

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 501 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

When the three of them fell to the ground, they all spat out a large mouthful of blood.

Ryan's kick was too heavy. Even though they were stronger ten times than ordinary people, they could not bear his kick. They felt their organs were about to be broken and in deadly pain!

If they were average experts in the Extrinsic Peak, they would have fainted from the pain. Fortunately, they were from the Scout Team and had a lot of professional training. Their anti-fighting skills and their will were at the peak, which made them possible to maintain their consciousness under the circumstance.

But even so, they couldn't help but scream. They couldn't stand it. It was too painful.

Compared to the pain, what scared them more was Ryan's strength, which was so terrifying! Even though the three of them attacked him together with strategy, there was still no way to get close to him. Instead, they were easily kicked away by him. This was a slap in the face.

In fact, not only them but also the others present felt the same way, especially those who were not from the Fourth Group, who were now staring at Ryan in astonishment.

After a short silence, a warm shout erupted from the fourth group.

“Damn awesome!”

“Invincible man!”

“Our instructor is amazing!”

“The garbage Scout Team. It’s just so so. In front of our instructor, it’s vulnerable to the extreme. Hahaha...”

They all seemed to have won a great battle. They surrounded Ryan and wanted to throw Ryan up and down. But they were immediately frightened by a glance from Ryan and quickly gave up on what they had just thought.

Ryan scowled and scolded them. “Don’t act like a kid. Stand up straight!”

With Ryan’s cold snort, all of them were afraid and immediately formed a line, standing straight.

Ryan was satisfied with their quick reactions. He said, “I taught you that you must stay calm anytime. Don’t be impulsive and stupid. Don’t panic. You should know that you represent not only yourself but the Military Intelligence 3 but also the country behind us!”

His words were shocking. Ryan’s face was serious and full of authority, which stunned everyone present, and their eyes filled with awe.

Then, Ryan began to walk over to Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund and stared at them condescendingly. “How’s it going? Are you convinced?”

After Ryan had beat them like this, their previous contempt and arrogance were gone when the three of them looked at Ryan again. Now they felt quite flustered and afraid.

It was not that they were timid, but that Ryan was so dominating. Plus, Ryan was really awesome, and they had to give up.

So they all lowered their arrogant heads and said in awe and panic, “Ryan, you won.”

Hearing this, Ryan nodded. He didn’t intend to beat them too hard. They were members of the Military Intelligence 3 and fellow men to fight against the foreign enemy. Hence, Ryan wouldn’t make things difficult for them. It was enough to teach them a lesson.

“Well, apologize to my soldiers. That’s all.”

Marcus and the others were very unwilling, but in the face of Ryan, they did not dare to disobey so they obediently apologized to the dozen soldiers from the Fourth Group.

All of a sudden, his soldiers felt better, and the wounds on their bodies did not hurt anymore.

Those men who were apologizing were the top Scout Team members. Every one of them looked down on others in the base.

Others wouldn't have dared to imagine that to happen in the past.

The other three groups were especially envious now that they saw what happened. They all knew that Ryan was the one who could make the Scout Team apologize obediently.

"All right, dismiss." Seeing that this matter had been resolved, Ryan waved his hand and let them all go.

Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund had to leave dejectedly.

Ryan did not stay, but walked out of the training hall. Behind him, a dozen soldiers from the Fourth Group followed.

All the way to the dormitory, they were still following. Ryan couldn't help but stop, frowning and looking at them, "Why are you following me?"

Buffalo moved forward, bowed deeply to Ryan and said sincerely, "Ryan, thank you so much for what you did for us just now!" The others bowed together, their attitude full of gratitude and worship.

Ryan gave a smile and said, "As your instructor, I should stand up for you. You don't have to thank me."

Buffalo shook his head and said, "That's not true! Before you came, we were bullied by the Scout Team dozens of times, but our former instructors never dared to help us out."

When Ryan heard this, he was stunned and asked, "Why?"

Felix took a deep breath and said, "Because of the Scout Team's instructor."

Hearing this, Ryan was so smart that he immediately had a guess right away.

"Yes, the instructor of the Scout Team is famous for protecting his members. Anyone who bullies his soldiers will be punished by him, including the instructors of other groups."

"In the past, our instructors didn't dare to offend the Scout Team's instructor. Even if we were beaten up, they didn't dare to stand up for us."

"Not only the instructor of our Fourth Group but that of other groups. The instructor of the Scout Team are so overbearing that even Director Sunn doesn't dare to offend him."

“Instructor, you are the first instructor to stand up for us. We, really, thank you!” They all expressed their gratitude to Ryan one by one.

Ryan smiled. He waved his hand and said, “I don’t care what other instructors do. Now that you are my soldiers, then if you have been bullied, I will stand up for all of you.”

Hearing Ryan’s promise, they were more moved but also worried. Buffalo sighed and said, “Alas! Instructor, you protected us, but we caused you trouble. This instructor of the Scout Team is not easy to deal with.”

“Yeah, it’s all our fault...”

They began to feel guilty. Thinking of the Scout Team instructor’s manner, they were all worried about Ryan.

Seeing them like this, Ryan was a little interested and asked, “Is the instructor of the Scout Team scary?” All of them nodded hard, their eyes filled with awe, admiration, fear...

At the same time, as for Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund, they returned to the Scout Team with a lot of people talking behind them along the way.

They were immediately noticed by other Scout Team members. Someone frowned and asked, “Marcus, Wolf, Edmund, why did you end up like this? Were you bullied by those guys from the Dragon Blood Team?”

Dragon Blood Team, another top team of the Military Intelligence 3, was not inferior to the Scout Team in terms of overall strength.

When they saw that the three of them were seriously injured, they immediately thought it was the Dragon Blood Team who did it.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 502 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“Needless to say, it must be those guys from the Dragon Blood Team who thought they were so powerful after completing a lot of S-level tasks in the past two years. They became so arrogant and started to consider themselves no ordinary beings.”

There was a man who was not too tall, around 1.7 meters tall but had a very strong body. He said that jokingly. He was lying on the sofa with five fingers on his right hand running fast. There were actually five blades running very fast at his fingertips. Under the light, they looked especially bright. Ordinary people would get goosebumps when seeing this bitingly cold aura.

These five blades were so sharp that they could cut through the skin with just a single cut. There were only blades, no hilts. What dangerous things. But in this man’s hand, they seemed to be tamed and had never cut his fingers at all, which showed how strong he was.

As soon as he finished speaking, the five blades on his fingers suddenly took off and flew towards the dial opposite him.

Whoosh. These five blades actually shoot the red heart in the middle of the dial one after another.

Another person sneered and said, “Jarak, your skills of using blades have improved a lot. I believe you are ready to compete with Loong from the Dragon Blood Team, right?”

Jarak snorted and a sense of fear flashed through his eyes. Obviously, he was quite afraid of Loong, but he said disdainfully, “Loong is not my opponent. I will defeat him personally in this competition! But you, Lor, can you beat Ding from the Dragon Blood Team this year?"

Advertisement

Lor snorted and said, "Ding? He's such a loser. I'm going to challenge his senior brother this year!" In their words, there was a strong hostility towards the Dragon Blood Team.

Indeed, in the Military Intelligence 3, the only group that could be treated equally by the Scout Team was the Dragon Blood Team. The other four groups were too poor to be on the same level as them at all.

