The Vengeful Son-in-law

When a man was angry, he would make other's blood splash. When the son of heaven was angry, he would kill millions of people!

Ryan was not the son of heaven. He couldn't kill millions of people, but he could still make this white man named Connor bleed three feet.

This group of foreigners had already come here and bullied them face to face. If Ryan was still indifferent and did not teach them a serious lesson, then he would not be considered a true man in the H Country.

As a martial arts practitioner, when faced with injustice, he had to help the weak and bring justice to them.

As a true man in the H Country, when foreigners insulted his country, he must do something to save his country's dignity. This was the principle and the bottom line!

Not to mention that Ryan was capable of doing this, even if he didn't have the capability, he had to stand out to protect the dignity of H Country at this time.

At this moment, Ryan somehow understood something.

Originally, at his state now, he should slowly cut off the relationship with the secular world, detach himself from the material world, cultivate wholeheartedly, constantly make breakthroughs, regard cultivation as a scientific career, and constantly explore forward so that he could achieve supreme achievement.

However, Ryan found that it was not necessary to do this. It was because as long as people lived in this world, they could not be absolutely detached from the material world. If they were absolutely detached from the material world, they would not be human but machines. When people became like this, they would abandon the seven emotions and six sensory pleasures so as to pursue the way to forget human desires.

At least Ryan was not suited to go this way.

Now the provocation of Smith and others made Ryan realize something he had never thought of before, which was the national righteousness!

It was a confinement, but it was also an assistance.

This meal was over. Ryan followed Smith and the others to the fight club upstairs. Sure enough, there was a huge octagonal cage that was surrounded by black iron nets. The cage was very strong.

When they came upstairs, there were already many people in the fight club, and two of them were engaged in a fight. The scene was especially shocking and bloody. They punched each other in the face, and both parties were injured.

There was still a lot of blood on the ground.

When Clarissa and Flora saw this, they were all very scared. Their heads were numb and they did not dare to see it anymore.

When they thought that Ryan would also go in later and fight with Connor, they were all very worried. Clarissa, in particular, was afraid, guilty, and regretful.

“Mr. Howard, it’s too dangerous. Let’s cancel it!” Clarissa said in a pleading tone.

Flora also said, “Yes, Mr. Howard, you are a superior big boss. There is no need to enter the octagonal cage with Conner.

Besides, he is a professional boxer. He punches heavily. You can’t stand to be punched by him!”

The other two bodyguards also persuaded Ryan not to fall for it.

Advertisement

Ryan was quite touched. These people were all for his good. But now under the circumstances, it was impossible for him to back down. There was no reason for him to do that at all. In front of him, Connor was just an ant. To put it bluntly, even if he stood still and let Connor beat him, Connor could not hurt him.

It sounded ridiculous, but that was the truth!

Now that Clarissa and the others were indeed worried about him, he explained patiently again, "Don't worry. This Connor is not my opponent. I can knock him down soon."

He had made it clear enough, but Clarissa and the others still didn't believe him, because the difference in body size between him and Connor was too great!

"What? This man from the H Country is going into the octagonal cage with Conner? Is he crazy?"

After listening to Smith, a man called out in surprise. He was the coach here, mainly teaching Muay Thai.

When the others heard this, they also felt that it was very incredulous. They looked over. When they saw Ryan was so thin and tender. They thought Ryan was at the second intermediate level at most, while Conner was definitely at the heavyweight level. They all felt it very incredulous and thought that Ryan was looking for death.

Smith smiled grimly and said, "It doesn't matter if he's crazy or not. This man is especially arrogant. He said he would use his H Country Kungfu to defeat Connor."

Hearing the words "H Country Kungfu", the people of the fight club were stunned for a moment, then laughed out and said, "Smith, don't joke. H Country Kungfu is a performance. It is the gymnastics the old men practice in the square. How powerful is it? The really powerful ones are Muay Thai, Karate, Judo, and Free Combat."

"That's right. Last time, there was a man from the H Country who came to the club and said that he was practicing something new and wanted to fight with us. But he was beaten by our Tony so hard that he almost cried. He was such a rubbish."

"Besides, Connor is the top boxer in the British Empire. He can punch a cow to death with a maximum strength of 1,500 pounds. If he hits this man, this man will be beaten to pieces."

"I don't think so. It's too bullying. Just let Tony play with this man." The people of the fight club all despised and disdained the Kungfu of the H Country from the bottom of their hearts. Now when they heard that Ryan was going to enter the octagonal cage with Conner, they just saw the fight as a joke.

Then, a black man came over and said to Ryan in broken mandarin, "Hey, the man from the H Country, do you know who Connor is? He is the top boxer in the British Empire who can kill a cow with one punch. If you want to enter an octagonal cage with Conner, you just want to die quickly! Surrender quickly and apologize to Conner."

Ryan was too lazy to talk to the black man and walked straight to the octagonal cage.

When the black man saw that Ryan ignored him, he couldn't help but get angry.

Clarissa, Flora and the others were even more worried. Ryan was determined to fight with Connor. What should they do now? At this moment, they even had the idea of calling the police!

Ryan saw through their thoughts and said seriously, "Don't call the police. Trust me."

When they saw Ryan's eyes, they felt inexplicably safe and put down their phones.

Connor was even more excited when he saw that Ryan had actually entered the octagonal cage before him. He instantly took off his shirt and pants, wore standard boxers, put on his gloves, and began to walk towards the octagonal cage.

Smith punched him hard on the chest and said, "Connor, my good brother, I'm counting on you this time. Beat this yellow monkey hard! Let him know how powerful we are!"

Connor raised the corner of his mouth, revealing a wanton grim smile. He said, "Don't worry, my dear Smith. I'll torture this yellow monkey from the H Country later. I'll let him understand that the H Country Kungfu he admires is a piece of dog shit!"

After that, he strode into the octagonal cage.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 382 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

After Connor was on the stage, he locked the iron door, not giving Ryan a chance to escape.

Clarissa, Flora and the others became more and more concerned.
Ryan smiled disdainfully.

Ryan was not interested in dealing with such a weak man at all. He did not even cultivated to the peak of Nurtured Realm. They were not at the same level.

“You are from H Country, that’s why you are humble. You have been a dead man! Maybe you don’t know who I am. I’m a top boxer in Great Britain. I used to win a gold belt! How dare you humiliate my good friend Smith? Now, you’re done.” Connor said with a grim smile.

Smith also said, “Connor, my good friend, it’s time for you to give this man a good show of your power as a boxing champion.” “What? He’s a boxing champion?!” When Clarissa heard this, she was shocked.

A bodyguard next to her suddenly thought of something and said in horror, “I recalled. This white man is called Connor. He is the new boxing champion in Great Britain, nicknamed Crocodile. He is very famous for his big hit. He often knocks off his opponent with one punch!”

“Oh no, then Mr. Howard is going to suffer!”

Advertisement

When Clarissa and Flora heard this, they became even more flustered. If something bad really happened to Ryan, they would be involved.

At the same time, cheers were heard from the audience, and many people shouted, “Connor!” “Connor!”

“Connor!”

“Beat him!”

Advertisement

“Beat him...”

Such majestic roar made Clarissa and other people’s faces turn pale. They covered aside, feeling helpless.

The audience’s support was one-sided. If it were for an ordinary professional boxer, he would have lost in momentum.

But for Ryan, it didn’t affect him at all. Instead, he thought it was a little funny.

He said casually, “Don’t waste time. Let’s get started.”

Connor was enjoying the cheers from the crowd and disdained to warm up. He pointed at Ryan with one figure, then did a killing gesture, and began to walk towards Ryan.

