

The Rejected Luna

Chapter 25

THE REJECTED LUNA.

THE GIRL WITHOUT A WOLF.

CHAPTER 25.

ALPHA KING, RICHARD'S EARLIER STANCE.

I hate the way her mother talks to me. She disrespected me. I was so mad at her when she told me she knew the whereabouts of my mate but she was not going to tell me. What kind of mother is that? Why is she refusing to tell me where my mate is staying?

"Look here, woman, tell me where my mate is staying, or you are going to face my rage," I warned her.

"Alpha king, you are not worthy of my daughter," she smirks. "My baby girl deserves the best.

I didn't deserve her, did I? A woman is nothing to be proud of. They only know how to produce their mate's pup. How dare she say I am not worthy of her.

"I am only accepting her because she has a wolf. Do you think your daughter is anything special? I flared back. Stop thinking highly of her. She didn't deserve me.

"You just said what? Her father asked. "You said she has a wolf now. She's no longer the woofless girl?"

"Yes, she is not. I think you should be asking your wife about this. She did not seem to be surprised. She knows she has a wolf. I guess you are the only one that didn't know about her wolf." I let out. Tell me, woman, where the hell is she?

"Can you stop all this?" Parker howled at the back of my mind. "Can you stop giving them problems?"

Instead of him supporting me, he is supporting her family.

"If we can't force her or threaten her, how are we supposed to know where she is staying? I growl at him.

I backed out when he threatened to leave me if I didn't stop giving that problem.

The beta and his wife were arguing over the news he had just heard from me. He feels betrayed.

"Why did you keep the fact that she is no longer useless?" He fired his mate. "Why didn't you tell me your daughter has a wolf?"

"Can you stop fighting in front of me? I yell. "I have no time for your drama. You can continue your fight when I am no longer here.

I face the angry woman and say, "Trust me, I am going to find your daughter and make her mine. I'll be on my way now. "Good day, Betta." Let's go, Raymond.

When we reached where I parked the car. I give the car keys to Raymond.

"I am not feeling alright. Can you drive us to the pack? I utter. He gave me one kind of evil look before snatching the car keys from me.

"Raymond, did I offend you? I asked my best friend, who was giving me an attitude and refusing to talk to me.

"No, my king. "You didn't offend me," he said.

"Shit! Then why are you not talking to me? Why are you giving me an attitude? I question. I am not comfortable with your new found behavior.

"I am still the same person," he whispered. "My behavior never changes." You change, alpha. I am still trying to get to know you all over again, even though we are childhood friends.

"Change?" "I am still the one you have known since we were children," I uttered. "Nothing changed.

"Mmm, you think so? He inquired. ever since you met your mate. You rejected her when I advised you not to. You turned against me. You sleep with different girls. You even went as far as to lull yourself to sleep with the pack bitch. You change from good to worse.

I stay silent. I don't know what to say. He is right. I never knew I went this far. I am just blinded by my hatred for her.

"I am sorry." I apologize. I am just blinded by hatred. I don't want to lose my best friend.

"You are blinded by your hatred for your mate," he laughed. "Your other part.

"I am sorry. I am trying my best to look for her and apologize." I mumble. I hope she is going to forgive and accept me.

I lied. I know he knows where she is staying. Only he can tell me where she is right now. Only Raymond can help me find her. I need to pretend to be remorseful or else I will never see her again.

"I regret treating her that way. Only if I can see her, will I be able to apologize to her in the right way.

"Are you sure, alpha? Raymond asks. I can feel he is happy in his tone. "Will you apologize and accept her as your mate?"

"Yes, I will, but unfortunately she is gone and I don't know where she is," I stated.

"Alpha, I know where she is," he muttered. I know where your mate is.

Yes. Finally, he falls into my trap. I have been wanting him to tell me this. What a bad beta. keeping my mate away from me.

"What did I just hear you say? I scream. "You know the whereabouts of my mate and yet you refuse to tell me. What have i done to you to deserve this from you, Ray?"

"I am sorry, Alpha," he apologized. He feels guilty. "I thought you never loved her and just wanted to make use of her power for your own good. I will tell you where she is staying since you already have a change of mind.

"Tell me where she is, please." Where is my mate? I ask.

"Do you remember my mate who I told you about? He said. Her name is Ella and she is the daughter of the beta of the pack your mate is staying with.

"Turn around, Raymond. We need to go to where she is right away.

Raymond turns the car around and heads to the pack. Raymond suddenly stopped talking. I know he is mindlinding his mate. I don't care since i know she will never be able to escape from me.

"The Alpha king is here," the guards announced, immediately spotting me.

The door was open and I stepped down from my car. The Alpha and his wife, Luna, run out to welcome me.

"You are welcome to my pack, alpha king." The alpha bows his head.

"Welcome here, my king," Luna said.

"Thank you. Raise.

They led me to the hall, where I took my seat. Raymond stayed beside me.

"Alpha king," what brings you here? He asked.

I responded, "I am here to look for my mate." "Please, get her here for me.

"Which female are you talking about, alpha king? The alpha asks.

I responded, "She is not any female, but my mate, Jane."

"You over there, come here!" he called over one of his guards. "Call Jane over here."

"Yes, Alpha." He bowed his head before going to call her.

Richard's present stance.

I can smell the alluring smell of her. She smells so good.

