

The Return 181

Chapter 181

The following day

Ingrid accompanied Roxanne to the maternity and children care center!

Bruce's semen had already been frozen! Roxanne also began to do various tests and got her hormone injections!

As long as the ovulation was successful, artificial insemination could be carried out!

"Mom, are we really going to do this?" Roxanne still couldn't make up her mind.

Ingrid sneered. "Silly girl, we have already come this far. Is there any room for regret?"

"Now, you can't retreat even a little, no matter what! Even if you die, you have to die as a part of the Everett family!"

On Joanna's side, she had also begun to look for lawyers to prepare for the lawsuit!

She had just found a lawyer. But before she could sue the Everett family, she had already received a summon letter from the court.

The lawyer hired by the Everett family also looked for her for a final negotiation.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Joanna's phone rang

"Hello!" Joanna answered the call.

"Hello, Ms. Haynes. I'm Jameson, the Everett family's lawyer!

"Margaret Everett entrusted me to conduct a final communication and negotiation with you regarding the children's custody!"

When Joanna heard this, she took a deep breath. "Speak!"

Mr. Jameson paused for a moment and said in a deep voice, "What Margaret means is to give you 40 million dollars to give up the children's custody!"

"Of course! Your daughter can stay by your side. The Everett family only wants custody of the two boys. That's fairer!"

"Heh!" Joanna could not help but sneer.

"Please tell Margaret that no matter what, I will not give up custody of the children!"

"Ms. Haynes, you have to think carefully about the consequences of going against the Everett family. The outcome is very disadvantageous to you. It's very likely that you won't get anything. I advise you to consider accepting the Everett family's monetary compensation!"

Joanna sneered. "The Everett family has a big business power indeed. But do they think they can bully me because of this?"

"I don't agree to the negotiation. Report to Margaret that everything will be carried out according to the legal process!"

"In that case, we can only follow the normal procedure!"

Soon!

Joanna also hired a lawyer and sent a lawyer's letter to the Everett family.

"Hello, I'm Brycen!"

"Hello!"

"I'm Ms. Haynes's lawyer!"

Bruce was terrified. He asked anxiously, "Are you alright? Let me take a look....."

Joanna's arms and knees were injured badly and they were even bleeding.

"I'll take you to the hospital!"

"No need! I'm fine!"

"There's so much blood. We have to hurry to the hospital to bandage it!"

Joanna tried her best to stand up. "I already said I'm fine!"

She would rather go to the hospital herself than let him send her.

Bruce could not be bothered to say anything else. He bent down and picked her up horizontally!

Joanna could not struggle and could only let it be.

Her suspicion grew!

The driver had clearly bumped into her on purpose!

Who could it be?

Was he hired by Ingrid?

That was very likely. Other than Ingrid, no one else would want her dead!

Bruce couldn't care less. He left the bodyguard to track down the driver. Then, he personally drove Joanna to the hospital.

Soon, they arrived at the hospital.

Joanna was quickly sent to the emergency room!

Bruce was waiting anxiously outside!

He waited for half an hour.

The doctor came out of the emergency room.

"Mr. Everett!"

"How is it? Is she alright?"

"Miss Haynes's wound has been bandaged. It's just some superficial wounds, and no bones are injured. She'll be fine after recuperating for a while!"

When Bruce heard this, he was finally relieved. "That's good!"

Then, Bruce rushed into the ward to see Joanna....

Meanwhile, Joanna was in the ward.

The doctor had bandaged her wound. She was now lying on the hospital bed and getting her drips injected.

Although it was only a superficial wound, she still had to get anti-inflammatory drips for a few days to prevent infection.

"Joanna, can you calm down a little? Look at how dangerous it was just now!" Bruce sat at the head of the bed and could not help but scold.

Joanna leaned against the hospital bed and

It was impossible for him to really do it with him in a drowsy mode!

"Bruce, aren't you happy? I thought you would be happy!" Roxanne said aggrievedly as she tugged at Bruce's sleeve with a pitiful expression.

