

Chapter 20

Just as Qin Ruoxian was about to chase after him, Lin Feng had already gotten into Kong Dexuan's car and left.

She wanted to drive to follow them, but Sheng Wenxuan's voice came from behind. "Ruoxian, I have something to tell you."

"It's about the company."

He stared at her and smiled faintly. "You won't give up 50 million just because of Lin Feng, right?"

50 million!

Qin Ruoxian's heart skipped a beat.

If this was a deal, her status and influence in the Qin family would naturally rise.

Watching Dr. Kong's car getting farther and farther away, she slammed the door and asked, "Where are you going to talk?"

Sheng Wenxuan smiled proudly and opened the car door. "Get in the car. Are you afraid that I'll eat you?"

Looking at Qin Ruoxian's slender and beautiful body and her cold and beautiful face, he suddenly felt a long-lost restlessness in his body. He wanted nothing more than to do her on the spot.

Qin Ruoxian hesitated for a moment and got into Sheng Wenxuan's car. Then she immediately sent a message to Lin

Feng, saying, "No matter what you do with Mr. Kong, please remember what you promised me before."

This scene was coincidentally captured by Sheng Wenxuan. There was a trace of viciousness in his eyes as he drove.

"Lin Feng, just you wait. I must give this woman a life lesson in front of you," he thought.

"Ding!"

Lin Feng looked at the text message and smiled warmly. He replied, "I know. Stay away from Sheng Wenxuan. He has evil intentions!"

Then he put away his mobile phone and continued to talk to Mr. Kong.

"Dr. Kong, did you just say that Xia Chuqing's sister's injury is getting worse?"

Lin Feng thought in his heart that it shouldn't be like this. Although the Innate True Qi couldn't cure her injuries, it could definitely protect her for three days!

It had only been a day, why was her injury getting worse?

Kong Dexuan shook his head helplessly. "Alas, it's all my disappointing disciple's fault!"

Sun Xingyang?

"Yesterday afternoon, we received a call from the director of Alboer Hospital. He said that there was an injured patient with an urgent illness there. He wanted us to go and help him."

"But there are many urgent patients in the clinic. I was too busy, so I'll let that boy go and have a look first."

"Who would have thought that when he saw that the patient was Xia Chuqing, he volunteered to treat her? He even shamelessly used the title of Little Miracle-working Doctor."

"Later, her injury was not cured and it caused major bleeding. I tried my best to cure her for a night and finally saved her life, but the situation was still not optimistic."

He looked a little tired, and there was a sense of powerlessness in his tone. It seemed that he was extremely disappointed with Sun Xingyang.

"Later, I came up with an idea and thought of you!"

"It's just that you didn't answer the call, so I came straight to you early in the morning."

Kong Dexuan looked up at Lin Feng expectantly and said, "I think you're the only one who can save that girl."

Lin Feng smiled. At that time, he was in the backyard. In order not to disturb Qin Ruoxian's rest, his phone was muted.

However, Sun Xingyang really had a good reputation, but he didn't do things right. He really failed the teaching of Dr. Kong.

Lin Feng pondered for a moment and said with a serious face, "Dr. Kong, to tell you the truth, I can indeed save her, but I can't let Ruoxian know about this."

"Why is that?" Kong Dexuan was stunned. Wouldn't it be good to let others look at him in a different light?

Wasn't it good to make his woman admire him?

Lin Feng smiled bitterly and said, "I don't have a choice. I've been a useless person in the Qin family for three years, and I've known Ruoxian since I was young."

"In her eyes, I'm just a family cook, a useless son-in-law."

"Every time I cured someone, she would think that I was just trying my luck and would worry about me."

Lin Feng's eyes were filled with deep apology. "I don't want her to worry."

"I see!"

Kong Dexuan nodded and suddenly thought of something. He hurriedly asked, "Lin Feng, we are considered friends, but I don't know who your teacher is."

Lin Feng was young and had extraordinary medical skills. Naturally, he would not be the one who created the techniques.

Kong Dexuan found it hard to believe that there was such a hidden master in Fecrait.

Looking at the disciple, Lin Feng, and then looking at his disciple, Sun Xinyang, they were not on the same level in terms of character and medical skills.

He felt ashamed of himself!

"Um..." Lin Feng was at a loss for words.

His teacher?

His teacher was the Great Doctor of the South Pole, but no one would believe him if he said it out loud. Maybe others would think that he had made it up in order to hide the true identity.

In desperation, Lin Feng could only say, "Actually, my teacher is no longer alive!"

Yes, this was the perfect answer!

"Alas, it's a pity that I haven't been born a few years earlier!" Kong Dexuan said with a look of regret.

Lin Feng was afraid that Kong Dexuan would ask about his master's name, so he quickly changed the subject and said, "By the way, Dr. Kong, I saw that the Taiyi technique you used before was a little inferior."

"If you don't mind, we can..."

Before he could finish his words, Kong Dexuan excitedly grabbed Lin Feng's hand and said, "I don't mind. Of course I don't mind. How about tomorrow?"

"Do you have time tomorrow?"

He didn't feel ashamed that he was the one with more experience here, nor did he feel angry at Lin Feng's straightforwardness.

On the contrary, he was full of curiosity about the unknown field of medical skills.

He was excited, thrilled, and sincere, without any deception.

Lin Feng couldn't help but admire such a person. He immediately made an appointment and said, "Okay, tomorrow. I'll go and find you tomorrow."

Kong Dexuan laughed out loud and said, "Okay, tomorrow morning at 10 a.m., at Baicao Hall."

Half an hour later, the car arrived at the gate of Aiboer Hospital.

As soon as they got out of the car, Kong Dexuan's phone rang. He answered the phone and his face became serious. "Okay, I'll be there right away."

"Lin Feng, I won't go in with you. There's a critically ill patient at Baicao Hall."

Hanging up the phone, Kong Dexuan was quite anxious. He immediately took out a box from the car and said, "I have to get there in time."

"I'll lend you this set of Taiyi Silver Needles."

Seeing that Mr. Kong was occupied with urgent matters, Lin Feng didn't think too much about it. He took the box of needles and said, "Mr. Kong, go ahead. I'll be here."

After Mr. Kong got in the car, Lin Feng also turned around and went into Aiboer Hospital.

"Doctor Kong, why did you let Lin Feng go alone?"

In the car, the driver put down the phone in his hand and asked in surprise, "Do you really believe in him that much?"

Looking at Lin Feng's back, Kong Dexuan showed great appreciation. "He has hidden his skills for three years, and he did it without a trace, and even the closest people around him didn't know."

"How shrewd is such a person?"

The driver was stunned at first, and then he was extremely shocked. "Well, I'll call Xingyang immediately and ask him to go back to Baicao Hall."

"No!"

Kong Dexuan immediately stopped him and said in a low voice, "It's only good for him to suffer a little setback. There's no harm."

"If he is willing to let go of his worries and make friends with Lin Feng, that would be the best."

"Otherwise, I will also consider whether he can be my successor or not."

The driver did not say anything, but just tapped on the phone screen a few times.

Looking at the blue sky outside the window, Kong Dexuan couldn't help but let out a long sigh. "There will be a great change in the medicine industry of Fecrait."
