese.

With his personality, he tended to say something nasty when he saw certain people. Ordinary Asians would either not lower themselves to his level, or they simply did not know English.

Of course, Bill knew the language of other countries. He might only express his dissatisfaction using another language.

“Yes.”

Unexpectedly, Su Cha did not deny it at all. Although she was still smiling, Mary could still hear the coldness in her words. “Yesterday at the hotel, it seems that Mr. Bill was very dissatisfied with my identity as an Asian.”

Mary’s smile stiffened.

Ordinary people would only choose to endure it. In Su Cha’s case, she was only an Asian female celebrity.

Even the endorsement opportunity with Hiberia had not been easy to come by. It was not wise for her to clash with a creative director of a super brand.

But she did not seem to care. Moreover, she was appointed by the old chief.

Perhaps this was something she’s entitled to do.

“I’m sorry, Su... Bill is like that. Don’t lower yourself to his level.”

Of course, Mary tried to coax her. Su Cha nodded. “Of course, I won’t.”

She had already taught Bill a lesson. Everything else would depend on whether he’d learned how to behave from now on.

It was best not to bother with him.

Chapter 922: Stalking

While Su Cha was working with Hiberia in the United States, she did not forget some things in the country.

During this period of time, the Killing Alliance seemed to be in chaos.

Bo Mui had also “unintentionally” revealed a few words in his chat with Su Cha. Their plan was about to succeed.

Lian Chi had been busy with the Lian family’s inheritance dispute recently, and with Bo Mui’s interference, he did not notice anything else for a while. When he finally reacted, the prison had already been prepared for him.

It seemed peaceful, but at this time, Su Cha suddenly felt that a storm was coming.

Logically speaking, she was in America and all of this had nothing to do with her. She would only pay attention to the Star Alliance’s movements.

However, after the shoot during the day, Su Cha received a message from Bo Mui while she was eating. “Cha Cha, be careful while you are in America.”

He knew Su Cha’s background and knew that nothing would happen to her. “Lian Chi is missing.”

“Missing?”

Su Cha was surprised. “Didn’t you say that he was busy with the Lian family matters yesterday?”

“He disappeared today. There was no news on his official itinerary. He just disappeared. In the end, I found out that he was spotted at a ferry. I suspect that he secretly went overseas.”

“Stowaway?”

Su Cha was puzzled. “Is there a need for him to sneak in? Or is he already wanted by the police?”

“No, maybe he noticed something. With his current identity, he doesn’t need to sneak in. I don’t know his schedule for the time being, but right now, you are in America, so I’m more worried that Lian Chi will sneak into America to find trouble with you.”

The man's voice was filled with worry. "I know nothing will happen to you, but I'm still worried."

Hearing this, Su Cha became vigilant. She was not arrogant. Since Bo Mui had said that there was a problem, she would naturally pay more attention.

"I'm currently running back and forth between Hiberia and the hotel. I doubt there's anywhere else I'd need to go."

Su Cha pondered. "I'll ask Tan Yeluo later if there's any news."

"Yes."

Bo Mui was busy with other things and quickly hung up.

Su Cha picked up the phone and said to Fu Mo, "Be careful if there are any strangers around the company."

Fu Mo was a capable assistant. There were some things she did not need to worry about.

Of course, she felt that even if Lian Chi wanted to do something to her, he would not do it himself. He did not have the ability.

Fu Mo nodded. "I will take note."

In another week, Su Cha would finish everything with Hiberia and return to China. Her new album would officially be released.

She had a lot of work to do today and was busy all night.

It was early evening in New York City, and there was a slight traffic jam.

In America, Fu Mo was driving.

She had taken the time to learn.

They stopped at the intersection and waited for the green light to pass. Fu Mo suddenly said, "Classmate Su, do you feel that the black car behind has been following us?"

Su Cha suddenly heard Fu Mo's words. Her eyes turned cold and she looked back.

Fu Mo told her, "The third car on the left."

Following her directions, Su Cha saw the car.

