

Chapter 2

"I am the Great Doctor of the South Pole. From now on, you are my disciple. I will give you the Innate True Qi and the Xuantian Sutra. I hope you can establish the right path and help others..."

Lin Feng felt as if he was in an ethereal void, accompanied by the sound of a legacy. A huge amount of information poured into his mind, constantly attacking...

"Ah!"

Lin Feng couldn't stand it any longer and suddenly woke up.

Looking around, he found that he was sore all over in the park, and there was a cut in his palm.

He recalled that he had been beaten by Shen Hanwei and the others last night, and then lost his consciousness. But what was hateful was that they had le him in the park, and the pieces of the jade pendant were no longer there.

Luckily, he had taken most of them.

Just as Lin Feng was recalling what had happened last night, he was surprised to find that a lot of information had suddenly appeared in his memory.

The martial arts formula, the miraculous ancient medical skills, the great acupuncture technique...

At this moment, he suddenly thought of that strange dream.

"That dream was real?"

Lin Feng couldn't believe it, but as he continued to search through his memories, he was shocked.

He actually had the Xuantian Sutra in his mind!

"This is too absurd!"

It was impossible for a dream to become a reality.

Unless...

At this moment, as Lin Feng wished, the Xuantian Sutra opened!

Numerous mystical runes flashed in a strange manner. They were ancient and mysterious. However, for some reason, Lin Feng was able to understand them with a single glance.

It seemed that everything in the world was contained in it.

Following the guidance of the runes, he started to cultivate on his own!

In an instant, a warm current in his lower abdomen attracted Lin Feng's attention. It was like some kind of force beginning to flow slowly.

Very quickly, Lin Feng understood. "Could it be... that this is that Innate True Qi?"

"Is all this true?"

"Crack!"

Suddenly, there was a crackling sound in his body, as if he had broken through some kind of obstacle.

Then, as the heat flow flowed, the sound of explosions was endless. His whole body was like a battlefield, and his muscles and bones let out crackling noises.

Wherever the heat flow passed, it was extremely comfortable, as if he had been reborn.

The pain in his whole body dissipated in an instant.

At this time, a strange itch suddenly came from the center of his palm.

The wound, which had been cut open, had strangely healed on its own.

"This... this is simply magical!"

Looking at the intact palm, Lin Feng was ecstatic.

"I didn't expect the Innate True Qi to be able to cure my injuries. This means that there's hope for my mother's illness..." he thought.

Half an hour later, Lin Feng arrived at the hospital where his mother was.

Seeing that his mother, who had been in a coma for more than a year, was about to wake up, he couldn't hold back his excitement and immediately put his right hand on his mother's forehead.

However, just as he was about to treat his mother, a message suddenly poured into his mind.

"The patient has been wearing a curse-like amulet for a long time, that's why she is in a coma."

"First, you can use the Eight Trigrams Killing Needle Method to break the curse and use the Tai Chi Concentration Needle Method to cure it."

"Second, use the Innate True Qi to remove the seal and heal it."

A cursed amulet?

Lin Feng suddenly remembered that his mother was wearing an amulet. Her mother said that it was important to her!

"I didn't expect the amulet to be a curse!"

Lin Feng immediately pulled out the red string around his mother's neck.

It was a yellow paper with a red seal on it. It looked like a very ordinary amulet, but at this time, it emitted wisps of dark aura.

"Who is the one who wants to harm my mother? How cruel!" he scolded in his heart.

Lin Feng's gaze turned cold as he took out the amulet. Instantly, that strand of black energy entered the amulet, as if it was very afraid of Lin Feng's Innate True Qi.

Lin Feng didn't think much about it. A er putting away the amulet, he put his right palm on his mother's forehead again and infused the Innate True Qi into Su Biyun's body.

Swoosh!

More than half of the Innate True Qi was extracted from his body. Lin Feng instantly felt a little powerless, but he still struggled to hold on, waiting for his mother to wake up.

At this time, Su Biyun's body changed. Her initially damaged nervous system could immediately work normally under the nourishment of his Innate True Qi.

The damaged nervous system gradually recovered.