He was 1.85 meters tall, and his body was as strong as a bear, which gave people a great visual impact. Ryan was still on his casual clothes, and it was obvious that they were not at the same level.

“You, your country’s kungfu is a piece of shit. I won’t bully you. I’ll beat you with one hand. If you can beat me, you’ll win.” Connor was extremely arrogant and conceited. He pointed at Ryan and signaled Ryan to get started.

Ryan raised his eyebrows. He didn’t bother to talk one more sentence. He walked over and punched Connor. When Connor saw his punch, he showed disdain. Without avoiding, he let Ryan hit him in the chest.

As a professional boxer, he was specially trained to fight. Not to mention a weak person like Ryan, even if a boxer of the same level hit him on the chest, he would not be hurt.

Advertisement

But he underestimated Ryan’s strength.

The punch hit Connor's strong chest. With a bang, Connor's body, which weighed more than 100 kilograms, staggered back and slammed into the iron net behind him. Connor's arrogant face also revealed an extremely painful and shocked expression.

He felt as if he had been hit in the chest by a cannonball. The strength he had never felt before made him so painful that he had to grit his teeth. It was like he had been hit in the head by a heavyweight boxer!

How could this be? How could this skinny man in front of him have such a terrifying force?

Ryan was also a little surprised. He didn't use all his strength in that punch just now. He only used 20 percent. But the strength was comparable to that of the peak of Nurtured Realm. The ordinary people who got this punch would go down.

It seemed that Connor was really good. His strike-resistance was not bad and he could withstand this powerful punch.

In the spectator seats, Smith and the others saw that Connor was punched back by Ryan, and they all showed a shocked expression. They thought Connor was acting, but when they immediately saw the painful expression on Connor's face and he pressed his chest, they felt incredible.

"Connor, are you okay?" Smith immediately said nervously, "This man's power is good and you must take some flexible strategy."

Connor took a deep breath and fiercely stared at Smith outside the octagonal cage. He cursed, "Damn Smith, why don't you say it earlier, f*ck!"

Smith rolled his eyes and was very angry. He had already told Connor but Connor was too arrogant to listen.

Others also found it incredible. Connor was a heavyweight boxer. How could he be knocked down by Ryan's punch?

Ryan did not take advantage of the victory. He stood in front of Connor with his hands behind his back and said faintly, "Your strike-resistance is not good. I only used 20 % of my strength in that punch just now."

When Connor heard his mockery, he gritted his teeth in anger. His eyes were red and bloodshot. He was furious and roared like a beast. "Damn you, you succeeded in angering me. Next, I will let you understand what pain is!"

After that, Connor rushed towards Ryan, like a crazy brown bear. The average people must get frightened if they are facing Connor.

Clarissa and the others offstage were so scared that their hearts almost went up to their throats and they trembled.

Ryan was not afraid at all. The corner of his mouth rose slightly. He showed a disdainful expression and waited for Connor to rush in front of him, and then he caught Connor's angry punch with one hand.

Not moving at all.

"What?!"

"Oh my God! Is this real? Ryan actually caught Connor's angry punch!"

"And he is relaxed. How is this possible?"

"Connor's punch at the peak can explode terrifying strength of 1,500 pounds!"

The audience was stunned. This scene was much more shocking than before.

In their minds, Connor was invincible. He had defeated many masters before, and now he was caught by this man? They were people who had practiced boxing and knew how difficult it was to catch a fist.

The most surprised person was Connor. He knew more than anyone how heavy his punch was, and it was his weapon to defeat the enemy. Now, his punch with all strength was caught by this man in front of him?

Ryan smiled. "Is this what you call the power of a boxing champion? You're too weak."

Connor was so angry that he roared like a monster, and then another punch at Ryan's head. This punch used all his strength.

Once Ryan was hit, he would definitely lose and get a serious concussion.

However, Ryan didn't even hide, so Connor punched him in the face.

Bang.

Connor was overjoyed that he actually hit Ryan!

But in the next second, he felt something was wrong. Why did this punch seem to hit the iron man? His fists were obviously painful.

There was no imaginary scene that Ryan was knocked out. He still stood there without any damage on his face, and he looked at Connor with a light smile. Then Ryan acted and punched him in the stomach. Ryan's attack was so strong that Connor was off the ground and then Connor fell heavily to the ground.

It hurt so much that Connor couldn't even stand up. He fell to the ground and let out a shrill cry.

It was so painful that it was beyond the limit of what he could bear. Now he felt that his organs were all broken and he couldn't breathe smoothly.

Hundreds of people offstage all dumbfounded, looking at Ryan who was in the octagonal cage. Everyone was numb and their legs were shaking.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 383 -

The logo for 'The Vengeful Son-in-law' features the title in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The text is centered within a bright yellow, irregular, hand-drawn style splash or cloud shape.

To be honest, no one had expected this to happen because it was unrealistic. If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, they wouldn't have believed it! Gulp!

They gulped heavily. Now everyone was no longer as arrogant as before. They looked at Ryan as if they were looking at a monster.

Ryan stood in an octagonal cage and his eyes swept across the crowd below the stage. Anyone who was targeted by him was frightened and did not dare to look at him and quickly lowered their heads. And Smith was even trembling and extremely scared.

He knew very well how powerful Connor was. But such a top boxer could not fight back at all in front of the man of H Country. He could not imagine how powerful Ryan was.

Clarissa and the others were also shocked to the extreme now. They worshiped Ryan. No matter in what era, personal heroism existed, and now Ryan was their hero.

Ryan ignored Connor, who was like a dead dog on the ground, and said directly, "And those who look down on H Country kungfu and think that H Country kungfu is inferior can come into the octagonal cage and fight with me. There are no limits to the number of people. You can go together."

His words were overbearing. The words and Ryan's indifferent expression made him almost look like the male protagonist of a movie, which attracted Clarissa's attention immediately. She never had this feeling before. Her eyes were caught by Ryan's body, and she could not move them away.

Flora couldn't help but exclaimed, "Mr. Howard is so charming. He's rich, kind, and good at kungfu. He's the perfect man! The woman who marries him must have the blessing from her previous life."

When Clarissa heard this, she was even more touched and she bit her lips tightly.

As a popular superstar, Clarissa had seen many outstanding men and knew many hypocritical and dark sides in the circle. She had long lost expectations of love. Ryan forcefully broke her heart wall and entered her world.

Still, no one dared to respond to him. They were not stupid. Naturally, they could see that Ryan was terribly powerful. They were no match for Ryan even if they went up together. They would only get beaten up so were all cowardly now.

Ryan was quite happy to see that so many foreigners were scary.

He walked to the iron door of the octagonal building and found that it was locked. He didn't ask anyone to unlock it but grabbed the doorknob and pulled it in. The lock was broken, and then he came out of the octagonal cage.

This scene made these people even more cowardly and they made way for him for fear of offending him.

When Smith saw him coming towards him, he was already frightened and his legs trembled violently. He subconsciously wanted to run, but he found that his legs were already out of control. He had never encountered such a situation before!

Eventually, Ryan walked up to him and said with a half-smile, "Smith, it seems that you are very dissatisfied with me. You even found a professional boxer to challenge me. Are you trying to kill me?"

When Smith heard his words, he was so scared that his heartbeat almost stopped. His legs shaking, he quickly shook his head to explain, "No, no! Mr. Howard, you misunderstood me. I only want to see the H Country kungfu, so I asked Connor... No, no, Mr. Howard, I was wrong. It was Connor who wanted to compete with you. It had nothing to do with me, Mr. Howard."

