

Chapter 1231

He could not accept it in front of so many people. So for a moment, he was indeed eager to kill Tom with all his strength. All he wanted to do was to defeat Tom.

Tom sensed it.

However, Tom slightly moved up the corners of his mouth, revealing a meaningful smile.

In fact, Tom did not take his opponent seriously at all. To put it bluntly, even if Tom didn't move, he would not lose the match.

All Tom thought about now was how to act after winning the match.

What Tom was concerned about most was Cassio's attitude.

In a short time, he had come up with many possible results.

Tom pretended to be vulnerable, at a distinct disadvantage.

But in fact, he had never been defeated, just like a candle in the strong wind that would be extinguished at any time, but it had never happened because of his perseverance.

Half an hour passed, and Tom didn't be defeated. On the contrary, he slowly gained the upper hand. The audience on the spot was surprised. They did not expect that except for King of Carefree, there would be another Chosen One named Bishop in the Clan World. More importantly, they had never heard of the name before.

Suddenly, the crowd was attracted by Bishop.

Even many of them compared Bishop to Tom.

However, it was beyond their expectation that Bishop was actually Tom!

Finally, after fighting for a while, Bishop grasped a fleeting opportunity to fight back, only to defeat his opponent!

"Gee..."

The opponent lay on the ground, looking up at Bishop. It was unbelievable and ridiculous that Bishop could defeat him. He had always held the idea that after King of Carefree had died, he, as God's Favored People, was the strongest master in Blood Thirst Sect!

Originally, he was confident to win the match. But now he was defeated, even by a nobody!

It was so shocking that he could not help vomiting the blood.

The audience on the scene was dumbfounded, looking at Bishop in disbelief. How could the nobody, without reputation and supports at all, finally come to the final round and become the final winner?

Not to mention those disciples, even the senior management, at this moment, were amazed by Bishop!

They had doubted Bishop's identity before, but after seeing his movement just now, the suspicion vanished and they were sure that Bishop actually came from Clan World!

Therefore, many masters began to consider having a closer relationship with Bishop...

Cassio didn't take the contest seriously at first, but he was surprised at Bishop's outstanding performance.

Cassio examined Bishop carefully, trying to see him through, but he failed to find anything unusual about Bishop. Eventually, he dispelled the suspicion.

"The winner is Bishop!"

The host announced loudly that Bishop was the winner, which meant that Bishop would be qualified to marry Ashlynn, Cassio's daughter. It was an incomparably enviable!

For a moment, Tom felt the crowd's envious look...

In fact, Bishop was extremely excited as well. Finally, he could give Phoebe an aboveboard and grand marriage which he owed Phoebe. Phoebe really didn't expect that the dream could come true here by mistake, making Bishop enormously surprised.

At the same time, Bishop also diverted his gaze, waiting for the next procedure.

Under everyone's gaze, Cassio came down with Phoebe and walked to Bishop. Then, Cassio smiled and said, "Bishop."

Bishop saluted quickly and replied respectfully, "My overlord!"

Seeing Bishop's posture, Cassio was satisfied. Bishop was neither humble nor arrogant, elegant and excellent. He was indeed promising.

"Will you marry Ashlynn, my daughter?"

Cassio asked.

He couldn't help gazing at Phoebe, but he didn't dare to expose his deep love. As a consequence, he looked at her with admiration and excitement in an impeccable manner.

Phoebe looked at Bishop as well. For some reason, it could have been a repulsive sight for Phoebe, but when eyeing Bishop, she did not feel disgusted she had imagined. Instead, she felt something indescribably familiar.

Thinking of it, Phoebe quickly shook her head and looked away. At the same time, she was a little embarrassed and ashamed. She was Tom's woman. In this case, however, her heart pounded for another man! It was really unforgivable!

The audience all fixed on Bishop.

Bishop took a deep breath with excitement and nervousness. Then he clenched his fists and replied loudly, "I do! It's my honor to marry Miss Jimenez!"

"Good! Excellent!" Cassio felt overjoyed when hearing Bishop's answer. He patted Bishop on the shoulder and said, "You are a good man indeed. You win the contest today. So from now on, you are my son-in-law."

Phoebe bit her lips and couldn't help saying, "I won't!"

The room was silent after her words were spoken out.

Cassio's face darkened in a flash. He snorted and smiled again without responding to Phoebe. Then, Cassio continued saying to Bishop, "Today is the day. It's excellent to have a wedding tonight. After tonight, my daughter will be your wife. You cannot bully my daughter, or I will not forgive you."

Hearing this, Bishop became even more excited. He knelt down immediately on one knee and swore, "I swear, from now on, I will not treat Miss Jimenez well!"

Phoebe wanted to say something more, but Cassio hit at her certain acupoints, making her dumb. She even couldn't move at all, like a living death.

In despair, Phoebe failed to do anything else except marrying Bishop, with tears welled up in her eyes.

How could Tom not see Phoebe's despair? To be honest, he was mixed with emotions as well.

Phoebe's despair actually showed that she loved Tom deeply.

Chapter 1232

The next step would be to hold the wedding.

Cassio couldn't wait to marry Phoebe out on that night.

Everyone was surprised to see that Cassio was in such a hurry to hold the wedding. Many people thought that Cassio would wait a few days before he started to prepare for the marriage. After all, Ashlynn was his dear daughter. It seemed to rush to hold the wedding on the first night.

Under such circumstances, Phoebe was constantly crying. She was in such pain that she even considered ending her own life.

She could not accept that she had to marry someone other than Tom.

However, Cassio had immobilized her. She couldn't move at all.

As a winner, Tom was envied by many people for getting the opportunity to become Cassio's son-in-law.

That night, when he put on the groom's outfit, he became the focus of the wedding. Many people went to express their blessings.

