The Vengeful Son-in-law

How could Ryan not know what the intermediary agent was thinking? But he didn't care. There were too many misunderstandings like this. He had already become numb.

The intermediary agent mumbled a few words but didn't say anything. Anyway, the customer was the most important, so he did whatever the customer said.

"In our H City, the best villa area is Dragon Bay. The average price is more than ten million dollars, and house in the best batch is more than thirty million dollars."

On the way back, the intermediary agent was introducing some basic information. The more the intermediary agent looked at Ryan, the less the intermediary agent thought he was rich.

Ryan's answer was simple and straightforward. He nodded and said, "Okay, let's go and take a look."

Dragon Bay was indeed the best villa area in H City. It was famous in H City. Its location was good and the environment and equipment in it were also brilliant. The people who could live in it were either rich or powerful.

When Ryan was still the live-in son-in-law of the Scotts, the whole of the Scotts wanted to buy a house in Dragon Bay, but they couldn't afford it at all.

His mother-in-law, Elizabeth, in particular, had been nagging for a long time. She was the one who wanted to buy a house in Dragon Bay the most. At that time, Ryan was blamed by her a lot. She said he was useless.

So back then, for a while, Ryan was eager to buy a house in Dragon Bay.

He didn't expect himself to be able to buy a house in Dragon Bay now. Unfortunately, he had divorced Phoebe and left the Scotts. He had nothing to do with them and there was no chance to hold his head high.

Advertisement

Thinking of this, Ryan was quite disappointed.

To be honest, after four years in the Scotts as a live-in son-in-law, Ryan was extremely despised by the Scotts. Even the trash was not as cheap as him. In the past, he had no choice but to let it go. Now that he had successfully turned the table and became a big shot in H City, it was also a lie to say that he didn't want to hold his head high in the H City. After all, he was also a normal person. No matter how mature and stable he was, he still had his own emotions and desires.

As he thought about it, he was also in a daze and did not listen carefully to the intermediary agent next to him. His performance, in the eyes of the intermediary agent, became a sign of guilt, and the intermediary agent's attitude towards Ryan became more and more indifferent and contemptuous.

"Dragon Bay is here. Get out of the car." The intermediary agent said unhappily. Ryan came back to his senses. With an "Oh", he got out of the car.

When he came down, he saw that Dragon Bay was indeed extraordinary. It was completely different from other residential areas.

Its gate was already majestic enough. When the intermediary agent saw Ryan's gaze fall on the gate, he said proudly, "The gate of Dragon Bay is carved from all-natural marble. The price of the gate has reached three million dollars. It's very expensive."

Ryan nodded and said, "Three million, not bad." The agent said in his heart that Ryan was pretending to be something.

When they went in, the intermediary agent tried to ask Ryan what kind of work he did, but Ryan never answered the intermediary agent's question directly, which made the intermediary agent more convinced that Ryan was a poor man who could not afford to buy a house in Dragon Bay. This time, Ryan came here mostly for fun. Ryan would take a few photos and share them in his moments to pretend to be rich. Over the past few years, the intermediary agent met such a person very often.

Ryan didn't know that he had been labeled like this by the intermediary agent. He carefully observed the villas inside to see if there was one he felt satisfied with. If there was, he would buy it on the spot in full payment.

With his current financial strength, it was so easy for him to buy a villa worth tens of millions. It was easier than buying a pack of cigarettes as ordinary people did.

"Take me straight to the most expensive villa in Dragon Bay."

Ryan looked for a while, but found nothing satisfactory. He frowned and said to the intermediary agent.

The intermediary agent looked lazy and said, "In order to prevent some people who can't afford to buy villas come here deliberately to see those villas they won't buy, the real estate enterprise here has made a rule. To look at the most expensive villas in Dragon Bay, one has to pay a deposit of 200,000 dollars. If one can't, then one can't see those most expensive villas."

"Is there such a rule?" Ryan frowned. He had lived in H City for so long, and he had never heard that one had to pay a deposit first before looking at the house. And he had to pay two hundred thousand dollars in one breath. That was too much.

Ryan's reaction convinced the agent that Ryan was not a rich man, at least not rich enough to buy a villa. The corner of his mouth raised slightly, revealing a little sarcasm and sneer. "Yes, for some poor people, they deliberately use the reason of buying a house to take photos here to pretend to be something as they share photos of here in their moments. After all, Dragon Bay is the most luxurious and high-end residential area in H City, and living here is a status symbol. If any poor people can come in and visit, it will also affect the normal life of the owners here and make the Dragon Bay become lower in its level, right?"

In fact, the agency said both the truth and the lie. Dragon Bay was the most high-end villa area, there was indeed such a rule, but the deposit amount was much less than 200,000. 50,000 dollars was enough.

The intermediary agent said this just because he didn't like Ryan and wanted Ryan to back off.

However, he did not expect Ryan to say without hesitation, "Okay, where can I use my bank card?"

When the intermediary agent heard Ryan say this, he was obviously stunned. His eyes widened and he said, "Are you sure? You want to pay two hundred thousand at a time? You shall know that the Dragon Bay doesn't support credit cards!"

How could Ryan not know that the intermediary agent was deliberately making him “shrink back from difficulties”? He was too lazy to explain this kind of thing and he said impatiently, “Who said I will use a credit card? Take me to swipe my card. I’m in a hurry to buy a house these two days. I don’t have time to delay.”

The intermediary agent was retorted by Ryan, and his expression was a little unpleasant, and he felt uncomfortable in his heart. He secretly cursed and then took Ryan to the real estate agent to swipe the bank card.

Although he didn’t believe that Ryan was really capable of buying a villa, as a real estate intermediary agent, if his attitude was too bad and he was complained by customers, his career would be affected.

After a while, the agent brought Ryan over to swipe the card. Before Ryan could speak, intermediary agent glanced at the front desk of the real estate enterprise and said, “Arrange for this guest to pay a deposit of 200,000 dollars. He wants to see the 8th villa area of Dragon Bay.”

The receptionist was very observant. She nodded, took out the POS machine, and swiped Ryan’s card.

However, just as Ryan was about to swipe his card, a series of footsteps came from behind. The sound was accompanied by a familiar voice, “Honey, I really didn’t expect to come to Dragon Bay to buy a house. It’s great! It’s my dream to live here. Thank you for helping me realize it!”

Then, there was another voice. “Yes, Glory. It’s really her blessing that Grace knows you.” Grace?

Hearing these two words, Ryan was stunned. Wasn’t Grace Phoebe’s cousin?

He looked back curiously. Sure enough, he saw a group of people of the Scotts coming in.

At the same time, they also saw Ryan...

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Elizabeth had been very annoyed recently. Kenia had been showing off in front of her these days, saying that their precious daughter Grace had found a rich boyfriend who set up an Internet company and could earn twenty or thirty million dollars a year. It was more profitable than SK Lighting of the Scotts'. And he was going to buy a ten-million villa in Dragon Bay as his wedding room with Grace.

Kenia, the wife of James' younger brother Hugo, and also Grace's mother, was always in contact with Elizabeth. Elizabeth was a vain person. How could she stand it when she heard it? At least her daughter was now the chairman of SK Company. How could she be looked down on by Kenia? So when Kenia asked her to come to Dragon Bay to select the house, she immediately agreed.

And she acted first before telling Phoebe then. It was after she came to the Dragon Bay with Kenia's family that she called Phoebe and told her to come to Dragon Bay and buy a villa.

