Chapter 6

In the ward, except for the dripping sound from the medical instrument, it was quiet and even a little depressing.

All the people in the room stared at Lin Feng in disbelief.

The person who had basically died regained her heartbeat!

What the h*ll! The patient's vital functions had been gone, and he could bring her back to life with just a few needles!

How did he do it?

"The patient is back to life. Please start giving treatment!"

Just as everyone was stunned, Lin Feng shouted at the top of his voice, "Hurry up! What are you waiting for?"

Since it was the first time Lin Feng used the needle technique, he still had a lot of details to learn and master. He was exhausted.

Hearing Lin Feng, the medical staff reacted and immediately treated Qin Hongling.

Kong Dexuan checked her too.

"What?"

The next moment, he was extremely shocked.

Her pulse gradually became stable.

Her vital signs were gradually recovering!

Even the stroke had been cured!

"Mr. Kong, how is the patient?"

Sun Xingyang got up from the ground and saw Mr. Kong's expression change again and again. He immediately asked, "Is it hopeless?"

"Is it terminal lucidity?"

Even now, he still did not believe that Lin Feng knew medical skills, and was even better than him.

Everyone was stunned when they heard what he had said.

It had to be terminal lucidity. How could a dead person come back to life?

Even Mr. Kong couldn't save her. How could she be saved just like that by this young man?

This was simply impossible!

Shen Hanwei, who had been crying with joy, became miserable again from the words "terminal lucidity".

"Mr. Kong, how... how is it going?"

Seeing that Mr. Kong was checking Qin Hongling's pulse with a serious face, Shen Hanwei voice could not help trembling. "Hongling, she... can she be saved?"

"Are you a fool?"

After observing Mr. Kong's expression carefully, Sun Xingyang came to a conclusion. "Didn't you see my mentor's expression?"

"Your wife's condition must be hopeless."

He said firmly, "This is terminal lucidity!"

Seeing that Mr. Kong was silent, Shen Hanwei's heart sank and he sat on the ground powerlessly.

Seeing this, Sun Xingyang pointed at Lin Feng and said, "If you want to blame someone, blame him."

"The patient could have left in peace, but because of him trying to impress others, she had to go through another death."

"Such tragedy. Her loved ones must feel awful, while her enemies feel great!"

He sighed and deliberately pointed the blame at Lin Feng to vent his resentment toward him.

As a young miracle-working doctor, he was defeated by a good-for-nothing, that was why he was angry.

He was obviously the future of the medicine industry, but the woman beside him was not the stunning woman he wanted, Qin Ruoxian, so he was feeling upset.

After hearing Sun Xingyang's words, everyone also looked at Lin Feng with hatred.

Even Qin Ruoxian was in a trance. Although she did not want her cousin to die of illness, she was more willing to accept the fact that it was just terminal lucidity.

After all, she had known Lin Feng for more than 20 years and knew him well.

A good-for-nothing was still a good-for-nothing, and it would only make people laugh at him if he tried to impress them.

"Whoosh—" At this moment, Kong Dexuan suddenly stood up.

"Slap!" A loud slap sounded.

"Master, why... why did you hit me?" Sun Xingyang covered his face and looked at Kong Dexuan in confusion.

"What are you talking about? What do you mean by what you said?"

Kong Dexuan was exasperated at Sun Xingyang's failure to live up to his expectations. He looked at him and asked, "Are you here to cure the disease or to fan the flames?"

Everyone was caught off guard by Mr. Kong's sudden move.

Sun Xingyang looked at Kong Dexuan. He was angry, but he didn't dare to say anything.

Suddenly, he realized something, and his eyes were full of shock.

"Master, do you mean that this is not terminal lucidity?"

"It's not!"

Kong Dexuan knocked Sun Xingyang's head again and then looked at the crowd. "The patient is gradually recovering. She can get out of bed in less than three days."

"Hiss—" Sun Xingyang gasped.

The doctors also looked at Kong Dexuan in shock.

As doctors, no one would ever say that the patient's condition would get better when it looked like terminal lucidity, afraid of getting into trouble.

