Chapter 26

THE REJECTED LUNA.

THE GIRL WITHOUT A WOLF.

CHAPTER 26

Jane's Stance

If I didn't follow the alpha king. He threatened to wipe away the pack members if I tried anything funny.

"I am sure you don't want to lose the ones you care for," he stated. I stared at him for a long time. He is determined to punish me.

"Alpha, please forgive her for my sake," Uncle Tommy pleaded. I am begging you to please forgive her.

"Anyone that pleads for her or asks me to forgive her will be severely punished," he said. "Do you all understand me?"

"Uncle don't worry. I am willing to follow him " I mutter. Raymond arrested me.

"Let's go," he said. "Take care of your daughter, Tommy."

The drive to his pack was silent like a graveyard. I can feel his hot gaze on my skin. Why is he staring at me? Did he want more beatings from me?

I can't believe I once had a crush on this monster then, not knowing he was my mate.

"Ray, drive fast. I can't wait to punish this bitch," he mutters.

I smirk and stay silent. Is he expecting me to say a word? He can punish me as he wants, but I will be back soon.

"Yes, my king," he whispered.

"Get your ass down," he yells when we reach his pack. "In this place, you have no say here. You have to follow my pack rules. You will be punished if you fail to follow my rules.

"I thought I was going to jail. Why are you telling me your pack fucking rules?" I smirk. "What the hell is happening?"

"Look here, little mate." He pinched my face, making me forcefully see his ugly face. "I am not planning to put you into jail. I will forgive you if you undo your rejection and accept me as your mate. You can live here with me as my queen and the pack luna.

I laughed out loud. Who does he think he is? I should accept him as my mate. I will never do that, not even in hell.

"I will never do that you, ugly thing. I would rather die than accept you as my mate and alpha, I stated. " I'd rather be in jail than spend a minute with you. You disgust me, dear alpha king.

"Well, you are too stubborn. I hate women who think highly of themselves," he utters. "You want to learn your lesson the hard way, right? Then I am going to grant you your wish. You are going to beg to be free soon.

"Raymond, throw this thing into the cell," he commanded.

I was not forcefully pushed. I gently follow me. I can sniff the disgusting strong smell coming from the jail. It smells like rotten skin. The jail is the worst fear of every werewolf.

"I am sorry," he apologized. "I caused all this. I cause you to be here. Please forgive me. I'm sorry.

I can see he is guilty. He thinks he is the cause of my problem. He didn't put me in here. I cause all this for myself.

"It's okay. You did nothing wrong, I whisper. "I forgive you, Ray.

"Thank you, please, bear with me," he said. "You will be free soon. I will conceive him.

"No need. I can handle my situation. " Thank you," I let out.

He opened the cell door. I walk freely inside.

"I will bring some food for you," he said.

"It's okay. I have eaten, I mutter. You don't have to bring anything for me.

After Ray left, I was left alone in my cell. It was so cold that my teeth began to shake.

"Jane, Amber, call my name." How are you feeling?

"Amber, won't we freeze to death if this goes on? I asked my wolf.

"We won't. Don't be scared. I am with you, and I'm going to protect you. I can hear the footsteps of someone coming towards my cell.

"Someone is coming," Amber says. The steps stop at the front of my cell. I looked up only to see his gaze. He is staring at me. I can see the lust in his eyes.

"What do you want from me again? I asked the alpha king who stood outside my cell door.

"Why are you suffering yourself? He inquired. You should be with me in my room having a nice time together instead of being here in this cold cell." How are you enjoying your stay?

He is here to mock me. That piece of trash. I didn't reply to him. I kept staring at the floor, ignoring him.

"I will make you regret picking a fight with me and ruining my face," he said as he left. I didn't think too much of what he said.

THE NEXT DAY IN THE CELL.

I crawled up. The entire night here was horrible. It was cold all through the night. Amber keeps talking to me. She tried to keep me warm till she was tired.

I was still sleeping on the cold floor when I heard my door cell open.

"Stand up, bitch!" A stranger dragged my hair. Stand up. The Alpha king is here. What was he doing early in this cell? Is he here to mock me again?

I was struggling. He was staring at me.

"Bow down to the king," the guards howl. I try to fight him when he drags my hair, forcing me to bow.

"You won't have the chance to struggle again," the king began. "Go bring out that thing.

The guard left, and I was alone with the king. What did he ask the guard to bring? I was still in my thoughts when the guard walked in back.

"Here. "This is what you ask for, my king," he said, passing him something like a wolf barn.

Amber tries to take over when she senses what he is trying to do.

"Hold her down," he said. "Be careful, she is a strong one.

I was held down by two other guys before he injected me with the wolf barn.

"Ahhhhh!!!" I scream.

"Let her be " he uttered. "You won't die. The amount I inject into you won't harm you that much, but it will weaken your wolf. I know you are nothing without her.

