

The Savior 481

Chapter 481: All of you are shameless (1)

“The wise King’s words are interesting.”

“Just now, I thought that the four families had beaten Lulu, so I shouted that the children’s laughter and playing were all trivial matters. What, now that Lulu has won, you want justice?”

“So in the eyes of the wise King, only things that are beneficial to oneself are right?”

Lu huaijiang said slowly. Anyway, Lulu didn’t suffer any losses, so what was the rush?

The country guarding Duke’s old Madam held the little Shizi’s hand and stood up, bowing to the Crown Prince.

“It’s this official’s wife’s lack of discipline. This child can not be blamed on lady Jiang.

“If you want to blame someone, blame him for not having a brain.” The old Madam glared at her grandson. The servant girl in the corner had already explained the whole story.

This child had been tricked.

He wasn’t going to cultivate his body. What he should do was to go back and nourish his brain.

“He can only blame himself for being stupid and can’t even beat a five year old girl. You’ve really lost the face of the Duke zhengguo’s mansion.” The little Shizi felt wronged. If he won, he had to apologize, but if he lost, he had to be scolded.

But it was indeed embarrassing.

The Little Prince was still holding a tooth in his palm. It was just in time to grow a new tooth, so he was directly knocked out.

The little girl still jumped up and hit him.

He had no face to refute whatever his grandmother said.

He saluted His Highness directly and didn’t dare to get close to Jiang huailu, so he was pulled away by the old lady.

Old master Wen was furious, but he didn’t dare to pick a side. Moreover, the legitimate son peed his pants from fear, and it was even from a five-year-old child. Old master Wen was also embarrassed.

“Your Highness, the Wen family has admitted to this matter. It’s nothing for children to fight and play.” With that said, she held her son’s hand and left dejectedly.

One step at a time, he felt even more ashamed and resentful.

The Crown Prince smiled. I have to thank big brother for interceding on this matter. Otherwise, I'm afraid I'd have to go from house to house to apologize.

"The wise King is magnanimous. This Xian is indeed a good match for big brother."

The Crown Prince raised his eyebrows. The Lin family and the Crown Prince relied on each other.

Now that the Lin family had lost their face right under his nose, his big brother could not even seek justice.

It would probably create a Rift with the Lin family.

Master yixu had been silent ever since he saw Lulu's arrogant and domineering appearance.

It was obvious who had the advantage.

He didn't expect this girl to be so black-hearted.

Recalling how he had carried her out just now, he broke out in a cold sweat. "Let's go back and wash up. Look at you, you're no different from a monkey." Lu huaijiang could not help but laugh when he saw her expression. The Jiang family was all refined and cultured, how did they produce such a devil incarnate?

Could it be the mysterious godmother that she had always mentioned?

Lu huaijiang had investigated in private and found that Lulu had never left the Jiang family's residence. He had always been trapped in the back residence, so logically speaking, he shouldn't have made friends with outsiders. But thinking about the hall of salvation, Lu huaijiang felt at ease.

She was born extraordinary.

Now that he had brought Lulu back to the meditation room, a young servant girl helped him wash up.

"Next time, you should prepare some light clothes for me. It's not convenient to fight in a dress." Lulu even gave Lu huaijiang her insight, which made Lu huaijiang so angry that he almost laughed.

"Come here." Lu huaijiang said in a low voice.

Lulu saw that he was not in a good mood, and eunuch Lu even made a hand gesture to her. She hurriedly lowered her head and stood in front of him obediently.

"Do you know what you did wrong?"

Lulu had just washed her hair and it was still wet. Lu huaijiang reached out to take the towel and started drying it for her.

"Lulu shouldn't be impulsive and fight?" Lulu said carefully.

"Or was Lulu too heavy-handed?" The little girl's eyes were filled with grievance, but she didn't let Lu huaijiang see it..

Chapter 482 - 482: Embarrassed foot-picking (1)

Lu huaijiang knocked on her head lightly.

“What nonsense are you thinking about?”

“What you shouldn’t have done was to take off young master Lin’s belt and hang it on the tree. What if his pants fell down? You’re a young lady, what if your reputation is ruined?” In the capital, there were many people who had no choice but to marry someone because their reputation was ruined.

Lu huaijiang was angry and helpless.

“Hitting them will dirty your hands.” He sighed helplessly.

“But as long as you’re happy.” His face was full of compromise.

With a smile on her face, Lulu tilted her head and asked, “Then should we go and apologize? So many people have seen Lulu beating someone up ...” Lulu felt that His Highness was too influential.

I can’t lose it.

She might as well call her brother over and apologize to each of them.

“No need. They are not worthy of bengong’s apology. Just send some gifts to the residence in large banners and drums.” They also spread the news that they couldn’t even win a four-on-one battle.