If it was ten minutes ago and they saw Smith was so scared, they would have despised him and thought that Smith was too timid. But now, none of them would despise Smith. If it were them, they would also beg for mercy.

Advertisement

Ryan's face was cold. He ignored Smith's explanation. He would not be merciful to such a foreigner who was flaunting his power in H Country. He slapped him directly. Smith flew out directly, spun around in the air, and then fell to the ground.

Half of his face was swollen and he was in so much pain that his tears streamed down his face. When the others saw this scene, they all were scared. They could not help but take a step back and their hearts were full of fear for Ryan.

They were all good at boxing, but when faced with Ryan, they were really scared.

Smith covered his face. He didn't even dare to be angry now. He was only afraid and regretful. If he had known that the man from H Country was so powerful, he wouldn't have called Connor to avenge him. Now he was in big trouble!

Ryan still didn't let him go. Instead, he hooked his finger and motioned for him to come over.

Smith was already extremely scared, but he did not dare not disobey. He walked over, trembling slightly, looking extremely pitiful. The tall man even cried out.

Clarissa clenched her fists tightly, feeling especially excited and happy. Smith had been so arrogant in front of them these days, and now he was punished!

"Mr-Mr-, Mr. Howard, I don't dare to do so anymore. Please let me go..." Smith cried for mercy.

Ryan looked at him indifferently and said, "Kneel down."

Smith's eyes flashed with anger, but he immediately saw the coldness in Ryan's eyes. He did not dare to disobey. He quickly knelt down and all his dignity was destroyed at this moment. He was a noble white man, but now he knelt down for the man of the H Country.

Ryan was not satisfied. Instead, he looked at the foreigners who came with Smith and said, "You should kneel down and apologize for your insulting remarks about H Country."

Those foreigners were not as tough as Smith, and they all knelt down obediently.

This scene was shocking. Any person of the H Country would be extremely happy to see it. Over the years, foreigners had always been superior to them. There were so many people of the H Country bullied by foreigners. Ryan's action made them feel proud!

Ryan stopped as soon as he saw that Smith and the others had apologized and did not continue to make things difficult for them.

He walked over and smiled at Clarissa and the others and said, "It's settled. Let's go."

Looking at Ryan's smile, they felt dizzy. Just now, Ryan was so domineering and arrogant, but now he returned to his gentle appearance. He was so handsome.

Clarissa nodded hard and said, "Yes, let's go!"

Then they walked out of there together.

After they had been gone for half a minute, Smith and the others dared to stand up. He gritted his teeth and said, "You can't tell anything about tonight, okay?"

What happened just now was a disgrace to Smith. If it was to be spread, his reputation would be ruined.

Connor had also come out of the octagonal cage. The wound on his abdomen was too painful. It was as if he had been hit by a shell. He felt pain even when walking.

He also said coldly, "Smith is right. What happened just now can't be spread. It will have a huge impact on our reputation." Everyone was silent.

After a while, a white man asked, "Connor, even you lost to him. Is H Country kungfu really that good?"

His face was full of pain. His world was overturned just now. He had always thought that the modern boxing of their country was the most powerful, but just now Ryan hit him hard in the face.

Others also asked the question, feeling particularly sad.

Connor shook his head with a cold face and said, "Bullshit H Country kungfu! H Country kungfu is nothing but a scam. It's not powerful at all..."

After saying this, he thought of something and looked carefully in the direction of the door timidly, afraid that Ryan would hear him.

Only when he was sure that the door was closed and Ryan would not show up did he show his arrogant expression again.

But his action was seen by others, and they didn't believe his words anymore.

"I know what you are thinking about." Connor snorted. He was not angry and then he said, "The man didn't use H Country kungfu at all, but modern boxing. In fact, he is not an ordinary person, but he had an awakened superpower, so he was so terrifying."

"Superpower?" The word confused everyone. Obviously, none of them had heard of it.

Connor nodded and said, "That's right. That man of H Country is obviously a superpowered person! Originally, a superpowered person like him can't do anything to ordinary people, but he just did it. It was against the rules of the superpowered alliance. I will report it to my boss and ask my boss to punish him!"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 384 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

As for Ryan, he remained silent when they came out of the fight club. Ryan did not speak. Although they tried to say something, they didn't dare.

Although Ryan had a very easy manner now, they were still very afraid of him and didn't dare to do anything. It wasn't because they were timid, but Ryan's power was as subversive and terrifying as superman's.

Finally, Ryan broke the silence and said with a smile, "Are you afraid of me? None of you dare to speak." They all looked embarrassed.

Finally, Clarissa spoke first, "Mr. Howard, are you a superman?"

Ryan was stunned for a moment, then laughed and asked, "What do you think?"

Clarissa's heart beat faster. She had watched a lot of foreign superhero movies, such as Superman, Captain America, Iron Man, and so on. There was always a fantasy in her heart, which was that a powerful superhero existed in this world. Ryan acted like a superhero today.

Advertisement

"I think you must be!" Clarissa said seriously.

Ryan laughed at what she said. He shook his head and said, "Wrong. I'm not a superman. I'm just an ordinary person who's better at fighting than others."

Obviously, Clarissa didn't believe it. Not just her, no one else believed.

With Ryan's explanation, Clarissa was even more determined that he was Superman under an assumed name, and she had a better impression of Ryan.

Advertisement

After getting downstairs, it began to rain. Ryan didn't drive. It was not easy to take a taxi now. Suddenly, Flora suggested, "Mr. Howard, it's raining heavily now. Why don't you let Clarissa send you back?"

When Clarissa heard this, she nodded and said, "Yes, Mr. Howard, let me take you back. My car is in the parking lot."

Ryan said strangely, "You're a super star. It's not appropriate to ask you send me back."

Clarissa shook her head and said, "It's totally fine. I usually drive home by myself. In fact, celebrities are just like ordinary people. Mr. Howard, don't consider me as a delicate woman."

Flora also said, "Yes, Mr. Howard, let her take you home. It's OK."

Since they insisted, Ryan nodded to agree.

Clarissa didn't lie. It was obvious that her driving skills were quite good and she drove steadily. During this time, Clarissa found a topic to talk to Ryan actively.

“Mr. Howard, can you sign for me?” At the entrance of Dragon Bay district, Clarissa suddenly asked boldly.

“Sign for you?” Ryan was a little surprised. It was the first time someone asked for his signature since he was born, and the one who asked was a super star. He felt strange.

Advertisement

Clarissa nodded hard and said, “Yes, from now on, I will be your fan!”

Looking at Clarissa’s expectant face, Ryan could not refuse her. He nodded and said with a smile, “Okay, but I don’t have a pen on me...”

“I do!” Clarissa was especially excited and cheered when she heard Ryan’s promise. She quickly turned to get her bag.

She knelt on the cushion in an attractive arc. Ryan’s face turned red and his heart beat faster. He quickly looked away.

After all, Clarissa was indeed a beauty with a perfect figure that could make people salivate. Kneeling on the ground in the narrow car space, she appeared rather tempting!

It just so happened that Ryan had a strong s*xual desire, and now it was burning up.

As a result, he kept looking at Clarissa.

“Strange. My pen should be in my bag. Why is it missing?” Clarissa said anxiously, her body moving towards back even more, and her thigh touched Ryan’s arm from time to time, which was killing him!

It just so happened that Clarissa was wearing a hip skirt and black silk stockings today. Ryan was really going to have a nosebleed.

If he had known, he shouldn’t have agreed to let Clarissa send him back. Now it was so awkward.

Ryan couldn’t stand it any longer. His throat turned dry and he said, “Forget it if you can’t find it. I’ll sign it for you next time, okay?”

