

The Savior 641

Chapter 641: His Highness is a treasure chest (1)

Eunuch Lu was dumbfounded.

When did His Highness wear Pearl shoes?

No, how did you stuff that Python robe in? this thing doesn't have a pocket!

He carried the little girl and put on her socks with one hand, then helped her put on her shoes.

Eunuch Lu even admired him for secretly learning such a skill.

Awesome!

Respect!

Didn't he see the eyes of all the officials behind him almost popping out?

Lulu put on his shoes and socks and stood on the ground. His hair was let down, and he stood obediently beside the Crown Prince.

The gate of the longevity Palace had not opened yet, and all the officials were waiting outside.

They just looked at the Crown Prince who was standing in front of them, and ...

She then took out an exquisite Jade comb.

That pair of slender and well-defined big hands pulled the hair of the little child beside him and quickly combed it.

Lord Xia's mouth was wide open in shock and could not close for a long time.

Not only him, even the remonstrators who had been arguing with His Highness in the court and had bumped into the throne room several times were full of questions at this moment.

What the hell? What the hell?

Suddenly, he felt that His Highness had shed the murderous aura around him and seemed to become particularly warm.

If he had been so peaceful since he was born, perhaps there would not have been any rumors that His Highness was the reincarnation of an evil spirit.

However, thinking about His Highness's pair of hands, he didn't show any mercy when killing people.

Everyone shivered again.

Not long after, the little girl's hair was combed into an exquisite, beautiful, and convenient hairstyle, which suited her face very well. It made her look exquisite and silly, and very cute.

He handed the Jade comb to eunuch Lu.

With a turn of his hand, His Highness took out a piece of pine nut and Lily pastry wrapped in oil paper. Layer by layer, it was golden in color and as thin as a cicada's wings. It looked fragrant and delicious.

There was also a peony roll, and one could see its softness with a bite.

The ministers swallowed their saliva. They had woken up in a hurry in the morning and had to go to the toilet because they had eaten and drunk too much. Naturally, they were not allowed to leave halfway during the ancestral worship. Everyone only drank a mouthful of water to moisten their throats. How could they dare to eat and drink?

At this moment, when he smelled the sweet smell, he was so hungry that his mouth was salivating.

However, the little girl was still considerate. She took a bite of the snack and tiptoed to stuff it into the Crown Prince's mouth.

The two of them bit each other, and the old official behind them almost fainted.

Although she was still young, she still felt a sense of suffocation as if she had been stuffed with dog food.

By the time the Emperor, the Empress, and the concubines arrived, Lulu had already finished his snacks and was even burping twice.

She was one step behind the Crown Prince and had already retreated to the side of the longevity Palace. She was not willing to go in and kneel.

The officials heaved a sigh of relief. This brutal attack had finally ended. "Long live our Emperor, long live, long live our Emperor!"

"The Empress is lucky ..." The officials knelt down to pay their respects. It had only been a few months since they had seen the Emperor. He had clearly looked young before, but now he was showing signs of fatigue.

There was even a hint of old age that could not be hidden between his brows.

However, he was only 40 years old, the prime of his life.

The Crown Prince snorted softly. He was not sick, but he had made himself sick. His father was also amazing.

Back then, he had half-willingly and half-coerced him into becoming a mere figurehead. All these years, he had faintly wanted to leave the harem, but he was often stopped by the emperor's Dragon body. It was probably to prove that his Dragon body was fine, so he had swallowed a lot of medicinal pills over the years.

At this moment, the Emperor raised his hand and said, "all ministers, rise." You may dispense with the formalities."

The eunuch beside him sang loudly, "the auspicious time has come, open the ancestral temple."

With a squeak, the light shone into the longevity Palace..

Chapter 642: Bird God (1)

The longevity Palace did not see light all year round.

At this moment, when the light shone into the hall, it actually had a sense of dispelling the darkness.

The first Prince was standing beside the Emperor, which was a rare sight. Behind the first Prince was a thin man with high cheekbones. The man's eyes were deep and dark, and whoever he looked at would frown and avoid him.

This was the family deity that the Prince of fusang brought with him when he came to propose to the princess of great Zhou.

It was said that this family deity had always protected the imperial family of fusang. Now that he was willing to come to the great Zhou, it was entirely because he valued the intention of the Prince of fusang.

Now that the family deity was temporarily lent to the first Prince, it could be seen that there was a clever connection between fusang and the first Prince.

In the past, the Emperor had always brought the Crown Prince with him. Whether it was voluntary or forced, their relationship was still extremely good on the surface.

But this year, the first Prince was standing beside him, parallel to the Crown Prince.

