That's Luna to you. (Anna) I wake up with the sun shining in my eyes, I have a delicious soreness between my legs reminding me of what we did last night. After mating each other we dosed and I woke up to Fractions mouth on me, this led to round two. By the time the sun was rising we had hit round four and I lost count of how many orgasms the man had given me. "Little wolf, come have a bath with me. "I can hear Fraction, calling to me from the bathroom. Little splashes of water follow his voice. I slowly climb out of bed and make my way to the bathroom. Fraction looks amazing surrounded by a mass amount of bubbles. His beard and hair are wet, there are little drops of water dripping from his hair and rolling down his chiselled tattooed chest. I smirk at him and climb into the tub placing myself with my back to his chest and my butt between his legs. Using a sponge he gathers up some water and spills it down my chest. I gasp at the warmth, "how long have you been awake?" I ask leaning back. "Long enough to run a bath," he starts running his hand between my legs, "sore little wolf?" "A little." I say with a slight flinch. "Let's go eat " With that we both get out of the tub, dry and dress for the day. We head to the kitchen when we hear the shouting, it sounds like someone is screaming at Momma Beth. 0.00% 07.05 That's Luna i "How about you just step aside and let me go see my man," a shrill voice shouts, I know that voice. "You have been told by the Alpha and Beta you are not welcome here." Momma Beth is giving back as good as she gets. We turn into the kitchen and see Sarah, in all her flawless redheaded glory, standing in a shout off with Momma Beth. "Sarah, what are you doing here?" Both women turn to look at us. Momma Beth lets off a squeal of delight and comes to hug me while Sarah starts screeching even louder. "You marked her?! How could you do that? How could you do this to me?" I've got to hand it to her. She sounds like she's truly upset. Fraction pinches his nose between his eyes and lets out a sigh. "Yes, I marked my mate. Now what are you doing here? I thought you left to go be with Jeb?" "He rejected me! He didn't want an Alphas cast offs and he sent me back here! I come here and find you in bed with this child!" I feel my eyes widen. "Excuse me but I'm not a child, I'm Fraction's mate." I say while holding Fractions hand. "Puuuurlease," she drags the word out, "I can give him about a hundred things you can't, little girl." A loud growl follows her statement. "That's Luna to you!" Fraction is mad, I can feel Leo growling, it's sending vibrations through his whole b*dy. "Now I suggest you leave the packhouse before I banish you from the pack completely.” I watch as Sarah flinches at this. If she was rejected by her mate and then banished from here that’s two packs she can’t go to and many of the others won’t take her on that fact alone. She quickly kneels and bows. 15.46% 111 That’s Luna to you her head, “I’m sorry Alpha. Please forgive me.” She’s pleading for her space in the pack. Fraction looks at me, he’s silently asking if I can live with this wolf around. “Sarah, please stand.” She bolts straight up and looks shocked it’s me addressing her and not Fraction. Fraction stands slightly back and allows me to stake my claim as Luna. “You will do as Fraction says. and not come back to the packhouse until you are summoned. I am the Alpha’s true mate and I will not allow any further disrespect,” I don’t know where the words are coming from, it’s like they are falling out of me. “I am sorry your mate rejected you, your pack will not reject you too.” “Thank you Luna.” She offers a slight bow and leaves through the back door. “Wow! Anna, where did that come from?” Momma Beth sounds. shocked. I turn to look at her. “I have no idea.” Fraction walks over and k*sses my head. “I think Winter had something to do with it. Your eyes were yellow the whole time.” I turn to face Fraction reaching up to feel my eyes. “They were?” He nods and leads me to the kitchen table where I am just noticing bacon sandwiches are awaiting us. Fraction and his mother are chatting about the Luna Ceremony, this will officially announce me as Luna to the pack and our allies. I block them out as I try to come to terms with Winter speaking through me. She has never done that before, if it wasn’t for Fraction I wouldn’t even realise that is what happened. I didn’t feel her take over, it didn’t feel like I was shoved to the back, it was almost like we were one person. ‘Winter?’ I say to my wolf. 33 90% ‘I’m here Anna’ “Why did you say those things to Sarah?” I ask. ‘She had to be told. We are Luna and she needs to understand that. You did not have the words so I supplied them.’ Winter says as if it explains why she just took over me. ‘Could you maybe give me a heads up next time?’ I ask her. ‘If you wish.’ Her tone is bored as if she doesn’t see why she has to consult me. “Winter have anything interesting to say, little wolf?” Fraction interrupts our conversation. “Just coming to an understanding.” I take a deep drink of my orange juice. “Can we talk about the females and when we are going to get them? And what about Max?” “Slow down,” Fraction takes our dishes to the skin and comes to sit down, I realise Momma Beth is gone. “Max is coming to the Moon Gathering with us. I will challenge him in front of the Elders. We are going to get some of the other packs to help us and we are going to go. and get the females after the Moon Gathering.” “Can’t we go before?” I hate that I am happy here and they are stuck there. “We need more numbers, most if not all of the females are from packs. so I’m betting a lot of them will help us.” “I understand I just wish we could go now, I’m worried for them. Eliza and Eve mostly but all of them too.”