When Phoebe heard it, she was dumbfounded. What was going on? They had a nice house in H City. There was no need to go to Dragon Bay to buy a house. Besides, even the lowest villa in Dragon Bay cost was tens of millions. How could their family afford one?

So she immediately said, "Mom, what are you thinking about? We have a house to live in. Why are we going to Dragon Bay to buy a house? There are all expensive villas over there."

Elizabeth said, "You are the chairman now, and you have the most shares. It's more than enough to buy a villa in there, okay?"

Advertisement

She said it very loudly on purpose and was overheard by the Kenia family. Elizabeth emphasized that her daughter was also a chairman and was no worse than anyone else!

Phoebe frowned and said, "The company has just returned to the track and is not profitable yet. Even if I have more shares, I can't afford a villa."

Phoebe's words were immediately heard by the Kenia family as Elizabeth turned on the loudspeaker. Then Kenia burst out laughing and said, "Elizabeth, you're from the countryside. You don't know that there's a difference among chairmen. Although some person is a chairman, she can't make much money. But some of the chairmen can make twenty or thirty million a year, just like Glory."

When Elizabeth heard that, her face darkened and she cursed in her heart. She turned off the loudspeaker and walked aside.

She said to Phoebe, "I don't care. Come over now, or I'm not your mom anymore!"

Advertisement

After that, she hung up the phone.

Phoebe felt rather helpless. Fortunately, she was not too busy today. Phoebe rushed over in case that her mother did something stupid.

Seeing Elizabeth coming over, Kenia said jokingly, "How's it going? Phoebe still can't afford to buy a house? But what Phoebe said is true. You have a commercial house that is less than 100 square meters in H City, which is enough for you four. After all, the villas in Dragon Bay are too expensive. One costs more than ten million dollars. Not everyone can afford it."

Grace immediately added, "Mom, that's not true. Now that Phoebe is the chairman of the SK Lighting, her status is very high! Even grandpa has to listen to her. She's so awesome. It's easy for her to buy a villa in Dragon Bay, right? Auntie, do you think so?"

Grace's tone sounded sarcastic. The two people's ridiculed drove Elizabeth crazy, who gritted her teeth, snorted heavily, and said, "Of course, Phoebe is now the chairman of the board. It's easy to take out more than ten million dollars. On the other hand, if you come to Dragon Bay to buy a villa, wouldn't you get a mortgage like the poor?"

The issue really stumped Grace. Originally, they really planned to get a mortgage. After all, ten million dollars was not a small amount. Even her boyfriend Glory could not easily take it out.

However, she couldn't say that. She had to maintain her dignity.

When Phoebe first became the chairman of SK Group, the entire the Scotts was inferior to her. During that time, Elizabeth was even more arrogant. Now, Grace found a rich boyfriend who was willing to spend money for her. Both Grace and her mother wanted to build a better image.

So she immediately signaled Glory. After getting Glory's permission, she said loudly and disdainfully, "Hehe, a mortgage? That's what poor people do. Glory doesn't need that. Auntie, relax. When Phoebe comes and she can't afford to buy a villa in Dragon Bay. You'll be a laughingstock."

Advertisement

Elizabeth snorted and said, "You don't have to worry about it. We can definitely afford to buy a villa in Dragon Bay."

While Kenia and his family were walking in front of them, Elizabeth deliberately walked behind. She pinched James and scolded, "You useless trash, you wouldn't have said a word for your wife just now, allowing the Kenia family to mock me. Are you still a man?"

James was pinched so hard that he bared his teeth and said quickly, "I haven't blamed you yet. Why were you comparing with Kenia? Phoebe is right. We have a house in H City. Why are we going to Dragon Bay to buy a villa? There're only three people in our family, we don't need a big and expensive house."

Elizabeth poked James's head hard and scolded, "You're so useless and have no ambition at all. You've been bullied like this, but you can still tolerate it! Besides, now that Phoebe is the chairman of SK Company, she can get tens of millions of dividends a year and buy a villa in Dragon Bay. That's easy for her."

James said, "That's right, but SK Company has just started its development. Phoebe can't get the money until the end of the year. It's still more than half a year away."

"I don't care. I must buy a villa in Dragon Bay today. I need to appear rich!" Elizabeth said.

Next, they followed Kenia's family to check the house. They roughly understood that the houses in Dragon Bay were very expensive and luxurious. Those who could live here were all high-ranking people.

Elizabeth and Kenia all became more and more fond of Dragon Bay after hearing the flattery of the agency. They also made up their minds that they must buy a villa in Dragon Bay!

Not long after, Phoebe arrived. When Elizabeth saw her coming, she immediately smiled excitedly and waved hard. "Phoebe, come here. Mom is waiting for you!"

Today, Phoebe wore a dress and looked striking. With her beautiful appearance, Glory could not move his eyes off her. In contrast, Grace was obviously no match for Phoebe.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 223 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Grace found Glory's eyes almost stuck on Phoebe. Suddenly, her face turned black. She pinched Glory hard and scolded angrily, "Where are you looking?"

Glory realized his impoliteness through the pain and quickly explained himself to Grace, but he couldn't help but look at Phoebe.

Phoebe was really beautiful. As one of the top three beauties in H City, her beauty was unquestionable, especially after she became the chairman of the board during this period of time. With her firm and resolute features, she was more attractive to men.

Glory was a relatively successful entrepreneur. He had played with a lot of beautiful women, but he had never met anyone like Phoebe, so he immediately became excited.

Phoebe walked over and said, "Mom, why did you think of buying a villa in Dragon Bay?" Then, she saw Kenia and Grace and nodded.

Elizabeth replied, "Dragon Bay is the best villa area in H City. You are now the chairman of the SK Company. Your identity is different from before. Of course, you should live in the best house in H City!"

Kenia walked over and said with a smile, "Phoebe, you're here too. Actually, Grace's boyfriend planned to buy a villa for her in Dragon Bay as the marriage room, I told this to your mother, then your mother also wanted to buy a villa in Dragon Bay. But, you just became the chairman of SK, can you afford so much money?"

Advertisement

Grace took Glory's hand and walked over, smiling and saying, "Mom, don't say this. Sister Phoebe is rich now. She has become the chairman of SK Company. The villa is just about ten million dollars. It's a piece of cake for Phoebe, isn't it? Phoebe, do you think so? It just so happened that my boyfriend and I like the villa in the sixth building plan. It wasn't expensive, just about 15 million dollars. You can buy one next to us. We can live together. It would be great to be neighbors then."

When Phoebe heard this, she finally realized that it was a matter of competition. To be honest, she hated this kind of thing the most. She couldn't help but glare at Elizabeth discontentedly. Besides, even if she wanted to buy it, she couldn't afford it!

"Really? Congratulations in advance. It's good news to buy a villa in Dragon Bay. But I'm not interested in Dragon Bay. It's too far away. I still like the city center and it's close to my company, so I don't plan to buy a villa in Dragon Bay." Phoebe said with a smile.

At this moment, Kenia said in a strange tone, "Phoebe, is that really the case? Just now, your mother said that she liked the villa in Dragon Bay very much, and said that she must buy one in Dragon Bay. I think you can't afford to buy a villa in Dragon Bay, so you said that you are not interested in the villa in Dragon Bay, right?"

Advertisement

After hearing these words, Phoebe felt quite uncomfortable. She glared at Elizabeth fiercely, blaming her mother for always causing trouble for her.

Phoebe said, "You know my mother. She's easy to be impulsive. She likes the villa in Dragon Bay today, but she won't like it tomorrow."

Then she immediately winked at Elizabeth to remind Elizabeth of being clear-minded.