“Your Highness, this is the feather God from fusang. He possesses the bloodline of the ancient Phoenix tribe and is now protecting the imperial family of fusang, ensuring that fusang will be safe for the next hundred years.”

“The Prince of fusang is willing to lend the feather God to the great Zhou because he is concerned about the evil that has appeared in the great Zhou. I hope that Your Highness will not think too much.” The great prince had a faint smile on his face. His eyes fell behind the Crown Prince, and his eyes twitched.

He did not know when, but this young man had actually become as tall as him.

His aura and ability were not enough to make him proud. Now, he could not even compare to his height.

The first Prince's eyes darkened.

“Imperial brother must be joking, this ... This Phoenix was a bird, and he should be called the bird God. It's all for the great Zhou, so how can bengong think too much? If we can capture the evil god as soon as possible, bengong and the people will be at ease.”

“I'll have to trouble this bird God.” The Crown Prince's expression didn't change, but his words made the feather God's face change dramatically.

Yet, he couldn't get angry.

He was so angry.

At this moment, the Emperor had already entered the longevity Palace, and the crowd followed behind him.

The eunuch had already prepared the incense table and everything was complete. The Emperor stretched out his hand and the Joss stick fell into his hand.

The Ministry of rites had already written the words to pay respects to the ancestors, and at this moment, they were reciting it in cadence, giving off a sense of exorcism.

Lulu sat on the steps outside the longevity Palace, drowsy from listening.

She seriously suspected that the gods didn't like to listen to the prayers of the human world because the prayers were like the old lady's foot-binding cloth, smelly and long.

You pray for a child, pray for good weather, pray for the country to be prosperous and the people to be safe, pray for marriage.

Can't you just explain it in a simple sentence?

Why did he have to recite it for half an hour? she was so confused by it.

The gods are so busy every day and have to listen to countless prayers. Who has the time to listen to your long-winded speech for more than an hour?

She even had to guess what he was asking for from the pile of words?

Lulu wondered why the gods had such a photographic memory and such a heart of seven apertures. She seriously suspected that the God of creation's godmother was afraid that the gods were too illiterate and could not hear the subtle prayers of these believers, so she deliberately opened a back door for them.

At this moment, the prayer in the hall had reached the second half.

Lulu was no longer in the mood to listen. He leaned on the door and looked at the memorial tablets.

What late Emperor, what retired Emperor, what Emperor, and so on.

Everyone lowered their heads devoutly. Only the pheasant God, who was called the bird God, looked around. He glanced at the Crown Prince countless times with harsh and provocative eyes.

It wasn't obvious, but Lulu did notice.

Lulu's mouth twitched. What kind of bird dared to call itself a God?

However, thinking about how the Emperor had previously said that he had kept a few family gods, and now that there was only one left, she could think it through.

The rest of them had all defected to her Hall of salvation.

As for this bird God, he didn't even open the door for him.

Hmph!

Chapter 643: Abandoned after use (1)

The worship of the ancestors in the longevity Palace ended very quickly.

The real highlight was the Imperial mausoleum outside the city. After all, it was also an important time to appease the people.

Every year, the imperial family's sacrifice to heaven was a good time to comfort the people.

The Emperor brought the princes and concubines to offer incense.

Noble consort Lin was still carrying the little princess who was only two months old.

After a short while, the little princess began to cry. Noble consort Lin's willowy brows furrowed slightly, and the maidservant behind her hurriedly reached out to carry the child out.

"It is likely that the smell of the incense in the hall is too pungent and the little princess can not stand it." Imperial concubine Lin said softly. There were rumors spreading in the great Zhou Dynasty that some great evil had descended.

No one was willing to get into trouble at this time.

The Emperor glanced at her. In just a few months, the Emperor seemed to have aged a little.

Previously, he looked thin and handsome. Although he was a middle-aged man, he was extremely elegant.

Her face had gained a lot of weight in the past few months, and her belly had also grown.

There was also a strange pill fragrance on his body.

The Crown Prince glanced at him. His face was indifferent, but his eyes were deep.

The emperor's body was only a little weak, but it was not a serious illness. It would not be a problem for him to live for another 20 or 30 years. However, at this rate, he probably wouldn't be able to hold on for long.

He constantly used medicinal pills to stimulate the potential in his body. The potential that was stimulated seemed to be full of vitality for a while, but it was actually pulling up seedlings to help them grow.

For example, at this moment, he felt that he was full of energy. However, his deeply sunken eye sockets were already showing some clues.

Seeing his high-spirited appearance, the Crown Prince frowned.

He had already handed over a portion of his power over to the Emperor. One reason was to keep Lulu company, and the other was to hand his authority over to the Emperor.