Let’s see who gets embarrassed.

It was embarrassing to be beaten up.

The old lady finally understood that the country guarding Duke’s son had been taken back.

This grandson of hers was not active, nor was he arrogant and domineering. He was just not smart enough. He had been used as a gun.

As for the other three families, she did not allow the Prince to have any contact with them.

They were all black-hearted things, coaxing her grandson to be the first bird to stand out. Look at these teeth, tsk, well beaten.

If you don’t suffer a loss, you won’t learn.

In the evening, Lu huaijiang was also preparing to return to the capital.

“Almsgiver previously said that you wanted to stay here for a few days, and the side room has been prepared. You ...” The little Shami asked in confusion when he saw that His Highness was about to leave.

Eunuch Lu sighed. let’s go. I’m afraid your master yixu can’t take it.

The little Shami immediately shut his mouth.

Looking at the Shorty-like girl, he couldn't help but put his hands together and say Amitabha.

This time, he didn't even want to stay.

Lulu pouted and snorted. What a petty man.

let's go. You're still complaining about having a toothache in the day. It's a good time to go back and see a doctor. Lulu's teeth had grown out these few days, and he was always gritting his teeth. From time to time, he would complain that his teeth hurt.

"You're not allowed to eat candy in the future." Lu huaijiang gave a death order.

In the future, her toothache would be fatal.

Oh, " Lulu replied in a daze. He didn't have the joy of a winner at all.

She wondered if she should just go back to the Xia family since she was not allowed to eat the candy.

If the Crown Prince knew of her thoughts, he would probably be angry again.

The carriage creaked down the mountain.

Night fell.

Lulu leaned against the window and sniffed the sweet scent. He then made up his mind and raised four fingers. I'll send four. I must eat less candy ...

Drip ...

As soon as he opened his mouth, saliva dripped down.

Lu huaijiang looked at her quietly, the situation was extremely awkward.

Lulu wiped his mouth, his face flushed.

"This drool doesn't listen to me," he said, feeling embarrassed. He grinned, but he could vaguely feel his saliva dripping down again, so he quickly covered his mouth.

Lu huaijiang's mood immediately improved.

She asked eunuch Lu to buy some pastries and gave her a small piece.

"You can eat the rest tomorrow. Don't eat too much." Lu huaijiang couldn't bear to see her like this. He said he wouldn't give her candy, but he gave her a piece of dessert.

Lulu took it into his mouth and ate it bit by bit, cherishing it.

When he returned to the eastern Palace, the Imperial physician who was skilled in dentist had already arrived.

He had a handsome figure and was an elegant young man.

The Imperial physician left.

"Brother physician, you're so pretty. Can I have a tooth ache every day from now on?" Lulu said as he laid on the soft couch..

Chapter 483: Seven apertures exquisite heart_1

Lu huaijiang was so angry that he almost laughed.

He turned his head and gave an order to change the young Imperial physicians in the Imperial physician institution.

They specifically chose some old and ugly ones.

The younger ones were directly in charge of the harem.

As for whether or not he would become the green Emperor, he did not care at all.

“And it hurts once a day? you don’t even remember when you’re rolling around in bed?” Lu huaijiang’s expression did not look good. Alright, tomorrow’s desserts are gone.

Lulu did not dare to bring it up again when she saw that he was in a bad mood. She only muttered in her heart that she would just have to suffer the pain every few days.

Hmph!

Little did she know that his petty and suspicious Highness had already killed her little thoughts in the cradle.

The Imperial physician who wanted to treat him, in his dreams.

That night, His Highness sent a large group of people to deliver gifts of apology to the four families.

When this matter spread, the four families were so embarrassed that they lost all their faces.

He didn’t dare to accept a single one and retreated.

She even said that her child had it coming.

It was as if his teeth were Imocked out and his stomach hurt.

His Highness, who was protecting his children, smiled and said nothing.

Lulu was so tired from playing that he didn’t even go to the hall of salvation. He immediately fell into a deep sleep, like a five-year-old child, innocent and pure.

The next morning.

When the Xia family heard that Lulu had beaten someone up, Jiang Huaian personally came to inquire about it.

He knew that Lulu had beaten up the heir of the high Duke, the legitimate son of the Lin family, the legitimate son of the Wen family, and the legitimate daughter of the Zheng family.

His heart was cold.

“Let’s stay in the eastern Palace for the time being and wait for this storm to pass. During this period of time, Lulu has to bring more guards when he goes out.” Lu huaijiang did not force them to stay, only saying that he was afraid of revenge from the four families.

The Xia family couldn't take it.

The Xia family would not make an enemy out of the four great families for Lulu.

Lulu's surname was Jiang, and the Xia family's surname was Xia.

