

The Savior 61

Chapter 61: The Savior also screwed his mother (1)

“Lulu, there are too many people in this shop. It’s hot today, and mother is waiting in line to see you. You go stand inside the door.” After standing for a while, Mrs. Xia felt dizzy. The weather in July was too hot.

At this moment, she could clearly feel the burning heat on her body.

Lulu never liked to run around, so she was extremely at ease.

Besides, it was right under their eyes, so it was not a problem.

Little Huai Lu walked to the door of the shop with small steps. It was much cooler inside.

The air was filled with a sweet scent. The little girl couldn’t help but swallow her saliva, and her eyes lit up.

Beside her, a seven or eight-year-old boy was standing at the counter in a brocade robe. With two pieces of Osmanthus cake in her hand, the maidservant beside her wiped the sweat on her forehead.

“Young master, let’s go back. If old master knew that you sneaked out, he would definitely be angry.”

“Hurry up and line up, and buy me another two catties. This shop is too bold to limit one person to one jin.” The young man in luxurious clothes stomped his feet, his face full of displeasure.

“I should have told father and locked them up.”

The surrounding people looked over indistinctly, and the maidservant couldn’t help but blush, but she didn’t dare to refute.

The city master only had such a young master in his middle age, he was simply the tender meat in the heart, and no one could be offended.

“You go and line up too. I’ll be waiting for you here, hurry up, do you want this young master to go personally?” The well-dressed youth glared at her, and the maidservant’s face immediately turned bitter.

“This servant secretly brought you out, and we agreed that you can’t leave even half a step. If you get lost, master will definitely take this servant’s life.” That maidservant was left behind by the city Lord’s wife for her son and had always only listened to him.

The young boy seemed to have been spoiled, and his arrogant look forced the maidservant to stand in line outside the door.

“What are you looking at? Father said that I was born with a golden spoon in my mouth. I’m not a lowly commoner like you.” The young man in luxurious clothes saw Lu pick up the wet hairpin and shouted at her.

Little Huai Lu was stunned and looked at him in horror. “You were actually born with a spoon in your mouth?”

Was she born with a spoon in her mouth?

The well-dressed youth was looking up at the sky, putting on an arrogant look, waiting for the other party to flatter him. When he heard this, he almost fell.

The young man’s face darkened. he’s a golden spoon. He’s a golden spoon! He took a few steps closer and looked fierce.

“Isn’t that just a spoon?” Lu pouted. What was there to be proud of when she was born with a spoon in her mouth?

If she wanted to, she could even be born with a pot in her mouth.

Then she must be the most awesome kid in the world.

However, when she thought about it this way, no one was more impressive than her mother. After all, her mother could give birth to a pot.

Outside the snack shop, the weather was getting hotter and hotter. Madam Xia glanced at the girl, who was pouting and bickering with a young boy.

She wasn’t afraid that the lady would be mistreated, but the child had never come into contact with anyone of the same age since she was young, and she didn’t have a single friend. It was also good to have more friends now.

As for the well-dressed young man’s dress, Xia Shi really didn’t feel that it was anything special.

After all, with her identity, she had already experienced the life of the top class in the capital. Naturally, he didn’t find anything wrong.

“Sister-in-law, you’re here to buy snacks for your child? Damn, this restaurant’s desserts were delicious, but it was too torturous to line up. That child of mine is making a fuss about having desserts for his birthday tomorrow. Once a year, even if you’re so heartless, you can only come and line up.” The slightly hunchbacked woman looked honest..

Chapter 62: abducted _1

Madam Xia was startled, “your child is also having a birthday tomorrow?” Then, mother-in-law, do you not like it?”

The hunchbacked woman carefully looked at the longevity peaches in her basket and then remembered what she had heard just now, so she covered up her smile.

“In our days, who isn’t afraid of their mother-in-law? My mother-in-law has always looked down on me, and my child is born on the 15th of July, so I’m already cold. It’s not a big deal to give me the cold shoulder, but it’s a pity that my child is wronged.”

The woman unconsciously stood in front of Madam Xia and the maidservant, blocking their view.

The maidservant raised her head and looked inside the door. She could see some of the young master’s clothes.

“So it’s not easy for you guys. As maids, we are the same. As long as our master wants to eat, no matter if it’s cold or hot, we have to prepare it. If you’re not happy, you’ll either be beaten or scolded.” The maidservant had been sold to the city Lord’s mansion by her family. When she thought of her biased mother at home, she became angry.

The hunchbacked woman nodded to the distance and began to chat with them warmly.