"Roxanne, my mind is in a mess. Let me calm down!"

As Bruce spoke, he placed Lilia back into the pram. His brain was still trying to recall what had happened that night.

“Bruce, we’ve been in love for so long. Now that we have the gem of our love, this is a gift from the heavens!”

When Bruce heard this, he was even more annoyed.

“Roxy, go back first! Let me calm down!”

“If the child is really mine, I’ll take responsibility.”

“Bruce...”

Joanna looked at the two of them coldly and said, “If you want to discuss something, please go out and discuss it!”

When Roxanne heard this, she put away the grievance on her face and looked at Joanna with tears shimmering in her eyes. “Sister, please give up on

Bruce!”

“My child is really Bruce’s!”

“Sister, don’t interfere in our relationship anymore. The doctor said that I’m also pregnant with twins. I don’t want to be a single mother! Sister, I’m begging you this time!”

Roxanne sobbed and rubbed her lower abdomen occasionally, making herself look as pitiful and helpless as possible.

When Joanna heard this, she felt molten anger surging through her like lava, burning her heart until it was unbearable.

“Roxanne, I think you have mistaken! You should persuade Bruce to stop bugging me!”

Roxanne sneered deep down and could not help but curse in her heart, “Damn bitch, if it weren’t for you, Bruce wouldn’t have changed his mind!”

“You’re still pretending to be obedient after taking advantage of me. How disgusting. Bitch, bitch, bitch!”

Roxanne’s heart was filled with hatred, but she still had a weak and pitiful expression on her face.

“Sister, as long as you quit, Bruce won’t disown the children I bore, nor will he abandon me!”

“Sister, you’ve already snatched Bruce once. Don’t snatch Bruce again this time! Without Bruce, I won’t be able to live. Boohoo...”

When Bruce heard this, he felt irritated and snapped. “Stop talking... This is definitely impossible...”

“Bruce, do you not want to acknowledge our children because you have my sister’s children?”

“I am really bearing your child. If you don’t believe me, you can draw amniotic fluid for a paternity test after the fetus is four months old!”

She was artificially inseminated, so the children were naturally Bruce. No matter how he investigated, those were his children.

Bruce's heart skipped a beat. He subconsciously frowned!

It seemed like he had really slept with Roxanne that night.

Unexpectedly, she got pregnant.

This was bad. He really couldn't get rid of her even if he wanted to!

Bruce took the test report from Roxanne and looked at it. It showed that she was two weeks pregnant.

When Margaret heard that, she immediately widened her eyes. "That won't do. They are also the children of the Everett family!

"I will never favor one over the other. Since they are all children of the Everett family, I will treat everyone well and dote on them equally!

"The trial is starting next month. This time, we must get the children's custody!"

"Alright!" Bruce knew that he could not persuade his grandmother, so he could not be bothered to convince her anymore!

After all, his grandmother was old and sick. He did not want to anger her.

"Where are the children? I'll go and see them!"

"They're upstairs."

When Bruce heard this, he did not say anything else and walked straight to the second floor!

Crack!

Bruce pushed open the door to the two little guys' room!

The two little fellows stayed in the room dejectedly and unhappily!

To prevent the two little fellows from sneaking out of the Everett family again, the Everett family's various securities were very strict now.

The windows of the room were all installed with protective nets!

Surveillance cameras were installed in the room, and there were people watching them 24 hours a day. Every move of the two little guys was monitored, and there was no chance of them sneaking out.

"Davian, Irvin!"

Bruce walked in. When he looked, he realized that the two little guys had lost much weight!

Although the children were taken care of by a large group of servants, they still visibly lost a lot of weight.

Davian looked at Bruce. His entire body was filled with a murderous aura, and his eyes were red. "Big bad wolf, we want to go home. We want to see Mommy!"

"Your mommy..." Bruce paused for a moment, not knowing how to comfort the two children!