Tom drank to anyone who came to bless them. His face was turning red, and everyone could tell that he was overjoyed. However, No one knew what he felt at that time.

through his heart. His nose became sore at the sight of this scene, and he almost burst into tears.

Fortunately, he held it back by immediately lowering his head. He tried to calm down and adjust his expression. He had reached the last step. No matter what, he could not fail now.

At this time, Phoebe was led into the room. Tom was asked to kneel in front of Cassio with Phoebe. Someone beside them said loudly, "The first bow. Bow to the earth."

Phoebe knelt in a daze. Tom knelt beside her.

"The second bow! Bow to the

Finally, after all the formalities, he saw Phoebe in a red veil. He was burning with desire at first sight of her.

He almost wanted to shout out loud.

Seeing Phoebe in the bright red wedding dress, Tom felt the time had traveled back to the first time when he was becoming the son-in-law of the the Scotts.

Phoebe was also wearing a bright red wedding dress that night.

She was also wearing a red veil.

Time seemed to have returned to its original point at this moment. Everything seemed so familiar to Tom.

Tom felt a stream of warmth flash parents!"

The couple bowed again.

"The third bow! Bow to each other!"

After hearing this, Phoebe's body trembled violently. It was obvious that she didn't want to do this and that she was struggling. Cassio coughed once at this moment, and Phoebe knelt on the ground as if her body was out of her control. She started to bow to Tom.

Tom took a deep breath and bowed to her.

At this moment, Tom felt excitement and other complicated feelings.

It was his second time having a wedding ceremony with Phoebe.

The next step was to drink their love-shot.

Phoebe was in tears after finishing all the steps. She felt awful because she felt that it was a betrayal of Tom.

However, she had no choice. Cassio threatened her with Tom's safety!

If she didn't do as she was told, the only thing that would be waiting for Tom when he came to Blood Thirst Sect was death.

After seeing the strength of the Blood Thirst Sect, she knew that Tom's life would be in Cassio's mercy if he ever came here.

She couldn't accept if anything happened to Tom. She would rather sacrifice herself to save his life.

She had made up her mind that as long as there was no danger for Tom, she would end her life without hesitation.

She would rather die than be touched by a second man.

She returned to the room like a walking corpse.

Tom felt the pain and despair in her and sighed. He wanted to hug Phoebe in his arms so many times and tell her that it was him.

However, he held it back because he knew that he and Phoebe were both doomed once he did it. Tom couldn't allow this to happen.

After suppressing the feeling that he shouldn't have in the first place, he began to accept all the wines people offered him. He wanted to be drunk before he went back to the room.

Just as he was about to reach the room, a man suddenly stood in front of him.

Tom's heart suddenly thumped, and his nerves tensed up when he saw the man in front of him.

It was Cassio standing there.

Cassio blocked his way and stared at him.

Tom's mind was racing, wondering why Cassio had stopped him here.

"Did Cassio discover who he was?"
Tom thought.

"No, that's unlikely. If Cassio found out who he was, he wouldn't have waited till now to make his move." Tom comforted himself.

"Mr. Scott."

It looked like Bishop was wasted. He couldn't even say the word clearly.

Cassio stared at him but did not see anything weird with him. He nodded to him and said, "Let Ashlynn eat this later."

As he spoke, Cassio's palm opened and revealed a red pill the size of a fingernail.

Cassio's action surprised Tom. He asked quietly, "What's this?"

"You don't have to know. Just do as I say." Cassio said faintly.

Tom agreed to Cassio and took the pill from his hand. He walked unsteadily into the room. Nobody could tell that Tom was outraged now.

After Tom entered the room, a man appeared behind Cassio.

It was supreme Elder, Oliver.

"Cassio, are you planning to do it tonight?"

"The magic power in Ashlynn has matured," Cassio said faintly.

However, there was a strange madness in his eyes.

Oliver said after a while, "Wouldn't she die if you take the magic power away?"

Cassio did not answer immediately. He answered word by word, "It's her duty."

Oliver looked at him, shook his head, but didn't say anything. He soon disappeared.

Tom saw Phoebe sitting on the bed as soon as he walked into the room.

Phoebe was so quiet, beautiful, but weak now. It made his heart ache.

Tom felt his body warm-up when he saw her sitting on the bed like this.

He closed the door and walked towards her slowly.

Phoebe immediately shivered and was agitated when she heard the noise he made.

Finally, Tom walked up to her. He sat across from her, looked at her deeply, and gently lifted her red veil.

Phoebe's beautiful face was full of tears, and she looked sad.

Tom's heart twitched when he saw this.

He reached out his hand unconsciously and wanted to wipe her tears away.

"Don't touch me!" Phoebe reacted intensely.

Chapter 1233

Phoebe immediately aggressively pushed Tom away in disgust.

"Phoebe, it's me."

Tom said softly and gently as if it was the most gentle voice in the world.

Phoebe, who was originally excited, paused when she heard his voice. She had complex expressions. She opened her eyes wide and looked in disbelief and even felt she was hallucinating!

Otherwise, how could she be here and hear Tom's voice?

Phoebe clearly knew that she was in the Blood Thirst Sect and a man named Bishop sat in front of her.

So, she felt that she must have hallucinated because she missed Tom too much. In this case, her mind had already gone wrong!

When seeing her expression, Tom understood that Phoebe thought she had misheard. Therefore, he slowly changed his disguised appearance and was restored to his original appearance.

Phoebe, on the other hand, opened her eyes wide and stared at him in disbelief. The next moment, when he finished his changing, she covered her mouth and looked at him in shock.

Though she had a strong mental capacity, she was also in absolute shock at this time. She could not believe that the person she had been thinking about day and night would appear in front of her in this way. She found it to be unreasonable.

Then, she felt her hands being held by a pair of warm and strong hands. She heard his voice, "Phoebe, I'm sorry I'm late. You suffered during this period of time... I swear I'll never leave you again."

