Chapter 621: The little girls in the class are crying (1)

Lulu looked at them in confusion.

“Don’t cry, don’t cry ... This is a bedtime story that my godmother told me. It’s just a bedtime story.”

Lulu wanted to comfort her, but the children cried even harder when they heard her voice.

The entire Class-A was like a purgatory.

The sound of crying shook the sky.

Occasionally, some students would pass by the beginner class and see her standing at the door in a daze. They would point a finger at her and say, “”Miss Lulu, did you make them cry again? You’re going to call your parents again, right?”

“I’m just ...” Lulu replied innocently. I told you a story.” I didn’t do anything.

Eunuch Lu had not even entered the palace before he was invited back.

“Father-in-law, I’ll have to trouble you to take the child back. There was no need to invite the parents for the time being, so why not ... Why don’t you change miss Lulu’s shift first? This child is extremely intelligent. The initiation class has completely delayed her performance.” The teacher wiped the sweat from his forehead. He couldn’t afford to invite a parent.

Eunuch Lu took a deep breath. The Crown Prince was a legend in the Imperial College.

Now, you’re also a legend.

“Let’s go back and tell her Highness that we can’t decide anything for her. Thank you for your trouble, teacher.” Eunuch Lu said in a kind tone. He was also a person with his eyes on top of his head when he was around the Crown Prince.

He didn’t expect that now that the baby was disobedient, he still had to come and smile.

The master wiped his sweat again and asked eunuch Lu to take her away.

“I’m letting you go back to the residence, but you want to go back and fight. I wonder who he’s going to fight.”

I’m letting you go back to the Academy. The whole class is crying because of you.

“His Highness can’t possibly bring you to court in the future, right?” Eunuch Lu’s face was filled with helplessness. This was truly a disaster.

Thinking of His Highness's war of words in front of the palace, the remonstrant was so angry that he wanted to commit suicide by hitting a pillar. With a drooling baby sitting on his knees, eunuch Lu's head was about to explode.

Eunuch Lu thought for a moment. His Highness was about to end the court session

He could only temporarily bring the child into the palace and send him away from the earth Palace.

"This servant will first send you to the kun Yi Palace to accompany the Empress, don't cause any trouble. Be good and wait for His Highness to pick you up after he's done with his work." Eunuch Lu had no choice but to drive the carriage to the kun Yi Palace.

By the time Lulu got off the carriage, the nanny had already received the news and was waiting outside the palace of kunyi.

The wet nurse had a warm smile on her face. She had followed Lulu for some time in the past and knew that His Highness indulged her, so she naturally did not dare to be the least bit slow.

"You must be tired from the journey, right? The Empress has already asked this several times. Hurry up and come down." The nanny paid her respects and helped Lulu down.

"Eunuch Lu, don't you want to come in and have a seat?"

"This family will not sit. His Highness is about to end the court session, so this family will stay in front to serve. Regarding young lady Lulu's matter, I will ask Momo and niangniang to bear with it. "

When the wet nurse saw eunuch Lu's depressed look, she was a little surprised. Lulu stood in front of the granny obediently. "I want Jiang Jiang to pick me up Eunuch Lu had no choice but to compromise. yes, yes, yes. I'll definitely come and pick you up, little ancestor. Please don't cause any trouble."

He only returned to the front hall after being reminded repeatedly.

The wet nurse found it funny. A five-year-old child had actually forced eunuch Lu to sigh. How capable was he?

A year ago, His Highness was a decisive master, but now, he was completely under her control.

"Where's the Empress?" Lulu asked, looking up.

"Your ladyship has been busy preparing for Princess Jinghong's wedding. It was the princess's wedding, and the late Emperor had passed away early. I can only leave it to you, Your Majesty." The nanny replied softly..

Chapter 622: The Empress also set her son up (1)

Princess Jinghong's background could not be revealed, and outsiders did not dare to mention it.

The Emperor and Empress were not willing to get close to her and had always regarded her as a disgrace to the royal family.

But in the end, she was still a Princess, and even if she couldn't see the light of day, she still had to get married.

Now, the Empress naturally had to manage it, and she had to do it on a grand scale so that it would not be criticized by outsiders.

“She will be of marriageable age next year, and this year, the Empress will prepare a dowry for her. The princess's wedding is different from others, not to mention that it's a marriage Alliance between two countries. Naturally, it's a little troublesome.” The nanny liked Lulu, so she told him more.

Lulu was led into the hall by the granny.

She was exempted from kneeling, so she naturally did not kneel.

Seeing her swagger towards the Empress, Lu Jinghong's eyes flickered and his lips curled up.

A few months ago, she was still dressed a little shabbily, but now she was dressed luxuriously.

That's right, they had to show off their engagement.

