

The Queen 951

Chapter 951: Is the Identity of the Embroidery Master Real or Fake?

“Mo Clan City” was the main movie that would be released next year, and it created a huge splash. Just the audition alone had already made it onto the trending list several times.

Not only were there the superstars and queens of the industry at the audition venue, but there were also quite a number of Best Actors and Best Actresses. There were also a lot of veteran actors.

Any one of this movie’s characters was the target that everyone was fighting for.

This kind of opportunity was usually not given to newcomers.

However, the role of the second female lead was not part of the audition target. Furthermore, the audition conditions for “Mo Clan City” were extremely harsh. The script would not be given to you. Basically, the casting director would just give you a scene for you to perform on the spot before giving you a part of the script so that you could act it out based on your own understanding in a short period of time.

Many people didn’t have a choice regarding their characters, but after calculating, they realized that some characters weren’t on the list.

Soon, a marketing account received this scoop and broke the news.

Important News Spreads Daily: “Recently, the auditions for ‘Mo Clan City’ have been in full swing. It is slated to be a big production that would be launched in the overseas market. Even the current Best Actor and Best Actress had gone to nth place. The producers said that every role was selected through the auditions, but in the end, someone still went through the back door. A certain master has directly taken on the role of the second female lead. It’s said that it was personally decided by the higher-ups. After all, she’s a woman related to the country. They can’t afford to offend her.”

“—As soon as you say Master, I know who it is.”

“Although I admire Su Cha now, I still have to say that other than her album and her status as an embroidery master, I still don’t know how good her acting skills are. ‘The Legend of the Crane’ has not even been broadcasted yet, and now she has directly obtained a role in this movie. She is even the second female lead in such a big production. On top of that, she has become Hiberia's Asian spokesperson. These resources are really too good. How should I put it? Different circles cannot be compared together. With her position in the acting industry, she shouldn't have been able to afford such good resources..."

"—It's only a matter of time before they get punished for their forced flattery."

"When the time comes, if your acting isn't good enough, you're still going to be mocked. Master Su, don't lose your integrity!"

"—This is not how the netizens of your cohort behave. If it were anyone else, you would have cursed their ancestors!"

"Newbies nowadays have a clear idea of how good their acting skills are. I didn't expect such a good piece of cake to land on her. I hope she won't let this movie down..."

"—I don't even dare to ask for the newbie's acting skills to be good. I only hope that Master Su doesn't just stare and pout."

"—Hahahahahahaha, sorry about that. Master Su doesn't even pout."

"—Has she not been on any variety shows or reality shows before? Back then, she went on that children's reality show because of her identity as a talent show singer, right? I've seen it, she has quite a strong personality, but she's basically just taking care of the child. If I want to understand her more, I don't have any avenues to do so."

Because of Su Cha's special status, people were much more polite when she was mentioned on Weibo. After all, her acting skills aside, at least her identity as a master was well-deserved. Many passersby still respected her.

This was something that other celebrities' fans could not be envious of.

Unexpectedly, after her identity as the second female lead was revealed, more and more people started questioning her.

And this doubt was actually centered on whether her embroidery master status was real.

This doubt was first spread from a famous gossip forum, and then it was directly brought to Weibo by people. Because the passersby didn't know much about it, there were even people who deliberately stirred things up. The situation was quickly blown up by people.

Chapter 952: This Batch of Netizens Is Not Good Enough

[Everyone is saying that a certain female celebrity is super awesome. Why do I feel that this matter is super fake?]

Anonymous OP: "I'm still afraid, but I have to say this. Is a certain female celebrity faking her identity because she's a rich missy? Let's not talk about her good grades. Her Imperial Capital University results can prove it. She can also say that her singing is a natural talent. There's no question about that. Recently, she went on a fashion show and even caused a stir in the foreign media. Then, she started acting. Let's not talk about this. Rather, let's ask, can a person really be perfect to this extent? Everyone is saying that she's a master, but why have I never seen her in person teaching Tang Embroidery in real life? Are she and S collaborating to hype her up so that she can become famous? To be honest, she's also a rich lady. If she wants to hype up her image, even if someone knows the truth, no one will expose her, right?

