

The Savior 301

Chapter 301: the three rules: scamming His Highness (1)

“Thoughts? What are you thinking?” Lulu raised his head in confusion.

Just as granny Zhu was about to speak, her mouth opened slightly, but she did not manage to say a word.

He felt a bone-chilling cold and shivered, goosebumps rising all over his body.

She saw the young man opposite her looking at her gloomily. If she said a word, she would probably die on the spot.

Granny Zhu immediately lowered her head and smiled, “”The people from the imperial family are all very scheming. As long as you are careful, it will be fine.” If she didn’t mention it, the first Prince would probably want to set her up.

A layer of cold sweat formed on his forehead.

That’s right, master is only four or five years old now, why say such dirty things to taint her eyes?

However, his heart was trembling. How could the young man in front of him have such a vicious aura?

“Granny, you can leave first. He didn’t need to trouble Lulu with his matters in the future. Lulu is short and if he’s too melancholic, he won’t grow tall in the future.” Lu huaijiang’s tone was unquestionable.

Granny Zhu, who usually only listened to Lulu’s orders, nodded.”Yes.” His expression also became solemn.

After granny Zhu left, Lu huaijiang’s expression finally looked better.

“Lu Jinghong and the first Prince are not good people. You should stay away from them. You can’t win against them with your small arms and legs.” Lu huaijiang squatted down and instructed seriously.

“He will definitely be suspicious if the hall of salvation Pampers you alone for no reason. If he knew that you were the Savior, he might imprison you, control you, and make you his. Do you know?”

“The first Prince has always been deep in thought. Who knows, he might use cannonballs coated in sugar to soften you. Do you want to wear the clothes he gave you?”

“Nice and beautiful clothes? That kind of material from the capital can attract flowers and butterflies?” Lu huaijiang raised his eyebrows.

“If he sends you food from the capital that you’ve never eaten before, will you try it?”

The little girl began to swallow her saliva.

Lu huaijiang's alarm went off.

It was a good thing that he had given her a heads up in advance. Otherwise, this girl would have really been coaxed away!

"You'll be finished if you eat it. It's a light punishment even if your intestines rot."

The light in the little girl's eyes was almost extinguished.

"Do you understand what I'm saying?" The corners of Lu huaijiang's lips curved up slightly. Seeing that she was afraid of the first Prince, he revealed a slight smile.

"I understand. Are you saying that the imperial family is too cunning and we can't trust them?" The little girl found the main point in all seriousness. Lu huaijiang's lips parted. He was also a member of the imperial family.

Thinking about it this way, wasn't he also trapped in it?

But now that the situation was urgent, she couldn't let the first Prince win her over and explain later.

Lu huaijiang nodded deeply, "yes." The members of the imperial family are heartless and can not be befriended, and can not be married." The first Prince had probably been moved by the words "noble beyond words."

Lulu was now five years old, and it would be ten years before she reached marriageable age.

The eldest Prince was twenty years old, and it was impossible for him to wait for her. He was in urgent need of a family with an outstanding family background to help him seize power.

However, Lulu was still young, and it was highly possible that he would make her his concubine in a few years.

Lu huaijiang was furious just thinking about it, his eyes filled with anger.

Lulu gave him a serious look, and nodded after a moment of thought. "Alright, Lulu will remember." The little girl nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

Lu huaijiang heaved a sigh of relief. As long as she didn't have a good impression of the imperial family, she would avoid the first Prince.

It was perfect!

At this moment, he had no idea that the sigh of relief he was feeling now was all for the sake of causing more trouble for himself in the future..

Chapter 302: Something is wrong with her believer (1)

Jiang huailu believed brother Lu's words.

He deeply believed it.

After all, His Highness was an evil spirit, and the first Prince had ill intentions. It was normal for the people of the imperial family to be evil.

Lulu was convinced.

At this moment, Jiang huailu entered the hall with his divine soul, but Lu huaijiang looked like a stranger.

It was already late at night, and the incense stalls outside the hall had already been tidied up.

Whoever knew that there would still be people who entered the hall crying and complaining.

She looked like a sixteen or seventeen-year-old girl. She lowered her head and covered her face. Her voice was hoarse from crying, and her hands were still pulling at the lapels of her clothes.

His clothes were torn in two.

Granny Zhu's brows furrowed at the sight.

"Young lady, what's wrong with you? What happened?" Granny Zhu also had a daughter, and she was usually more kind to the girls. He hurriedly took out two sets of clothes and put them on the girl.

That girl was draped with granny Zhu's clothes, her head lowered as she sobbed.

She was crying in sadness and despair.