Fraction grabs my hand. "We will get them Anna. All of them." I believe him. 52.45- 0 07:06 m "When do we leave for the Moon Gathering?" "This Friday morning and we should arrive around noon on Sunday." I can't help the look of disgust, that's a lot of car time. (Fraction) I begrudgingly leave Anna with my mother when James reaches through the mind link that we have visitors at the border. I jump in my SUV and travel to where James told me he and three warriors are waiting. As I pull up, I can see twelve wolves that don't belong to the pack. I wait as James comes running over to the car, "Twelve all together, three pups, six females and three males. Say they are from The Whiteridge Pack and have come for protection." Interesting. Whiteridge is Callum's pack, I walk over to the group, "which of you is the spokesperson?" A well-built male stands forward, he has wide shoulders, hair closely cropped to his head and has an aura about him that makes me think he's a warrior if not THE warrior. "Alpha, my name is Dan. I am...sorry, was the Head Warrior for Alpha Callum of the Whiteridge Pack. We have travelled here having heard of your pack from many other wolves." He has a strong accent, maybe notes of French bleeding through. "Does Callum know you have come here?" I ask Dan. "No, Alpha. He does not. I gathered my mate and two pups and left in the night. The others with us are ones that the Alpha and Luna terrorised with their odd and unusual brand of punishment." He sees the question in my eyes, "they take the females in the pack and use them to please their own Sual fetishes. Over the years they have gotten worse and more open about the punishments. Alpha Callum, he killed a pup in the centre of the pack. She was rumoured to have been the Alpha Heirs mate, but the Alpha did not agree. The poor pup was taken by so many males she died." I'm so disgusted I have no words for 67.91% 07.06 a moment. Alphas are meant to protect and fight for the weak and young, not allow them to be killed in such a hideous way. "I'm sorry you had to endure this. We can talk more at the packhouse, If you would all follow James, I will meet you there and swear in the adults, I don't allow pups to be sworn in until they are of age." I turn to the group and point at James. I hear multiple "Thank you!" "Thank you, Alpha!" as the group follows James. I stop Dan for a moment. "Just so you know I have a Head Warrior and I have no interest in replacing him." I wanted him to know the job wasn't open. "Of course. Alpha. I have heard of Patrick, and I would not think to take his job. I look forward to maybe working with him?" "We can look into that." Dan heads off with the other as I jump back in the SUV. Things are getting messy with Callum: I'm concerned for how the Moon Gathering will go. I think I'm going to bring more warriors just in case. 111

Sleepless night. (Anna) It has been a long day: Fraction took in a group from Alpha Callum's pack. I made sure the pups and women were all fed, cleaned and looked after while he talked to the males in his office. When they finally emerged, the sun had already set, and the pups were settled in my old room. Fraction looked tense and refused to talk about what was said. I got a very gruff 'Later.' when I asked him about it. He asked me to go up to our room and start packing for the Moon Gathering as he and James went into the office. That was almost three hours ago and now I'm bored. I decide to go and see if Fraction is anywhere near done. I tiptoe down to his office very much like I did the night I was taken. Again, I didn't meet anyone on my way down, it must be a little later than I thought. 'Go back to the room Anna.' I hear Winter scold me. 'No! I'm his Luna and I'm sick of being picked up and placed where he wants. He can either come to bed or tell me what is going on.' I reply to her. 'Fine but nothing good ever happens when we wander around alone.' I mean she's not wrong but I'm not going to tell her that. When I get to the office door, I realise I can hear James even though the door is closed. This door is reinforced so people can't listen in on the Alpha's meeting. I don't know how I can hear them but listen. unashamedly. 0706 "What about Sarah, did you get rid of her?" I hear Fraction ask. "Yeah, she won't be an issue anymore. You should have let me do that from the start." James responds in a low voice. "I don't like using such a heavy hand, but I won't have her upsetting, Anna. Did the checks on Dan and the others come back ok?" I can't help but wonder what they did to Sarah, sure she pissed me off, but I don't want her to come to any harm. I hear some papers rustling as James answers. "Yeah, they all check out. My concern is what he told you about Callum. If he's really helping the rogues capture these females, he's going to have a lot of packs after him." "We have no proof, only the word of a deserter Head Warrior. His word won't be counted in front of the Elders." I lean slightly closer not wanting to miss anything. I hear the clink of ice on glass and assume Fraction just poured himself a whiskey. "What about Anna? What Dan is claiming is crazy, could it be true?" "I don't know yet. If she really was sold as a child, then she could have a family out there. If it's true it means Callum is not only helping capture females for rogues but he's also selling pups." I gasp, clasp my hand over my mouth. I can't believe what I just heard. Sold? Me! 