To be honest, if someone was obviously following her, Su Cha should have felt it. But now, when she looked at the car, she saw that the front was blocked by two ordinary taxis. She asked directly, "Are you sure?"

Chapter 923: Assassination

"I think so. It's been ten minutes from the company to here, and that car has kept on our tail. I tried to slow down, but the driver never overtook us."

There was clearly something wrong.

Many cars beside her had already overtaken Fu Mo. This one was following her at a leisurely pace.

Su Cha narrowed her eyes slightly. Because her senses were enhanced, Su Cha could roughly sense that there were a few people in the car.

It was too dark to tell what they looked like.

"Five."

The car was full.

It was an ordinary car. The five of them occupied the standard full seats.

“What do we do now?”

The traffic light turned green. The car in front had started to move forward. Fu Mo had to ask Su Cha for her opinion.

Su Cha hesitated and said, “Continue to drive towards the hotel. I will pay attention to them.”

Fu Mo drove the car back to the hotel as instructed. Su Cha had been paying attention to the car and found that they were following behind Su Cha’s car at a leisurely pace.

Perhaps because they were afraid of being discovered, they had been very cautious by keeping cars in between theirs and Fu Mo’s. However, they were still detected by the vigilant Fu Mo.

Through the occasional turns and deceleration, Su Cha could almost see the people in the car. They were all strong men.

They were probably from foreigners.

It was obvious that there was something wrong with their outfit. However, the hotel had security guards and other protective measures. What were this car’s occupants planning to do?

They were driving in a prosperous area, and there were basically no isolated spots anywhere. If they wanted to attack, they would not have a suitable opportunity.

“Are they just monitoring me?”

Su Cha thought for a while, but it did not seem like it.

If it was just surveillance, she would have noticed it during the day. If Fu Mo had not warned her that there was something wrong with that car, she might not have noticed them.

Hence, they must have driven over only this night.

About ten minutes later, the car arrived at the hotel.

Su Cha and Fu Mo did not drive the car directly to the parking lot. Instead, they got out of the car and asked the hotel doorman to park the car at a suitable location before entering the hotel.

They saw the car drive away without stopping at the hotel entrance.

Su Cha still felt that something was wrong.

When she went upstairs, Fu Mo took the room card and opened the door. At this moment, Su Cha seemed to see a red light. Her pupils constricted instantly, and she immediately reached out and pulled Fu Mo's body.

“Chi.”

With a strange sound, a bullet suddenly hit the door that Su Cha had not had the time to close. If she had not pulled Fu Mo away just now, the bullet would have hit her directly.

Fu Mo was shocked and broke out in a cold sweat. She said in a panic, “Classmate Su.”

Su Cha placed her fingers on her lips and suddenly opened the door and rushed in.

She used her inner force to create a barrier in front of her. At that moment, a bullet was fired.

At this moment, Su Cha had already rushed to the window.

She was staying on a very high floor. Outside, New York City was brightly lit. The colorful city lights outlined a gorgeous view.

It was there!

Su Cha's heart skipped a beat. Her pupils and intuition were locked on a hotel hundreds of meters away.

It was also a building, probably a hotel.

The bullet came from that other side.

At this moment, Su Cha could see everything clearly. She could barely make out a window the size of a rice grain. There was no light in the window, but someone was moving around.

Chapter 924: Pursuit

Killing intent rose in his heart.

Since this person wanted to assassinate her, they had to pay the price.

Fu Mo rushed over from behind. Su Cha turned around and said to her, "Fu Mo, help me control the surveillance cameras along the way later, and..."

She pointed at the building hundreds of meters away. "Check the surveillance cameras in that pointed building. The sniper is in that building. Remember, help me control the surveillance cameras."

Fu Mo seemed to be stunned for a moment. Before she could understand why Su Cha wanted to control the surveillance camera, she saw Su Cha walk to the other side, open the window, and jump.

Fu Mo: "!!!!"

Her eyes widened and she ran to the window almost instantly. She saw Su Cha's figure that was about to land on a window sill. Su Cha then stepped on the window sill and flew out like a light butterfly.

