

The secret 2

Episode 2

Roxanne ran to Harvey's office.

After pushing the door open, she saw the little rascals inside. They were sitting on the sofa in the office, swinging their legs nonchalantly.

The boys lit up when they saw Roxanne. Jumping off the sofa, they rushed towards her excitedly. "Mommy, you're finally done! I thought you would stay in the lab forever!"

"Mommy, you have worked hard! Are you tired? Sit down. I'll give you a massage.

Roxanne was led to the sofa so she could take a seat.

When Roxanne noticed her concern, she suddenly felt it was worth being yelled at.

"Look how obedient you are. You weren't like that when you hacked into my computer earlier!" Harvey snorted angrily behind his desk.

Archie declared: "It was all your fault, Professor Lambert! You kept asking mom to work overtime. Look, she's getting malnourished!"

"That's right! Mommy is an ordinary human being. How could you ask him to work day and night? Benny chimed in as he massaged Roxanne's shoulder.

Her temper flared, Harvey laughed and replied, "You're too overprotective of her! Everyone in the research institute does the same!"

Saying this, he shook his head and turned to Roxanne. "How was your investigation?"

Roxanne shot him a smile. "It was smooth. I'll send you the data later."

She paused before asking, "Have you restored the data on your computer?"

Harvey ran a hand through his hair in frustration. "It's been an hour, but I still can't restore anything."

Amused, Roxanne patted Benny's hand. "Benny, go restore Professor Lambert's computer. Do not be naughty. What if you lose some important data?"

Benny immediately responded: "That will not happen. I prepare a backup and several levels of security each time. You won't lose anything!"

As he said that, he trotted over to Harvey and reset the latter's computer.

The boy's fingers tapped furiously on the keyboard, producing lines of code.

A few minutes later, the computer screen flickered back to normal.

Harvey glanced at his computer with admiration. He had to admit that his apprentice's children were geniuses.

At a young age, Archie was already a medical genius. He was able to differentiate thousands of herbs and showed his talent in medicine. He also had an eye for investments.

Benny, on the other hand, was interested in programming. He now he was a little hacker very sensitive to numbers. Like his brother, he also did very well at investing.

Also, they were both adorable, mature, and cheeky.

Therefore, he didn't dare yell at them every time they made a fuss. Instead, he could only take out his frustrations on Roxanne.

Roxanne immediately offered an apology. "I'm sorry, Professor Lambert. Please don't blame the children for their mischievous acts."

Please don't yell at me too. I can't always be the scapegoat for him, right?

Harvey laughed at her reaction. "Don't worry. I didn't summon you here to yell at you. I have a task for you. Listen, I've been planning to set up a research institute in the country. It will focus on traditional medicine. However, I'm still busy here and I can't leave for now. After careful consideration, I have decided to send you back!"

Roxanne had no idea that she would say that. She froze and hesitated.

Go back home?

She never thought of going back to that place after leaving six years ago.

After all, she didn't have a family or anyone she cared about there.

Besides, she had come to love Yartran.

Her first reaction was to reject the offer. "Professor Lambert, I—"

Harvey chimed in, "Roxanne, I know you don't want to go back, but I hope you'll consider my suggestion. You have been my student for years, so I think you know how broad and deep traditional medicine is. There aren't enough herbs here for you to research. In Chanaea you will have all the herbs you want. You are free to use and research them. Most importantly, many hidden and prestigious families are in possession of ancient medical skills in Chanaea. I remember you're interested in that, right? That's why I suggested you return to Chanaea. You have a bright future ahead of you. Besides, you're different now. No matter what happens, or who you meet, I think you can handle everything calmly, right?"

At her words, Roxanne fell silent.

He is right. I have become a completely different person now. I can face all obstacles without fear. Also, six years have passed. Perhaps that man is already married to her first crush. Because I'm scared?

With that thought in mind, Roxanne took a deep breath and nodded solemnly. "Okay then. Professor Lambert, I'll listen to you and return to Chanaea.

Harvey smiled. "I'm glad you made a decision.