"To be able to maintain an impressive academic performance while embroidering while also entering the entertainment industry... Is this something a human could do?"

1L: "OP is so courageous, don't stay anonymous!"

2L: "Have you forgotten about the famous fan using her hands to identify her?"

3L: "Fans can recognize her through her hands, why is it impossible? Didn't they compare them with the one teaching Tang Embroidery? The angles of their arms are indeed the same as hers. They are the same person."

4L: "Isn't it more disgusting for you to spread rumors about this? If this isn't true, then you are just being malicious, right?"

5L: "To be honest, I also think... she... seems to be padding up her character profile..."

6L: “You must be the smartest person in the whole of China, then. The people from the Embroidery Union have already admitted it. Just because you’re suspicious, then it must not be true. You’re even more impressive than a national institution!”

7L: “A national institution? What kind of national institution is the Embroidery Union? At most, it’s just an organization with a bit of fame. Back then, they were the ones who claimed that Su Cha and S were the same person. The person herself never admitted it out loud. What if this matter was really a publicity stunt?”

8L: “I don’t think it’s possible. If it’s fake, it’s cheating the country...”

The topic of #Su Cha deliberately padded up her character profile# was soon blown up.

Some people with ulterior motives started to take the lead. They used Su Cha’s embroidery video that never showed her face to prove that Su Cha was not the same person as the legendary Master S.

Because Su Cha did not show her face.

Even if the fans had searched through all the videos and confirmed that it was the same person, now that the tempo had been raised, others could deny it.

Besides, they were right about one thing. The Embroidery Union was at most a civil and official organization. It was not very credible because they basically talked about the embroidery industry and rarely talked about anything else.

Many passersby were led away.

Indeed, it seemed that Su Cha was too perfect. She was good at singing and acting. If she could do embroidery, wouldn’t she be too awesome?

It was too perfect.

When Master Yun Zu saw the hot searches, he almost couldn't breathe. He scolded the idiotic netizens in the alliance chat.

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: "[Picture] What do they mean? What do they mean? Are they saying that I was blind and recognized the wrong person? They say the Embroidery Union is guilty of something just because they don't want to admit the truth? Who do they think they are?"

Tan Yeluo: "It's normal. There are always people in this world who feel that if they can't do something, then no one else can either."

Martial Alliance Leader, Mo Weiyuan: "[Flipping the bird] This year's netizens ain't cutting it!"

Cha Yi: "..."

She felt that the Martial Alliance's Alliance Master was being led astray.

Chapter 953: To Actually Anger the Old Master to Such an Extent

However, compared to the past, this time, the netizens were rash as they rushed to the official Weibo to seek confirmation.

After all, these fans could even recognize people through their hands. If this matter turned out to be a rumor again, it would be a slap in the face. How painful would that be?

However, the rhythm was still drummed up.

Rumors had started to circulate online, questioning whether Su Cha was creating hype.

"Are these people stupid? Why would they believe such obvious fake news?"

Tan Jinsui seemed to be in disbelief. Even though the Embroidery Union didn't have much credibility, it was obvious what was going on. Even the official channel's interview proved that these people could hype things up.

"It's normal. When a bird is big, there'd be all sorts of forests."

Su Cha had replied to Tan Jinsui using a paragraph she had read online recently. Although he was left speechless, he still had to explain this matter.

Otherwise, the more rumors spread, the more bizarre it would become. There might really be people who'd insist on not letting this matter go.

However, it didn't cause a headache for too long. The reason was that Elder Yun had personally posted it on his main account.

Master Yun Zu Official: "If you are so capable, why don't you join the Embroidery Union? The National Television Station has interviewed that master before. Are you saying that they faked it? Who are you looking down on?"

"—I have sinned, I have sinned. How could I anger the old gentleman to this extent?"

"—It's not yet illegal to slander and create rumors! Master, please don't be angry!"

"It's not worth it to go this far for fake news online. Master must have a heart for talent. Otherwise, why would he personally explain this matter?"