"Pray that she forgives us," Parker said. "Why won't she forgive us? We are her mates.

Her smell makes me drool. I saw my beautiful mate enter the hall. She is so pretty, just like a goddess. Why did I not notice her the first time I saw her? She is too beautiful. She is the definition of a luna. We fit each other perfectly.

"Alpha," you summoned me, "she explained. Her voice makes me want to claim her right here. without letting the alpha speak. I walked to her and held her hand.

I can feel the bond. The electric sparks that flow through my body. Is this how it feels to touch your mate?

"I am here for you, mate," I whisper. "I am here to accept you as mine.

I am sure she will be happy that I am finally considering accepting her as my mate and queen. She smirked at me, which made me amused.

"Are you not mistaken about something, alpha king?" Her voice changed from sweet to evil. I remember someone rejecting me.

Is she trying to play hard to get? What the shit is she saying? She should be happy. I am accepting her as my queen, not giving me a smirking attitude.

"Are you playing hard to get? I ask. She pushed me away.

"I don't want anything to do with you," she growls. Her body is oozing out a strange yet powerful aura. Her power feels threatening to me.

I never expected what she did next.

"I, Jane Biller, accept your rejection," she howls.

"What the fuck!" Is she out of her mind? How dare she treat me like this. She accepted my rejection.

I was furious. I want to teach her some bitter lessons.

"You... you dare accept my rejection. I am your mate. Your chosen mate that the moon goddess chose for you, don't you know that? I howl.

"Accept me or die". I threatened her to make her scared, but she chose to fight me. I smirk thinking she is courting death.

"You want to die so badly? I am going to grant you your wish. I wail.

She attacked me. I was planning to grab her neck, but she was stronger than I thought. She attacked me and crawled on my face. She dared disfigure me. I cry out in pain. My face was oozing blood. It did not take long for it to heal itself. I underestimated my enemy. She tried to attack me again. I fell and she bit down on my neck. Shit, she wants to kill me. Why am I so weak? "Parker, you have to help me."

"Why should I help you kill my mate? I warned you, didn't I? He said. "We have a deal that you are going to apologize to her, not to threaten her. You are nothing without me. I am the alpha, human.

"We will die together if you don't help me," I told him. "We are one. Do you want to die?"

"Fine, let's die together," he howls. I will be happy to die in the hands of my mate. He is crazy, like this crazy woman on top of me.

"Raymond!" I cried out. Are you just going to watch her kill your alpha? That idiot was watching as my crazy mate fought me. He didn't intend to help me. The alpha once asked her to stop, but she growled at him. What kind of monster is she? She easily grabbed Raymond's neck.

"Please", I hear a little girl sob. "Don't kill him. He is my mate. She immediately stopped her attack. She must have recognized her. She is Ella, Raymond's mate. She listened to that little girl. She won't kill me if she tells her not to, but that bitch says something else. "You can kill the alpha king."

They are my enemies. She told him to kill me. I have to live. I will do anything to live. I looked around and I spotted her. Yes, she is the one. With my werewolf speed, I rushed to her. I grabbed her neck. My mate is still talking to Ella.

"Hey, look here," I uttered. I smirked when I saw her pleading face. Yes, just that. This is what I want to see.

I threaten her with her friend's life. She keeps begging me.

"Is that how you plead, bitch?" I smirk. "On your knees and crawl here and lick my shoes.

Her wolf is no longer on the surface. She did as I told her. I made the right choice. She must be someone important to her.

"Please, don't hurt my child" Luna pleads. Oh, she is the alpha daughter. She is a real good deal.

After letting her go. Her death aura surfaces again. She wants to kill me again. I won't allow it. I will make sure I bend her. She rejected me. Only if she takes back her rejection will I forgive her. I won't even blame her for killing an alpha, but that bitch rejects me again and again.

"One wrong move from you, and she will be dead.

since you rejected me. You will be punished for killing an alpha. You will be thrown into the cell. Every werewolf's nightmare.

The alpha spoke, telling me she was defending herself from being molested by him. I know what exactly Alpha Jason did, but I am not judging in her favor, I will teach her some bitter lessons.

I asked where she was when she was molested. Did he molest her in the pack? No, but at the club.

I am sure she seduced him with that body of hers. She must have put on some indecent clothing. I remember when I came across her at the club, I was lusting over her, not knowing who she was then. Until I realized she was my mate. How could she wear clothes that were only meant for me to see to the club? I close my eyes. I know she will kill me, but my mate begs, and she hauls me to the ground. He fears for his life when he hears Ella telling his friend to kill the alpha king. He threatened them and even threatened her with her friend's life to save himself. He nearly wept on his pants. He disappointed me when he threatened Amira's life. What a good king he was.

"I am sorry." I apologize to my mate. "I caused all this. I should never have let him manipulate me. I am so sorry.

"It's not your fault," she said. "You don't know the real face of your alpha. You fall into his trap. I don't blame you.

"I'm guilty. Your friend got arrested because of me. It's all my fault. I am so stupid. I can see the sadness in my mate's eyes. Even if she knows it's my fault, she never blames me.

"Raymond, arrest this bitch now," the alpha king screeches.

I stare at my mate. I can never disobey my king, and I don't want my mate to be unhappy. What should I do? Should I disobey him and free Jane, or should I arrest her and make my mate unhappy. What should I do?