Clarissa shook her head and said, “No. Mr. Howard, you’re so hard to find. I don’t know when I’ll meet you next time. Now that I have a chance, I can’t give up.”

Ryan smiled bitterly and thought. “You don’t want to give up, but you have to pay attention to your image. You are going to suffer a wardrobe malfunction. After all, you are a super star.”

Finally, Clarissa cheered and said, “Great, got you!”

She quickly turned around. Because she was in such a hurry, she made a thud. Her head hit the headrest of the passenger seat and she groaned. Then she lost her balance and fell straight towards Ryan.

Ryan was in a daze and did not dodge for a moment so that Clarissa fell into his arms!

The atmosphere suddenly became awkward.

“Hell. What’s going on?” He thought.

Well, how did Clarissa turn to be in his arms, and his hand...

Time stopped at this moment.

The two of them looked at each other. Clarissa’s pretty face turned bloody red immediately.

And Ryan’s face couldn’t help but blush. It was really too awkward.

Clarissa’s heart was beating so fast that she felt it almost jumped out. She actually sat on Mr. Howard, and Mr. Howard’s hand was on her...

If other men did this to her like this, she would feel sick and slap him! But it was Ryan. Not only was she disgusted, but she was very happy and felt especially wonderful.

Now she looked at Ryan, who was right in front of her, and her breathing began to quicken. Instinctively, her lips slowly moved towards Ryan’s.

Ryan’s heart was beating fast as well. He was a man. It was impossible to say that he didn’t feel anything at all.

Looking at such a beautiful face that he had seen it on TV several times, he couldn’t remain calm.

Just as Clarissa’s lips were about to touch his, his phone suddenly rang and woke him up.

He quickly pushed Clarissa away and said, “Miss Brown, I’m home. Thank you for driving me back.”

After that, Ryan opened the door and ran away.

Clarissa was stunned. She looked at Ryan’s disappearing figure and came back to her senses after a long time. Then her face turned red and she cursed shamefully, “Clarissa! What were you doing just now? How shameless!”

After a while, she burst out laughing again with a happy and regretful expression on her face. “What a pity. I almost kissed Mr.

Howard! But it doesn't matter. Just now, his reaction implies that he seems to be interested in me..."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 385 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Ryan fled like someone was chasing after him, looking particularly embarrassed.

What happened just now was really too awkward for him. The worst thing was that if the phone didn't ring in time, he would have made a mistake.

No, no...
Yes, the phone.

He quickly took it out of his pocket and saw that it was Phoebe who called him. He panicked even more and looked around to see if Phoebe was nearby, afraid that she would see the scene just now.

Fortunately, there was no sign of Phoebe, so he breathed a sigh of relief and called back. Not long after, Phoebe answered the phone. "Ryan, are you busy? Why aren't you home yet?"

Ryan said, "My phone was muted just now. I'll be home soon. Are you at home?"

Advertisement

Phoebe said, "I am. By the way, can you buy a bottle of soy sauce and oyster sauce on your way back?"

"Okay, anything else?" Ryan said with a sigh of relief.

"No, I'm waiting for you." After a pause, Phoebe said mysteriously, "Mom and dad are back at the Scotts tonight. We're alone." Hearing this, Ryan immediately became excited. Phoebe was definitely hinting at something!

"Okay, I'll be home in five minutes, no, two minutes!" After Ryan hung up the phone and ran away.

Advertisement

Within two minutes, he bought soy sauce and was home.

Phoebe was watching TV in the living room with a mask on her face. When she saw him coming back, her face lit up.

Ryan closed the door and put down the soy sauce. Then he came over and carried Phoebe and walked upstairs.

"Hey, what are you doing? I was watching TV!" Phoebe punched Ryan on the chest twice and said shyly. She was no longer the simple girl she used to be. She knew why Ryan was in such a hurry.

To be honest, she was looking forward to it.

Ryan said seriously, "Honey, I'm poisoned. I need you to detoxify me!"

"Why are you doing this..." Phoebe's face was red. Suddenly, she smelled the perfume of another woman on Ryan's body. Her face stiffened and she asked, "Ryan, who were you with just now?"

"Uh..." Ryan realized something was wrong and wanted to slap himself. He stopped. "Well, I went to a dinner party tonight. It's..."

Ryan quickly explained what happened tonight, and then explained, "Honey, I promise you. Nothing happened between me and Clarissa. I have done nothing!"

Advertisement

Phoebe looked at him. "Really?"

Ryan said quickly, "Of course. I swear if I do something wrong..."

He didn't continue because Phoebe suddenly kissed him.

Then their lips parted.

Phoebe smiled and said, "Silly, why are you so nervous? I didn't say I didn't believe you." Ryan breathed a sigh of relief. He was so scared by Phoebe's look and behavior just now.

Phoebe's kiss aroused his desire again. He really needed to vent it, or else he would die.

When they were in the bedroom, Phoebe took off her mask and revealed her beautiful face. Ryan had seen a lot of beautiful women, but in his mind, the most beautiful one was Phoebe. He felt a spiritual attraction with her.

All the women in the world combined were not as good as Phoebe.

Phoebe felt his deep love, and she felt moved, feeling her heart was filled with affections. She hugged Ryan tightly and said in a coquettish way, "Ryan, marrying you is the best thing in my life..."

Half an hour later.

The violent "storm" stopped.

Phoebe had no strength left and lay there panting.

But Ryan was still very energetic. He had a bitter smile on his face, thinking Phoebe was too weak when doing it.

Now that Phoebe had completely surrendered, he could only take a cold shower to cool himself.

"Ryan." Phoebe stopped him. Ryan turned around. "Hmm?"

Phoebe sat up and said seriously, "I am serious about what I said before. Get some women. Don't hold back your desire like this."

Ryan was stunned.

"Phoebe, stop joking." "I'm not joking. I'm serious..."

Ryan waved his hand to signal her not to say anything more. He turned around and went into the bathroom to take a cold shower.

Tonight, James and Elizabeth went to the Scotts. Now they were only second to the patriarch Richard. No one in the Scotts dared to cold-shoulder them. They couldn't wait to curry favor with them.

Thanks to Ryan, the Scotts's strength increased a lot. Many people in the circle were nice to them, which was convenient for them to do business.

Now when they mentioned Ryan, they kept praising him for a long time. They did not dare to say a bad word about Ryan for fear that someone would spread it to Ryan.

They didn't dare to bring up Ryan's miserable past.

Today, it was their family dinner once a month. Ryan wasn't there, but no one dared to blame him.

They even put in a good word for him.

In the past, their family gatherings were held in five-star hotels. They used to book one private room, but now, the Scotts was different and richer.

In order to show their the Scotts's financial strength, they directly booked a banquet hall in a five-star hotel!

They also invited a lot of relatives and friends, far and near. Originally, there were at most three tables of people at the family gathering, but now, there were more than ten tables. It was a magnificent occasion.

They took turns to toast James and Elizabeth, flattering them.

"Mr. Scott, you have a good son-in-law. We really envy you!"

"Totally. The chairman of ZQ Media is actually Mr. Scott's son-in-law. Mr. Scott, how I envy you!" "Mr. Scott, this is a small gift for you. Please accept it."

Many big bosses came over to flatter James and send gifts to him.

James was especially happy and proud, and his face was red with excitement.

Elizabeth accepted many gifts too and smiled from the beginning to the end.

They wouldn't have thought of such a day. And these were all thanks to Ryan. They were grateful to Ryan from the bottom of their hearts.

Other family members looked at them enviously but did not dare to show it. Their son-in-law was the chairman of ZQ Media which was worth more than ten billion!