Jiang Huai'an, who had originally planned to bring his sister back, bowed to His Highness to thank him, then instructed his sister to be obedient.

"I can't be spoiled and willful," so she left the eastern Palace helplessly.

He knew that it was not right to leave his sister in the eastern Palace. He should not do this. However, he felt as if he had fallen into a big net of gentleness, and he always had a valid reason to keep Lulu.

Lu huaijiang, "isn't this a good reason?"

It was the fifth day of the first month of the lunar year, and the hall of salvation would shine again tomorrow night.

She could have her own time during the day.

The little girl swallowed her saliva.

Lu huaijiang stiffly looked away. it'll hurt my teeth. You're not allowed to eat. If you want to find a good looking Imperial physician for a toothache, don't even think about it!

"Oh ..." "Oh," Lulu replied.

Not long after, it was time for breakfast.

The little girl hiccuped as soon as she came to the table, then covered her mouth. "Burp." His expression was calm.

The breakfast in the eastern Palace was light, but there was also a lot of meat and fish.

There was a tiger skin and a Phoenix's claw, a steamed eight treasures duck, and a few fish.

Eunuch Lu was arranging food for the two of them. He felt that something was amiss when he saw the food on the table.

"That's strange. This Phoenix claw only has four fingers . Lu huaijiang looked at Lulu, and she wiped her mouth calmly.

He also ate very little for breakfast today.

She drank the bird's nest in a few gulps and jumped off the table."Lulu is full .. Lulu needs to be skinny, Lulu needs to be healthy, Lulu doesn't eat meat." After shouting the slogan, he got off the table and ran away quickly.

Eunuch Lu sneakily turned the eight treasures duck over.

“Your Highness, each of the Phoenix claws is missing a claw. The thing in the eight treasures duck’s stomach is gone ...” He took a bite of each of the five fingers of a Phoenix claw.

If one did not look closely, it would not be obvious at all..

Chapter 484: His Highness who protects his children (1)

The eight treasures duck had many abalones and sea cucumbers, but it was gone.

“Bring over the desserts over there.” Lu huaijiang said.

Eunuch Lu said as he took the Jade. I’ve counted it. There are eight pieces in total. Not a single piece is missing.

“The little girl is growing and loves to eat. It was nothing to steal a few bites of the chicken feet. At least the desserts were still intact. It’s not easy for her to hold back.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw His Highness turn over every piece of pastry.

Very good, there was a hole in each piece.

The inside had been dug out, leaving only a layer of skin and the shape ..

Eunuch Lu was suddenly at a loss for words.

“When did this happen? When did you do it? this servant didn’t see you at all.” Eunuch Lu was so shocked that he almost couldn’t speak.

There were eight pieces of desserts on the plate, and she had emptied every piece from the bottom.

They looked fine on the outside and were stacked in white porcelain.

If he didn’t flip it over, he wouldn’t be able to tell.

“She’s more intelligent than you think.” Lu huaijiang said in a low voice. With a pinch, the snack collapsed.

“Of course. miss Lulu is the smartest child I’ve ever seen. A servant. when she saw him, she wished she could present everything to her. Your Highness has good eyes ...” Eunuch Lu bragged for a while.

As expected, His Highness’s expression became gentler.

“Go check the desserts on the table and see how much she has eaten. I won’t put it on the table anymore, it’ll damage my teeth.” This was the inconvenience of raising a sister. He had to be careful of her stealing food and damaging her teeth.

He also had to be careful that she would fall for someone else.

She was just a child, what did she know about being good-looking?

In the past, there were very few Palace maids in the eastern Palace, but now, even the good-looking eunuchs were few.

“Yes.” Eunuch Lu turned around and ordered someone to check the desserts.

Fortunately, she was discovered early. She only ate two plates before eunuch Lu ordered the people to remove all the desserts.

However, to his surprise, His Highness left a disc in his study.

In the entire Eastern Palace, only his study was left.

If Lulu wanted to steal food, she had to find him.

Eunuch Lu didn't think too much about it. His Highness doted on his sister, so he probably couldn't bear to see her suffer. It was not a big deal to coax the child in private.

Eunuch Lu was very grateful to Lulu.

His Highness seemed to have rarely lost his temper in the past two months, and his violent temper was suppressed by Lulu.

If it was in the past, who knew how many people he could kill in two months.

Now, his entire being was alive and moving, as if he had become a real person with flesh and blood.

Young Lulu, on the other hand, became famous after one battle.

With the strength of one person, he had beaten four families to tears. Moreover, he didn't get any benefits from any of them, and he could be considered to have shown his face in all the families.

Lulu stayed in the eastern Palace for a few days and didn't return.

The Xia family was a little anxious.