'Demand answers! Now!' Winter demands. I don't think as I open the office door and look at the two stunned men before me. James is sitting on the sofa surrounded by papers and a half empty glass of whiskey. Fraction is sitting in his chair looking straight at me like he's seen a ghost. "Anna! What are you doing?" Fraction demands, his tone has taken on an edge of anger. III 02 06 "What do you mean I was sold?" I shout, I didn't mean to shout, it just came out like that. Fraction stands and grips the desk, "were you listening at the door?" "Of course, I was. You don't tell me anything and just demand I go where you tell me. Now tell me, what do you mean I was sold?" James' s eyes are going back and forth between us like he's watching a tennis match. "Anna, maybe you should have a seat." James tries to interrupt the coming argument. "Shut up James." me and Fraction both snap at the same time. "Anna, I only have limited information right now. I was going to tell you when I have more." Fraction is pleading with me to listen but I'm too angry. Winter is egging me on to test my limits. I walk closer to him so there is only a desk between us. "I gave you everything and you still can't tell me anything. If you can't tell me what you meant about me being sold, maybe you can tell me what you had done to Sarah." Fraction sputters, "Sarah is gone, she won't be a problem anymore." "You killed her?" I can't believe what I'm hearing "Is that what you think of me? You think I just go around killing females? If you think so low of me, you can leave my office. Get out!" Fraction is shouting at me; I've never seen this side of him before. "Fraction...I..." "Out now!" With his Alpha aura pulsing I have no choice but to obey. I run from the room crying. 30.48% OT DE (Fraction) I watch my mate flee the room and I am flooded with instant regret. I go after her the second she is out of sight. I should have reassured her that of course we didn't kill Sarah. I banished her from the pack when I got wind, she was going to challenge Anna at her Luna Ceremony. Anna is amazing but she is not ready for a challenge, she barely knows. how to defend herself let alone fight in a challenge. She would be killed, and I would be forced to allow it. Sure, Sarah could come back and challenge Anna, but she would have to get past my patrols to do it. I let out a shout of fury as I realised Anna has not run upstairs like I expected, she has left the house. She knows not to leave the house for any reason alone. I see her clothes on the porch and shift into Leo knowing I need to find Winter now. 'Winter...where are you?' I call out back. I have been running in the wood he mind link. I get nothing for about 20 minutes when I come upon a small clearing. The pack sometimes uses this area to teach the pups how to shift. It's nice and enclosed and it gathers all the sun on a warm day. It's a beautiful spot for your first shift. I see her at the far end of the clearing as we enter. She has her hackles up and it takes me a minute to realise it's not aimed at Leo. 2D wolf With a big sniff I smell them. I instantly hand over to Leo to allow him. to defend our Luna. Leo instantly put himself between Winter and the massive brown wolf coming her way. I send out an alert over our mind link to Rick and the warriors to come and help us. As the starts to advance on us, I realise Winter is snarling at something. There are three more wolves in the clearing now. A quick sniff confirms what I thought, these wolves are not Pack. Leo lunges at the same time the brown wolf does, we both get knocked off to the side and come up snarling. Leo's paw is wet with blood, so I got him somewhere. Not enough though as he is still coming at me. I hear Winter yelp and I turn to see what happened when I feel it. A 07.06 sharp sting in my side followed by four more. Leo is swiping his claw but not hitting anything. It feels like I have been drinking for days without a break. Without even meaning to I shift back into myself, I drop to the floor unable to move. "Good work lads, we got my stain of a sister back. And bagged an Alpha. Let's get out of here before his Warriors show up." I don't know where the voice is coming from, I can't see who is speaking. I try to get. up, but my b*dy won't listen to me. I feel a hand on my arm and another sting and then nothing. (Anna) 'Fraction? Wake up!' I shout for maybe the third time over our mind- link. I don't really know what happened. I remember being upset and needing some time alone, so I had Winter take us back to the clearing we found. I recall seeing Leo walk towards me as I saw the other wolf entering the clearing, Leo jumped in front of us, trying to protect us. Just as Leo lunged at the wolf, I felt a series of stings in my ass and then everything went black. When I woke up, I found myself in the same cell that haunts my nightmares. The cells either