So when they saw that Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund were injured, they did not think of the other four groups at all. They even excluded the instructors of the four groups, thinking that those four instructors were all push-overs and did not dare to offend the Scout Team. They were all afraid that the Scout Team instructor would cause trouble.

Now, seeing that Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund did not speak, they were a little surprised. Jarak asked again, "What, you three have been muted by those guys in the Dragon Blood Team?"

Advertisement

Lor's words caused a burst of ridicule from several other Scout Team members. But then, Marcus's words shocked them. "The person who defeated us is not the Dragon Blood Team, but the instructor of the fourth group."

"What?" After hearing this, Lor was immediately stunned.

The others also frowned. Their first reaction was disbelief. The fourth group was the lowest ranking in the Military Intelligence 3, and the instructor of the fourth group was just a push-over. Usually, when they saw the people of their Scout Team, they did not dare to speak loudly, let alone teach Scout Team members a lesson.

Besides, did the instructors of the fourth group have the guts to challenge their Scout Team members? Were they not afraid of the instructors of the Scout Team causing trouble? In the Military intelligence 3, who didn't know that the Scout Team instructor was famous for protecting his members?

Jarak sneered and said, "Marcus, you are among the best in our group. After being taught a lesson by the Dragon Blood Team, you dare not admit it and blamed it for the instructor of the fourth group? Who doesn't know that the instructor of the fourth group is a coward? Does he dare to bully the people of our Scout Team?"

The other person also said, "Yes, the three of you were bullied by that useless instructor from the fourth group? Who would believe it?"

Marcus said bitterly, "It's true."

Then, Wolf and Edmund nodded bitterly, which immediately stunned them. They all stood up with surprise on their faces.

Jarak said in surprise, "That guy Ledo the fourth group? Does he have the guts to attack you?!"

Advertisement

"That's right. Even if Ledo was an instructor, he might not be able to beat you up like this, right?"

When they saw the expressions of Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund, they all began to realize that this was true. However, they became more and more doubtful. They knew clearly what Ledo, the instructor of the fourth group was. He was just a coward. He was the same as the mob of the fourth group. In terms of personal strength, Ledo couldn't beat even any one of Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund. If Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund fight together, Ledo would not be an opponent!

Besides, with Ledo's cowardly character, how dare he go against the Scout Team?

Marcus sighed heavily. He was also full of grievances. It was a shame that Ryan had taught him a lesson in front of so many people just now. However, he had to be in awe of Ryan now. Ryan's cultivation was horribly great.

"Not Ledo, but a new instructor named Ryan," Marcus said bitterly.

When the other Scout Team people heard this, they couldn't help but be stunned. "Not Ledo?"

"What the hell? The fourth team has a new instructor?"

"That trash group dragged our Military Intelligence 3 level. Is there still someone who went to their place to be an instructor?"

"Where did this new instructor come from? How could he beat the three of you like this?"

"But all three of you are injured. The new instructor must have been badly injured too, right?" "Hey, Marcus, Wolf, Edmund, the three of you didn't kill the new instructor, did you?"

They all began to tease, thinking that the new instructor of the fourth group was definitely not a match for the three of Marcus.

But unexpectedly, Wolf came up with a sentence that stunned them all again. “The instructor of the fourth group was unscathed.

In front of him, the three of us were as fragile as a piece of paper, completely vulnerable.”

In Edmund’s eyes, there was even a deep fear and awe. He felt the most deeply about Ryan’s strength, especially when he was in Ryan’s hands. The situation that he could not move at all was deeply engraved in his mind and could not be erased for the rest of his life!

Marcus also lowered his head. He was defeated by Ryan just now.

Finally, the rest of the Scout Team came back to their senses and gave them a shock. “Damn! Really?” “Where did this new instructor come from? How could he be so strong?”

“You three are bragging!”

“That’s right. How could such a powerful person become an instructor in a trash place like the fourth group?”

They all expressed their disbelief. But when Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund said what had happened just now, they were completely stunned.

Just then, a tall figure came in from outside. When Jarak saw this man, he immediately became serious and straightened himself. He saluted abruptly and shouted loudly, “Instructor!”

The person who came was none other than the instructor of the Scout Team.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 503 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The other members of the Scout Team also stood up at once and saluted solemnly and respectfully.

The person the whole Scout Team revered the most was definitely the middle-aged man in front of them, the instructor of the Scout Team, Marlin, the great master of the Innate Realm. He was famous for being protective of his subordinates. And he was the one who made the Scout Team so powerful.

He was very big, almost two meters tall. He wore a uniform of Military Intelligence 3, which made him look particularly mighty and domineering. One could tell he was not someone ordinary at a glance. Now he just returned from a trip, and some dirt and dried blood stains could be seen on his uniform. They added to his sternness and ferocity.

The most frightening thing was a round package in his hand. One could also see a few drops of blood at the zipper. Any member of the Scout Team knew what was inside the package immediately.

One could tell from Marlin's brows that he was tired. He casually threw the package to Lor, a member of the Scout Team. Then he said, "This is the head of Kamifune Ichiro. Give it to the boss. I'm going to have a rest."

After hearing the name "Kamifune Ichiro", everyone in the Scout Team perked up at once, and the enthusiasm in their eyes became even more intense!

Advertisement

Kamifune Ichiro was not an ordinary person, but a master of the Innate Realm of the Red Sun State, who had reached the third stage of the Innate Realm. He was quite strong. Especially his swordsmanship, it was unimaginably powerful. Over the years, many talents of the Military Intelligence 3 had died in the hands of Kamifune Ichiro!

Many masters could do nothing about Kamifune Ichiro, but now, Marlin took his head, which was really exciting! For a moment, their admiration for Marlin grew stronger. "Yes! Instructor!" Lor saluted Marlin again and took over the package with both hands.

At this moment, Marlin's eyes swept over Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund. Seeing them injured, Marlin frowned immediately and asked, "Aren't you three taking a holiday? Why are you injured?"

"Well..." Marcus hemmed and hawed as he was too ashamed to talk about it.

Advertisement

Wolf and Edmund also lowered their heads. As the top members of the Scout Team, they were beaten up by the instructor of the fourth group, and they were too embarrassed to mention it.

Marlin frowned and ordered with authority, "Tell me!" "Yes!" The three of them were deeply afraid of Marlin. They shivered and didn't dare to hide the truth anymore, telling Marlin what happened just now exactly.

They told him the ins and outs, including how Ryan beat them up. They didn't hide anything. After Marlin heard this, his pupils suddenly contracted and surprise appeared on his face. Then he lifted the three people's clothes and saw the footprints on their chests. Marlin narrowed his eyes and said, "He is the master in the third stage of the Innate Realm. Your loss is not that shameful."

"What?!"

Everyone in the Scout Team was shocked when they heard this. They didn't expect that the new instructor of the fourth group would be so powerful

At this moment, Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund were still in fear. They had actually humiliated a top master in the third stage of the Innate Realm just now. Fortunately, they were in the Military Intelligence 3's turf. Otherwise, they would have died.

However, now that they knew Ryan's identity, they were a little relieved. After all, he was a terrifying existence in the third stage of the Innate Realm. No wonder they were beaten up.

There was a meaningful smile hanging on Marlin's lips, and surges of anger flashed across the bottom of his pupils. He said, "I didn't expect that a master had come to the junkyard like the fourth group. It's interesting."

When the others saw Marlin's expression, they became afraid at once. They had been with Marlin for many years and knew Marlin very well. Once he showed this expression, he was angry.