“Mother, Lulu has been out for three days. The girl's reputation was more important, so why not let Lulu come back? In the end, the eastern Palace is the Crown Prince's residence, and it's not appropriate for a girl like Lulu to stay.”

“Qing Qing knows her mistake and will definitely admit it to little aunt.” Madam Yu supported her belly and looked at Madam Yun with a worried expression.

Lady Yun's expression was not good.

Madam Yu's maternal family was of a high status, and because Xia ningze was the eldest grandson, he would have to shoulder the Xia family in the future.

The wife he married was naturally from a wealthy family.

She could accept that he was a little ostentatious in the past.

“What kind of reputation would Lulu ruin? She's only five years old in real life and six years old in virtual life. Who would ruin her reputation?” Madam Yun said with a bit of displeasure in her eyes.

Men and women were not allowed to sit together when they were seven years old.

However, he was not even six years old yet, so who would dare to have such wild thoughts?

She was afraid that if she said it out loud, she would be laughed at. Her heart was dirty, and everything she saw was dirty.

Madam Yu was stabbed by her mother-in-law, and her expression was somewhat embarrassed..

Chapter 485 - 485: Her good fortune (1)

“When Lulu left home, he was scolded by Qingqing.”

“Qing Qing is at fault, she should admit it.” Madam Yun sighed softly. She had thought that the daughter of a noble family could be clear-headed, but it turned out that she was also not clear-headed.

Lulu was forced to leave by Qingqing. It's fine if Qingqing admits her mistake and admits her punishment.

But now, she had used the excuse that Lulu wanted to ruin her reputation to invite him back. It was a little shameless.

“It wasn't easy for the Xia family to get to where it is today. If they don't know how to restrain their descendants, I'm afraid the Xia family will end up like this. You're the daughter-in-law of the eldest grandson in the residence, so the Xia family will be handed over to you and brother ze sooner or later.”

“Do you understand this logic?”

The Yun clan's words were heavy.

Madam Yu couldn't help but stand up. Her eyes were red as she knelt in front of her.

“It's not that I want to punish you, and it's not that the old lady is biased towards her granddaughter. In this residence, who do you think can surpass Qingqing and be more favored? How old is Qingqing now? if you don't teach her back, you'll cry in the future. You see in our Fu, old lady dotes on Qing Qing, the other households can't compare. Do you think that she punished Qingqing and had to make her admit her mistake personally? do you think she was harming her?”

Madam Yun helped her daughter-in-law up. Seeing her cry, she couldn't help but persuade her.

“Don't cry. There's still a child in her stomach.”

The young woman couldn't help but wipe away her tears and hold her stomach, a bit of grievance on her face.

“Your aunt Yurong has a strong self-esteem. Back then, he had been at odds with the clan and had not returned to the residence for more than ten years. Old master and old Madam were calling her an evil daughter, but they were so hopeful that their eyes were almost going blind. If you really force her to leave. Can you still stand firm in this residence?"

After all, she was the eldest son and daughter-in-law, so Madam Yun said a few heartfelt words. The young woman began to cry again.

"Huai 'an is a child with a backbone. The moment he returned to the capital, he received the care of Grand tutor Xie. There's still a few months before the Imperial examination. With his talent, how long can he stay in the Xia family?"

"The Xia family is helping out because of kinship. It's also to win over."

"Treat them well, the old lady values you more. The Jiang siblings also appreciate your kindness, but it's just three more people living here, how can they not be able to accommodate them?"

"Did you really think that the Jiang family was the reason why brother ze and brother Yan were sent out back then?"

"These few years, the Xia family has passed too quickly. Imperial consort Lin was being nice to her, so she wanted to win over the Xia family. The Xia family wouldn't dare to take sides, so they could only find an opportunity to send brother ze and brother Yan away for two years, and the Xia family would also rest for two years." Perhaps the two young Masters of the Xia family had been sent out to plead for mercy for the Jiang family.

But more than that, the Xia family didn't dare to get involved in the heart of the battle for the heir apparent.

"Besides, Lulu is just a girl. Being doted on in the residence, how can it hinder you? You should think more about everything. It wasn't easy for the Xia family to get to where they are today."

This time, the young woman bit her lower lip in shame.

"It's my daughter-in-law's fault. Qingqing will strictly teach him and will definitely not do it again. However, she still needed her mother's help to reconcile with Lulu. In the end Lulu was angered by Qingqing and left. I'm afraid that Qingqing will be poked in the back."

"It's my daughter-in-law's fault for not teaching her well." The young woman began to cry.

"I wonder if Lulu will be in front of Your Highness ..." The beautiful woman was a little worried.

“In the future, we’ll be more strict in our discipline.” Seeing that her daughter-in-law had let go of the knot in her heart, Madam Yun breathed a sigh of relief.