A chubby woman was standing in front of Jiang huailu and the young man.

The woman was wearing a flower on her head and holding a lively rabbit doll in her hand.

“This Little Lord, look, this is the rabbit that you’ve been eyeing before, right? Why don’t you go and get it for me?” Granny Hua said with a smile, unable to hide the smile on her face.

She had already laid the groundwork for this kid before, but she didn’t expect this delicate little girl to come over.

It was killing two birds with one stone.

“Alright then. I’ll leave a message for the servant boy, I’ll be back soon.” The young man was overjoyed to see the rabbit. The maidservants had seen this woman before, and they had already ordered the rabbit.

The flower woman moved and pulled him back.

“You child, it’s just a matter of making a trip and coming back. I still have phoenixes and Dragons. Don’t you want to see them? I brought the servant along, but you’re not allowed to buy these messy things again. You rich people are so troublesome. Forget it, forget it, I’m not selling it.” The flower woman let go of the rabbit and was about to leave.

The teenager was instantly thrilled,

“I’ll go, I’ll go. I’ll be back soon.” The young man had been raised in the courtyard since he was a child, and his father did not allow him to touch anything. Naturally, he had never thought that he would experience such a thing.

Little Huai Lu looked at the rabbit with great interest.

The rabbit seemed to be made of dough, but it was soft and delicate. Its eyes were red, probably some kind of sugar.

“Can I go with you?”

“I promise I’ll be good and won’t cause any trouble.” Little Huai Lu’s face was full of obedience.

“Alright, I’ll send you back later. Otherwise, your parents will be worried,” the flower woman nodded slightly towards the distance.

The flower woman immediately stretched out her hands, wanting to hold one of them on each side. The luxuriously dressed youth waved his hand, “I don’t need you to hold my hand. Your hands are too rough.”

A flower woman .

Little Huai Lu also dodged. your smell is too pungent. You should walk in front.

The flower woman’s heart trembled with anger, but when she thought of how easily she had obtained these two high-quality goods and how she would immediately earn a considerable amount of income, she immediately agreed.

The flower woman walked in front, leading the two children to turn left and right. No one noticed that they had already left the crowd.

They walked further and further until they reached a small alley.

“There seems to be something wrong here.” Finally, the young man in luxurious clothes felt that something was wrong and pulled on little Huai Lu’s sleeve.

Little huailu pouted and pulled out her sleeve.

“Don’t you think she has other intentions? I clearly didn’t meet her here, but on the streets.”

Little Huai Lu glanced at him..

Chapter 63: She sold her kidnapers (1)

“Because she wants to sell us.” Little Huai Lu said in a serious tone.

“You see, she didn’t even ask me if I had money. Those who were unaccountably solicitous were either evil or thieves. I’m so pretty, isn’t it normal for her to want to sell me?”

The well-dressed teenager!

He looked at her in shock.

He gritted his teeth. then, then, why are you still here!!!

His entire person was about to collapse.

Little Huai Lu clasped her hands together and grinned. "I ... I just think that her rabbit is really pretty." Besides, she didn't think anyone could do anything to her.

The young man in luxurious clothes had always been an infuriating person in his life. He had never been so infuriated to the point of despair.

Immediately, his eyes were about to heat up and tear up.

"You, you, you!"

"What are you still talking about? Hurry up and come over!" At this moment, the flower woman no longer had her previous kind appearance, but a fierce look.

He pushed the two children into the yard and closed the door with a bang.

"How dare you! Do you know who my father is?" The young man in luxurious clothes gritted his teeth in anger.

"I don't care who you are," The flower woman laughed in disdain.

She also had a family, so she was in charge of kidnapping the child and selling it to the family. The upper family had the support of the rich and powerful, and they also had a strong background, so they could suppress anything.

She had already agreed on the price, and it was much higher than the ones she had sold before.

Scarface, who was sitting in the yard, did not say a word. He waved his hand, and someone was about to go out and tie up the two children.

The well-dressed youth's face was already covered in tears. He had long been scared out of his wits. my father, my father is ... Before he could finish, Huai Lu interrupted him.

He walked to the knife-scarred man's side.

"His father is the richest man in the country."

"His father is the richest man in the barren capital."

Seeing this, everyone in the courtyard frowned slightly.

this kid is the life of the richest man. The thing that the richest man doesn't lack the least is money. Little Huai Lu pointed at the well-dressed teenager, who even hiccuped in tears.

No, my father is the city Lord.

He hated evil and would kill people if he didn't agree with them.

How would he know that in his previous life, he had been quickly sold out because of the words "my father is the city Lord, and I am the only son of the city Lord. "

After all, the richest people had the most money, and they were after money.