Now Phoebe knew it was the man she missed and she burst into tears.

In an instant, her face was full of tears and her clothes were wet with tears.

She recognized that it was truly Tom!

As a couple for many years, she immediately recognized that the man was really her husband Tom!

She could not describe her mixed feelings and felt excited.

She was already desperate, but she didn't expect that the next moment, the man that she missed so much would appear in front of her.

When Tom saw her reaction, he bordered on crying and held her in his arms, and said with great longing and affection in a low voice, "Phoebe, I finally found you. I missed you so much. I missed you every day!"

When hearing his words, she became even more excited and cried even harder. She hugged him tightly and didn't want to be separated from him anymore.

She would never be separated from him again.

They hugged each other for a long time before Phoebe finally said, "Tom, is this true? Are you really in front of me?"

Although she had been hugging him for a long time, Phoebe never dared to believe it because this kind of thing was too mysterious.

She couldn't figure out how he could turn into another person!

He deceived her and everyone else.

Tom said softly, "It's really me. This is the new skill I learned after I came out of the Secret Realm."

Then, Tom told Phoebe about what had happened during this period.

After Phoebe let out a long breath and finally became relaxed. However, she suddenly thought of something and said nervously, "No! This is in the Blood Thirst Sect, guarded by the Strong, especially my father Cassio, who had reached a terrifying level. Tom, you can't save me!"

Tom stared at her and said, "Phoebe, don't worry. If I dare to come, it means that I have absolute confidence that I can save you!"

Next, he told Phoebe his plan.

Then she felt assured a little.

However, she was still extremely worried because she had a general understanding of the power of the Blood Thirst Sect when she was imprisoned here. She knew that he could escape this place alone and it was extremely difficult for both of them to leave the Blood Thirst Sect.

She bit her lip and made a difficult decision. She pushed him away and said, "Tom, you'd better leave by yourself."

Tom paused and said quickly, "Why?!"

"Because it's too dangerous." Phoebe shook her head because she didn't want Tom to take risks for her.

Tom was both moved and helpless and shook his head and said, "No, I've already come here. How can I give up? Besides, we're husband and wife. We've been together for so many years. I won't abandon you even if there are numerous difficulties waiting for me!"

"But..." Phoebe said.

"Don't worry. Don't you believe in me?"

Tom replied

Phoebe looked at Tom and finally chose to nod, and clenched their fingers tightly. "Tom, we will never leave each other. We will be together in the next life!"

Tom beamed and nodded hard, "Of course! We will always be together.

Then, follow my plan. We will definitely be able to leave here!"

"Okay!" Phoebe nodded.

In the middle of the night, Tom sneaked out of the room first and secretly dealt with the people around after turning into Bishop.

And he also quickly looked at the escape route and found that there was no problem. He came back to take Phoebe and left here together in the middle of the night when the guards were sleepy,

He had already made this plan in the past few days. As long as he was meticulous, he believed he could bring her to escape from the Blood Thirst

Sect!

Phoebe was now in the second stage of the Innate Realm. Although Cassio imposed Taboo on her, she didn't suffer a lot after it was forcibly untied by Tom.

She changed into a nightgown and left with Tom.

However, not long after they left, somewhere in the Blood Thirst Sect, Cassio in his room suddenly opened his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Something's wrong!"

Chapter 1234

As soon as he finished, he appeared in another place. His speed was extremely fast!

And then the Boom of Explosion sounded in the room.

Cassio had always been focused on Phoebe. Although he was not near her, he could clearly feel her.

But just now, he suddenly couldn't feel her and it seemed that she disappeared out of thin air!

That was incredible. Phoebe was totally controlled by him. It was impossible for her to run away, especially since Bishop was still there!

title of the Overlord of the Blood Thirst Sect!

He could be almost 100% sure that there was something wrong with Bishop. He was probably Tom!

He knew that Ashlynn's name in the Secular World was Phoebe. And Tom's surname was Howard.

At the thought of this, he felt annoyed.

He thought he was fooled!

Now, he could be almost 100% sure that it was Tom. Although he did not know how he had changed his appearance and mental force, no one in this world had the motivation and guts to take Phoebe away but Tom!

Judging from Bishop's performance today, he thought he had the strength of the Second Rank God Becoming Level at least and was an outstanding Super Genius. A master of the Innate Realm like Phoebe could have no ability to resist at all.

He was still surprised that she could escape.

All of a sudden, he thought of something with his eyes wide open!

He became irritated.

Bishop.

His surname was Scott and his name was Tom. Coupled with Bishop's performance today, if Cassio couldn't understand it, he didn't deserve the coldly, "I was fooled. Bishop was Tom. Ashlynn was taken away by him."

"What?!"

Oliver was shocked and couldn't believe it.

You know, this was the Blood Thirst Sect which could be said the most powerful place in the world. But Tom took Ashlynn away without being found. His immediate reaction was that Cassio must be wrong.

"Cassio, you must be mistaken. We investigated the identity of Bishop. It couldn't be Tom!" Oliver said in a deep voice.

Cassio's eyes flashed with murderous intent, but he did not lose his mind.

"Damn it! Go to hell, Tom!"

Cassio gritted his teeth and roared.

He arrived at Phoebe's Boudoir in the blink of an eye. He kicked the door open and rushed in. Sure enough, there was no one inside.

Then the guards around came running over. And they were all confused about what had happened.

Especially Cassio's expression made them even more anxious.

Soon, a number of masters from the Blood Thirst Sect came, including the Supreme Elder Oliver. He said in a deep voice, "Cassio, what happened?"

Cassio took a deep breath and said

Instead, he said in a deep voice, "I don't know how he made it, but I'm sure it was him! Only he had the motivation and ability!"