"..."

She finally understood why Su Cha wanted her to take control the surveillance cameras.

If this was filmed by someone, it would become a world-class wonder.

After managing her shock, Fu Mo quickly hid under the table and took out her laptop to work. She followed Su Cha's request and invaded the building's system.

As she watched, she could see Su Cha flying towards the building on the other side. She stepped on the bar of another tall building before flying towards the next.

However, she was very fast. She was as fast as a gust of wind. She would only stop for a moment to gather her strength before disappearing again.

This was happening so high up that anyone looking out would probably think that it was a strange thing.

"Our research report last week showed that the market... market... market..."

In one building, a group of white people from overseas were having a meeting. The person in the lead was wearing a blue suit. Just as he started to speak, he saw something outside the window. It seemed to be a person. She just stepped on the window and turned to look at him. Then, she disappeared instantly.

He was so shocked by this scene that he forgot his report. He repeated a word a few times and looked out of the window in disbelief.

The employees who were looking at him were surprised. "Are you done? Why don't you continue?"

He rubbed his eyes, unsure if he was hallucinating.

If it was not an illusion... They were on the 35th floor of this building... Was this a joke?!

Following her memory, Su Cha arrived at the right building in a few leaps. This was indeed a hotel. Although the light in front of the room was switched off, the window was open.

If no one was staying here, the hotel staff would not have left the window open.

She jumped in through the gap in the window, rolled, and stood up silently.

There was no one in the room.

She felt it the moment she landed.

Without turning on the light, Su Cha took out the phone in her coat. She had been paying attention just now and did not let the phone fall out.

She called Fu Mo and went to the phone in the room. There was information about the room there. Su Cha reported the room number to Fu Mo.

“Hmm... That person is checking out, Classmate Su!”

Fu Mo entered the website’s system and found that the checkout status had just been updated. It had only taken Su Cha a minute to arrive here. It was impossible for this assassin to have moved so quickly. It could only be that they had an accomplice, which meant that they had just left.

Su Cha quickly opened the door and chased after them.

Chapter 925: Solution

Although she wasn’t staying in this hotel, no one knew that.

There was no need for a key card to go downstairs. Heading to the elevator, she saw that there was no information about which floor it was on. She could only guess that it was going down.

Fu Mo sent the room’s booking information to Su Cha. Su Cha glanced at it. It showed a typical white youth.

He looked very young. His face was strangely pale and very eye-catching.

The other had a thick beard and bright eyes. If he removed his beard, he should look quite young.

No matter who they were, at least while they were staying in a hotel, their photo had to correspond with the real person.

Su Cha entered the elevator and quickly pressed the button for the first floor.

Fortunately, God was also helping her. Su Cha quickly arrived on the first floor.

The moment the elevator door opened, the elevator opposite also opened. A sweet smiling foreign couple walked out. Behind them was a young man wearing a hat and carrying a large luggage bag.

He was obviously stunned when he saw Su Cha appear in the elevator opposite.

The two couples looked at Su Cha in surprise. Perhaps it was because she was Asian, but they turned their heads and left without any interest. It was obvious that they did not have the same reaction as the young man carrying the bag.

He did not have a beard.

Su Cha narrowed her eyes slightly. The young man opposite her probably noticed it and pretended to be calm as he walked out of the elevator with the bag.

At this moment, Su Cha followed and whispered, "Hey, your marksmanship is really lousy."

The young man turned around abruptly. In disbelief, he clenched his left hand into a fist and subconsciously wanted to hit Su Cha. Su Cha only retreated slightly and smiled. The young man felt a huge pressure on his neck. His face suddenly turned red and he became completely exhausted. He no longer had the strength to attack Su Cha.

He reflexively covered his neck. There was no restraint, but he found it harder and harder to breathe.

Su Cha walked past him as if she did not see him. Not long after Su Cha walked out, his body was like a rag kite. He was blown far away and smashed out with a bang.

This strange movement shocked others. They saw a young man being thrown out of the sky. He hit his head on the side of an inspection equipment and fainted.