"...Master Su is indeed Master Su. You can't just blindly believe the words of a small fry. They actually made the old man so angry. It's really painful."

"——You are the true master of China, why are you angry over something so beneath you?"

...

This was Master Yun Zu's official account. In the eyes of others, he was a respected senior.

Many people who followed him were old people or middle-aged people of similar age. Not only were they masters, but those who were familiar with him would also respectfully address him as Old Master.

Furthermore, Master Yun Zu's reputation was truly resounding. Seeing that he had personally come out to clarify this matter, many marketing accounts quickly deleted the rumors that they had released beforehand.

There were even some people who stood out to support Elder Yun and criticized the rumor-maker.

After the original poster saw that the matter had blown up, they deleted their post.

Su Cha was touched to see Elder Yun speaking up for her, but she stopped feeling touched when she saw him speaking in the group.

Martial Alliance Elder, Yun Zu: "Hahahahahaha, look at how awe-inspiring your grandfather is. I only made a peep, yet how many came out to support me? [Awesome, put your hands on your hips.JPG]

Vice Alliance Master of the Star Alliance, Tan Yeluo: "I should really take a screenshot and let those people on Weibo see your true colors."

Su Cha also wanted to take a screenshot and let the group of supporters on Weibo who called him Old Master Yun see his true colors.

What a sin.

He looked like an old man in his seventies, but he probably used more emojis than they did.

Master Yun Zu's words further confirmed Su Cha's identity. At least no one could question it anymore.

Moreover, his words would affect the opinions of many influential people towards Su Cha and this would bring benefits to her.

As for the ones creating rumors about Su Cha on the Internet, they were naturally found out. The company would deal with them for her.

Chapter 954: Untitled

The audition for “Mo Clan City” ended after some time.

The male and female leads were the current Best Actor, Mu Jiandong, and the famous Best Actress, Ji Shu.

Unlike Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao, Mu Jiandong was an old Best Actor with real qualifications. He had a high reputation and status, so his acting skills were naturally top-notch.

As for Ji Shu, she was considered one of the highest-ranking actresses in the industry. Although she was already in her forties, she had maintained herself well and looked extremely young. She had also won all the important awards that a movie queen should receive, so her status had been cemented.

The two of them were chosen for this movie, so there was no need to mention their popularity.

Even the other actors who came out of the auditions were familiar faces. They were all veteran actors in the industry.

Their popularity might not be comparable to the A-list rankings, but it wasn’t bad either. They had a good reputation and popularity.

After the audition for “Mo Clan City” officially ended, the official list of roles was announced. As the second female lead, Su Cha naturally had a reputation, and at the same time, she received a complete script for her role.

At the same time, “Mo Clan City” released a huge bomb. This movie would also feature an international superstar because it was a big production that would be jointly filmed by two parties. The story and script were also written a certain way, so it was not surprising for a foreigner to appear in it.

The other party in the kissing scene with Su Cha was going to be played by this foreign superstar.

After receiving the script, they started to prepare for filming.

The filming would officially start in June, and her scenes would start at the end of June, just in time for the start of the summer vacation. It was a perfect schedule.

During this period of time, Su Cha had free time, so she busied herself with her studies.

In her spare time, she received a call from Zong Yanxiu, who told her to go home for a while. Only then did she remember that there was an outsider named Sheng Manru in the house.

Recently, Su Cha had heard about a few rounds of her and Zuo Zhici's fights. Since Sheng Manru entered the Imperial Capital University, she had quickly become a perfect goddess. Not to mention anything else, she was pretty, had good grades, and had a good family background. She was indeed a top-notch fair-skinned, rich, and beautiful woman. It was normal for her to be sought after. However, the other campus goddess, Zuo Zhici, did not get along with her. It was hilarious.

The reason for their discord was still Su Cha.

Anyway, Sheng Manru claimed publicly that Su Cha was her sister, which made Zuo Zhici unhappy. The two of them quarreled whenever they met. They did not get into a fight, but it was inevitable that they would be jealous of each other.

