unning. Free. «Anna/Winter» As soon as I entered the office, I knew who he was, when Fraction sat me in his lap and introduced the two Alphas, I couldn't take my eyes off him. I don't think he recognised me, the last time he saw me I was n*ked, bruised and terrified out of my mind. With each blink of my eyes, I can remember the way he spoke, his accent, the way his whip landed on his Luna. Alpha Callum is the same Alpha who was at the place I was held. Not being able to sit here looking at him I jump up like I've been electrocuted. I think I say something, but I can't be sure. Winter is forcing me to get outside, she is panicking too, I run. I hear my name being called but I keep running. As soon as I feel the fresh air on my face my whole world changes. My hands are suddenly paws, my pale skin is now snow-white fur, all the colours around me have become muted. There is a whooshing sound in my ears, I see Fraction, but I can't make out what he's saying. I lower myself ready to pounce, I'm taking over before you kill our mate.' With that I am shoved to the back and Winter takes over. She runs into the trees so quickly it's almost like we are flying. As Winter weaves between trees and jumps over boulders I feel a tingling between our shoulders, we are being followed. Winter dives behind a tree and stands very still. Winter is sniffing the air trying to scent who is following us, as soon as she sees the two wolves she jumps from behind the tree. One is jet black with white socks and the other is a massive grey wolf. O Running 288 Woucher Thinking Winter is going to attack these wolves I try to tell her it's James and Patrick, before I can utter a word she darts to the right and then to the left. I can feel our tail swishing and she is putting all her weight on her front paws. The giant grey wolf shifts into a very n*ked James, Winter doesn't stop us from moving and keeps jumping from side to side. "That's enough Winter, shift back to Anna we need to talk to her." Winter keeps jumping. 'Listen to him.' I implore Winter, she just shushes me and keeps bouncing. "Winter! Enough playing, shift now!" James is using his Beta Aura to force us to shift. Wint huffs into the air and bounces off into the trees. 'Why didn't you shift?' I demand. 'I am Luna, he is Beta. He does not command us.' Winter says as she puts on a burst of speed and sails through the trees and into an open clearing. 'He's going to be so mad we did not listen to him.' I warn Winter. 'Let him be mad.' She has settled into her rump and seems to be cleaning her paws and jaw. 'Well, I don't want him mad.' 'And I didn't want to be in that room with that Alpha.' 'Winter,' I let out a big sigh 'you can't just take over like this.' 'Oh, don't get your panties in a twist I'm just stretching my paws. I'll take you back now 14.72% III 14

31 Bunning "Thank you. I will speak to Faction and maybe we can go running with Leo?" I can feel her excitement about a possible run with Leo. She turns around and starts running the way we came; we pass James and Patrick as we leave the clearing. I laugh at how James seems to skid to a stop. as he sees us fly past him. Winter takes us to the back of the packhouse. and plops down in the grass. She's breathing heavily as we watch James and Patrick come up to us, both have shifted back and put shorts "You need to shift back before Alpha comes out, he's going to be mad you ran off like that," Winter just sticks her nose in the air at Patrick's words. "Fine stay out here but don't say I didn't warn you." With that Patrick heads for the house as two warriors come out and take a seat on the front porch watching me. "That's cute, he thinks two low levels can keep us contained." Winter is laughing as she starts grooming again. "They can't?" "We are a true Omega. They think us weak and in need of help but that is not true. I can protect us if I need to." I'm shocked at her words, if we are that strong then how come all this bad stuff keeps happening to us, 'it's because you haven't shifted before. Until now we have been together but not connected as one.' 'Is that how I shifted so fast? I barely remember it.' 'Yes, I wanted out and we got out.' She sounds very smug the way she says this. Almost like she's proud of herself. 'Alright well I want to shift back now.' I try to be demanding but my voice is shaking. 26.77% O Running 'No, I want to wait for Leo.' I humph and sit back resigned to wait. 298 Voucher The sky around us starts getting darker and the warriors on the porch have gone inside, Winter stopped grooming a while ago and laid down, now she's sat up and wagging her tail. As the door opens, I see what she is excited about. The biggest wolf I have ever seen comes out of the packhouse, he's not running, he's taking his sweet time walking across the yard. Winter's tail has stopped wagging as Leo comes to a stop about an arms width from us. He is sitting on his rump and just staring at Winter, his yellow eyes are staring into ours, I feel winter tilt her head to the side, she lets out a little yap, but Leo doesn't move. With Leo sitting like an immovable stone, I feel Winter get up and take a step towards him, Leo lets out a low growl and Winter immediately sits back down. It was a warning, a warning from our Alpha, we are in deep shit. Winter lowers us to the ground and flattens her tail, Leo takes a moment and seems to accept this submission. I expect him to come over to us and greet us properly, instead he shifts back into Faction and commands. "Shift. Now!" I feel his Alpha aura pulsing out, without making the decision to do it we shift back into me. I'm sitting in the grass, holding my knees to my chest and I look at Faction through my lashes. I go to speak but he holds up his hand, I immediately stop. "Do you realise that you could have been killed today? All it would have taken is a stray rogue and my mate would have been taken from me before I even had a chance to claim her." I've never heard him like this, it's like he's