side of me are empty but the fresh smell of blood tells me this is a recent thing. When I looked outside of the cage, that's when I saw him. Fraction is hanging from the ceiling by his arms. He has a bag over his head and blood is dripping to the floor from a wound I can't quite make out. Since I woke up. I've been trying to speak to him, but he isn't answering my mind link which can only mean he's still unconscious. The cells seem emptier than the last time I was here. I can still make out the form of some females but nowhere near as many as when I was last here. I feign sleep when I hear the basement door open. I hear someone come down the stairs. I hear the crying of a woman and then I hear a cell door closing. I stay still pretending to be asleep as I listen to the person leave the basement. 65 45% 07.06 Sleepless night 285

Woche "Anna?!" I hear Eliza whisper. I shoot up into a sitting position and look at her. She looks even thinner than before. Her eyes look so gaunt they look like cartoons. "Eliza, what have they done to you?" I can't get over my shock, sure she was a mess when I left but now, she looks like she's one foot in the grave. "Your brother didn't take too kindly to you being bought. Me and Eve," her tears are rolling thick and fast, "he said we would bear your punishment for leaving him." "Goddess, Eliza I'm so sorry! If I had known, I would have made Fraction come back sooner!" "Is that him?" She points to Fraction who is still hanging from the ceiling showing no signs of waking up. "Yes, turns out he's, my mate." I'm blushing, even here in this cell I'm still able to blush, they can't take everything from us. "What did they do to him? Is he still alive?" "Yes, he's breathing, his chest is moving but I think they have drugged him. He's been out as long as I have been awake." My eyes stare fixedly on Fraction rising and falling chest. "Goddess, if they can take down a fully grown Alpha then I dread to think what else they can do." Eliza says quietly. We both look at the ceiling when we hear shouting. There are multiple voices shouting at once so I can't make out what's being said. "If he's an Alpha he has a pack, right?" Eliza says, I can hear the hope in her voice. 07:06 "Yes they will come. I know it" My eyes flick between Fraction and the ceiling The Masing Alpha 1288 Vouc B

The Missing Alpha. (Patrick) Someone has taken our Alpha, we heard him call for help but by the time we got there all we could find was the smell of five wolves, our Luna's scent and that of our Alpha. Dan found a tranquiliser gun near a tree, which tells us how they managed to take down our Alpha. It takes alot to overpower a newly mated Alpha but if you shoot enough tranquillisers into them, they will fall and stay down as long as you keep pumping them with the toxin. James is sitting in Fraction's office trying to call the other Alphas for aid, I don't understand why we don't just go now. I know for a fact they will have gone back to that farmhouse; they have no idea we know where it is so they will have no need to move. From the tone of voice coming from James it doesn't sound like he's having much luck. Darryl answered the call straight away and said he would meet us at the farmhouse with his warriors. That wasn't very shocking though, Darryl and Fraction go way back. "Damn it!" James slams the handset back on the base. "Only two Alphas will come to help. The others say they can't be there due to some bullshit reasons. It's all because of this Callum shit!" "Can't we just go with what we have?" I ask James "We could but I'd rather have an army. We need to get Fraction and

Anna back.” I nod in agreement. “Sure, more would be good, but Darryl has an amazing warrior team, so do we, who was the third Alpha?” I ask James. 1000 III 07:06 The Missing Alpha “Alpha Steven of the Everfur Pack, they are far out though, and it would take a week if not more for him to get here.” I bolt out of my chair. “I refuse to wait a week. You saw how Anna was last time she came back. I won’t leave her or our Alpha there a minute longer than we need to.” I’m pacing back and forth in front of James. “I agree, pack up the warriors we leave tonight.” James is dialling the phone as I leave, I presume he is contacting Darryl to tell him the plan. If we are fast, we could have our Alpha and Luna back in three days’ time. «Fraction>> The stench of blood and piss is so strong it’s the first thing I notice when I come to. I can’t move my hands, they are stretched above me and have been for a while if the pain in my shoulders is anything to go by. I can still feel the wolfsbane in my system which means Leo will be no help, I can only assume the tranquillisers that hit me in the field. were laced with the stuff. I went down a lot faster than I should have. I give a testing tug on my hands, not even a nudge. I’m secured tight alright. I have a canvas bag over my head, which means it must be dark. wherever I am as I can’t even see any lights beyond it. ‘Fraction?’ I hear in my head. ‘Anna?’ I reply instantly. ‘Oh, thank Goodness you’re awake. It’s been ages. I was worried you wouldn’t wake up.’ She sounds tired and hurt. ‘Are you ok?’ I’m fine, they knocked me out before you. I didn’t wake up until a little while ago and they haven’t seen me awake yet.’ She speaks in my head. 20.271 07:06 ‘Who are they? Where are we Anna?’ ‘We are at the farmhouse. It was John. I’m so sorry Fraction, this is all my fault.’ I can hear her crying. ‘Shhh little wolf. I shouldn’t have gotten mad. Please don’t cry, it breaks my heart, and I can’t get to you.’ All I want to do is pull her into my arms. I’m sorry, I just can’t believe I’m here again.” ‘Don’t worry little wolf, we will get out.’ With the bag on my head, I can’t tell you how long I’m hanging here. Eventually I hear a door being opened and someone walking down. some stairs. “Has he had his wolfsbane?” I hear someone ask. “About two hours ago, boss. Want more?” A second voice responds, he sounds further away, maybe at the top of the stairs. I can’t know for sure. “Yeah, get me a dose, he’s a big bastard.” He’s not wrong, even now I can feel Leo trying to wake up. Some time goes by, and I feel a sting in my arm. I watch as Leo shrinks back into the shadows of my brain. The bag is pulled off my head and I have to blink a few times to see anything. The light from the door at the top of the stairs is lighting the basement enough to know I’m going to kill every last one of these wolves. Nearly every cage I see has a female of some sort in it, most are n*ked, a lot are beaten, some look too young to be here and the odd one is round with a pup. I spot Anna in a cage next to a female with white–blonde hair, compared to Anna she’s a stick, one poke of my finger and she would crumble under her own weight. Anna thankfully looks alright. She doesn't seem hurt and she's fully clothed, right now I'm going to take this as a small mercy. 111 The clicking of fingers draws my attention to a man with piercing blue eyes. His greasy hair is sliding over one eye and his nose looks like it's been broken a couple dozen times. "So, we have a genuine Alpha with us," he's walking around me in a circle like he's inspecting a car he's buying. "What to do with you?" He is talking to himself, so I don't reply. I just go for an intimidating stare down. I'm guessing without Leo it's not all that intimidating as he doesn't stop. "Nice new mate mark, can I assume you're the Alpha who stole her from Max? I heard about that; you have got some balls, Alpha." "And who the fuck are you?" I say in a small voice. With a laugh he says, "well I'm the stains brother. Surely, she told you. about me?" "John." "In the flesh. I've got to say I'm pissed you got to Max before us, even more that you snuck my Anna back to your pack." John is working himself up. I have a feeling I'm going to be hurting soon. "She's not yours." I can't help it, it's like word vomit, it just came out of my mouth. "Oh, she's mine alright. My father bought her mother and made her just for me, she was going to be my little live in S slave until the packs. attacked us." My blood runs cold at the thought of him defiling Anna. So, it wasn't Anna who bought, it was her mother. "That's a lie!" I hear Anna yell from her cage. John goes over and crouches down in front of her cage; "No stain it's not. When my mother pushed me out, she was told she couldn't have anymore. So, father killed her. Then he went to Alpha Callum and bought a sweet young thing. Kicker is apparently she was his fated mate, he used her 6407% 07.06 up straight away and she was barely sixteen when she pushed you out He didn't need her after that, so, bye bye momma." I can hear the truth in his words and so can Anna, she's turned her back to him and curled herself into a ball. I can hear her sobbing, hurting for a woman she never knew. John stands and walks back over to me, "so I figure if you have mated her. it means you've had her too, right?" I don't answer him. "I'll take that as a yes. Which means you owe me for the time you had her and her virginity." He goes to walk up the stairs and changes his mind turning back to me. "was she tight? I bet she was, her mother was. Once her mother was pregnant my father let me have a go at her. Never had a pussy so tight." When I kill this bastard. it's going to hurt. He turns and runs up the stairs, he leaves the door open, so I don't dare risk speaking to Anna. I don't want to give them anymore of a reason to hurt her. 07:06 86.941

No one is coming. (Anna) I watched as John tormented Fraction with the knowledge of who my mother was and my supposed purpose in life. Fraction has called out to me a few times over the mind link, but I can't seem to stop crying for the young woman I didn't know. No pup should have to go, what he said my mother did, pups having pups is just wrong. through I hear someone coming down the stairs and the clanking of chains, I turn just in time to see a random rogue dragging Fraction up the stairs. I don't know where they are taking him but nothing good ever happens up those stairs. I turn to Eliza, maybe if I get her talking, I can stop wondering what is happening to Fraction.. "Eliza, where's Eve?" It's the only thing I can think to ask. "She's with them now. John scented her and claimed her as his. She joins in tormenting the women now," I can't help my gasp. "Why, why would she do that, surely she didn't want to mate with him?" "Oh, she did. The second she scented him it was like a spell came over her, she was a totally different person." Sounds of flesh on flesh are coming from above us and someone is shouting out in pain. That's not a female cry, it's too gruff to be female. I cover my ears with my hands. "I can't listen to them torture him." I tell Eliza. "There's no way out, I've tried so many times now." She sounds so defeated. 