

The secret 4

Chapter 4

The same thought popped into Roxanne's mind. Is this girl mute?

Her sympathy for the girl increased. In a soft voice, she asked, "Can you give me your hand?"

With that, she stretched out her hand.

Despite looking at her timidly, the little girl seemed to be less rigid after hearing her words.

Roxanne waited patiently for the girl to accept her hand.

After a long hesitation, the girl finally reached out to gingerly take Roxanne's hand.

Seeing that, Roxanne took her hand gently and helped her up. She did not forget to check the girl again to see if she had any injuries.

Due to her action, they became physically close to each other.

The girl felt soft and fluffy. She even smelled like milk.

Roxanne couldn't help but remember her daughter, who was stillborn.

If she grew up well, she would be the age of this girl.

As that thought popped into her mind, Roxanne was overwhelmed with anguish and regret.

As if she sensed her emotions, the girl stood still and looked at her in silence.

I know I'm not supposed to talk to strangers, but this lady is very pretty. Strangely, I feel the need to get closer to her.

At the time, Madilyn commented: "Oh, what an adorable girl. She's just as adorable as our kids!"

Roxanne nodded. "I think she got lost. Let's send her to the police station and see if we can get in touch with her family."

Right after saying that, the young woman gave him a light tug.

Roxanne looked down in confusion.

The girl was shaking her head profusely, her eyes turned red. She looked like she was about to dissolve into tears at any moment.

Clearly, the girl didn't want her to do that.

Seeing the girl's anguished expression really touched Roxanne's heart.

However, she had no other choice. If she did not send the girl to the police station in time, she could be accused of kidnapping the latter.

Roxanne was in a quandary.

"Alright. We don't have to go to the police station." She squatted down and tried to negotiate with the girl. "Do you have your parents' phone number? I can call them to come pick you up.

The girl stopped shaking her head, but instead she slumped in dejection.

Since she didn't respond, Roxanne assumed she didn't have her parents' phone number. She was about to send her to the police station when the little girl moved.

Roxanne watched her as she took out a pencil and a sticky note. She then wrote a phone number with the word "dad" after it before handing the note to Roxanne.

After taking the note from her, Roxanne dialed the number of the girl's father.

"Oh, she really is mute," Archie and Benny murmured under their breath.

Roxanne stiffened and gave her children a warning look. "Don't be rude to her."

The boys straightened their backs and gave the girl guilty smiles.

Looking at them, the girl instinctively reached out to Roxanne and reached out to grab the corner of Roxanne's dress.

However, Roxanne didn't notice because she was busy checking the phone number before making the call.

Back at the Farwell residence, Lucian stormed into the mansion angrily. Is Essie back?

The butler came to welcome him. With a troubled expression, he said, "No. I didn't see Mrs. Estella around here".