trying to stop himself from shouting, "Well? What do you have to say for yourself?" "I'm sorry. I don't even remember shifting and then Winter wouldn't listen, she wouldn't shift back." I'm still not looking at him, his aura is surrounding me and making it feel like I have a hundred blankets on my shoulders, "Fraction please!" I'm almost crying. I feel the aura lessen slightly but it's still there. "And James? Why didn't Winter listen to James?" "She...she said that he is Beta and we are Luna, so we don't have to listen to him. She only came back here because I promised her, I would ask for a run with Leo." "Really? So first you disrespect two Alphas by running out of the meeting without so much as a word. You disobey your Alpha by ignoring him when he shouts, you run off on your own when you know people could be looking for you and you disrespect our Beta by ignoring his command and now you want me to let Leo run with Winter?" He started off low and grumbly but by the end he is shouting. I curl into myself worried about what he will do. "I...I..." I can't get my words out; I'm so upset because I can feel the disappointment coming off him. 'Don't! Don't defend yourself to this Alpha. you aren't part of the pack. You are not connected to them.' I start crying so suddenly that Fraction crouches down and lifts my chin with his finger. "Why are you crying?" He is still mad, but I can feel his concern for me, he doesn't want to hurt me I can see it in his eyes. "Winter said that we aren't pack so I don't have to defend myself to you." I've shocked him, he shoots to his feet and gets a blank look on his face. We stand in silence looking at each other as James and Patrick come out of the pack house and walk over to us. They both stand next to Fraction, I am now being stared at by three wolves, I can feel myself shrinking trying to make myself smaller. "Anna says she doesn't have to defend her actions as she isn't pack, so we are going to rectify that now. Ready?" Fraction speaks to Patrick and James, but he is looking directly at me. "Yes, Alpha." Both say at the same time as James hands Fraction a silver knife. "Anna on your knees." I hurry to do as he says. He moves the knife over his palm and opens a gash to let the blood flow. "I, Alpha Fraction Monroe, accept you, Anna Clem, into the Swiftmane Pack. Once you drink from my blood you will be connected. to me and the pack." He holds his hand out to me and I reach up and drink from him. For a second I feel nothing and then it's like building blocks sliding together, I can suddenly feel a string going from me to every other member in the pack. It's like a spider web connecting us all together, Fraction is stronger, his connection is more like a copper wire than a string. 'Good luck little Luna.' I hear the voice in my head and the string connecting me and James together carries his voice to me. I open my eyes and find myself alone with Fraction again, his Alpha Aura feels stronger to me now. I instantly lower myself to my butt and look at the floor. "Now that is sorted, you can tell me what happened." He sounds firm, demanding and very pissed off. "The Alpha," the words tumble from me like I have no control over my mouth, "the Alpha in your office. He was at the house I was kept in. He brought his Luna, and he made us watch as he did things to her. John said he paid for an audience." Fraction has dropped to his knees; I can feel the rage vibrating off him. me n "You're telling Alpha Callum paid for pack wolves to watch him have S*x with his Luna?" I nod my head. 2634% || 14 31 288

Woucher "I don't think he recognised me, but I knew it was him straight away." I'm crying again, tears are falling from my eyes, I don't swipe them away I let them fall. "I'm sorry Anna, I'm so sorry. If I had known, I wouldn't have been so mad. Of course, you didn't want to stay there. Come on, let's get you inside." He goes to pick me up, but I flinch away from him, I'm not sure why but his Alpha aura is still weighing me down and I can feel his anger. "Anna, I'm not going to hurt you." I look at him and I see the moment he realises he's still using his aura. Like curtains being opened I feel the aura being dragged back into him, I suddenly feel a thousand times lighter and like I can take a full breath for the first time since he came outside. I stand up and walk past him towards the house, by the time I reach the door I can feel him behind me. I ignore him and head straight. for our bedroom without caring who sees me. 21.10% 1431 Alpha pig indeed 1255 Vouchers Alpha pig indeed. «Fraction) I am exhausted. I have drunk more coffee today than I can remember. My meeting with Darryl and Callum ended up in a scream match, how we didn't come to blows is beyond me. Callum left the packhouse pissed off and without finding out Max is here; he seems to think we are spoiling for a war. Darryl left with a promise to quietly speak to the other Alpha's in the surrounding packs and that no matter what Pack Law was on my side. I had to pull my Alpha Aura out just to get Winter to shift back to Anna, I don't think she realises how strong she is, a normal Omega shouldn't be able to defy a Beta even without being sworn into the pack. Anna is beyond pissed, after she told me about Callum she got up and stormed up to our bedroom, I tried talking to her, but she refused to say one word. I left her alone to simmer down while I came to catch James up on what happened. "So, Alpha Callum is aware pack she-wolves are being held without. consent?" James is still trying to wrap his head around it. "Yup. "I pop the 'P'. I swear he has said this six or so times now. "Ok, ok...ok." He's pacing back and forth in my office, "what do we do now?" "Well, the only thing we can do is have him tried at the next Moon. Gathering. Let the Elders decide what to do with him." "Really you're going to leave this up to the Elders?" he looks surprised 000 281 Vouchers "I mean I want to rip him apart but he's a pack Alpha there are rules.

