

The Queen 961

Chapter 961: Rely on Me

When Su Cha received the news, she did not believe it.

Zuo Zhici was not someone who would do such a thing. On the contrary, it was Sheng Manru who was more prone to causing trouble.

Fu Mo informed her about the incident as soon as it happened. Su Cha took leave after one lesson and rushed to the Academic Affairs Office.

When she arrived outside the Academic Affairs Office, there were a few girls discussing in the corner downstairs. As they were far away, their voices were not lowered. Su Cha had sharp ears and heard them.

“After all, her mom just died a while ago. It’s understandable that she’s in a bad mood...”

“What a joke. Sheng Manru didn’t even provoke her. Why would she provoke others for no reason?”

“She’s probably feeling upset. After all, she used to be the little princess who did whatever she wanted. What about now? Her dad is crippled and her mom is dead. Who else does she have?”

...

There were always some people in this world who harbored ill intentions. In the past, although Zuo Zhici was a glamorous, rich, and beautiful girl in school and had a rather arrogant temper, she did not treat people too well. Thus, there were naturally people who disliked her.

Now that something had happened to Zuo Zhici, they started to gloat, and their words were extremely unpleasant.

Just because she had good grades did not mean that she was a good person.

When they saw Su Cha, the girls who were discussing immediately fell silent.

Everyone knew about the relationship between Su Cha and Zuo Zhici, so they did not continue to discuss when they saw someone related to her.

They did not think that Su Cha had heard them.

Su Cha walked over. Just as she was about to go upstairs, she suddenly stopped and curled her lips. "Isn't your mother going to die sooner or later? All of you will die sooner or later. It's normal for people to grow old, get sick, and die. How can you talk about others not having parents behind their backs? Will this day never come for you? Do you think you will die before your parents?"

Her words were really vicious.

The girls' faces turned red and they didn't know how to retort.

Seeing their reaction, Su Cha tilted her head slightly. "If you want to expose me or complain, it's up to you, as long as you have the guts."

She rarely threatened people in such a straightforward manner. After saying this, she only glanced at them indifferently before stepping up the stairs.

Her gaze was so sharp that the girls dared not utter a word as they looked at Su Cha's back.

They felt extremely uncomfortable and aggrieved though.

When she reached the Academic Affairs Office upstairs, there was no one outside. When she walked to the window, Su Cha heard the voice of the Dean inside.

Zuo Zhici stood there, looking dazed and aggrieved.

Her eyes were a little red, but it didn't seem like she had cried before. It seemed like she had been holding it in.

The Dean sighed slightly when he saw Zuo Zhici's expression.

There was no one else besides him.

When Su Cha suddenly appeared, Zuo Zhici turned around. When she saw Su Cha, it was as if her tense body had finally relaxed. She could not stop herself and pouted. She looked at Su Cha and cried, "Sister!!"

Seeing Zuo Zhici like this, Su Cha pressed her forehead and walked into the Dean's office. She greeted, "Hello, Dean."

She then looked at Zuo Zhici. "Are you still insensible?"

"No... no..."

As she was too agitated, Zuo Zhici had started to cry until she was out of breath and could not speak properly.

"Tell me, what happened?"

The Dean was about to open his mouth when Zuo Zhici quickly shook her head. "No... I didn't push her!... If she dies... I'll be blamed... They won't believe it..."

Chapter 962: Many People Saw It

This made the Dean feel a little awkward. "But someone testified..."

"Why don't you bring out the witness to confront Zuo Zhici?"

Su Cha spoke calmly and looked at the Dean indifferently. "Sheng Manru is in the infirmary now? She also said that Zuo Zhici pushed her?"

As long as Zuo Zhici said that she did not push her, she definitely did not.

With her status, she wouldn't do such a thing.

The Dean was a little uncomfortable with Su Cha's tone. He frowned and said, "After all, someone saw it. When you do something wrong, you have to admit your mistake."

"I didn't do anything wrong!"