"Granny, my life is so bitter." Lulu's expression turned serious when she spoke.

Standing in front of the young lady, granny Zhu hurriedly asked.

"But what happened? Do you want me to report you to the authorities?" It was obvious that something big had happened to this young lady, and granny Zhu was so anxious that her heart was trembling.

The girl only cared about crying, and she cried even more miserably.

"My mother passed away and was buried at the foot of the mountain of the hall of salvation. In the afternoon, I came to offer incense to my mother, and at night, I thought of coming to the front of the palace to offer two incense sticks. On the way here, I passed by a sorghum field ..." The woman sobbed as she spoke, and even Lu huaijiang couldn't help but frown.

He was considering whether he should cover Lulu's ears.

Grandma Zhu could not hold back her tears when she heard that.

The world was difficult, and women's future was difficult.

He actually encountered such a thing.

"Good child, don't be afraid. Granny will protect you. Once the sun rises, granny will go to the Yamen." Grandma Zhu cried uncomfortably.

The woman wiped her tears. I'm already seventeen. My mother was most concerned about my marriage.

“After I reached marriageable age, my mother hurriedly proposed marriage to me and it was not successful for two years. In the end, he died of depression.”

“Before my mother left, she asked me to come to the hall of salvation to beg the gods. She would be able to get married eventually. In the end ... Lulu was so touched that tears were about to fall. He even came to offer incense in the middle of the night.

“You shouldn’t have come at night, you silly child. What kind of place was the desolate capital? this was a land of exiles. This entire city is made up of exiles and sinners.” Granny Zhu’s heart ached.

The woman sobbed even harder.

“My mother said that only by walking at night can one get married.” The woman sobbed.

“I’ve prepared a lot of paper money when I go back today. I want to celebrate the New Year with the Savior. In the end, we came across a sorghum field. The sorghum field was full of sorghum, taller than people.”

when I passed by the sorghum field, a large hand actually reached out and dragged me into it. The woman burst into tears.

don’t cry, ” grandma Zhu hugged her. don’t cry, my good child.

Lu huaijiang tried to cover Lulu’s ears, but Lulu broke free.

“Why did he drag you into the sorghum field? Are you stealing sorghum?” The little girl asked loudly, but the other party could not see her soul. Instead, it was she herself who cried out.

Grandma Zhu felt bitter in her heart. She knew that she had been defiled.

“How could he do this to me? how could he humiliate me like this?” The woman angrily rebuked.

“Why didn’t you do anything after you dragged me into the kaoliang field? He actually didn’t do anything!” The woman sat on the ground and burst into tears..

Chapter 303: The fate that was in her hands (1)

Grandma Zhu was stunned.

“Ever since I was young, my mother wanted to arrange an arranged marriage for me, but it didn’t happen even when I reached marriageable age.” “My mother got anxious after she reached marriageable age.”

my mother has made me go to gaoliang at night for two years. I've been dragged in there three times, three times, and I didn't do anything! The woman raised her head. Her face scared the little Lulu so much that he jumped three feet high.

"I heard that the hall of salvation can save people from suffering and even kill evil spirits. Since last year, I've been coming to the hall of salvation late at night to pray for blessings. It's been half a year, almost a year."

The woman sobbed.

Granny Zhu's heart almost stopped beating.

"Y-y-you're crying because he pulled you into the sorghum field and didn't do anything?" Grandma Zhu clutched her heart and panted heavily. What kind of people were these?

The woman couldn't help but nod. I only hope that the Savior can bless me. Next time, someone will come and pull me into the sorghum field. I want to do something.

"My mother said that when the time comes, I won't cry or make a fuss and will just cling on. In fact, I'm already 18 after the new year." The woman's face was dark. She stood up, wiped her tears, and bowed to the Savior.

Lu huaijiang's face darkened.

He suddenly realized that the Savior was not normal. Even his believers were not normal.

Little Huai Lu mumbled, 'I care about the evil, but occasionally I care about marriage. But I don't care about pulling people into the sorghum field.' Just as she was about to listen to something else, she felt Lu huaijiang's sharp slap on her forehead.

She was immediately sent back to the Jiang family.

Jiang huailu opened her eyes, covered in a blanket, and touched her head in a daze. "You're hitting my head again. You're getting stupider." After he finished speaking, he fell into a deep sleep.

The next morning, Jiang huailu was pulled out of bed by Madam Xia.

"Mother, this is the steamed lamb I brought back yesterday, and some fruit juice. Coincidentally, they're all Lulu's favorite." Jiang Huaian rubbed his brows and handed Madam Xia a basket.

When Madam Xia saw that there was a flower in the basket, she immediately raised her eyebrows.

