

The Savior 391

Chapter 391: The master was so angry that he cursed (1)

Jiang Huaian was slightly surprised.

Master Yi Xu was indeed a master. He was so gentle towards a five-year-old child, as if he had no respect for her.

“Did His Highness give you my heart Sutra? If you don’t understand, you can come to me at any time. I believe you ... It has the root of wisdom.” Master Yi Xu’s eyes were smiling, and even the young monk was shocked.

Even the Emperor would find it extremely difficult to see his master.

He actually loved a child so much.

“I understand, I understand. Lulu had been relying on those books to pass his days ever since he set off from the barren capital. Lulu had been watching it for two months ... Lulu wasn’t stupid. Your drawing is really good.”

Lulu took out the Heart Sutra and handed it to Grandmaster for a closer look.

The smile on Grandmaster’s face became even more obvious. As expected, he was that person’s child.

He had a unique advantage in terms of Scriptures.

“Come to the National temple to discuss the Dao with me another day. I’ll be waiting for you at the National temple. The state-protecting temple’s Scripture Depository IS world-ramous ana It’S very rare ror others to see lt. Little rrena must be very happy. There was also ... It’s the original work of the primogenitor Buddha.”

Master Yi Xu looked at her with tender affection. His eyes were like an elder looking at a junior, and there was even a bit of kindness mixed in.

“I’ve even made a note.” Lulu grinned. Master yixu followed the carriage as fast as he could.

The little Shami was practically running behind his master,”Master, master, master’s face.” She tugged at the corner of her master’s clothes in a low voice.

Master yixu wanted to decline, but when he heard Lulu’s comments, he was so touched that his eyes turned red and he clenched the Buddha beads in his hand.

Seeing Lulu hand over the Scripture with a trembling hand, master yixu sucked in a deep breath with a pious expression.

His child, the only present he left in this world.

At the age of five, he could actually understand the Scriptures and even make annotations.

Master Yi Xu turned to the next page with a sincere expression.

The gratified expression on Grandmaster's face slowly froze.

He didn't sleep for three days and three nights, writing the Scriptures for him.

The Heart Sutra that he had painstakingly studied had become a gourmet book for three-year-old children ...

There were pictures and texts, and there were suspicious water stains on it. It was probably someone drooling when they looked at it. "Master, is Lulu's note good?" The little girl's eyes were sparkling.

"Master, why are you crying?"

As he spoke, Grandmaster's footsteps stopped, and he also stopped chasing the carriage. His shoulders trembled as he held onto the Scripture. He frowned.

"Hey, hey, hey ... A master." The little girl leaned against the window of the carriage.

"Big brother, I think I heard the master cursing his mother," he turned around and shouted at his brother.

Jiang Huai 'an glared at him. don't talk nonsense. The master is a monk. Why would he curse? How could he say such evil words? When he returned to the capital in the future, he could not do this again. Be careful not to collide with the noble."

Lulu pouted and lowered his head. "Oh."

But she had clearly heard the master curse his mother, and even call the Crown Prince a dog.

"However, Grandmaster yixu treats you a little differently. Grandmaster yixu's Dharma is profound. If you like, you can visit the guguo temple often. The noble furens in the capital often go to the temple to offer incense."

Lulu nodded seriously. He had heard that the National temple had been passed down for many years.

It was the place where her father and mother had once lived.

"That's right, the salvation Hall in the capital is also very lively. However, it was said that it had not manifested yet. When he had the time, he should go and pay his respects. We were able to return to the capital thanks to the blessing of the hall of salvation."

Lulu was sprawled on the carriage.

The carriage sped away. She held her face with both hands and looked in the direction of the capital with anticipation in her eyes.

Brother Lu, I'm here.

Great evil, die!

After killing the evil, Lulu's parents would be able to regain their souls and be reborn as humans..

Chapter 392: Your Highness, Your Highness (1)

As the carriage moved forward.

The number of people and buildings in the surrounding area also increased.

Lulu didn't want to stay in the carriage at first. He liked to lean against the window and look around curiously.

Jiang Huai 'an's heart ached when he saw how happy and curious she was.

Lulu had never seen the capital's Golden Age.

"Lulu, I'm afraid that we're going to the palace to thank His Highness when we return to the capital. You little girl, you've always been a Blabbermouth, so you're not allowed to speak nonsense."

"His Highness is not like other people who can let you torment and bully him. He's very fickle in his emotions, and he's probably killed more people than you've ever seen."

"Let's go back to maternal grandmother's house today. We'll rest for a day and go to the palace together tomorrow to thank you."

"His Highness is a serious person who doesn't smile or speak. He especially dislikes children. You have to stay away from him so that you can't even touch his clothes? Do you understand? If you touch his clothes, you'll break your fingers!" Jiang Huaian was exaggerating, but he was telling the truth.