Because of Su Cha, Zuo Zhici shouted loudly, "I said that I didn't push her! I reached out with my hand at that time, and she fell down on purpose. When she was helped up, she even said that I didn't do it on purpose. She had already said what she wanted to say, but they didn't let me explain! They thought that I was acting in some television drama and didn't do it on purpose. Am I stupid to not know how to deal with her privately?"

"..."

These words made her seem even more unconvincing.

The Dean also stared at her. Su Cha patted Zuo Zhici's shoulder and looked at the Dean with a smile. "Dean, I believe Zuo Zhici when she says that she didn't push anyone. Evidence is important in everything. Zuo Zhici is accused of pushing someone, and you want evidence. If we find the witness, we can confront them face to face. After all, there's this thing called 'touching porcelain,'[1] right?"

"..." The Dean really could not say anything.

Someone had said that they'd witnessed Zuo Zhici pushing Sheng Manru.

The Dean hesitated for a moment. "Then wait for a while."

He did not believe it when he saw how Zuo Zhici was crying. After all, everyone knew how Zuo Zhici was like in school. Given her temper, she would definitely not do such a thing.

However, due to the recent upheavals in her family, she might not be in a good mood and might have gotten into a conflict with Sheng Manru. Hence, it was inevitable that she would be impulsive. This was also what the Dean suspected.

He glanced at Su Cha again. Didn't they say that Su Cha had a strange relationship with the Zuo family? Why did she look so protective of Zuo Zhici now?

They were waiting for the witness to arrive. Su Cha told Zuo Zhici to wait while she immediately went to the infirmary.

In the infirmary, Fu Mo was waiting. When she saw Su Cha, she skipped over and said, "She's really vigilant. She didn't say anything she shouldn't have."

Su Cha nodded and followed her into the infirmary.

At this time, there were more people in the infirmary. There were many male students who came to visit Sheng Manru. When Su Cha appeared, everyone's eyes immediately shifted to her.

As Zuo Zhici was her younger sister, many people looked at Su Cha with subtle expressions, especially a few male students, who'd frowned.

Sheng Manru's eyes flickered when she saw Su Cha, but she still smiled immediately. "Sister Su Cha, you're here?"

Her voice was sweet. Seeing that her hand was bandaged, Su Cha smiled and said, "Is it that serious?"

A classmate beside her immediately said indignantly, "It's all because of Zuo Zhici!"

After he said this, he looked at Su Cha with anger. It was probably because Zuo Zhici was her younger sister that he hated her.

Su Cha turned around and looked at him. "You saw it?"

The student froze for a moment after being questioned by Su Cha. Then, he said confidently, "Many people saw it."

"Oh?"

Su Cha responded meaningfully.

[1] Describes a situation where a person pretends to fall or be injured at the slightest touch, often to ask for compensation

Chapter 963: What Do You Think They Can Do?

Seeing Su Cha's expression, everyone felt uncertain.

Everyone knew that she and Zuo Zhici were sisters, but not many people knew about the secrets of the Zuo family. Even if they knew that Su Cha did not return to the Zuo family, they could not be sure of the relationship between Su Cha and Zuo Zhici. But wasn't Su Cha also Sheng Manru's sister?

Now that Zuo Zhici had caused Sheng Manru to get injured, would Su Cha still treat her differently?

"Is it serious?"

Su Cha smiled and leaned towards Sheng Manru's bed. This was the first time she was so close to her, which made Sheng Manru feel a little scared.

She smiled subconsciously. "It's not serious... I just lost a little blood..."

These words were ambiguous. To others, bleeding was already an extremely shocking thing.

This would invite more blame on Zuo Zhici.

Su Cha asked again, "Did Zuo Zhici really push you?"

Sheng Manru's face was a little pale. Her eyelashes trembled as if she was at a loss. "I... I don't know why you asked that. Many people... saw it."

As she spoke softly, a classmate beside her immediately said indignantly, "Yes, many of us saw it. Are you trying to cover up for Zuo Zhici?"