0.01% 0706 I can't help but listen as the sounds of the torture they are inflicting on Fraction gets louder and louder. After what feels like years the door at the top of the stairs finally opens and John drags an unconscious. Fraction down behind him. Once he has secured Fraction back on the chains dangling from the ceiling he leaves. He didn't speak one word to us or even glance in our direction. 'Fraction?' I say over the mind link. 'I'm here little wolf.' His voice is low and barely there. 'How badly are you hurt? I can't see you properly. I'm openly crying now. I'm fine little wolf, don't worry about me.' He's lying. I know he is, but I don't call him out on it. «Fraction>> My whole-b*dy hurts, I can feel that my ribs are broken in more than one spot. They worked me over good. They didn't ask me anything. they just tied me to a chair and wailed on me with metal pipes and baseball bats. I feel like I'm bleeding from more than one spot, I can feel it running down my b*dy and collecting at my feet. When Anna asked, I had to lie to her, if she knew I was this hurt it would break her. Being back here and learning about her mother ist already too much for her. She will see it the next time someone opens the door but for now she doesn't have to know. I keep sending out messages to James and Rick, mind-linking only works within a few miles so I'm just trying to see if they are here. I need to get Anna out of here before they hurt her. No one is close yet, but they will be coming. My pack will come. (Anna)> 17.12% 07.06 No one in coming I've lost track of time since Fraction got brought back down, I hear the door above me being opened and I see Fraction for the first time. I can't help my cry of horror, his torso is one giant bruise, he has various cuts up and down his b*dy like someone took the time to carefully slice into him. His elbow looks like it's been dislocated, and I think I can see one of his ribs sticking out of his side. They must be using wolfsbane if Leo hasn't healed him yet. John walks over to my cage and kneels down; "like my handy work?" I spit at him, "you are a monster!" he laughs as he unlocks the cage and drags me out by my hair. I'm screaming and clawing trying to get him off me. "Leave her alone." I hear Fraction roar, the sounds of him fighting against the chains follows as John drags me up the stairs. I am dropped on a bed and left in the room without a word being said to me. The room is nothing special, there is a single bed and a bedside table and that's it. After a while the door opens, John is followed in by Eve. Eve looks so different; her hair is styled, and she has so much makeup on I can barely see what she looks like underneath it. She's wearing a lace bra and a denim mini skirt. "Eve?" I'm met with a sharp slap across the face. I'm seeing stars when a second one lands. "You don't talk to her, she's just here to help me." With that Eve moves to the top of the bed and pins my arms in place, John secures my ankles in place with straps he pulls from the bottom of the bed. I start to panic as he unbuckles his belt and drops his jeans. "John, please don't do this." I beg him. "Oh, I'm doing this. I've waited years for this. This is mine and always has been." He's started to play with himself, I can see his cock getting bigger. Thankfully he has nothing on Fraction in the size department. I still don't want it anywhere near me though. He climbs onto the bed between my legs and starts moving his cock head through my folds, I'm dry so I can feel every tug and pull his cock makes I shiver and I can feel my stomach threaten to rebel against me, "Picase John, please don't do this." I scream as he slams into me, I feel every dry inch enter me. "So fucking tight." he breathes out, he doesn't give me chance to adjust. he immediately starts thrusting in and out of me. Eve's hands have gotten tighter. I can barely feel my fingers, I can feel both of their breaths on my face. John is speeding up his thrusts, there is no pattern to his movements. He moves one of his hands to my throat and starts to squeeze as his thrusts become erratic. My ears are ringing and I'm only just realising it's because I haven't stopped screaming since he entered me. Even with his hand on my throat I can feel the scream trying to come out. After what feels like an age. I feel him spill into me. He roars his release like some kind of warrior winning a battle. I can feel my tears soaking the bed beneath me. When he pulls out of me, he looks at Eve, "Have a go, Angel." Eve lets go of my hands and moves between my legs. I feel her tongue snake out and start to clean John from me.