"Bad guy, when are you going to let us go?" Davian asked angrily. His little face puffed up like an angry pufferfish.

Irvin's personality was more extroverted, and he was a smart little boy. He quickly pouted and looked at Bruce pitifully. "Daddy, can you send us home?"

"We miss Mommy and sister very much. We don't want to stay here anymore. Please send us back, okay?"

Irvin said pitifully and blinked at Bruce obediently.

Jaydon sighed slightly!

Now, under the suppression of Bruce, Starlight Media was really taking one step at a time! If the movie his company invested in could not be released, his investment would be wasted!

Two of the celebrities that his company supported had also been poached, Bruce caused all of this!

Joanna had naturally heard of these things. Unfortunately, she was also in a difficult situation now. She could not even protect herself and could not help him at all!

“Jay, I’m sorry. It’s all my fault!”

Jaydon smiled when he heard this. He wasn’t too melancholic.

In any case, he came out to do business to gain experience. Even if he lost all his money, it did not matter. At most, he would return to the family business.

However, he hated his father very much. He hated his father for being heartless to her mother, causing her to take things too hard and commit suicide!

Therefore, even though he was his father’s most beloved son, he still did not want to be too close to his father.

“What do you mean by implicating me? It’s just a small matter.”

“Don’t think too much. Get up and eat the food I bought you!”

“Thank you!” Joanna looked at Jaydon with disappointment and guilt.

Jaydon placed the porridge on the small dining table on the bed and handed her the fork and spoon. At the same time, he comforted her. “If it really doesn’t work out, we’ll go north and shift the focus of our business to Mossbourne!

“The market for Mossbourne is better now. When we are in Mossbourne, even if Bruce wants to play dirty tricks, it probably won’t be of much use!”

Joanna felt it made sense after pondering.

Now that Mossbourne was developing rapidly, all kinds of industries were blooming everywhere!

Although Greyport was a special economic zone, it was already declining! Many things could no longer be maintained. It was wise to shift their focus to Mossbourne as soon as possible!

“I’ll have to trouble you during this period of time!”

“You don’t have to thank me. Hurry up and eat your porridge. It’s getting cold!”

Jaydon bought porridge and a few snacks, urging Joanna to eat more.

He was always considerate and cared for the people around him.

Joanna did not say anything else. She took a spoon and ate a few mouthfuls silently!
When the lawsuit against Bruce was over, she would shift all her focus to Mossbourne.
Meanwhile, things were not going well with Bruce either!

After Bruce left the hospital, he was still gritting his teeth in anger!
No wonder Joanna was so confident.

She had Jaydon backing her, so she naturally did not need him anymore.
He had often made things difficult for Joanna, and Jaydon had gotten someone to settle it for her!

"You were the one who replaced Joanna. You made me misunderstand Joanna for so many years!"

When Roxanne heard this, she felt like a knife had stabbed her heart! She did not want to believe that Bruce had never loved her.

"Bruce, no matter what. I'm pregnant now, so you have to be responsible for that!"

When Bruce heard this, he took a deep breath. After pondering for a few seconds, he said coldly and decisively, "Get an abortion!"

When Roxanne heard this, her tears instantly rolled down her cheeks. She shook Bruce's arm and cried, "No, I won't!"

"Bruce, I beg you, let me give birth to the baby! It's our child! Do you really have the heart to kill it?"

After Bruce, he thought about it carefully. It was impossible for him to sleep with Roxanne that night!

Lilian smiled and said patiently. "If you accidentally hurt Mrs. Everett or Ms. Haynes, it will be terrible!"

Davian put his hands on his hips and fired another shot at the ceiling. "If you don't let us go home, we'll play like this!"

Davian and Irvin ran around the hall happily, screaming from time to time!

The living room was in a mess!

They were not naughty children in the past. But now, they could only use a silly method to make others hate them and send them back to their mother's side.

Margaret couldn't help but sigh as she looked at the two noisy little guys.