I don't like them but there it is." James plops himself on the sofa. "I guess you want me to make the call?" "If you don't mind. I fucked up with Anna tonight and I need to try and fix it. She's hurting more than she's saying." I feel weird admitting to my failures, but James is my Beta he would never judge me. "She's strong. I don't know how she did not shift in the woods. Rick even said he almost shifted." "Yeah, I don't know how that happened. I only got her to shift because I put my full force behind it. She's been through so much, that was her first shift, and she did it almost as fast as me." I don't really know how to explain what happened with Anna and Winter because I don't understand it myself. "Call doc and let him know I'm bringing Anna tomorrow for a check-up, we need to make sure everything is ok with her and her wolf." Taking her to the pack doctor is the only thing I can think of James gets up and leaves the office to get on with his tasks, I take a deep breath and then lean back in my chair. Deciding I can't sit in my office all night I head up to bed. When I get to our bedroom, I find Anna is not in our bed. I follow her scent down the hall and into her old bedroom. I quietly open the door and find her on the floor of her room going through one of her drawers. "What are you doing little wolf?" She doesn't even look at me, she seems to have found what she is looking for though. She stands up and pulls on the ugliest pair of fluffy pyjamas I have ever seen. They easily make her look three times bigger than she is, they are this eye assaulting blue colour with a giant happy face sun on the front. "Where did you get them?" I can't hide the revulsion in my voice. Again, she TH 22 1431 refuses to answer, she just sweeps past me and back to our room. I stand there staring after her for a second, I mean don't get me wrong I didn't think I was getting any tonight but to be sharing a bed with a reject from the Teletubbies is something else altogether. I begrudgingly head to the bedroom. I strip my jeans, t-shirt and socks and drop them on the floor. When I come up with my plan, I decide to forgo the shorts tonight and drop my boxer briefs. I make a show of stretching myself out ensuring Anna has a good view of my b*dy, I twist and turn like I'm trying to stretch my back. That's when I smell it, the room suddenly smells like her arousal. She couldn't hide if she wanted to, I look at her and she suddenly squeezes her eyes closed. "Like what you see little wolf?" She opens one eye and sees me staring at her before she slams it closed. I walk over to the end of the bed and stand with my feet apart and grip my member. Not tight, just nice and firm, how I like it. I start stroking myself in slow movements, my breath hitches when her eyes open and connect with mine. I get lost in her blue oceans as my breathing starts to come faster "Like what you see little wolf?" I repeat while sniffing the air, oh she likes it alright, I'm drowning in her scent. "Feel free to join in" I tell her as I swipe across my shafts end to collect my pre-come and use it as lube. I become even harder when I see her bite her lower l*p and snake her hand under the covers. Her eyes don't lose contact with mine as she gasps having made contact with her most intimate part. "Show me." I demand of her, adding a twist into my up and down motion. I use my other hand to whip the covers off her to reveal those Goddess awful pyjamas. She pulls her hand out and shimmies her bottoms down her legs and flicks them off the bed with her foot. I stop stroking myself or I will come on the spot, I kneel on the bed, not touching her just close. "Open for me," I tell her, and she does. She lets her knees drop and 42.00% Alpha pig indand there it is. The most pink and glistening prize I have ever seen. She smells even stronger here, it's all Anna. "Please." she utters one word and I'm gone. I place a hand on each knee opening her up to me even more. I leave a trail of k*sSES down her thigh leading to my prize, I deny myself and her, and work my way up her other thigh never once touching her where she wants me. "Fraction, please." She sounds like she's in pain, but I know she's not. Her hips are lifting off the bed on their own accord. "Please what? What do you need, little wolf?" I play dumb leaving k*sSES behind on her stomach with each word.. "You, I need you." With that I flatten myself on the bed trapping my erection against the sheet and dive into my prize. As soon as my tongue makes contact with her hood, I become a ravenous monster and Anna cries out in pleasure. "Yes, Fraction there!" she sounds breathless as she shouts my name. Each time I pass over her clit she makes these little whimpering sounds that are driving me insane. I'm grinding my hips on the bed, it's too much and not enough all at the same time. As I zone in on her clit, she grabs my hair in a