In the eyes of the world, His Highness Lu huaijiang was a brutal and bloody ruler.

No one dared to provoke him.

"Tomorrow, we have to go and thank His Majesty first. Most likely, we can only kowtow in front of the palace gate. After kowtowing, he wanted to go to the eastern Palace. The eastern Palace was probably accessible. His Highness also liked koi very much, and the eastern Palace kept countless koi fish that were priceless. You're also playful, so don't look too much." Jiang Huaian was a little worried, so he could only briefly explain what happened to Lu huaijiang.

The more he spoke, the more uneasy he felt.

He looked at Lulu apologetically.

She had returned to the capital in a hurry, and Lulu was still young. He had not told her many of the rules of the capital and the matters between the families.

Now, without the Jiang family's protection, Lulu might have to suffer some grievances.

“I won’t look, I definitely won’t look. What if he dug out my eyes? He’s so bad, I’m not playing with him.” Lulu still wanted to kill him.

Lulu wanted the nine bolts of lightning to strike him to death.

“You’re so obedient. When the time comes, just follow behind big brother, don’t be afraid.” Jiang Huai ‘an didn’t want to scare his sister by saying too much, so he patted her head to comfort her.

“Will grandmother like me?” Young Lulu suddenly asked. “Lulu hasn’t met maternal grandmother and maternal grandfather yet,” she smiled shyly. And would her first uncle, second uncle, and youngest uncle all like Lulu? I heard from brother Lu that it doesn’t feel good to live under someone else’s roof. Will aunt like us?”

“Don’t we have our own home?” Lulu asked eagerly.

She wanted to say that she had a lot of money, enough to buy a huge house.

It was the first time Jiang Huaian had seen her being so careful. His heart ached so much that he almost cried. He also blamed Lu Jiang for telling her sister all this.

How could he know that Lu huaijiang was thinking about bringing the little girl to his side all day?

“Of course I will. Aunt Will also like you. Her mother was stubborn and stubborn. All these years, waizu and waizu were not willing to return home.”

“But my three aunts came to see you often. At that time, you were muddleheaded and not very clear-headed, so they felt sorry for Lulu and bought him a lot of food.”

These years, the Xia family had slowly risen to power. His three aunts were afraid that their mother would have a hard time in a prestigious family like the Jiang family, so from time to time, they would ask people to send jewelry, gold, silver, and jewelry to the banquet.

They wanted to establish her authority, afraid that she would be looked down upon by the servants, afraid that she would be humiliated by her mother-in-law.

Jiang Huai ‘an couldn’t help but sigh. Fortunately, his mother had seen through his father and had given up on him.

He also hoped that his parents would live in harmony, but he didn’t want this superficial harmony to be built on his mother’s endurance of humiliation.

Furthermore, his mother had to give up her entire life for it.

He had already grown up and was strong enough to protect his mother.

Jiang Huaian looked determined..

Chapter 393: The princess enters the capital city (1)

“Lulu, I know what you’re thinking.”

“The Xia family is mother’s closest family , maternal grandmother and maternal grandfather both see you as their darling. Let’s stay at the Xia family for a while, shall we?”

“The Xia family has three uncles. Eldest uncle has two sons and one daughter, while second uncle has one son and one daughter. My youngest uncle has a son who seems to be in poor health and rarely goes out. I have also rarely heard of the details. When we return to the residence, older brother will tell you in detail.”

“Lulu, I’m already an elementary scholar, and I can take the Imperial examinations now. If you trust me, give me a chance, alright?”

“I’ll get you a Prime Manor.”

“I won’t let Lulu be looked down upon by others, and I won’t let you suffer.” The little Lulu lay in her brother’s arms and smiled sweetly.

“Big brother, you said that His Highness doesn’t allow anyone to touch him. That Lulu pulled off his pants. Does he still hate me?” The little girl still remembered that she had torn the evil’s pants when she had just woken up.

She was strong, so he couldn’t blame her.

“In the future, avoid him. Just hide behind mother and brother.” Jiang Huai ‘an hooked her little nose.

As he spoke, there were suddenly many happy voices around him.

“Quickly go to the capital’s Gate, quickly go to the city’s Gate. Today, Princess Dongli had entered the capital, and Noble consort Lin was seven months pregnant. The noble consort and the eldest Prince were at the city gate giving out wedding candies and buns. Anyone who passes by the city gate can get two steamed buns with the word “happy” printed on them and a bag of sugar.”

“That Princess Dongli is the one who was punished by the Crown Prince to kneel? His Highness was not moved at all when he heard that the fish would sink, the geese would fall, and the moon would be shamed. Let’s go and take a look. Look at how beautiful she is.”