Elizabeth could understand Phoebe's meaning. Even though she was unhappy, she had no choice but to say, "Yes, I suddenly don't like the villa in Dragon Bay. It's too far away."

However, everyone could tell from her appearance that Phoebe had no money and could not afford to buy a house in Dragon Bay.

Seeing this scene, Kenia and Grace looked at each other. They were happier. When Phoebe became the chairman of SK Company, they were not happy about it. Now they finally found the opportunity to take revenge. How could they let such a good opportunity go?

“Haha, sister-in-law, after all these years, you doesn't change at all. I think you must still like Dragon Bay villa, but you can't afford it!” The smile on Kenia's face was especially sarcastic. She looked like a winner and looked at Elizabeth with pride and disdain, “That's true. Although Phoebe is the chairman of SK Company, SK Company can't compete with our Glory's company. I understand Phoebe can't afford it. After all, it's more than ten million dollars.”

When Elizabeth heard this, she felt very uncomfortable, but Phoebe's eyes made her not dare to speak rashly.

However, Grace's words immediately made her lose control. “Of course, even though sister Phoebe is now the president, she hasn't even changed her car. She's still driving the same Volkswagen as before. Glory drove a Bentley a few years ago.”

Elizabeth was so angry that she stood up and said loudly, “What are you talking about? Who said Phoebe can't afford to buy a villa in Dragon Bay? We're just saving face for you! Since you've said so, we'll pay today and buy those two villas!”

Advertisement

Kenia and Grace were both stunned. They didn't expect Elizabeth to be so bold. At this point, Elizabeth dared to say such words, which made them feel guilty. Could it be that Phoebe was acting just now? Was it possible that Phoebe could spend over ten million dollars buying a villa?

For a moment, they did not dare to speak anymore.

Elizabeth understood their reaction and immediately got up and said, “What? Why do you stop? I don't think you're the ones who don't have that much money out, are you? You just put on a good show. People who don't know the truth would think you find a sugar daddy.”

Grace was also very unhappy at once. She pulled Glory aside and said a few words in a low voice. She acted coquettishly and pleaded, and agreed to some “excessive” requests. Finally, Glory gritted her teeth and agreed.

More than 15 million dollars was indeed a little too much for him, but not to the extent that he couldn't get it out. Just a while ago, he had just made a big deal and got a large sum of money.

He also quite cherish his face, especially in front of beautiful women, and Grace gave him some exciting conditions, he couldn't help but be moved, gritted his teeth and agreed Grace's request.

Grace immediately smiled brightly and kissed Glory's face. She walked back and said to Elizabeth, "Okay, auntie, let's settle it today. Now we'll go to the real estate developer to pay the bill and get the formalities done."

Elizabeth snorted and said to Phoebe, "Phoebe, do you hear me? Let's go pay now and buy the villa. Then we can decorate it in a very high-end way, like the palace!"

Phoebe couldn't stand it any longer. She said a little angrily, "Mom! That's enough. I told you not to buy a villa in Dragon Bay."

Elizabeth was scolded by Phoebe, feeling very embarrassed, and said angrily, "Hey, what's your attitude? Is there anyone who talks to mom like this? Mom raised you. Now you have money, then can't you buy a villa for mom?"

Phoebe saw that Elizabeth was already bewildered. Not to mention 15 million, now she couldn't even take out 5 million. She simply said, "It's not that I don't buy it, but that I don't have money. How can I buy it for you?"

Elizabeth's face immediately turned green when she said this, and Kenia and Grace were gloating over Elizabeth and Phoebe.

Listening to Kenia and Grace's ridicule, Elizabeth felt like her lungs were about to explode with anger. When Grace saw this scene, she felt was extremely happy. She said loudly to Glory in purpose, "Honey, I really didn't expect that I could really buy a house in Dragon Bay. It's really great! It's my dream to live in Dragon Bay. Thank you for helping me realize it!"

Kenia also said, "Yes, Glory. Grace is really lucky to know you."

And just then, Ryan, who was about to pay a deposit of 200,000 dollars, heard their voices, turned around and looked at each other...

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 224 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Immediately, Kenia and Grace were stunned. Obviously, they didn't expect to meet Ryan here.

Dragon Bay was a place that only rich people could come, and Ryan was just a useless loser.

At the same time, Phoebe, Elizabeth and James also saw Ryan. For a moment, the mood turned strange.

"Ryan?" Kenia immediately called out. "Why did you come to Dragon Bay?"

For a long time, the Kenia family looked down on Ryan. In their minds, Ryan was just a useless coward, and they despised Ryan from their bones. Even a while ago, they heard that it was Ryan who invested 100 million dollars in SK Company so that Phoebe could be the chairwoman. They still looked down on Ryan because they didn't think that Ryan could afford that much money.

Phoebe must have ridden on ZQ Media's chairman's coattail so that they could get this investment. Ryan was just the blind.

So Grace immediately smiled and said, "Isn't it obvious? He must have come to Dragon Bay to work. Don't you see what he's wearing now."

Kenia said in a strange tone, "How can you say this? He just invested 100 million dollars in SK Company a while ago. Otherwise, you really thought that Phoebe could become the chairwoman of SK Company. Ho ho."

Advertisement

They belittled Ryan to the extreme. After the agent who accompanied Ryan heard them, he was more certain that Ryan was poor and despised him even more.

Ryan was immune to these cruel words. He looked directly at Phoebe. He did not expect them to meet again so soon.

At this moment, Elizabeth and James also saw Ryan, and their eyes changed.

“How unlucky to meet this trash here.” Elizabeth looked bad, and she complained. She especially disliked Ryan because she later found out that the so-called 100 million dollars Ryan invested in SK Company was from the ZQ Media. So she thought that money had nothing to do with Ryan but from chairman of ZQ Inc.

Now that Phoebe and Ryan were divorced, she was terribly happy. So when she met Ryan here, her mood turned bad.

Advertisement

As for Phoebe, something strange flashed in her eyes as she looked at Ryan. She did not expect to meet Ryan here either.

Could it be that Ryan came to Dragon Bay to buy a house?

Now that she was confused about who Ryan’s identity, she no longer knew who Ryan was. After returning from Wind Pavilion that day, she had gone to investigate that place, but the more she investigated, the more frightened she became!

She was getting more and more confused about Ryan.

At this time, Kenia, Grace and Glory had already walked over. When they saw the bank card in Ryan’s hand, Grace said to Ryan, “Oh, my dear brother-in-law, are you coming to Dragon Bay to buy a house?”

Ryan could easily tell what Grace meant. He didn’t bother to pay attention to Grace. He ignored her and looked away. He said to the receptionist, “Give me the POS machine. I’ll pay now.”

Grace was angry at Ryan for ignoring her. She snorted and said arrogantly, “Hey, Ryan, I’m talking to you. Are you deaf?”

She spoke very loudly on purpose, which made her the point here and immediately attracted the attention of everyone around.

Ryan frowned and said unhappily, “Shoot.”

“You!” Grace was wronged. She immediately shook Glory’s arm and said coquettishly, “Honey, this guy humiliated me!” Glory’s face immediately turned angry. He looked up and down at Ryan, his eyes unfriendly. “Who is this guy?”

“Oh, that’s what I told you before. Our the Scotts’s useless uxorialocal son-in-law. Over the years, he has disgraced our the Scotts all the time.” Grace said loudly on purpose, and deliberately looked back at Phoebe.

Advertisement

When Elizabeth heard this, her face turned furious and she gnashed her teeth in anger.