Su Cha asked calmly, “Did you see Zuo Zhici’s hand touching Sheng Manru’s body?”

“I saw it with my own eyes!”

The student who spoke glared at Su Cha. “What do you mean? You just want to protect Zuo Zhici, right?”

Su Cha suddenly raised her hand slightly. Her action gave off a different meaning and immediately silenced the classmate. When he realized what had happened, his face immediately turned red and he felt humiliated.

“Can you guys go out? I want to talk to Sheng Manru alone and ask her in detail. If it’s true, I won’t cover up for Zuo Zhici. After all, this has nothing to do with me. As an elder sister, I naturally have to be clear about this.”

Su Cha’s indifferent words made others look at each other, making Sheng Manru nervous.

She grabbed the blanket on her bed and couldn’t say no.

Seeing this, the other students could only walk out slowly. Although they still looked at Su Cha warily, they had no choice.

After they left, Su Cha’s smile slowly turned cold.

Sheng Manru saw her expression and her heart trembled. She did not know what Su Cha would do.

She subconsciously shrank into the bed.

Su Cha chuckled. “Do you think I would ask you how exactly this happened? You and I both know very well whether Zuo Zhici pushed you or not. I don’t want to ask you what happened either. I’m here to tell you that if you insist on making Zuo Zhici take the blame for this, I will guarantee that not only will you leave the Imperial Capital University immediately, but I will also make sure that you can never return to China again.”

She laughed softly. The sound seemed to echo in Sheng Manru's heart, making her feel an inexplicable fear.

She paled. "You can't do that. I didn't accuse her—"

At a time like this, she still insisted that Zuo Zhici was the one who did it, and she even raised her voice on purpose.

Su Cha clicked her tongue. "No matter how loud you say it, no one outside can hear you."

She played it down and added, "Besides, I don't mind letting others hear it. Even if they did, what do you think they could do?"

Chapter 964: Solution

These words gave her the creeps.

Sheng Manru felt a little hopeless. "You can't do this. You..."

"Can't I? Are you sure about that?"

Su Cha stood up and looked down at her condescendingly. "Do you really think your tricks are so advanced? I didn't want to lower myself to your level because you didn't cross me directly. Now that you've crossed my sister, do you really think nothing will happen to you?"

Her tone was flat and not too arrogant. She was just calmly recounting her part.

But it made Sheng Manru feel even more uneasy.

She realized that Su Cha was not joking. She would really do that.

If Zuo Zhici was punished because of this matter, she would make Sheng Manru leave China directly. Furthermore, she did not care about the subsequent reactions that this would cause.

She didn't care what others said.

Such a person was the scariest. She did not care about what others thought of her.

How could Sheng Manru forget? She was a celebrity who didn't care about public opinion.

Sheng Manru pouted as if she wanted to cry, but Su Cha ignored her and left.

By the time Su Cha returned to the Academic Affairs Office, Zuo Zhici had already confronted the so-called witnesses. However, very soon, the Academic Affairs Office received a call from Sheng Manru, saying that she remembered now that Zuo Zhici did not push her back then and she had accidentally fallen.

Others might suspect that Su Cha had threatened Sheng Manru with this phone call, but it was also a slap to the face of the so-called witness.

Even the person involved refused to admit it, so what could you do?

When they left the office, Zuo Zhici was still in a daze as she said to Su Cha, "Sister, what method did you use? Why did Sheng Manru suddenly admit it?"

"She didn't admit it. She was forced to do it because I said that if she made you accept the blame, she wouldn't be able to stay in China anymore."

Su Cha had said this directly. Zuo Zhici was dumbfounded. "Wow... Sister, why didn't I think of that?"

Su Cha sneered. "Aren't you a lady? Why would a lady do such a thing?"

Zuo Zhici: "...That's different. Sometimes, I can be unladylike too."

The two of them left happily. When they reached the school gate, they saw an unexpected person.

A black Bentley's window rolled down, revealing Zuo Shaoxin's pale face.

Zuo Zhici was stunned when she saw Zuo Shaoxin's face. "Daddy?"