“Didn’t they say that they would only enter the capital during the new year?”

There’s still half a month before the new year.”

“Who cares, let’s go take a look first.”

The people around rushed to the city gate, and yang pinfeng came to ask, “Lulu, we’re almost at the city gate. Do you want to go out for a walk?” Lulu replied.

Fortunately, many people had the same thought. They had not returned to the capital for many years, and even the smell of the capital's soil was fragrant.

Stepping into the capital's territory, he felt at ease.

Everyone got out of the carriage and walked outside the city in a good mood.

At this moment, they could already see the gates of the capital. The city walls were tall and there were countless soldiers holding swords on them.

There seemed to be shacks set up on both sides of the city gate, and there were long lines of congratulations being sent out without any cost.

Sure enough, someone sent steamed buns and wedding candy.

"Let's go and get some too?" The eldest young master of the Zheng family said with a smile.

Everyone smiled and shook their heads. Only the Zheng family sent their servants to bring some back.

The Zheng family even sent some additional words, which were directly pasted on the Zheng family's carriage.

No. Jiang Huai 'an shook his head faintly. I'm afraid the Zheng family will have to pick a side. Now that the virtuous King had a faint voice in the capital, it was likely that the capital would be unstable again.

Now that His Majesty was not dead, it was wrong no matter who he stood on. His grandfather had instructed him not to take sides before the emperor's death.

"Hurry, hurry, hurry, go away. Don't crowd in front of the city gate and block the princess's way into the capital. If you delay the sage King's wedding, you'll suffer." People began to drive them away at the city gate.

"Get lost, what are you doing blocking the front. If you delay the auspicious time, I'll teach you a lesson! Get lost!"

A whip lashed out, and there were a few who couldn't avoid it in time, and their skin and flesh were actually split open.

The crowd was pushed away by the people, and when they saw the soldiers' overbearing appearance, they were a little unhappy.

The princess of Dongli country was not worthy of such a big face.

Not to mention a secondary consort, even a main consort, based on the fact that she had personally led people to attack the great Zhou, was not worthy of this.

"Since you want to send candy, why not do it three Li outside the city gate? He wanted to give out sugar and steamed buns, causing everyone to line up. When there are too many people, he'll drive them away like livestock. He'll finish all the good people." Lulu rolled his eyes.

The surrounding people were stunned..

Chapter 394: His Highness is jealous (1)

The people who were still fighting for it just now were suddenly doused with cold water.

These words were passed from one person to the other, and there was actually a trend of him losing control.

The capital was the richest place in the world, and most of the rich people in the world were gathered there.

At this moment, many people spat on the ground and threw the steamed buns to the ground. They then kicked them hard.

“People like us don’t deserve to eat these steamed buns. Be careful of getting whipped if you eat too much.”

“Since you have the heart to give it, don’t get a good reputation while whipping us, and dislike us for obstructing the place.” There were many noble families in the capital, and all the Kings were Lords.

However, while attracting everyone’s attention, he was also whipping them. And he still wanted a virtuous reputation ...

Moreover, it was for the princess of the enemy country. The people who were clearly grateful just now were now filled with resentment.

Jiang Huaian held his sister’s hand and hid her behind him, not daring to show her face. She pursed her lips tightly, not daring to let anyone notice that she was the one who had said it.

“Lulu’s mouth ...” Jiang Huaian sighed countless times.

“The princess is here.”

“Wow, that palanquin is so gorgeous. The silk on it was the kind that was woven by mermaids, right? The luminous Pearl at the top is really big ...” While everyone was talking, Lulu was deep in thought.

Was there really someone who was blind enough to take a fancy to his night-luminescent Pearl?

Wasn’t that the night-luminescent Pearl that he had used to coax Lulu, but Lulu had not taken a fancy to it?

While the others were envious, Lulu looked at him with disdain.

“Lulu, you want it too?”

Jiang Huaian asked.

Lulu’s mouth twitched, and she shook her head. She was too embarrassed to say that she didn’t want it.

Yang pinfeng sneaked in front of Lulu, ““Don’t be envious. We earned 100000 taels from that night Pearl. It’s the worst one in our house.”

He raised his eyebrows. That’s right, he sold it.

Lulu didn’t know how big his business was and was rather surprised.

The little Lulu stepped on a rock by the city wall. Suddenly, she felt a pair of eyes watching her. He turned his head and looked to his left.

On the high city wall stood a young man in black, but he was facing the sun, so his appearance could not be seen clearly.

He seemed to be looking at her without blinking.

Just as he was looking at it, he heard knocking sounds and instantly lost interest in the person peeking at him.

She tiptoed and looked into the distance.

“Is it good? Does it look good?” He was shouting.