Glory’s eyes flashed through malice. He had just met Phoebe and found out that Ryan was Phoebe’s husband. He immediately became hostile to Ryan. “So it’s him. He looks like a shit.”

“Haha, of course. Think about it. If he’s capable, can he be in such terrible situation?” Grace laughed so happily that she pretended to apologize, “Oh, brother-in-law, I’m sorry. I’m a straightforward person. Don’t take it to heart.”

Kenia turned to Elizabeth and said, “Aren’t you going to buy a villain Dragon Bay? Phoebe can’t afford it. You can ask your son- in-law to help you.”

Grace also said, “Yes, auntie, my brother-in-law is rich. A while ago, he took 100 million dollars from the ZQ Media to invest in the SK Lighting. I believe that the villa in Dragon Bay is only worth more than ten million dollars. He can easily afford it. Haha.”

These two drama queen attracted everyone’s attention in the hall. Elizabeth gritted her teeth and tried to refute, but there was nothing she could say. What they said was truth?

When Ryan heard this, he was a little surprised. Phoebe and her parent came to Dragon Bay to buy a villa?

What a coincidence.

Phoebe felt terrible. For some reason, ever since the divorce, she felt different when she faced Ryan, especially not wanting him to see her in a sorry state.

So she couldn’t stay any longer. She grabbed Elizabeth’s clothes and whispered, “Mom, stop messing around. Let’s go home.”

Elizabeth’s face turned to be ashamed. It was very terrible for her to be defeated by Kenia and her daughter, but she had no choice but only complained bitterly. “It’s all your fault. You have no money even if you become the chairwoman, which made your father and I be humiliated again!”

Seeing that they were leaving, Kenia immediately stopped them and said jokingly, “Hey, sister-in-law, aren’t you going to buy a villa? Why are you leaving? Can’t you really afford it?”

Elizabeth couldn't help but shout out, "Who said we can't afford it? We just don't want to buy it today. Can't we come to buy it tomorrow? It's none of your business!"

Grace simply said mercilessly, "Haha, auntie, just admit that you can't afford it, why do you have so many excuses? Dragon Bay is after all the most high-end villa area in H City, and not everyone can afford i

Phoebe could not bear to hear this. She gritted her teeth. Originally, she was in a good mood. Even if Kenia and Grace were jibing, she didn't care. But when Ryan appeared, she immediately lost her composure and said irritably, "Don't you just want to see us embarrassed? We can't afford it, so what?"

Her eyes were a little red.

Then she turned around abruptly, intending to leave quickly.

Kenia and Grace looked at each other. They were both extremely happy, as if they were winners.

But at this moment, a loud voice sounded, "Who said we can't afford it?"

It was Ryan.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 225 -

The logo for 'The Vengeful Son-in-law' features the title in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The text is centered within a bright yellow, irregular, hand-drawn shape that resembles a splash or a cloud. The background of the entire page is a light gray gradient.

Son-in-law

Immediately, everyone's eyes were on him. Phoebe, who was striding away, heard this and her body suddenly trembled slightly. Ryan's voice seemed to hit her heart directly.

Elizabeth was stunned for a moment. She turned around and saw Ryan strode over with a smile on her face. He repeated, "Who said we can't afford it? It's just a house in Dragon Bay."

Just a house in Dragon Bay? That was too much!

Not only Kenia and Grace, but also the onlookers around them had a bad impression of Ryan when they heard this. They felt that Ryan was too arrogant.

They came to Dragon Bay to buy a villa in the form of a mortgage. They definitely didn't have such a big tone and said such big words as "Just a house in Dragon Bay!" Moreover, in their opinion, Ryan was wearing a cheeky suit and two or three hundred dollars sneaker. He was just an ordinary salaried man. Such a person could afford a villa in Dragon Bay, and they would not believe it even if someone put a knife against their throats.

"Hahaha, what a big tone. Someone like you, dare not to take Dragon Bay seriously? According to what you just said, you must be a billionaire." Glory immediately said loudly.

Advertisement

He was getting more and more annoyed by Ryan now. Among his peers, he was an absolute success. He looked down on trash like Ryan from the bottom of his heart, let alone the history between Ryan and Phoebe.

His words were echoed by many people and they began to ridicule Ryan. "Yes, just a loser. What are you bragging there?"

"You really don't know who you are. How dare you say something like that about Dragon Bay?!"

"I think this guy is a clown. He's a show-off. Look at him. He's a delivery boy at best." "You have thought too highly of him. I think he is a worker at the construction site." Many people began to laugh at Ryan and became hostile to Ryan.

Advertisement

That was quite natural, for Ryan's words just now had offended them all.

If it were someone else, they would have panicked long ago, but it didn't matter to Ryan.

He had already walked up to Phoebe and said with a smile, "Phoebe, you were naughty again just now. Didn't we agree to buy a villa in Dragon Bay? The money is in place. Why can't we afford it? Weren't you lying to your mother and Grace?"

Phoebe opened her mouth wide and looked at Ryan in a daze. She was a little confused about what Ryan was doing. She immediately asked with her eyes, "Hey!" What the hell are you doing?

The smile on Ryan's face remained the same, and he said to Elizabeth, "Mom, which villa do you like? We can buy it."

Elizabeth was a little confused. She didn't understand what Ryan was doing. She looked at Phoebe, hoping to figure something out from Phoebe's look. But now Phoebe lowered her head and looked very complicated. She was also very confused.

Now that Grace realized it, she burst out laughing again. Holding Glory's arm, she walked over. "Oh, my brother-in-law is so awesome. He can afford to buy a house in Dragon Bay. How awesome!"

She said so, but her face was full of disdain. She clearly didn't believe that Ryan had the ability to buy a house. At most, she thought that Ryan was bluffing.

Advertisement

It was understandable for Ryan had been a wimp since he joined the Scotts four years ago. He had never done anything worth mentioning. He didn't know how much disgrace he had brought to the Scotts. Especially Phoebe, his wife, because Ryan, the useless husband, had always had a bad reputation in H City.

Now that she would on no account believe that Ryan could take so much money out to buy a villa in Dragon Bay. Even if he bought it on mortgage, he would have to take out millions at a time!

Kenia immediately joined in and began to despise and disdain Ryan in a strange tone. Elizabeth swallowed and asked Ryan, "Do you really have money to buy a villa in Dragon Bay?" Ryan nodded and said with a smile, "Of course, when did I lie?"

Elizabeth thought about it carefully, and it seemed he was telling the truth. Although Ryan had been useless for so many years, he was still trustworthy. Ryan really didn't seem to have lied to anyone.

But even so, she still felt uncertain. After all, it was really difficult for them to buy a villa worth more than ten million dollars.

She thought to herself that since Ryan had made the statement, she had already been embarrassed and it could not possibly get worse. At worst, she could let Ryan take the blame in the end.

She understood and said, "Okay, if you can afford to buy one, mom will thank you later!"

Ryan smiled and said to Phoebe, "Phoebe, you and mom can choose which villa in Dragon Bay you like?"

Phoebe bit her lips and didn't say anything. In fact, she was a little convinced that Ryan could afford to buy a house in Dragon Bay, but they were divorced now. Even if he could afford it, it seemed that it had nothing to do with them...

So for a moment, she lowered her head and did not answer.

How observant was Ryan? He naturally saw through Phoebe's complicated mood at the moment. To be honest, he was actually a little happy in his heart. After all these years of marriage, Phoebe had always looked down on him, and now he finally had a chance to hold his head high in front of Phoebe!

Moreover, he felt that there was a hint of regret in Phoebe's expression now...