“This is really a little piglet, it's even heavier.” The Empress was happy to see her, but she did not dare to hold her. She didn't dare to say it the last time he had hurt her waist when he hugged her.

He was afraid that the Crown Prince would not send her over.

He had distanced himself from her.

“It's good to eat and drink. He's not rich, nor does he live a good life.” The Empress said with a smile.

Lu Jinghong lowered his head to look at her slender waist that she had starved herself to death, and the smile on his face faded.

“Imperial sister-in-law, Jinghong is far away to marry fusang. I'm afraid that it will be difficult to meet again in this lifetime.”

“How much is the emperor's love worth? I'm sure sister-in-law knows better than Jinghong. I'm afraid that after this farewell, Jinghong will be in a life and death situation.” Lu Jinghong had grown a lot overnight, and there was a girlish gloominess in his eyes.

The Empress held Lulu in her arms and sighed.

“I missed home, so I sent a letter. Bengong and his Majesty will support you at any time. Although you’re not our child, we’ve watched you grow up. How can we watch you get bullied? It’s been hard on you, child.”

The two sisters-in-law silently shed tears.

Lulu looked at this and that.

Lu Jinghong’s eyes twitched. He couldn’t say those heart-wrenching words anymore.

She pinched the corner of her clothes and hated Jiang huailu even more.

She could only force a smile and said, “Imperial sister-in-law still has a guest today. I will take my leave first.” I have troubled Imperial Sao.”

After that, he exchanged a few words with the Empress before leaving the palace of earth and rites.

The moment she left, the Empress immediately wiped her tears.

“Lulu, bengong’s little cutie. Why did you suddenly think that kun Yi Palace is looking at me? You’re really bengong’s Lucky Star. The last time you came, noble consort Lin gave birth to a daughter. Today, she was forced to leave again.”

“This morning, Princess Jinghong came to the Empress and cried, complaining about how much she’d suffered without a father or mother all these years.” She forced the Empress to have no choice.”

“It’s nothing more than the friction between Fu sang and great Zhou. She wanted the Crown Prince to give her some allowance in political affairs. So that we can give her a great face as a dowry.”

“What a big face. The harem does not meddle in politics and even if bengong meddled in politics, bengong would not make things difficult for my son.” The Empress was so angry that she rolled her eyes.

She was not married yet, but she was already thinking about her husband’s family.

oh my, my Lulu, you can’t side with outsiders in the future. A man’s heart is like a needle in a haystack. You can’t rely on him.

“Men, one moment you can still say sweet words, the next moment you can make an oath with someone. A man’s words count, but even an old sow can climb a tree. You can’t trust him.”

“How about this, in order to prevent you from being deceived in the future, this Prince will take you in as an adopted daughter. In the future, you and the Crown Prince will be the real blood relatives, and your chest will be gone?” The Empress’s eyes brightened as she thought about this. This was a good thing!

She was the Crown Prince’s soul, so what if she was raised in the eastern Palace? wasn’t it better to be his legitimate sister?

The Crown Prince, who was far away in the front hall, suddenly sneezed.

His hair stood on end! He felt a chill

Chapter 623: Where is my daughter-in-law?(1)

“Lulu, will you be my adopted daughter?” she asked.

“How good is it to be a little princess. Bengong just happens to have no daughter, so raising a daughter by my side can help solve problems.” The Empress also wanted to get closer to her and the Crown Prince.

Lulu waved his hand dismissively.

“I can’t, I can’t, Lulu has too many mothers. Lulu’s mother will be angry.” Lulu had a godmother and her birth mother in the human world, the Xia family. However, her real mother had never enjoyed her calling her mother.

If she acknowledged her mother again, her mother would not be happy.

The Empress thought for a moment and thought it was the Xia family.

Thinking about it this way, it made sense. Lulu was just a child. How could he make decisions? He temporarily gave up on this thought.

“Alright, alright, I’ll do as you say. Lulu, this Prince has to thank you for your golden mouth. Noble consort Lin hasn’t been smug in front of this Prince for a long time.” The Empress held Lulu in her arms, as if she owned the world.

This was a real treasure.

No wonder the Crown Prince doted on her so much.

“You, ah, ever since you’re here, the Crown Prince’s body has recovered. Recently, the Crown Prince seemed to have killed very few people, and the officials who impeached him had decreased. You really are the Crown Prince’s little Lucky Star, little Lucky Star.” The Empress hooked her little nose.

Such a good child, but she couldn’t be recognized as a daughter. It was really a pity.

Lulu wrapped his arms around the Empress’s neck, his expression rather intimate.

She could feel the closeness and distance between her and others.

“Of course I’m your little Lucky Star. I can’t be your daughter, but I can be half your daughter.” The little girl counted on her fingers. If she was a daughter, her mother would be angry.

“How can a daughter be half a daughter?” the Empress laughed.

