

Chapter 661

Tom drove the electric motorcycle to the parking lot, then took the elevator up to the thirteenth floor from the underground parking lot.

The class reunion this year was held in a grand manner. Tom had just come out of the elevator when he saw more than ten young and beautiful welcoming ladies standing at the entrance of the lobby, all of whom were very good-looking. When someone walked in, they would bow and shout sweetly, "Warmly welcome the 36th Class 5 students of Phoenix Heights High School!"

Just as Tom appeared, two old classmates had already walked in.

Tom tidied up his clothes and strode over.

Since he was now dressed very ordinary, he was in stark contrast to the other people who came to the reunion. When he was about to enter, those welcoming ladies didn't bow to welcome him, instead, they stopped him and said, "Hello, inside is the 36th reunion of Phoenix Heights High School, other people are not allowed to enter."

They looked up and down at Tom and saw that he dressed so shabbily, so contempt and indifference flashed through his eyes.

Tom said, "I am one of the students of the 36th Class 5 in Phoenix Heights High School."

"Are you sure?" The hostess obviously didn't believe it.

"Why? Don't I look like it?" Tom asked with a smile.

The lady frowned slightly. She thought that she had seen many rich people, and she was able to tell at a glance whether they were rich or not. And she learned that the people at this reunion were almost all rich people who were either rich or capable. However, this man in front of her was a nobody at a glance.

Just as she was hesitating, a few people came from behind and saw this. One of the men in a suit and gold-rimmed glasses said, "What happened? Why are you stuck here?"

When the lady saw this man, her eyes immediately lit up. With her standard of judgment, she immediately saw that this must be a rich big shot, so she became humble and said respectfully, "Hello, sir. This man says he is also from the 36th class of Phoenix Heights High School, but I can't verify his identity."

"Really?" The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately looked at Tom. When he saw Tom, he felt a little familiar and asked doubtfully, "Who are you?"

When Tom saw the man, he immediately recognized him and said with a smile, "Monitor, you forgot me so quickly. I'm Tom. We used to be in the same group."

The man with the gold-rimmed glasses immediately reacted when he was reminded. He patted his head and said, "I remember. Tom, it's you! You..."

Tom saw that the other party reached out his hand to shake hands with him, so he also reached out his hand. But immediately, the other party saw his outfit and immediately retracted his hand, and the enthusiasm on his face also faded a little, "Where have you been all these years? Why haven't you come to the reunion?"

Tom understood him well. He saw at a glance the flash of contempt in the other party's eyes, and he knew that the man obviously saw him dressed so shabbily and thought that he didn't have a good career.

To be honest, Tom was quite disappointed. When they were in school, class monitor Dane was quite nice. He didn't expect that after graduation, Dai also became a Philistine, measuring a person's value by the amount of money.

"I didn't go anywhere, so I stayed in H City." Tom said with a smile.

"Oh, yeah. It's been so long. You're much taller. I remember you used to be a little shortie, only to my chest. Hahaha." Dane began to tease Tom. His face was full of banter. He thought he had a good eye for people. Now he could tell at a glance that Tom must have been doing badly over the years. He thought Tom might even be a sorehead, so he would attend the class reunion in such shabby clothes.

Tom frowned slightly, he came to the reunion this time with anticipation and happiness, originally wanted to have a good catch-up. For some students who had difficulties, he was also ready to support them. However, he did not expect to just meet the former class monitor that the unpleasant thing happened.

When he was in junior high school, Tom was truly not tall. He was relatively small among his peers, but he would never be so short. At that time, Dane was only half a head taller than him.

"Is that so? I also remember that you once cried because of Kai prank. He grabbed a gecko into your schoolbag, you were so scared that you peed your pants." Tom said with a smile, directly satirized back. At that time, Dane was particularly timid, he was often scared by Kai and other bad boys, then he would piss his pants, which was the laughingstock of the class.

Dane was originally laughing happily, but when he heard Tom's words, his smile immediately froze. Especially when he heard a few welcome ladies snickering, he became even more embarrassed, and the corner of his mouth twitched twice!

He glared at Tom fiercely and said annoyedly, "Hey, Tom, don't talk nonsense. I've always been very brave. When did I get scared and wet my pants?"

He didn't know that his look made Tom words more convince, "Nonsense? No, you were the one who was the timidest boy in the class, we all knew that. By the way, after so many years, you should improve a little, right?"

Dane was so angry that he was even more displeased with Tom. Originally, he thought that Tom must have done a bad job all these years, while he was a successful man. He didn't expect that Tom dared to tease him like this. He couldn't bear it!