No matter when they thought about it, they felt that they couldn't believe it. In the past, Ryan was a loser, but now he had changed into a big shot.

The banquet hall was especially lively and the atmosphere was very harmonious.

At this moment, the door of the hall was suddenly kicked open. A dozen people came in. The one in the middle was Peter's junior female fellow apprentice, and Wade was standing beside her.

"Ryan, get out of here!"

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The kick was so hard that the thick door was knocked heavily against the walls on both sides, causing a huge noise. Everyone in the banquet hall was scared!

Some people with heart problems were so scared that they sat on the ground. Some people trembled and dropped the bowls and chopsticks in their hands. Some people even choked on their food.

The arrival of the group of people broke the harmony in the banquet hall and everyone looked at them angrily.

"Hey! Who are you? How dare you barge into our banquet hall?" "What the hell? Who are these brats? How dare they go on the rampage here?!"

"Wait a minute. What were they shouting about just now? How dare they ask Ryan to get out of here? I think they're tired of living!"

"Security, security, why are you standing there? Get these brats and send them to the police station!"

Many of the Scotts members looked straight at each other angrily and shouted loudly. They couldn't wait to show their loyalty in front of James and Elizabeth so that when Ryan knew this, he would have a better impression of them.

Advertisement

None of them realized who these people were and why they dared to disrespect Ryan. The security guards in the hotel all moved. They were holding electric batons and going over to get Wade and others.

However, before they could touch those people, they were beaten down.

When the Scotts saw that more than a dozen security guards had been easily defeated in a cruel and fierce way, they could not help but shiver. They began to realize that these people were not common brats, so they did not dare to say anything anymore.

Wade was especially proud now. He swept away his previous depression and smiled triumphantly. He walked out and looked coldly all over the room. He did not see Ryan anywhere and was a little disappointed. He snorted and said loudly, "Ask Ryan to come out to see me. I have to settle some score with him!"

All the people in the Scotts were very surprised and panicked. Now Ryan was no longer the piece of crap, but the big boss of three big companies. He had more than ten billion in wealth. These people dared to come here and get Ryan into trouble? They were so bold!

Advertisement

James and Elizabeth were particularly angry. In their minds, Ryan was more important than their own son. He was the wealth safety net. How could they tolerate any offense to Ryan?

James slammed the table hard and scolded angrily, "How dare you! Who gave you the guts to disrespect my son-in-law? I think you want a terrible death! Do you know who my son-in-law is? The chairman of the big companies, ZQ Media, TY Advertising, and Shield Security Company! He moves one finger and there would be people willing to strangle you!"

When James said this, his face was full of pride. Now that Ryan was different from the past, his social status also rose.

Elizabeth also said coldly, "Don't say anything to them. Call Ryan now and ask him to come over and teach them a lesson!"

At this moment, Richard stood up and said, "Don't bother Ryan. Just leave this small matter to us, lest Ryan thinks we're useless, and even bother him with small such small trouble."

James and Elizabeth thought it made sense. Ryan was very busy now, leaving early and returning late every day. If they had to bother Ryan with such a small matter, it would seem that they were useless.

Then Richard made a phone call. "Hey, It's me. Come to Golden Hotel now. Someone is messing with us. Bring as many people as you can."

After hanging up the phone, Richard said coldly to Wade and the others, "I don't care who you are. From this moment on, you guys are in trouble, and my men will be here right away!"

Wade burst into laughter. "Old man, how dare you to call for help? You have no idea who is standing in front of you!"

Suddenly, a member of the Scotts called out and pointed at Wade, "I remember who this guy is! He's the guy who was defeated easily by Ryan at the opening ceremony of Shield Security Company. Now he dares to come here and cause trouble. He's overestimating himself."

Advertisement

The other members also remembered him and began to laugh at him. "That guy! It turned out that it was Ryan's defeated opponent. Has he no dignity?! He was beaten so hard by Ryan that day, and now he dares to go crazy at us?"

"Hahaha, that day, he cried like a child. Now he brought his parents to avenge him. What a shame."

"Isn't that right? This man is really shameless. How dare he come to take revenge..."

Wade's expression immediately changed when he heard the mockery. He was so angry that he gritted his teeth. His anger rose all of a sudden. Ryan mocked him, but how dare these small, lowly ants mock him? They would be dead!

"You are bringing trouble for yourselves!" Wade yelled and was about to hit them.

At this moment, a person next to him pressed his hand down and he suddenly stopped moving like a mad dog who had been put a chain.

It was May.

"Why?" Wade looked at May in confusion.

Peter was not the person that Wade was most afraid of in this world, but May.

In fact, he was one of a small number of people who knew that May was stronger than his father Peter, and that May was a real ruthless person. When May was young, she had slaughtered the whole family of her nemesis with one sword in a very ruthless way.

He also knew that May and his father had been secret lovers for many years. In his mind, May was his stepmother.

May was tall and thin, and was always expressionless, looking very mean.

Her serious face gave off a really frightening aura.

“These are all ants. There’s no need to be angry with them.” May said faintly.

Wade said reluctantly, “But they humiliated me like this just now! I don’t want to let them go!”

May stared at him with her cold eyes. “If an ant offends the god, they should be stepped on and die, not be taught a lesson.” Wade shuddered. He understood what May meant. She was going to kill these people!

This was insane. Wade knew he was kind of lawless. He would crush anyone who he didn’t like. But he couldn’t kill a person just because he had humiliated him. The key was there were more than a hundred people!

This was insane!

He looked at May and was even more afraid.

May looked at him and said with a half-smile, “What? Are you afraid?”

Wade was indeed afraid, but he didn’t dare to admit it. He quickly shook his head and said, “No, no!”

May snorted and said, “Hans, you are as kind as your father, and you will get killed one day.”

They were so cruel, but she said they were too kind?

But compared to May, they were indeed kind.

Wade added, “After all, there are surveillance cameras all over the hotel now. If we kill them, we will be in big trouble!” May said faintly, “I am not asking you to kill them now.”

Wade breathed a sigh of relief. It was fine not to kill them now. Then he immediately became agitated. May was so cruel, so did that mean death was awaiting Ryan?

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 387 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

When members of the Scotts saw Wade stop, they all laughed smugly, thinking that Wade was holding back from taking action because he was afraid.

“Grandpa, once you take action, things are different. They’re scared immediately. Haha.” Zack fawned on him. He was now living a good life and became heavier.

“That’s nonsense. Look at grandpa’s identity now. I can call hundreds of people over with just one phone call. They can drown this bunch of trash with mouthfuls of saliva.” Victor said.

The other members of the Scotts also followed suit. Richard felt very proud and he enjoyed their fawning very much.

Wade was especially angry when he saw their arrogance, but May did not say anything. He did not dare to exceed his duties and meddle in others’ affairs now, so he had to wait there.

After a while, a large group of people came in from outside. There were about a hundred people, all tall and burly men who looked fierce. Their appearance made the members of the Scotts ecstatic.

Advertisement

“It’s Tiger!” “Tiger is great! He called so many heelers over. Haha!”

“This is the end of this bunch of scum! Hmph, a group of mobs. They are only a dozen people, but they dare to come to our the Scotts territory to cause trouble. They acted recklessly!”

Richard also smiled. Tiger was the head of hooligans he had known not long ago. Tiger was especially powerful and called so many people here. So many people came at once, and now this group of trash shall be dead no matter what!

Tiger was a bald and strong man. He looked especially fierce. He had a huge centipede tattoo on his arm, and it was obvious that he was a villain.