For some things, at certain times, honey could be poison.

"It's been seven or eight years since I've hosted the worship, right?" The Emperor only felt that he had endless strength and looked at the great prince with a satisfied expression.

The elixir of the feather deity was indeed useful.

"Your Majesty's health is great and the commoners are happy. His Highness the Crown Prince is still young, and he was able to hold up the court before he was even ten years old. Now, he can finally relax." Noble consort Lin stood on the emperor's left, while the Empress stood on his right.

However, the Empress did not fawn on him at all from the beginning to the end, and even asked about his well-being less.

“It has been hard on Yi ‘an these years. With Imperial father well, Yi ‘an can also have a good life and recuperate.” “It’s probably the blessings of our ancestors,” the great prince said softly.

The Emperor was more and more satisfied. He raised his hand, and Noble consort Lin obediently helped him up.

The Crown Prince and Empress were half a step behind, as if they had taken a step back in front of the emperor’s Majesty.

“It’s time to leave the palace and worship the heavens.” The head eunuch sang loudly.

The crowd respectfully welcomed the Emperor and walked out of the palace.

The civil and military officials sneaked a glance behind them. The Emperor was making it even more obvious that he wanted to take back his power.

But His Highness was growing up day by day, what should he do?

The Crown Prince was very calm, but eunuch Lu felt somewhat humiliated.

Back then, the great Zhou was plagued with internal and external problems. His Majesty was indecisive and could not support the court. His Highness, who was only seven or eight years old, had stepped on countless blood to establish his prestige and intimidate everyone.

Now that His Majesty had recovered, he began to guard against His Highness and tried to regain his power.

He threw it away after using it, looking like a heartless loser.

However, His Highness’s face was calm, so he did not dare to say anything.

However, he was also a little curious as he looked at the Empress. If it was in the past, the Empress would have stood firmly in front of the Emperor and sworn her identity, never letting noble consort Lin take any advantage of her.

The Crown Prince glanced at his mother, while the Empress was in a daze.

Lulu said that he’s going to die soon.. He’s going to die soon, so how can this Prince still have a good impression of him?

Chapter 644: The Empress and the evil (1)

The emperor’s guard of honor left the palace.

Outside the palace gates kneeled a dense crowd. The Emperor looked down from above, and the aura of a sovereign descending to the world appeared again.

After being an idle Emperor in the harem for so many years, he had almost forgotten this feeling.

When he first ascended the throne, he could not intimidate the officials and the capital was also quite chaotic.

Now, all the civil and military officials were submissive, and the security of the capital was good.

The Emperor wanted to turn his head to look at the youth riding the horse behind him, but he forcefully suppressed it.

The Emperor was probably trying to express his thoughts, so he should have taken the Empress and the Emperor with him, but he had brought noble consort Lin with him.

Noble consort Lin was leaning on his side. Although she was a little old, she had taken good care of herself and had given birth to a little princess. Her slender figure was also a little more well-rounded, which added two points of beauty.

“Your Majesty, look at how peaceful this world is, it’s all thanks to you. His Highness was young at that time. If you didn’t have the foresight to put him in high regard, how could he have become successful? How could there be such a peaceful and prosperous world?” Imperial concubine Lin said softly.

The Emperor gently patted noble consort Lin, his eyes flashing.

The Imperial astronomer was already waiting in the Imperial mausoleum for them. Everything had been prepared.

The feather God from fusang had been accompanying him.

The great prince sat on his horse, a smile on his lips. “Feather God, do you feel any evil aura?”

The feather God looked around and said, ““The evil has descended upon the great Zhou, this person must be from the great Zhou. And according to the rules of the past years, the capital would be attacked by dark spirits every year. I’m afraid that the evil is born in the capital of the great Zhou.”

“If such a person awakens, I’m afraid the world will be in a catastrophe.” The first Prince’s eyes narrowed.

“First Prince, you don’t have to worry. Since it exists, it will definitely give itself away. I’m afraid he Imows that we’re coming to great Zhou and has hidden himself. The imperial family had the Qi of a true Dragon today, and they would definitely force him to show himself. If you don’t believe me, Your Highness will just wait and see.” The feather God seemed to be very confident, and his eyes were filled with viciousness.

At this moment, the Crown Prince was wearing a cloak. The young man’s eyes were bright, and he would lift his hand to pull the cloak from time to time.

If one looked carefully, one would be able to see a little girl hiding under the cloak.

Nestled in his arms, she was small and cute, obedient and lovely.

The little girl peeked at her surroundings. No one dared to raise their heads, let alone look at the Crown Prince, so no one noticed.