However, he couldn't vent his anger under such situation. After all, there were still many students inside.

He thought of a way to take revenge. He smiled and pretended to be relaxed, "No kidding. I think a lot of students have already arrived. Go in. I think you will surprise a lot of students this time!"

Then he greeted the welcoming lady and Tom was qualified to go in. This privilege made Dane feel especially accomplished and straightened his back even more!

Tom shook his head and thought that Dane was too childish. After all these years, Dane still didn't change his arrogant personality.

Walking into the banquet hall, he found that many students had already arrived, the banquet was very lively. At first glance, Tom saw many familiar faces, and a familiar feeling surged into his heart.

The memory of the youth years junior high school seemed to come back to him.

More than ten years passed, these old classmates had grown up, and many changes happened. Some students were fatter, some students were thinner, and some students were even more handsome and beautiful.

Dane walked in and rolled his eyes. He clapped his hands and said loudly, "Hey, guys, look who I brought for you."

His words made everyone in the hall look over.

Chapter 662

"Is he... Tom?"

One of his female classmates asked confusedly.

"Tom, I remember him. He is Tom, the top student in our class!"

"Damn, am I right? Tom is back! I thought he went abroad!"

"Is not he rich? Why is he so shabby?"

Soon, they recognized Tom. Instantly, it was lively. They started to discuss and some of them surrounded him.

However, they soon found out that Tom was shabby. He didn't wear any watch of brand names or gold chain.

He looked like nobody and was shabby. They looked so gorgeous. And he was completely different from them!

Dane deliberately pushed Tom behind and said, "Tom, come on. Greet our classmates. They are all bosses now!"

He pushed hard and smiled. He was malicious and wanted to embarrass Tom.

He believed Tom would definitely fall down because of his push!

And he could recriminate that Tom was too weak. He pushed him slightly but he fell down. So he could avenge himself by humiliating Tom.

Unfortunately, his plan seemed to be good, but he underestimated Tom.

When he touched Tom, he found that Tom was as heavy as a big stone and he couldn't push him at all.

How could it be?

He kept working out and was stronger than most people. But when he pushed Tom hard, Tom didn't move at all. It was impossible!

So he pushed him harder...

However, no matter how hard he tried, Tom didn't move. He was awkward and his face turned red.

He didn't believe it. How could Tom be so strong?

Just as Dane tried his best to concentrate on his right hand and was about to push Tom down, Tom suddenly turned sideways. Dane pushed nobody and couldn't keep balanced. He fell forward heavily!

Plop! He fell on the 30-centimeter-high staircase in front of him. His forehead and nose bled.

Everyone was stunned by the accident. They didn't expect Dane to fall like this.

Tom curled up his lips and sneered. And then he said, "Monitor, are you okay?"

Dane was completely stunned. He never thought that Tom would suddenly turn sideways. He was so damn embarrassed!

It hurt so much. His face fell on the floor directly and he felt that his face flattened. His nose was especially hurting and he couldn't help crying. Seeing that Tom was gloating, he knew that Tom deliberately embarrassed him!

He was so angry. He pointed at Tom and scolded him, "Tom, you are so despicable. How dare you hurt me? Are you tired of life?"

He looked ferocious when he cursed. He was not polite. The classmates who wanted to help him frowned slightly.

Tom spread out his hand and said innocently, "Monitor, what are you talking about? How could I hurt you?"

Dane was stunned and speechless.

Tom stood there and didn't move. It was his own fault.

He was sure that it was obvious that Tom had deliberately embarrassed him. He saw how disdainful Tom was.

It was so infuriating. He swore that he would teach Tom a lesson later!

Other classmates came over. Two men helped Dane up and said strangely, "Dai, what are you doing? How did you fall?"

"Yes. Have you drunk before coming here?"

Dane was angry but he couldn't vent. He was aggrieved!

In the end, he glared at Tom. He had threatened him, so he couldn't scold him.

Tom smiled disdainfully and did not take him seriously at all.

Many classmates focused on Tom and asked curiously, "Tom, long time no see. Where have you been all these years?"

"Yes, I have lost your contact information since graduation. We couldn't contact you and thought you were forced to join in the pyramid sales." One of them told a joke and the other teased him.

Tom smiled and said, "I didn't go anywhere. I stayed in H City!"

Someone noticed that Tom was shabby and asked tentatively, "Well, what are you doing now? You were the super-rich second generation in our class and the top student. You always ranked first. You must be a big boss now!"