Su Cha did not expect Zuo Shaoxin to appear. The moment Zuo Shaoxin saw Su Cha, his eyes were filled with disgust. He looked at Zuo Zhici with a deep gaze. "Did you hit someone at your school?"

"I didn't!"

Zuo Zhici immediately realized that the school must have called Zuo Shaoxin.

However, he had not left the house for a long time. Zuo Zhici did not expect Zuo Shaoxin to appear this time, so she was a little surprised.

She looked aggrieved. "But it's settled. My sister helped me."

Zuo Shaoxin's eyes darkened when he heard the word "sister." Su Cha turned her head indifferently. "I'm leaving."

When Zuo Zhici saw Su Cha leaving, she looked conflicted. Zuo Shaoxin said, "Zhici, get in the car."

Zuo Zhici had no choice but to get into the car and leave with Zuo Shaoxin.

Su Cha got into her driver's car and immediately called Zong Yanxiu.

They could not let Sheng Manru off so easily. Now that she had caused trouble, it was better to get rid of her as soon as possible.

Chapter 965: Untitled

Because Su Cha had helped Zuo Zhici solve the problem, many people began to suspect whether or not Su Cha had threatened Sheng Manru that day when she visited her.

Otherwise, why would Sheng Manru say that Zuo Zhici did not push her?

Although it was the truth, it was hard to say if a certain someone was only adding fuel to the fire. After all, her casual words were enough to make others understand.

Previously, Sheng Manru had tried to introduce her aunt to Su Cha's father. Thus, Su Cha started with her parents. Sheng Manru had transferred here from abroad, and her parents did not agree with her decision. Moreover, Sheng Manru did not have a good reputation overseas.

A free country was always very open, so Sheng Manru's style was inevitably a little unrestrained.

Of course, this kind of boldness was nothing. It was just her personal freedom, but it was very different from her image in the country.

Soon, Sheng Manru's deeds abroad were uploaded to the Imperial Capital University forum.

Of course, Su Cha would not use such a method to deal with her. She had openly gotten Sheng Manru's parents to put pressure on her. Fu Mo was the one who had dug up all the foreign news about her.

Fu Mo had disliked this woman for a long time. In the past, he treated her like Su Cha did and ignored her. Now that she had crossed Su Cha's sister, Fu Mo naturally felt different.

The students of the Imperial Capital University were stunned when they saw a series of photos of Sheng Manru's "boldness" overseas.

Especially those male classmates who liked her.

People did change, but the latest photo was taken a few weeks before she entered this school. Would a person's style change so much in that time?

The students of the Imperial Capital University were not fools. They immediately sensed that something strange.

How did a girl with such a Western mindset suddenly become a lovable little white flower?

Who was she trying to fool?

“This Sheng Manru... tsk tsk tsk...”

In the afternoon, when Zuo Zhici and Su Cha were having lunch together, she brought up this news to Su Cha. Su Cha did not speak, but now, when Zuo Zhici mentioned Sheng Manru, her eyes were full of disdain. “I was wondering why she was pretending. It turns out she was pretending because she’s a two-faced person.”

If Sheng Manru and she were both being honest, it wouldn’t be a big deal, but people had always hated this kind of two-faced style.

Zuo Zhici was young and impetuous. She had never suffered any grievances, so she naturally did not want to put on an act.

Seeing that Su Cha did not comment, Zuo Zhici suddenly asked her carefully, “Sister, did you make this happen?”

How could it be such a coincidence that Sheng Manru had just gotten into a conflict with her and she was now being skinned alive?

Su Cha shook her head. “No.”

She planned to start with Sheng Manru’s parents. Now, it had worked. Sheng Manru would be forced to go back after some time. Of course, this would only bring forward the time.

Fu Mo whispered, “I did it.”

Zuo Zhici looked at Fu Mo in surprise. She knew that Fu Mo was Su Cha’s assistant, so she said, “How did you find out? You can’t possibly have known about those photos, right? I’ve checked her INS and Weibo, but there’s nothing.”