“Don’t worry about Lulu. This child may be impulsive, but he knows what he’s doing. He would never speak ill of the Xia family in front of His Highness. It’s her good fortune to have run away from home and befriended Your Highness.” Eldest aunt was still very surprised that the Crown Prince had taken Lulu in.

Moreover, he was doted on by His Highness and was said to have been brought along with him for the past three days..

Chapter 486 - 486: Always getting rich suddenly (1)

It was the fifth day of the month, and the officials had already attended court as usual.

But the atmosphere in the capital was still lively.

“I’m still better than the Emperor. Everyone else went to court on the fifth day of the new year, but the hall of salvation only started work on the sixth day. One more day of annual leave!” Why did the world-saving Hall only reappear on the sixth day of the Lunar New Year? that was Lulu’s annual leave for everyone.

Nether soldiers had to rest for a few days a year.

Lulu was still very human-like.

She went to the house yang pinfeng had bought for her earlier to look at the account book. Very well, the account books were all over the table. There were also many storerooms, with all kinds of rare treasures piled everywhere.

“It’s good that you came. If you didn’t come, I would have gone to the eastern Palace to find you. The account books have piled up on the table. If I don’t look at them now, there will be more and more. When will I be able to read them?”

When yang pinfeng saw her, his nose was not his nose, and his eyes were not his eyes.

Lulu felt that his temper was a little explosive today.

Lulu flipped through the account books, reading ten lines at a glance.

Her godmother had said that money was the root of a person. If one couldn’t manage the accounts well, they would be a failure.

After a while, yang pinfeng looked at her and said, “”I heard that you had a fight with the son of the country guarding Duke? And even hit Wen ruyin’s little cousin? And that B * stard Lin, Zheng yaoguang?”

“How could you not call me when you’re fighting?” Yang pinfeng was furious. He hadn’t seen little master for a few days and little master’s name had spread throughout the capital.

It was said that His Highness had raised a little girl who was spoiled and beat several princes to the ground in the National temple.

“Why did I call you? It’s not like I can’t win! I don’t need any help!” Lulu was not convinced. She did not need any help.

Yang pinfeng stomped his foot, “if I can’t win, why would I come?” He would only come if he won! Why didn’t you bring me along with you when this was a chance to make a name for yourself? All you do is make me earn money. Sigh, I reek of money ...” Yang pinfeng was also helpless.

He realized that ever since he had started working for Lulu, he had always been able to reap great benefits no matter what he did.

Everything was going smoothly, and everything was going according to his wishes.

He wanted to buy land.

The next day, they were ready to sell the land.

He pondered who he wanted to do business with, and the next day, the person came to his door.

It was so smooth that it was unbelievable.

Lulu looked at the total number under the account book. There were many zeros.

“In at most three years, the richest man can’t be surnamed Wen anymore.” Yang pingfeng left early in the morning and returned late every day. The Yang family knew that he had a small business with Lulu, and they were very concerned about it.

“Wen ruyin’s family has returned to the capital. The Wen family is in chaos now. He had to take this opportunity to gain a firm foothold. After a few years, they won’t be the richest man in great Zhou anymore.”

Yang pinfeng’s eyes were filled with pride. His father had just scolded him this morning.

Being away from home all day and doing small business was busier than him, an official of the court.

“It’s so much money. How long do I have to eat before I can finish it?” Lulu exclaimed.

Yang pinfeng rolled his eyes at her and said, “eat, eat, eat, all you know is to eat.” Look at you, the ladies of the noble families in the capital are all very money-burning. You can buy all kinds of extravagant items and jewelry. It’s not like you’re short of money.”

“The Wen family is the richest family in the world, but they’re such a big family with countless branches. It was nothing more than this when the money was divided. And you? All of our money is yours.”

Yang pinfeng was still very self-aware.

He might have some talent in business, but Lulu was definitely under the care of the God of Wealth! Other people would get rich the first time they met her, but she could get rich the second time.

All kinds of fortune could not be stopped.

She had been making a fortune all this time and had never stopped!

Chapter 487 - 487: I'll top your whole family (1)

Lulu had always taken 60% of the profits, yang pingfeng took 20%, and the remaining 20% were for allies.

Lulu rolled his eyes. What was so good about gold and silver jewelry?

He couldn't eat, drink, or taste it.

I can't even look at it a few times, how can it compare to eating!

But she didn't dare to refute, she was afraid of yang pinfeng's disdainful eyes.

His godmother had said that others had different opinions from him.

Don't argue with a fool, just treat him as a simple-minded person.

"In another three to four years, I'll be able to pull the Wen family's richest man down. Do you think I should learn from those scholars and write an autobiography?" Yang pinfeng touched his chin and sighed.

Jiang huailu's face twitched.