Advertisement

He brought so many people in domineeringly and he greeted Richard. “Uncle, I’m here. Let me see which son of b*tch is blind and dares to make trouble in your place? I’ll f*cking kill him!” Tiger was so fierce. Almost 80 hatchet men rushed in, making the banquet hall very crowded.

Richard was especially excited when he saw this scene. He laughed and said, “Tiger, you came just in time! It’s these people who came to my territory to cause trouble. They said they came to seek revenge on Ryan. They are very arrogant and hateful! Tiger, teach them a good lesson. Uncle owes you a favor!”

Tiger waved his hand and said, “Hey, Uncle, what are you talking about? You trust me, so you call me for help. Besides, how did these men dare to seek revenge on Brother Ryan? Brother Ryan is my idol. They are looking for trouble with Brother Ryan. In this way, they are my enemies!”

As he spoke, he turned around and looked at Wade, May, and the others. His sights were not friendly, and those people who followed Tiger began to surround them.

If it were an ordinary person, one would have been scared and wet their pants when he or she saw this kind of situation. There were seventy or eighty people, and they were all ferocious strong men. What kind of scene was that?

But to May, these people were nonentities. It was naturally impossible for Wu to be frightened by these nonentities.

Seeing this situation, Richard thought the whole thing was settled and he was especially excited. He walked out and said, “I don’t care who sent you here. If you dare to make trouble in my the Scotts territory, you only have one end. Death!”

Then, he said to Tiger, “Tiger, break their legs and throw them out. The Scotts will bear the consequences!”

At this moment, Richard was particularly domineering. He was giving orders and standing at the peak of his life. Many people of the Scotts were also excited. Many people took out their phones to take photos and record videos, intending to share it with others in their moments of Wechat later to pretend to be powerful.

Advertisement

Tiger touched his head, and a grim smile appeared on his face, "Uncle, don't worry about that. None of them can run away. They will spend the rest of their lives in wheelchairs!"

As he spoke, he waved his hand and prepared to give the order.

Just then, a middle-aged man in blue next to May spoke. He stared at Tiger coldly. "Kenzo, you are so successful that you dare to break your master's legs!"

When Kenzo heard this voice, his expression froze on the spot and he said in surprise, "Master?"

The middle-aged man in blue stood up. Kenzo quickly took out a pair of glasses from his pocket and put them on. Finally, he saw the middle-aged man clearly. His expression suddenly changed and he shouted out in a daze, "Master, master?! How could it be you!"

Kenzo had high myopia and didn't like wearing glasses usually, so when he came in just now, he didn't see the appearance of May and the others. Now that he could see them clearly, his scalp went numb and his feet were swinging.

The middle-aged man in front of him was his master, Zachary!

Zachary's expression was gloomy, and he looked particularly frightening. Kenzo was so scared that her scalp was numb and he was trembling.

"Master, why are you here?" Kenzo asked in horror. It could be seen that he was especially afraid of Zachary.

The situation reversed so quickly that many people of the Scotts were stunned. What was going on? Wasn't Tiger a big brother? Why did he have a master? And he was so afraid of his master? That didn't make sense!

With a slap, Zachary slapped Kenzo in the face and scolded, "How dare you call me a b*tch and want to break my legs?"

This slap made everyone's heart tremble. The key was that Kenzo did not dare to have any resentment, but he was even more afraid. He was trembling and almost fell to his knees in front of Zachary. He slapped himself and begged for forgiveness, "Master, I was wrong. Master, please forgive me!"

The seven or eighty strong men who had surrounded May and others were now all frightened. These men all took a few steps back and their heads went numb. Even their boss was afraid of these people. They could not imagine how powerful the other party was.

"This... What. How could this be?" Many people of the Scotts were dumbfounded and looked at Richard. This situation scared them.

Richard gritted his teeth, and now he was a little flustered.

Zachary's face was livid. Then, he made another move that scared everyone. He turned around and knelt down in front of May with a thud. He also broke his tail finger and said with great guilt, "Master, I'm sorry. My disciple is ungrateful. If he offends master, please punish me!"

This scene really made everyone dumbfounded, especially Kenzo. He was even more dumbfounded with an unbelievable expression on his face!

Zachary became Kenzo's master three years ago. After that, Kenzo had learned a lot of Kungfu before he slowly became successful. But the one he feared and admired the most in this world was Zachary. He even once thought that Zachary was the best fighter in the country. But now, Zachary was kneeling in front of this middle-aged woman and broke his tail finger just because Zachary's apprentice offended her?

This...

His hands and feet were really cold now. It was as if he had fallen into an ice cave. He was so scared now.

As for the people of the Scotts, they were trembling even more violently now. No matter how stupid they were, they had already realized that they had gotten into a big trouble. The other party was not a small potato, but a real big shot!

So, it was no wonder that now that Ryan had become a big shot, but they still dared to come here to seek revenge openly. It was not that they were crazy, but that they had the capability!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 388 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

At this moment, May attracted everyone's attention.

In the banquet hall of hundreds of people, it fell silently somehow and no one dared to speak again.

May still looked indifferent and she said coldly, "You have been well-behaved lately. I'll let you go for the time being."

Zachary was overjoyed and quickly kowtowed to thank her as if he had been granted an amnesty. "Thank you, master! Thank you, master!"

Then he quickly said to Kenzo, "Bastard, hurry up and apologize to your master!" Kenzo took the order and rolled over, kowtowing and pleading for forgiveness.

He had never seen May before, nor did he know about May's existence. But even his master Zachary respected May so much that he could naturally think of May's capability!

May waved her hand and said calmly, "Okay, get up." Kenzo quickly stood up and immediately heard May say, "Go, beat up all of Ryan's family. Don't stop until I tell you so."

"Well..." Kenzo immediately became embarrassed. He did not take less of the benefits of the Scotts. If he beat up all the Scotts, he would not be able to keep his own livelihood in the future. What mattered now was that the person behind the Scotts was Ryan, who was a big shot. Even the underground emperor of H City Master Chou was Ryan's man. He couldn't afford to offend him.

Advertisement

May looked over. "What, are you going against my will?"

Zachary kicked Kenzo to the ground and scolded, "You bastard, you dare to disobey an order from your master's master. I think you want to die!"

Kenzo said with a trembling voice, "Master, it's not that I want to disobey her order, but that the person behind the Scotts is Ryan. I can't afford to offend him."

Zachary smiled disdainfully and slapped Kenzo in the face again. He scolded, "You piece of shit! Just one Ryan scared you like this. Your master's master is here to embarrass Ryan this time! What's Ryan? He's just an ant in front of your master's master." Kenzo's eyes lit up and said, "Is her really that powerful?"

Advertisement

He couldn't help but look at May. He saw May's dark eyes, which seemed to have no emotion at all. They were like black holes, trying to suck him in and leave him nothing left. He could not help but shiver. He had seen a lot of big shots, but he had never seen a woman like May before. May gave him the feeling that she was not a person, but a monster.

Zachary gave him a kick. "Hurry up, or I'll cripple you!"

Kenzo did not dare to disobey. He quickly ordered his men to start attacking the whole the Scotts.

When Richard and the others saw this, they began to panic. They did not expect that there would be such a reversal.

"Dad, what should we do? Why did Tiger betray us?!"

"Yes, grandpa, how did this happen?"

"Should we call the police?"

All the Scotts members began to panic at this moment.

Richard was also very flustered, but as the head of the family, he had to remain calm at this time. He gritted his teeth and said to Kenzo, "Tiger, what's going on? Why did you betray us?!"

Kenzo's eyes flashed with some shame, and he quickly wiped it away. He sneered and said, "Hmph, old man, you still have the nerve to ask me? I almost get into trouble because of you! Keep your f*cking eyes open. You even dare to offend my master's master. I think you are getting tired of living!"