A woman screamed and a security guard immediately ran towards him. In the chaos, Su Cha saw the other young man waiting at the front desk to check out. His face was frighteningly pale.

His hand was still in his pocket.

He looked over and saw Su Cha in the crowd.

At that moment, the young man was shocked as if he had seen a ghost. He subconsciously pushed the guest behind him away and ran out.

Su Cha smiled slightly. A thin wisp of smoke shot out from her fingertips. It was almost invisible to the naked eye. The wisp of smoke shot directly at the fleeing white youth.

The thin smoke wrapped around his legs. As if someone had suddenly reached out and tripped him, he staggered and fell. The moment he fell, because he was running at top speed, his body could not stop at all. With a bang, his body fell far away and hit the door.

“Bang!” It was exceptionally loud and shocking.

Chapter 926: Don’t You Think So?

“Oh my god, what happened?”

“Oh my god!!”

“Someone is dead, someone is dead!!”

Amid the chaos and screams, Su Cha used her inner force and broke the men’s necks.

She saw that the police had found a sniper rifle and bullets in one man’s bag.

The surrounding guests screamed and jumped far away. Even the security guards were shocked.

After all, in this day and age, the most feared thing was a terrorist attack, especially on such an occasion.

Su Cha ran past the chaotic crowd. Just as she was about to leave, she turned around and saw Lian Chi in a white suit standing on the second floor of the hotel lobby. His eyes seemed to be filled with melancholy as he looked at her quietly. For a moment, he seemed to be about to cry.

It was a heartbreaking feeling.

Unfortunately, Su Cha did not feel anything. She even felt a chill surging up her body.

She stopped in her tracks. The phone in her pocket kept vibrating. She subconsciously took it out and picked the call up. It was Fu Mo's anxious voice. "I just found that Lian Chi is also in this hotel. He lives on the 79th floor, in the presidential suite."

"I saw."

Su Cha hung up silently.

She hesitated and did not run out. The security guards were afraid that something would happen and stopped all of them.

They had already called the police and started to inform all the guests to gather in the hotel lobby.

At this moment, Lian Chi suddenly walked in the other direction. A deep hatred shot out from Su Cha's eyes. A few wisps of smoke shot out from her hand again, instantly catching up to the white figure who was about to leave and pulling him back.

"Ah..."

Even Lian Chi seemed to be defenseless against such an attack. His figure seemed to have been pulled back by someone. Due to his carelessness, Lian Chi was forced to the pillar on the second floor. But for a moment, he seemed to have sensed something and grabbed the pillar forcefully. He wanted to escape from this control and looked at Su Cha in disbelief and horror.

Su Cha mixed with the crowd and looked at him coldly. There was no trace of warmth in her eyes.

His sudden movement also attracted the curiosity of the security guards. As if they knew his identity, someone who looked like a manager walked towards him. "Sir?"

The way Lian Chi was holding on to the pillar was really indecent.

As he asked, Lian Chi felt the pressure disappear suddenly. He released the pillar with an ugly expression and gestured to the manager. "I'm fine."

As they were asked to gather everyone, the manager asked Lian Chi to wait in the hall.

When he arrived, he sat on the sofa with the panicked crowd. However, there was no panic on his face, just a little ugliness.

Su Cha walked in front of him and looked down at him with a mocking smile. "Don't tell me that your appearance here is a coincidence."

Lian Chi looked at Su Cha with a tense expression. He clenched his fists. "I didn't know you were here."

"Of course you didn't know that I'm here. I should be in another hotel hundreds of meters away from yours. Isn't that right?"

The two of them were talking in Chinese. Their voices were very low. The guests around them were flustered, and no one noticed their conversation.

Chapter 927: I Can't Live Long

Lian Chi's pupils constricted when he heard this.

It was very subtle. If Su Cha had not been vigilant enough, she would not have known.

As expected, she was right.

“What are you planning to do by sneaking into America?”