"Marcus! Wolf! Edmund!" Marlin suddenly straightened his face.

"Yes!" "Yes!" "Yes!"

Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund straightened up and responded loudly.

Marlin's cold eyes swept across the three people's faces and he said, "Do you feel humiliated?" "Yes!" The three of them shouted in unison.

"Are you determined to take revenge?"

"Yes!"

"Okay, follow me to the fourth group. I just want to see what great ability this new instructor has. How dare he raise a hand to my Scout Team!" Marlin said coldly, his tone full of authority and anger.

The three people got excited immediately, nodded hard, and then followed Marlin to the fourth group.

Marlin was nearly two meters tall, and no matter where he went, he was very eye-catching. When he appeared, many people caught sight of him at once. In addition, he was followed by Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund. Anyone with discerning eyes would understand what was going on.

"I'm not mistaken, am I? Didn't Marlin, the instructor of the Scout Team, go to the Red Sun State for a mission? Why did he come back early? And he looks so fierce. Which idiot offended Marlin?!"

"Is the Dragon Blood Team fighting with the Dragon Blood Team again? That's really a fierce fight."

"Nonsense. Who else besides the Dragon Blood Team is able to have Marlin show up in person among the whole Military Intelligence 3? Could it be us, the ordinary fourth group?"

“Gee, apparently you didn’t know what just happened! This Marlin must be making trouble for the new instructor of the fourth group!”

“The fourth group? That’s impossible. The fourth group is the most trashy existence of our Military Intelligence 3.”

“What you don’t know is that just now, Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund were beaten up by the new instructor of the fourth group.

Marlin is famous for protecting his subordinates, so this time he must be here to get his pride back.”

“Now I remember. Last month, this new instructor just came and gave the whole fourth group a lesson. At first, I didn’t really believe it. In that case, it might be true!”

“Of course, this new instructor is quite powerful. Anyway, there’s a good show this time...” More and more people realized what was happening. They followed Marlin to the fourth group.

At the same time, in the building in another direction stood several members of the Dragon Blood Team. They saw this scene and all got interested.

“That’s interesting. Marlin actually shows up personally. It seems that the new instructor of the fourth group is doomed.” “Not necessarily. He’s a master who easily beat Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund up. Maybe Marlin will get the cheese this time.”

“Gee, how is that possible? Mazilin is the most powerful person in the third stage of the Innate Realm. Among the whole Military Intelligence 3, only the instructor of the Dragon Blood Team can do some wrist wrestling with him. The new instructor of the fourth group, even if he is the master of the Innate Realm, he is no match for Marlin.”

“That’s true. If the new instructor is really that good, Director Sunn won’t let him teach that trashy fourth group.” “Do you want to watch it together? I won’t wait for you if you don’t go.”

“Yes, why not?”

As they finished speaking, they all jumped down from the windowsill and walked towards the fourth group.

So, the group marched towards the base of the fourth group, led by Marlin.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 504 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The base of the fourth group was located in the corner of the Military Intelligence 3. It was the smallest in size and the least in resources. There was no way. The fourth group was the weakest group of the Military Intelligence 3.

They were chatting inside. Suddenly, the door of the base was kicked open violently, which shocked them. Then, seeing Marcus, Wolf, and Edmund, they immediately cursed them.

“Marcus, how dare you three defeated losers come to our fourth group? Haven’t you been taught enough by our instructor?” “It hasn’t been long. Have you forgotten your lesson?” “In my opinion, they are itchy. Hahaha...”

Dozens of people in the fourth group laughed out loud. With Ryan backing them up now, they were not afraid at all and even dared to sneer at others even if they faced the Scout Team.

But immediately, when they saw Marlin walked up from Marcus and the other two’s behind, they immediately widened their eyes.

The sarcastic voice stopped abruptly, with fear on their faces.

“Instructor of the Scout Team, Marlin!”

Advertisement

They immediately recognized Marlin. They were so scared that they didn’t dare to look straight at Marlin. Fear arose in their hearts naturally because Marlin’s reputation was so great in the Military Intelligence 3. He had completed countless S-level difficult missions and made much credit for the Military Intelligence 3. Marlin's cultivation was so profound that he might have reached the third stage of the Innate Realm!

As soon as Marlin came out, the big fourth group was silent. Everyone took two steps back.

"How dare you, the fourth team group. You even dare to mock my soldiers. Not bad, not bad!" Marlin said with a cold face. His eyes flashed across the faces of all the people in the fourth group. That solemn dignity made their heads numb, even their legs wagging.

Marlin's reputation in the Military Intelligence 3 was too great.

Advertisement

Marlin saw that they didn't even dare to speak a word and trembled. He said without concealing his contempt, "Call out your new instructor. I want to see how capable he is that he even taught my soldiers a lesson for me!"

His voice was majestic and thunderous, like thunder descending from the ground, causing an echo in the fourth group's base.

The fourth group felt Marlin's anger. They became even more frightened. Someone quickly came out and said, "Our instructor has left."

"Left?" Marlin frowned. He probably felt it. Indeed, he did not feel the aura of the strong. He was immediately dissatisfied. "Where did he go?"

"Our instructor went home. He only came to the base two or three times a month. After teaching today, he left and went home." "Yes, Marlin, our instructor is not here..."

Marlin could tell that they were not lying. He snorted coldly, especially dissatisfied, and his eyes were cold. "Tell your instructor that you have started a feud. Let him apologize to my Scout Team base before tomorrow. Otherwise, I will show him my power!"

After saying this, he glanced coldly at the fourth group of soldiers and turned to leave.

As he left, all the members of the fourth group breathed a sigh of relief. At the same time, they began to worry. Ryan had offended Marlin. With Marlin's character, Ryan's fate would be very miserable.

"Ah! Ryan is in trouble this time..." Buffalo sighed heavily, his face full of worry. Someone next to him retorted, "It shouldn't be that serious, right? Ryan is also the most powerful person in the Innate Realm. Maybe Marlin is not his opponent."

Advertisement

Someone immediately glared at him and said, "How is that possible? Marlin is an experienced powerful man. There are many notorious criminals in the world who died in his hands. His cultivation has reached an unfathomable level. How old is Ryan? Even if he has reached Innate Realm, he is definitely not Marlin's opponent!"

"Then what should we do? This feud has been started. Should we tell Ryan?" "Well, we can only tell Ryan now. Well, Ryan was encumbered by us this time!"

Buffalo, Felix, and the others also showed their shame. If they hadn't quarreled with Marcus and the others in the beginning, this wouldn't have happened.

After Marlin and the others left, they began to call Ryan and tell Ryan about it.

At this time, Ryan had already left the Military Intelligence 3. On the way back to Dragon Bay, he received this call. When he learned about this from the team leader, he was not surprised. He just said faintly, "I see."

When team leader Lyle saw that Ryan didn't take it seriously, he said worriedly, "Instructor, Instructor Marlin of the Scout Team is the top expert in the third stage of the Innate Realm. He is especially irritable and vengeful. If you don't apologize to him in time, I'm afraid the result will be bad."

Ryan smiled and said, "Is this Marlin's position higher than mine? If he gives an order, I have to apologize to him?" Team leader Lyle shook his head and said, "That's not what I meant. Although Marlin's position is indeed higher than yours, this is a private grudge. Even if you don't apologize to him, you won't..."

At this point, he suddenly thought of something and asked carefully, "Instructor, are you really ignoring Marlin? He is difficult to deal with..."