“It’s in her phone.”

Fu Mo shut her mouth.

Zuo Zhici glanced at Fu Mo and then at Su Cha. She immediately said in a low and careful voice, “Don’t let anyone else know. I know you’re helping me vent my anger, but you’re my sister’s assistant. If anyone finds out, they’ll think that my sister did it.”

Chapter 966: Final Travel

“It doesn’t matter.”

Su Cha smiled lightly and wiped her mouth elegantly with a tissue. “Do you know that these photos are nothing special? They are not really out of line. They are just some bar photos. But why would they have such a huge impact on Sheng Manru? It just doesn’t match her image in the Imperial Capital. Many students will think that they were deceived. Even if they think that I did it, they won’t think that it’s a big deal without any evidence.”

Because their attention had been attracted by Sheng Manru’s deception, people’s anger was now directed at Sheng Manru.

Zuo Zhici nodded indignantly. “Yes, isn’t that so? I didn’t expect her to be so pretentious.”

After lunch, they received news of Sheng Manru transferring schools in the afternoon.

Su Cha was a little surprised. Her reaction was so fast, it was like a joke when she transferred out of school.

The news was released in the morning and the transfer was done in the afternoon.

But it was also the truth. With the photos taken a few weeks ago, even if they were talking about becoming a new person, what did they do to become a new person?

It was just some photos from a bar. It was just that the students in the capital could not accept the deception of the image she tried to sell in public.

With the pressure from her family, Sheng Manru had no choice but to return overseas.

Her weeks in the country had been like a farce.

The news of Sheng Manru's transfer came along with the last semestral trip.

This was a tradition in the Imperial Capital University.

Every year at the end of the semester, there would be schools organizing tours. There were many places to be visited, both domestic and overseas, with a time limit of one week. The students could choose where they wanted to go, and the school was responsible for accommodation and transportation. Although the Imperial Capital University's customized travel conditions were not bad, there was no lack of students who wanted to enjoy a better life. This would be at their own expense.

As this was a trip at the end of the semester, to prevent others from saying that she was unsociable, Su Cha also chose a place to register. After Zuo Zhici and Fu Mo knew about it, they chose the same place as her.

This place was a German city with good scenery. Su Cha had never been to any place except America.

When Bo Mui learned that Su Cha was going on an end-of-term holiday, he looked as if someone owed him 100 million yuan.

"Why are you traveling again?"

While Su Cha was packing her luggage at home, Bo Mui was watching from the side. He stared at her luggage as if he wanted to burn a hole in it.

"Again?"

Su Cha tilted her head and looked at him. There was a hint of amusement on her delicate face. "This would be my first trip, right? I only used to go out because of work. Besides, the school said that if I don't go on a trip, I'll have to stay in school to study. Of course, I'm choosing to go on a trip."

Was Su Cha such a studious person?

Of course not.

Bo Muyi furrowed his eyebrows and his clear voice sounded cold. “You don’t want to stay at home with me.”

Su Cha turned around and went to the wardrobe to continue picking clothes. She laughed softly and said, “Bo Muyi, stop talking nonsense. If I could take you away, I would do it. But the luggage isn’t big enough for you.”

Bo Muyi came forward and hugged her. He hugged her waist and rested his chin on her shoulder. He felt a little wronged. “It’s a week. You have to call me every day. You have to video call me in the morning and at night.”

“Alright, isn’t this our habit anyway?”

When she was outside, she would definitely call Bo Muyi every day.

Chapter 967: City Strategy Guide

At the end of June, the summer vacation officially began.

On the morning of the departure, Su Cha went to the airport on the bus after meeting up with her classmates.

As it wasn’t a particularly famous place, there were only about 30 students who chose this place. There were just enough to fill one bus.

Zuo Zhici was unusually excited to go on a holiday with Su Cha. When she got on the bus, she was wearing a bohemian-style dress and a straw hat. She looked like she was going on a vacation to the sea and was talking excitedly along the way.