"Mother, don't misunderstand," Jiang Huai 'an immediately explained. She didn't know who had given her son this, but he had left it at the door early in the morning. The gatekeeper said that they were wearing the Academy's clothes, so I'm afraid they are the girls in the Academy."

Jiang Huaian blushed.

Xia Shi couldn't help but laugh. Her son was fifteen this year and had grown up.

She was almost at the age of engagement.

She didn't laugh at him.

"Mother told the gatekeeper to be more careful. If you like it, then so be it. If you don't like it, then you can talk to the lady in private. Don't waste her time and waste her time on you."

After that, he looked at the pretty food box and mumbled, "'Lulu is so lucky. He asked me to buy a steamed lamb yesterday, but someone's giving it to him today."

Jiang Huai 'an couldn't help but feel happy. he also asked me to bring some steamed lamb back. I remembered it well, but I came back too late from my shift last night and forgot about it.

Xia Shi looked at him reproachfully, "you, don't spoil her." Look at this guy's stomach, it's almost popping out."

"You don't say, neither of us bought it. The steamed lamb still ended up in her mouth. She was really lucky. In the end, she had eaten it. It's all fate ..." Jiang Huai 'an couldn't help but tease him. No wonder he was a God of cooking, able to eat whatever he wanted.

Jiang huailu smiled and took a bite of the mutton. It was tender and fragrant, and his tongue was about to fall off.

She wasn't sure if it was fate or not.

However, she knew that her fate of wanting to eat the Lamb was in her hands.

The little girl lowered her head and laughed secretly..

Chapter 304: My husband's embroider Guild (1)

The Jiang family's days were peaceful and quiet.

The Xia family had to teach the girls in the city etiquette every day, so they left early.

Jiang Huai 'an saw that his sister had finished her meal, so they went to the Academy together.

"Lulu, how's your embroidery going? When you learn it, you have to embroider a handkerchief or something for big brother." Jiang Huai 'an laughed and teased her. Ever since that day, his sister had never held a needle in her hand. On the contrary, her bag, small handkerchief, and skirt had many flowers on them.

He had also discussed it with the Xia Corporation in private. Did she practice it secretly?

A guilty look flashed across the little girl's face. "Lulu won't learn anymore. In the future, my husband will learn and he will embroider." Aiya, why hasn't brother Lu Jiang come to propose marriage yet?

If she had chosen brother Lu Jiang earlier, she wouldn't have had to learn embroidery in the future.

She didn't have to do her homework.

He could also eat whatever he wanted.

The little girl's eyes lit up.

Jiang Huai 'an had been waiting for this explanation for a long time, and his head was buzzing.

He suspected that if his sister had such thoughts, would she really get married?

“Lulu, this ... As for men, most of them don't learn embroidery.” Jiang Huaian didn't know how to tell her that men didn't learn needlework like women.

Who knew that Lulu would immediately glare at him when he heard this?

“You're lazy and you don't allow others to learn? She's clearly a good student.” After saying that, she covered her mouth again, afraid that she would expose the fact that she had asked brother Lu to propose marriage.

Fortunately, Jiang Huaian didn't notice.

“I won't embroider it for you,” the young Lulu coughed. “I'm afraid you won't be able to finish it all. With that said, he ran off with his bag.”

Jiang Huai 'an couldn't help but feel helpless, 'nonsense, this little guy is getting lazier and lazier. She actually tried to get her future husband to embroider flowers, really ... Forget it, forget it, if you can't get married in the future, big brother will take care of you.”

“Speaking of which, I still have to save more money. We have to prepare a house and a shop for her in advance so that she won't have to worry about food and drink in the future.” Jiang Huai 'an recalled his sister's strength and couldn't help but sigh.

In the future, when his sister got married, he would definitely not doubt his brother-in-law would deal with her.

He was very worried that his future brother-in-law wouldn't be able to withstand two moves from her.

If there was a conflict, they had to agree that they were not to abuse their brother-in-law.

It was hard to believe that he had to plan for his sister so early on.

Jiang Huaian was exhausted.

When he returned to the Academy, he found that his classmates who had begged suo ban were all secretly laughing at him.

“Brother Jiang, you're blessed. I'm blessed, I'm blessed.”

“Brother Jiang's charm is truly not shallow. I'm impressed.” Jiang Huaian looked suspicious.

When she returned to her seat with a head full of suspicion, she saw several handkerchiefs and shoes on the table. Looking at the fine stitches, the embroidery was probably not bad.

“This, which girl gave this to you? it’s actually brother Jiang’s favorite color.” Feng Yutang couldn’t help but tease him, causing Jiang Huai ‘an’s face to turn red from embarrassment.