Lyle felt that what he said was clear enough. He believed that Ryan would understand. However, Ryan said very easily, "There is no need to apologize. If he wants to trouble me, just come directly."

After a pause, Ryan said seriously, "Okay, let's not talk about this. When I leave, you have to train well. When I go back, I will check your training results. If I find out that you haven't improved, I won't spare you, okay?"

"Yes!" Lyle immediately stood up and answered loudly.

After Ryan hung up the phone, he frowned slightly. He looked down at the instructor of the Scout Team who had reached the third stage of the Innate Realm. If it was before, when he was still in the third stage, he might still be afraid.

However, now that he had broken through to the fourth stage and killed a top expert like Sean, his cultivation had reached an unprecedented level. Even he met the strong players of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, he was confident of circling around them.

Ryan quickly threw this matter out of his mind. It did not cause a ripple in his heart.

Two days passed in a blink of an eye. Marlin had been staying at the base, waiting for Ryan to come and apologize. But, in the end, no one came. Ryan didn't take him seriously.

At the same time, everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 knew about this. For a moment, Ryan became completely famous.

Besides the instructor of the Dragon Blood Team, Ryan was the second person who dared to challenge Marlin.

"Well, well, well!" A terrifying light flashed in Marlin's eyes. He had just wanted to teach Ryan a lesson. But since Ryan was so arrogant that he didn't take him seriously, he had to 'greet' Ryan well!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 505 -

The title "The Vengeful Son-in-law" is displayed in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The text is centered within a bright yellow, irregular, hand-drawn-style brushstroke background that has a soft, glowing effect around it.

Military Intelligence 3 became famous in the two days, but Ryan was different. It was relaxing and even boring for him.

SK Lighting, led by Phoebe, was expanded after a new round of financing. It was gradually changed from a company to a conglomerate. So Phoebe was too busy to flirt with Ryan.

Ryan felt sorry for Phoebe. He specially arranged a professional team to assist her so that Phoebe would be less tired.

Phoebe was in charge of SK Lighting because of Ryan. The Scotts had no disagreement and also didn't dare to dissent. Ryan wasn't what he used to be.

They usually relied on Ryan. Moreover, they made a lot of money outside because of their relationship with Ryan and their social status had been improved a lot.

In addition, the ZQ Media, the TY Advertising and Shield Security Company were all handed over by Ryan. Under the management of Elliot's and Malcolm's teams, a lot of profits could be made for him. So he didn't have to interfere at all.

Advertisement

As to Master Chou, he was now healthy. Everything was on track, and no one from the LT Organization came to cause trouble again.

Ryan was the idlest one now. He was in the bottleneck stage and was stagnate in the fourth stage, the Innate Realm. He couldn't break through by the simple practice. He had to grasp an opportunity to gain insights and to reach the fifth stage, the Major Perfection Realm.

But Ryan knew that it was difficult to reach the Major Perfection Realm. Without enough opportunities, he might not reach it in eight or ten years.

So he was not in a hurry. After all, he wouldn't succeed even if he was so anxious. Haste makes waste.

Advertisement

One day, he felt bored in the house of Dragon Bay. So he went out for a walk. It had been a long time since he was so calm to feel the atmosphere of the city without thinking of anything.

H City had become a second-tier city after the development of these years. The streets were bustling. People walked in a hurry to make a living. There were magicians who performed street magic, sanitation workers who worked hard to clean the streets, rich people who drove luxury cars, and part-time students who shouted and sent flyers...

All in all, it was what society looked like. Ryan had not been so integrated into ordinary people for a long time.

It was a different feeling for him.

He could buy everything he saw here. And all the people he saw had was less than one-tenth of his.

Moreover, with the strength of the fourth stage, the Innate Realm, he could kill all of them in a very short time. Unknowingly, his identity and ability were already above most people.

However, the essence of his life was not different from theirs. Everyone was human and could be happy, angry, sad and joyful in the same manner. What differed was the lifestyle and the way to gain happiness.

Ryan had a new experience and gradually forgot his identity, wealth and that he reached the Innate Realm. He was just a normal man who worked hard for life.

Unknowingly, his mind was spread constantly, covering a large area around him.

He stood there, motionless. At this moment, he seemed to be a radar that could detect everyone within a few hundred meters, including their expressions, words, emotions, feelings, the distress and joy of life and so on. He could see them in his mind. He had never felt it before!

He knew that his mind was so strong to affect others. But he had never tried to spread his thoughts to thousands of people and to feel their feelings.

Advertisement

It was too tiring, just like the computer running over frequency. It was already overloaded in a short time! It was going to burn at once! Ryan was like the computer as well. He only lasted less than five seconds and immediately stopped. His face turned pale and he gasped heavily, even sweating on his forehead.

He was so tired that he wanted to go to bed immediately after the five seconds. It had never happened before. He wouldn't be so tired even when he fought with Sean. A man who reached his realm should have endless physical strength.

In particular, mental strength and physical strength are different. It was not easy to run out of mental strength. So, his load could be determined in the five seconds just now!

"What I just experienced... was the Major Perfection Realm?" Ryan muttered to himself. He breathed quickly. He was frightened and excited, and everyone around him looked at him strangely.

Ryan was very excited. He had thought that he would be stuck in the fourth stage, the Innate Realm for a long time. He never expected that he would have the opportunity to get to the threshold of the Major Perfection Realm just for his casual walk.

As long as he reached the threshold and found the direction, it would be easier for him to break through next. At least it would just take him half the time!

If Sean saw it, he would definitely be furious. He called himself a genius, but he had been stuck in the fourth stage, Innate Realm for five years. And he had not even got to the threshold of the Major Perfection Realm. But Ryan made it in just two months. Comparisons are odious.

Ryan was very tired now. He was excited for a while, and he even felt a headache. His brain was hurting as if it had been split. He smiled bitterly. If a master at the stage of the Extrinsic Peak came, he could kill Ryan easily.

It was not safe ...

Fortunately, Ryan wasn't eye-catching and wore ordinary clothes. No one could tell that he was somebody. After comprehending so many ordinary people, he was like them as well. He was even more ordinary than ordinary people and wouldn't attract attention.

He quickly sat down in the corner of the wall and began to recuperate. He looked like a downcast unemployed man, who was desperate on the roadside.

Just then, a gust of wind blew over and a piece of paper blew to his feet. Ryan picked it up and saw a brochure of a restaurant to hire a dishwasher. They provided 3,500 dollars a month and the meals and accommodation were not provided.

In the first two years after he married, he wanted to be a dishwasher to make a living so that he wouldn't be scolded so much. But he gave up at last.

At this moment, a few people came from the side. One of them saw him and was stunned. Then he said in surprise, "Ryan, hello?"

When Ryan heard the voice, he looked up and saw a young man in a suit. He stood in front of him and looked at him with surprise. "Great, Ryan. It's really you!"

It seemed that the young man was twenty-three or twenty-four years old. He looked simple and honest. But when he saw how shabby Ryan was and that he sat in the corner with a flyer to hire a dishwasher, he was a little weird.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 506 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

As soon as Ryan saw the person's expression, he knew that he had been misunderstood. He threw away the recruitment flyer, stood up and said with a smile, "Landon, long time no see."

Ryan soon recognized that the person in front of him was an acquaintance named Landon, who was a few years younger than Ryan. Landon was a good-natured young man. He used to sell breakfast downstairs at Ryan's home and got along well with Ryan.