Of course, no one dared to think that he was so bold.

The Crown Prince flicked his sleeve and took out a piece of dried meat, stuffing it into his cloak.

“Brother Jiang Jiang, you’re getting better at telekinesis.” The little girl was like a little hamster, hiding in his arms and chewing on dried meat.

He did not notice that the Crown Prince’s body had slightly stiffened. That was because that voice had appeared in his mind again.

you’re really good. You’re actually using telekinesis to steal snacks for your child! The voice was furious, and the emotions revealed in his words were completely unconcealed.

He had completely expressed his disdain and contempt for Lu huaijiang.

“What’s the use of being nice to her? What’s the use of spoiling her? You were born evil, born to dirty the world, while she was just and upright, born as the princess of the Emperor, a goddess.”

you two have two extreme positions. You don’t really think that she will be soft-hearted to you the day you fall and become an evil god, do you? ” “Why don’t we kill her while she’s still young and not fully grown?”

Only by killing her would he be able to break the trap left behind by his previous seven lives!

Chapter 645: He was born because of the injustice of the heavenly Dao (1)

Lu huaijiang was silent from the beginning to the end, as if he didn’t exist. “You’ll regret it. If you don’t kill her now, you’ll definitely regret it!”

“You and her were born to be in opposing situations. This was all the tricks of the God of creation, that old witch. She was a sinister and vicious woman! Vicious woman!” The voice said through gritted teeth.

“Back then, I was born at the same time as her. She gathered the spiritual energy of heaven and earth and was the first to incarnate into the lower realm.”

“I was a thousand years too late. After a thousand years, the overall situation has already been set, but she has already made arrangements. It is really too sinister and vicious.” A mocking voice rang out in his mind. He seemed to be reminiscing about the past.

Lu huaijiang frowned slightly. Once the voice in his mind was angry, he could also sense the other party’s emotions.

At this moment, a scene appeared in his mind uncontrollably.

Darkness, endless darkness.

In the dark void, it was quiet but filled with killing intent.

Two stones, one black and one white, were suspended in the void. The White stone was emitting a warm and bright luster.

With just a glance, black stone could make people feel a soaring hostility.

All the yin Qi that gathered from all directions was absorbed by him.

It was unknown if he had absorbed it on his own initiative or if he was born to face the world's tribulation.

His vision blurred, and he didn't know that the White stone had suddenly gained consciousness. One day, in accordance with the will of the heavenly Dao, the White stone turned into a ray of light and cast into the human world.

Heaven and earth were separated, and there was heaven and earth.

As the days went by, grass and grass grew out of the ground. Bai Shi, on the other hand, had turned into a woman with no memories of her past and was walking barefoot in this barren world. She walked through every inch of the world that she had created with her own hands.

As for Black Rock, he was still lying in the boundless void. Whether he wanted to or resisted, he was still quietly receiving the hostile aura that was gathering from all directions.

Black Rock's entire body was covered in a layer of violent Qi, and he was on the edge of being violent at any time.

The days were dull.

At some point, a small blade of green grass had grown out of the corner of the Black Rock.

A blade of grass and a stone. Beside the black stone, there was a touch of green that actually had some vitality.

"I'm thirsty ..." A mumbling sound came from his arms. Lu huaijiang waved his hand instantly and handed over a sweet fruit.

Ever since he had learned how to take things from a distance, a big rat had appeared in the Imperial kitchen.

Lu huaijiang sighed softly. It was no wonder that the divine sense in his mind felt humiliated.

He should have been a God of the same generation as the God of creation, but with his sorcery, he could only be reduced to raising children.

"Good-for-nothing, in this life, I'll wait for you to die by her hands!" The voice in his mind was sinister, resentful that he had not lived up to his expectations.

"So what if you try to escape? you're an evil god destined by the heavens. You can't escape! You were born for the sake of the heavenly Dao, and in order to get rid of the evil energy between heaven and earth, the heavenly Dao poured all of it on us, which is the fault of the heavenly Dao! The heavenly Dao is unfair, the heavenly Dao is unfair, why should I bear everything in the world!" After saying that, the voice sounded a little crazy. Lu huaijiang's mind was unstable, and his brows could not help but reveal a bit of hostility.

"Jiang Jiang, wipe your mouth." The little girl's voice was soft.

Lu huaijiang's murderous aura faded in an instant. He took out a handkerchief and wiped her mouth.

The voice seemed to have been angered by Lu huaijiang.

How could he not be angry when the hostility he had painstakingly stirred up was easily wiped away and he regained his clarity?