However, the gaze that was fixed on him turned from blazing to disappointment and resentment.

“It’s good, it’s really good. However, her face was covered, so only her eyes could be seen. But his eyes were as bright as the stars in the sky ... My brows slightly furrowed, and my heart felt a little soft.” Someone beside him shouted excitedly.

“Aiya. If such a beauty were to reveal her face, just how beautiful would she

“It’s no wonder that the first Prince was unwilling to pursue the matter of Dongli after having such a beauty. It turns out that you’ve obtained such a benefit.”

“However, His Highness the Crown Prince’s heart is still hard. Such a delicate beauty knelt for three days, and his heart didn’t soften at all.” The crowd was in a heated discussion.

The woman’s fair wrist was exposed, and there was a small and exquisite Golden Bell on it.

With a slight movement of his hands and feet, a melodious Golden Bell rang.

Her delicate Willow-like eyebrows were slightly furrowed, making one’s heart break.

When those eyes landed on her, it really made one’s face and ears turn red, and one couldn’t raise their head to look at her.

It was as if looking at it any longer would taint it.

At this moment, she seemed to have felt something. She looked around and when she saw the black figure on the city wall, her eyebrows raised slightly..

Chapter 395 - 395: Everyone’s expectations _1

No one noticed that the princess’s gaze had been fixed on a certain spot.

However, Lulu did not like it.

The crowd stayed to the side until the princess's carriage entered the capital. Then, they lined up to enter the city.

However, ever since the princess passed by, the topic of conversation had become her.

Indeed, he was the focus of attention wherever he went.

I'd be willing to exchange such a beauty for a city ... A man touched his chin, his face full of confusion.

When Jiang Huaian saw Lulu open her mouth, he instinctively wanted to cover it.

Before he could touch her mouth, he heard her say, "'Uncle, you're thinking too much. At most, you're the kind of person who will be massacred by her ...'" The little girl's childish voice traveled far.

"That's the way to wait ... They're all sprawled on the ground and vomiting blood." The little girl even stuck out her tongue, looking like a corpse.

That man ...

She wanted to get angry, but when she saw the little girl looking at her with a smile, she couldn't say anything to scold her.

The crowd burst into laughter, and the man's face turned red.

However, no one dared to praise the beautiful princess anymore. With just one sentence, she was beaten down.

Soon, it was Lulu's turn to enter the city.

After entering the city, it was another world.

Lulu didn't even want to get into the carriage. He was stunned.

The officials bade each other farewell as soon as they entered the city. They had all asked someone to buy a house and have a place to stay for the time being.

Everyone decided to go together tomorrow to thank the Emperor for His grace, and then they went home.

In fact, saying that he was thanking the emperor's grace was just a formality.

The Emperor was tightly controlled by the Crown Prince and had no real power. Even the Imperial edict to return to the capital this time was issued by the Crown Prince. The Emperor probably did not want to see them.

What truly frightened them was that young man.

He was 12 years old now, and would be 13 years old in a few days.

Eunuch Lu didn't speak to anyone when he left, but he looked at Lulu with a smile."Lu girl. I'll bring you to the eastern Palace tomorrow. The eastern Palace's cooking is top-notch." Eunuch Lu's eyes were full of smiles.

The Xia family and the Jiang family were separated, and the Xia family had some power now, but they were still living under someone else's roof.

He liked this girl.

In the future, he could say it to his godson.

His godson was working for His Highness and was highly valued by His Highness. When the time came, the days would be better. Such a delicate child, it would make one's heart ache if she was tortured.

At this moment, the Xia family's carriage was heading towards the Xia Manor, but the Xia family was a little uneasy.

He looked out of the window absentmindedly and took a deep breath from time to time.

The handkerchief was clenched so tightly that it was already crumpled.

"Mother, don't be nervous. Grandmother won't blame you. They've been waiting for us to go home." Jiang Huai 'an held his mother in one hand and Lulu in the other. His three uncles had contacted him long ago.

The room had been tidied up.

However, he didn't try to persuade her. His mother had missed the Xia family for many years, and the knot in her heart was too deep.

"Yes, they've been waiting for me for a long time, waiting for me to turn around and look." Xia Shi's eyes were hot, but she held back her tears.

The closer he was to home, the more obvious the anticipation and fear he felt.

However, it was not until the carriage stopped that he realized something.

Only guilt was left in the Xia family.

The Xia family had been working together all these years, and the Xia family had long grown strong. The carriage stopped, and Jiang Huaian popped his head out of the carriage.

She helped her mother down and carried Lulu.

He turned around.

His maternal grandmother, his eldest uncle's family, his second uncle's family, and his youngest uncle's family were all standing outside.

They were all elders and should be waiting for his family to pay their respects.