He had invited Ryan to have a few meals.

"Landon, didn't you go North already? Why are you back?" After pleasantries, Ryan asked curiously.

Landon answered, "I'm back. I'm working with Chase now."

Ryan saw that Landon wear a designer suit that cost a few thousand dollars. He punched Landon in the chest and teased, "Landon, you've made a big fortune. I haven't seen you for a few years. Now you put on a famous suit."

Ryan was in a good mood when he met his former acquaintances. After resting for a while, he had recovered a little. His face was not as pale as before, but he still looked miserable.

Being praised by Ryan, Landon scratched his head, laughed and said, "Not a big fortune. I just made some money a few years ago."

“You’re lucky.” Ryan was happy for Landon. He thought Landon was a kind young man.

Just then, a dissatisfied voice came from behind, “Hey, Bean Sprout, what are you beeping at there? Hurry up and come over to me.”

Bean Sprout was Landon’s nickname, because he was as thin as bean sprouts. When Landon heard this voice, he immediately looked back and said apologetically to Ryan, “Ryan, Chase called me. I’ll go over and talk to him first. Could you wait for me here for a while?”

Ryan nodded, then Landon trotted over. He bowed and explained to a young man who was wearing a famous brand of clothing and a gold watch.

That young man looked about twenty-five years old. His face was full of arrogance. He was wearing a famous brand and shaking his BMW keys in his hand to highlight his wealth.

Ryan was surprised to see this young man because he recognized that this young man was also an acquaintance.

After a while, the young man looked over and looked at him with an excited smile on his face. His eyes lit up as if he had found an interesting prey. The corners of his mouth rose and he walked towards Ryan.

Landon followed him and introduced, “Chase, this is Ryan, Ryan. We used to know each other.”

The man called ‘Chase’ said in a strange tone, “I know him, Ryan, the son-in-law of the Scotts. Who didn’t know this big shot in the past?”

When Landon heard this, he was a little embarrassed. Afraid that Ryan would be angry, he quickly introduced to Ryan, “Ryan, this is Chase, Chase. We used to know each other.”

Ryan nodded and said faintly, “Yes.”

Chase, indeed, was an old acquaintance who came from the same place as Landon. But Ryan didn’t have a good impression of Chase. Because he was a born peacock and always looked down on others. It cannot be denied that Chase was intelligent and very opportunistic. But he tended to transgress morality. Ryan had always had a bad impression of him.

Ryan's indifferent attitude made Chase a little unhappy. In his opinion, Ryan was just a poor son-in-law living in the homes of his wife's parents and he could not compare with a successful person like him. There was a big class gap between them.

Chase looked up and down at Ryan and found that Ryan was dressed in ordinary clothes and sweaty, looking miserable. Then Chase said in a playful tone, "Ryan, I haven't seen you for so long. Where are you working? Can you earn five thousand dollars a month?"

As soon as Chase opened his mouth, Ryan knew what Chase was going to say. Ryan didn't want to talk to such a fool at all. He said directly to Landon, "Landon, since you have something to do, I won't disturb you. Let's add friends on WhatsApp. When you're free, we can go out for meals."

Chase's face turned cold. Ryan dared to ignore him. How arrogant!

Landon was obviously afraid of Chase. Seeing his face, he immediately panicked, because he was afraid that Chase would trouble Ryan. He immediately winked at Ryan to imply him not offend Chase. He quickly acted as a peacemaker in the middle and said with a smile, "No problem. But Ryan, how about having a meal today? Chase has a party to attend later. We can go there together. Not only can we go to taste delicious food for free, but we can also get the money."

Landon was very kind-hearted. He had just seen Ryan looking at the dishwasher recruitment. Obviously, Ryan had been living a tough life recently. Now Ryan had a chance to be Chase's subordinate and attend tonight's upper-class party. He could not only eat a lot of delicacies, but also get money.

To Landon's surprise, Ryan was not interested in this so-called upper-class party at all. He shook his head and said, "No need. I'm tired of delicacies. You can go and eat."

He was telling the truth. He was tired of delicacies. As long as he wanted, he can taste luxury food casually. But From Landon and Chase's perspective, he was pretending to be rich. Landon understood Ryan. He thought that Ryan, as a middle-aged man, did not want to lose face in front of his old friends. But Chase seemed to have heard a big joke and burst out laughing. "Hahaha, I didn't hear it wrong, did 1? Are you sure you're tired of all the delicacies? I don't mean to despise you. I don't think you've ever eaten delicacies in your life."

Ryan frowned and glanced at Chase. Chase immediately felt inexplicably scared and couldn't help but shiver. He thought that something was wrong with his body and did not think it was Ryan that made him shiver.

When Landon felt that the atmosphere became awkward, he quickly pulled Chase aside and whispered. When Chase heard that Ryan was in a bad state and was hunting the job as a dishwasher, he was especially happy and felt even more superior. He waved his hand and said, "All right, let's do this. I'll allow him to come over tonight and be my subordinate. I'll give him 500 dollars as a subsidy."

Landon was overjoyed and thanked Chase. Then he trotted to Ryan and pulled him aside, "Ryan, don't argue with Chase. He's always like this. Sometimes he's annoying, but Chase is very nice. There happened to be an upper-class party tonight, and Chase was invited to attend. As long as you change into a suit, you can go together with us. Not only is there delicious food, but also would gain two thousand dollars!"

Ryan looked deeply at Landon. Just now, he heard what Landon and Chase were talking about. He knew that Chase only agreed to give him five hundred dollars. Now, Landon said he would get two thousand dollars, which meant the extra one thousand five hundred dollars was from Landon.

Looking at Landon's expectant and caring look, Ryan was moved. However, he was really not interested in this so-called upper-class party, and he didn't want to see Chase anymore.

However, when he was about to refuse Landon, suddenly, he saw Landon's forehead was covered by a faint black gas, which was a design of disaster!

And it seemed that he would have a big disaster.

According to his ability, Ryan could see much more than ordinary people, including some metaphysics that ordinary people could not understand. Now Ryan saw that Landon was going to have a disaster which it was in the near future. If it was someone else, Ryan would not care about him. However, Landon was a nice young man. He hadn't seen him for many years, and when he saw that Landon might encounter trouble, Ryan was willing to help him. Naturally, he couldn't just stand by.

So he smiled and nodded, "Okay."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 507 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

When Landon heard his agreement, he immediately said excitedly, “That’s great! Ryan, don’t worry. Tonight’s upper-class party will definitely not disappoint you! By then, all the rich people in the circle will be there. If you can get to know one or two of them, then you will thoroughly change your status!”

“Really? Thank you very much.” Ryan said with a smile. Landon smiled innocently, waved his hand, and said, “We’re all old acquaintances. It’s not a big deal.”

Ryan smiled and said seriously to Landon, “Landon, I think your ophryon is dark. You may encounter some misfortunes. You should be more careful.”

“Haha, Ryan, when did you learn the physiognomy?” Landon smiled.

“You don’t have to worry about that. Anyway, you should pay more attention to people around you. Be careful not to be cheated.” Ryan said seriously. Landon obviously had offended a villain.

However, Landon didn’t take it seriously at all. He waved his hand and said disapprovingly, “Ryan, don’t worry about this. I have an indomitable vitality. Nothing bad will happen. Ryan, I tell you secretly that during this time, I’ve been making hundreds of thousands with Chase! Hehe..”