However, Grace and Kenia couldn't stand it any longer. They deliberately tricked Elizabeth and James to come to Dragon Bay to look at the house today, mainly to humiliate them and avenged their humiliation before. Now that Ryan appeared and messed up their plan, how could they put up with that?

At this moment, Kenia said, "Well, since you can afford a villa, then don't talk nonsense. Pay directly!" Grace also said, "Yes, come and pay. It's useless just talking."

Then she winked at Glory. Glory nodded and said directly to the real estate agent, "The villa that we chose just now, arrange it for me. I'll pay now and you must deliver the house to me as soon as possible."

The agent of Glory was so excited that his face turned red when he heard this. He nodded quickly and said loudly, "Okay, okay, okay! Elliot, I'm going to arrange it now! Elliot, you're so generous. It's the first time I've seen such a forthright guest in all my years as a real estate agent!"

Then Glory came over and said to Ryan, "Let's pay together."

He raised his eyebrows, his expression full of provocation.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 226 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“Okay.” Ryan agreed without thinking.

Glory was stunned by his agreeing so fast, but then he sneered, thinking that Ryan was just playing tricks on him.

“Then there is no need to keep talking. Just pay.” Glory also took out his bank card and was about to start paying for the 15 million dollars villa.

Ryan smiled and said to Phoebe, “Which one do you like? Let’s buy it directly.”

Phoebe immediately pulled Ryan aside and whispered, “Ryan, what the hell are you doing? We have no intention of buying a villa in Dragon Bay!”

The smile on Ryan’s face didn’t change a bit. “Then you can’t let Grace and her mother look down on you for nothing, can you? You’re also a chairman now. It’s not good for your image if words spread out, is it?”

Phoebe bit her lips. “But I don’t have the money.” “It’s okay, I have.” Ryan smiled brightly. His smile made Phoebe feel a little special.

“Ryan!” Phoebe raised her voice. “We’re divorced. Why are you helping me like this?”

Advertisement

She stared at Ryan intently, trying to get some answers from Ryan’s expression, but she was disappointed. Ryan was very calm, still smiling, and nothing was unusual.

“We can still be friends after divorce.” “I don’t have that much money to pay you back!” Ryan didn’t answer back, but said directly to Elizabeth and James, “Dad, mom, which villa do you like? I’ll buy it now.”

Now that Ryan behaved so naturally without a hint of guilty look, Elizabeth and James began to hesitate. A voice appeared in their minds. Could Ryan really have money to buy it?

For a moment, there was some light shedding on the darkness of their despair.

Advertisement

Elizabeth said, “We’ll leave it to you to decide.” James also said, “Right, it’s your call.”

After all, now that Ryan had divorced Phoebe and had nothing to do with them, it was not reasonable for them to ask Ryan to buy them such an expensive villa directly.

Seeing that they were still nagging, obviously stalling, so Grace said impatiently, “Hey, do you want to buy it or not? Don’t waste time here.”

Ryan walked over again and said, “Of course we do. Why don’t we? But these villas are not what we like.”

Grace was suddenly amused and showed a disdainful expression. “Hehe, I knew you would say that. But it’s quite normal. A villa worth more than ten million dollars is beyond your means even if you work for the rest of your life.”

The people around them looked at Ryan with disdain. For people in H City, 99 % of them could not afford to buy a luxurious villa in Dragon Bay. This was not a very embarrassing thing, but the problem was that Ryan was a person who could not afford to buy it and still not kept his mouth shut, which was disgraceful.

Especially compared to a successful person like Glory, he was even more belittled. In fact, it wasn’t just them, even Elizabeth and James thought so, so they unconsciously distanced themselves from Ryan.

Ryan just smiled and ignored them. Instead, he said directly to the real estate salesman, “Where is your most expensive villa district?”

Everyone was stunned when they heard him say this, including the real estate salesman. After a while, the other party said, “It’s the ninth project. The average price over there is more than 30 million dollars.”

Advertisement

“Well, just take me there.” Ryan said with a smile. Everyone thought he was crazy. He couldn’t take out more than ten million dollars but wanted to see the most high-end?

Grace and Kenia looked at each other and laughed. They thought that Ryan was just trying to make a fool of himself, so they were not nervous at all. Instead, they were happier. They would just have to wait to see how Ryan and Phoebe and her parents made a fool of themselves later.

Moreover, if this got back to the rest of the Scotts, it would be even more funny, enough to make Phoebe and her parents be disgraceful in the Scotts!

Thinking of this, they were even happier and more excited.

Ryan was planning to buy the best villa in Dragon Bay anyway, but now he just got more attention and it didn’t affect him at all.

Instead, Grace and the others’ appearance made Ryan feel quite interesting. He was a little looking forward to their wonderful expressions.

After four years as a live-in son-in-law in the Scotts, Ryan had always lived a “Loser” life and was ridiculed by Grace and her family. Now that he had changed his luck, he had the opportunity to teach Grace and her family a good lesson. Of course, he would not let go of this opportunity. Moreover, this was also a chance to raise his position in front of Elizabeth and James.

As a result, many people followed the real estate salesman to the ninth project.

It had to be said that as the most high-end villa area in Dragon Bay, the ninth project was really the most luxurious, and it was not the same concept as the sixth project that Grace and others just saw.

After Grace and Kenia took a look, they immediately became uninterested in the sixth project. Grace secretly tugged at Glory’s clothes and asked if he could buy one in the ninth project. On the spot, Glory glared at her fiercely.

She must be joking. The minimum price of villas in the ninth project was 30 million. Even if he sold everything he had, he still couldn’t take out so much money. Even if he took out the mortgage, he would still be hard to pay it back.

“How’s it going? You’ve seen so many. Haven’t you found any one you like?” Grace said in a strange tone.

The real estate salesman also said, “Mr. Howard, which one do you like?”

For a moment, everyone’s eyes were on Ryan, and they were waiting for his answer.

Ryan smiled and pointed to the most luxurious villa in front of him, "This one then."

The real estate salesman said, "Mr. Howard, are you sure you want to buy this one?"

"Yes, is there a problem?"

"This is the most expensive villa in Dragon Bay. It covers an area of thousands of square meters and has a complete set of facilities. The villa is also the highest level of decoration. The total price is 38.99 million dollars." The real estate salesman explained. He looked at Ryan with disbelief.

There was no way he could believe it. Ryan was wearing too ordinary clothes now. People would rather believe he was a delivery man. How could he afford a house close to 40 million dollars?

As expected, so many people around them took a deep breath when they heard this number. They were shocked for this much money could even buy a large company!

Grace and Kenia were also very shocked and looked at the big villa with incomparable envy, but they did not dare to have any thoughts. Such an expensive villa was not something that a person of their level could afford. They were very self-aware about this.

Ryan smiled again. Instead of answering the real estate salesman, he smiled at Phoebe and asked, "Phoebe, are you satisfied with this villa? If you are satisfied, let's buy it."

Phoebe did not answer. Her heart was beating faster for no reason. "Stop messing around!" Phoebe said angrily in a low voice.

Ryan just smiled and didn't say anything more. Instead, he turned around and said to the salesperson, "That's the one. I'll pay now. Get the paperwork done for me."

Grace and Kenia were both disdainful. They didn't believe that Ryan could afford a 40 million villa!

Suddenly, Ryan thought of something and said to Grace, "By the way, Grace, you seemed to say that you want to buy a villa next to ours? Now I've decided to buy a large villa in the ninth project. Do you want to buy one too? A villa in the sixth project is still too small."