Oliver knew Cassio well and he believed him. He said in a deep voice, "If Ashlynn was really taken away by Tom, then your plan will be ruined."

Cassio sneered, "It's impossible for them to leave the Blood Thirst Sect quietly!"

After a pause, he turned around and waved his hand. "Attention! All of you, take action. Anyhow, you must find out Tom and the Eldest Miss!"

"Yes, sir!"

Immediately, everyone in the whole

Blood Thirst Sect took action.

It was absolutely an unusual night. Bishop turned out to be Tom, who came specially to save Ashlynn, and he made it. This news really caused a great stir.

In a very short time, it spread all over the Clan World.

It's all because many people from other sects had temporarily stayed here.

When they heard the news, they were also shocked.

After all, it was the top one Sect, even in the whole world. But Tom had the guts to save people from here all by himself.

The most incredible thing was he made it.

This had never happened before!

As you could imagine, Tom would be much more popular from now on.

However, even so, no one would believe that Tom could be able to get out of the Blood Thirst Sect with Ashlynn.

At this time, the entire Blood Thirst Sect was guarded by powerful masters. Once Tom and Ashlynn appeared, they would be encircled.

Because Cassio had already said everyone including the Strong who temporarily lived here should join in this encirclement.

The name Tom was no stranger to them. It could be said that the whole Clan World hated his guts.

Usually, Tom stayed in the H Country and it was fine if he didn't show up. But now, he came to the Blood Thirst Sect. They couldn't let this opportunity go.

In their opinion, it was only a matter of time before they caught him!

In fact, Tom and Phoebe did not get out of here.

Because Cassio reacted too fast. Not long after they left the boudoir, Cassio had already sniffed it out. And then in just a few minutes, he issued an order to catch them!

However, Tom still remained calm.

It's been three days since things came to light. They had hid, not in a hurry to escape.

Chapter 1235

However, on the fourth day, he found something wrong with Phoebe.

Phoebe was in good health for the first three days. Yet on the fourth day, her health suddenly degraded, with her breath getting feeble. Apparently, she was seriously ill.

But this was abnormal. Since Phoebe was already a master of the Innate Realm, and her restriction had already been removed, how could something went wrong?

At first, Tom deemed that Phoebe was weak because of not eating anything for three days. But soon, he realized the fact that something had gone wrong with her!

And her situation was getting worse!

"Phoebe! What's up? Is there anything wrong?!"

Tom asked hurriedly.

Phoebe shook her head, and her lips blanched. She grabbed Tom's hand and whispered, "No, Tom, he has found me. It was he who has weakened my body, and soon we will be discovered. Now, the entire Blood Thirst Sect has set up inescapable traps against us. You can't manage to escape while carrying me. So, you'd better leave me alone, go as far as you can and never come back..."

Tom sulked at those words. "Phoebe! What nonsense are you talking about!

How can I leave you behind? We are a couple now, and I will take you away no matter what! Phoebe, tell me now, what has Cassio done to you? Why are you so weak?!"

Phoebe still shook her head and said, "Don't bother. I'm naturally weak. Besides, that thing in my body is about to mature. He won't let me go until he takes it away..."

As she was mumbling, Phoebe turned pale, with her breath getting more feeble. Tom had never seen her like this, which indeed flustered him!!

He hugged Phoebe tightly, only to find that her temperature was starting to drop, which put him completely in dismay. He kept asking, "Phoebe!

What happened? What on earth has happened to you?"

Phoebe shook her head and urged softly, "Tom, go, go hurriedly. Leave me alone..."

Could Tom give up on her?

The answer must be no!

According to his plan, he should have continued to hide. Since the Blood Thirst Sect's trapping network will inevitably have loopholes if used for a long time, then it was time for him to break through it with Phoebe. But now, Phoebe's situation had prevented him from hiding any longer. He had to force a way out.

Despite that he was aware of the risks of doing so, he had no choice at present.

Taking Phoebe in his embrace, he lowered his head to gently kiss her on the cheek. "Phoebe, don't worry. I'll definitely take you out. Have a good rest."

Speaking of this, he carried Phoebe and strode out of there.

Phoebe perceived his movement and immediately opened her eyes. She yelled nervously in panic, "No! Tom, don't!"

However, Tom had made up his mind and wouldn't be persuaded by her.

Sure enough, as soon as Tom came out with Phoebe in his arms, he immediately attracted the attention of the guards, who looked over at them.

"They're here!"

"They're here! Take them down!"

"Report to the Sect!"

Almost at the same time, Tom took his move as the guards were yelping. Even though he was holding Phoebe, his speed was very impressive. Almost in an instant, he reached the guards and struck.

These guards were no ordinary people of the Innate Realm, but some powerful masters of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, among which there was even a master of the Half-step God Becoming Level.

"He's here!"

His figure vanished the next moment, leaving nothing in where he had been. There were still many executives of the Blood Thirst Sect in the hall, and they also moved towards the position where Tom appeared to outflank him at their quickest speed possible. They had to put Tom under arrest!

They knew that the capture of Tom was not just to stop him from taking Ashlynn away, nor was it just to save the face of the Blood Thirst Sect. Instead, it was because killing Tom, the number one force in the Secular World, here, would definitely facilitate their invasion of the Secular World!

Therefore, not only the Blood Thirst

Their power was sufficient to stir up a storm outside, but it could not hurt Tom even a little.

In a brief glimpse, Tom had done with them. It took no more than two seconds, which was to the extreme!

Although Tom was fast enough, he failed to prevent them from sending the signal away. For a moment, the whole Blood Thirst Sect was informed of Tom's presence, and they were skittering towards them at an extremely fast speed to form a huge net to catch them. With such strength, Tom would be bound to be captured, even if he was a shark!

At the same time, Cassio heard the signal and instantly opened his eyes.