death grip pulling me closer to her, she's gushing into my mouth and I'm drinking her down like a man dying of thirst. She is right there on the edge when I slide my second finger into her all the way to the knuckle and find her spot. I slam onto it like I'm trying to punish it. She screams my name and pulls my hair tighter as she floods my mouth. I drink down everything she has to give me; I lick her clean until she starts pushing on my head. I go back onto my knees and stroke myself three times before I shoot all over her stomach. "Anna!" I roar as I spill my seed. We are both breathing heavy as I collapse at the side of her. I turn my head to look at her, "You ok little wolf?" I ask. "I can't feel my legs." I laugh at this and lean over to k*SS her head. When I can move, I get up off the bed and head to the bathroom to get a wash rag. I come back and clean her stomach and between her legs. Having thrown the rag in the hamper I climb into bed and turn the lamp off. I lay on my back and hold my arm out, Anna wastes no time in taking her spol over my heart. She buries herself into me and just as I drift off to sleep. I realise we are skin to skin. Praction 1 Pyjamas (). about control

It's all about control. (Anna) After last night I feel closer to Fraction than I ever have, revealing part of what happened to me while John held me captive left me feeling raw and open. Like a wound I couldn't stop picking at, I saw the look in his eyes as he listened. He was repulsed by what I was telling him. Later though he showed me he is anything but repulsed by me. Just sitting here, I can feel myself getting wet just from the memory of his mouth. on me. "Little wolf, stop that. You're going to create a scene." Fraction is speaking low into my ear. I turn and see all the males in the doctors waiting room are suddenly sniffling the air. Some are looking directly at me, and others are pointedly trying not to look and failing. Sitting here in this stuff blue plastic chair I can't help but squeeze my legs, together in the vain hope of some relief, Fraction's hand lands on my leg. "Stop. Once we have seen the doctor, I will help you with this... issue." I can see the grin on his face, the hand on my leg is doing nothing to stop my arousal. Just as I'm about to pounce on him here. and now in the doctors waiting room my name is called. Fraction takes my hand in his and leads the way into a small office. It's very simple, it has a wooden desk, a chair for the doctor and two for the patients, an examination bed and a privacy curtain. I take a seat and Fraction takes the one beside me, we wait for Doctor Lee to finish typing on his computer. "Sorry about the wait, Luna. I had a female go into early labour." Doctor Lee says as he turns to face me. 0.001 III "Oh, is she and the pup, ok?" I don't know everyone in the pack, but early labour isn't always a good thing with wolves, so I am still concerned for the female. "She and the pups are very well. Sometimes when it's twins, they don't like to wait." He clasps hands on his knee, "Now what can I do for you?" I turn to Fraction, he is the one who insisted we come here, to be honest I feel great. My wounds have healed. I'm no longer looking like a dot to dot thanks to the bruises being gone. I'm not overly sure why we are here. "Yesterday Anna shifted for the first time, it was very quick. Almost as quick as me and Bela James." I listen to Fraction, is it so abnormal that I shifted so fast? "When James demanded she shift back her wolf refused, I had to extend my aura to get her to shift back." "And how did you wolf feel about shifting back Anna?" The doctor is scribbling notes in a little pad as we speak. "Erm, well she didn't want to." The doctor looks at me in surprise, “I sort of had to bribe her with a run with Leo if she took us back.” “Ok, and have you spoken to her since?” “No.” “Ok Anna, if you wouldn’t mind jumping up onto the bed, I am going to take your vitals and draw some blood.” I do as Doctor Lee says and wait patiently while he listens to my heart, checks my blood pressure, shines a light in my eyes and ears and finally draws what I think must be about half of my blood. “Alright Anna, you can jump down now.” We all sit in silence while Doctor Lee labels all of the blood samples, in actual fact he only took four vials, so not quite all of my blood. 