"Good-for-nothing!" That voice was originally very arrogant, but now, it was finally angered by him to the point that it fell off the altar while cursing.

Seven lives, seven lives!

It's the same person who did it every time!

Even if he left a trace of his divine sense, he still couldn't stop it.. This was what despair was!

Chapter 646: A shocking change on the altar (1)

The group walked out of the city for about two hours.

The security along the way was tight, showing the majesty of the imperial family.

The commoners knelt along the way, and no one dared to raise their heads.

It was not to intimidate the Emperor, but to intimidate the youth who had yet to reach the crown.

He just lazily rode behind them on his horse, and everyone felt as if something was stuck in their throats, not daring to overstep him.

Finally, when the sun was about to rise to noon, everyone stopped.

"The Imperial mausoleum is in front." As soon as the sedan stopped, noble consort Lin helped the Emperor out.

Carriages were not allowed to enter the Imperial tombs, so they could only walk.

The weather was a little hot, but the emperor's forehead was sweating more than the others. The handkerchief on noble consort Lin's body was almost soaked, but fortunately, the maidservant quickly changed it.

The Imperial astronomer had already prepared everything.

"The auspicious time has come. Emperor Chong Ming of the great Zhou Dynasty will personally experience the worship to the heavens and pray for blessings." The official of the Imperial astronomer stood on the altar and sang loudly.

The Emperor brought the princes up to the altar.

Everyone had already changed into their sacrificial clothes.

The commoners who had rushed over knelt down. They had pious expressions on their faces and their hands were clasped together. No one knew how long they had been kneeling.

The Crown Prince handed Lulu over to eunuch Lu after he got off the carriage.

Eunuch Lu brought her to an unremarkable corner of the Temple of Heaven.

The feather God was standing three steps away from her.

He looked at the altar with a dark expression. Lulu followed his gaze and it landed on Lu huaijiang.

Stone pillars carved with Dragon patterns were erected around the Temple of Heaven. When the auspicious hour arrived, a Brazier was lit at the top of the stone pillars.

In the center was an incense table, on which were chicken, ducks, cattle, sheep, and pigs made of Jade.

The Imperial astronomer stood at the edge and was loudly reading out the merits Emperor Chong Ming had earned by governing the world over the years.

He praised the emperor's reputation.

He chanted prayers and flattered her while praying for the country to be peaceful and the people to be safe.

The Emperor stood at the forefront. The moment the Imperial astronomer stopped, he looked into the distance at the sky. "I'm the human Emperor of heaven and earth, and I hereby pray for a gift from heaven. May the great Zhou be at peace, the country is prosperous and the people are at peace."

The Emperor slowly read out the prayers for the sacrifice to heaven, and the civil and military officials knelt behind him.

After his Majesty finished reading, he burned the memorial in the incense burner.

The Emperor led the crowd to bow three times and kowtow nine times.

After paying their respects, the Minister of offerings led the people up to perform the sacrificial dance. Everyone's faces were painted in various colors, and their faces could not be seen clearly.

The drums around them beat along with the ritual dance, creating a strange melody.

The Emperor, who was leading the crowd to kneel at the very front, moved and suddenly stood up.

"I beg for the heavens" instructions. Traces of evil gods have appeared in the great Zhou several times. The people of the great Zhou, from the Emperor to the Emperor, were all loyal to the gods and the heavens. Please have mercy on us and send down instructions to find the evil god and return peace to the world!" The Emperor shouted loudly.

The emperor's voice had just fallen when the sun was high up in the sky at noon. A sudden clap of Thunder rang out on a sunny day.

The feather God suddenly raised his head and looked at the sky. A strange light flashed in his eyes.

“It’s an order from the heavens.” The feather God stepped on the tip of his foot and went up to the altar.

“Your Majesty, the aura of the heavenly Dao is leaking out. The aura of the heavenly Dao is everywhere, and the evil god must be in a weak state.” my guess was right. The evil god is in the capital, among the people here!

The emperor’s mind was greatly moved, and everyone’s faces actually changed one after another. Knowing that the evil god was here, even the Emperor was heavily protected by guards.

“Your Majesty, don’t worry. That evil god was born and grew up in the capital. Although it is the incarnation of the evil god, I’m afraid it has not fully awakened.. However, I have a way to make him lose his mind and expose his identity!”

Chapter 647: A crazy test on the edge of death _1

The feather God stood on the altar, his eyes cold and calculating.

The Empress frowned slightly. Noble consort Lin stood by the emperor’s side and gently squeezed his palm.

Your Majesty, the people of the world have been attacked by the evil for many years. If the evil god that can command the evil in the world really appears in the great Zhou, I’m afraid that the great Zhou will become the target of public criticism.