But at this moment, Kong Dexuan, the authority of the industry, said that the patient was gradually recovering.

This was not only comfort for the patient and the patient's family, but also the best news for the hospital. It was also a great approval of Lin Feng.

The attending doctor couldn't help cheering, but soon stood next to the hospital bed in a daze.

It was not until now that they remembered what they had experienced.

A patient who was suffering from death had regained her life in their hands.

This wasn't terminal lucidity, but she was truly saved.

This matter could be talked about for the rest of his life.

Then, they all looked at Lin Feng, who had been holding down the formation, with complicated expressions on their faces.

There was surprise, emotion, and admiration, but most looked guilty.

When they thought of how they had humiliated Lin Feng and how they wanted to do him harm, they wanted nothing more than to dig a hole and hide in it.

Not only did they look down on others, but also almost killed the patient...

At this time, Kong Dexuan walked up to Lin Feng and bowed deeply.

The rest of the doctors also bowed respectfully to Lin Feng.

"I'm sorry..." he apologized with great respect.

Lin Feng waved his hand and said with a smile, "It's okay. It's good that the patient is fine!"

"Impossible, this is impossible..."

Qin Ruoxian, who was standing at the door, had a stiff expression on her beautiful face. She had mixed feelings.

In addition to being happy for Qin Hongling's condition, she found it unacceptable for them to bow to Lin Feng.

She never dreamed that Lin Feng, who was bullied by others and despised to the bones by others in the Qin Family, could get the respect of Dr. Kong and the others.

The words "I'm sorry" echoed in Qin Ruoxian's ears. She suddenly realized that she also owed Lin Feng an apology.

But she couldn't do it.

She, who had always been superior to others, could only look down on Lin Feng, hate him, and even despise him. This kind of mentality lasted for more than ten years and could not be changed within a short time.

"Humph, it must be a fluke."

Qin Ruoxian raised her beautiful face proudly and said, "If his medical skills are really amazing, his mother wouldn't have been in the hospital for so long!"

She firmly believed that the respect Lin Feng got was due to luck. After all, saving people with medical skills was not something that could be achieved by sudden enlightenment.

The most important thing was that she really did not want to lower her head in front of Lin Feng.

However, when she saw the surprised faces of Shen Hanwei and Sun Xinyang out of the corner of her eye, she suddenly felt a sense of pleasure.

No matter how useless Lin Feng had been in the past, or how he had been looked down upon, there was no doubt that Lin Feng was helping her at this moment.

As the doctors continued to observe Qin Hongling, Lin Feng squeezed through the crowd and came to the outside of the ward.

The first time he used the needle technique, he inevitably consumed a lot of energy, but relatively speaking, the Innate True Qi was not reduced much.

Lin Feng was delighted, and he also made up his mind to save people in the future. It would be best if he didn't use his True Qi in case he had to deal with emergencies.

As soon as Lin Feng sat down on the bench in the corridor, he saw Shen Hanwei standing at the door.

He thought that Shen Hanwei would come to express his thanks, but he didn't expect that Shen Hanwei would walk into the ward again in a panic.

08:57

"Forget it. I've got what I want. Anyway, I'll only save her this time!" Lin Feng thought.

As soon as Shen Hanwei entered the room, Kong Dexuan came out in a hurry, followed by Sun Xingyang.

"Lin Feng!"

Kong Dexuan walked over quickly and knelt down in front of Lin Feng. "I really don't know how I can thank you. I, Kong Dexuan, owe you a favor!"

The medical staffs were stunned. Dr. Kong actually knelt down and thanked him?

Were they seeing things?

Lin Feng quickly helped Mr. Kong up and said, "Dr. Kong, there's really no need to do this."

He looked a little awkward. "The reason why I saved her was entirely out of my own interests. I didn't take the initiative to help you, so you don't have to thank me."

Although Lin Feng enjoyed the feeling of being respected, Mr. Kong was still an authoritative figure in the medicine industry of Fecrait.

It wouldn't be a good thing if reporters saw Mr. Kong kneeling down to him.