Jiang Huai ‘an had a bad feeling. He had a feeling that he had exposed something.

But the young Lulu did not feel guilty at all.

Her brother had taught her to make the best use of everything. What was wrong with her using her brother to shine?

Little Huai Lu sat calmly in the classroom with a faint smile on her lips.

In the afternoon, after school.

However, an uninvited guest arrived outside the Academy.

The carriage was parked not far from the Academy, seemingly low-key but extravagant. Copper bells hung from the four corners of the carriage, looking small and exquisite.

There was a man in black standing beside the carriage. He looked a little familiar.

When Jiang huailu came out, the man suddenly looked at her..

Chapter 305: The unromantic Lulu (1)

Yuan Jing!

A face appeared in Jiang huailu’s mind.

The person in front of her was clearly different from Yuan Jing, but this name instantly appeared in her mind.

“Master, she’s out.” Yuan Jing stood at the side of the carriage with his head lowered. The worry in his eyes disappeared in a flash when he looked at Jiang huailu.

Yuan Jing stepped forward and lifted the curtain.

A pair of fair hands with neatly manicured nails were revealed, and her palms were wide and strong.

When he revealed his face, he looked like a gentle and handsome man.

He looked up and chuckled at Jiang huailu.

Jiang huailu had goosebumps.

Lu Jiang often chuckled, but there was an intoxicating gloominess to it. But at this moment, she shuddered.

It made her feel nauseated.

“You must be the granddaughter of the Jiang family, miss Lulu, right? Your father and I are old acquaintances, so I’ve come to see you.”

After he finished speaking, he stretched out his hand.

Yuan Jing handed him an exquisite small box made of black sandalwood.

At this moment, Jiang huailu was walking to the side of the Academy, which was not a very eye-catching place. Lu yuanxiu squatted down and handed the black box over with a faint smile.

“This is a meeting gift for Lulu. Lulu, take a look. Do you like it?” He had already made up his mind before he came. If Lu Jinghong could succeed, he would be satisfied.

But now, Lu Jinghong was not enough.

He could only bring out the things that he had prepared earlier, the things that girls liked the most.

Little Huai Lu’s face was full of defense. Brother Lu said that the enemy would first corrode my heart.

He suddenly became more alert.

Yuan Jing opened the box.

The light from the box made Lulu close her eyes.

“Lady Jiang, have you heard of the bright moon Pearl? The bright moon Pearl could emit the light of the moon, and one could be sold for a sky-high price in the great Zhou Dynasty. This bright moon Pearl was specially found by our young master to gift to young lady.”

Jiang huailu tiptoed and stretched her neck to take a look.

At this moment, the sky was dark, and he could see the faint light that the bead was giving off.

“What’s the use of this?” The little girl pouted her lips in disgust.

“It’s not bright enough, and not enough to be used as a candle. You say it’s pretty, right? It’s just a bare bead, what’s there to see.” The little girl’s face was full of disdain. Were the people outside stupid?

As long as someone could afford the price of a lamb, she was willing to sell it.

The smile on the first Prince’s face froze.

if I want to light it up, I’ll light it up. Isn’t it nice to have a rabbit lantern? ‘ After that, Lu Lu shook her head and walked away.

The eldest Prince could see that she was sincere.

He really despised this priceless night-luminescent Pearl!

“Wait a minute, miss Lulu. If you don’t like this Pearl, can I treat you to a meal? I saw Lord Jiang yesterday and know that he misses his beloved daughter very much. Why don’t you have a reunion dinner with father, miss Lulu, while we’re at the Lantern Festival?” Lu yuanxiu opened the folding fan in his hand.

The folding fan was the work of a great calligrapher.

If they were in the capital, the ladies would have fainted from the alcohol.

Jiang huailu took three steps back, "You're using a folding fan in the middle of winter. Do you have a fever?" Was there something wrong with his brain?

After saying that, she looked at him in horror.

"Young master, are your eyes blind? Why do you keep blinking? If your eyes aren't feeling well, you should find a doctor early. The earlier you get treatment, the faster you'll recover."

Jiang huailu didn't understand why he was winking at her when she was talking.

Lu yuanxiu's face turned green.

Yuan Jing kept his head down, trying to hold back the laughter in his throat..

Chapter 306: Banquet at hongmen (1)

The first Prince's expression was unsightly.

The biggest mistake he had ever made since he was born was Lu huaijiang.

The second one was the four or five-year-old girl in front of him.

Her eyes were clear, and she looked at him with sincerity and pity. "Poor thing, he's so young, don't be blind."

At the corner, Lu huaijiang clenched his fist and pressed it against his lips.