I'm sobbing uncontrollably now. She was my friend once and now she's just helped my brother violate me in the worst way I can possibly imagine. (Fraction>> "Leave her alone," I thrash against the chains ignoring the paint radiating through my b*dy. "Bring her back!" I demand to the dark basement. John came in and dragged Anna out of her cage by her hair. He didn't stop when I demanded he bring her back, he just kept going. After a while I can hear the screaming, it's Anna. I just know it is. She is begging for someone to stop, to not hurt her. The sounds of her torment seem to go on for ages. I'm still thrashing against the chains 50.37% 07.06 willing them to come loose, they are immovable. When the screams stop. I stop thrashing against the chains. "Where are we?' I hear Leo faintly. About time you woke up, we have to get out of here.' I tell him. "Mate. Hurt.' He sounds weak. Just stay back and when you can heal me, I'll avenge our mate." When the door opens. I see John carrying Anna. I can smell his seed. on her. and I instantly go ravenous. "I'm going to kill you, John! I'm going to rip you apart for what you have done my mate." I'm screaming constantly as he none so nicely drops Anna into her cage, locks it and turns to leave. He seems to change his mind and turns to me; "by the way, she was tight!" I see red, I start screaming all the way I am going to kill him, my screams follow him up the stairs and continue long after the door has closed. (Anna) I can hear Fraction screaming, he is shouting about ripping hearts out and showing people their hearts before they die. He's tried talking to me a few times, Eliza has tried to touch me each time I have ignored them and curled myself tighter into my ball. "Little wolf. hang on! Just hang on a little longer, the pack is coming." Fraction's words pierce the fog surrounding me. I don't answer him, I have nothing left in me. The pack isn't coming. No one is coming. 83.625

Are you there? (Fraction) If I go by the wolfbane doses they have been shoving into me, I think we have been down here for three days. Each day they take me upstairs, tie me to a chair and beat me to just the point of death. Leo. works overtime to try and heal me, he's careful to only heal the internal stuff as I don't want them knowing he's awake. I'm waiting for the pack, once they give me the go ahead, I'll let Leo out. I'm not sure how Leo is awake, he should be knocked out with all the wolfsbane, I can't say I'm overly concerned about that right now though. They haven't touched Anna since they brought her back down. She's refused all food and water, me and Eliza have tried talking to her, but she won't make a sound. Leo told me he's tried talking to Winter but he can't reach her. He can feel her, he told me she's in pain. Whatever they did to her damaged her and Winter. 'Alpha?' I hear the voice I've been waiting for. James sounds over our mind link, 'Alpha you there?'. 'I'm here.' I tell James. 'I have Rick and the warriors about two miles out from you. We are waiting for nightfall and Darryl and his warriors and then we will attack. Where in the house are you?' 'I'm in the basement, there are a lot of females down here. We need to get them all out. Anna is hurt, no one is to touch her but you or Rick. I won't be able to carry her out by myself.' I let the venom towards our attackers bleed into my statement to James. 07:07 'We will protect her with our lives.' James responds, "I have Doctor Lee waiting here so he can treat anyone who needs emergency attention." 'Is Darryl the only one who answered your calls?' I'm mad that the other Alphas's aren't here. 'No but we can discuss that later.' Interesting, I wonder what I've missed. 'Is Leo awake? They haven't drugged you?' 'He is awake.' I don't tell them about the wolfsbane, I'm not sure what it means yet. 'I'll tell you when we are going to hit.' James closes the link. 'Anna the pack is here.' I try to tell her over the mind link, 'Anna?' 'No one is coming.' She finally responds to me. 'Anna they are here, soon we will be out of here.' I'm met with silence. "Eliza?" I whisper her name. "Yes?" She responds in a small voice.. "Be ready, my pack is here." "Yes, Alpha." Her voice is so small. Looking at the woman I can tell. she was once a beauty but now she's a wisp of a girl. Starved, beaten and raped to the point she's barely even here anymore. I hope we can help her. I hope we can help them all. After a while I hear James over our mind link, saying 'Incoming, in 10, 9, 8, 7, 6...5...' he counts down. On one I hear multiple smashes above us, loud bangs of wolves and bodies hitting the floor. The air is filled. with snarls and howls, the smell of blood is even stronger than it was. The door to the basement opens and I see James, Rick and Darryl all 17 94% 07:07 coming down in shorts carrying a blanket each. "Darryl let Fraction down, I'll get Anna." James orders. I watch as Darryl takes a key out his pocket and shoves it in the padlock above my head and as soon as I'm free I let Leo take over. We pad over to Anna's cell and watch as James opens it, he crawls in and lays the blanket over her n*ked form. Carefully as he can he picks her up and holds her to him, with her head on his shoulder. He lowers himself down allowing Leo to sniff Anna, after a lick to the face James takes Anna and runs up the stairs. He will get her to safety. 