Advertisement

Richard was scolded by Kenzo pointing at his nose like this. He was so angry that his face tilted. He pointed at Kenzo and scolded, "Kenzo! If you dare to touch the Scotts, Ryan will not let you go. You must think it through!"

When Ryan was mentioned, fear flashed in Kenzo's eyes. But he immediately erased it and said coldly, "Hehe, Ryan is also a piece of trash in front of my master's master. He has offended her now and he won't have many days to live. How would he not let me go then?"

Then, he waved his arm and said loudly, "Brothers, go ahead and beat them up to death!"

With his order, the men of seventy or eighty rushed up like wolves. They beat up whoever they got their hands on, not even the old and children were spared. Some young and beautiful women were taken advantage of crazily. It was very chaotic.

As the owner of the Scotts, Richard was also knocked down. He was slapped a few times and was in a terrible mess.

No matter how depressed the Scotts had been, it had never been humiliated like this. Even the friends invited by the Scotts were implicated and beaten up.

Wade looked especially satisfied. Now he was looking forward to what Ryan would look like when he found out about this. It could be imagined that he would be really pissed off by then!

He secretly glanced at May and found that she still looked indifferent and cold. Her eyes were very deep as if there was an abyss behind her eyes. There were eighteen levels of hell, sealed with terrifying souls, which were especially frightening.

James and Elizabeth were also beaten up. They couldn't run away even if they wanted to. Even if they tried, they would be caught up and beaten up again. And the pain made them scream like hell.

They had never been beaten like this in their entire life.

"Stop, stop, or we'll be dead soon..." "Woo woo woo, I was wrong. Please don't hit me..."

"It hurts, it hurts..."

"Who's coming to save us..."

They were all wailing and the staff of the hotel did not dare to step in. It was a very tragic scene.

Finally, May spoke. She simply raised her hand and said faintly, "That's enough."

Her voice was clearly not loud, but it was clearly heard by everyone present. Kenzo quickly ordered them to stop.

It was extremely chaotic. Everything was broken. The whole the Scotts, including some guests, fell to the ground and screamed and groaned. It was really deplorable.

Some of the young people who had resisted were especially taken care of and beaten even more seriously. Several bones were broken.

May stepped out at this time, her sharp eyes sweeping over everyone, and she said, "This is a small lesson for you today. Go back and tell Ryan that my name is May, Peter's junior sister. The next time I come back, I will kill him."

After saying this, she turned around and left without looking back, extremely domineering.

All the Scotts were scared out of their wits.

After they all left, someone in the Scotts dared to speak up. "Ouch, it hurts so much. Who on earth did Ryan offend?" "That's right. We were all implicated by him this time..."

Richard stood up trembling slightly. He gritted his teeth. He was already old and his bones would literally fall apart after being beaten up this time.

"Enough!" He yelled, then said to James, "Call Ryan right now and tell him about this."

James's face was now swollen like a pig. He took out his cell phone and found Ryan's number. After a while, the phone was connected and Ryan's voice came. "Hello, dad, what's the matter?"

When James heard Ryan's words, he felt extremely aggrieved and sad. His nose was sore and he burst into tears. "Ryan, we were beaten up. Boo..."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 389 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“What?!”

When Ryan heard this, he was so angry that he suddenly stood up. His reaction was so violent that the people opposite him were shocked.

“Dad, what’s going on?” Ryan said in a low voice.

James thought of what had happened just now and he was still aching all over. He had never been beaten like this in his life, so he felt especially aggrieved. He cried and told Ryan what had happened just now. Finally, he choked and said, “Ryan, how do you get into trouble with these people? This time, you’ve implicated the entire the Scotts!”

When Ryan heard this, his fury immediately rushed to his forehead and burned all over him! He had not been so angry for a long time. Only when he was expelled from the Howards did he feel so angry! Wade’s actions had already gone beyond the limit of his patience and enraged him.

Hawthorne and Myles, who were sitting opposite, were all frightened by Ryan’s current state. They could vaguely see the anger burning in Ryan’s eyes. Ryan had a terrifying aura. He was like a volcano that was about to erupt, which was especially frightening.

Advertisement

Hawthorne had experienced a lot of things, and he had seen other masters of the Innate Realm. Therefore, his psychological quality was far beyond that of ordinary people. However, now he was still afraid and shivering in the face of Ryan’s anger.

As for Myles and other people, they were even more scared. Their faces turned pale with fear and their minds went blank.

This was not an exaggeration, but the aura that Ryan was emitting now was too terrifying, as if it was going to drown people.

“Dad, wait for me. I’m coming to you right now!” Ryan said, suppressing his anger.

After hanging up the phone, he couldn’t control himself. His right hand, which was holding the phone, suddenly exerted a force, and the hard phone was crushed with a crack and was smashed to pieces by him!

Then he took a deep breath and said to Hawthorne and other people, “Grandpa, I’m sorry. I just have something to deal with.

Excuse me.” Ryan had already put away his terrifying aura. Only then did Hawthorne and others come back to their senses. Their bodies relaxed and they felt as if they had almost died. The feeling just now was so horrible.

The way they looked at Ryan now was even more different. They knew that Ryan was very strong. He was already a master of the Innate Realm at such a young age. Even Peter, a top expert, was no match for Ryan. Nonetheless, they had not experienced Ryan’s horrors before, so it was still hard for them to understand.

But just now, they witnessed the horror of Ryan, and they finally knew how horrible Ryan was!

Hawthorne stood up and said, “Ryan, is there anything wrong with your family? Do you want grandpa’s help?”

Myles also said quickly, “Yes, Ryan, we are already a family. If you need our help, just say it. Don’t regard us as outsiders.” Ryan smiled, shook his head and said, “Not yet. I can handle it. When I need help, I will tell grandpa Payne.”

Hawthorne nodded. Since Ryan had already said so, he couldn’t say anything more. He personally saw Ryan to the door.

When they reached the door, they met Isabella, who was rushing back. She looked at Ryan and her heart beat faster.

She had dreamed of Ryan for several nights. Some of her dreams made her ashamed.

She was in class when her mother told her that Ryan had come for a visit and asked her to come back. If this happened in the past, she would definitely ignore it. But now, she was inexplicably happy and came back without hesitation.

When she saw Ryan come out, she thought he offered to come out to meet her after he learned that she was coming back. Thus, she smiled more brightly.

Advertisement

However, Ryan only glanced at her faintly and did not take the initiative to greet her. Instead, he turned around and said goodbye to Hawthorne and Myles, then walked directly past her.

In an instant, Isabella's smile froze on her face.

She was a little confused. What was going on? Didn't Ryan see her? She couldn't help but turn around. She saw that Ryan had already gotten into the car and left...

"Isabella, aren't you in class? Why are you back?" Myles asked curiously when he saw her.

Isabella, who had been happy, became upset at this moment. She bit her lips and said, "Dad, didn't Ryan come to visit us? Why did he suddenly leave?"

Myles said, "Something happened to his family, so he went back."

"Oh." Isabella nodded absent-mindedly. She did not want to take back her eyes until Ryan's car had already disappeared from her sight. It seemed that she lost her mind. Ryan had ignored her just now, which made her feel extremely disappointed and sad.

"Dad, what did Ryan say?" Isabella couldn't help but ask, "Did he mention me?"

Myles was a little surprised to see his daughter's strange reaction, but he didn't think much about it. He knew that his daughter was not interested in Ryan and had no hope for their marriage anymore. He said, "Why did he mention you?"

When Isabella heard this, she felt even more depressed and extremely upset.