He whispered in a mysterious tone, and his face was full of pride.

Ryan sighed. Seeing that Landon didn't take it seriously, he couldn't say anything more. Anyway, he was by Landon's side tonight.

He believed that with the influence of his aura, Landon's disaster would come early, and he could solve it.

"Awesome." Ryan gave Landon a thumbs-up.

Landon laughed and wanted to say something else. Chase came over. Looking at Ryan's outfit, he frowned and said, "Your outfit is not good. It's too trashy. You're going to an upper-class party for rich people tonight. You'll embarrass me if you wear this!" Chase did not hide his disdain for Ryan at all. In his eyes, Ryan was a poor man. After all these years, he was still so miserable. Compared to Ryan, he was way better.

Advertisement

Landon also noticed this, and he asked, "Ryan, do you have a suit at home? It's better to wear a suit for tonight's upper-class party."

Just as Ryan was about to speak, Chase added, "Nonsense. Even if he has a suit, it's a cheap suit of two or three hundred dollars. Can it suit this occasion?"

Chase was so annoying. Ryan had not been offended like this for a long time. If it weren't for Landon's sake, he really wanted to slap Chase.

He endured his displeasure and said, "I have a suit at home. Tell me where the party is. I'll put it on." Landon asked subconsciously, "Ryan, where do you live now?"

"Dragon Bay." Ryan said.

Chase immediately widened his eyes and asked, "What? Where did you lived?"

Ryan repeated it again, and Chase burst into laughter. "I'm so amused. Dragon Bay is the best villa area in H City. The cheapest villa there costs tens of millions. You, Phoebe's useless husband, can afford to live in Dragon Bay? Do you think we're idiots?"

Landon also realized where the Dragon Bay was. He also had a strange expression on his face. He thought that Ryan had bragged.

Ryan didn't care about Chase and said directly to Landon, "What? Even you don't believe me?"

“Well...” Landon was a little embarrassed. He really didn't believe Ryan. Just now, Ryan was squatting in a corner, sweating profusely, and holding a job application for a dishwasher in his hand. He suddenly said that he lived in the Dragon Bay where there were full of tens of millions of villas. He certainly couldn't believe him.

However, he couldn't say that out loud. After all, he still respected Ryan very much. He smiled awkwardly and said, “Ryan, Dragon Bay is quite far away. I don't think you need to go back either. I happen to have a suit in my car. You can wear it. What do you think?”

Ryan sighed when he saw Landon like this. After a few years, Landon's character had not changed. He was still so considerate.

“Okay.” Ryan nodded and agreed, in case that Landon would be embarrassed. When Chase saw this scene, he sneered even more disdainfully, thinking that Ryan just pretended to be calm.

After a while, Ryan changed into Landon's suit in the car. Fortunately, Landon's figure was not much different from his. Although it was a size smaller, he didn't look too strange.

Not long after, it was time for them to go to the five-star hotel where the party was held. On the way, Chase kept bragging about his glorious deeds over the years. He talked about how he made a fortune, how much money he made, how many important people he knew, where he had been, how many women he had played with, and so on.

He was a person who liked to show off, especially in front of his acquaintances. The more he talked, the more superior and successful he would feel. Ryan ignored him the whole time. But he didn't feel bored. He just thought that Ryan was ashamed.

However, hearing Chase's boasting, Ryan gradually realized that the so-called upper-class party tonight was a gathering of those rich second generation from nearby cities. It was said to be a welcoming party for a young lady who came back from abroad, and ordinary people were not qualified to attend. Chase was barely qualified because he knew a rich second generation and made a lot of money in the past two years.

In addition, in order to pretend to be richer, he invited several people to pretend to be his bodyguards. In addition to Landon and Ryan, there were five other young people. The team was magnificent.

When they arrived at the five-star hotel, they were shocked to see a lot of luxury sports cars such as Porsche, Ferrari, Lamborghini, and Alfa Romeo in the open parking lot.

Chase, on the other hand, drove two BMWs over, which made him appear very dignified.

Ryan was not interested in these so-called upper-class gatherings at all. He now noticed that the black aura on Landon's forehead became stronger. He immediately realized that tonight should be the day of Landon's misfortune!

Fortunately, he met him in time. Otherwise, according to this black aura, Landon might be in danger.

Diana had been very annoyed recently. She wanted to see Ryan, but there was no way. Even though she went to the ZQ Media a few times, she couldn't find Ryan. Now she regretted it. If she had known that, she shouldn't have offended Ryan like this at the airport!

Now Ryan must have blacklisted her. She was so upset.

Tonight's so-called upper-class party was to welcome her. But Diana was not interested in this. She just wanted to see Ryan. She was a martial arts addict. Ryan was the best master in G State and had so many legends, so she had long regarded Ryan as an idol.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 508 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

"Evelyn, why are you unhappy? There are so many people at your welcome party. You are so popular."

When Diana was upset, a plump girl asked her curiously.

Diana said, "So what? The person I want to see won't come."

The plump girl immediately widened her eyes and said in surprise, “Stop it, Evelyn, you like someone? Who is he?”

The people around them were also shocked and felt very incredible. Diana was not an ordinary person, but the eldest lady of the Fosters. She enjoyed a higher status than them!

The Fosters was a prestigious family in H Country. It was not only rich but also had a high social status. Decades ago, it made a lot of economic contributions to H Country.

Advertisement

More importantly, the Fosters had many distinguished men with outstanding military achievements and they still held power and influence. Her family was not only influential in G State but even in the whole south region.

Diana, as the lineal descent of the Fosters, naturally had a high status.

Besides, Diana was good-looking, so there should be a lot of men chasing her. However, Diana was bad-tempered and especially aggressive. She would hit someone after an exchange of hot words.

If that was the only reason, there would still be many men who wanted to marry her because of her status. However, Diana had been practicing martial arts since she was a child. She was crazy about martial arts and had a high cultivation level. She was more skillful than many men. She was especially ruthless and violent. As a result, over the years, fewer and fewer men chased after her.

So when these people around heard Diana’s words, they all opened their eyes wide in shock. They envied the man who could be liked by Diana but also felt pity for him. He was very likely to be bullied by Diana.

Diana rolled her eyes. She knew very well what these people were thinking. She said angrily, “It’s not what you think. I’m talking about my idol, not the man I like.”

“Idol?”

When they heard Diana’s words, they were even more confused. Diana was already so powerful and noble, but she had an idol? Really?

They wanted to ask more, but Diana didn’t want to talk to them. She pulled Isabella aside and said, “Isabella, don’t you have his number? Call him and give me a chance to say a few words to him.”

Isabella was Diana's best friend. She was dressed rather plainly. She was wearing an ordinary dress. However, because of her stunning appearance and noble temperament, she was also very eye-catching and became the focus of the party, attracting the attention of many men.

When she heard Diana's words, she shook her head and said, "How many times have I told you? Ryan won't answer my call. He doesn't like me."

After saying this, Isabella was quite disappointed. She was the lady of the Paynes. She was beautiful. There were countless men chasing after her. But Ryan did not take her seriously at all. This strong contrast made her extremely disappointed.

However, she was masochistic. The more Ryan treated her coldly, the more she could not forget Ryan. She just couldn't forget him. She dreamed of the day when Ryan would take a fancy to her!

Advertisement

However, she knew that this day wouldn't come because Ryan was too outstanding, and there were countless outstanding women around him.