Su Cha did not care about this. As long as this person did not disturb her, everything would be fine. When she heard her father calling her home, Su Cha thought of this matter and could not help but have some opinions. "Father, is Sheng Manru still there?"

"I'm puzzled too..."

Her father could tell that Su Cha did not like Sheng Manru, but he was also a little troubled. "I don't know what your grandfather is thinking. If she wants to find a house, how difficult would it be for her? I have villas under my name for her to live in. It's not good for her to stay here for too long. Your grandfather and I are the only two men in the house. Occasionally, your Uncle Tan would also come over. It's not convenient for a young lady like her here. I'll tell her tonight to move out."

Su Cha pursed her lips and thought for a while. "Will that cause you to offend someone? If so, let me do the talking."

"Never mind. Your grandfather won't say anything, but it's better that I speak up. Come home tonight and let's talk."

Su Cha could only nod. “Okay.”

Then, she hung up the phone and sent Bo Mui a message. She was going home tonight.

With Sheng Manru around, she would definitely not bring Bo Mui over, so she let Bo Mui rest at home first.

Chapter 955: Memories (1)

Bo Mui had been staying at little Su Cha’s house for the past few days.

Soon, he seemed to have gotten used to this unfamiliar yet warm environment.

There were only two people in the house. The handsome uncle would stay at home every day to cook delicious food for his daughter and make some new things. The only young lady who accompanied him to play would only come back after school.

That day, little Su Cha came back from school. She placed her bag on the table and walked towards Bo Mui, who was sitting at the table with his head lowered.

“Brother Bo, let’s go out to play. You’ll get sick if you stay at home.”

Little Su Cha reached out to pull him, but he was unwilling to get up. With her strength, she could not pull him up.

Little Su Cha looked at him, confused.

Bo Mui shook his head. His clean and clear eyes carried a sadness that was hard to detect. He let little Su Cha hold his hand and did not speak.

Little Su Cha heard her friend calling for her. Little Su Cha bit her finger and thought for a while. In the end, she declined regretfully, “I’m not going out today.”

“You haven’t come out to play with us for days. Our troop is going to abandon you!”

That threatening voice came from outside. Little Su Cha ran out and argued with them before returning.

When she came back, the boy had already sat up straight. He looked nervous and uneasy. When he saw little Su Cha come in, it was as if he felt much better, and he heaved a sigh of relief.

Little Su Cha walked to him and blinked her big eyes. “Brother, are you hungry?”

Bo Muiy shook his head. “I’m not hungry. You’re the one who’s hungry.”

Little Su Cha, who was exposed, smiled in embarrassment. She touched her round tummy that had yet to go down. “The kindergarten did not serve good food today. I ate only little... I’m starving...”

The boy stood up. He was only 11 or 12 years old, but he was now 1.7 meters tall. He looked terrifying. Little Su Cha could only look up at him.

She saw Bo Muiy stand up. Her small hand grabbed his slender and clean fingers. Bo Muiy seemed to be used to it. He held her hand and walked to the fridge.

“Take a look. This is all we have.”

“I want that...”

Little Su Cha pointed at the sauced beef at the top of the fridge. She was too short to reach it, so she asked Bo Muiy to help her.

Bo Muiy did not hesitate to take the cold plate out. When little Su Cha reached out to take it, he moved it away with slight disdain. “No, you have to wash your hands first.”

Little Su Cha pouted and went to wash her hands.

Zong Yanxiu, who was outside, came back and saw his daughter eating the sauced beef. He then looked at the boy who was quietly watching at the side and slightly frowned. “You can’t take out the things in the fridge and give them to her directly.”

When Bo Muyi saw Zong Yanxiu, he subconsciously paused and stood up straight, looking a little stiff.

“I found some information about your family today.”

Zong Yanxiu looked at the boy in front of him and was still shocked by the news he’d received.

The boy raised his eyes and stared at him. “What did you find out?”

Even though he was only 11 or 12 years old, he already had a different aura about him. It was natural, and this question gave off a lot of pressure.