'Rick, get the rest out of here.' I tell Rick over the mind link as I bound up the stairs. I feel every step as a shooting pain, but I ignore it. 'On it. Alpha.' Rick responds. When I hit the first room, the one they always sat me in for my beatings, I can see the carnage left behind by the two warrior packs. There isn't a single rogue still in one piece, the bodies have been ripped apart. I couldn't tell you where one started and the other ended. I follow my nose outside where I see warriors surrounding six people, these ones are very much alive. I walk over to Lewis who nods his head as a sign of respect. "Alpha Fraction. Here is John, Eve and four others who surrendered to us." His voice is clear and carries across the crowd of warriors. "No one gets to surrender, they all die." James says behind me, this is why he's my Beta, he knows exactly what I want. "Eve is our pack's female. She will come with us." "With all due respect Beta James, we found the female slicing into the emale dead in the back room." I become still at Lewis's words. Eve was helping them. Tell him to bring her back to the pack, I will deal with her at home. 07.07 John is mine." I tell James over the mindlink. James repeats my words to Lewis and the warriors move in, two restrain Eve and inject her with wolfsbane and lead her over to the trucks and cars in the distance. They are not careful in how they treat her and I can't say I care too much. John is moved to the side and the other four are killed execution style by those in wolf form. They all have their throats ripped out. It's faster than they deserve but I have more important things to deal with. I watch as the warriors move into a circle around John, all looking inwards and looking like an immovable wall. I watch as Alpha Darryl moves to the centre of the pack, he holds up a key and shouts out; "I, Alpha Darryl of the Grey Pack, Head Alpha of America, find you John guilty of murder, rape, assault and false imprisonment of Pack females. and one Pack Alpha. Do you have anything to say before your sentence is handed down?" John just stares at me, he knows his time has come. He doesn't say anything in his defence, no one would listen anyway. "Alright then. your sentence is; Death by Alpha!" The crowd of warriors roar, howling and whoop into the night. "Alpha Fraction will hand out the sentencing, before he begins. Does anyone have any objections?" No one would object but he has to ask. it's part of our laws. If we don't follow our laws then we are no better than the rogues we kill. When no one speaks up, Darryl unlocks John's handcuffs and then walks out of the circle. I start walking a circle around my prey, I soak in the rage vibrating off all the warriors around me. They are angry for the females they found and for the ones they didn't. They all want a piece of John but they will follow Darryl's words and watch instead. I wish I could shift to tell John everything I want but right now I am too weak in my human form so Leo will have to take justice for our mate. I want to be able to fight John and really make him suffer but Leo and I both want to get to Anna, so I make it much faster than he deserves. 56.76% 07 07 Leo gets to the front of John and with a howl he drags his claws down his chest, his intestines fall to the floor in front of him. Leo grabs them and pulls until they are in a pile next to him, Leo waits for John to fully soak in what has happened to him and then just before he dies he lunges and rips his throat out. We watch as the light goes out in John's eyes and then run out of the circle. The warriors are all howling and cheering, they will deal with all the bodies, I need to get to Anna. I follow my nose to Anna and find her in the back of a red truck with Doctor Lee, Leo jumps up into the truck bed and lies next to her. "She's going to be ok. Alpha." Doctor Lee says after strapping some bandages to her leg. "she's not woken up yet but her vitals are strong. When we get back to Swiftmane Land I will check you both in full." Doctor Lee adjusts the blue blanket over her and leaves the truck bed. I let Leo sniff and lick Anna; he needs the reassurance she is here. I smell the blanket but all I smell is me, Anna and my mother. I'm glad someone thought to grab a blanket without a male scent on it, I don't think Leo could handle more male scents on Anna at the moment. I slowly drift off next to Anna as she winds her fingers into Leo's fur and holds on with a death grip. I vaguely recall a blanket being put over both of us and the truck starting, I stay where I am. I refuse to leave Anna. I won't let her out of my sight again. 81.981