She tried her best to suppress her smile.

Of all people to please, why did he have to please such a baby?

Bengong had personally fallen in front of her.

The first Prince's facial muscles twitched. He bit his cheek and looked at Jiang huailu with deep eyes.

"Young master," Yuan Jing coughed, "lady Jiang is still young." Yes, she's still young and can't understand your beauty trap.

I threw you a flirtatious look and you actually saw it as your eyes twitching.

The first Prince straightened his body and said, "forget it. Take good care of yourself, miss Lulu." I know that miss Lulu has suffered a lot in the barren capital. In the future, the elementalists will definitely find a way to bring your family back."

There was a probing look in his eyes.

If it wasn't for Lu Jinghong's confirmation that she was really loved by the hall of salvation, he wouldn't even have given her a second look.

"I'm no longer a member of the Jiang family. Even if I summon the Jiang family back, it has nothing to do with Lulu." Lulu had a backbone.

"There's always a way," the great Prince's lips curled up.

A group of old and weak women was nothing. What was really important was this group of officials who had old grudges with Lu huaijiang.

The eldest Prince didn't make things difficult for her. It was better to say that he didn't even care about such a small child.

Seeing that the maidservants of the Jiang family had arrived, the first Prince took Yuan Jing and left.

Lu huaijiang only came out from the corner after the first Prince had walked far away.

His eyes were gloomy as he glanced at the creaking carriage in the distance, frowning.

“Lulu, you did great. Look at that man, which normal man would block a four or five-year-old girl in an alley? The next time you meet someone like this, run. They definitely have ill intentions.” Lu huaijiang didn't forget to make things clear.

“And you can't let anyone hold your hand at will. There are differences between men and women, do you understand?”

“If a female's reputation is not good, it would be difficult to propose marriage in the future. Just like that girl last night, even if she walked at night and went to the high grain fields, people would be too lazy to waste her.” Lu huaijiang said with a straight face.

The heavens had taken pity on him. He was a dignified Crown Prince, but he had actually fallen to the point of criticizing others.

However, when he thought about how she was still young and needed someone to guide her, he became confident again.

Lu Lu furrowed her brows as if she was thinking about something.

She paused for a moment and turned her head to glance at him. “Then why aren't you sewing my clothes? Then why are you still holding my hand? Didn't you say that you can't let anyone hold your hand?” His eyes stared straight at Lu huaijiang's clasped hands.

Yes, Lu huaijiang was holding her hand.

Lu huaijiang's eyes twitched, “I'm different from others.” You don't have to treat me like a human.”

At this moment, Jiang huailu felt inexplicably stifled.

At dinner time, the Xia family came back in a hurry.

Jiang Huaian, on the other hand, looked happy. Nothing could be seen from his expression.

“The first Prince has come to huangdu and invited some guilty officials. They were once important officials in the court, people who were exiled because they offended the Crown Prince. Your grandfather sent word early in the morning, saying that you should go with Lulu.” The summer family was not very repulsed, but they were not very willing to be associated with the first Prince.

“Your son has already heard that they have brought their family. I’ll go with Lulu, so it won’t be too eye-catching.” Jiang Huaian said after a moment of silence..

Chapter 307: Being beaten up and returning to her maiden home to complain (1)

At dinner, Xia Shi taught Jiang huailu some rules.

“You’re really unlucky.”

“In the early years of the palace banquet, old taitai was dead and could often bring her family to the palace banquet. You have not even seen the world.” Xia Shi felt a little guilty.

Everyone in the Jiang family had enjoyed the Jiang family’s preferential treatment. Even if they were exiled, they would not lose out in this life. However, Lulu seemed to have lost his soul and was not very clear-headed.

He was awake, but he was in exile.

No, to be precise, he was on the guillotine.

Lu huaijiang, however, held a teacup and said softly, “Lulu’s good fortune is yet to come. I’m far more blessed than you can imagine.” Even if she wasn’t blessed, he could still give her full blessings. Xia Shi was a little relieved after hearing this.

“I’m counting on your words,”

The Xia family just took it as a comfort.

What she did not know was that the child sitting in front of her was the master of the hall of salvation. The young man in front of her was the one who controlled the fate of the great Zhou Dynasty.

“One must not offend the noble tomorrow. Follow your brother all the way, but don’t go too far away from him. I don’t think the noble people will see a child like you who only knows how to eat.” After Xia Shi taught him some rules, she let Jiang huailu go to sleep.

Jiang huailu fell asleep.

A figure suddenly appeared in the room.

Lu huaijiang’s expression was slightly cold as he stared at the little girl with a white belly in front of him.