Diana also sighed. She propped up her face, and said regretfully, "Why didn't you tell me the identity of my idol earlier? If you knew, I would have expressed my feelings to him at the airport that day. How could I offend him? These days, I went to ZQ Media to see him, but he ignored me."

When Isabella heard this, she also heaved a long sigh and felt disappointed and sad. Their appearance confused many rich young masters at the party. At the same time, Ryan followed Chase's team up to the hotel and walked into the banquet hall.

This was not the first time he had come to such an upper-class party, so he was very familiar with this and wouldn't be nervous at all.

But Chase and Landon were obviously a little nervous. Seeing so many famous rich young masters, they were excited and nervous.

The five wingmen looked shocked and curious.

Ryan smiled and said to Landon, "Landon, don't be nervous. They are just people like us. There is nothing special about them."

Landon felt Ryan's comfort had magic power, and he was not so nervous now. But when Chase heard him, he immediately snorted disdainfully and said, "You're the one to comfort Landon? Your legs must be shaking from nervousness!"

Chase had expected to see Ryan being helpless and nervous, but Ryan seemed very calm, which made him very unhappy.

So he mocked Ryan without hesitation.

Ryan smiled and said, "Do I look like I'm nervous?" "Hmph, you are pretending!" Chase snorted.

At this moment, Ryan saw the black marks on Landon's forehead, which was even thicker and filled his entire forehead. It was very fierce, which made Ryan frown.

No one else could see the black marks except for Ryan. It was very mysterious.

In fact, the black marks were caused by a negative magnetic field. Only those whose spiritual power was strong enough could see them.

Landon's marks were pitch black, which meant that a disaster was coming soon.

Ryan couldn't help looking around to see what Landon's disaster would be, but he found nothing. Among the people present, there were no masters. Most of them were ordinary people. The best expert was at Master Realm. So they might not be so dangerous.

So Landon's disaster was caused by someone. Maybe because he had offended someone.

Suddenly, in Ryan's spiritual world, he saw a wisp of black gas wafting from Chase to Landon's forehead...

He frowned and understood something.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 509 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Needless to say, Chase caused Landon's misery.

So Ryan carefully observed Chase and found that there was a dark mist on Chase's forehead. It was getting darker and darker, which was a sign of bad luck. It turned out the real source of the disaster was Chase, and Landon was implicated.

According to the feature of his face, Landon himself should have been badly hurt by Chase this time, and even his life should have been in danger. He should have become Chase's scapegoat. But thanks to his appearance, the situation changed.

That was interesting.

When Chase saw Ryan staring at him, he snorted and said unhappily, "What are you staring at me for? You're not sensitive enough. You're here to be my bodyguard today. Don't talk and don't look around. Do you understand?"

Ryan smiled playfully and did not respond.

Advertisement

Seeing that Chase was inclined to get angry, Landon quickly helped scold Ryan and promised Chase that Ryan would not cause trouble. Only then did Chase let Ryan go.

At this moment, two people from rich families came to greet Chase. When they saw the seven bodyguards behind Chase, they smiled and said, "Chase quite a bit of pomp. Seven bodyguards. It seems that you have made a lot of money recently."

Chase couldn't hide his pride in his face, but he pretended that he wanted to keep a low profile. He waved his hand and said, "No, no. It's not much. It's only about 20 million. It's so less than what you have, Young Master Zhou and Acre."

When the two rich masters heard his words, they both took on surprised expressions. More than 20 million dollars was a large sum, even for them. For a moment, they were more friendly about Chase.

Advertisement

Originally, they didn't take Chase seriously, because Chase was from an ordinary family and had no background. It was only because he had been fawning on a boss for the past few years that he had this opportunity to get rich. But if Chase really made more than 20 million in half a year, he could get into their circle.

Sensing the change in the attitude of the two rich masters, Chase's smile became brighter and he was even more proud. He didn't actually earn more than 20 million dollars. He made only 4 or 5 million dollars at most. But facing others, he was bragging to make himself respected.

Landon followed Chase all the way. He knew Chase's background very well and was shocked. He thought that Chase was too good at bragging.

Next, some other young and rich masters came to greet Chase. After hearing that he had earned more than 20 million in half a year, they were also very enthusiastic about him, and Chase was getting more and more popular. He was bragging even more wildly. He told one lie after another.

When there was no one else coming, Chase saw Ryan looking around like a country bumpkin who had never seen the world. His sense of superiority grew stronger. He came over to Ryan with a goblet in his hand and said, "You've never been to such a high-end place before, have you? Indeed, you're just a son-in-law who lives in your wife's house. Your status in your wife's family is low. You have no right to attend such a high-class party."

His words were very sarcastic and insulting.

Ryan did not answer him, but pretended to be looking for something. He vaguely felt that he seemed to have a difficulty here, but he searched for a long time, and did not find it, which made him very confused.

When Chase saw that Ryan did not speak, he thought that Ryan was ashamed of himself and his smile grew broad. He continued, "Anyway, we are acquaintances. You can just help yourself later and eat as much as you want. You have never eaten the delicacies that are going to be served tonight. If you behave well, you can be my little brother in the future. I'll give you 6,000 a month's salary. How about that? Am I generous?"

Ryan stared at him, smiled, and said one word, "Brainless."

In an instant, Chase became furious. He opened his eyes wide and was about to settle the score with Ryan. At this moment, there was a commotion at the scene.

"Look, it's the main character of tonight, Miss Foster!"

"This is the precious daughter of the Fosters. If anyone can have Diana as his wife, he will be rich and successful overnight and enjoy a prosperous life."

"Let's get rid of this idea. Diana's standards for a husband are very high. Besides, Diana is a violent maniac. Ordinary men can't control her."

"That's true..."

When Chase heard the voice, he immediately forgot to deal with Ryan. He quickly straightened his neck and looked at the person coming out. Suddenly, he saw Diana strode out with a group of people behind her. Her short and clean hair and Chinese clothes made her look very dashing.

It had to be said that Diana's character was very hot, but her appearance was still good. It was a unique neutral beauty. She had a particularly tall figure and long legs. She was cool.

All of a sudden, everybody became quiet for a while, and their attention was all focused on Diana.

Diana's body seemed to be emitting light.

When Chase saw Diana, his gaze immediately became intense. This was the eldest lady of the Fosters. Her status was noble. If he could get Diana to be his friend, then he wouldn't have to worry about money for the rest of his life!

Landon looked at Diana as if he froze. He was amazed, but he felt more self-conscious. He knew very well that he was born in a poor family. He had an inferiority complex when compared with Diana, who was born in such a rich and noble family.

Soon, the sight of the crowd was attracted to a beautiful woman beside Diana. It was Isabella.

In terms of appearance, Isabella was so much more beautiful than Diana!

When Chase saw Isabella, he was stunned and his breathing stopped. He was not the only one who had the same reaction in the crowd. Many people at the scene were shocked by Isabella's stunning appearance.

When Ryan saw Diana and Isabella, he was also immediately stunned. He did not expect to meet the two of them at the party tonight!

Soon he realized that the difficulty he was sensing just now must be Diana and Isabella. For a moment, he didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

The appearance of Diana and Isabella made the atmosphere at the party carnival. Everyone became excited and surrounded the two of them, trying their best to please them.

Chase also wanted to go over and curry favor with them. Even if he could get close to them and make them know him, it would be enough! However, although he tried to squeeze in, there was no room for him.