Su Cha also sat down. She sat on the sofa opposite Lian Chi and looked at him with a smile on her lips. “Do you hate me so much? Do you hate me so much that you don’t even care about the Lian family and just want to come to America to see me die?”

How ridiculous.

She had done nothing wrong to Lian Chi from the beginning to the end. She did not expect Lian Chi to have the cheek to do these things to her.

Lian Chi pursed his lips tightly and did not speak. However, Su Cha was increasingly convinced by his behavior.

She was no longer disappointed, just murderous.

She lowered her head and asked Lian Chi, “Let me ask you again. Were you the one who sent those two snipers?”

She had no evidence. All she wanted was a confirmation.

She wanted to kill Lian Chi.

Although she knew that Lian Chi was involved in this matter, she still had to have concrete evidence.

She could not find any evidence for what happened in her past life, but she did not expect Lian Chi to attack again.

“Are you going to kill me like you have killed them?”

Lian Chi suddenly smiled. He did not answer and looked at Su Cha with a gentle expression again. "I don't know how you did it. It seems that you've lived a colorful life during the years when I wasn't paying attention to you."

He turned his head and saw that the security guards had already dragged the bodies of the two snipers out. He was not stupid. When he saw their heads hanging weakly, he knew that they had stopped breathing.

No one knew how they died. Many guests even saw them fall out for no reason, then they suddenly stopped breathing.

This was too terrifying. It was even more terrifying than a terrorist attack.

"It seems that you really sent them."

Su Cha's eyes lost their warmth. She looked at Lian Chi as if she was looking at a dead person.

"Are you going to attack me here? No one noticed it just now. But if I suddenly die too, you can't escape responsibility."

Lian Chi smiled, but his words were still creepy.

"Actually, you don't have to worry. I just..."

He sighed. "I just don't want to be alone. I will die sooner or later. I just want you to die with me."

Su Cha: "..."

She could not understand Lian Chi's thoughts.

She laughed in anger. "Are you crazy?"

"Am I crazy...? I'm also wondering if I'm crazy."

He smiled helplessly and looked at Su Cha with a hint of warmth in his eyes. At that moment, he reached out as if he wanted to touch Su Cha.

But Su Cha was too far away from him.

He felt a little powerless, and the light in his eyes slowly faded. He lowered his hand in disappointment. "Su Cha, do you know that I won't live long?"

When he saw the two snipers being killed by Su Cha, he knew that he could not kill her.

Su Cha sneered. "You suddenly have a terminal illness? This retribution came just in time."

If that was the case, Su Cha would have to say a few words of satisfaction. She did not even have to do it herself.

When he saw Su Cha's appearance, his sadness deepened, and his smile became a little forced. "Greya poisoned me. You should know her methods. And I did something I shouldn't have done and angered her. When she finds out, it will be my death. This day will not be long in coming. Your wish will come true."

Chapter 928: Same Reason

Of course, Su Cha would not blindly believe Lian Chi's nonsense. With such a good opportunity in front of her, it would be a pity if she did not kill him.

"You don't believe me?"

He smiled and suddenly bent down to scoop up a corner of his pants.

Su Cha saw green veins on his strong calf. Even a dark red color could be seen. There seemed to be something swimming inside it.

This sight was enough to make many people faint. Even Su Cha was shocked.

He quickly put down his pants and his expression became indifferent. "This is the price I had to pay to become the Vice Alliance Master."

He knew that Su Cha already knew about these things. Now that his death was imminent, the matter could not be hidden anymore.

Even though she was still extremely angry, she did not know what to say when she saw this scene. She did not have any sympathy in her heart. She just frowned and asked, "In that case, why did Greya want to kill you?"

Lian Chi suddenly smiled. "You will know soon."

"Do you think I will let you off just because you said that?" Su Cha whispered.

Suddenly, there was a commotion.

A police officer came.

He wanted to interrogate all of them.

Under everyone's gaze, Su Cha did not want to cause any commotion for the time being. But just as she was about to leave, she suddenly grabbed Lian Chi's arm and attacked with a trace of inner force.