Not long a er, Su Biyun's eyelids trembled and she was about to wake up.

Lin Feng called out, "Mom, wake up!"

The next moment, Su Biyun slowly opened her eyes, and her pale face gradually became ruddy.

Her heart so ened when she saw that her son's childishness had disappeared and there are traces of determination and hardships on his face.

"Feng, how long has Mom slept?"

Her gentle voice sounded again, and Lin Feng cried with joy.

But his mother had just woken up, so Lin Feng was unwilling to say anything that would make his mother worried. He quickly changed the topic and said, "Mom, you must be hungry. I'll buy you something to eat, okay?"

Su Biyun nodded obediently.

"My son has grown up, and he didn't want me to worry about him," she thought to herself.

She knew her son the best.

Ten minutes later, Lin Feng came back with a cup of porridge and carefully fed it to his mother.

A er the meal, Lin Feng called his mother's attending doctor over.

Then, a lot of doctors went into the room. A er checking and questioning, the attending doctor was shocked. "It's a miracle, this is a miracle in medical history."

The doctor's shock was undoubtedly the best proof of Su Biyun's recovery. Lin Feng was both happy and grateful for the ability given to him.

At the same time, he also felt a sense of pressure.

Now that his mother had recovered, he could no longer lead a muddle-headed life in the Qin family. He had to make sure that his mother lived a good life.

Just as he was thinking about the future, his cell phone suddenly rang.

When he saw the caller ID, his face froze.

It was Qin Ruoxian!

She was willing to take the initiative to call him. There must be something important.

Outside the ward, as soon as Lin Feng picked up the phone, Qin Ruoxian's impatient voice came from the other end of the line.

"No matter what you're doing, get home in 30 minutes."

"Otherwise, you never have to come back."

Before Lin Feng could speak, the phone was hung up.

Lin Feng had long since gotten used to her cold and commanding tone.

However, he heard the conversation between Shen Hanwei and his wife coming from the other end of the phone.

He didn't expect them to be there!

Lin Feng seemed to have guessed something. He smiled and said, "Humph, I'd like to see what tricks they're playing!"

A er talking to his mother, Lin Feng le the hospital.

Twenty minutes later, he arrived at the Qin family's villa.

As soon as he entered the door, Qin Changkun and his wife's faces darkened.

Qin Ruoxian's pretty face was covered with frost. Her gaze was as sharp as a knife as she stared at Lin Feng. Obviously, she was very angry at the moment.

Shen Hanwei and his wife looked at Lin Feng playfully, as if they were waiting for a good show.

But Lin Feng ignored their cold eyes and strode in.

On the tea table, the broken pieces of the jade pendant were lying there quietly.

As expected, the pieces had been taken by them.

Next to the jade was a document.

A divorce agreement!

Lin Feng was stunned for a moment, and then pretended not to see it. "Ruoxian, why are you in such a hurry to make me come back? Did something happen?"

He actually pretended not to know?

Lin Feng's words completely angered them.

"Lin Feng, that's enough!" Qin Ruoxian shouted angrily.

Her eyes were filled with endless disgust.

"Do you know why my parents are so disappointed in you?"

"It's not because you don't have money, nor is it because you're a live-in son-in-law. It's because you're too cowardly and useless."

"Besides doing some housework, have you achieved anything?"

"Not only did you not repent this time, but insisted that you were innocent. I really don't want to spend the rest of my life with a man like you."

"I want to divorce you!"

She looked tired. She picked up the pen and signed her name on the agreement, and then pushed it to Lin Feng.

"A er the divorce, I will give you 500,000 yuan as your mother's medical fee."

"Just leave in peace. Don't lose your dignity as a man."

"Leave in peace?"

Lin Feng's eyes flashed with pain. He took a deep breath and said, "Give me a reason!"

Everyone was stunned. How could he have the nerve to ask for a reason?

A cold smile appeared in Qin Hongling's eyes. "Lin Feng, Are you shameless?"

"You stole the jade pendant out of greed and even framed Xiaohui. You deserved getting beaten."

She looked at Lin Feng angrily and said, "I didn't expect you to seek revenge and break the jade pendant!"