He was in a hurry and kept pushing forward, but he couldn't squeeze in. Just then, he saw a graceful figure in front of him, dressed in a s*xxy buttocks suit, especially tempting. He had a sudden impulse and couldn't control his hand. He touched it.

"Ah! Who touched me?!"

She sounded so angry that it was almost a loud roar, immediately attracting everyone's attention, including Diana and Isabella, who also looked over.

The beautiful woman in front of him turned around and stared at Chase angrily. Beside her, there was a tall, imposing man with famous brands all over his body.

When he saw his woman being bullied, his face darkened and he stared at Chase. "You want to die?" Chase was shocked and subconsciously shook his head, denying it, "It's not me! It's not me!"

The beautiful woman pointed at him and scolded, "It's you. You touched me from my back just now! Remi, he just molested your woman. You can't just let him go."

Remi's face darkened. "How dare you! You dare to touch my woman. Do you know who I am? Remi! I don't think you want to live anymore!"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Landon had never thought that Chase would make him the scapegoat. He had just witnessed Chase molest that woman.

Immediately, Remi looked at Landon angrily. He waved his hand, "Someone, take this beast down!"

"It's not me. I didn't do it..." Landon was completely flustered. He pointed at Chase and was about to give up Chase when Chase hooked around his neck and pressed him to the ground. He said in a low voice, "Landon, you have to take the blame for me today! I have treated you nicely all these years. If it weren't for my help, would you have the achievements today?"

Landon was stunned. He looked at Chase in disbelief. "Chase, I've done a lot of things for you over the years." Chase glared at him and said threateningly, "I don't care. You have to take the blame for me today. Otherwise, your sister..." Landon was shocked and gritted his teeth as he stared at Chase. He didn't expect Chase to threaten him with his sister!

Chase then pleaded, "Landon, we're friends. I've been helping you a lot all these years. Now please repay the favor and help me. Anyway, all you would suffer is just being beaten up. It's no big deal. Please help me, okay?"

Landon had a painful expression on his face. He was a loyal friend. He could not refuse when Chase begged him. He gritted his teeth, taking a deep breath, and said sadly, "I see. I'll take the blame for you."

“Thank you, my friend!” Chase was overjoyed, then with a cold face, he pressed Landon to the ground and scolded, “Bah! Landon, you stupid bastard. You dare to fool around Mr. Watson’s woman. A powerful man like him could easily make you disappear from the world!”

Advertisement

Then he immediately said to Remi, “Mr. Watson, my apology. Leave this beast to me. I will definitely make you satisfied!” Remi waved his hand and said coldly, “Who do you think are you? Do I need you to teach me what to do? Get out of here!” Chase’s face froze, but he didn’t dare to show any dissatisfaction. He quickly stepped aside and gave Landon a threatening look, which implied Landon that he couldn’t confess him even if he was killed. When he saw Landon’s pale expression, his heart relaxed.

He knew very well that how powerful Remi was even in the rich second-generation class, only inferior to a beautiful rich lady like Diana, which made Remi the one he could not afford to provoke at all.

Now he was somehow proud. He had fooled around Remi’s woman and didn’t have to be punished. Landon would be his scapegoat.

Advertisement

“Which hand touched my woman just now? Stretch it out!” Remi stared at Landon coldly with his face full of anger and murderous intent. He was somehow a big shot in his circle. Many people relied on him and followed his instruction. Now, this man dared to flirt with his woman in public. If he didn’t do anything to punish this bastard severely, then his reputation would be ruined completely!

Landon was very scared, but he didn’t dare to fight back now. He could only reach out his right hand obediently.

Remi said coldly, “Cut this beast’s right hand!”

Immediately, a big man came out and grabbed a fruit knife from the table beside him. With a grim smile on his face, he slowly walked to Landon.

Seeing this, Landon’s scalp went numb. He was so scared that he trembled and quickly begged for mercy.

There were so many people present that none of them came out to stop. Instead, they were all laughing gloatingly, feeling very interesting.

Chase was afraid. Fortunately, he reacted quickly just now and pushed out this fool Landon. Otherwise, he would be the one whose hand would be chopped off.

Landon was completely frightened. He kept calling Chase for help and asking Chase to save him, but Chase ignored him.

Seeing the muscle man walking in front of him with the fruit knife, he was extremely scared and even began to despair.

Seeing this scene, Diana frowned slightly but did not stop, because she hated those vulgar hooligans. Moreover, she had witnessed so many people being bullied like this so that she didn't think there was anything wrong with Remi.

On the contrary, Isabella couldn't bear to see it and she turned her face away.

Ryan, who was in the crowd, looked at this scene indifferently. His impression of Chase was extremely terrible. Now he knew what Landon's disaster was tonight. It was conceivable that if he wasn't there tonight, Landon's hand would have been chopped off!

"Boy, next time, be smart. Not all women can be fooled around!" The big man raised the corner of his mouth and gave a cruel smile. Then he raised the fruit knife and was about to cut Landon's right hand!

Just then, Ryan made a move. He came straight out of the crowd, kicked the man on the shoulder to the ground, and slid a few meters on the smooth ground before stopping.

This sudden change stunned everyone present. Landon thought he was doomed and closed his eyes. But he didn't expect to hear the muscle man's screams. He opened his eyes and saw Ryan help him up gloomily. He shook his head and said, "Why are you so stupid? Chase is not worth it."

Ryan saw what happened just now, but he didn't stand up to stop Remi immediately. It wasn't because he was cold-blooded, but because he wanted to let Landon personally feel what despair was, so that he could see through Chase's true face.

"Ryan? You..." Landon was stunned. Then he came to his senses, panicked, and said quickly, "Ryan, how did you do this? It will get you into trouble!"

Ryan sighed again. It had been a long time since he had met someone as simple, pure, and kind as Landon.

At this moment, the others came to their senses, and Remi's face became extremely glum. He pointed at Ryan and cursed, "Who the f*cking are you? How dare you to fight against me?"

As soon as he finished speaking, a dozen of powerful bodyguards came out from behind him and surrounded Ryan.

Seeing Ryan stand up for him, Chase was also stunned. Then he gloated and thought that Ryan was courting death.

Surrounded by so many people, Landon was even more panicked and his legs were trembling.

Instead, Ryan was unusually calm. He even smiled and said to Landon, "Why, are you afraid?"

"Of course, Ryan. Aren't you afraid?" Landon swallowed his saliva. He had no idea why Ryan was so confident. How could he be so calm?

Ryan smiled and said, "What's there to be afraid of? They were just a group of losers."

He did not lower his voice, what he said was clearly heard by many people. After hearing the words, they immediately turn angry.

They stared at Ryan with hostility and anger. Remi was now furious that he laughed in anger. "Good! Very good! You bold bastard.

I haven't met such a presumptuous person for a long time!"

Chase also looked at Ryan in surprise. He seriously doubted whether Ryan was crazy or not to say such words. Did he want to die? Was it the right time to brag?

Landon was immediately dumbfounded when he heard this. He didn't expect Chase to do this to him. He subconsciously wanted to refute, "I didn't..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, Chase slapped him, interrupting his sentence, and scolded angrily, "Landon, you bastard, how dare you even feel up Mr. Watson's woman, and almost implicate me. I think you are tired of living!"

All of a sudden, everyone's eyes were on Landon. Landon was shy and introverted. In that situation, his mind was blank and he was so scared that he was unable to say anything.