His body took priority over her brain and covered her with the blanket. “When bengong awakens, it will be time for you to return to the capital.”

“Jiang huailu, would you be surprised if you saw my appearance?” Lu huaijiang thought in his heart that he must call the Jiang family back before the first Prince.

Otherwise, he would banish him from the capital and the great prince would call him back. Then wouldn't he be the bad guy for nothing?

Lu huaijiang didn't care about what others thought, but Jiang huailu was different.

I'm afraid, I'm afraid she'll cry. The Crown Prince rubbed his brows helplessly.

As the night deepened, Lu huaijiang's figure slowly disappeared.

Early the next morning, the old estate's carriage arrived in front of the estate.

Madam Fu sat in the carriage and without waiting for the maidservants to open the curtain, she opened it herself and got down first.

When he saw the Xia family, he first bowed.

Good Morning, sister Xia. I'm here to pick up Huai 'an and Lulu. Fu enterprise was neither humble nor arrogant and seemed to be very forthright.

Mrs. Xia pursed her lips and nodded, but didn't ask the Jiang family.

"I'll have to trouble little sister Fu to look after these two monkeys." Xia Shi carried Lulu, who was dressed up obediently, out. Her red lips and white teeth made her look even cuter.

Fu Zhicheng took the man and nodded with a smile before bringing him to the carriage.

The horse carriage creaked as it headed towards Eastwind tower.

"Aunt Fu, where is he?" Jiang huailu looked left and right, but didn't see Jiang yubai. She looked at her with her round eyes.

Fu enterprise liked Jiang huailu very much. Who wouldn't want to have such a cute and transparent child?

"Him? he went back to my mother's house. He probably went to complain." Fu Zhicheng replied indifferently.

"Complain?" Jiang Huai 'an, who was sitting outside the carriage, stuck his head in.

Madam Fu sat up straight, "I've always believed that Jade can't be made into good things if it's not polished." Your father has been acting more and more unpresentable these years, so I helped him to loosen his bones." The fu family said it so easily, but if she loosened her hands, Jiang yubai, a scholar, would have to lie in bed for a few days.

Jiang Huaian paused for a moment and went back to his seat without a word.

Who would have thought that one day, he would be beaten up so badly that he would go back to his own family to complain?

"Is the old lady alright?" Jiang huailu was a little curious..

Chapter 308: Inviting the young Lulu (1)

Fu Shi secretly winked at her. “You guess? There are only two women in the family, me and Yuan Shi. Even men couldn’t serve her, and Yuan-Shi had to take care of the child, but she didn’t want to dirty her hands. I’m the only one who’s willing to pay attention to her and help her wipe her shit and pee.” Fu Zhicheng raised her eyebrows.

“Even though she would shout and resist every time I served her. But what could he do? No one is willing to touch it. ‘ Fu Shi touched the hairpin in her hair.

This woman had to be ruthless enough.

The Xia Corporation was delayed by love.

She valued that man and abandoned her family for him. Naturally, she couldn’t bear to see him suffer between her mother-in-law and daughter-in-law. He kept giving in and wronged himself to make the other party feel better.

She was not that kind of person.

She didn’t love Jiang yubai, but she felt that he had a bright future ahead of him. He was the best one she could find in Huangdu.

As long as there was no love in her heart, as long as she was ruthless enough, she could get what she wanted.

As for the old lady, she was sprawled on the bed and was at her mercy.

Even when he used needles to poke the old lady to vent his anger, the old lady would cry and wail. No one in the residence took a second look.

One can’t live for one’s own sins.

Soon, the carriage arrived at the Eastwind tower.

Eastwind tower had long been cordoned off, with three layers of guards inside and outside. The first Prince had taken him quite seriously.

There were many horse carriages parked outside the building. Jiang Huai ‘an had just gotten off the carriage with Lulu.

Yang Feng Feng came over eagerly.

“Lulu, you’re here? Come sit with me later, I thought of a good opportunity to make a fortune. I’ll tell you later.” Yang pinfeng smiled. The gold mine outside the city had been completely dug out, and Lulu had a huge amount of wealth in his hands.

Huangdu couldn’t digest it any longer, so he had to leave the city.

It just so happened that master Jiang was looking at them, so Jiang Huaian led Lulu into the building.

The entire third floor of the Eastwind tower had been reserved by the first Prince.

The first floor was empty, and everyone was in the attic.

“This way, please.” The shopkeeper personally welcomed the guests upstairs. At this moment, there were already many people upstairs.

The Wen family, the Zheng family, the Li family, the Xiao family, the Zhou family, the Yang family, all the top families in the barren city were here.