“Bengong would like to ask you some questions. Can you tell Crown Prince Gege if you are willing to hide it for the Empress and yunyi?” The Empress’s eyes flickered as she lowered her voice and said carefully.

“Ask away!” Lulu smacked his chest. “Why does Lulu know about the Empress and aunty?” Lulu knows everything about Jiang Jiang.” The little girl patted her chest.

The Empress coughed lightly.

When a son grew up, he couldn’t be controlled by his mother. During the new year, she wanted to take in two maids for the Crown Prince, but now the Crown Prince was getting older.

The Imperial court ordered the wives to frequently enter the palace to inquire about the Crown Prince’s marriage. How could she not be anxious?

“Do you know if the Crown Prince is familiar with any young ladies? Do you usually talk a lot?” The Empress looked on with eager eyes.

Which one could be her daughter-in-law?

Lulu rubbed his chin and thought, ‘does miss Ming count? Sister Ming su. He might have said the most.’”

The Empress’s eyes brightened. Was it the Ming girl who had entered the palace to pay her respects some time ago?

Legend had it that the Ming family only produced empresses. If they had not faded out of the public eye these years, the Ming family would probably still be a top noble.

“What did the Crown Prince say?

Jiang Jiang said that she was lusting after his body. She said that she was cheap and ugly. She told her to get lost. Lulu grabbed the snack and bit into it, making crunching sounds.

The Empress ...

“Your Highness, are there any other girls you are familiar with?”

“A familiar girl? There’s no one else in the East Palace other than the cat and Lulu.”

Other than Lulu, there was no one else.

Not to mention the palace servants. Other than taking care of Lulu, they couldn’t even get within three meters of the Crown Prince.

The Empress’s expression was dim, “my daughter-in-law, where is she?” He had heard that the Crown Prince often collected female accessories ... If it’s not to please someone, what else can it be?” The great prince was getting more and more cheerful, and the Emperor was getting more and more dissatisfied with the Crown Prince.. What was he going to do in the future?

Chapter 624: His little devil is right in front of him (1)

The Empress was very worried about the Crown Prince's marriage.

The Crown Prince had become famous at a young age. Everyone in the world and the courtiers had their eyes on him. The Emperor was now afraid of him. The pressure on the crown Prince could be imagined.

The eldest Prince was now married to Lord Zheng's daughter and had a marriage alliance with Princess Dongli.

No matter how sincere Princess Dongli was towards him, they were still in the same boat. How could the Empress not be anxious?

But the Crown Prince had never been someone she could control.

He had his own ideas since he was young, and the Empress could only secretly inquire about it so that she could have a plan in her heart.

The Empress's heart chilled when she heard Lulu say that there was not a single woman in the eastern Palace.

"How is that possible?" The Empress muttered softly.

She looked at the nanny, who nodded affirmatively.

"This servant heard that the eastern Palace spent a lot of money to buy a lot of jewelry and a lot of clothing materials. Those are not for men. Only a young girl in her teens can use it.

"This servant also heard that Your Highness used to light up the lamps to deal with political affairs. Now, he's even writing love letters to little girls."

"Every day in the study, after the political matters are settled, I have to write a love poem to make that young lady happy. This servant heard it very clearly, and your Highness often sighed as you wrote. You really are a tormenting little ancestor."

you're even calling her 'little ancestor'. Other than the person you like, who else would dare to be His Highness' little ancestor?"

"No one has ever seen what was written here, and your Highness has kept it a secret. It was only because the palace servants were curious that they said a few words."

"Also, I heard that His Highness even embroidered a handkerchief for that girl. A few Palace servants saw His Highness embroidering under the candlelight. My God, think about it, if you don't have someone you like, how can you do such a

The Empress's face was filled with shock. How could this be something that her son could do?

She had been shocked the last time she heard that he had given Lulu an embroidered school bag, but there was something even more bizarre.

“Lulu, did the things that the granny mentioned happen?” The Empress looked at her with a burning gaze.

“It did happen,” Lulu replied. But ...” But if he were to do Lulu’s homework in the middle of the night, wouldn’t his cover be blown if others found out? Jiang Jiang said that she was saving the clothes and accessories for Lulu.

Embroidery of handkerchiefs was nothing new to Lulu.

Jiang Jiang had personally embroidered her handkerchief, school bag, and other personal belongings.

“Yes, that’s right!” The Empress only heard half of it before she interrupted her and happily rubbed Lulu’s face. That son of hers was finally enlightened. Good, good!

“When you go back, bring bengong’s Red coral back. It is a reward from the Empress. Bring back some Imperial food and if you want to eat anything, come to the palace to find yiniu.” The Empress was not stingy with her kindness.

She had entrusted her entire life’s glory and disgrace to the Crown Prince, and Lulu was the person who could keep the Crown Prince from falling unconscious.