He was a follower of Dane. When he was in junior high school, he was Dane's follower. After graduation, he also worked for Dane.

He was ordered by Dane to ask the question.

After he asked this question, all the classmates were quiet and looked at him curiously and meaningfully.

Tom said, "I am not a big boss, but I have a few companies."

He said it coolly as if it was normal and he needn't be pretentious or modest.

The rest of the classmates were stunned when they heard it. Tom looked so shabby, how could he have several companies?

In their opinion, those who have a few companies must wear clothes and watches of famous brands. But what he wore was less than 200 dollars!

"Really? What company do you have? Tell us!"

"Do you be fooled by other bosses? You are the legal person of others' companies, but you claimed them to be yours, right?"

"Haha, he won't do it. Everyone knows that being a legal person is a tough job. He can't get the money but has to take responsibility!"

They all began to tease.

Tom shook his head and said, "They're my own companies."

At this moment, everyone was quiet. They saw that Tom was so calm and confident. It seemed that he didn't joke. He might be really rich. And he dressed shabbily on purpose tonight to pretend to be poor?

Just as they were guessing, someone said disdainfully, "Haha, he was pretentious. If he has a few companies, how would he come here by electric bike?"

Chapter 663

Hardly had that voice faded away than a woman glittering with jewels walked out of the crowd with disdain.

"What? Lindsey, you must be joking! Tom is a rich kid. How can he ride an electric bike here after all these years? Are you kidding?"

"Exactly. Tom was the richest one in our class back then. His butler would drive him to and from school in a limo every day. He was someone beyond our reach."

"However, things change all the time. Many big families squander all their family property in just a few years because of improper management!"

People were surprised at Lindsey's words. On the surface, they were defending Tom, but in fact, they were gloating over Tom's misfortune in a tone tinged with irony.

Indeed, back when they were in school, Tom was the richest kid in the class. Besides, since he was the top student, many female classmates had a secret crush on him. At that time, Tom was on good terms with Leyla, the most beautiful girl in the class, and thus he was the envy of the other male classmates.

It would be fine if Tom was still so rich, in which case the other male classmates wouldn't have dared to show their jealousy or frustration.

Instead, they would have played up to Tom. But now, Tom was obviously down and out, so nothing would happen if they taunted and belittled him. Such being the case, how would they let go of such a great opportunity to hit Tom when he was down?

Tom watched people's every move. To be honest, he didn't feel angry or humiliated at all, because he was not on the same level as these former classmates. To his great disappointment, Tom didn't expect them to turn out to be like this now. If he had known this earlier, he might as well not have come to the class reunion, so that they could at least leave him some good memories.

However, the moment they saw Tom remained silent, they believed Tom was being embarrassed because they were right about him. For a moment, they went on with the mockery.

"Tom, say something. Is what Lindsey said true? Did you really ride an electric bike here?" A fat male classmate walked over and taunted with a wicked smile.

He had used to be one of Leyla's pursuers, but didn't dare to tell her, nor did he dare to speak out against Tom, but only hate him secretly. Now he couldn't be more excited since he found an opportunity.

Tom cast a nonchalant look at him and asked, "Pigsy, are you gloating?"

Pigsy's lips twitched. His name was Joe. Because he was fat, he was given the nickname Pigsy, which was a skeleton from his past. Ever since he graduated and became the boss, no one dared to call him that way. However, he didn't expect Tom to bring it up again, and that enraged him!

"Tom, now listen carefully. My name is Joe, not Pigsy. If you call me Pigsy again, I will make you pay. You hear me?" Joe lost his temper and snapped. The last name he wanted to be called was "Pigsy".

However, Tom smiled and said, "I see, Pigsy."

"You!!" Red with anger, Joe raised a hand subconsciously, wanting to beat

Tom up, but the next moment, he realized that Tom was stronger and much taller than him. He was weak now since he had spent all these years drinking and partying. If he really were in a fight with Tom, he would surely be the one who suffered.

Therefore, Joe didn't dare to start the fight in spite of his anger. He could only hold it back and snarled, "Trash! You deserve to ride an electric bike for the rest of your life!"

Tom didn't care about such a contemptible wretch at all. He was just disappointed that all his innocent former classmates had become like this.

Now Tom wanted to leave. He was going to do it after saying goodbye to Kai.

Fortunately, Kai didn't change. He didn't look down on Tom just because he was now "down and out".

However, Tom looked around and, to his surprise, didn't see Kai or Leyla here. Didn't Kai and Leyla come up before him just now? How come they were nowhere to be seen?