Sect but also the elites of the entire Clan World had already gathered at the Blood Thirst Sect in an attempt to capture Tom!

To say the least, Tom was a rat in a hole now, and his capture was but a matter of time.

And it wouldn't take long.

In fact, this news had already spread away two days ago, reaching to the Secular World.

It immediately procured a stir!

Especially everyone in H Country was reacting violently.

"What?! Tom actually fell into the hands of the Blood Thirst Sect! What's going on?"

"Over, it's all over. Tom is our only hope. If the Blood Thirst Sect really has him, then everything would be gone..."

"There's no need to be too pessimistic. Tom hasn't really been captured by the Blood Thirst Sect, yet. With his extraordinary strength, maybe he can make it to escape."

"That's impossible. What sort of place is the Blood Thirst Sect? Numerous masters of the Innate Realm swarm all around there, and they have plenty of top masters, even with Cassio and Oliver. Not to mention Tom, even if it was the immortals who fall into the hands of the Blood Thirst Sect, they absolutely can't escape!"

"Alas, Tom is done for now. I really don't understand why Tom went to the Blood Thirst Sect. He's looking for death."

Chapter 1236

Whoever knew about it thought that Li Tom was killing himself without any chance of survival.

It was not that they did not believe in Tom, but that the Blood Thirst Sect was too powerful. As the number one sect among the four major sects, it was the world's greatest force which was not worse than some major countries, even better.

It was quite understandable. If Tom alone with a burden was encircled and suppressed by the whole country in Country M, could he leave safely?

It was extremely difficult or almost impossible.

Moreover, the threat posed by the Blood Thirst Sect was much greater than that of Country M. Therefore, no one believed in Tom, thinking that he was signing his own death warrant.

As a result, many people regretted and even complained that Li Tom was too willful this time to have a holistic view. As the top one in H Country, he was the most indispensable person in this war. More importantly, he possessed most of the National Fortune of the country. Therefore, it could be imagined that if he was killed by the Killing Gods Sect, what a heavy blow it would deal to H Country and even the entire world.

However, a small number of people were optimistic. After all, Tom had created so many miracles. Therefore, they believed that he would fall on his feet, performing another miracle.

As for Tom himself, he did not know that the news that he was trapped in the Blood Thirst Sect had already spread all over the world and attracted much attention. But even if he knew it, he wouldn't be affected. That was because when he made the decision, he also decided to accept calmly whatever might happen to him.

Now, ever since he chose to break out the encirclement openly, he could feel clearly that more and more powerful forces were rushing towards him, forming a huge encirclement to surround them closely.

He didn't look panicked or feared, but he deeply knew that it was extremely difficult to break out. At least, it was almost impossible to escape unscathed.

However, this did not mean that he would give up. In fact, he had already decided that even if he was seriously injured, he would risk his life to take Phoebe out safely.

At worst, even if he died here, he would make the Blood Thirst Sect and even the entire Clan World pay a heavy price!

He would bring many people to death with him.

Now he was much more powerful than before. As long as he performed all his strength, only Cassio could resist him around the world.

Soon, a lot of people appeared in his sight and surrounded him. They were super masters in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and also many were at the God Becoming Level. Facing so many masters, people would ordinarily quake in their shoes.

But Tom just frowned slightly and even his expressions didn't change.

Then, instead of running, he stopped and put Phoebe down. Then, he squatted down in front of Phoebe and said softly, "Phoebe, I'll carry you on my back and take you out."

Phoebe had been in tears. She shook her head and implored, "Tom, you can't do it. There are too many people. You can't beat them. Or, you'll die here."

Phoebe was really nervous and worried. She was no longer an ordinary person knowing nothing. Now she was in the Innate Realm. She knew how powerful these people of the Killing Gods Sect were. And anyone of them could beat her easily. In her view, masters like these were not those whom humans could compete with.

If there were only a few people, it was not difficult to deal with them. But now, so many masters were to kill Tom together. No matter how powerful he was, how could he resist so many people.

When Phoebe was on his back, he pulled off his belt to bind Phoebe and himself together. Only when they were closely tied could he fully exert his power.

Now, he might not be able to beat Cassio and it was enough to beat these bastards.

With a glance, Tom knew there were at least a hundred people. Besides, the weakest among them was in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and some were masters at the God Becoming Level.

When they got closer, their mental forces were oppressive enough.

In the eye of the storm, Tom felt that he

She really didn't want to see Tom die in front of her. So she preferred him to give up her and leave alone.

If Tom did this, she would not resent Tom but only be happy.

Unfortunately, she also knew that Tom would not be like that. Whatever happened, he would never give up her, which distressed her the most.

Tom shook his head and said, "Phoebe, don't say that. At this time, we must be of the same mind."

Phoebe chewed her lip and then sighed. She knew that whatever she said was useless at this time. So she nodded and did as what Tom told.

was surrounded by dangers.

Fortunately, he was mentally strong enough. Within one breath, he was in his best state.

He was fearless and even a little excited.

It was as if he was giving out his last light to leave the brightest mark in the world.

He never feared death. But he was afraid that his death was worthless.

But now, he thought his death wouldn't be useless.

If he could bring so many strong people to death and make his last contribution to the Secular World, he was not afraid to die.

Besides, he was not alone. He had Phoebe with him. At this moment, he felt that he was worth it.

Moreover, he might not die. Maybe he could really break out!

Thinking of these, he was not afraid but gave a bright smile.

Chapter 1237

"Tom, you bastard! How dare you come here to court for death?!"

"Well, fine. You finally fell into our hands! You will die miserably soon!!"

"Tom! You sinner! How dare you kill so many elites in Clan World? You're doomed today!"

"Tom, surrender. You'd better give in immediately, or you will suffer more!!"

"That's right. Put your hands down, or you will end in misery!!"