Just this alone was enough for her to worship Lulu.

“Lulu won’t be polite with you.” Lulu grinned. She wouldn’t hold back on what she wanted to eat.

She did not care about red coral. The Crown Prince had already spoiled her taste.

The key to the warehouse was always around her neck, and it had never been missing.

“Come, come, come. Tell the Empress and aunty, will you get pregnant again in the West?” The Empress asked carefully as she pulled on Lulu.

Noble consort Lin had given birth to a Princess, and the doors of the palace were tightly shut. It had been a long time since she had found trouble with her.

A few days ago, not long after her confinement period, she had used the name of the little princess to invite His Majesty several times.

The Empress didn’t intend to fight for favor, but the Emperor was supposed to come to the kun Yi Palace on the 15th of every month, so he had let go.

It was a slap to her face..

Chapter 625: Her Book of Life and death (1)

Lulu immediately shook his head.”I can’t give birth, I can’t. How can I kill someone else’s child?” The little girl spoke without restraint and casually said what she had seen in the book of life and death some time ago.

The Empress suddenly covered her mouth.

The nanny was so shocked that she jumped. She looked left and right, then cautiously went up and closed the door herself. Then, he stood guard outside the door.

The Empress's eyelids twitched.

"What dead person? Who was the dead? Lulu, do you know what you're saying?" The Empress lowered her voice, and her throat trembled.

The hand that was holding Lulu trembled slightly. It was hard to tell if it was from fear or something else.

"Aunty Empress, you're hurting Lulu," Lulu said, frowning. The little girl pouted, and the Empress immediately loosened her grip.

He looked at her apologetically. the Empress was too anxious. She scratched

Lulu and hurt him. Is Lulu alright? "

The Empress hurriedly looked at her wrist and found a circle of red marks. Her heart palpitated and she felt guilty.

"It doesn't hurt," Lulu said, waving his hand.

"Lulu, tell aunty secretly, but aunty can't tell anyone else. That person is the one with the nine-clawed Golden Dragon. He's going to die soon ..."

"Of course he won't have any more children if he dies."

The Empress's eyes and lips trembled as she looked at Lulu, unable to speak for a long time.

Nine-clawed Golden Dragon .

Your Majesty.

"His Majesty is not even forty ..." Even if he wasn't favored at a young age and suffered from some hardships, his body was a little sickly, but it wasn't to the extent of dying early.

The Empress suddenly stood up and began to pace back and forth in front of the hall.

Her hands were clenched tightly, and it was obvious that she was not calm.

"Lulu, will what you said come true? Al, bengong is also desperate, Lulu is still a child. What do you know?" The Empress sighed, but she remembered that Lulu had said that the Imperial consort could have a daughter if she wanted to. She also remembered that she was highly regarded by master yixu, who said that her fate was strange and that she was an extraordinary person.

The Empress couldn't help but believe it.

It was a legend that children could see things that ordinary people couldn't.

Of course, Lulu wouldn't say that her Book of Life and death included everyone in the world. If they had to die, they had to die. There would be no delay.

The book of life and death was a legendary item among the people. If it really appeared, it would probably cause a sensation.

“What will happen to him?” The Empress’s lips were pale and bloodless.

“You will die on a horse. He can’t ride a horse.” Lulu nodded with certainty. It was written in the book of life and death that he would die on a horse.

The Empress couldn’t help but frown. The emperor’s health wasn’t good, and he hadn’t ridden a horse for many years.

Why would he think of riding a horse recently?

The Crown Prince was still too young. His Highness still had to grow up for a few more years so that he could at least gain a firm foothold.

The Emperor must not die.

After that, the Empress lost all interest and was so shocked that her face turned pale. The wet nurse didn’t dare to be careless and quickly called the Imperial physician over to wait. She then brought Lulu to the Imperial kitchen to get a lot of food and had people carry back the red coral that the Empress had given her.

“I’ll give the red coral to the Xia family for now. When young master Jiang builds his mansion after high school, he’ll move back to our house.” The nanny had an exquisite heart. The Xia family’s daughter, who had been married out for more than ten years, had returned to her maternal home to live.

Even the relatives who didn’t care about it couldn’t help but look down on him.

If he had something bestowed by the Empress, and a daughter who was favored by the Empress and the Crown Prince. The Xia family had to think highly of her and didn’t dare to treat her as a relative in dire straits.

She had seen Jiang Huai ‘an at the banquet in the Empress’s Palace. He was a good seedling.

The Jiang family wasn’t considered to have declined..

Chapter 626: Go to sleep in the Royal study (1)

It was almost noon when Lu huaijiang rushed over.

The weather in April was already a little hot. From the throne room to the palace of earth, it would take an hour even in a palanquin.