In an instant, Lian Chi felt his entire body turn cold. He looked at Su Cha in surprise, but Su Cha had already mixed with the crowd and left.

She had left her inner force to prevent Lian Chi from escaping.

When she saw the bug in his calf, she knew that Lian Chi was not lying.

Whether it was a parasite or not, once the worm entered a person's body, even if the owner of the worm did not activate it, Lian Chi would not live for long.

Once worms had entered the body, they ate the flesh.

This process would take at most a few years. Moreover, even if the worms were taken out, the people who were the hosts would immediately die.

In other words, Lian Chi had a Gu worm that had just been implanted.

She did not know why Greya as good as killed her Vice Alliance Master, but she knew that Lian Chi had suffered retribution.

Of course, what she could not forgive was that Lian Chi wanted her to die too when he learned that he would not live long. His reason was that he wanted her to accompany him.

Could she also deduce from this that in her previous life, Lian Chi had also been implanted with a Gu worm by Greya? A few years after that, it would have been the normal time for him to die, so when he was about to, he sent someone to kidnap her and killed Bo Muyi along the way?

If this was true, it was unforgivable.

She did not know how Lian Chi felt about her.

There were so many people who could accompany him, but it was her he did not let off?

When Su Cha returned to the hotel, she immediately asked Fu Mo to erase every trace of her. In order not to arouse suspicion, Fu Mo immediately forged Su Cha's check-in information at the hotel. After checking through it, she found no problems and naturally did not attract anyone's attention.

There were not many people in the United States who knew her. In fact, there were only a few. In front of the media, she was just a flash in the pan.

Without substantial evidence, everyone would think that they were seeing things. Besides, other than the two people who died mysteriously, there was no evidence of a crime.

At Dawn Club, Greya hugged her doll and circled around anxiously.

Lady Seventeen was trembling with fear. Greya suddenly asked, “How many days has my uncle been away?”

Chapter 929: My Person Did It

“No... I’m sure. I haven’t seen Hall Master Qi in a few days.”

Lady Seventeen found it strange. She had not seen Qi He for a few days.

Qi He and this Alliance Master had always been strange. He seemed to be the Alliance Master’s subordinate, but the Alliance Master seemed to trust him.

He seemed to have said something a few days ago and did not come back.

“How is that possible?”

Greya frowned.

She trusted Qi He very much, so she did not use any tracking methods. However, Qi He had not returned for a few days, so she felt a little uneasy.

She could not describe the uneasiness she felt.

Not long after, Greya received a message. When she rushed to the hospital, she saw that Qi He was unconscious.

He had been stabbed more than ten times. He was lying on the bed, still breathing.

Greya almost went crazy when she saw Qi He like this. Her eyes turned red as she screamed crazily, “Lian Chi!!!”

Su Cha, who had been working in the United States, was also paying attention to Lian Chi's whereabouts. Soon, she received a piece of unexpected news.

"Something happened to a Hall Master close to Greya. Is it the one who is very close with her?"

Tan Yeluo had told her about this. At the thought of this, Su Cha immediately thought of what Lian Chi had said.

She recalled that there was indeed a man who's always close to Greya's side, and he'd wanted to attack Su Cha back then.

When Su Cha retaliated, Greya stopped her.

This person was a hall master close to Greya. His name was Qi He.

Now, something had happened to Qi He.

Su Cha immediately thought of the internal strife between the Killing Alliance.

The people on their side could not have attacked Qi He. Lian Chi said that Greya had attacked him. Could it be that he tried to kill Qi He himself?

Of course, Qi He was not dead yet.

However, Tan Yeluo said that Greya was about to go crazy.

After all, people had been hospitalized. It was the first time Greya had had such a big reaction to something after returning to China.

Su Cha could not help but click her tongue in wonder. How could Lian Chi not understand that it was a bad idea to attack Qi He?

It was obvious how he had angered Greya.

Su Cha did not know about the exact dispute between these people for the time being, but now that she thought about it, Lian Chi and Greya were not on very friendly terms.

At the same time, Bo Mui's message arrived.