She did not forget to remind them with concern, "Be careful and run slower. Don't fall!"

Roxanne tried her best to suppress the anger in her heart and smiled innocently. "Grandma, they're already at the age of kindergarten. Let's send them to school!"

"I know! But now is not the time!"

No matter what, she had to get custody of the children first.

"Why don't we just send them overseas to study?"

“Children have to be educated. Look at how naughty they are. It might be bad if they grow up mischievous!” Roxanne accidentally revealed her scheme.

She refused to accept these two little bastards, especially since they were Joanna’s children. The sight of them made her want to strangle them.

When Davian heard Roxanne’s words, he immediately aimed the toy gun at her again. Bang!

A small steel ball hit Roxanne’s lower abdomen!

Although this was a toy gun, it was extremely elastic. It was still very painful when it hit someone.

“Ah...” Roxanne screamed and hurriedly reached out to protect his lower abdomen.

It was not easy for her to get pregnant through artificial insemination. If anything happened, all her previous efforts would be in vain.

“Hmph. You bad woman! I’m going to shoot you!”

“Sigh. These two children really have to be educated!”

“Hurry up and send them back to their room!”

“Yes!”

The servants did not dare to hesitate anymore. They hurriedly went forward and carried the two little ones away.

Seeing the two children being so noisy, Margaret also had a headache. However, she still couldn’t bear to send the children overseas!

Those were the great-grandsons she had been looking forward to for many years. No matter how naughty they were, she was still happy!

“Roxy, don’t be angry with the children. Just avoid them in the future!”

Roxanne smiled awkwardly and squeezed out a grin. “No way. I can’t wait to like them. Why would I be angry with them?”

“The children are still young. If we spend more time with them in the future, we will definitely get along well!”

Margaret pursed her lips and smiled. “Yes. That’s good!”

"Hurry up and watch the news! The paparazzi took a video of you and Carmel!"

Boom!

When Jaydon heard this, he was completely stunned!

Carmel was a top-notch artist supported by his company. She had always been a young and naive idol!

Any bit of bad news would be a disaster for her!

That was worse for female celebrities. Once scandals about sleeping with someone spread, it would almost be a blow to their career.

On the other hand, it took a lot of effort and money for the company to make a top celebrity popular!

Jaydon's expression changed. He quickly stood up. "I understand. I'll return to the company immediately!"

Seeing how flustered Jaydon was, Joanna also became nervous. "Jay, what's the matter?"

Jaydon still smiled at her. "Erm... There's a small matter in the company. I have to go back and settle it!"

"Is it serious? Do you need my help?"

"No need. You won't be able to help me with my company's matters!"

Joanna winked. "Oh. Go ahead and settle it then!"

"Okay, I'm leaving now. Call me if you need me!"

"Goodbye!"

Jaydon left the Haynes Group and hurriedly drove to his company!

Soon, he arrived at the office building!

Jaydon parked the car and turned on his phone!

At a glance, the internet was filled with photos of him and Carmel together!

Their private photos were posted online!

The paparazzi were no longer able to take these photos. Moreover, they had posted them online!

From this, it could be seen that someone wanted him doomed!

Jaydon dared not go through the company's main entrance and went up the freight elevator from the side door.

Soon, he reached his office secretly.

Carmel and a few other managers were all there. They were all sitting with gloomy faces.

"Boss, what should we do now?" Carmel cried in grief.

Starlight Media was surrounded by thousands of reporters! There were even a few who sneaked into the company.

Carmel, as a top female celebrity, the matter of her sleeping with her boss to get famous instantly caused an uproar in the entertainment industry!

The naive idol image that she had painstakingly built had collapsed entirely! Her acting career was probably coming to an end!

"Hurry up and get the public relation team to suppress the news. Also, immediately negotiate with these websites!"

Owen sighed and said with a frown, "I've already sent the public relation team to suppress it, but they can't suppress it at all! The ferment on the Internet. is getting more and more serious!"

Jaydon's face was gloomy, and his mind was in a mess!