Calculating the time, he probably had not rested for a moment since the end of the court and had come directly to the harem.

When the Empress saw him rushing over, her clothes were slightly messy and the tip of her nose was covered in sweat.

The Crown Prince, who used to dress up neatly, exuded coldness and hostility everywhere. But now, things were different.

“Why are you in such a hurry? Lulu wouldn’t be wronged by his mother. Momo, quickly bring some green bean soup to His Highness to quench his thirst.”

“Really, eunuch Lu, if you were thinking of Lulu, you could have just come and let Momo send it over. There’s no need to trouble you to come.” The Empress saw that he was sweating profusely and felt a bit of heartache.

The Crown Prince took a hot towel from the palace servant and drank a mouthful of green bean soup.

“These few days will be the Qingming Festival. There will be a Qingming Festival outside the palace and an ancestor worship ceremony inside the palace. It’s a busy time, and if you really can’t take it, just leave Lulu in the palace for a few days, and you can rest.”

The Crown Prince paused for a moment and then shook his head. “It’s no problem, this son is very busy. If he was really too busy, he would send Lulu over. At that time, I’ll have to trouble mother. Where’s Lulu? Did you disturb Imperial mother today?”

The Empress couldn’t help but shake her head. she’s a well-mannered child. She won’t cause trouble.

The Crown Prince immediately shook his head. that’s true. If she’s causing trouble, it must be someone else who provoked her.

Eunuch Lu rolled his eyes behind him. Today, the entire beginner class was so angry that they cried. Who was the one causing trouble?

His Highness was being selective.

The Empress couldn’t help but laugh when she heard this.

This was the first time she realized that Lulu might have an immeasurable place in the Crown Prince’s heart.

Perhaps, it wasn’t just because of soul suppression.

Outsiders all said that he had no choice but to bring a five-year-old child with him to save his life. However, at this moment, the Empress had some doubts. It seemed that the Crown Prince was willing to do so.

No, even his eyes were filled with joy.

For a moment, the Empress even suspected that the soul suppression was just an excuse to keep Lulu by her side.

However, he immediately dispelled that thought.

How old had Lulu been when the Crown Prince had first met him? He was only four years old last year.

What was he plotting against her when he was four? He was a little child with short limbs. Moreover, the Crown Prince had sent the entire Jiang family to Huangdu at that time. Lulu probably didn't have a good impression of the Crown Prince, and probably hated him even more.

If it wasn't for soul suppression, the Jiang family wouldn't have sent their child to the eastern Palace.

Even if Lu Huaijiang was her son, she had to admit that outsiders' "fear of the Crown Prince" had long reached a bone-deep level.

"Now that she's tired from playing, Yi'an might as well attend to her own matters first. When she wakes up, Bengong will send someone to send her back." The Empress saw that he had lost some weight and couldn't help but feel a little heartache.

The Emperor was forced to give him power back then, and now he regretted it.

The Crown Prince was under a lot of pressure.

"Forget it, Bengong will carry her back. She will go to the Imperial study to sleep. Bengong will bring her back with me after summoning the officials." Lu Huaijiang entered the inner hall after he finished speaking.

The Empress was stunned.

Sleeping in the Royal study was a favor that even the previous princes did not have.

This child was really standing at the top of the Crown Prince's heart.

He watched his thin son carry the fat boy out.

"This servant remembers that when the young Princess fell into the water, His Highness the Crown Prince was on the shore. His Highness said that his physical strength was not good enough and he did not dare to go down to save people..." The nanny mumbled.

The Empress said faintly, "How can it be the same? He can't carry an outsider even if he's as thin as a bamboo pole." Even if the one in his arms is as strong as a calf, he still feels that he's eating too little.

This was the difference.

It turned out that her son was also a double standard..

Chapter 627: Lower your voices for Bengong (1)

When the Crown Prince arrived at the Imperial study, the courtiers were already waiting.

His Highness had never been late or left early since he was the Regent.

Only this year, there were two.

The first time, he was called to his parents by the Directorate, and in the end, he brought back a little girl who caused trouble. The little girl's face was full of innocence, but she was also very stubborn.

This time, he carried a little girl to the Imperial study to sleep under the sun.

The little girl's cheeks were red from her sleep. She was fast asleep, her eyelashes like small fans.

It was still that little girl.

Lord Xia's cheeks hurt and his teeth hurt.

The old lady in the residence was still worried that Lulu would suffer in the eastern Palace, but forget it, she was already sleeping in the Imperial study.

The next time, he would probably have to go to the throne room. Thinking of His Highness's indulgence towards her now, she was afraid that it was really possible.

In the Xia family, it would be a grievance for her.

His Highness was not raising a soul protector. He was raising a Princess. No, even a Princess was not as pampered as him.

Xia Daren had not even looked a few times when suddenly, the Crown Prince looked towards him and gave him a cold look.