Su Cha was half-asleep the whole way. She really did not want to bother with Zuo Zhici.

Like a little fly, she kept buzzing in her ears.

However, after arriving on the plane, the ten-odd hours of flight was tiring. On the first day in this small city, everyone felt a little tired from taking the plane.

In addition, many people often traveled overseas, so the novelty was not very strong. On the first day, everyone stayed in the hotel and rested for a while, which was in sync with the local time.

It was the afternoon of the local time.

Fu Mo went out with a small backpack and a handwritten notebook.

Before she left, Su Cha asked her where she was going.

Fu Mo said directly, "I'll observe the surroundings and map out the terrain. I'll search for a strategy on Baidu and make a plan so that we don't mess around without a goal."

Zuo Zhici followed up. "Don't we all have teachers to join us?"

Every team came with two teachers.

"It's also Teacher's first time here."

Fu Mo left after replying.

Zuo Zhici looked at Fu Mo's back as she left and was slightly impressed. "What a good person."

Su Cha chuckled. "Looks like I can only sit back and enjoy the fruits of my labor."

Zuo Zhici nodded, then shrugged and said, "I'm not feeling well. Sister, I'll go up and rest for a while. When it's time for dinner, give me a call."

"Go on."

After Su Cha agreed, she did not return to her room to rest.

For more than ten hours on the plane, she had been resting with her eyes closed and circulating her internal energy. She was more energetic than anyone else, so of course she couldn't sleep.

As for why she did not follow Fu Mo out, it was because she was too lazy to go.

Sitting in the hotel lobby, Su Cha observed the guests around her as she sipped her coffee.

After all, they were of different races. Previously, she had this feeling in America, but now, she was in Germany.

The Germans were strict and self-disciplined. Just by looking at the guests coming and going into the hotel, one could tell that most of them were foreign guests.

Of course, there were many guests from China.

She was wearing sunglasses, so not many people recognized her. However, the customers would all look over subconsciously and be attracted by this mysterious girl.

In just one afternoon, Su Cha received several business cards. Guests from all over the world had them. Even when the waitress came to refill her coffee, she had a rare smile on her face.

When it was almost nighttime, Fu Mo returned.

She was not surprised to see Su Cha in the hall. She just sat down and said, "This place is quite famous, but the security in the city is average. I just went out to take a look. There are still gangs in the east. If we go out to play, we should stick to our main goals. We shouldn't go anywhere else."

Chapter 968: Missing

Su Cha and Fu Mo were not afraid, but it would be troublesome if they did not also look out for the group led by their teacher.

However, Su Cha was a little surprised. "You've only been there for a short while and you've already figured it out."

Fu Mo tilted her head and smiled mischievously. “Classmate Su, have you forgotten what I do again?”

Su Cha smiled and did not speak.

Fu Mo was a hacker, after all.

If she were to investigate using those skills, she would definitely find out a lot very quickly.

When they came out at night, Fu Mo told their teacher about her investigation.

The teachers all knew that Fu Mo was an amazing talent and were very concerned about her news. During the meal, they instructed the students not to run around, not to leave the group, and not to go to places they shouldn’t go.

Although the students agreed verbally, it was inevitable that they would be especially wild when they went to such places.

That night, everyone rested in the hotel. The next day, they went to the first location of the tour and experienced the local culture. It was also Su Cha’s first time here, so she had fun.

In the next few days, everyone followed Fu Mo’s plan and some of the teachers’ suggestions. They had fun and had nothing else to do.

On the sixth day, the group of people who had finished a day of sightseeing finally returned to the hotel after a two-hour bus ride. Most of the students were already exhausted.

After dinner, everyone went back to their rooms to rest. At about one o’clock in the morning, Su Cha heard some movements outside with her excellent hearing.

It sounded like panic, and a few people were making noise.

She lived on the same floor as more than ten classmates.

She got up. Zuo Zhici was sleeping soundly beside her.

Su Cha opened the door and took a look outside. The voice became clear and she could hear a girl crying.