So many people pointed at Tom, scolding and humiliating him. They persuaded him to surrender, thinking that he was doomed.

In their opinion, no matter how powerful Tom was, he was still their captive. Since there were more than one hundred masters on their sides, including the top master Cassio, Tom was unable to escape!

However, Tom did not panic. He just smiled calmly and did not make any unnecessary movements. He stretched out his right hand and made a thumbs-down.

Provocation!

It was an extreme provocation and humiliation!!

Under such circumstances, Tom dared to provoke so many people. Even Phoebe was shocked by his behavior.

She suddenly opened her eyes wide and looked at Tom's side face in disbelief.

At this moment, Tom looked so arrogant and confident. Although he was surrounded by many super-strong masters, he was not worried or scared at all. Instead, he was excited. Obviously, he did not take these people as his opponents!

She had never seen such a Tom before.

However, she loved this side of Tom. He was fearless. Even facing so many difficulties and desperate situations, Tom would not frown.

Unknowingly, Tom became the top hero in the world from that timid and cowardly son-in-law back then!

Phoebe was filled with pride and joy.

At the same time, she also made a decision. She said no more. If Tom wanted to die with her, then she agree.

They were not born on the same day. But at least, they could die together!

This could also be regarded as a romance. They could stay together forever. She believed that if they really had to die, neither of them would die alone. If there was an afterlife, Phoebe hoped that she could meet Tom and continue their marriage.

Thinking of this, a happy and relieved smile hovered on Phoebe's lips. She hugged Tom even tighter.

Tom also quickly felt Phoebe's mood swings. He had a little worry in his heart. But now, he was relaxed and relieved because he knew that Phoebe was as fearless as him and would not have any regrets.

He felt blessed to have such a wife!

After a few seconds of silence, a huge roar resounded. Everyone was completely enraged by Tom's behavior!

Tom was already their captive. Begging for mercy was the only choice for Tom. However, he did not do this. Instead, he was more arrogant. Obviously, he looked down on them!

These big shots felt humiliated. They were used to flattering and respect wherever they went.

Today, they reunited to suppress Tom, which was a great honor to Tom.

But Tom didn't appreciate it at all.

In that case, then they would spare no effort to kill Tom!!

"Arrogant!"

"Ignorant!"

"Tom, you are just a nobody. How dare you be so arrogant? Are you tired of living! Since you want death, I will grant you!"

"You really think you're the number one in the world, don't you? Do you hold on for a second and would have fainted!

This momentum and these homicidal intents did not bring Tom any pressure and burden. Instead, it was the fuel of his motivation and excitement. His momentum grew greater and his fighting spirit enhanced.

In the end, he clenched his fists and glanced across everyone present. The next moment, his figure moved. He attacked the most powerful man directly!

In this case, there was no point in cursing each other. This was not a competition, but a life-and-death battle. Moreover, he didn't have much time. So he had to kill these people think that our Clan World doesn't have masters after you killed some of us?"

"Go to hell!! Tom, today is death. I swear, I will make you suffer the most painful and torturous means in the world. I will make you beg for mercy like a dog in despair and regret!"

Roar, anger, and all kinds of voices surged towards Tom like a wave, causing a huge pressure again. Even Phoebe felt it. She gasped and trembled.

She was too timid, but that the momentum was too terrifying for her to bear at all. Fortunately, she was on Tom's back. Tom withstood most of homicidal intents and malice. Without Tom, she would not have been able to within the shortest time and break through the siege!

When they saw that Tom dared to take the initiative, they were stunned for a moment. Then they were even angrier. They thought that Tom was too arrogant!

In particular, the Strong who was attacked by Tom was a God Becoming Level expert. Moreover, he had reached the Second Rank of God Becoming Level. In the whole Clan World, he was ranked the top ten, and many people lost to him.

But now, Tom actually attacked him first. This wasn't simply his arrogance. Tom was humiliating him!

How could he not be furious?

"Since you are in such a hurry to die, I will fulfill your wish!"

That master looked as cold as water with strong homicidal intents in his eyes. Those homicidal intents were so intense that they almost condensed into essence!

Almost at the same time that Tom arrived in front of him, he also made a move. It was also a fatal attack. He planned to kill Tom in the fastest and cruelest way!

If Tom was alone, he wouldn't dare to do this. But Tom still carried a woman on his back. If he couldn't even beat Tom, he would be so shameful and would just kill himself.

Chapter 1238

However, the result was far beyond his expectations. He had just made his move. Then, before he could see Tom's movements clearly, he felt as if he had been hit by a high-speed train. He was hit away by that force.

It was a force that he couldn't resist at all!

He was defeated in the first round. There was no way for him to fight back.

In an instant, a heavy blow hit his chest, and his ribs were broken at the spot! A pain that he had never experienced before engulfed his whole body, causing him to scream uncontrollably. He spat out a mouthful of blood while he was still in the air.

However, what had hurt the most was his pride. He never thought that he would be defeated after one move. He couldn't believe that he had lost completely. There was no way that he could fight back!

What had happened was impossible!!

After all, he was not a nobody. He was at the Second Rank God Becoming Level. He couldn't say that he was the best in the world, but he would definitely be one of the best.

However, he seemed so vulnerable before Tom. He could not accept the fact at all.

Everything happened so fast that people around them didn't realize that it was over.

Although they knew that Tom was very powerful because he had killed Thoreau before. However, they didn't believe that he could win this time. He was not by himself at the moment because he was carrying a woman. It was impossible for him to exert all his strength.

But in the end, Tom had defeated the Strong at the Second Rank God Becoming Level with one move.

Tom didn't stop after he punched his opponent. He did not stop. Instead, he threw himself toward his opponent and wanted to end the guy's life.

He wasn't so cruel. It was just that he had no other options under such circumstances.

On the one hand, he could get rid of a powerful opponent. On the other hand, he could use the guy as an example to make the people around them didn't dare to mess with them.