Sun Xingyang also exclaimed, "Master, why are you kneeling down and thanking this good-for-nothing? Why is he worthy of you doing this?"

"He saved you just now and saved your future."

Kong Dexuan gave Sun Xingyang an angry slap on the head. "Have you forgotten what happened just now?"

"Although you are not the patient's attending doctor, you made a mistake in the needle technique during the treatment."

He looked extremely angry. "If it weren't for Lin Feng's timely rescue, do you think you could still stand here in peace?"

Sun Xingyang was shocked by Kong Dexuan's words, only to find that he had almost killed a patient.

Not only would his reputation be damaged, but he might also be involved in a lawsuit.

After thinking about it, he felt a chill on his back. "Master, I... I was wrong!"

"What's the use of apologizing to me?"

Kong Dexuan looked at Sun Xingyang and said, "You should apologize to the patient and his family. You should also apologize to Lin Feng."

Sun Xingyang's body trembled and he was very unwilling to do it.

He thought that if it were not for Lin Feng's interference, why would he make acupuncture mistakes?

At this time, he should be the one creating the miracle. How could it be Lin Feng's turn to have such a glorious moment?

But at this time, his master was present. He dared not to speak out his anger, so he had to say in a soft voice reluctantly, "I'm sorry."

In addition to apologizing, he glared at Lin Feng. He secretly swore that he would pay back the humiliation he had suffered today ten times over.

Also, he was determined to get Lin Feng's wife, Qin Ruoxian.

Lin Feng caught the cruelty in Sun Xingyang's eyes and smiled faintly.

"Mr. Kong, I'll accept your thanks. If there's nothing else, I'll go back first."

The implication was that Lin Feng did not accept Sun Xingyang's apology.

Seeing that Lin Feng was about to leave, Kong Dexuan did not think too much about it. He hurriedly pulled Lin Feng back and said, "Lin Feng, wait!"

08:57

"I have a favor to ask of you. I wonder if you can accompany me to meet someone tomorrow?"

Kong Dexuan added, "Maybe only you can cure his disease!"

A patient even Tianhai and Kong Dexuan couldn't cure?

Somehow, Lin Feng was a little interested and agreed without thinking.

"Mr. Kong, I can't guarantee that I can cure it, but I can give it a try."

"Okay! Then I'll go to the Qin family to pick you up tomorrow morning."

Kong Dexuan was afraid that Lin Feng would go back on his word, so he left in a hurry without mentioning the patient's name.

At this moment, Qin Ruoxian came out of the ward and happened to meet Lin Feng's gaze. She stopped subconsciously.

Many things had happened in the past few days, which made her a little unfamiliar with Lin Feng. She was surprised and guilty.

Seeing the expectant look in Lin Feng's eyes, she knew what Lin Feng wanted.

But she, who had been superior to him, still raised her pretty face proudly and walked towards Lin Feng. "Humph, you are lucky today that you didn't cause me trouble."

"But luck won't always be with you. Even if you make one mistake, you won't be able to bear the responsibility."

At the thought of Lin Feng's impulsive behavior today, she couldn't help but get angry. "Do you understand what I mean?"

Lin Feng smiled and nodded, looking slightly disappointed. "I understand. It won't happen again."

He did not want her to apologize. Instead, he wanted her to pay attention to him a little more.

He was no longer that good-for-nothing, no longer the live-in son-in-law who could be bullied. He had the ability to protect his dignity and the people around him.

However, Qin Ruoxian's words disappointed him once again. "I've already dealt with this mess. If there's nothing else, I'll go back first."

Lin Feng turned and left. But at this moment, a soft little hand slipped into his palm.

The skin was as smooth as jade, soft and boneless.

Qin Ruoxian pulled Lin Feng and got into the BMW.

Lin Feng was slightly shocked. This was the first time that Qin Ruoxian had taken the initiative to touch him.

He suddenly felt that Qin Ruoxian was a little different from before. Although she was still as cold as before, she cared about him a little more.

He could not help but ask, "Where are you taking me?"

"Where else can we go?"

Qin Ruoxian responded angrily and stepped on the accelerator. "Come home with me!"