But the city Lord was different. He was in charge of the entire barren capital.

Falling into his hands would only be worse than death.

“I heard that a few years ago, the richest man’s daughter went missing, and he rewarded her with ten thousand taels of silver. He even gave her a big mansion in the inner city. That’s something that money can’t buy.”

“This is a son, so he’s worth a lot more. No matter what, it should be worth at least thirty to fifty thousand taels, or two to three large manors, right? What’s that little bit of money you have?”

Little Huai Lu made up nonsense with a serious face.

The young man in luxurious clothes was already scared silly.

The scar-faced man thought for a moment and sneered, “”At such a young age, you’re quite scheming. I bought the son of the richest man, and I still have my life to take the money?” His eyes were cold, but when he looked at the young man in luxurious clothes, there was a burning passion.

Didn’t these people lick blood on the tip of the blade just to be able to enter the inner city?

Little Huai Lu mumbled, “that’s simple. It was this mother-in-law who kidnapped us.” If you catch this mother-in-law, you’ll be a hero.” The entire courtyard was shocked ..

Granny flower’s hair stood on end as she fell into a high level of danger.

“Listen to this little girl’s nonsense. When the time comes, everyone will be exposed, and no one will have a good end. You can’t be trusted!” Granny Hua was so nervous that her body was trembling.

Damn it, she had kidnapped a well-behaved little girl!

He had actually been sold out by a little girl!

She could tell that the higher-ups were tempted at a glance!

Chapter 64: She’s a demon right (1)

“I saved the son of the richest man and earned a lot of money.”

“Then hand this mother-in-law over. She must have kidnapped many children over the years, right? There will definitely be a reward.” Little Huai Lu was extremely serious.

She had just heard that it was the first time this old woman was working with this Scarface uncle.

He wasn’t the boss in the past.

“Don’t listen to her. What did this little girl know? This business is a lifetime business, and it’s going to last for a long time! If we quit after this job, wouldn’t we be cutting off our own source of income?” The flower woman was so nervous that her entire body was trembling. As she spoke, she retreated, wishing she could rush out of the door.

“Earning a lifetime is not as valuable as him. If he doesn’t return tonight, there will definitely be a bounty on him tomorrow.” Little Huai Lu had an innocent look on her face. The woman hated her so much that she wanted to rush up and tear her apart.

She regretted it. She regretted it in her heart.

She had her eyes on that young master. She had always been in this kind of business.

It was just that they usually kidnapped children from the outer city who had no money or power, those who were handsome and had no backing. This time, she was moved by the young master’s exquisite appearance, and even knew that there was a risk.

However, he had never thought that the risk would come from the three or four-year-old little girl next to him!

“Big brother Dao, big brother Dao, don’t listen to her nonsense. You’re breaking the rules, this is against the rules.” The flower woman’s knees gave way and she knelt on the ground, her face ashen.

Scarface’s face was sullen and he didn’t say a word. The strong men in the courtyard surrounded them, and the gate was heavily guarded.

Granny Hua’s legs and stomach were trembling.

“Lock her up in the woodshed.” Scarface spat fiercely. He had probably made up his mind and immediately pointed at granny Hua.

The flower woman was shocked, “brother Dao, brother Dao, you!!” The higher-ups won’t let you off!” Before he could finish speaking, he was knocked unconscious by a hand chop.

The well-dressed youth cowered behind her. This sudden change had already frightened him.

He suddenly felt that human traffickers were scary, but this little girl was even scarier!

Human traffickers kidnapping him was not scary. What was scary was that she sold the other party.

The scar-faced man looked deeply at Jiang huailu. In fact, it was his first time taking over! Before this, he had already made up his mind to walk this path to the end, but he didn’t expect that there would be room for him to turn things around.

This thing could make him money quickly. He didn’t expect that this little girl would open the door to a new world for him.

Damn it, a dog-eat-dog situation comes faster!

As for the flowery lady, he believed that since he had saved the son of the richest man, the richest man would naturally ensure his safety.

even if you don’t have any credit, you’ve worked hard. Then, then after you hand her over to the authorities, can you share some with me? ” With her left and right index fingers facing each other, little Huai Lu lowered her head and sneaked a glance at Scarface.

In fact, she could tell at first glance that Scarface was a newbie.

For many people, the first time they did evil, they were always wavering.

But the second time, he would not hesitate anymore.

The scar-faced man looked at her expressionlessly.

She actually wanted to split the money?

Was she here to f * cking sell flowers?