Lord Xia quickly lowered his head.

"Your Highness is really. I'm an old man in my sixties and my granddaughter is older than her. What's there to be ashamed of when I look at her? You actually glared at me ..."
An old official muttered.

It seemed that Lord Xia was not the only one who had been glared at.

Lord Xia tugged at the corner of his clothes and advised, "'Forget it. I'm her uncle. Didn't I also get glared at?"

"You still have face? look at how your own girl has been raised? Even when sleeping, you have to carry him to the Imperial study. Even the previous emperors did not have such treatment." The adults glared at Lord Xia.

However, she understood that this girl was the Crown Prince's soul protector. The Crown Prince's soul was unstable and could not leave her, so she could only scold her verbally.

If anyone dared to touch that girl, the Crown Prince would treat them as people who wanted to murder the Crown Prince. That was enough.

"Alright, all of you lower your voices for bengong!" The Crown Prince lowered his voice, and the officials' faces drooped. They were here to quarrel You told us to keep our voices down?

Then, eunuch Lu saw the most hilarious scene he had ever seen.

A group of courtiers pulled at their throats to argue with His Highness. Every time they argued until they were extremely excited, His Highness would raise his finger ...

Under the despairing gazes of the ministers, he said softly, “Shh ...”

He pointed to the little figure sleeping peacefully under the gauze curtain behind him.

A moment ago, they were still quarreling with red faces and thick necks, but the next moment, it was as if their throats were stuck ...

‘Damn it, damn it!’

Didn’t you say that Your Highness was devoted to politics?

He was clearly focused on taking care of the baby!

Dealing with political affairs was just something that the child did when he was sleeping!

Eunuch Lu was so happy that his shoulders twitched when he saw their doubtful expressions. What are you all doing? His Highness is reviewing memorials for you all like he’s carrying a child.

Even the first Prince’s Imperial edict was the cloth she used to wipe away the oil.

His Highness had pampered this child with all his might.

“Your Highness, the ministers have no objection to the marriage between fusang and the great Zhou. However, it’s impossible for them to take advantage of the great Zhou under the pretense of marriage!”

“We won against Dongli last year, but it was just to intimidate fusang.”

“This time, they even brought the family deity with them and spread rumors outside. It was said that some time ago, an evil spirit appeared in the great Zhou Dynasty. It must be that the great Zhou Dynasty had attracted some filth. Now, they even tried to interfere in the worship of the great Zhou imperial family.. Where did they get the face to do that?”

Chapter 628: I’m in _1

“We’re already giving them face by forming a marriage alliance with the great Zhou!”

“Your Highness, we can’t let them interfere! Where is the great Zhou’s face?” The ministers were all sincere.

The officials on the other side were led by the first Prince.

However, the first Prince was not present today.

“Your Highness, the marriage between Fu sang and our country must have the intention of befriending. The family deity was the greatest support of their fusang. To be able to bring the family deity here, it must be with sincerity. Why don’t we give them a chance? it’s just a sacrifice.” There was a smile on Lord Zheng’s face.

Grand tutor Xie faced Sir Zheng from a distance.

Back then, the Xie and Zheng families were strong enemies. All the students in the world were either students of the Xie family or the Zheng residence. Later on, the Zheng clan was exiled and the Xie clan rose to power.

He had officially become the head of the humble class.

However, the Xie family was not as obsessed with reputation as the Zheng family. Instead, they had been guiding the humble class all these years and gradually allowed the humble class to have a place. Although the Xie family was the head of the humble class, they rarely took pride in it.

Now that the Zheng family had returned, the eldest daughter was betrothed to the first Prince. He was already standing on the opposite side of the Crown Prince and Grand tutor Xie.

Lu huaijiang's eyelids lifted, his expression somewhat lazy.

The moment she raised her head, she sat up straight.

He waved his hand and put on a serious expression. "Since Your Majesty has already opened your mouth to let them come into contact, bengong will not say anything more. If anything goes wrong during the worship, it will have nothing to do with bengong."

She raised her hand to her lips and said, "it has nothing to do with me whether something happens during the worship." But you can't escape responsibility for waking up bengong's little ancestor." Lu huaijiang looked coldly at Lord Zheng and his group.

Lord Zheng slightly lowered his head, his fists tightening.

"Yes, this lowly subject will take his leave."

The first Prince's henchmen left the Royal study.

Grand tutor Xie and the others sighed helplessly, ""Your Highness, fusang came in and actively paid attention to the matter of the great Zhou provoking an evil. I'm afraid it's not simple. If they participate in the worship, I'm afraid they will pour this dirty water on ..." Grand tutor Xie did not finish.

The Crown Prince was now a thorn in their eyes, and they were afraid that this time, they would be targeting the Crown Prince.