"If we hadn't bumped into you and taken back the jade pendant, I wouldn't have known you were such a shameless person."

Hearing this, Lin Feng finally understood the cause of the matter.

Shen Hanwei and his wife took the jade pendant away yesterday and came here to complain about him early in the morning. They twisted the facts and framed him.

What a move to strike first.

Lin Feng looked at Qin Hongling coldly and said lightly, "If I were you, I wouldn't sit here and laugh at others."

He looked at Qin Hongling's face and couldn't help but say, "You'd better go to the hospital as soon as possible, or it'll be too late."

Qin Hongling was so stunned at first, then her eyes flashed and she said stubbornly, "Humph, I'm not sick nor in pain. Why should I go to the hospital?"

"Lin Feng, don't interrupt!"

Shen Hanwei looked at Lin Feng with disdain. "It's fine for you to be poor, Ruoxian can support your living."

"I just didn't expect you to be so shameless."

"You don't deserve Ruoxian, nor do you deserve to be the son-in-law of the Qin family."

He smiled playfully. "This is the reason you asked for!"

"That's right."

Liu Meifeng raised her eyebrows in anger and couldn't help but scold, "He is just a sweet-faced son-in-law, a good-for-nothing."

"Look at Han Wei. He is not only a senior executive of the company, but also a model husband and model father."

A er the comparison, she got even angrier. She glared at Lin Feng and said, "How are you going to compete with him? You are just a loser!"

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. She thought to herself, "What was the old man doing, insisting on letting his daughter marry a loser like him?"

When Shen Hanwei heard Liu Meifeng's praise, his heart was filled with pride. He straightened his back and his face lit up.

Qin Hongling even raised her chin and looked at Qin Ruoxian in a challenging way.

Ever since Old Master Qin had handed over the inheritance of the family to Qin Ruoxian, Qin Hongling had been extremely angry. Fortunately, Shen Hanwei was better than Lin Feng.

In terms of choosing a husband, she thought that she had completely won against Qin Ruoxian.

Looking at the proud faces of Shen Hanwei and his wife, Lin Feng felt ridiculous in his heart. "Brother-in-law, are you really going to continue to ruin my reputation? Aren't you going to clear my name?"

"Bullsh*t!"

Shen Hanwei suddenly stood up, pointed at Lin Feng's nose, and scolded, "When did I ruin your reputation?"

"It's the truth that you did all those bad things!"

"You brought this upon yourself!"

He sneered in his heart. "You must take the blame," he thought.

Qin Changkun's face was dark, and he did not say a word. He acted as if he had acquiesced completely.

Lin Feng looked at the crowd coldly. When he saw Qin Ruoxian, his gaze so ened. "Ruoxian, do you really think that I stole the jade pendant?"

He still held a glimmer of hope for Qin Ruoxian.

Unexpectedly, she just turned her head and said, "Sign it. I believe that my parents wouldn't blame you for something you didn't do, and I believe in what I have seen."

"You still don't believe me, haha..."

Lin Feng smiled bitterly, disappointed and angry. "Since you want the truth, I'll let you know the truth!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Feng suddenly took a step forward and clapped his palm on Shen Hanwei's forehead.

The fourth chapter of the Xuantian Sutra activated the acupuncture points of the meridian, shocking the heart and soul.

This move was one of the unique skills which was only effective against weak and guilty people. At the same time, it also consumed a lot of Lin Feng's mental power.

However, Lin Feng did not hesitate to do it, because of Qin Ruoxan's accusation. "Shen Hanwei, who took the jade pendant?"

At this moment, Lin Feng's sudden action shocked the crowd.

Shen Hanwei, who had just realized what was happening, was about to lose his temper when he felt a roar in his head, and felt the sky and the earth spinning.

"You piece of tr*sh, how dare you?"

Liu Meifeng was even more furious. She gnashed her teeth and said, "This is ridiculous!"

The next second, she stepped forward angrily and slapped Lin Feng in the face.

At this moment, muddle-headed, Shen Hanwei suddenly said, "Xiaohui took the jade pendant!"

What!

The next moment, there was dead silence in the living room.