However, at this moment, they were all standing outside the door, with a thin layer of sweat on their foreheads. It was unknown how long they had been standing there.

Mrs. Xia held the two children's hands and walked to the front.

With a plop, he knelt down in front of the old lady.

"Mother, your unfilial daughter has returned!"

Chapter 396 - 396: Returning home (1)

The old lady's sideburns were graying, and her hair had long turned silver.

At this moment, a few women were supporting her. The old lady was wearing a plain robe, her hands were trembling, and her eyes were red.

"Mother, your unfilial daughter has returned." With a plop, Madam Xia knelt in front of the old Xia matriarch.

On her left was Jiang Huaian, and on her right was Lulu.

Little Lulu tilted her head. She had thick eyebrows and big eyes, which were full of curiosity.

Grandmaster Xia's body trembled as tears fell from her turbid eyes.

"You still know to come back! You still know how to come back!" After that, he slapped Xia Shi's shoulder.

"Why did you only come back now? Are you and mother also so magnanimous? He was angry for 15 years! It had been fifteen years! Don't you miss your parents, your brother, and everything in this family?"

Why did you only come back now ..." The matriarch looked like she was beating him up, but she didn't use much strength.

As they fought, she hugged her daughter's neck and started crying.

It was truly extremely miserable.

"Why are you angry with your parents? they gave birth to you and raised you.

How could you bear to not come and see them for fifteen years?" The Grandmaster almost fainted from crying, and she woke up crying for countless nights.

This girl's temper had been stubborn since she was young, and now she was even more stubborn.

"Mother, don't cry. His sister had returned from far away to the capital. This was a joyous occasion. It's a joyous occasion."

The eldest mistress of the first branch, Madam Yun, hurriedly helped the old taitai up. The second branch quickly had someone bring a Brazier at the door.

This meant to drive away bad luck.

At this moment, the third mistress had already asked people to light firecrackers.

The family looked at the three people of the Xia family with a smile.

"Yes, yes, yes, quickly come in, quickly come in. Go home, my son, go home." The old matriarch wiped her tears, and Madam Xia and her sister-in-law helped the old matriarch up.

“This is Huai ‘an? After not seeing each other for two years, Huai ‘an had become calmer. Rong ‘er is blessed.” The eldest mistress, Madam Yun, looked at Huai ‘an with a smile, and Huai ‘an greeted her respectfully.

Yurong was the small character of the Xia family.

In the past, before the Jiang family was convicted, his aunts would often see Jiang Huai ‘an, and now they were familiar with him.

At this moment, looking at the little girl beside her sister-in-law, who was full of spirit energy, Madam Yun was shocked.

They had only secretly come to take a look at the child when he was born.

He only knew that she was born with a difficult birth, held her breath, and her brain was not working well.

Her sister-in-law held her so tightly that she was rarely seen.

He didn’t expect her to be so transparent.

That pair of black eyes were filled with spiritual light.

At this moment, he saw her grinning and calling out, “”First aunt. Maternal grandmother.” His voice was crisp, childish, and melodious, like a song. Lady Wang’s heart softened immediately.

“It’s Lulu, right? good child, you’ve returned to your soul and you’re home. It was really good. Hurry up and go home with aunt.”

Eldest aunt only took one look at her and her heart ached. She held her soft hand and walked into the manor.

This soft and lovely girl didn’t seem to have any temper at all. She was really an obedient child.

Madam Xia pursed her lips and smiled. She supported her mother and returned to the manor with everyone else.

At this moment, a happy scene was happening in every corner of the capital.

The Xia family followed the crowd into the hall.

“Our family has made some progress over the years, so we expanded the old mansion a little. Your big brother wanted to find a place to build a house, but mother didn’t allow it. She was afraid that you wouldn’t be able to find your home when you came back. We have never moved ...” Eldest aunt pulled Lulu to sit in front of her, but Madam Xia refused to sit and only wanted to wait on the old lady.

Xia Shi felt even more guilty when she heard this.

“What’s the point of mentioning that? our family will be reunited after all. It is Yurong’s greatest fortune to be able to see through things.” Second aunt said with a smile..

Chapter 397 - 397: The joy of family (1)

The Xia family mansion was filled with laughter.

No one mentioned the matter between the Xia family and Jiang yubai, nor did they mention the exile. For a moment, they were all laughing and chatting happily.

The three uncles were not good with words. They only looked at their sister and their children happily.

“Is Huai ‘an still studying?” Her first uncle asked.

Jiang Huai ‘an nodded, “Huai’ an never dared to relax.” I’m just waiting for mother and sister to settle down before I return to the Imperial examinations.”

Her first uncle’s eyes were filled with admiration. He had nothing to say about his sister’s marriage to the Jiang family.

But these two children were indeed intelligent.