"Bengong has never been afraid! Not afraid of the heavens, not afraid of the earth, just use all your dirty tricks. Some people will only stop when they're firmly pressed under their feet." The Crown Prince snorted in a low voice, his brows containing some unconcealable hostility.

"Family deity, bengong will let them understand what it means to be a stray dog!"

"If gods block, I'll kill gods! If Buddha blocks, I'll kill Buddha!"

"Fusang ... It can't be that they'll only stop after the country is destroyed, right?" The Crown Prince chuckled, unable to hide the killing intent in his eyes. That group of fools had been jumping around for far too long.

He did not want to reveal his dark side in front of Lulu, but if the latter were to press on and try to make him look like a pushover ...

That would be a big mistake!

In an instant, the Imperial study was filled with an awe-inspiring and cold air.

It was as if it had suddenly exploded, causing everyone to tremble from the depths of their bones.

Like a venomous snake, it wrapped around everyone's bones and blood, rising from the soles of their feet to the top of their heads.

At this moment, His Highness made them feel fear again.

His eyes were filled with suppressed killing intent and his arrogance of looking down on the world was not concealed at all.

The corners of His Highness' lips curled into a bloodthirsty smile, and the vicious air that lingered on his brow made Grand tutor Xie secretly apprehensive.

"Jiang Jiang ..." Behind the light veil, the round body turned over, making a thump sound.

He subconsciously muttered.

Lu huaijiang's brows relaxed, and his stern air faded like the tide. "I'm here," The young man suddenly stood up. His voice was low and a little hoarse.

His dark and turbulent eyes instantly regained clarity, and he stepped towards her..

Chapter 629: My family's five-year-old disaster (1)

Lulu was probably having a nightmare, for he was only covered in a thin blanket, and his face was covered in sweat.

Lu huaijiang's heart ached when he saw this.

Eunuch Lu hurriedly called for the palace servants to bring a hot water handkerchief. He had just wrung the towel and had not touched it yet.

His Highness, who was sitting by the bed, took it.

"Your Highness, we're still waiting in front of the palace. The big things are more important ..." Eunuch Lu lowered his voice and looked outside the curtain at the courtiers who were anxiously waiting for him.

Just as they were quarreling, he suddenly came back to take care of the child ...

Lu huaijiang's brows furrowed tightly, but then relaxed again.

"Yes, the big things are more important." The Crown Prince sighed softly. Eunuch Lu heaved a sigh of relief. It's good that Your Highness knows what's important.

“Since that’s the case, let them go back first and we’ll discuss it another day.” Lulu’s matter, no matter big or small, was a big one.

Eunuch Lu almost died on the spot.

Wait a minute, your matters seem to be different from mine?

However, when he saw His Highness’s expression just now, and then looked at the sweat that was carefully wiping off the little girl’s brows at this moment, he couldn’t help but sigh. He couldn’t help but give up.

Half a year ago, His Highness had placed state affairs above all else.

Half a year later, Lulu would be focusing on national affairs.

Eunuch Lu lifted the curtain, and all the officials looked at him with burning eyes.”Ahem.” Eunuch Lu coughed and said, “”His Highness suddenly feels unwell and needs to rest for half a day. All the ministers can go back for the time being. We’ll discuss it tomorrow.”

The ministers looked at him expressionlessly, and ...

Behind him was the Crown Prince, who was holding the child and walking back and forth behind the curtain.

Eunuch Lu straightened his back. Regardless of whether it was true or not, he had already given everyone a way out.

The officials bowed in silence and then left the Imperial study.

He walked out of the Imperial study and bathed in the sunlight.

Grand tutor Xie turned to look at Lord Xia, who was hiding in the corner.”Lord

Xia, how can you sweep the world if you don’t sweep one house? Clean up the rear residence as soon as possible and wait for the little girl to move back to the Xia family.”

“Although she is Your Highness” soul protector, the Xia family is not far from the eastern Palace. After staying in the eastern Palace for a long time, the little girl has left her mother and is homesick.”

After Grand tutor Xie finished speaking, he left.

Sigh, the most outstanding student in his life was the Crown Prince.

The outstanding and outstanding Crown Prince was now busy with a baby all day long. What did he look like?

In the past, the eastern Palace was a straight line between two points.

Now, he had to take care of his children in the eastern Palace, in the Imperial study, and even after the court session. From time to time, they had to fight and send gifts to the various manors as an apology, and they also had to go to the Imperial College to invite their parents.

And now?

He was the Crown Prince, and his hands were used to read Imperial memorials and write Imperial edicts.

She had to go back in the middle of the night to do her child's homework! At first, Grand tutor Xie did not know, but the master had been talking all day about how there could be such a strong-willed child, that handwriting, that understanding was simply too clear. The moment he took it, he knew that it was his Highness's handwriting!

