

Chapter 21

After asking around, Lin Feng arrived at Xia Chuqing's younger sister's floor.

As soon as he arrived at the corridor, Lin Feng saw Xia Chuqing, who was sitting in a daze on a bench.

Her pretty face was full of despair. She seemed to have lost more than five kilograms overnight.

Although the woman was haggard, she did not lose any of her beauty. She looked sad, which made people feel pity yet beautiful.

There were more than a dozen men and women in splendid clothes around her, but no one made a sound.

The atmosphere was dull.

To Lin Feng's surprise, Sun Xingyang was also there.

At this moment, Sun Xingyang, like a deflated ball, stood aside.

It seemed that he had been punished by Dr. Kong due to his impulse last night.

"Miss Xia!"

Lin Feng walked over and asked, "How's your sister?"

Xia Chuqing was slightly stunned. She raised her head and got excited as soon as she saw Lin Feng. "It's you!"

"You're the one that helped us, my benefactor! Why are you here?"

The next moment, she ran straight to Lin Feng and was extremely surprised. "Thank you very much for what you did yesterday!"

At this moment, the strong woman didn't put on any airs at all.

"You can just call me Lin Feng."

Lin Feng scratched his head and said, "I really can't bear the name of your benefactor!"

Lin Feng?

Benefactor!

Sun Xingyang looked surprised. "Mrs. Xia, did you mistake him for someone else?"

"His name is Lin Feng. He is the son-in-law of the Qin family. He is just a good-for-nothing. How could he be your benefactor?"

Xia Chuqing's pretty face was full of displeasure. She stared at Sun Xingyang coldly and asked, "Are you doubting that I'm blind?"

She was extremely angry with Sun Xingyang. Yesterday, her sister's condition was still under control, but it was directly worsened by Sun Xingyang's actions.

If it weren't for Mr. Kong, she would have broken Sun Xingyang's hands.

The Little Miracle-working Doctor? What a joke.

Being stared at by Xia Chuqing, Sun Xingyang was afraid and immediately smiled apologetically. "Um, no, no, Mrs. Xia, you misunderstood me!"

Quickly, Sun Xingyang came to his senses again. If what had happened before was a coincidence, then at this moment, Sun Xingyang was absolutely confused.

He would never have thought that Lin Feng would even know Mrs. Xia, and that Mrs. Xia would call him her benefactor.

As Xia Chuqing's benefactor, Lin Feng wouldn't have to worry about food and clothes for the rest of his life. Maybe he would return home with a beautiful woman in his arms and live a great life.

What kind of luck did Lin Feng have?

Xia Chuqing ignored Sun Xingyang. Instead, she turned to look at Lin Feng and said in an extremely gentle voice, "Benefactor, thank you for helping me yesterday."

"If you need my help in the future, feel free to tell me!"

"Also, I hit you yesterday. I'm really sorry."

The next second, she raised her hand and was about to slap herself.

It was swift and fierce.

"Miss Xia!"

Lin Feng quickly grabbed Xia Chuqing's wrist and said, "You don't have to blame yourself. If I were you, I would have beaten harder."

"Moreover, even if you want to apologize, you have to wait until your sister wakes up."

Xia Chuqing's eyes softened. "Lin Feng, thank you. You are really a good person!"

"I'm afraid it'll be hard for my sister to wake up!"

A sad smile appeared on her pretty face and she was very powerless. "Even Dr. Kong can't cure her injury. I really don't know who else can cure my sister."

"Although Dr. Kong said that he would recommend a capable doctor, but..."

She glared at Sun Xingyang again and said coldly, "I'm very disgusted with so-called 'capable doctors' now. I don't know if I should believe them!"

Sun Xingyang blushed and didn't dare to make a sound!

Lin Feng was speechless. He felt as if he had been smeared by Sun Xingyang.

The name "Little Miracle-working Doctor" couldn't be used in the future.

"Ms. Xia, we've come up with a treatment plan!"

At the door of the consultation room, a group of foreign doctors came over, led by a blond burly man.

He said in broken language, "We have a 50% success rate."

Fifty percent!

Half of her life!

Xia Chuqing's eyes were full of hesitation. "Doctor Simon, Dr. Kong has gone to find another capable doctor. I want to wait a little longer."

She didn't want to take her sister's life as a gamble.

She couldn't afford to lose it.

At the same time, she was extremely anxious. "Why hasn't the doctor, who was recommended by Dr. Kong, come yet?" she wondered.

"Another miracle-working doctor again?"

The blond doctor looked disdainful. "Ms. Xia, do you still believe in your miracle-working doctor?"

"I admit that Dr. Kong is really skillful, but I only trust old and experienced doctors!"

He waved his hand and pointed at Sun Xingyang. "He's the Little Miracle-working Doctor. But in the end, he almost killed your sister."

"The Little Miracle-working Doctor is just a Little Fraudster."

Sun Xingyang's face was full of anger. He was ashamed, angry, and angry to be ridiculed by a foreign doctor like this.

But that was the truth. He could only hold it in.

"Ms. Xia, every minute, the patient will be in more danger."

Simon patted his chest hard and said confidently, "You should believe us!"

He was a famous and capable surgeon. He had strong control over his hands and his scalpel cut accurately. He was the authority of the medical community.

His status was equivalent to Kong Dexuan.

"This is bad. The patient's heart rate has dropped sharply. Hurry up..." At this moment, the alarming beeping sound in the ward broke out, causing a panic in people's hearts.

"Ms. Xia, you don't have to hesitate. After signing this document, I'll have an operation immediately."