Scarface chuckled softly. He actually laughed out loud.

He didn't expect that the flower woman, who had dominated the outer city, would actually capsize in a ditch.

"I'll give you ten percent of the reward." As for a reward from the richest man, that was impossible. He still had countless brothers.

Little Huai Lu looked at the young man in fine clothes happily. "I heard the Magpie's cry early in the morning. So it's a windfall. Thank you, little brother.

The next time you're kidnapped, I'll still be with you. I will save you." Little Huai Lu looked at him as if she was looking at a treasure bowl..

Chapter 65: His name is yang fengfeng (1)

The youngster finally couldn't hold it in, and the calmness he pretended to be collapsed, and he burst into tears.

What kind of demon was this! She knew that the other party was a human trafficker, but she still followed him. Not only did he follow them to the Wolf's den, but he also sold the human traffickers!

That's fine, she wanted to come again next time!

Father, you're right, the women outside are scarier than wolves! "I thank you. I, I thank you for the rest of my life. I thank you, patriarch

I'll thank you even if you turn into ashes. I'll remember you! The young man was crying with snot and tears all over his face. He had finally managed to sneak out, but he had met so many demons.

Scarface waved his hand.

"Don't worry, I, burp ... I, burp, I will tell my father that you saved me from the flower woman." The teenager said as he cried.

He was still hiding behind Jiang huilu, even though Jiang huilu's short body couldn't block him.

The man nodded. He wasn't afraid that the kid would reveal this to the richest man.

The richest man was a businessman, so he naturally had the brain of a businessman.

If this kid's parents were in politics, then he could not trust them.

The mouth of a politician was the most untrustworthy.

“Lock them up and keep watch. You’re not allowed to leave the room even half a step.”

“Third brother, go take a walk on the street and check out the wind outside. If there’s any sign of trouble, report back immediately.” Scarface still had doubts about this matter, so he naturally would not believe the words of a young girl.

The young man and Jiang huailu were locked up.

Scarface was probably afraid that they would cry, so he sent in a lot of delicious desserts.

“My name is yang pinfeng, given by my father. What’s your name?” The teenager sobbed. His father had a son in his middle age and had Great Expectations of him.

Hence, he gave him an extremely arrogant name.

Little huailu turned to look at him with two pieces of Osmanthus cake in her hand. Her mouth was full of white crumbs.

“You also think that my name is very domineering, right? Everyone praises my name every time.” Young master yang said proudly.

“What’s your name?”

“I’m Jiang huailu.”

“Hahaha, you’re called Huai Lu. Are you pregnant with a plum deer?” Young master yang laughed so hard that he couldn’t close his mouth. All of a sudden, his fear was dispersed. He pointed at her and laughed with tears in his eyes.

Little Huai Lu was instantly unhappy.

“You’re having epilepsy and you still have the face to laugh! Crazy, crazy, crazy, just like you!” The little girl’s voice was childish as she pointed at him with a look of disdain.

“Didn’t your father tell you that there’s a disease called goat-crazy? When she falls ill, her whole body spasms and she even frosts at the mouth.”

Young master Yang’s laughter suddenly stopped.

Sheep? Sheep? Crazy!

She pouted and her tears were about to fall again.

“What’s your father’s name?” Little Huai Lu asked again, interrupting his tears. Pfft, I’m not coaxing you. I’m younger than you.

Yang pinfeng suddenly couldn’t cry anymore.

“My father’s name is yang Cong. My Grandpa wanted him to be smart, so he called him yang Cong. By the way, my father is the city Lord. What if people outside know that I’m not the son of the richest man? Are they going to kill

The young boy immediately came back to his senses and nervously pulled on Huai Lu’s clothes.

Who knew that by selling the flower woman, this little girl would give him enough sense of security!

Jiang huailu looked at him in surprise, knowing that his family was probably rich and powerful. But he didn’t expect to meet the biggest exiles in the barren capital.

The highest official.

“My father must be very anxious now. I’m afraid that in a while, the entire city will be looking for me.”

Jiang huailu touched his chin, “my mother probably is.”

After that, he looked at yang pinfeng and sighed.

In fact, when she first saw this kid, she felt that it was a pity that he was going to die.

Otherwise, she didn’t want her mother to worry and run away with the kidnappers..

Chapter 66: Blame (1)

Xia Shi had never experienced the feeling of being cold all over in an instant.

Even when the Jiang family had been sentenced to execution and the entire family had been imprisoned.

She only held her children with trembling hands and covered their eyes, never feeling flustered.

She could die with her child. With them, she would be at ease.