"Have you learned the word 'top'?" I remember you were only seven or eight years old when I met you, right? At that time, you were even beaten up for writing the wrong name, and you're writing an autobiography for her like this?" Lulu's face was full of disdain. Fortunately, her name was Jiang huailu, which wasn't difficult to name.

Yang fenfeng had been beaten up for writing his name before he was eight years old.

These words directly triggered yang pingfeng's depression.

"It's all my father's fault. I'm going to have a child in the future. The eldest was called yang da, the second was yang er, and the youngest was yang Yao. I won't let them get beaten up because of their names!"

"What if yang Yao gives birth to another child in the future?" "Then I'll call you yang zhiyao." Yang pinfeng looked at her honestly.

Lulu was speechless.

"Autobiographies, you can talk about it in the future. You can't bring me in anyway."

"Who am I? I'm the hall master of the hall of salvation, the Savior of the world. The Savior saved the world while secretly saving money to do business. With the help of the Savior Hall, how could he not earn money? At that time, my reputation will be ruined by you." Lulu did not believe her.

Her godmother had taught her before.

You can use your identity to make money, but you can't let anyone catch you.

Lulu wasn't stupid.

"From what you've said, I don't seem to have anything to be proud of." Yang pinfeng rubbed his chin. If he were to pull the Wen family down before he turned 15, it would be shocking and intimidating. However, what he really relied on was the hall of salvation.

And Lulu's heaven-defying luck.

These two were both cheats from the heavens.

Lulu covered his mouth and snickered. In fact, yang pinfeng was already a very intelligent person in the mortal world.

And most of his intelligence was added to money.

She had noticed it at first sight.

Even if Lulu had not met him, he would have grown up in peace and would have slowly walked down this path. It was just that it wasn't as smooth as this and would take more time.

"Are you going to the Imperial College after the new year? When will I be able to stop studying ..." Yang fenfeng recalled that the Directorate would start school after the 16th day of the first month of the lunar year and suddenly wailed.

"If the richest man is illiterate, it's not right!" Lulu said righteously.

Yang pinfeng was indignant, his eyes almost spurring fire, "Your homework is still brother Lu's ... He suddenly covered his mouth.

He had always felt that the Crown Prince and brother Lu were a little similar.

Furthermore, the Crown Prince had been in a coma for a year, and brother Lu had stayed by Lulu's side as a spirit for a year.

Others didn't dare to think about it, but he had seen him when he was a ghost!

Yang pinfeng knew about this, but he didn't dare to say anything, only whispering, "'It's all because you have someone to do your homework for you.

Besides, what's wrong with being illiterate? don't look down on illiterates."

But knowing that Lulu was going to be sent to the Directorate, yang fenfeng was somewhat relieved.

"I don't want to be a human in my next life. How good would it be to be a cat or a dog? There's no need to do homework, there's someone to take care of you."

Yang Feng sighed..

Chapter 488 - 488: I can't hold on anymore _1

“I don’t want to be a cat, I don’t want to be a dog. Cats and dogs have to become father-in-law.” Isn’t it common to castrate cats and dogs in the capital?

Yang pinfeng’s legs tightened.

Forget it.

Although doing homework was difficult, he was still complete.

Just as they were talking, the attendant outside the door came in and reported, miss Lu, someone from the Xia family is here. They’re asking you to go back.

Yang pinfeng waved his hand, “go, go.” I’ve thought about it, but I won’t think about an autobiography. I’ll practice my name well so that people can ask me to write inscriptions in the future.

“Oh,” Lulu replied.

“My brother probably wants to move out of the Xia family. Do you want to think of a way for him to earn some money?” Lulu asked before leaving.

Yang pinfeng’s face revealed a meaningful expression.

“I’ve asked someone to put some money on the road your brother often takes.

Pretend like someone threw it. ‘

“He handed it over to the authorities.”

“In the end, the government gave him a plaque. My one thousand taels are pitiful!”

Although he had found someone to bring it back.

“I originally wanted to pull him along to do business, but he’s about to take the Imperial examination, so I didn’t dare to distract him. Moreover, with such a strict arrest, it would be disadvantageous to him if he was exposed. We’ll talk about it after the exam. ‘

Lulu thought about it and agreed.

He could only give up.

Although Jiang Huaian had promised Lulu that he would stay in the eastern Palace for the time being, he had also asked Lulu to make a trip back.

It was noon, and Lulu followed the Xia family home.

Behind Lulu was an old woman, eight guards, and a coachman.

It was all prepared by the Crown Prince.

The carriage was heading towards the Xia family’s residence when they suddenly saw a carriage speeding towards them, forcing their carriage to stop at the side.

The carriage left in a cloud of dust.

“Which family is it?” Lulu asked, leaning against the window.