“They said they’ll be back at 12:30 am. They haven’t returned yet. I didn’t get through to them either. I don’t know what to do...”

A few students in pajamas were gathered together, and one of them was a teacher who was not fully awake yet. She looked at them with an ugly expression. “Why did you only tell me about such a big thing now? Didn’t we say on our first day here not to run around? You guys aren’t familiar with this place, yet you still dare to run around in the middle of the night! Do you know that the law and order in the middle of the night overseas isn’t like that in our country? What if something happens?”

After the teacher said that, the girl cried even louder.

“What should we do? Should we call the police now?”

“We’re adults, and we’re foreigners. They’ve only been missing for less than half an hour, and even calling the police might not be enough...”

Su Cha leaned over and listened for a while. From their frantic analysis, she learned that a few female students had arranged to go out to play. It was late at night and the shops were closed early. Of course, only a few places could be open now.

The bars.

When they were in China, this group of classmates was also very playful. Now that they were overseas, no one hovered over them, so they had even more fun.

They were supposed to be back at 12:30 am, but it was already 1 am and they were nowhere to be seen.

A female classmate whom they had greeted earlier called, but no one picked up. She then frantically looked for the teacher.

After all, they were overseas and she could not guarantee anything.

The teacher's face was also very gloomy. After all, if any of the students here were to get into trouble, it would be hard for the teacher to absolve herself from the blame. The key was that this was a foreign country. In the middle of the night, the teacher did not dare to let other students go out to look for them.

Chapter 969: I Want to Go Too

"I know where they are."

Fu Mo suddenly opened the door and came out. Everyone looked at the source of the voice. Fu Mo held up her cell phone. "I found their cell phone. It's in a bar in the city."

When the teacher saw Fu Mo, she was overjoyed. However, when she heard Fu Mo's words, she was a little worried. "Then give your phone to me. I'll go look for them..."

Fu Mo shook her head and glanced at Su Cha. "Teacher, Su Cha and I will go."

"Su Cha?"

The teacher looked at Su Cha and was stunned for a moment. Then, she shook her head violently. "No, it's too late now. I'm worried about either of you going out. I will get the hotel security to go with you."

Su Cha did not expect Fu Mo to call her. She thought for a while and said, "It's okay. Fu Mo and I will go. It will be fine. Don't worry, Teacher."

The main thing was that she wanted to go back after the end of the semester. Since they were classmates, she might as well go to them.

The other students looked at each other. Of course, this was a foreign country. They did not dare to say that they would go out in the middle of the night to look for someone. So when they saw Fu Mo and Su Cha agree to go out, they looked at them in surprise.

The teacher was also very hesitant. Then, she said, “How about this? I’ll call the hotel security. You guys can go with me?”

After all, Fu Mo had located her. She would know more details if she brought her along.

Fu Mo glanced at Su Cha. Su Cha nodded silently and Fu Mo agreed.

Su Cha returned to her room and changed into a set of pajamas. She turned on the lights and woke Zuo Zhici up. She rubbed her eyes in confusion and got up. “Sister, what are you doing?”

When she saw Su Cha changing her clothes, she immediately sobered up. “Where are you going?”

“I have something on.”

Zuo Zhici instinctively looked at the time and immediately said, “No, it’s already one in the morning. It’s not safe overseas. Why are you going out?”

She was not sober, but she was rational.

“Some classmates have gone missing. We’re going to look for them.”

Zuo Zhici widened her eyes. “Who?”

“From another department.”

Su Cha did not say much. Seeing that Su Cha was about to go out, Zuo Zhici immediately got out of bed. She did not change her clothes and only had on simple fluffy animal pajamas. “I’ll go too.”

Su Cha: “...”

She had a headache. “What would you do if something happens?”

“Am I going to watch you enter the tiger’s den? Don’t worry, Sis. I’ll listen to you and hide behind you.”

She knew about Su Cha and knew that she was not a simple fighter.

If her sister dared to go out in the middle of the night to look for her classmates, she was no ordinary person.