But when she couldn’t find Jiang huailu at the door with the snacks in her hand, at that moment, her whole body turned cold, and the chill went from the bottom of her feet to the top of her head.

A chill ran down her spine, causing her to shiver and have goosebumps all over.

“Lulu! My Lulu, my Lulu, who has seen my Lulu!”

Lulu, Lulu, come out quickly. Mother bought some snacks. Lulu! Xia Shi immediately felt dizzy and couldn’t stand.

There was a clang.

The snack fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

Xia Shi’s face was as pale as paper, without any blood. Her Lulu was lost. Her Lulu was lost. She had lost Lulu. She had lost her life!

In that instant, all the blood in his body froze.

Xia Shi's body was weak and limp on the street, and that string snapped on the spot. "Who saw my Lulu?" she shouted in panic. She was about three or four years old, had big eyes and double eyelids, and two buns on her head. There was even a Yellow Ribbon on her head. She was wearing a blue dress. Who has seen my Lulu!"

Xia Shi broke down and cried. She had gone crazy.

The maidservant who came out of the hall shook her head, ""How could you be so careless? The people in the outer city were mixed with snakes and snakes, and it was not safe. This child has to be kept under our eyes." After he finished speaking, he looked up.

The maidservant's pupils shrank and she rushed forward.

Only then did she realize that the clothes she had seen before were actually similar to the one her young master was wearing. And where was her young master?

The maidservant bit her lip hard, her body trembling, and her face as pale as paper.

"Shopkeeper, did you see the young man in luxurious clothes standing here just now? He's about seven or eight years old, and he has an arrogant expression on his face. He's a handsome young man." The servant girl's voice trembled. If the young master was lost, her life would be worse than death.

She had previously pitied the woman who had lost her child at the door, but now she only sympathized with herself!

The shopkeeper was busy collecting the money and didn't even raise his head.

He immediately said, ""There's no youngster here, there's no one here."

The maidservant's body swayed, and at this moment, she couldn't care about her snacks.

He staggered out of the door and ran madly towards the inner city.

Xia Shi's whole body felt like it had fallen into an ice cave. At least, she forced herself to get up. She didn't bring any of the fish she bought and rushed back with disheveled hair.

Mrs. Xia cried so hard that she was almost out of breath. She wasn't afraid of death, but she was afraid that Lulu would leave her.

How could she be so silly to ask Lulu to leave her? she should have held Lulu's hand tightly.

Clang, when the Xia family rushed in, they directly knocked it open.

"Why are you acting so crazy? where are the vegetables and meat you bought?" It was already evening, and the old lady was resting in the courtyard. She was shocked by the Xia family's sudden appearance.

"Mother, I lost Lulu." Mrs. Xia's face was pale as she looked at her in a daze, tears falling.

The men who had just returned home all came out.

Jiang Huai 'an's expression darkened. He immediately went forward to support his mother, who was on the verge of collapsing."Mother, don't be afraid. Lulu might have run away because he wanted to play. Tell me, where did she go? Don't be afraid!" Jiang Huai 'an held onto Madam Xia. He could feel her entire body trembling, and he couldn't help but frown.

Liu-Shi suddenly stood up.

"Just look at what you can do! I asked you to buy some vegetables, but you didn't bring them back. I asked you to look after a child, but the child was lost! What else can you do? It's my Jiang family's misfortune to have you as our wife!" Liu-Shi angrily cursed..

Chapter 67: Previous life (1)

"You can't even look after such an adult, what kind of mother are you! Yubai ah, look at The Good Wife you've married. Mother didn't think highly of her back then, and now it's obvious, right?" Liu-Shi stood behind Jiang yubai.

"How hard can it be to see a child? She lost her child when she was buying groceries. She's a mother, how can she be a mother?"

"Lulu, my poor Lulu. What kind of place was this desolate? If the child is lost, how can he still live!" Liu-Shi couldn't help but raise her hand to wipe her tears.

Jiang yubai's thick brows furrowed tightly. Seeing that Madam Xia was almost unable to stand steadily, and hearing his mother's reprimand, his eyes couldn't help but carry a bit of condemnation.

"You, you shouldn't have!" Jiang yubai suppressed his anger and looked at Madam Xia.

"Well said, if you can't do the family affairs, then let the mother do it. You're all asleep, but mother is still washing the dishes at night. You can't take care of the child and need the mother's help at night. Mother is so busy and she has to bring Lulu along. Who's going to help her?"

"If you do well, there's no praise, but if you don't do well, everyone will scold you! Lulu was born and raised by her mother, so she was the most anxious one! What right do you have to criticize me?"