“It’s the Xie family. Last night, they had heard that aunt Xie could not make it and had called for an Imperial physician. I’m afraid that the younger generation of the Xie family has rushed back to meet you.”

“Sigh, aunt Xie is also a pitiful person. I’ve waited my whole life, and now I’m like a lamp running out of oil.” The coachman had obviously heard of the Xie family.

“When I return from the Xia family, can you send me to the Xie family?”

“Alright.” Just as the coachman finished speaking, the carriage arrived in front of the Xia family’s Gate.

Madam Yun was Lulu’s first aunt, and Lulu had left home because of her granddaughter. Although Madam Yun was an elder, she truly loved Lulu, so she was waiting at the door.

He saw the carriage with the words “Eastern Palace” printed on it and the eight guards around it.

They were from the eastern Palace.

Lady Yun was a little shocked.

His Highness’s pet, Lulu, was more than three points.

“First aunt, Lulu is back ...” Lulu jumped out of the carriage as soon as the nanny lifted the curtain.

Madam Yun was so frightened that she quickly reached out to catch him.

“Ouch ...” It sank, sank, and sank a little more.

Seeing Lulu’s intimacy, Madam Yun’s heart eased a little.

She was afraid that Lulu would have a Rift with the Xia family. She really liked this child.

“First aunt, did you miss me?” The little girl held her aunt’s cheek and kissed her, which melted Madam Yun’s heart.

“Yes, yes, I did. Why don’t I miss you, you Naughty Monkey?” Madam Yun smiled sincerely.

“Do you think of me with candy or with snacks? Or did meaty miss me?” The little girl coughed lightly, as if she was trying to remind him.

Madam Yun laughed so hard that her tears were about to fall. Did this child not eat enough in the eastern Palace?

“Both, both.” Madam Yun carried her and walked into the manor. “You guys wait for me in the outer court.” Lulu waved his little claws.

Lady Yun looked at the servants behind her..

“Who are they?” Madam Yun suddenly felt that the maidservant looked a little familiar.

“Brother Lu gave them to me. He said that he was afraid that someone would put a Gunny sack on Lulu.” Lulu said seriously.

Lulu’s face reddened. Was she really that good at causing trouble?

“Madam, they are the Imperial Guards. His Highness brought this from His Majesty.” The nanny bowed obediently. Her hair was combed neatly, and there was no smile on her face.

He was a very serious and rule-abiding person.

Lady Yun was shocked. Imperial Guard.

No wonder he looked so familiar. Wasn’t the person in front the legitimate son of the Liu family?

Lulu tilted his head, looking like he did not fully understand.

“Then, Momo ...”

“This servant used to serve the Empress. Your Highness does not have any useful Palace maids in the palace. Let this servant take care of it for a few days.” The nanny said in a low voice.

The Yun clan ...

This time, he didn’t dare to be careless and hurriedly ordered people to bring them to the front yard.

He even asked the kitchen to prepare two tables of good food.

He felt as if he was hugging a gold nugget.

It was rumored that Lulu had left home and was picked up by His Highness. She was raised by His Highness in the eastern Palace. What kind of life was she living in the eastern Palace?

Even the princess didn’t receive such treatment!

Madam Yun carried her all the way to the rear courtyard. The old taitai and the people in the residence were already waiting.

Xia Qingqing stood in front of the old Madam with her lips tightly pursed. She looked very unwilling. But the woman beside her glared at her, and she lowered her head in grievance.

As soon as Lulu returned, the old lady called out to him and had someone carry him to her knees.

Good fellow, I thought I’d lost weight after leaving home for a few days.

It looked a little long.

It sank again.

“It was the Imperial Guards and the Empress’s maidservants who sent her back.”
Lady Yun said in a low voice.

Everyone was a little surprised. This was not only to protect Lulu, but also to tell the Xia family that Lulu was to be sent back to the eastern Palace.

“Grandmother, Lulu missed you so much. Lulu really missed you.”

mother, Lulu is home ... Lulu looked at Madam Xia with a smile, and Madam Xia looked at her reproachfully as she wiped her tears.

“You still know to come back. I thought you didn’t want this mother anymore. You’ve grown some courage, to actually dare to fight outside!”

He had beaten up four of them.

He couldn’t afford to offend any of them.

There were as many powerful people in the capital as dogs, and the Xia family was on the rise, so no one dared to provoke them.

However, it was his own family who had beaten all four of them to the point of calling a doctor.

“Mother, I won’t dare to do it again.” Lulu lowered his head.

Seeing that she knew she was wrong, Madam Xia was about to speak when she heard her say,
“”Brother Lu gave me eight guards, so I don’t have to do anything in the future.”

The Xia family ...

Your Highness, you are helping the evildoer!