Grace asked Glory with her eyes. After getting Glory's permission, she said loudly, "Okay, we'll do it. But you pay first. If you have the ability to pay in full, we will pay immediately!"

How could Ryan not know what Grace was up to? He smiled faintly and said, “No problem, but you’d better prepare the money in advance. In case you have no money to pay for it after I make the payment.”

These words angered Grace and Glory. Glory stepped forward and sneered, “Don’t worry about that. If you can pay, I promise to buy it immediately! As for you, be careful not to make a fool of yourself when you couldn’t bring out that much money!”

Ryan did not refute. He spoke with his actions. Very soon, he went to pay the bill. The real estate company was quick in their work. It was only about ten minutes, and all the procedures were ready. As long as Ryan could successfully pay, he could transfer the property ownership to him directly and Ryan could check in tonight.

For a moment, everyone was watching Ryan to see if he could really pay.

Ryan took out his bank card, swiped it at the POS machine, and then pressed the password. After a while, he heard the machine announce, “Successfully pay 38.99 million dollars in full.”

Immediately, the whole room was quiet, and everyone’s expression became exciting.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 227 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

At this moment, everyone felt it was so unreal! He actually paid thirty-eight million nine hundred and ninety thousand? After almost five seconds, hundreds of people present came back to their senses, and then they gasped.

Ryan himself was the one who broke the strange silence. He still had a faint smile on his face and said to the salesperson of Dragon Bay, "I've signed the papers. Go through the procedures as soon as possible. I'll move in tonight."

Ryan's name was already signed on several contracts.

It created quite a stir.

"Damn it!"

"Did I hear it right? The payment was really done? 389.99 million! This is nearly 40 million!"

Advertisement

"Hallucination, it must be a hallucination. This man looks like a delivery guy. How could he have so much money?"

"Maybe we are wrong about him? Maybe he's really a super boss!"

"I'm so jealous. I want to live in a villa worth 40 million too! Is this the most expensive house in H City?"

At this moment, the salespeople of Dragon Bay were all excited, especially the saleswoman in charge of Ryan's order. Now her face turned red in the blink of an eye. She was breathing quickly and was trembling.

Advertisement

She could get hundreds of thousands of commission!

Other salespeople's eyes were filled with envy and jealousy, especially the one who had brought Ryan here. He was originally responsible for this order, but because he looked down on Ryan, he actually lost such a big client...

With a bang, he slapped himself hard!

He then cried. He couldn't make so much money in a year. With this commission, he had money to buy a condo himself.

At this moment, Elizabeth also came to her senses. She couldn't help but swear, "Oh my god! You bought a forty-million villa!" She looked at Ryan in shock, disbelief, feeling elated...

Ryan was a little scared by her gaze. She looked as if she was about to pounce on him at any time. It was too scary.

James was also dumbfounded. He had never thought that Ryan could afford such an expensive villa. He felt Ryan was not what he used to be.

Seeing his ex-in-laws' reaction, Ryan was very happy. He had been a good-for-nothing for so long because he had to hide his identity, but now he finally got rid of the Howards and could show his prowess.

Phoebe gritted her teeth, but she didn't feel too surprised. She had seen Ryan's extraordinary side before in Wind Pavilion, and it didn't seem too unusual for him to buy a villa of 40 million. However, she was still shocked. Ryan obviously spent so much money to buy the villa for her... For a moment, her mind was in turmoil.

Advertisement

Of course, Grace and the other two people's expressions were the most dramatic. They were completely stunned and looked like they had seen ghosts. They had no idea why Ryan had so much money!

It wasn't forty thousand, nor was it four hundred thousand, but forty million! Even Glory's company was only worth around 40 million. But Ryan took out 40 million to buy a house and paid it all at once.

He began to wonder if he was hallucinating.

Grace and Kenia's expressions were very interesting.

Ryan smiled and said, "Grace, it's your turn now. Do you get the money ready? I took a look. The big villa next door is cheaper. 35 million will do."

Then, Ryan said to the salesman, "Hey, miss, you can prepare the contracts for that villa. My relative's boyfriend is a big boss. 35 million is not a problem."

Suddenly, a group of salespeople rushed out to get the contracts and went through other procedures. This was a huge order.

However, Grace and the others were not so excited. They felt their scalp was numb and their hands and feet were a little cold.

Even now, they couldn't figure out why Ryan could have so much money. It didn't make sense. Were they hallucinating? Grace and Kenia also pinched themselves hard, and they bared their teeth in pain.

After a while, the salesman sorted out the contracts, rushed over, put them in front of Grace and the others, and said quickly and excitedly, "Hello, dear clients. These are the contracts for the purchase of Villa B666. This house covers an area of 900 square meters and has a swimming pool and other facilities. It's especially luxurious. The decorating materials are high-grade. It's like living in the palace..."

The salesperson introduced a lot about the villa. In the end, she said, "The total price is thirty-five million eight hundred and eighty thousand. Do you use your credit card? As long as the payment is done, you can transfer the ownership in half an hour. You can also move in tonight."

All of a sudden, everyone looked at Grace and the two of them.

Grace and Kenia swallowed hard. Their brains were in a mess and they were completely out of their wits. They had never encountered such a ridiculous thing in their entire life.

"Darling..." After a while, Grace began to shake Glory's arm and said coquettishly, while Glory's face was already livid! Thirty-five million eight hundred and eighty thousand! Even if he sold his company immediately, he couldn't get so much money. He immediately pulled his hand back, took out a cigarette, and started smoking, only to find that his hands were trembling a little.

Ryan added, "What's wrong, Grace? Why didn't you pay? It can't be possible that you can't afford it."

Ryan liked to do things like flogging the cur that had fallen into the water. He was never a kind person. Grace and her friends had mocked him a lot just now.

Kenia couldn't stand Ryan's gloating face. She also said to Glory, "Glory, didn't you say you were going to buy Grace a villa in Dragon Bay?"

Glory still remained silent. His face was livid and he was in a panic. This time, he was really embarrassed.

Grace valued her dignity more than anything else. In this situation, she really felt very embarrassed and became irrational. She began to urge Glory to buy her a house.

However, this annoyed Glory. He pushed her away and scolded, "No f*cking way! How can I have so much money!" After that, he stood up and walked away quickly...

Grace and Kenia were left, feeling embarrassed.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 228 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Grace was dumbfounded. She didn't expect Glory to leave her. Before she came, she did everything to please Glory. Glory also promised her that he would buy a villa in Dragon Bay as their wedding house.

However, Glory suddenly left her behind, which was really beyond her expectations. "Hey! Why did Glory run away?" Kenia shouted unhappily. Grace ran out to chase after Glory, but she couldn't see Glory anymore. Now she was rather flustered.

Of course, Elizabeth would not let go of such an opportunity to take revenge. She immediately seized the chance to mack Kenia and Grace.

"Oh, didn't you just say that you were going to buy a big villa? Why are you running away now?"

"It's only thirty-five million eight hundred and eighty thousand. It's not much at all. Ifs not as good as the thirty-eight million ninety-nine million one we just bought. Why can't you even pay for it?"

"Grace, what kind of big boss do you know? I think you've been deceived. How pitiful!" After hearing those words, Grace was heartbroken and she couldn't stay any longer. Then she burst into tears and ran out.

Advertisement

Kenia's face darkened. Elizabeth's words were a knife to her, which made her extremely embarrassed. After all, many people ridiculed her in public. Even if she was thick-skinned, she could not stay but ran away.