"When you're taking care of the child, you're like dead. Now that the child is lost, you're all alive!" The teenager's voice was hoarse as he carried his mother in front of him, hiding her behind him.

He looked at his father with red eyes.

There was disappointment in his eyes.

“Now that Lulu is missing, don’t make it sound like Lulu is dead! Lulu is still alive!” Jiang Huai’an gritted his teeth and didn’t look at his grandparents at all. He only looked at his father.

Jiang yubai’s lips moved, and Madam Xia’s face was as white as paper. She could barely stand up with the help of her eldest son.

“What are you saying, child? As a grandmother, I still ...” Mrs Liu was about to say it, but seeing the old master’s gloomy eyes, she immediately shut her mouth.

“Let’s go find someone first. Go around and see if there are any other children who have gone missing. Let’s see if it’s a walking stick or a lost one.” The old man looked at his eldest grandson. Seeing that his eldest grandson’s brows had relaxed a little, he then looked at Mrs Liu.

“You have to come back soon. It’s getting dark outside. It’s the 14th of the seventh month now, strangers can’t come out.” Liu-Shi stammered, but no one in the first branch responded to her.

The men of the Jiang family came out to look for Jiang huailu, while the old lady stood at the door and gritted her teeth.

“This damned girl is here to collect a debt from my Jiang family! It was inauspicious when you were born, but unfortunately, your aunt and wife are soft-hearted. Perhaps if he had drowned back then, our Jiang family wouldn’t have had to face this disaster of exile.”

“The sky is about to turn dark, and you still need a family of men to go out and search! It really is!” The old lady leaned against the door and read out loud. Behind her, Jiang huaijin’s lips curled up slightly.

“Grandmother, don’t be anxious. Today, Gong Jie had seen the commander. The day after tomorrow, he would ask his father to look for him, thinking that he would get a good job. At night, the governor also asked our family to spend the night at his Manor. This time, there seems to be a lot of evil spirits gathered outside the city. The commander values Suan ni, so he gave us this opportunity.” Jiang huaijin had also considered whether or not he should save the city Lord’s son.

But when she thought of the city Lord’s ending, she gave up.

One had to know that in his previous life, a major incident happened in these two days.

On the 14th day of the seventh month, the salvation Hall was demolished outside the city.

That night, the evil spirits invaded. It was said that the evil spirits this time were more powerful than the previous years. It was almost a large-scale attack, attacking the huangdu city like crazy.

There were countless deaths and injuries in the barren capital.

The city Lord was torn to pieces by the evil.

Soon, the Deputy city Lord was promoted, and the commander became the Deputy city Lord..

Chapter 68: Give up (1)

She had originally taken a fancy to the Deputy city Lord, but unfortunately, that one had been taken by someone else.

She had never heard of him marrying a favored second wife in her previous life, but in this life, he had Ling 'er.

It was probably because of her invisible influence.

It was a little different in this life. The hall of salvation, which should have been demolished, was not demolished this time.

It was said that the Deputy city Lord liked the house very much and even now, he was not allowed to tear it down.

However, Jiang huaijin didn't care about these insignificant things.

Another difference was that even the Jiang family's first branch had not been destroyed.

However, after tonight, everything would return to its original track.

Jiang huaijin's eyes glowed as he looked at the night sky.

"Grandmother, let's pack up and go to the governor's Manor first. You have to thank him properly." Jiang huaijin helped the old Madam into the house. The old Madam was all smiles and looked at her with kind eyes.

"You ... You're such a lovely child. Grandmother's love for you and your mother is not in vain." Naturally, the old lady did not ask Jiang huaijin where he had gotten such a big deal from being a daughter of an unmarried family.

Although her granddaughter was only in her teens, her looks were much better than those of the lowlifes in Huangdu.

Lulu, Lulu, where are you? " Xia Shi's lips were so dry that they were peeling, but she didn't know.

"Mother, don't be anxious. Lulu was not a naughty child. You can wait at the pastry shop. If Lulu comes back, he'll be able to find you. Let's go around and ask around."

Jiang Huai 'an suppressed his panic and kept telling himself. His sister was the kitchen God. How could anything happen to the kitchen God?

Everything will be fine.

The summer family had long been out of their wits, and at this time, they were completely relying on their son.

With only a little bit of rationality left, he waited outside the pastry shop. The waiter in the shop waved his hand, “You can wait outside. It’s getting dark, so we’re going to close for the day.” After he finished speaking, he closed the door with a clang.

At this moment, the city gate of the inner city suddenly opened.