Even Zong YanXiu could feel this influence. He was surprised and quickly said, “The Bo family lives very far from here, but you just needed to tell me clearly and I could have brought you back. Why didn’t you tell me?”

Chapter 956: Memories (2)

The boy turned his head, anger flashing across his face.

Little Su Cha could not understand what was happening.

She stared blankly at Bo Muyi and then looked at her father.

Zong Yanxiu walked over, wiped little Su Cha’s mouth clean, and took the remaining beef with sauce away. She instantly pouted. He said, “You don’t trust me. Do you think I will betray you? I’ve said my surname is Zong. You will know who I am once you investigate. You can only investigate the matter regarding your parents after you’ve returned to the Imperial Capital. Even if you stay here, it will be useless. You can’t do anything. Instead, you will make your grandfather worry.”

Perhaps this sentence touched Bo Muyi. He turned around and looked at Zong Yanxiu, his eyes filled with despair.

Zong Yanxiu could not bear to see this.

He knew that Bo Muyi was afraid that once his whereabouts were exposed, the people who'd harmed his parents would continue to attack him. He was thus unwilling to tell Zong Yanxiu the truth. Subconsciously, he wanted to stay here for some time.

But it was impossible for him not to go back.

"I've already informed your grandfather. He'll send someone to pick you up soon. You'll return to the capital safely. Don't worry."

Little Su Cha, who was listening at the side, finally reacted. When she heard him say that Bo Muyi would be returning to the capital, she probably realized that her father wanted her big brother to leave.

"Daddy, why are you asking Brother to leave?"

Although they had only known each other for a few days, little Su Cha already had Bo Muyi in her heart.

Most importantly, he was good-looking.

The young boy seemed to realize something. He grabbed little Su Cha's arm and asked seriously, "What about you guys? Are you going back?"

Zong Yanxiu seemed a little surprised. "We're not going back. Also, don't tell anyone about us being here when you get back. Just pretend that you've never seen us before."

It was already unbelievable that they were fated to meet. He never would have thought that he would be able to save the heir of the Bo family from such a far distance.

Bo Muyi lowered his hand, seemingly disappointed.

Realizing that Bo Muyi was about to leave, little Su Cha was a little reluctant. When she went to bed that night, she lay down and grabbed Bo Muyi's arm. "Big Brother, are you leaving?"

As there were no extra rooms here, Bo Mui slept with little Su Cha. However, Zong Yanxiu also slept in the same room, but on a different bed.

“Yeah...”

The boy’s calm voice came from the darkness. “Soon.”

“Where are you going?”

“Imperial Capital.”

The capital was a foreign term to little Su Cha. “What kind of place is that? Are there mountains and rivers? Or is it a place with very tall buildings?”

“Not a good place.”

He’d said it softly.

Little Su Cha was puzzled. “Then why are you going back?”

Bo Mui remained silent.

Suddenly, he reached out and caressed little Su Cha’s chubby face. He whispered, “I will bring you back to the capital city. You can attend kindergarten in the capital city. You will accompany me, okay?”

“Sure! Take Daddy with you too!”

Little Su Cha, who had always looked only at faces, answered readily.

Zong Yanxiu, who was lying on the next bed, reprimanded in a low voice, “Stop fooling around. Xiao Cha, Brother Bo is going somewhere far away. He’s not joking.”

He seemed to be reminding her of something.

Little Su Cha did not make a sound. She pursed her lips. As the lights were off, she could not see Bo Muyi's face. Without making another sound, she soon fell asleep.

Chapter 957: Blind Date Banquet

That night, Su Cha returned to the Zong family home and saw some strangers.

They were Sheng Manru's parents.

There was also a young woman in her thirties.

She looked a little like Sheng Manru, but she looked very mature, like an elite lady.

Sheng Manru introduced them to each other enthusiastically. They were her parents and her aunt. She wasn't very close to her parents in age, but their families were still close. Her aunt was closer in age to Sheng Manru.

Her aunt was born when Sheng Manru's parents were already very old. That was why she looked extremely young. She was only 32 years old this year.