Without saying a word to anyone, she quickly went upstairs. She just wanted to go back to her room and be alone!

Myles thought she was ill-bred when she left without saying anything. He shook his head helplessly. His daughter was really troublesome.

As for Ryan, he ignored all this. Now he was completely focused on James's phone call.

He might lose his temper at any moment, so the driver did not dare to say a word for fear of making him angry.

"A little faster. We must be at the Golden Hotel in five minutes." Ryan ordered.

The driver nodded hard, then stepped on the accelerator. The car darted out like an arrow. In less than five minutes, they really arrived at Golden Hotel.

When Ryan walked into the banquet hall and saw the scene in front of him, he was so angry that he was about to explode with rage!

There was a mess in front of him. More than a hundred people were all beaten up.

Even an old man like Richard was not spared!

His appearance immediately attracted the attention of the Scotts. They cried out, "Ryan, great, you're finally here!"

"God, who have you offended outside? We are all beaten up."

"Ryan, you screw us up this time!"

Everyone wailed. They didn't dare to make their complaints too obvious, but in their words, the criticism of Ryan was obvious.

James and Elizabeth also came over. They limped and looked particularly miserable. They said with tears in their eyes, "Ryan, mom and dad almost died. Alas."

Ryan gritted his teeth and his eyes were burning with anger. He said apologetically, "Elders, brothers and sisters, I'm terribly sorry that I brought you into trouble this time! But don't worry, I will avenge you. Now tell me, who beat you up like this?"

Richard was helped out and told Ryan exactly what had happened just now. He emphasized what May had said in the end. After that, he said earnestly, "Ryan, I think the other party has powerful backing and difficult to deal with. May said that when she comes over again, you will die!"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 390 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

May?

It was the first time Ryan had heard this name. It was a woman's name. But he didn't need to know who she was. The one who came with Wade must have come here to avenge Peter!

Even though Peter had died in his hands, they dared to come to his parents-in-law's family to seek revenge and even beat up all the Scotts members and the guests together. This only showed that the other party was not only proficient in martial arts but also had a great background.

Was she the president of the North Sky Association?

Ryan thought of this, but soon he shook his head and denied it. It was impossible. First, the president of the North Sky Association was a man, not a woman. Second, the president of the North Sky Association did not need to do such a thing, which had ruined his reputation.

Then there was only one possibility. May and Peter had a very close relationship and she brought Wade here, so she must be Peter's lover. Her martial arts were great, at least better than Peter's, so she must have the same master as Peter.

Advertisement

It had to be said that Ryan was very smart. Through simple information, he had inferred May's identity!

Moreover, he had an idea that this May would probably be one of the leaders of the last Hunting Competition, and that was why he was disqualified after he killed Peter.

If he hadn't been alert and had followed those people in, he would have been in danger. After thinking about this, Ryan narrowed his eyes and fierce killing intent flashed through in his eyes.

All the members of the Scotts could feel his anger and they couldn't help but feel scared and didn't dare to complain anymore.

After all, Ryan was not the useless uxoriocal man, but a rich and powerful big shot. Moreover, Ryan didn't mean to implicate them.

Advertisement

Sensing their fear, Ryan's face softened a lot, and apologized again. At this time, Phoebe also came. When she saw this scene in the banquet hall, she was shocked. She quickly ran over and asked, "God, what happened? Grandpa, mom, and dad, who had beaten you up?"

When Elizabeth saw Phoebe, her eyes turned red and she burst into tears.

When the others saw Elizabeth crying, they also couldn't help but cry.

For a moment, there were cries in the banquet hall. Ryan looked at the scene and felt the anger in his chest was burning and could not be extinguished.

He mumbled the names of May and Wade, and a murderous light flashed through his eyes.

The Scotts was sent to the hospital for treatment. Fortunately, most of them were suffering from skin injuries. The seriously hurt ones got fractures but their life wasn't in danger.

The hotel manager called the police. This case was flagrant, but Ryan knew that since May dared to do so, she wasn't afraid of the police at all!

It turned out that only Kenzo and his men were arrested. May, Wade and the others were not treated as criminals at all.

Ryan knew that he could only solve it in his own way.

This matter spread quickly, and in a day, it became a hot issue.

"Hey, have you heard? Ryan's parents-in-law and their family were beaten up by a group of people at the Golden Hotel yesterday!"

“What? Could it be true? Impossible! Ryan is not an ordinary person now. He’s the hidden boss of three big companies and he had entered the security industry a while ago. He even touched the benefits of the North Sky Association but they did not dare to trouble him. Who dared to touch his family?”

“Heh, you don’t understand. Ryan is indeed a powerful man in H City, but there are more powerful people than him! Yesterday the Scotts had a family dinner at the Golden Hotel. A group of people came to the hotel and called for trouble with Ryan. Ryan was not there. But all members of the Scotts were beaten up! I heard that a lot of women were raped on the spot!”

“Damn it! Really? This is ridiculous. Who has the guts to offend Ryan?”

“You really asked the right person. I heard that the person who caused trouble for Ryan this time is a woman named May. Do you know where this May came from?”

“Where did she come from? Fuck, you don’t have to play tricks on me. Tell me!”

“This May is really awesome. She’s Peter’s junior sister. As a woman. Her martial arts skills are even above Peter’s! She is also the person in charge of the last Hunting Competition. Ryan should have been the winner, but she authorized others to cancel it. May is usually very low-key, but her strength, the contacts she has, are much better than the young man Ryan!” The man paused and snorted, “I think Ryan is doomed this time.”

Such discussions could be heard in many places.

The name May also began to be known in the circle. Many people found that May was very powerful.

Almost 90% of the people thought that Ryan would die terribly this time.

At the same time, when Hawthorne heard the news in the Paynes, he was shocked. His hands were shaking and half of the tea was spilled out. “What?! The person who did this was May?!”

Seeing his father’s reaction, Myles asked quickly, “Dad, where did this May come from?”

Hawthorne’s face was filled with shock and worry. He walked back and forth in the study and said, “May is Peter’s junior sister.

They had the same master. Most people outside thought that Peter’s martial arts are superior to May’s. In fact, it is the opposite.

May is known as a rare martial talent in thirty years. Her cultivation was unfathomable and above Peter’s! The key is that May has an extreme personality and she had mental problems. All her opponents end up in a miserable situation!”

After listening to this, Myles was also worried. He said, "So Ryan will be in danger?"

"Yes, Ryan is in great trouble this time." Hawthorne sighed and said, "There is a mysterious relationship between May and Peter.

May had been Peter's lover for many years. Now that Peter was killed by Ryan, she will definitely seek revenge!"

As he finished, the phone on Hawthorne's desk rang. Myles answered the phone.

"Hello, who are you looking for?" A man's voice came from the microphone. "Myles, I heard that the Paynes has been very close to Ryan recently?" Myles turned on the speaker and said, "Brother, we've been friends for many years. Just say what you want to say."

The man said meaningfully, "Myles, as your good friend for many years, I advise you to draw a line with Ryan from now on. Ryan is going to die terribly this time."

"Well..." Myles was surprised. The man was also a big shot but he said this to him, and the meaning was profound!

After finishing speaking, the other party hung up the phone. Then, a few more people called Myles one after another, telling him to keep a distance from Ryan or else they would keep a distance from the Paynes.

Myles was very surprised. He looked at his father, Hawthorne. "Dad, May's influence is so great?!" Hawthorne sat dejectedly in his chair, sighed heavily, and said, "Ryan really got into trouble this time..."

At the same time, the Cloud&Sky Pavilion also received similar calls and was told to end the relationship with Ryan and terminate cooperation with Ryan.