1288 Vouchers “So, Anna’s vitals seem all within normal range. Her blood pressure is a little high, but I think we can attribute that to being here, we call it white coat syndrome.” He offers me a reassuring smile, “Now I don’t expect to find anything, but I will send your blood for testing just to be sure nothing has been missed. I honestly think the disconnect between Anna and her wolf is a physiological one rather than medical.” “You’re saying I have finally gone crazy?” Fraction clasps my hand. “I don’t think the doctor is saying that at all, right doc?” He looks at the doctor in a way that says, fix this before she breaks. “Of course not. I just mean that this was your first shift. Most wolves have had years to connect with their wolves and then shifted multiple times by the age you are now.” The doctor walks over to this tidy little bookshelf and selects a book, “this is a book about Omegas. You might find it useful; it also explains a lot about how wolves can feel disconnected from their human part. I suggest shifting more often in a safe environment.” He nods towards Fraction, “possibly with your mate around. Most wolves are calmer and more amenable when with their mate.” “Alright.” I stand and so does Fraction. “If either of you have any more questions please don’t hesitate to come back.” We both nod and leave the doctor’s office in silence. We are both quiet as we drive back to the packhouse, I notice for the first time that the pack land looks different since I left. The houses once neat and well cared for are starting to look shabby and unkept. The ice cream parlour is closed, and the school looks abandoned. There is barely anyone walking the street. “What happened?” I say aloud. “The pack has fallen into a state of depression, at least that’s what 44 60% 14:32 James calls it.” I look at Fraction and I can see his jaw tighten and his hands grip the steering wheel harder. “When you were taken, we lost 26 families as they felt I couldn’t keep them safe. The families and single wolves who stayed seem to have lost the enthusiasm they once had.” “The pack needs healing.” “I don’t disagree little wolf.” “I want to help. If I’m going to be Luna, I want to help with healing.” I tell Fraction as I watch the coffee shop shutters come down. “There is no ‘if’, you are Luna. Once my mark is on you it will just make it official.” “Well then we should get on with the marking.” “Slow down little wolf. You’re not ready.” Well, that’s annoying, I cross my arms and slump back in my seat. As we arrive at the packhouse we see Patrick running down from the porch, we both jump out of the car quickly and meet him on the grass. "What's happened?" Fraction demands in his Alpha tone. "Rogues on the south border." Patrick doesn't stop, he just runs straight for his own car. Fraction puts a kiss to my forehead and says, "head on in i'm going to check this out. I'll be back soon." "Be safe." I whisper to his retreating form. I head into the house and decide that while Fraction is out, I will go. and take a nice long bubble bath. As soon as I open our bedroom the smell of artificial sunflowers assaults my nose, I sneeze and crinkle my nose against it. After I close the door, I realise there is a very attractive. all about control. red headed female on our bed. She thinks I'm a servant. "Well you are waiting for him in my bed." I cross my arms over my chest and stare at her. "Please get dressed and leave." "You can't command me to leave. I've been away for a while so I'm sure Alpha wants to see me, it's been a while for both of us." "You and Alpha? You're together?" I can't believe what I'm hearing. Once my mark is on you it will just make it official." "Well then we should get on with the marking" "Slow down little wolf. You're not ready." Well, that's annoying, I cross my arms and slump back in my seat. As we arrive at the packhouse we see Patrick running down from the porch. we both jump out of the car quickly and meet him on the grass. "What's happened?" Fraction demands in his Alpha tone, "Rogues on the south border." Patrick doesn't stop, he just runs straight for his own car. Fraction puts a k*ss to my forehead and says, "head on in i'm going to check this out. I'll be back soon." "Be safe." I whisper to his retreating form. I head into the house and decide that while Fraction is out, I will go and take a nice long bubble bath. As soon as I open our bedroom the smell of artificial sunflowers assaults my nose, I sneeze and crinkle my nose against it. After I close the door, I realise there is a very attractivel CA 79% || red headed female on our bed. She has pale skin, almost like snow, she is wearing a bright red lace bralette and matching thong. She has the most piercing green eyes I have even seen. She just looks at me with her head tilted. "Erm...can I help?" I say to the female bed invader. "Oh, I'm just waiting for the Alpha, I don't need anything you can leave." She has a voice like silk, it just rolls over me like a soft caress... She thinks I'm a servant. "Well you are waiting for him in my bed." I cross my arms over my chest and stare at her. "Please get dressed and leave." "You can't command me to leave. I've been away for a while so I'm sure Alpha wants to see me, it's been a while for both of us." "You and Alpha? You're together?" I can't believe what I'm hearing. "Of course we are silly," she giggles like a child, "who are you anyway?" "I'm his mate."