After all, he was literally against a hundred opponents. It was not easy. Besides, he had Phoebe on his back. There was not much strength that he could use if he didn't want to hurt Phoebe.

Therefore, he had to make it quick!

He didn't waste any more time when the thought came to him. With a bang, his body rushed towards the Second Rank God Becoming Level expert like a bullet. His speed was so fast that he had almost outrun the sound.

It was even hard for Phoebe, who was on his back, to take the force.

If Phoebe weren't an Innate Realm expert but an ordinary person, such a sudden acceleration would have torn apart her organs.

In the blink of an eye, Tom had caught up with the person. The person was in disbelief and fear. Tom punched him again. The punch was awfully formidable and fatal.

"No!"

The Second Rank God Becoming Level

expert felt fear pouring toward him as if he was drowning in the sea. The fear made the hard on his whole body stood. It was the fear that he had never experienced before. He knew that he couldn't service the punch.

He really didn't want to die!

He wanted to beg for Tom's mercy. He had endless regrets in his heart now. If he had known that Tom was so powerful, he wouldn't have dared to challenge him no matter how brave he was.

But now, there was no chance for him anymore.

With a loud bang, accompanied by the sound of bones cracking apart, Tom's punch fully hit the guy's face. His head had exploded.

The guy died on the spot.

Tom was fast. After the punch, he immediately jumped away and did not let a drip of blood touch him.

The world turned silent.

It was so quiet. No one expected that the battle would end so soon!

It didn't even last a minute. Everyone around thought it would be a big battle. However, it was ended like this?

"I couldn't believe it."

It was in everyone's mind at this moment.

Not only the people around, but Phoebe's eyes were also wide out of shock. She knew that Tom was powerful, but she did not expect him to be that powerful.

She was on Tom's back. Her chest could feel the beat of his heartbeat, his strength, and his determination!

There was water welling up in her eyes.

She knew that Tom had done this for her and only for her. He could have escaped without her easily. However, he didn't want to. He was at risk because of her.

Her life was worth it with Tom aside.

Tom was caught up in the fight. After killing a Second Rank God Becoming Level expert with only two punches, he did not choose to stop. Instead, he continued to attack the people around and rushed towards another person beside him.

He planned to use violence to open a breakthrough. Only in this way could he have a better chance of getting away.

He knew that the real threats to him in the entire Blood Thirst Sect were Cassio and Oliver. As long as he was fast enough to break out before they arrived, he still had a chance to escape with Phoebe.

The speed was the only thing he needed for now.

He had to be fast.

The man was stunned for a second. His expression changed at once when he saw Tom making a move towards him. His face was no longer arrogant and contemptuous. He looked serious, even with some panic and fear.

He was also a God Becoming Level expert. He was powerful than most of the people in the Clan World. Plus, he wasn't as arrogant as the guy earlier. When he saw Tom was attacking him, he immediately reacted. Instead of fighting back on his own, he shouted, "Let's fight together! Don't let him go!"

At the same time, he began to move closer to the other God Becoming Level experts next to him, not giving Tom a chance to break them one by one.

His decision was not a bad one. However, his plan was not enough to catch Tom.

Chapter 1239

When Tom saw this, he sneered disdainfully. And then his speed did not decrease at all, he pounced on the man at a rather fast speed, regardless of the approach of other God Becoming Level masters.

Now, he was surrounded by five God Becoming Level masters.

And they surrounded him in all directions. In this case, even a Third Rank God Becoming Level master could not escape unscathed, let alone kill one of them.

Therefore, the God Becoming Level master who attacked Tom sneered. He thought that Tom was careless this time. He was not a reckless man who was arrogant and brainless. Even if Tom was powerful, could he withstand the siege of five God Becoming Level masters?

He didn't believe that anyone could make it. Even Cassio, who was known as the world's number one, probably couldn't!

However, for some reason, when he saw the slightly raised corners of Tom's mouth and the disdain in his eyes, he had a bad omen. Did he still underestimate Tom?

But that didn't make sense...

Li Tom was too fast. In an instant, Tom was already in front of him and gave him a punch of Heaven and Man in One. The man's whole body froze and his mind went blank. At this moment, he felt that everything was dark in front of him, and he lost his sight and his perception. It was as if the sky had fallen, blocking all his senses!

However, this was impossible. He was also a Second Rank God Becoming Level master. Tom was powerful, but he could reach the Third Rank God Becoming Level at the most. How could Li Tom have such a great suppressive force in the Mental Power?

However, he had to accept the fact.

He let out a terrifying roar. He didn't want to be killed, so he had to resist!

So, in an instant, he stimulated all his potential without any reservation. He hit the most powerful and fierce blow in his life, and it was also a punch of Heaven and Man in One.

After the punch, he was proud and heroic. At that moment, he thought that he was number one in the world. No one could match him, even if he knew it was just an illusion.

Tom also felt the power of his punch and exclaimed in surprise, but that was all.

There was a huge gap between their strength.

They punched on each other, and the next moment, there was still the sound of fractures and screams, and a man flew out. Naturally, it was the God Becoming Level master opposite Li Tom. Tom still stood firmly in place, but his legs sank into the ground because of this huge force.

At the same time, the remaining four God Becoming Level masters from all directions had already approached. They roared at him and attacked him together.

In this situation, Tom could be in great danger, especially Phoebe was behind him.

If it were another Third Rank God Becoming Level master, it would be almost impossible for him to get out unscathed.

The safest thing to do was to make Phoebe take the hit for him.

This would result in Phoebe's death. But for a wise man, this was the most correct way to do it.

But would Tom do that?

The answer was definitely no.

In this case, Tom made a move that surprised everyone. Tom did not let Phoebe be his shield. Instead, he bent his legs and bounced up. His whole body was like a huge spring, bouncing up with great force!