She was indeed very young.

Su Cha did not know what they were here for.

Sheng Manru's parents greeted the Zong father and son warmly, as well as Su Cha. They even praised Su Cha for being a promising person. Looking at the smiling faces of Sheng Manru's parents, Su Cha could not say anything bad and could only respond perfunctorily.

At the dining table, Su Cha noticed that Sheng Manru's aunt had been secretly observing Zong Yanxiu, which gave Su Cha a bad feeling.

"Uncle Zong, my aunt is new here and has been raised overseas. She's unfamiliar with the local environment. When you're free, can you take her around the Capital?"

Sheng Manru looked at Zong Yanxiu with a smile, which gave Su Cha goosebumps.

If she couldn't see through her motive, she would be a failure.

Tonight's gathering was actually Zong Yanxiu's blind date banquet!

She followed the crowd's gaze and saw Sheng Manru's aunt's embarrassed expression. Zong Bingyi was sitting there and seemed to be testing Zong Yanxiu. When he met Su Cha's gaze, he turned his face away.

Zong Yanxiu was also stunned for a moment.

He was not stupid. He immediately understood the meaning behind her words and felt extremely awkward.

He had thought that today was only about Sheng Manru's parents coming to visit. He had no idea who this aunt was. Now that he thought about it, it was no wonder his father didn't stop Sheng Manru from staying at his house.

It was hard for him to speak, but Su Cha was direct and even a little annoyed. "My father usually doesn't have much time for rehabilitation, and the university is going to be on holiday soon. Since you'll have time, why don't you bring your aunt around?"

She didn't want to stop her father from finding his own happiness, but if it was to be Sheng Manru's relative, then forget it. She felt disgusted just looking at this scene.

Besides, even her father didn't have such intentions, so she was even more direct.

If her manager found out about this, he would be furious.

Su Cha's words made the atmosphere at the dining table awkward. Sheng Manru quickly smiled and said, "Sister, I'd be busy with the school's results report. I don't have much time recently. I saw that Uncle is doing rehabilitation exercises. My aunt is quite interested in working out. She's more professional in this aspect. She will stay in the country for a period of time. I can let Aunt take a look at Uncle's recovery."

"Thanks, but my father's people are specialized in testing. I believe they are more professional than your aunt, so he won't need any additional guidance."

Su Cha's words were merciless. Zong Bingyi coughed violently and said, "Xiao Cha, she is a guest. Since she wants to sightsee, let your father take her around. Your father is at home all day. Apart from the company matters, he has a lot of free time. Why can't he do it?"

Chapter 958: Showdown

Su Cha could understand the old man's anxiousness, but she was not optimistic.

Although she did not say anything anymore, Zong Yanxiu took the initiative to speak. His smile was gentle, as well as his tone, but his words were merciless. "Dad, you said it yourself. Besides rehabilitation, I have to be busy with the company. You're old, so there are many aspects where I'm needed to help out. I'm usually so busy that my feet don't touch the ground. I don't even have time to eat with Su Cha. Where would I have the time to take others out to shop? There are many people in the Imperial Capital if one just wants directions. If it's really not possible, with technology so advanced now, one can conduct one's own navigation."

Sheng Manru and her parents stiffened when they heard this. Her aunt also felt embarrassed.

Zong Bingyi widened his eyes in anger, but Su Cha and Zong Yanxiu ignored him.

Sheng Manru's aunt felt extremely mortified. She waved her hands and said, "You're right. I know where I'm going, so there's no need to trouble anyone."

Her tone hinted that she was slightly angry.

This could be considered a blind date banquet arranged by her family. She heard that the other party was a cripple who had been in a coma for more than ten years. It was already considered good that she did not mind that. Now that she saw the other party rejecting her mercilessly, she was very angry.

When Sheng Manru's parents heard what she said, their faces darkened. However, they could not say anything for Zong Bingyi's sake.

Everyone had a strange meal. After the meal, they were too embarrassed to stay. Sheng Manru's parents were clearly unhappy when they left. Even their attitude towards Zong Bingyi was not as warm as before. Only Sheng Manru, who was a little embarrassed, stayed.