Vixens come with blue eyes. (Anna) “Bullshit. Alpha has no mate, that’s why I’ve been warming his bed for the last two years.” I feel sick as the female makes this claim. I mean I never thought of Fraction as a monk but the idea he was sleeping with this female while I was being held captive is making me feel ill. I turn my back on her, I can’t look at her flawless skin anymore. “Who are you?” I say to the wall. “Are you deaf I just told you.” “No, you told me what you are but what’s s your name?” “Sarah, I’m Sarah I’m...” “The pack whore.” I’m shocked at this statement and even more. shocked it came from James. I was so busy trying not to rip Sarah apart for even thinking she could touch my mate. “Sarah, you were told not to come here anymore.” “Awww James, we both know I give Alpha what he needs.” She’s not on the bed anymore instead she is sliding herself up to James, honestly, I think if I wasn’t here, she would be humping his leg. I make a sound of disgust in the back of my throat, “don’t hate on me honey. It’s not my fault/the women want to be me, and the men want to fuck me.” I can’t keep the shocked look off my face, this woman ist horrid. She somehow made ‘fuck’ sounds both S*xy and disgusting at the same time. 0.00% “Enough Sarah! Now get dressed and get out before Alpha gets back. He won’t be happy about you antagonising his mate.” James is angrier than I have ever heard him as he gives her a push to get off him. “Don’t, I’ll go.” I tell Sarah. “Anna...” It’s a warning from James. “Oh, don’t worry, I’m just going to Fraction’s office. I’m not going to go running off again.” I leave the room and hurry down to the office to await Fraction. I can still hear James shouting at Sarah about respect and boundaries. «Fraction>> Standing outside my office door I try to brace myself for the shitshow that is about to come my way. After leaving Rick to deal with the rogues, which were just that, some random rogues, I came home and found James and Sarah having a screaming match. Sarah, what a mistake she was. I tried to be good and wait for Anna but I’m a 28-year-old man, my hand only interested me for so long. I made it clear to her what it was between us, I needed S*x and she wanted S*x. Done deal, Apparently not, James told me Anna went into our bedroom and came. face to face with my red headed mistake. About a year ago I sent Sarah away, she had met her mate and he belonged to a different pack. I have no idea why she’s back and I don’t care. I have a mate now. “Little wolf?” I say quietly as I enter my office. Anna is curled up on the sofa with the Omega book Doctor Lee gave her. “Little wolf.” I say again and this time she looks up. She closes the book and places it on the coffee table. “All done with the rogues?” She doesn’t sound mad, interesting. I 26-30% 14.32 decide to see where she is leading with this. I walk over and sit in my chair and face her with a smile on my face. “All sorted. Just some lost wolves, Rick is showing them the way back.” As if, more liking making sure their graves won’t be found by random animals. “That’s good. Have you eaten? I think Momma Beth is making steaks.” I nod affirmative, I keep looking at her. She hasn’t moved a muscle since I came into the room. “Alright let’s have it.” “Have what?” She’s going for the doe eyed innocent look and it isn’t working for her. Anna is many things, but innocent is one of them. “I know you met Sarah.” “Oh, was that her name? I’ve just been calling her the red headed she whore.” I burst out laughing. I see a smile try to form on her face before she schools her features. “Red headed she whore. Well little wolf, you are not wrong there.” “I only have two questions.” She has stood up and come to stand to the side of the chair I’m sitting in. I simply nod as I would give this woman. anything. “Do you still want her?” “No.” Anna climbs into my lap facing me, my cock jerks in my jeans as I feel her press down on me. “Do you still want me?” She adds a small grind and wiggle as her pussy connects with the outline of my cock. I gasp, “Yes!” I place my hands on her hips and to aid her movements. She does a few more 59.53% 14:32 bounces and I try to capture her mouth, she leans away and holds herself more firmly into my lap. My cock is going to have zipper marks on it after this rate. “Good” She whispers in my ear and then the little vixen jumps off my lap and heads to the door. “smells like the steaks are ready” And with that she’s gone. I just blink my eyes and stare at her departing, “What the fuck!?” I shout. She teases me to the point I am pretty sure I’ve made a mess of my boxers and then leaves. Oh, she’s going to get it now. I stand up, readjust myself and head to the kitchen. O Tree running

Free running. (Anna) Have you ever tried to flirt over steak, potatoes and salad? Better yet add in James, Patrick and Momma Beth and you have one heck of an awkward dinner. As soon as I entered the kitchen Patrick and James. turned to me and tried to hide their smiles. Great we all get to smell me while eating, urgh kill me now. Fraction comes running up behind me. and grabs me by the shoulders as I try to take my seat; “we aren’t done little wolf.” I simply bat my eyes at him and take my seat. You know that saying ‘don’t poke a sleeping bear’ well it should really be ‘don’t tease a grown Alpha’. At first, I was going to chew him out about Sarah but the longer I sat in his office I realised it's not his fault she was there. I read a passage in the Omega book Doctor Lee gave me and it really changed how I look at Fraction. **Omegas are rare, even rarer is their compatibility with the opposite S*x. When an Alpha and Omega mate they will always mate for life. The Alpha will no more be able to harm his Omega than he is to change the colour of the sky. Infidelity is never seen between an Alpha. and Omega; they are one in every sense. Once mated you will never find a stronger pair.