At this moment, he was not thinking about the company but how Joanna would react when she saw these photos.

Chapter 189

“Hello, hello...” Joanna called a few times.

A busy tone came from the other end of the line. Bruce had already hung up!

“Bruce, you damn bastard, What an annoying bastard!” Joanna gritted her teeth in anger!

But there was nothing she could do!

She was nothing and could not win against someone as powerful as Bruce. It was really helpless and powerless to compete with Bruce.

“Jay, I'm so sorry!”

Joanna ran her fingers through her hair, filled with frustration and anger!

She knew that it was all because of her that Bruce took revenge on Jaydon so crazily!

However, she did not expect Bruce to be so crazy and ruthless.

Joanna was at a loss.

The phone vibrated crazily again.

Joanna picked up the phone and looked at it. It was Michael Lawrence, the general manager of the factory in Mossbourne!

Joanna calmed herself down and picked up the call. “Hello, Michael!”

Michael's anxious voice came from the other end of the phone!

“Miss Haynes, something bad has happened at the factory!”

When Joanna heard this, his heart skipped a beat. “What happened?”

“Someone got into an accident in the factory. An employee was dozing off on the production line and was accidentally swept into the machine. He has already been rushed to the hospital!”

“It's a pity that they did not manage to rescue him...”

Boom!

That news was like being struck by lightning!

Joanna felt as if she had fallen into an abyss. She could not react for a long time!

The factory in Mossbourne had only been open for less than three months, and now someone had actually died!

That was really adding insult to injury!

“Have you informed the victim’s family?”

“I’ve already—informed them. The deceased is a university student who just graduated!”

“Right now, his family is causing a scene in the factory. The factory has already stopped production!”

Joanna sighed

Joanna was being treated in the emergency room!

Bruce stood outside with a cold expression on his face.

The reporters had finally found something to write.

In less than an hour, all the platforms competed to publish the news!

They also used Joanna’s unconscious photo as a cover gimmick.

[Mr. Grimm cheated on his fiancée, making her faint in grief.]

Joanna’s path to a wealthy family is bumpy. In the end, she is not accepted by a wealthy family.]

[The Haynes Group’s president died for love. She was so angry that she collapsed and fainted on the spot.]

[Mr. Everett is concerned about his ex–wife. He doesn’t care about his girlfriend and saves the damsel in distress.]

All kinds of titles were written randomly on the Internet!

Of course, Bruce was the wealthiest man in Greyport, after all!

The reporters did not dare to report nasty rumors about him, so they used his popularity to spread rumors.

But!

Bruce was still so angry that he could not speak when he saw the news!

“Andy, get someone to suppress all this nonsense!”

“Alright, Mr. Everett!”

Unfortunately, although Bruce had sent people to suppress the news about Joanna, the news was spreading too quickly on the Internet.

There were too many bloggers and netizens. They could not be suppressed at all!

He could only wait for the popularity to slowly fade.

Meanwhile, Joanna lay in the ward again.

At around eight in the evening, Joanna finally woke up from her coma!

Bruce had been sitting in front of the bed and guarding Joanna.

Joanna was lying on the hospital bed with a pale face. There was another white veil wrapped around her forehead.

Joanna opened her eyes in a daze!

She looked up and saw Bruce.

“Bruce, why are you here?” Joanna shook her head and felt extremely dizzy!

She struggled to sit up, but the pain in her body made her fall back to her original position. There was still an IV needle in her arm, which was extremely painful to move!

She looked around and realized that she was in the hospital again!

“Oh no, why am I in the hospital?”

“Where’s my phone?”

Joanna remembered the factory in Mossbourne. She had told Michael that she was going to the factory in the afternoon.

However, now that she had not appeared, the deceased’s family would probably think she was trying to avoid responsibility and not dare to show her face!

In business, integrity has always been the most important! If she did not appear now, the employees would probably not trust her.

“Where’s my phone?” Joanna asked anxiously.