Zong Bingyi was also very angry, but it was not good for him to scold anyone. He could only angrily flick his sleeves and enter his study room.

Seeing that Sheng Manru was still at the Zong family's house, Su Cha was even more furious. "Miss Sheng, it's not that I want to criticize you, but you are a daughter of a noble family. It's so easy to find a house in the capital, and you still haven't found one? I have several properties under my name. Do you want me to lend one to you temporarily? I don't even stay at home usually, only my grandfather and my father are at home. Occasionally, Uncle Tan also comes over. It's not convenient for a little girl like you to stay here, right?"

Zong Yanxiu was a little surprised. They had agreed to talk about it, but after what happened tonight, it was still Su Cha who spoke up.

Sheng Manru suddenly turned pale as she faced Su Cha's rebuttal. Her eyes were really the reincarnation of a drama queen's. She turned red just like that, which impressed Su Cha.

"Sister, what's wrong? Did Manru make you angry?"

Zong Yanxiu could not bear to see her pitiful look. He wanted Su Cha to not be too direct, but Su Cha unexpectedly nodded. "Yes, I get angry whenever I see you staying at the Zong residence."

Zong Yanxiu: "..."

Sheng Manru was speechless.

Su Cha did not fall for her tricks. She could only continue acting. "Why? If Manru did anything wrong, Manru can just change."

Su Cha became impatient. “Are you not thinking clearly? I’ve already said that it’s not good for a young girl like you to live in a house with only unrelated men around.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Zong Bingyi came out angrily with his eyes wide open. Sheng Manru heard the noise and seemed to have sensed something. Her tears started falling.

Su Cha: “...”

Tsk.

Chapter 959: Thick-skinned

She had not returned here for a long time, so Su Cha had nearly forgotten about Sheng Manru’s tricks. She was used to it.

Of course, she didn’t find it strange now.

Zong Yanxiu saw Sheng Manru’s reaction. He opened his mouth and seemed surprised. He glanced at Su Cha and wanted to say something, but he did not.

Zong Bingyi heard what Su Cha said and was a little angry.

No matter what, Su Cha’s words were not pleasant. Sheng Manru was the granddaughter of her brother. If she was wronged here, wouldn’t it be Zong Bingyi’s fault?

But when he saw Sheng Manru suddenly cry, Zong Bingyi’s anger suddenly turned into awkwardness.

It was as if the fire had suddenly been turned off. Faced with such a scene, he came out angrily. In the end, he only looked at Su Cha and asked, “What are you talking about? Is our Manru not allowed to stay?”

Su Cha never did anything rude to her elders, even though she wanted to roll her eyes.

She just stayed silent.

Tears streamed down Sheng Manru's face as she sobbed and wiped her tears. "Grandpa, I... I'm fine... Sister Cha might not have said that on purpose."

Su Cha: "..."

The words "tender and protective" had never applied to Su Cha, so she directly replied, "Of course I said it on purpose. Isn't my meaning obvious enough, Miss Sheng? I'm asking you when you're moving out. You started crying before I even said a few words. Did I hit you or scold you? Who are you crying for? Do you expect my grandfather and father to uphold justice for you? Don't worry, they won't dare."

Zong Bingyi: "... "????

Unfilial granddaughter!

Zong Yanxiu almost burst out laughing at Su Cha's words, but he tried to hold back his laughter when he saw Sheng Manru still crying.

Sheng Manru was also stunned by Su Cha's words. She almost forgot how to cry. When she realized what had just happened, she could not even continue.

She looked embarrassed and stunned. Even if Zong Bingyi could not do anything, he still wanted to scold Su Cha. "Xiao Cha, why are you so rude?"

"How am I rude? I didn't yell at her."

Su Cha sneered. "I really can't stand you. You're so thick-skinned. No wonder you dared to ask my boyfriend for his WeChat the first time we met. And I was standing right beside you."

She might as well make it clear.

These words stunned Zong Bingyi and Zong Yanxiu.