Jiang Huai ‘an asked around and found out that the children had been lost in the Huangdu city, but no one had ever found them. His heart sank.

It was only when brother Wang led a team to search house by house that they learned that the city Lord’s only son had also gone missing on the same day and in the same place that they suddenly heaved a sigh of relief.

No matter what, in this place, it was extremely unlikely to rely on one’s own strength.

“Brother Wang, I’m counting on you. When the child is found, I’ll personally go to your house to thank you.” Jiang Huaian bowed to brother Wang with red eyes like an adult.

Brother Wang was the one who had brought them into the city to settle down that day. He knew that there was a man in his family, but now it was a child who was in charge. She knew that her home was also full of chicken feathers.

But he liked Jiang Huai ‘an.

“Alright, little brother, just wait for the news. If there is a result, I will send someone to the courtyard to inform you.” After he finished speaking, he hurriedly went to search.

It was unknown where the Fang family had found out about this, but they also hurried over in the night.

Jiang Huai ‘an held back his tears and bowed to everyone.

The sky was getting darker.

The faint sound of crows and birds flapping could be heard in the sky, bringing with it a sense of fear.

In the dark night, there were terrifying things hidden everywhere.

A burst of howling and wailing came.

The long Street was completely silent, without a single person.

The candles in the entire city were extinguished, and there was no sound at all.

Even if there were children crying, their parents would cover their mouths and coax them with malt candies.

The night came, and the cold wind blew. Jiang Yuqing had been ordered by the old lady to go home and look for someone.

He stood on the empty street.

Madam Xia's heart was sorrowful. Looking at her husband who had helped each other, she seemed to want to say something but stopped.

Xia Shi's heart was dead..

Chapter 69: Heart dead (1)

Jiang Yuqing shrunk his neck, and his eyes were a little irritated.

During the day, he used the excuse of taking care of his son to not come out.

It was dark now, and demons and monsters were running around. He didn't want to go out.

"Mother told you to go home. If you can't find it, then look for it tomorrow."

"Today is a little abnormal. Everyone is hiding in their homes and does not dare to come out. Qianqian, this girl, has lived up to expectations. She has met the commander, and mother and the others have already moved there to take refuge."

"Brother, let's go back." Jiang Yuqing looked left and right cautiously, his expression fearful.

"We'll listen to yubai. If you say we'll go back, we'll go back," the old man said with a tired expression. The old man didn't say anything. Lulu was Jiang yubai's daughter, and as a grandfather, whatever he said was wrong.

Jiang yubai was silent and kept looking at the Xia clan.

"Brother, if you don't go back, father won't either. If father doesn't return, mother won't be able to stay. Our Jiang family can't fall into this mess because of Lulu. Let's take refuge first and look for her when the sun rises. Lulu doesn't want anything to happen to our family." Jiang Yuqing looked at his big brother.

"Our whole family is outside, what if something happens? Brother, you can't be so selfish." Jiang Yuqing frowned and looked at his big brother with a somewhat condemning gaze.

Jiang yubai pursed his lips, and his expression showed that he was struggling.

"Then why did father take the risk to save second Shen when she was kidnapped in the fog? Not only did he implicate the entire Jiang family, but he also implicated so many innocent people? Why didn't second uncle say to just let it go?" Jiang Huai 'an's expression was calm, but the hand holding his mother's hand was tense.

Jiang Yuqing's face froze, and then he flew into a rage out of humiliation. "You child, what are you saying! Your second aunt is pregnant with a boy, how can you compare?"

Jiang Huai 'an laughed in a low voice.

“Then why didn’t you save your wife and son? And now, what right do you have to make my father not save his own daughter? Is it your wife who has a bigger face? He’s a father, but he didn’t even save his daughter. Instead, he risked his life to save his sister-in-law. If this were to spread out, people would probably think that this Jiang huailin is some kind of child.” Jiang Huai ‘an was so angry that his head was spinning, and he immediately began to speak without thinking.

“Bastard! How can you say such nonsense!” Jiang Yuqing’s face turned pale.

Jiang yubai’s expression wasn’t too good either. No one would be able to stand being accused of having an affair with his younger brother’s wife.

“You guys are being unreasonable! To think that Qianqian even begged the commander to arrange a few positions for the Jiang family, running around for the Jiang family, and you all actually had such thoughts! Big brother, you’ve made me so sad.” Jiang Yuqing was so angry that he clenched his teeth and went forward to pull old master Jiang.

“Since we can’t get along, why don’t we split up? In any case, the Jiang family doesn’t have any family business to inherit now, and they’re all guilty anyway.” Jiang Huaian’s face was full of sarcasm.