He was the student that he and Pavilion elder Jiang had taught together, but His Highness's handwriting was so proud that he could recognize it at a glance.

That look from Grand tutor Xie made Lord Xia's heart tremble.

Grand tutor Xie wanted to hammer him to death, as if his family had produced a demoness that could bring calamity to the country.

Lord Xia wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. He had not yet let go of this breath and had just followed the officials out of the palace gate.

Before they could even board the carriage, Lord Li, Lord Wang, Lord Liu, Lord Zhang, and the others had arrived.

As soon as Lord Xia looked up, he was surrounded by the ministers.

Such a high light .

He had never encountered such a terrifying moment in his more than ten years as an official. Could it be that the ministers knew that his father was going to retire and return to his hometown, so they came to make things difficult for him?

Lord Xia's forehead throbbed.

[ PS: chuanchuan, can you please kneel and beg for monthly votes? ] Hehe, I'm begging you, begging you ....

Chapter 630: You can 't take this child! 1

Lord Xia's heart was pounding.

His father would only retire and return to his hometown in a few days. If he had to beat someone up, it should be his father.

Lord Xia turned around with a tense face. "My Lords, may I know why you are looking for this official?" It was such a coincidence that everyone in this group had a higher position than him.

Lord Xia couldn't help but smile.

"Lord Xia, let's talk about your niece. Your girl made my child cry again. It's only been a month or so since you started school, right? She had already cried two or three times. This time, she is even making a fuss about moving out of the residence."

Lord Li was extremely angry, and he grabbed Lord Xia, not letting him go.

"And my ... He made the mistress want to kill him, what is he saying?"

“What are you doing? my family said that the mistress was too good to her and wanted to flatter her to death. My Madam’s eyes are swollen from crying. It’s not good for a concubine’s daughter, and she said that she’s harsh on the child. He was too good to the child, but he said that he was overpraising her. In the past, their relationship was quite good, but today when they returned, they were all crying.”

“Lord Xia, don’t run! You have to give us an explanation. When are you going to bring your niece home? The Xia family has to give us an explanation.”

“That’s right, we can’t go to the eastern Palace to ask for an explanation, right?

It would be strange if His Highness didn’t cut us into eight pieces!”

“To be honest, you put her in the eastern Palace. Did you send her to the eastern Palace because you knew she was causing trouble and was afraid of taking responsibility?”

“Lord Xia, you have to give us an explanation.”

“Some time ago, I heard that Lord Lin’s grandson was beaten up by her, and the only heir of Duke zhengguo was beaten to the point that he lay in bed for several days. His Highness is still protecting us, so we can only come to you. Hey, don’t run, Lord Xia.”

The ministers wanted to reach out to pull him, but Lord Xia rolled and crawled, his clothes torn and he hurriedly rolled onto the carriage.

The coachman immediately drove the horse away.

Lord Xia only stumbled out of the carriage when he reached the gates of the Xia family mansion.

The servant who welcomed them was shocked.

Lord Xia’s clothes were in a mess, and his hair was all over the place. A piece of his pants was also torn off.

He was going to the Imperial court. Those who didn’t know would think that he was going to exterminate bandits.

“Master, did a fight break out in the court today?” Look at this scalp, it was almost scratched bald.

Lord Xia covered his head and shook it.

She pondered in her heart. Previously, she had listened to Grand tutor Xie’s words and was prepared to bring the child back. She had to consider the Xia family’s reputation. After all, Lulu left the house because of Qingqing.

But as soon as he reached the palace gates, Lord Xia regretted it.

I cant accept this devilish brat, I can’t accept him, it’s better for him to stay in the eastern Palace.

Who would dare to block the door of the eastern Palace?

If she lived in the Xia family, she was afraid that the Xia family would not be able to get close to her all year round. What Duke zhengguo, what Lin family, what Xie family, what Prince Zheng of Zhou Wu, his Xia family was currently on the rise, he couldn't afford to offend any of them.

Can't afford to offend!

Can't you hide if you can't afford to offend him?

Just after she returned to the fu and washed up, Madam Yun came in with a tray. On the tray was a cold white fungus soup.

"I heard that there was a group fight in front of the palace today?" Lord Xia's face fell as soon as lady Yun asked this. It's over. The news of him fighting in front of the hall has spread?

"No, why did Madam come over?" Usually, Madam Yun rarely came to the study.

"Mother Zhen is discussing marriage, let old master know. But this year's weather seems to be a little abnormal. It is said that it will rain during the Qingming Festival, but this year's Qingming Festival is stuffy and hot." It was as if summer was approaching.

"The North has a water shortage this year. I hope there will be a heavy rain in the second half of the year." Lord Xia sighed. These days, His Highness had already allocated a lot of money to them.

He could only hope that it could solve the urgent need..