Su Cha could not persuade her and could only bring Zuo Zhici along.

The teacher was already having a headache over the two of them, and now that Zuo Zhici was going, her eyes widened even more. “Isn’t this nonsense?”

The other teacher who was woken up was also a little worried. “I won’t be at ease if you guys go. Bring another...”

Zuo Zhici, who was wearing a hat, shook her head vigorously. “I’ll be fine with my sister around!”

She was bold and confident. It was obvious that this was a new designation for Su Cha.

The teacher: “...”

That made him even more worried.

One of the hotel’s black security guards came. He knew that this group of guests were from China and their identities were not ordinary. He knew the area well and left with a few people.

A group of people happened to be sitting in the same car. When the teacher got into the car, she was well aware that she had brought three students with her. Her head hurt a little and she could only pray that nothing would happen. It was enough to find the others safely.

Chapter 970: Let Them Go

The road wasn’t too dark. The street lamps were all lit up, and many high-rise buildings were as bright as day.

Of course, there might not be anyone inside.

The shops here closed very early and very few people wandered around in the middle of the night.

If they did, they were probably planning to go to a bar or were coming back from one.

Fu Mo's destination was half an hour away. The driver drove quickly and only took about ten minutes. When they arrived, they realized that there were many people around.

The security officer explained, "There are many bars nearby, so there are many people here."

To be honest, most of the bars in Germany were formal places, and most people could come in for a drink. However, this city itself was small, and the security was average. There were a lot of foreigners mixed in. When the car passed by here, they could hear many foreigners cursing loudly.

Fu Mo looked at her phone and suddenly pointed to one of the bars. "Here."

They looked over and saw a bar with an English sign.

Coincidentally, when they looked up, they saw three familiar figures walking out while being supported by someone. They were dressed boldly in a completely different style from those seen in China. One of them waved her hand, and the person supporting her was a Caucasian male youth. She seemed to want to shake him off, but she did not have the strength.

The other two were also a little confused. They were half carried away by the foreign men beside them.

The teacher was livid. She immediately got out of the car and walked towards them. "Zhao Ziqi, Wu Ya, Lian Zhu!"

Her voice was a little loud due to her anger and she spoke in Chinese, attracting the attention of the people nearby.

Su Cha observed for a while. These people did not seem to be locals. Many of them seemed to be from other countries. Of course, they might be locals, but she could not tell.

Most of these people wore very distinctive clothes, just like in China. You could tell at a glance that they were not ordinary—gangsters.

The teacher got out of the car first. She walked over and called out the names of those three people. One of the girls seemed to have reacted and was about to run towards her. However, the Caucasian male youth beside her held her back and scolded her. The teacher walked over and first scolded her loudly in German. She wanted to pull the female students away, but after realizing that they could not understand her, she switched to English.

The black security guard sat in the car and did not dare to get out of the car. He turned around and said to Fu Mo and Su Cha, “Hey little girl, it’s not that I don’t want to go, but your teacher is really brave. This is the territory of the local Mexican gang. I’m a little scared.”

Su Cha: “...”

Fu Mo: “...”

This big brother was quite honest. They did not make things difficult for him. Su Cha said lightly, “Wait here.”

Then, she got out of the car with Fu Mo.

Zuo Zhici did not dare to get out of the car to drag Su Cha down. She could only stay in the car and watch with wide eyes through the car window.

The teacher on the other side wanted to pull them back but was pushed by a group of black men. The teacher was a little afraid. After all, these overseas people were all tall and strong. They even had a gangster aura and were very scary.

However, looking at the girls in their hands, the teacher had no choice but to muster up her courage and say, “We’re Chinese, we’re tourists. If anything happens, we’ll report it to the embassy. Please let go of my students...”

“Hahahaha, b*tch, what are you talking about? How can we just release the goods that we have obtained?”

They laughed, obviously not taking her seriously.

At this moment, an extremely clear female voice speaking in English sounded from the wind. “Let them go.”