** I smile to myself remembering the passage, it's made me see mine and Fractions connection in a whole new light. Momma Beth has outdone. herself tonight, but I am so full, she gave me two massive steaks, a whole side of chive infused potatoes and a huge helping of salad. While Momma Beth is chatting to James about his sister, I discreetly slide one of my steaks onto Fraction's plate. He doesn't bat an eye and just gobbles it down like he's never eaten before. I am completely zoned out when I hear my name and get brought into the conversation. 0.00% III 14:33 "I want me, Anna and Rick to go to the Moon Gathering. James II need you here." I hear Fraction say, I have no idea what a Moon. Gathering is. "I understand, I will get tents sorted for you all. Will two be enough?" James looks at me as he says this. "Well unless Fraction has suddenly had a desire to have Rick join our bed then I'm guessing, yes two please." Patrick laughs at this as Fraction growls. I pat his knee to try and soothe the sting my joke sent. "Sorry but what exactly is a Moon Gathering?" Momma Beth gets up from the table and starts dishing up blueberry pie and coffee, once she is done, she sits down and says, "Moon Gatherings are amazing. As the name suggests it happens under the moon, usually the full moon. It's where we pay homage to the Moon. Goddess, a long time ago we would use the Gathering's as a way to bring new members and even Luna's into packs. That time has passed now," Momma Beth is twirling her locket necklace as she speaks, "Me and Henry's father were mated and wedded at a Moon Gathering." I reach over the table and take her hand, losing a mate is never easy on a wolf, "Now they are used like a court of law among shifters. It helps us keep the peace between packs, any and all crimes are handled by the Elders there." "Oh, I never realised such a thing happened." I was amazed at how beautiful it all sounded. "It's amazing Anna, you will love it! All the packs in one spot, all sharing space and because of all the wolves many find their mates at Moon Gatherings. A lot of packs take their unmated with them to aid them in finding their mates." Momma Beth says. "Will we be taking some?" I ask the table. 2729% O 1433 1288 Vouche "Yes, little wolf we have twelve females and four males all wanting to come and see if they can find their mates." Fraction sounds proud that he's able to help so many wolves. "Now if we are all done, me and Anna have plans tonight," Fraction stands from the table and holds his hand out to me. I don't know what plans he has but I'm intrigued. As we get closer to the bottom of the garden Fraction lets go of my hand and starts to strip. I figure out pretty quickly that he wants me to shift when suddenly Fraction is gone and I'm standing next to a massive black wolf. I drop my pants and shirt and let Winter take over. I immediately feel her shove me to the back as she stands up and waits. Leo comes towards us and sniffs behind our left car, where the mating mark should go. He snuffs and draws a big wet tongue up Winter's fur. He then takes his head and trails along her side, around her rear and ends with the two tails swishing together. As far as hellos go I think it was pretty good. Leo yips like a pup and bounds off into the woods. with Winter hot on his tail. 'Can you keep up little one? I hear Fraction over the mind link. I just laugh which comes out like a series of yips. I'm not sure how long we have been running for. I just know I have never felt this free. Eventually we come across a stream and stop for a drink, the cool water feels so refreshing being lapped up on a giant pink tongue. A short while later Fraction is leading us back to the packhouse. That's when I smell it, it's a small mark on one of the trees but I would know that smell anywhere. I sniff it again to be sure and Winter stops and yips at Leo to get his attention. Fraction, here. Smell.' He walks back towards us and sniffs the spot. that got my attention. 'That's not a pack member.' Fraction says after a few seconds 'It's John, he's been here.' 53 10% 14.33 'Alright. Quickly back to the packhouse. Don't look back and don't shift. Just run.' I don't look back to see if Fraction is with us. I do exactly as he instructed. I will Winter to run faster and faster until we are suddenly outside the packhouse door. I watch as Leo shifts into Fraction, he makes it look as easy as breathing. N*ked and uncaring he quickly opens the door and hurries Winter inside. "RICK!" The bellow Fraction let out hurts Winter's sensitive wolf ears. He ruffles her fur as an apology, Patrick suddenly appears in front of us out of breath. "About 20 minutes west there is a free marked with a scent. Anna said it's her brother. Take a patrol and do a full sweep. I want everyone out tonight in case he's still here." Rick doesn't answer, he just runs out of the door. "Alright Winter, as beautiful as you are, can I have Anna hack now?" I feel Winter swipe her wet tongue up the side of his face before giving me back control. "She let me do it this time." "Easier?" Fraction asks as he helps me to stand. "Much. Erm...can we go find some clothes?" Fraction laughs, picks me up in his arms and carries me to our bedroom.