“The feather God has refined many elixirs for Your Majesty. Your Majesty must trust him. Why don’t you let him try? if the evil god was found, then it was his credit. If we can’t test it out and we can’t attract the evil god to appear, we can just punish him.”

The Emperor didn’t have much conflict with the feather God. Seeing that he was still so confident, he nodded.

“Now that the sacrifice has ended, if you can lure the evil out, then try it. I’ve already ordered master yixu to bring the Holy monks over. If there’s anything unusual, we can also kill him.” The emperor’s eyes flashed with a touch of displeasure. He had actually summoned the hall of salvation.

But the hall of salvation ... How should he put it?

In the entire Hall, there was only an old lady who guarded the hall and two old men who swept the floor.

There was also a teenager who hadn’t even reached the crown. It was useless to ask them to help.

When he asked the young man, the hall of salvation was a place for fame.

“The hall of salvation only keeps nether soldiers, no living people,” the young man sneered. These words were a little scary, but thinking about the fact that there were armored nether soldiers hunting for ghosts in the capital, he was probably telling the truth.

But the Emperor just didn't like it.

A small hall of salvation had actually disregarded the words of the Emperor, and they deserved to be punished.

It was just that the hall of salvation was extremely prestigious and could indeed resist evil, so he could not touch it for the time being.

It had to be said that the Emperor did not like the hall of salvation from the start.

The National temple was a temple of the royal family. Even if the master and the Holy monk were outsiders, they had to listen to the orders of the royal family.

However, the hall of salvation was different. There were only a few living people in the entire Hall. He could mobilize the living but not the dark Souls. The Emperor gritted his teeth and looked at the Crown Prince. He knew that the Crown Prince had a good way of governing the country and was ruthless.

However, he had actually allowed the hall of salvation to grow, and the Emperor was a little displeased.

“Your Majesty, please rest at the side. Be careful of hurting your Dragon body.” The feather God left respectfully after he finished speaking.

Someone immediately brought a table and chair over. The Emperor sat on one side, and a pot of Longjing tea was placed on the table.

“Your Majesty, do you think that this evil god was really born in the capital of the great Zhou? If he was born in the great Zhou, he would probably be able to reveal some of his secret, right? They must be murderous and brutal. Why don't Your Majesty screen them and I think we can find some clues.” Noble consort Lin leaned on the emperor's side and said with a light smile.

The Empress's hand under her sleeve slightly clenched the corner of her clothes.

Her brows were slightly furrowed and drooped, making it impossible for others to see her expression.

“En,” the Emperor said softly, “when this matter is over, I'll have the Crown Prince investigate.” If there's such a brutal and bloodthirsty person, kill him without mercy.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the feather God, who was sitting cross-legged in the center of the altar, began to chant something in a low voice.

There was a faint flow of air around him.

His hands quickly formed seals.

The Emperor gently stroked his chest.

father,” the first Prince beside him explained, ” the feather God’s spell is to trigger the evil god. It can cause the evil God’s mind to be unstable, and others will feel uncomfortable. Father, please be patient.”

After he finished speaking, he looked at the Crown Prince and said, “”Your Highness, are you alright? Your body is not well yet. If you feel unwell, you must tell me. ” The first Prince’s eyes were fixed on him..

Chapter 648: Unintentional planting of willow leaves will bring about shade (1)

The Crown Prince’s face was cold as he waved his hand, “”I’m not uncomfortable.

This summoning ability was much weaker than the one that the two ghost emperors had sacrificed dozens of lives to.

Seeing the feather God acting like a clown, the Crown Prince yawned in boredom.

The first Prince’s expression froze.

Imperial brother’s face is so pale. Can’t you take it?? ” The Crown Prince asked in return, and the sage King was shocked.

“It’s hot at noon, so it’s just a little stuffy,” he hurriedly waved his hand.

He then looked at the feather God with a worried look.

Before long, the incense on the altar was about to burn out. The feather God slowly opened his eyes, looking serious.

Your Majesty, I’m afraid that the evil god is too powerful and the feather God is having a hard time. “Could this really be a disaster for the great Zhou?” the great prince sighed.

The Emperor frowned.

The feather God sat in the center of the altar. He bit his finger and a drop of blood floated in the air.

His hands quickly formed seals, almost leaving afterimages. The moment the spell stopped, Lu huaijiang’s heart burned with a hot Qi. The fire came quickly and fiercely, causing his eyes to shake slightly.

Waves of piercing pain and impatience surged in his heart, almost drowning him.

“Evil god, get out here! Today, I swear I will kill you on the spot! I’ll let you fall into eternal damnation!”