Sheng Manru was dumbfounded as well.

She did not expect Su Cha to say it directly, and her face turned red. "I... I... I didn't expect that he was your... boyfriend..."

But this problem could only get worse.

Zong Bingyi finally understood why Su Cha was so against Sheng Manru. After hearing this, he immediately felt sick of Sheng Manru.

But he had to maintain his dignity as an elder. Sheng Manru had also told him about her aunt and wanted to introduce her to Yanxiu. That was why he'd allowed Sheng Manru to stay in the Zong family residence for so long.

Now that Su Cha was unhappy, Zong Bingyi's stance was twisted.

Sheng Manru was embarrassed. No matter what, she had indeed asked Bo Muye for his WeChat the first time they met. Now that it was out in the open, it was a slap to her face, and she could not refute it.

She lowered her head and her face turned red. She did not know what to say.

Chapter 960: Conflict

Zong Bingyi sighed and said, "Manru, if you really can't find a place, I will ask someone to help you. Your sister Su Cha is right. There are only us men in our family. It's not suitable for a young lady like you to stay here."

Sheng Manru froze.

She knew that she had said too much and made too many mistakes. Moreover, Su Cha was standing in front of her with her arms crossed, watching the show. She knew that she could not escape no matter what she said.

If she were to leave the Zong family residence, she would have even less of a chance.

Gritting her teeth, she could only ask in an aggrieved tone, “Then, Grandpa Zong, can I still visit you often in the future?”

“Of course.”

Zong Bingyi knew how to be polite. He smiled at Sheng Manru. “It’s good that you have such intentions.”

With that, he walked back into the house.

Su Cha smiled coldly. She did not waste any more time talking to Sheng Manru and said goodbye to Zong Yanxiu. “Father, I’m going back first.”

“Okay. Bye, Xiao Cha.”

Zong Yanxiu did not speak the whole time. Seeing that Su Cha was leaving, he smiled gently and went out to send her off.

The father-daughter pair left happily. Sheng Manru could only stand awkwardly in the lobby, completely out of place.

Her face darkened when she saw Su Cha leaving.

She clenched her fists tightly and gritted her teeth, unwilling to give up.

After leaving the Zong family home, she would not be able to approach Bo Mui.

Of course, she had not seen Bo Mui since the last time they met.

Su Cha would not bring Bo Mui back. She lived in the Lookout Pavilion, and Bo Mui would not say anything when he came occasionally.

This was the first time she had met someone like Su Cha, who was so unforgiving. She did not care about manners and etiquette at all. Moreover, her grievances seemed to be useless in front of the Zong family.

She could only prepare herself to move out.

The next day, Su Cha had dinner with Fu Mo. She said happily, “Sheng Manru has moved out.”

“Sheng Manru.”

Fu Mo bit her chopsticks and blinked her eyes. “Oh... I even saw her today. She did seem to be in a bad mood.”

Naturally, Fu Mo knew that Sheng Manru was famous in the school. Besides, she was with Su Cha, so she knew everything.

“I don’t care if she’s in a good mood.”

Su Cha took a bite of her food. “I’m preparing to go to the filming set at the end of the month. You have to come with me. You have to arrange your studies well during this period of time. You’re also a first-year student. Don’t delay your studies because of me.”

“Don’t worry, it won’t happen. Studying is easy. I can get full marks just by casually studying. It’s not challenging.”

Su Cha was speechless.

Although her results were also very good, she never said that studying was easy.

Not to mention, those words were extremely hateful. Only Fu Mo would say that without any other intention.

But she still couldn’t help but feel that Fu Mo deserved a beating.

Indeed, this was the difference between her and a true genius.

In the afternoon, Sheng Manru and Zuo Zhici had a conflict.

When Su Cha received the news, she heard that it was Sheng Manru who was sent to the school infirmary. Her arm was injured, and it was said that she was pushed by Zuo Zhici.

Apparently.

At that time, no one saw Zuo Zhici and Sheng Manru getting into a scuffle, and Sheng Manru fell to the ground.

She was at the administrative office now.