“A man should be like this. Let’s go to the study room.” His first uncle stood up, and so did his two uncles.

Jiang Huai ‘an glanced at his sister, and lady Wang couldn’t help but laugh. “Don’t worry, Lulu. I’ll take good care of this lovely child.”

Jiang Huai ‘an was a little embarrassed, so he followed his uncles to the study.

After the men left, the women in the room were much more relaxed.

“There are no outsiders here. Yurong, since you’re back, you should stay here. I know you’re hot-tempered, but you have to think more for the two children. Then you can just treat the Jiang family as dead.” The second mistress spoke bluntly. She had always been a straightforward person.

“Let’s not talk about what happened back then. It’s good that we’re home.” The old lady sighed.

Back then, she did not approve of this marriage, but her daughter insisted on marrying her.

Now that she had suffered enough, she brought her son and daughter home. The Xia family had lost face, but it was a good thing that the children were home.

Mrs. Xia slightly pursed her lips, tears in her eyes.

She had been holding her breath and refused to go home, just to let her maternal family know that she was living well and that she did not regret it.

However, when she returned home, she realized that everyone was only concerned about whether she was happy.

“Huai ‘an is a capable man. Don’t think too much about it. I’ve always kept the yard for you before you got married. I’ve even expanded some for you. Go and see if you like it. Look at Lulu, he's sleeping while standing. Oh my, my good grandson ..." The old lady's heart ached as she wiped away her tears.

Xia Shi turned her head, and sure enough

Her funny daughter was already standing beside her sister-in-law. Her eyes were narrowed and she was snoring softly.

She, she actually fell asleep?

His aunts laughed so hard that they almost cried, "look at how tired the child is. Hurry up and take him down to rest." This poor thing, he still had to see that person tomorrow. Hurry up and rest well, so that there won't be any mistakes tomorrow."

"Tomorrow, you will hide behind father and brother. Our Xia family has had several conflicts with His Highness, and now I'm afraid we will make things difficult for you." The old lady was a little tired after she finished speaking. Knowing that her daughter was going home, she did not sleep last night.

As he grew older, it was inevitable that he would be a little tired.

"I'll carry Lulu." Lady Wang liked Lulu, so she bent down and picked her up.

Hey, it's quite heavy, I almost sprained my waist.

The old lady went back to the backyard to rest, and everyone accompanied the Xia family to the perfume Pavilion.

"All of these are for you to use as a young lady before you got married, we have not touched them. Last year, when she was of marriageable age, we didn't even let her move in." Second aunt said with a smile.

The eldest young lady was the daughter of the eldest branch.

The eldest branch had two sons and a daughter, both of whom were married. Now that he was an official, his two wives were with him.

They each had their own children.

They had yet to be recalled back to the capital.

The eldest young lady had just reached marriageable age last year and was not yet married. She was currently looking at someone.

The second branch had a son and a daughter. The eldest son was already married and the daughter was still in the boudoir.

The third branch only had one son, a child that the Xia family had at its peak. He was like a precious egg and was now studying at the Imperial College..

Chapter 398 - 398: Guarding against the Crown Prince (1)

The three aunts of the Xia family were extremely gentle.

She was like a sister to the Xia family.

The Xia family had a good temper before she was married. He got along well with his three sisters-in-law.

Now that they were both parents, their hearts ached for her suffering in the Jiang family, so naturally, their hearts ached even more for her.

“We will have dinner in the middle Hall tonight. If he hasn’t woken up, I’ll have someone send the dinner to the small courtyard to be kept warm. There’s no need to come over to pay respects. This is your home, so you don’t have to be so formal.” Lady Wang was very kind. She put Lulu on the bed and kissed him secretly before leaving.

Xia Shi nodded, her eyebrows slightly worried. the Xia family and his Highness the Crown Prince ...

His three aunts smiled and said, “it’s all men’s business. We women don’t have to worry.” Don’t be afraid, we have a man at home.”

After he finished speaking, he took his leave.

Mrs. Xia was sitting in the room, and the little girl was burning a purple clay teapot the size of a palm on the table with a small stove.

She had everything she needed, and she had kept everything she had.

Taozhi was Lulu’s personal maid, so she went out to ask around. That girl had always been smooth and eloquent, and she inadvertently became familiar with people.

Not long after, taozhi returned.

Taozhi sighed the moment she entered.

“Furen, since the concubines are not willing to tell you, you do not need to ask. There must be a reason for them to hide it.” The little maidservant’s expression was awkward, and she couldn’t bear it.

But seeing that Xia Shi’s expression was slightly serious, he said, “I’m afraid it’s your business.”

“When the Jiang family was sentenced to execution, the three Masters and the old master of the Xia family knelt in front of the palace to plead for their lives, but His Highness avoided them.”