“The mighty evil god is actually a turtle hiding in its shell. After cultivating for a thousand years, it has actually cultivated a turtle shell? It’s really funny.”

no wonder the God of creation could unify the Three Realms. It turns out that the evil gods can’t even see the light and don’t even dare to show themselves! The feather God tried to anger him.

“You ants dare to provoke me! Kill him! Reincarnated, go kill him!” The fierce voice lingered in Lu huaijiang’s mind.

Lu huaijiang stood in the distance with a cold face, as if he was not bewitched at all.

This kind of abuse was not enough to agitate him.

Big drops of cold sweat rolled down the feather God’s forehead.

In the end, he couldn’t bear the huge force and heaved a sigh of relief, opening his eyes.

“Your Majesty, I’m afraid that the evil god has already grown into a person with a firm heart. It was difficult for ordinary things to shake him! This little God has a request. The young boys and girls in the world are the purest things, so why not let the children under the age of seven be sacrificed to the heavens ...” “Ridiculous!” The Empress’s face suddenly turned cold.

“Your Majesty is the ruler of a country. How can you believe such words of killing the innocent? If the world knew about it, I’m afraid that even the Dao protector’s spittle would drown Your Majesty.”

“We don’t even know if you can summon it, but you’re asking countless young boys and girls to sacrifice to the heavens. Who can bear the responsibility of crushing His Majesty’s reputation to dust for the sake of an unknown?” The Empress was stern as she stood up.

Firstly, there were two boys and girls, and Lulu was present today.

Second, how could the Empress not know that these people suspected the Crown Prince? no matter if the Crown Prince was or was not, she would not let anyone pour dirty water on him.

The Emperor was originally a little moved. Even if he didn’t like the Empress, he still agreed after hearing her words.

“Since I can’t summon the evil, then let’s drop it. There’s no need to mention the matter of a virgin boy and a virgin girl!”

After he finished speaking, he flicked his sleeves and left.

The first Prince frowned and turned to look at the feather God. Then, he quickly followed the Emperor down the steps.

The feather God was annoyed. Why couldn’t he summon it?

He hurriedly followed the Emperor down the steps and chased after him.

The little girl standing in the corner looked at the Crown Prince who had yet to come down from the altar. She had just taken a step forward and had yet to get close.

He was knocked to the ground by the feather God, who was walking in a hurry..

Chapter 649: Lu huaijiang lost his consciousness (1)

The little girl was round and actually rolled on the ground, and the hair on her head was scattered.
“You’re blind!” He shouted angrily and quickly chased after the Emperor.

On the altar, Lu huaijiang’s eyes darkened.

Just now, his curses were unable to anger him, but at this moment, his clarity had disappeared from the little girl’s round roll.

The Emperor had yet to board the carriage.

Suddenly, sand and stones flew, the sky turned dark, and the trees and grass rustled in the wind.

The Emperor wanted to raise his head to look at the sky, but he was blinded by the flying sand.

The crowd was blown to the point where they could not stand steadily. The guards around the Emperor had already surrounded the Emperor in a panic.

“Protect the Emperor!”

it must be the evil god! It’s the aura of the evil god! The feather God’s eyes lit up. They had tried countless ways to connect with the evil god and wake him up. He clearly didn’t make any movements just now, so why did he appear again?

The feather God didn’t dare to think too much. Your Majesty, ” he said. that evil god must be hiding in the capital. Something must be wrong. I’ll take this opportunity .

In the midst of the flying sand and stones, a red light as thick as a wrist suddenly appeared in the sky.

The feather God’s heart skipped a beat, and he felt that he was about to let out a cry of panic.

That killing intent made his body stiffen. This was the aura that he had been directly locked on to.

“Kacha!”

A bolt of red lightning with a fishy smell came down from the sky. The Emperor did not even have time to react before the feather God exploded in the red light.

The bloody meat paste exploded all over his face.

His body was covered in blood.

The emperor’s heart trembled. He wanted to move, but under the intense fear, he had no strength at all. The first Prince was the same. He opened his mouth, but when he came back to his senses, he kept vomiting.

“The evil god is angry.”

The evil god was enraged.

It was unknown what had angered him, but he had actually killed the feather God in front of everyone.

Was it because of his provocation?

The first Prince's intuition told him that this was not all. He must have missed something important.

The moment the feather God died, the wind stopped, and the surroundings were filled with things that had been blown messily.

They were scattered all over the place.

Even the roof of the carriage was flipped over.

Many people at the scene were blown away.

Everyone cried out in fear, begging for forgiveness.