"Lian Chi is now wanted in the entire country. Lian Ye and his brother have stepped forward to break off their relationship with him."

Su Cha was stunned. "What's the crime?"

"Commercial crime."

Bo Mui did not say much about such business matters. He just said, "We don't need to do too much. His hands are not clean. After so long, the methods he'd used to plant people in the Lian Corporation have left a trail."

It was just that he had dealt with things very cleanly in the past, and Bo Mui did not pay attention to him.

It was different now.

The Bo family quickly found the clues and used them.

Su Cha also told Bo Mui about Greya and Lian Chi's Gu.

"I know."

Unexpectedly, what Bo Mui said next surprised Su Cha.

She could almost feel the man's mocking smile when he said the words. They sounded casual and arrogant. "Qi He was attacked by my people."

Chapter 930: Actually, She Doesn't Know

“It was a coincidence that Qi He found out that Lian Chi harbored thoughts for Greya. Lian Chi wanted to attack her, so I helped him.”

After Bo Muyi finished speaking, he smiled gently. “I can only say that he’s not very lucky.”

After all, he was from the Killing Alliance. Su Cha would not say anything if Bo Muyi made a move. She was just surprised. “Are you sure Greya will not suspect you?”

“She won’t. Lian Chi won’t come off clean. Didn’t you say it yourself? No matter what, Lian Chi has to bear the responsibility. Greya will attack him sooner or later, but he’s already wanted. It doesn’t matter if Greya attacks him or not.”

Even if Greya had not taken action, Lian Chi would be thrown into jail.

According to Su Cha, the worm could only let Lian Chi live for a few more years.

Su Cha sighed. “I didn’t expect this to happen.”

In just one night, the Star Alliance had only lost some forces, but the Killing Alliance had landed in a huge mess.

“I’ve found some interesting information about the recent poaching of the Killing Alliance.”

Bo Muyi curled his lips and analyzed something for Su Cha. “Greya’s reasons for returning to the Killing Alliance might not be so simple. In the end, I found out that the person who gave her the drug injection experiment when she was 12 years old was actually the previous Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance. He was a famous pharmacist. Before Greya became the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance, her parents died at the hands of this pharmacist. It was just that she was too young at that time and did not have any memories. Of course, maybe she found out later. So it was obvious that she did not come back to help the Killing Alliance deal with the Star Alliance. She wanted to destroy the Killing Alliance.”

“Destroy the Killing Alliance?”

Su Cha was deep in thought. “How did you deduce it?”

“She did not participate in all the operations of the Killing Alliance and restrained the operations of its members. She also personally killed many people in the Killing Alliance. If she did not succeed in destroying the Killing Alliance, the hatred in her heart would not be appeased. It’s just that the previous Alliance Master died too quickly. Moreover, I suspect that she was the one who’d killed him. Of course, I don’t have any evidence. The only thing that can be proved right now is that Lian Chi wants to kill her. He knows that Greya wants to destroy the Killing Alliance, so he wants to get rid of Greya and take her position himself. However, he can no longer do that now. If I hadn’t targeted him, his plan might have succeeded.”

Bo Mui’s voice darkened instantly. “Of course, I don’t know why he would attack you in a moment of desperation.”

Su Cha fell silent.

Su Cha had told Bo Mui about Lian Chi sending assassins, but she did not say anything about Lian Chi’s perverted thoughts.

Why did he attack?

He wanted to drag Su Cha down because he knew that he would not be able to survive.

She said softly, “He’s in America now. Will the police in the country come and arrest him?”

“Yes. We know his whereabouts. He can’t escape.”

Hearing this result, Su Cha felt relieved.

Actually, this was a good result. There was no need to do anything. She had added bricks and tiles to Lian Chi’s death, but she would not kill him personally.

There was no better way to take revenge than to let him slowly suffer for the rest of his life.

In fact, at this point, she could not tell how much she hated Lian Chi. The only thing she knew was that she no longer had any kind feelings for him.

Why did it become like this?

Actually, she did not know.