Li Tom was too fast. In an instant, Li Tom jumped over the heads of the four God Becoming Level masters, and he dodged the attack of them at the same time.

His speed was so fast that many people could not react.

The four God Becoming Level masters paused for a moment too. Obviously, they did not expect that Tom could still dodge their attack under this situation!

his was unbelievable.

Tom's legs sank into the ground, but he could still jump out quickly. Then how strong was Tom? And how fast was his speed?

It was hard for them to figure it out. And even a fear rose in their minds for a moment!

Because they all began to wonder if Tom was a human being.

They had never seen such a powerful God Becoming Level master!

Tom bounced away. Although his movements looked amazing, only he knew how dangerous it was for him to do this.

Fortunately, he had eaten a hundred Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruits in the Secret Realm, and he had refined his body through this period of time. Otherwise, he had already been injured just now, and he might not be able to protect Phoebe well and let Phoebe be hurt!

Although he dodged the attack, he still had some lingering fears when he thought of it.

But he soon forgot it, and now he was going to fight back.

All of a sudden, his eyes and pupils began to dim, as if he had entered a state of madness.

When the four God Becoming Level masters saw that, they got anxious, and there was an indescribable panic and fear in their minds.

However, they were experienced veterans and they were strong-willed. In the face of this situation, they would not be easily frightened by Tom.

So, they just looked at each other and immediately made a decision to continue the siege of Tom!

No matter what, they had to kill Tom in the Blood Thirst Sect!

Otherwise, it would be a great disaster for the entire Clan World!

Chapter 1240

However, would things just go smoothly as they planned?

The answer was obviously no.

In a blink of an eye, Tom entered the encirclement of the four people in an absolutely arrogant manner.

Whichever way people looked at it, Tom was seeking his own death. Even though Tom was powerful, how could he defeat four experts of God Becoming Level when he was carrying a woman on his back?

But they didn't know Tom's real strength had reached a terrifyingly high level!

Even Tom himself wasn't sure where his limit was.

It was time to take a shot. He left himself no turning back since the moment he decided to break out of the encircling ring. Killing all the way out was his best choice now!

Almost at the same time, the four experts launched the most severe attack on Tom at an extremely tricky angle. Their power was horrible, which could crush down a building in an instant, let alone a human being!

Instead of panicking nervously in such a situation, Tom opened his eyes wide, in which his conviction of victory was burning strongly.

"How could he be so strong?!"

One of the experts couldn't help but shout out in shock, staring at Tom in disbelief.

The other three also had similar reactions.

The four of them exchanged glances, all agreeing that they couldn't defeat Tom in a short time.

So they changed their plan quickly. There was no need to defeat him. All they had to do was to make sure Tom wouldn't escape until Cassio arrived here.

They exchanged glances again and then slowed down at the same time, Boom!

A strong aura burst from him. The next moment, he was fighting with the four experts together.

Bang!

It sounded like endless shells were exploding, causing great damage everywhere.

To everyone's surprise, Tom, who was still carrying a woman on his back, did not fall to the disadvantage in the battle with four experts.

The four experts were even more surprised because as Tom's enemies, they could clearly feel how terrifying his strength was. This was something they had never expected.

planning to hold Tom back.

However, how could they hide their plan from Tom?

In fact, Tom had been wanting for them to do that!

With a sneer, Tom changed his attack into a more fierce, arrogant, and violent way.

"Watch out!"

"Damn! He got me!"

Seeing Tom's movements, the four experts realized that they had fallen into his trap.

They panicked in an instant, trying to change their moves as fast as they could.

But would Tom give them this opportunity?

Absolutely no!

Bang!

Tom punched the four of them hard one by one. This happened too fast. Before they could make any reaction, Tom, who had been at a disadvantage, hit them at an extremely fast speed at almost the same time. Screaming, the four experts were blown away and fell down onto the ground.

What happened was beyond everyone's expectations.

It didn't mean they lacked receptivity to changes, but that the changes were happening too fast. Just a second ago, Tom had been at a disadvantage in this battle!

But he was winning now!

As the four experts were blown away, their faces were all filled with disbelief and shock. They did not even understand how Tom could hit them at the same time.

What shocked them and even scared them the most was that Tom was so strong that they got hurt badly from just one punch.

Punching out the four fists of Heaven and Man in One in merely one breath also cost Tom lots of energy.

After adjusting his breathing by taking a deep breath, he rushed out again immediately to take advantage of the current victory and kill all the experts now.

Feeling his fierce murderous intent, the four experts ran away at once with pale faces. Fighting back was no longer a choice for them at this moment.

They didn't want to be punched by Tom again and decided to run as far as they could, which was the best choice when facing someone as strong as a monster.

But Tom wouldn't let them get away.

He caught up with one of the experts in an instant and slapped him on the head. Bang! It sounded like the sky had collapsed.

Frightened by the huge noise, the expert shouted, "Spare my life..."

However, Tom killed him and threw him out like straw before he could finish his sentence.

Without stopping, Tom rushed towards the second expert.

He killed him with another slap.

The same thing happened to the third and the fourth expert.

It only took four seconds for Tom to kill the four experts of the God Becoming Level.

For a moment, everyone was silent in shock. They had never expected Tom to be so strong!

Including the previous one, there were five experts of God Becoming Level who had all been famous in the Clan World and they all just died miserably due to Tom.

During the battles, Tom didn't give them any chance of fighting back.

This was so shocking. Everyone felt hard to accept it.

Killing five experts of God Becoming Level had cost Tom a lot of energy.

Fortunately, he recovered quickly thanks to his extremely strong body and vitality.

When he opened his eyes again, his mental force changed again. It was even more fierce, more terrifying, and more murderous.

"It's your turn now."

Glancing at everyone around, Tom said coldly.