“The few Masters went to beg His Majesty in a hurry. His Majesty seemed to have reprimanded His Highness at the time, and the Jiang family was sentenced to exile.”

“However, the Xia family and your Highness are enemies. Although His Highness did not openly suppress them, he had secretly created a lot of friction with the Xia family.

Last year, he even found an excuse to send the two young Masters of the Xia family to a remote area to be County magistrates, and they have yet to return to the capital.”

Taozhi originally wanted to say that the two young Masters who had been sent out and the young mistress of the residence had a lot of complaints about her. But in the end, he endured it and didn't say it.

Xia Shi's lips trembled as she held back her tears. “It's my fault for not being sensible and making father and brother worry. You even implicated the family.” Only now did the Xia family realize how stupid they were. They had abandoned their loved ones for that man, and only their loved ones were running around for her when something happened.

“On the day of the Jiang family's exile, the three old masters also hid in the crowd to send them off. Moreover, he was also caned by His Highness and came with a limp.” Taozhi said softly.

Xia Shi finally couldn't help but cry out.

Lying on the bed, she cried and fell asleep.

This sleep was extremely deep, probably because ...

After they returned, the Xia family had instructed the servants in the residence to be more light-handed and not to wake up the young lady who had returned for a long time.

At night, master Xia returned from the palace in a hurry.

“Where's Yurong?”

The old lady had just finished her dinner and wiped the corner of her mouth. “Let them rest. After walking for two months, I'm afraid their bones will be scattered.”

“Get up early tomorrow and go to the eastern Palace to teach the rules a few times. She didn't want him to find anything to use against her. You should also protect them.”

“We should think of something on Yunze's side. Yunze's wife has written to us several times, crying and complaining that it's not good there. She's a pampered young lady who grew up in an aristocratic family in the border area. How could she stand it?” The old lady looked a little displeased, but she didn't say anything.

Yunze was the eldest son of the first branch, and Yunyan was the second son.

Yunze was the eldest grandson of the Xia family and would inherit the Xia family in the future. The wife he married was also of equal social status and was usually arrogant and spoiled. He became more arrogant after giving birth to a pair of sons.

Because of the matter of being released, he had scolded her behind her back countless times.

Old master Xia nodded in a deep voice. It was not until midnight that the lights in the Xia family house were turned off..

Chapter 399 - 399: Head to the eastern Palace to seek an audience (1)

Lulu was awoken by the aroma of the food.

When she opened her eyes, she saw taozhi standing at the head of the bed with a bowl of hot wonton.

She even looked at the maidservant of the Xia family with a smug look.

“This servant said it, our family’s young lady does not need to think of ways to coax. She just had to serve a bowl of delicious food, and she would get up in a hurry. I definitely won’t let this bowl of wonton go to waste.” Peach branch’s move was very effective.

“Miss Lulu, you’re so good at serving me. Why can’t the young master throw a tantrum every day when he goes to the Academy? Even the servants are afraid.” The young master was the only son of the first wife of the third branch and was currently studying at the Imperial College.

At this moment, the peach branch was helping Lulu wash up deftly. It was as soft as a clay figurine.

Her face was red from her sleep and she looked like she was about to wake up. She looked particularly silly and cute.

When Madam Xia led her out, she still looked drowsy. However, she was still very clear-headed when she had her breakfast this morning!

first uncle, second uncle, third uncle, maternal grandfather ... A soft and sweet voice sounded.

His first uncle was an official in the court, his second uncle was a businessman, and his third uncle was a master full of talent.

But he was a famous person in the capital.

Her three uncles were shocked to see her sharp-tongued, clear-eyed, and dainty appearance.

They knew that the younger sister had a difficult labor, and the younger daughter was extremely slow-witted.

But when he went to huangdu, he became more clear-headed.

They only thought that it was slightly normal.

He was such an outstanding child.

“Good, good child. Don’t be afraid, I’ll protect you.” First uncle’s heart was about to melt. His daughter was dignified and virtuous, like a little adult since she was young.

Now that he saw his soft and adorable niece, how could he not be soft-hearted?

“Lulu will follow uncle.” Young Lulu looked up with a look of dependence.

Old master Xia looked at her, then at her again. Lulu understood what he meant and walked to her grandfather.

He got into the same carriage as his grandfather.

I have some grudges with His Highness. His Highness will probably ignore me when I bow, so it doesn't matter if I kneel for a while longer. Her grandfather put a soft cloth on her knees.

It's winter, don't freeze.

They were used to kneeling, but Lulu's body was weak and fragile, so they couldn't do that.

"I know, grandfather. Lulu will be obedient and won't run around or provoke him. When I see him, I'll also bow properly and definitely won't offend him." Young Lulu sat up straight and promised like an adult.