Elizabeth was contented. She walked up to Ryan with a flattering smile and said, "Ryan, when did you become so successful? You can even afford such an expensive villa. Mom is really proud of you."

Ryan smiled and didn't say anything. Then Phoebe came over and said, "Thank you for helping me out. Now that you've bought a house, there are still a lot of things to do. We won't bother you."

After that, she pulled Elizabeth away.

Advertisement

"Hey, Phoebe, where are you taking me? We just bought a big villa and haven't gone in to take a good look." Elizabeth shouted.

Phoebe said, "Ryan bought it. It has nothing to do with us."

Elizabeth was unhappy and said angrily, "Why? Didn't Ryan just say that this big villa was bought for us and we can move in tonight?"

"Ryan didn't mean it. His name is written on the property certificate. It has nothing to do with us!"

"Why? You're his wife..." At this point, Elizabeth suddenly stopped. She remembered that Phoebe and Ryan were divorced now.

Legally speaking, they had nothing to do with each other.

She was so excited just now that she forgot about it. For a moment, her expression froze and she felt especially uncomfortable.

She felt that she had missed a big fortune.

"Well, although you are divorced, you can remarry..."

"Mom!" Phoebe immediately glared at Elizabeth angrily. "What nonsense are you talking about? What kind of woman do you think I am!"

Elizabeth did not dare to look Phoebe in the eye. She looked around and muttered in a low voice, "Why are you so fierce? I'm just telling the truth."

They spoke not far away. Ryan had sharp ears and heard their conversation. The corners of his mouth rose slightly. Over the past few years, Elizabeth had been very dismissive of him. Now that she began to appreciate him, he was happy.

Advertisement

Phoebe bit her lip, looked back at Ryan, and strode away.

In fact, she knew that she was not being polite. No matter what, Ryan had helped them out, but she didn't even thank him. It was a little impolite to leave like this.

However, she really couldn't face Ryan calmly, especially after she found Ryan was so outstanding! So the only thing she could do now was to leave Ryan as soon as possible so that she could calm down.

Elizabeth was reluctant to part with the 40 million-dollar villa. She really wanted to live in it, but Phoebe had already left, so she had no reason to stay.

She stared at Ryan and regretted what she did before. If she had known that Ryan would be so rich and successful, she would not have agreed to Phoebe and Ryan's divorce! Now she really wanted to go back and talk to Ryan, please Ryan, and let Ryan and Phoebe remarry. Therefore, she could have the luxurious villa, but she couldn't do so. After all, in the past, she really humiliated Ryan a lot.

Alas! What a stupid mistake!

James was also regretful. The more he looked at Ryan, the more pleasing he found Ryan to be. When he got back, he was going to talk to Phoebe and see if she could remarry Ryan.

After they all left, Ryan looked back and was in a great mood. After all those years, he could finally be proud in front of the Phoebe family.

Next, he finished the procedure and moved in that day.

The villa had been renovated. The furniture was ready and there was no smell of formaldehyde. He could move in immediately.

The place was rather suitable for Ryan's current situation.

"Phoebe, How did Ryan get rich? Why did he become so rich all of a sudden? He can even afford a 40-million villa."

When she got home, Elizabeth couldn't wait to ask Phoebe. What happened just now surprised her. She had never thought that a useless live-in son-in-law she had despised for so long would be so successful.

James also asked, "Phoebe, the last time Ryan invested 100 million dollars in SK Company. It couldn't really be Ryan's money, could it? But the money was from ZQ Media. When did Ryan get in touch with the ZQ Media?"

Elizabeth added, "I really didn't expect that Ryan would become a big boss from a loser. Oh, Phoebe, say something. Mom is curious."

Phoebe remained expressionless. After changing her shoes, she walked to the room.

Elizabeth was not willing to give up, so she immediately chased after her, stopped her, and said, "You little girl, you are more and more disrespectful of me!"

"Now that Ryan and I are divorced, does it have anything to do with us whether he has money or not?" Phoebe said coldly.

"How come it doesn't matter? At least you've been married to him for four years. You've been sleeping with him for four years! So what if you get divorced? He didn't help us at all before. Now that he's rich, he has to compensate us anyway."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 229 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Phoebe was irritated by Elizabeth's words. "Mom! What nonsense are you talking about? Ryan and I have always slept in separate beds. You know that. He had never touched me. Strictly speaking, he and I are not husband and wife at all. He has no obligation to compensate us, okay?"

Elizabeth was speechless for a moment, but she was unwilling to be scolded. After a pause, she continued, "You've been married to Ryan for so long. Why haven't you slept with him yet? You're his wife!"

Phoebe was enraged. "How can you say so? You taught me that! On the first night that we got married, you kept telling me not to sleep with him. How can you say this to me now?"

“You...” Elizabeth was again at a loss for words.

James walked up and said, “Phoebe, what’s going on with Ryan? Isn’t he a poor child from the countryside? How did he get so rich after he divorced you?”

Phoebe didn’t know how to answer this question, and her mind was in turmoil. She said, “He said that he has a good relationship with the chairman of the ZQ Media. He asked the chairman of ZQ for the one hundred-million investigations in the SK Lighting.”

Advertisement

“Is that true?”

Elizabeth and James were both surprised. They knew that ZQ Media was a big company with a market value of billions, but they didn’t expect Ryan to have such a friend.

Only Phoebe felt even more uneasy when she recalled the night that she took off the mask of the chairman of ZQ and revealed Ryan’s face! And what Ryan said to her, telling her that he was actually the chairman of ZQ...

In the past, she had never believed this sentence, but now, her faith was shaken.

Advertisement

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In a mysterious gym, there was a young man with a naked upper body. In front of him were three big sandbags, each weighing several hundred kilograms. However, he beat them up so hard that they wobbled, and the steel ropes creaked.

If a professional boxer saw this, he would be shocked and doubtful about this. How could there be such a strong man in this world? Even a heavyweight boxing champion might not have this kind of strength. Moreover, he punched very fast. He punched three sandbags at a time, and each sandbag swayed like a swing. It was astonishing.

In the end, he punched three times in a row and blew up all three sandbags, and the sand seeped out.

There was applause.

“Second Young Master, your kungfu is even better.”

A man clapped his hands and walked over. It was Master Chou, the king of the underworld in H City.

The topless young man was Ryan. He had been staying at Master Chou's place for the past two days, training in seclusion.

Ryan took the functional drink and finished it in a few seconds. He smiled and asked, "How about we fight and learn from each other?"

Advertisement

Master Chou smiled bitterly and said, "No need for that. I'm no match for you, Second Young Master." Ryan smiled and didn't reply. He wiped sweat, stopped training, and walked to the balcony with Master Chou. Standing in the wind, he said, "This time, I went back to the Howards and defeated Owen. I have avenged myself."

"Yes, I heard about it." Master Chou nodded, his voice full of admiration and respect for Ryan. When he knew about this, he was amazed! He was clear about how powerful the Howards was. It was no exaggeration to say that although he was now the king of the underworld in H City, he was really a nobody compared to the Howards. Owen was especially difficult to deal with.

But now, Ryan went there alone and trampled on the Howards with his own strength, and he also taught the whole of the Howards a lesson. In fact, Chou didn't believe the news when he heard it.

When Ryan said this, he paused and looked into the distance. His eyes were deep as if there were endless vicissitudes and secrets.

After a while, he said, "Chou, do you know about my mother?" Master Chou was surprised, obviously not expecting Ryan's question.

"She was a kind and generous person. She was gentle to everyone, like a spring breeze. She is the most motherly woman I have ever seen." Master Chou said seriously.