I was left alone to battle with the serum that was flowing in my bloodstream. I can't feel Amber. "Amber, are you there?"

I crawl at the end of the cell. "Why is he doing this just because I accepted his rejection?"

In the evening, I was lying in the same spot when Ray came in.

"Jane, what is wrong with you? He asked. "Are you okay?"

I could not talk. I lay there helplessly. I am too weak to lift my hands.

He asked again. "Jane, what is the problem? He sniffed the air before screaming. "Don't tell me the alpha king used a wolf barn on you to weaken your wolf!"

"He really did that to you? Unbelievably, terrible. This is terrible.

"What are you doing here? I hear the king's voice. He is questioning his friend. "Who gave you the permission to come see her? Are you planning to free her? Are you thinking of betraying me for her, Ray?"

"No. no," he said, raising his hand."I am not thinking of escaping with her. I will never betray you.

"Don't think you can betray me and you are going to go scott free," he threatened. "I don't want you to come here without my permission. Is that clear?"

"Yes, alpha," he responded.

"You can go now," the alpha said. I need to have a chat with my little maid.

"I can't believe I am going to see a day like this," he began. That day will come when you will be useless and helpless. I am here to ask you one more time. "Are you ready to be my queen? Become mine and have my pup.

He kept talking and talking without a break. I won't accept him.

"No" I managed to utter. "I won't accept you as my mate.

"Whatt!!!" You are so stubborn.

Splash!! Ahhhh " I scream. Someone poured water on my body. "What do you think you are doing? I scream.

"Time for your punishment," the guard smirks. I am in charge of inflicting punishment on you. I was dragged to the punishment room. I was still weak from yesterday's injection. I was not given food or water. Now I am being punished.

"What crime did I commit? I ask softly.

"Why are you asking this? You are not in the position to ask me this," he yells. "You are nothing but a criminal.

I was tied to a pole. He poured water on my body before he started to whip me.

"The king is right. "You are a stubborn one," he said as he continued whacking me. It cut my skin. I never shed tears. It hurts so fucking much, but I will never cry..

"Let's see how long you are going to hold up too, bitch," he cries. He whacked me heavily. Blood was oozing from the cut. My body was full of cuts.

"You will be punished anytime you disobey our king," he said. "Learn the way you talk in front of my king or else your punishment will be severe," he warns. "Learn the rules. Bow and obey the king if you want to live comfortably here in your cell.

Everyday in the cell is like hell to me. He made sure I was treated cruelly.

"Oh. oh. "Looks like someone won't be able to hold on any longer," he smirks. "Beg me, I might forgive you"

"Over my dead body" I split. "I will never accept you, monster.

"Then you are as good as dead" he said. "You reject being my mate. I will make you suffer. I'm the king of the werewolf race. My word is the law. No one is going to save you here. You can only save yourself by accepting my offer to be my luna, or else you can rot alone here. I will keep you forever here to keep my wolf, Parker at bay.

My life meant nothing to him. Every single day was horrible. Raymond sneaks here, showing me his pitiful face. He shows nothing but a merely pitiful look.

The guard did not lie. They torture me any time I disobey the king. They showed me no mercy. He was so cruel. He is indeed a monster.

"Pull her out," the alpha king commanded. "It seems you are not punishing her enough. I'll be the one to punish her whenever she disobeys me. My arms were tied together with iron cuffs. He heartlessly tortured me because I refused to submit to him. My heart twisted in excruciating pain in my chest, regretting why I didn't finish him off that day.

"Ahhh!" I scream The sound of my voice was getting weaker as he tortured me with an iron rod. I wanted to cry for help from this hell. I wanted to give up. I wanted to accept him. I wanted to tell him I accepted his offer to be his luna, but something inside of me wouldn't let me. Everything I wanted wasn't here anymore. My friends. My loved ones. My family wasn't here. I am alone. I'm alone with this monster who only knows how to torture me. Tears slowly began streaming down my face as the hit got heavier.

"Good reaction from you, little mate," he mutters. "You never disappoint me. I scream as pain shoots through my body. My body was bleeding. My entire body hurt like hell. I could feel myself drift in and out of my consciousness. He moved closer to me and whispered into my ears, "You bring this upon yourself, little mate." What I ask you to do is not a big thing. Why can't you accept me and live a peaceful life with me? I am ready to share my throne with you. He began to stroke my lips with his fingers. I hate his touch.

I bark at him, "Take your filthy hand away from me."

"Oh! Wow! You still have some energy left in you. "How strong are you?" "To be able to resist the wolf's bane and the punishment," he vents. "I am curious."

He moved closer. This time he was closer. He stroked my lips again before uttering, "Your pinky lips must taste good. What does it feel like to have a taste of my mate? My eyes widened when I felt his disgusting lips on mine. I bit hard on his lips. I make sure it brings out blood.

"What the hell?" he yells. I'll never forgive you for what you have done.