His first uncle laughed as he watched.

He touched the thick cotton cloth on his knees, not feeling guilty at all.

The group of people took the lead and arrived at the palace gate. At this moment, there were already many ministers standing in front of the palace gate. Lord yang Cong led his wife and children, old master Wen led Wen ruyin, the Zheng family and some other forces.

Everyone got off the carriage and exchanged a few words. Not long after, they heard a eunuch come out of the palace gate to report.

"His Majesty understands the intentions of all of you, but His Majesty has caught a cold today and will not summon all of you. We'll enter the palace together at the New Year's banquet." The head eunuch's voice was shrill, and the other officials thanked the Emperor without any airs.

"Next, let's go to the eastern Palace to thank him." Sir yang took a deep breath. What came next was the main event.

Everyone had already guessed that His Majesty would not meet them.

No matter if it was because he was in a half-opposing state with the Crown Prince or what, everyone guessed that he would not meet.

The crowd was not disappointed and went to the eastern Palace together.

"Sir Zheng's carriage is heading to the first Prince's residence." Her first uncle lifted the curtain and looked outside..

Master Xia closed his eyes slightly and held Lulu's hand. "The great Prince's secondary consort is set on Princess Dongli. I'm afraid the main consort will be chosen from noble consort Lin's maiden family and the Zheng family."

Now, His Majesty favored Imperial concubine Lin, and the Empress still didn't fight for his favor and rarely socialized.

The outsiders guessed that if they chose the Zheng family, they would be in the first Prince's camp.

Her first uncle frowned.

the Zheng family is in-laws with Sir yang, who has just returned to the city. Now Sir yang has gone to the eastern Palace ...

Old master Xia shook his head, "I'm afraid that in their eyes, no matter how close a married lady is, she can't compare to political affairs." In order to avoid suspicion, the Zheng and yang families will visit each other less often in the future."

"The Zheng clan is a Shi clan, and they will definitely rise again when they return to the capital. In order to win him over, the first Prince will most likely choose the Zheng family. The Lin family is, after all, related by blood, and will be a little negligent.

As for whether the Lin family would be unhappy, noble consort Lin would deal with it.

It didn't take long for the group's carriages to stop outside the eastern Palace.

He could feel the great difference when he got off the carriage.

The long Street outside the eastern Palace was empty. What should have been an extremely prosperous area was actually devoid of a single person. Even the surrounding streets were quieter than elsewhere.

"Twelve years ago, before His Highness was born. This is the most prosperous and extravagant money-squandering cave."

"Ever since Your Highness appeared, this place has become a wasteland."

His first uncle said with a smile. In the past, the shops here were hard to find. "This Street used to be a famous food Street. All the delicacies in the world are gathered here."

The entire Street was sealed off. It's a pity that our Lulu has never seen it before."

Her first uncle knew that she loved to eat, so he deliberately teased her.

"I don't like to come here. There's nothing here and it's not fun at all." Lulu looked left and right, the regret in his eyes almost impossible to conceal.

unless ... Unless the food Street opens up again. The little girl blinked her eyes.

The old man stroked his beard and laughed."Don't even think about it, little greedy cat. His Highness is getting older and more people are afraid of him, who would dare to set up a stall under the Tiger's eyes?"

The little guy mumbled, "'What if he doesn't think it through and lets others do

Hmph, stinky evil.

However, the Xia family did not hear it and only followed the ministers who came to thank him with a visit card.

The eunuchs in front of the eastern palace gate were all extremely arrogant, their eyes growing on their heads.

Even when he met the ministers in the court, he was still arrogant.

But fortunately, he would not offend anyone in the open.

“Your Highness does not like to be noisy, so this lowly officials came over to pay their respects to Your Highness. If it’s too much trouble, we can just kowtow to His Highness outside the door.” Sir yang was still walking in front, and they were all prepared to be shut out at the door.

However, the doorkeeper opened the door.

“His Highness has already set up a banquet in the manor to entertain all of you. All of you have returned to the capital, travel-worn, so His Highness should at least give you a welcome.”

“My Lords, please come in.”

The ministers looked at each other and felt that this was a trap set by hongmen.

The empty door was like a big mouth that could eat people.

Sir yang took the lead.

The group entered the eastern Palace one after another.

Lulu followed Mrs. Xia at the back, looking around vivaciously.

Sometimes, she would think of her uncle’s words about being cautious, and she would hurriedly lower her head and follow behind her mother.

“Mother, I don’t want to hold your hand. I promise I won’t go anywhere.” The little girl broke free from Madam Xia’s hands. Seeing the eunuch look at her, Madam Xia had to give up.

Seeing her daughter’s head firmly lowered and her honest appearance, he finally believed her a little..