Make me yours. (Anna) Fraction carries me to our bed and carefully puts me down, "I'll be right back. I just need to grab some shorts." I grab his hand as he turns away from me and pull just slightly. "Please don't. Stay with me." He squeezes my hand and leans down to place a small k*ss on my l*ps. "I'll be right back." He whispers. "No, stay with me like this." I whisper back and pull him back to k*ss me more deeply. I watch as the realisation of what I have asked for becomes apparent to him. "Are you sure you're ready. little wolf?" His voice has taken on a seductive edge as he continues to place k*sses down my neck. I pull him down by his neck so he's flush against my b*dy. "I didn't know how much I wanted this until now. I want to be yours. I want to give myself to you, only you." Fractions eyes darken before he cups the back of my head and takes my mouth with his. I open my mouth to him so our tongues can caress each other. He settles himself between my legs forcing them to open. further for him. I can feel him growing against me, making my centre. throb, I want to speed him up, but I have no idea what I'm doing so I figure I'll let him do the leading. Sure, I've dry humped him and masturbated with him but when it comes to the actual act. I'm clueless. He leaves my mouth and starts trailing k*sses up and down my neck, "I'm going to mark you tonight, Anna." He says in a low seductive voice. His k*sses have started going further down, as he reaches my breasts. he grabs one in his hand and puts the other in his mouth. My b*dy goes into overdrive as he sucks and licks on one nipple while rolling the other in between his fingers, every now and again adding a twist. and pinch. After a little bit he switches breasts and repeats the actions. Moving once he has made sure both breasts have had equal attention, he sl*ps lower, and he leaves k*sses as he goes. He grabs my thighs, spreads me open and he admires my centre. His green eyes are on mine as he lowers his head. His tongue darts out. to attack my clit and my hips buck up on their own accord. He secures me in place and continues his attack, his eyes never leaving mine. As I get close to my orgasm, I grip the sheets and close my eyes. "Eyes Anna, give me your eyes." He growls at me. My eyes snap open as my orgasm hits, "Fraction!" his tongue works overtime to fully drink me down. He doesn't miss a drop. "That's it anna, give it all to me," Fraction coaxes. I try to push on his head, I'm sensitive after my orgasm but he seems determined to get another out of me. I can feel his tongue moving in and out of me and then he starts sucking on my clit when my second orgasm of the night hits, "Goddess.... Fraction!" "Mmmmmm," he moans as he laps up every drop. I can see the smile on his face, his face is shiny thanks to my orgasms, he slowly sl*ps his fingers into me "Goddess, you're so wet now Anna." He adds another finger trying to stretch me. I can feel him scissor his finger right before. he curls them and steals another orgasm from me. "That's it Anna, I own these orgasms. By the end of the night the whole pack will know who you belong to." He doesn't slow his movements until I stop spasming from my last orgasm. "Fraction..." I don't even know what to say, I'm covered in sweat, and I have never felt this stated and worked up all at the same time. "I've got you little wolf," I close my eyes as I feel the head of him slide through my folds, "open your eyes, Anna. I want you to watch as I make you mine." I watch his face as he kneels up and lifts my left leg while he lines his cock up with my entrance. He then lifts my other leg, spreading me open as he pushes into me slowly. He's looking down while biting his bottom l*p, he's watching himself enter me. I feel him pull back a little before he slowly pushes in again, he does this a few times until we both feel it. He's at my barrier. He looks back at me, he looks like he wants to do anything but stop, "Are you sure Anna?" "Fraction. I'm yours." I reply breathlessly. I squeak at the slight pinch of pain as he bursts through my barrier, the pain quickly disappears, he's now fully buried inside of me. He takes my mouth in a deep k*ss, not moving, he's waiting for me to be ready. "So tight, feels even better than I thought it would," he says into my mouth. I don't say anything, I just start moving my hips. Fraction lets out a small growl and I see his eyes shift to yellow for just a second. Leo is here with us, I feel Winter makes herself known. All four of us are here. Fraction replaces my legs on his hips, and it isn't long before he's picking up the pace. hands I'm letting out little moans of pleasure when Fraction takes my legs. and puts them on his shoulders, he seems deeper this way. I grip his hair in my and bring him down for a k*ss. "Feels so good, fuck! Yes! Fraction!" I let him go and grip the sheets, I can feel my breasts. moving with every thrust. I feel his hand snake between us and push on my clit, my orgasm is so sudden I start screaming incoherent words and tearing at the sheet beneath us. Fraction slams into me a final time and roars his orgasm, he's shouting. my name as I feel the warmth of his seed enter me. I don't see him. strike as he latches onto my neck and his fangs slice into my skin, he's drinking from me and licking the skin clean. When he is done, I strike 1433 and let Winter take over, my teeth turn into fangs, and I slice into the skin of his neck. I feel his cock jerk inside of me as soon as I break the skin. With a few final lazy thrusts Fraction pulls out of me and drops to the side pulling me onto him. I can feel us mixing together between my legs, I should get up and clean myself but right now with my head on his heart I can't seem to care. I vaguely recall a wet washcloth between my legs and being covered in a blanket, I'm in between awake and asleep when I feel Fraction k*ss my head and whisper "I love you, Anna." 90.31%