Immediately, Simon's assistant showed a document to Xia Chuqing.

"I won't sign it!"

"I can't sign it!"

It was difficult for Xia Chuqing to choose. She looked very stressed, but she couldn't control her cold little hand to get the pen.

She knew that after she signed this document, even if her sister was not saved, they would not have any responsibility for it.

But at the same time, she couldn't afford to waste time.

She couldn't afford to gamble, but she had to.

"Don't sign it. Let me do it!"

Just as Xia Chuqing picked up the pen, a warm hand had already covered the back of her hand.

"Lin Feng!"

Xia Chuqing's body trembled, and a warm feeling welled up in her heart. "You, can you cure my sister?"

Lin Feng nodded. "I can give it a try, if you believe me."

"Yes, I do!"

Xia Chuqing's eyes lit up. Without any hesitation, somehow, she had an inexplicable trust in Lin Feng.

"Lin Feng, come with me!"

She pulled Lin Feng directly to the ward.

"Ms. Xia, you can't trust him. He is too young."

Simon was also anxious. He followed behind the two and tried to dissuade them. "Even Dr. Kong can't do anything about it. Is this person more skillful than Dr. Kong?"

Sun Xingyang, who was following them, snorted and said, "Who does he think he is? How can he compare with my master? He is not even a doctor!"

Hearing this, Simon said in an angry tone, "Ms. Xia, you are playing a joke on your sister's life by doing this."

"As a responsible doctor, I will not allow you to do this, even if you are a family member of the patient."

Xia Chuqing turned a deaf ear and pulled Lin Feng to the ward.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Simon ran forward and stopped them at the door of the ward. He opened his arms and said, "I can't let you do whatever you want."

Seeing that time was running short, Lin Feng had no choice but to take action. He immediately reached out and pressed on the abdomen of Simon.

"Hiss!"

The burly doctor took a deep breath in pain after being pressed by Lin Feng. He bent over and his face was covered with sweat.

His legs were trembling.

"What did you do to me?" There was surprise and astonishment in the angry eyes of the doctor.

"Doctor Simon, red wine is good, but don't drink too much. There's something wrong with your liver," Lin Feng said and walked into the ward.

Then, he pulled the separated curtain and lifted the quilt.

A woman's graceful body was fully displayed in Lin Feng's eyes.

However, this body had lost its normal rosy color and was completely pale.

Lin Feng immediately opened the box and took out a silver needle.

"Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!"

The sixth move of the Nine Magical Needles, Six Harmonies Saint.

Compared to before, where it took him a lot of effort to use the method, at this moment, Lin Feng was able to do it accurately, and the strength was not inferior at all.

Every time the needle pierced into her body, a trace of Innate True Qi flowed into her meridians and acupoints.

Along with Lin Feng's acupuncture, six red lines appeared on the girl's body.

The red line spread along the meridians and connected with the needles' tips.

Soon, the girl's pale skin became a little ruddy.

It was as if the sun had dispelled the darkness and melted the glacier.

Outside the room, Xia Chuqing stood guard at the door, not allowing Simon and the others to break in and disturb Lin Feng.

However, that alarming beeping made her nervous. It was consuming her trust in Lin Feng little by little and torturing her soul as well.

"Ms. Xia, you will pay the price for your impulsive behavior."

The surgeon held back the pain at his abdomen as he warned Xia Chuqing.

At the same time, he also ordered, "Send someone to surround the hospital exit. Don't let that fraudster escape from this hospital."

Sun Xingyang was even more proud of himself. "Lin Feng, you can show off. But when you fail to save her, I'll definitely celebrate."

The alarm continued. Xia Chuqing's heart was beating violently along with the beeping, and her hands couldn't stop trembling.

"Please be okay!" she prayed.

"Lin Feng, I'll leave everything to you!"

She had no choice but to accept it.

"Beep!"

At this moment, the alarm suddenly turned into a crisp sound.

Everyone was stunned and couldn't help shivering.

There was silence all around, and even the sound of breathing was deliberately suppressed.

"Beep... Beep... Beep..."

Then, there was another crisp sound, which was extremely clear, beating on everyone's hearts.

Xia Chuqing was stunned for a moment, and then she was overjoyed. Unable to contain her excitement, she pushed the door open.

The crowd couldn't help but pop their heads out to take a look. They were all stunned.

"Ding, ding, ding!" The rhythm of the ups and downs was getting stable.

Ten times! Twenty times, sixty times!

Then the normal pace!

Simon knelt on the ground. "She's saved. She's really saved!"

Lin Feng put away the silver needles and took a deep breath.

"She's all right. She just need to recuperate. After all, a few of her ribs are broken."

"It will heal in a month!"

"Lin Feng, thank you!"

Xia Chuqing couldn't suppress the excitement in her heart. She opened her beautiful arms and hugged Lin Feng. "You saved my sister, Chuyu, which means that you saved me."

"I really don't know how to thank you!"

Lin Feng felt awkward. This sudden gentleness left him at a loss.

Huh?

It turned out that the girl's name was Xia Chuyu!

Sun Xingyang was so shocked that his jaw dropped.

How was this possible?

Wasn't this guy a good-for-nothing?

How could it be...

Sun Xingyang's face was as red as a pig's liver. He couldn't believe that the person who was about to die was saved by simply an acupuncture technique!

Acupuncture?

By the way, wasn't that box of needles Kong Dexuan's?

Then, he immediately took out his mobile phone and saw a text message, which made him extremely angry.