"What exactly angered him? This was ... The power of the evil god?" The great prince muttered to himself. Just as he raised his head, he saw the Emperor, whose face was covered in blood and mud, fall down without even being able to catch his breath.

The crowd panicked and called for the Imperial physician again, as if they had all forgotten about the young man on the altar.

Lulu pulled away the dry grass on his head and climbed up the altar on all fours.

Brother Jiang Jiang, who had always been cold and aloof, was now surrounded by a vicious aura that was almost tangible. He closed his eyes and stood on the altar with an evil smile on his face.

Lulu suddenly stopped three steps away from him.

The familiarity in his eyes faded, and a sense of caution gradually appeared.

The young man on the altar slowly opened his eyes.

"I thought that it would take a long time for him to get emotional. So ... It's so simple." The young man's voice was hoarse, like him, but not like him.

"You are still so important. It's so important that it can actually affect me. " The teenager seemed to be confused. He tilted his head, but his eyes were full of indifference as he looked at Lulu.

He exuded a mottled aura, and Lulu quickly held his breath and focused when he touched it.

It was filled with greed, infatuation, delusion, evil thoughts, killing intent, and all other negative auras.

With a wave of his hand, the panicking people below the altar turned into a mist of blood..

Chapter 650: Get out of jiangjiang (1)

Lulu was slightly touched, and his emotionless heart started to ripple. "Do you know the greed of the world?"

"So what if you save them? The greed of the world is endless. Why don't you and I join forces to destroy this world and create new rules?" Lu huaijiang lowered his head and looked at her.

She didn't have fair and slender long legs, nor did she have a small waist that could be held in one hand. She also didn't have watery eyes.

Her face was round, her eyes were round, and her stomach was round.

He really didn't want to think that it was this person who had failed seven times.

Now, in his eighth reincarnation, he was still banging his head against a wall for her.

"You are not my Jiang Jiang." The warmth in Lulu's eyes disappeared, replaced by wariness and anger.

The young man paused for a moment, "how do you know I'm not?" Lulu, come here." A touch of gentleness rose on the young man's face, no different from Lu huaijiang's.

But Lulu still shook his head firmly.

"Even if the two of you are exactly the same, and even have the same personality, you are still not him."

"I am him, and he is me. We're only one person." However, they had not fully integrated yet. Lu huaijiang was extremely resistant to him because he did not want to leave this Little Vixen in front of him.

'Lu huaijiang' saw that he couldn't coax her and didn't hide it anymore.

However, he was a little depressed that Jiang huailu could instantly distinguish him.

'Lu huaijiang's' eyelids twitched. Even the Fox clan would not want such a round fox spirit.

"You're not. My Jiang Jiang is not like this. Get out!" Lulu pursed his lips tightly, a golden seal in his hand. The moment this golden seal appeared, the young man's expression changed.

The Golden seal restrained all evil in the world. She had never used this thing against Lu huaijiang.

Lu huaijiang treated her differently, and so did she.

It was her duty and instinct to sweep away the evil, but she had hidden Lu huaijiang's existence and guarded him every day, unwilling to erase him.

"This little fellow's temper is quite big, actually getting angry just by saying a few words. I've already said that I'm him, and he's me!" The young man raised his head and saw that the Golden seal had turned into a ray of light, directly enveloping him.

He showed no mercy.

They had known each other for so long, but she had never used the divine power of a God on the crown Prince.

"Get out of Jiang Jiang's body!" The little girl shouted sternly, her fingers lightly pointing, and the Golden seal quickly tightened towards the center. Now, he was only a trace of divine sense. Only when he completely integrated with Lu huaijiang would he recover his strength. The current him was nothing.

“What, you want to kill me again? Jiang huailu, you’re only five years old now, far from the friendship we once had. Do you really think I’ll show mercy?” The young man was clearly angry.

The young man looked at her. The short and stout figure in front of him gradually overlapped with a goddess-like woman in his memory. She had not grown up yet. In this life, he must not let her be the same as before.

“You’re truly ruthless. Even after seven lives, you’re still so ruthless. It’s a pity that the reincarnated man protected you in every way possible. If he falls to the devil’s path one day, you’ll be the first person to kill him! He has you in his heart, but when has he ever been in your heart?” Within the Golden light, ‘Lu huaijiang’ chuckled in a low voice, his voice full of ridicule.

After he finished speaking, the young man in the Golden light fell limply to the ground.

The Golden seal instantly returned to his body.

Lulu’s body stiffened slightly, and his usually dazed and adorable little face was filled with confusion.

He walked step by step to the unconscious Lu huaijiang and the little girl looked at him in a daze.

It turned out that other than Jiang Jiang, she still hated the evils so much..