Ryan said with a smile, "I didn't expect you to think so highly of her. You even said the word motherly."

Master Chou sighed, "Unfortunately, good people don't live long. Madam died at a young age."

He said this with regret and reminiscence. Everyone would believe that he said it sincerely when they saw him like this, but Ryan did not.

"Chou, you're so good at acting that you almost fooled me." Ryan said with a smile and gave him a thumbs-up.

When Chou heard this, his pupils shrank visibly, and astonishment flashed through his eyes. "Second Young Master?"

Ryan stared straight into Master Chou's eyes, and the smile on his face gradually became cold. Finally, his expression became serious, and he said, "Tell me, who is she? Why did she do this?"

Master Chou's breathing hastened uncontrollably under Ryan's gaze, and his expression seemed a little bit unnatural. He was the king of the underworld. His name scared a lot of people, but he was weak when facing Ryan.

Yes, he was weak. His aura was completely oppressed by Ryan's.

However, Master Chou was still somebody, and he had a stronger mind than normal people. He quickly returned to his natural state. He looked at Ryan with clear eyes and asked doubtfully, "Second Young Master, forgive me for being stupid. I don't understand what you mean."

Ryan stared at Chou for almost ten seconds! And Chou faced his gaze.

"Chou, you don't have to hide it from me. I know everything. She had made my grandpa a vegetable." Ryan said this expressionlessly as if it was someone else's story and had nothing to do with him.

However, Chou could still feel the anger and sadness in Ryan's heart.

Chou was silent. After a while, he asked, "Second Young Master, how did you find out my identity?"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 230 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Master Chou admitted it, but at the same time, he was confused. How did Ryan see through him?

Indeed, he had been working for Ryan's mother, Luna since his freshman year. Nonetheless, he was well hidden and no one in the Howards found out about his identity, including the deceased Anderson.

Now Ryan found out about it. He thought that he didn't let the cat out of the bag.

However, Ryan sighed deeply and said, "Chou, it really surprises me that you works for my mother. It seems that my mother's purpose in marrying into the Howards is not pure from the beginning."

Seeing Ryan's expression, Master Chou suddenly understood everything. Ryan did not find any evidence but just suspicious that he worked for Anna. If he refused to admit it, the Second Young Master would not think that he worked for Anna. It was just that he confessed it himself.

"Second Young Master, you're really good. I've been hiding for so long and even the old man hasn't found out who I am. How can you trick me into telling the truth so easily?" Master Chou smiled bitterly and admired Ryan to the extreme.

Advertisement

Ryan was not proud at all. Instead, he laughed at himself and said, "Chou, you really give me a huge surprise! According to this, you come back to me not because of my grandfather, but because of my mother's order, right?"

Master Chou did not say anything and acquiesced to Ryan's words.

As if thinking of something, Ryan continued to smile, "I'm very curious now. Since my mother is not dead, why hasn't she come to me over the past four years? Am I just a tool in her mind?"

"No!" Master Chou said seriously, "Miss is not such a person. She has always loved you very much and you are miss's most precious treasure."

Advertisement

"Hahaha..."

As if hearing a big joke, Ryan suddenly burst into laughter, "The most precious treasure? Chou, do you think I, Ryan, am a fool and easily deceived?"

Looking at Ryan's laughter, Master Chou fell silent. After thinking for a while, he continued to say seriously, "Young master, it's not like this. Miss really loves you. There's no doubt about that."

Ryan said, "You call her miss. It seems that you have been her servant for a long time."

Master Chou nodded and admitted.

"You said she loved me very much. Then can you explain why she hasn't come to me for so many years and watched me be a live-in son-in-law of the Scotts?" Ryan said coldly, his face expressionless now.

"Miss is protecting you." Master Chou said in a low voice.

"Protect me?" Ryan raised his eyebrows and said, "What do you mean?" Master Chou was silent and did not answer.

Ryan said in a commanding tone, "Answer me!"

Advertisement

"Young master, I know you are very angry now, but please believe that miss is really protecting you. When the time is right, miss will come back to you." Master Chou said.

When Ryan heard this, his heart was filled with anger, making him clench his fists. His breathing was obviously much faster. He closed his eyes, took a deep breath, and tried to keep calm, not to vent his anger. After a while, he continued: "Then tell me why she married into the Howards and why she killed grandpa."

Master Chou lowered his head and did not answer for a long time.

"Answer me!" Ryan said word by word. His eyes were fixed on Master Chou. His anger appeared on his face and his eyes were bloodshot. Master Chou could clearly feel the anger in Ryan's heart. His anger was like a volcano, which was about to erupt at any time.

Even Master Chou could not help but fear Ryan when he got angry. Nonetheless, he still gritted his teeth and said, "I don't know..."

As soon as he finished speaking, he was punched in the stomach by Ryan. It hurt so much that he felt as if he had been hit by a car. He flew back and fell heavily to the ground.

He was also a strong fighter, but when he was punched by Ryan, he couldn't help but cry out. His face was pale and he trembled with pain. It was so painful that he felt his intestines were broken!

Ryan knew very well how hard his punch was. Even a cow could be killed by him. Even if Master Chou was much stronger than ordinary people, it would be difficult for him to bear it. He would have to rest for at least a month to recover.

Thud, thud...

Ryan walked over slowly, grabbed Master Chou's clothes, picked him up and put him on the chair. He patted Master Chou's messy clothes, and said faintly, "Tell me where she is. I won't make things difficult for you."

Master Chou's breathing was quick and he gasped. Ryan's punch was really too hard. He did not expect Ryan to be so powerful. Indeed, he was Miss's son.

"Young master, don't make things difficult for me. I really don't know." Master Chou's forehead was dripping with sweat.

If this image was released, it would definitely cause a stir in H City. The famous Master Chou was abused by a young man.

Ryan's eyes were cold, "Do you think I don't dare to kill you?"

Fear flashed across Master Chou's face and his muscles tensed up. Nonetheless, the next moment, he regained his composure and said, "Young master, I really don't know. If you really don't believe me, you can kill me."

He bravely looked at Ryan with a look of desperation.

Ryan could tell that Chou took death calmly. This showed that Ryan's mother, Luna, was special.

After thinking for a long time, Ryan still didn't do anything. He let go of Master Chou and turned to leave.

Master Chou was stunned. He didn't expect Ryan to leave suddenly. He hurriedly asked, "Young master, where are you going?" "Find her in my own way."

Hearing this, Master Chou immediately panicked. Ignoring the cramp in his stomach, he hurriedly chased after Ryan and stopped him. He said, "Young master, you can't do this! You and miss will be in danger!"

Ryan stopped and looked straight at him, "Then tell me who she is and why she did it." Master Chou hesitated.

"Don't challenge my patience." Ryan said coldly.

Finally, Master Chou made up his mind and said, "Actually, miss and I are both from an ancient and mysterious organization.

This organization is too powerful for the Howards to resist. Miss is a very important person in this organization. When she came out to experience, she accidentally met her enemy and was almost killed. It was your father, Romain, who saved her life. Miss fell in love with your father because of this, and then she gave birth to you, young master. Miss settled down in the Howards, intending to conceal her identity and not go back to the organization. Unfortunately, good times didn't last long. The organization found miss and asked her to go back. Otherwise, the Howards will be destroyed."

"Miss knew how dreadful the organization was. If she didn't go back, the Howards would definitely be destroyed. Therefore, in order to protect the Howards, miss must leave. Unfortunately, the old man found out about this and the organization was going to kill him! Miss stopped them in time, and finally miss could only do it herself..."