The only ones without much power were probably the Jiang and Fang families.

They were all people from the barren capital in the past two years.

“Lulu, follow me.”

“The peak form will also follow big brother.” Yang pinfeng waved his hand at his mother and followed Lulu back to the lianz family’s seat.

Mrs. Zheng gritted her teeth in anger.

After begging for so many years, he only managed to get an unfilial son to return. She seriously suspected that her husband and she would be angered to death by him in the future.

Yang pinfeng, on the other hand, was sitting obediently in front of Lulu.

The more he looked, the more stifled he felt.

“Lulu, don’t talk later. Just stay by big brother’s side.” Jiang Huai ‘an looked after his sister and said gently.

Lulu pursed his lips and nodded with a smile.

It didn’t take long for the first Prince to be escorted upstairs.

Everyone stood up to greet her. Taking advantage of her short height, Lulu knelt down when others knelt down.

No one saw it anyway.

The first Prince was dressed in a navy blue robe, and he seemed to be very approachable. He always had a warm smile on his face, which made people unconsciously relax their vigilance.

“There’s no need to be so polite. All of them were old officials who had accompanied the Emperor or their ancestors to help the late Emperor conquer the country. Elementalists can’t stand it.” Lu yuanxiu personally helped city Lord yang, who was standing in front, up.

Everyone followed the momentum..

Chapter 309: The Fang family’s intentions (1)

The first Prince sat in the main seat.

Beside him stood a young girl with a veil over her face. She seemed to be very respectful and submissive, pouring wine for the first Prince from time to time.

The delicacies on the table were all made by the chefs the first Prince had brought from the capital.

At the banquet, The Sound of Music lingered in the ears. Wine toasts were exchanged at the banquet, words were joyous, and it was a harmonious scene. Jiang huailu didn't raise her head the whole time, her eyes were shining at the banquet.

"Now I know why everyone wants to go back to the capital." Jiang huailu picked up some venison with his chopsticks.

After taking a bite, he was filled with intoxication.

"Even if it's not for the evil, I have to return to the capital for this meal." Lulu muttered softly.

Jiang Huai 'an didn't hear what she said, but he felt sad to see his sister like this.

The Jiang family had never been short of food and clothes, but Lulu didn't enjoy any of that when he was awake.

The advisor sitting at the first Prince's side seemed to have drunk a lot. When the guests were happy, the first Prince spoke.

Jiang huailu didn't have time to listen. She was only four or five years old and had been working too hard on national affairs. Brother Lu said she wouldn't grow tall.

The little girl ate meat and only occasionally heard a few words, "loyalty," "return to the capital," and "tap tap tap."

The atmosphere at the banquet was rather heavy, as if the first Prince needed an answer from everyone.

The situation was in a stalemate.

No one expressed their stance, and no one was willing to be the first.

No one could say for sure whether the Crown Prince would wake up or not. If he didn't wake up, everyone's loyalty to the first Prince would be nothing. In fact, if he were to ascend to that position in the future, he would definitely be credited for it.

But what if he woke up?

That would be a bloodbath in huangdu, and all the peace would be overturned.

The first Prince coughed lightly, his heart sinking. He clenched his fist, he hated how he almost captured Lu huaijiang's soul. He wanted him to never wake up.

"Sir Fang, now Dongli has repeatedly invaded the border of the great Zhou. Ever since master Fang's family left the capital, there has been no military general in the court who can take charge of one side alone. Dong Li is so arrogant now."

"His Majesty has been worried about this for a long time. If Sir Fang is willing to return to the capital, it will be a great help to the great Zhou."

"Dongli has always been brave and good at fighting, and the people at the border have been hurt many times. It had always been the Fang family guarding the border, ensuring that it was safe. Now, those commoners are in deep waters and burning fires. Even now, they often worship the Fang family's portrait, begging the Fang family to protect them."

"If master Fang is willing, I am willing to use my head as a guarantee to help master Fang return to the capital. Even if master Fang doesn't give face to His Majesty, he still has to consider for the sake of the innocent people." The first Prince put on the air of serving the country and its people. He immediately stood up and gave a deep bow to the Fang family.

Master Fang's hands trembled, and tears streamed down his face. He hurriedly helped the first Prince up.

His Fang family had guarded the border for many years, and the people and the Fang family Army were as close as family. Now that he heard that the border had been harmed, how could Sir Fang feel good?

But he also understood that he had been summoned back to the capital while the Crown Prince was unconscious.

In the future, when His Highness awakens and gets angry, even his Majesty will not be able to control him.

When His Highness was around, His Majesty could not do anything to him.