“Who’s brother Lu?” When the old lady saw that she kept addressing him as brother Lu in such an intimate manner, she did not know who it was.

“Brother Lu huaijiang.”

The room was silent.

He was calling His Highness’s name!

The old lady’s eyelids trembled, and she tightened her grip on Lulu.

“Qing Qing, don’t you have something to say to Lulu?” The old lady lowered her eyes, hugged Lulu, and looked at Qingqing.

Qing Qing’s eyes were filled with tears. It was all her fault. If it wasn’t for her, she would still be the most pampered child in the residence.

Xia Qingqing stood there and did not move. The pregnant woman stood up and gently pushed her.

Xia Qingqing pursed her lips unwillingly.. The young woman said, ““Weren’t you worried that Lulu would suffer outside yesterday? Why aren’t you saying anything when you see Lulu?”

Chapter 490 - 490: Unreasonable (1)

“She didn’t suffer.” Xia Qingqing muttered softly.

“She clearly also met His Highness the Crown Prince and moved into the eastern Palace. There were also Imperial Guards protecting her. She didn’t suffer any hardship.”

“She didn’t suffer at all and even got such a great opportunity. Qing Qing injured her forehead and still has to kneel in the ancestral Hall to admit her mistake. It is clearly Qing Qing who was wronged, why does it have to be Qing Qing admitting her mistake?” Xia Qingqing raised her hand to wipe her tears, her face unhappy.

She didn’t need to raise her head to feel her mother-in-law and the old matriarch’s ugly expressions.

“You guys only know how to shout at Qingqing. How did she suffer? she clearly gained weight from eating! Her surname was Jiang, and she wasn’t a member of the Xia family. Why should all of you dote on her, while I’m the child of the Xia family!” Xia Qingqing couldn’t bear it when she saw Jiang huailu being so pampered.

He stood in the hall and started crying.

“Mother, it’s all my fault for not teaching her well. Mother ... Qingqing, quickly admit your mistake, quickly admit your mistake to little aunt.” Madam Yu was exasperated at Xia Yurong’s failure to live up to her expectations. When she saw Xia Yurong’s trembling shoulders, she felt terrible.

The matriarch’s face really darkened.

“Qing Qing, you returned to the Yu family. Did the Yu family mistreat you? Does matriarch Yu not dote on you anymore? Was it wrong for the Yu family to leave a small courtyard for you and your mother? This is also Lulu’s home!” The Grandmaster was truly enraged.

“Lulu was taken in by the Crown Prince because he had a good life. Lulu was fine because he was under the care of the gods. Is that an excuse for you to escape? Is that because you don’t want to admit your mistake?”

The old matriarch could not hide the disappointment in her eyes.

Lulu saw that the old Madam was furious and quickly patted her back.

“Lulu’s money bag was stolen the moment he went out, and Juan Zi even took it away and tried to sell it. If the Crown Prince hadn’t saved you, how would you have been able to take responsibility? What are you going to give me back, Lulu?” Jiang Huaian entered the room, and his gaze softened when he saw Lulu.

“I didn’t want to tell you all this so that you wouldn’t worry about Lulu. But if you think that Lulu’s good luck is a gift from you, then I can’t allow it!” Jiang Huai glanced at Xia Qingqing.

From the looks of it, she was actually jealous that Lulu had been taken in by the Crown Prince and was doted on by him.

“You’re all on her side! You’re all bad people!” Xia Qingqing burst into tears. She was clearly fine, so why did she have to apologize in public?

Clearly, grandmother and the old matriarch only loved her, so why did they love Jiang huailu more? Xia Qingqing cried as she turned her head and ran out.

“Lock her in the ancestral Hall, and only come out when she realizes her mistakes! My Xia family has never produced such a person who confounds black and white!”

“The young lady of the Xia family can be willful, but she can never be rude and unreasonable!” The old lady was so angry that she slammed her hand on the table and directly locked the person in the ancestral Hall.

Yun-Shi and Yu-Shi did not dare to persuade her any further, deeply afraid that the old taitai would fall sick from anger.

On the contrary, he stayed behind to comfort her, and Madam Yu admitted her mistake in a low voice.

“Our Lulu has suffered. It’s all grandmother’s fault for not teaching her well. She’s the first child of our Fu’s great-grandson, so she’s been spoiled a little. I didn’t expect it to grow crooked.” The matriarch felt a little uncomfortable.

The Xia family had four generations living in the same house, and the harmonious family was old Mrs. Xia’s favorite thing.

Now that she saw how unreasonable Xia Qingqing was, the old Madam had already made up her mind to keep her under strict supervision.

“Lulu, you’re not allowed to look like her.” Old taitai’s words made her granddaughter-in-law, Madam Yu, lose face.

But she also knew that he was deliberately beating her..