Now that they had spoken to this extent, even if Jiang yubai wanted to leave, he couldn’t do so now.

“Father, you and Yuqing go back first. I can’t live without you, and I can’t leave the mother and son outside. I’ll go home after I find Lulu.” Jiang yubai took a look at his father. Seeing that his father’s sideburns were graying and that he was perspiring profusely, he couldn’t bear to see his father leave.

He didn’t know why, but at this moment, he had a little more resentment towards the lost Jiang huailu.

This child was too disobedient.

It was not until old master Jiang had gone back with Jiang Yuqing that Madam Xia raised her head and looked at Jiang yubai calmly. There was no longer any affection in his eyes.

That glance from Madam Xia made Jiang yubai’s heart empty, as if he had lost something.

He did not know that he had not only lost a wife.

He was the eldest son.

There was also his daughter, whose name shook the world and brought life to huangdu.

There would never be a place for him beside her..

Chapter 70: Return it to me (1)

The thick fog outside the barren capital seemed to have changed.

There seemed to be something terrifying hidden in the thick fog, and it was actually pushing the fog toward the gate of the barren capital.

The soldiers on duty outside the city gate changed their expressions. It was the 14th of the seventh month, and the evil was at its strongest at midnight. Even they had to avoid it.

“Go and report to the city Lord. Tell him that the fog is approaching the city gate.”

The soldiers immediately rushed back to report.

“I’m afraid tonight won’t be easy. Tell the city to strengthen its defenses and make sure not to go out.”

Everyone’s faces sank. They waited for a long time, but there was still no reply from the city Lord’s mansion. Seeing the thick fog approaching step by step, their hearts sank.

A series of shrill and ear-piercing wails came from the city gate. No one knew what had happened.

The people in the city closed their doors and windows and knelt on the ground, praying for the blessings of the gods.

The night was dark and evil was everywhere.

At this moment, Madam Xia was taken in by the kind old man. She hid under the window and looked at the fleeting figure on the street. She bit her lip hard.

She used to be in the capital, where the Emperor was in charge. She had never seen a night of ghosts like this.

Mrs. Zhu recognized this Madam. She was Mrs. Jiang, her neighbor.

Today, Madam Zhu had burned ingots and clothes for her daughter, and now she was coming to Ling ‘er’s house to get something. He was only trapped here because of the delay.

Old lady Zhu shook her head gently at Madam Xia and pointed to her mouth. At this moment, the yin Qi was at its peak, and she must not attract the attention of the evil.

In the distance, a commotion seemed to have broken out in one of the houses.

Not long after, the sound of the evil attacking could be heard, and the entire Street was filled with screams.

In just a moment, it returned to silence.

At this moment, Jiang huailu escaped with yang pingfeng when the yin Qi was at its peak.

“How did you know there was a path here?”

Yang pingfeng was panting behind Jiang huailu, but he didn’t complain when he saw the little girl’s calm face.

“It’s good that you’re smart. The Scarface man suspected me when he realized that the city was on high alert. They’re definitely going around to catch us.”

“By the way, where are you taking me now?” Yang pingfeng looked at the little figure in front of him with admiration.

“To the hall of world rescue.” Where else could he go if not the hall of world salvation?

Little Huai Lu’s face was bitter.

“But why isn’t there anyone in the city today? Dao BA didn’t even chase after us.” Yang pinfeng was a little suspicious. At this moment, walking on the quiet Long Street, it was dark everywhere.

The strange thing was that there was not even a bit of light tonight.

How could young master yang know about these things?

Little Huai Lu stopped in her tracks and said, ‘it’s probably because there are too many evil spirits out there that they don’t dare to come out. Otherwise, Dao BA would have chased after us long ago.’”

Yang pinfeng?

His legs went soft.

“The evil you’re talking about, are you referring to the evil spirit that can devour human essence?” Young master Yang’s voice trembled, and his legs trembled.

Little Huai Lu turned her head and hesitated for a moment. “It should be the same meaning.”

Yang pinfeng’s face turned pale and he shivered violently.

Finished, finished! He was on a pirate ship again.

He really wanted to go back, Wu Wu Wu Wu ... Why was his life so bitter?

“What are you doing with that fork in your hand?” Yang pinfeng sobbed as he held onto the corner of her clothes, not daring to leave her.

“Exorcising ghosts.” Little Huai Lu narrowed her eyes and pouted.

“You went to the hall of world salvation because you knew there were no evil spirits there?” Yang pinfeng lowered his voice..