Seeing the Fang family's intentions, the first Prince did not press too hard. As long as one of them returned to the capital, everyone would see the good and follow him with peace of mind.

He raised his glass and looked at the Jiang family.

With a glance, he saw the little girl sitting next to the Jiang family's legitimate son.

His back was clearly straight and he had a good attitude on the surface.

It could be seen that the Jiang family had not neglected her teaching, which also meant that the Jiang family was ready to return to the capital at any time.

However, there was one thing different about that girl. She was well-mannered and well-educated. However, the chopsticks in her hands moved very quickly, and she would stuff the food into her mouth from time to time. Her face was like a little hamster, but there was nothing wrong with it.

Her rules were all used on food..

Chapter 310: Embarrassing the little boy in public (1)

The first Prince's gaze fell on the Jiang family.

The young girl beside him noticed it immediately.

Jiang huaijin pursed his lips and looked at old master Jiang. The moment master Jiang met her gaze, his eyes sank and he looked away.

Jiang huaijin bit his lower lip, his eyes full of grievance.

The old man recognized her. She could understand at a glance from the resentful look in his eyes.

“Pavilion elder Jiang, how have you been?” The first Prince leaned back in his chair and looked at the Jiang family with a gentle gaze.

Jiang yubai’s face did not seem to have much color, and he looked a little pale.

However, Fu Shi was smiling and seemed to be very open and generous.

It wasn’t that Jiang yubai had lost all color in his face, it was just that he had been beaten up too severely by her.

However, as a man, he could not talk to his family, so he went back to the fu family behind their backs.

Master Jiang stood up and saluted in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, “‘1’11 have to trouble the first Prince to remember that this old man is fine. It’s already Your Highness’s mercy to be able to keep your life.” Master Jiang nodded.

When the great prince heard him mention the Crown Prince, his eyes darkened.

“Elder Jiang was once the emperor’s teacher and assisted His Majesty until he ascended the throne. After that, he taught His Highness, and even the eldest grandson of the Jiang family’s head was chosen to be his study companion. Unfortunately, before he could enter the palace, something happened. This matter had been too rushed back then, and the Emperor, who was recuperating in the harem, was very sorrowful when he found out. His Majesty still misses you.”

“Elder Jiang’s family has suffered a lot from the guillotine to the exile. It was a pity that the Elementalist had not returned to the capital in those years. Otherwise, he would have been able to help. I can’t disappoint the old ministers.”

“Huang ‘er, go and pour wine for Pavilion elder Jiang. I’d like to propose a toast to Pavilion elder Jiang.” The first Prince glanced at Jiang huaijin.

Jiang huaijin hurriedly lowered his eyes, picked up the White porcelain, and walked in front of the Jiang family.

With trembling hands, she poured some wine for Pavilion elder Jiang.

Pavilion elder Jiang didn’t even look at her, but Jiang yubai did. He seemed to have felt the familiarity between his brows.

“Many thanks for the first Prince’s favor. The Jiang family is no longer blessed and can no longer serve His Majesty.” Pavilion elder Jiang’s expression was calm. He didn’t mention anything about returning to the capital.

The first Prince’s face darkened as he glanced at Jiang huaijin.

Jiang huaijin’s hands clenched the White porcelain tightly.

He smiled and said, "it doesn't matter who you pledge your loyalty to. The Jiang family has been loyal to our duty for many years, but we haven't had a good end. Are you willing to do so, Pavilion elder Jiang? Are the Jiang family's descendants willing?" Jiang huaijin looked at his grandfather with pleading eyes.

Pavilion elder Jiang glanced at her emotionlessly.

"I once swore an oath. I'll only be loyal to His Majesty in this life, and I'll be loyal to whoever becomes the Emperor. As for my children and grandchildren, they'll all follow my wishes." If he was willing to turn back, he would have already bowed to the Crown Prince.

"If that's the case, since the Jiang family is loyal to the Emperor, will Your Majesty protect the Jiang family?" The first Prince sneered, no longer hiding the viciousness in his eyes.

As long as Lu huaijiang was awake, his father could not do anything.

The first Prince felt a little regretful after saying this.

In the end, Lu huaijiang's unconscious state made him less cautious.

all the descendants will follow your wishes, Pavilion elder Jiang. Have you asked for their opinion?"

"That ice-cold and lovely girl is the granddaughter of the Jiang family, right? Do you blame grandfather for coming to huangdu to suffer at such a tender age? If your grandfather is willing today, you can return to the Jiang family and be that high and mighty granddaughter of the first wife." The first Prince's lips curled into a faint smile as he looked at her meaningfully.

Jiang huailu was confused.

The ministers all looked over with a frown..