At this moment, Tom heard footsteps coming from outside, followed by the fawning greetings from the hostesses. He looked back and saw Kai and Leyla walking in surrounded by several bodyguards.

"Look, Leyla is here!"

"Wow, isn't Miss Edwards gorgeous? She's getting prettier. She looks like a star on TV. I wonder which lucky guy can have Miss Edwards as his girlfriend!"

"Nonsense. Leyla runs several companies now, and her assets are worth around a billion. As a super career woman, the money she spends on beauty care each month is worth our annual salary! How can she not look beautiful?"

"Indeed. Isn't Miss Edwards the richest one in the class now?"

Many schoolmates' eyes lit up at the sight of Leyla. Especially those male classmates, they widened their eyes and didn't hide their passion for Leyla at all.

Dane couldn't even move his eyes away from her. He swallowed hard, drooling over Leyla.

Tom stared indifferently at Leyla, not surprised at all. It was undeniable that Leyla looked pretty and had a good figure, but compared with some extremely stunning women like Phoebe and Amelia, Leyla was no match for them.

Especially in terms of temperament, Leyla appeared a little tacky.

Originally, Tom was looking forward to the reunion with Leyla, but what happened just now downstairs made him give up this idea. Like many other classmates, Leyla had changed. She was not the innocent little girl anymore.

Soon, the classmates rushed up to meet Leyla fawningly. They flattered her.

Meanwhile, Kai, who was with Leyla, was completely ignored. Those classmates didn't even bother to greet him.

Not angry or upset at all, Kai seemed to have got used to such occasions, leaving Leyla's side consciously. He took a few steps and saw Tom. His eyes lit up and he strode towards him, patted him on the shoulder and said, "Hey bro, you came up so soon. I thought you would get lost!"

Tom smiled, pulled out the chair for him and said, "Didn't you tell me it was on the thirteenth floor? I'd be a fool if I couldn't find it."

"Hahaha, I'm just kidding." Kai laughed brightly. He didn't despise Tom because of his poverty. However, he realized something when seeing Tom looking at Leyla, and said with studied casualness, "Hey, did you just get ridiculed by Dane and the others? Just ignore them. They're always like this. They say mean words, but actually they aren't bad people. Since they paid for this reunion, we don't need to spend money. We might as well eat as much as we want, haha."

Kai's words warmed Tom up inside.

When Tom wanted to say something,
Leyla came towards them...

Chapter 664

It could be said that Leyla was the focus of the audience, and her every move attracted the attention of everyone present.

Kai had worked for Leyla for many years and held a deep respect for Leyla. Now that he saw Leyla coming, he quickly stood up and greeted Leyla as "Miss Edwards" respectfully.

Leyla looked at Tom faintly, then smiled and said, "Tom, long time no see."

Everyone was surprised to see Leyla greeting Tom. From what they knew, Leyla was a very arrogant person, especially so after she had a successful career. But now Leyla actually took the initiative to greet Tom, it was too abnormal. Could it be that after all these years, Leyla still had feelings for Tom?

Thinking of this, many people felt that Tom was lucky enough to be favored by Leyla. It was a blessing from his previous life!

Who didn't know that Leyla was a big boss now, and she was as beautiful as a flower? If he married Leyla, he wouldn't have to worry for the rest of his life.

The boys on the spot didn't look good and were full of jealousy. They were more or less interested in Leyla. When they saw Leyla and Tom being intimate with each other, they would naturally be very jealous. If Tom was still the super-rich kid from a big family as he was in the past, it would be fine. The key now was that Tom was down and out. He was like a drowning dog. Why did he still get Leyla's favor?

Dane, in particular, looked awful. He clenched his fists and was especially annoyed.

He had been having a crush on Leyla for many years, and he had been pursuing Leyla all the time, but Leyla had always looked down on him, which made him very hurt and disappointed.

Tom stood up and said, "Yes, long time no see."

When other male students faced Leyla, they would inevitably be nervous, excited, or eager to present themselves. But Tom was different: he was very calm, neither restrained nor excited.

His reaction made Leyla frown slightly and feel uncomfortable. In her opinion, it was Tom's honor if she had taken the initiative to greet Tom as her status was so high. Tom should be flattered and at a loss, not knowing what to do, instead of being calm!

However, Leyla thought that Tom was just pretending to be calm and playing hard to get. She had seen a lot of similar tricks.

So she continued, "I heard you say just now that you have opened a few companies, and I don't know what field they are in. If you tell me, maybe we can cooperate."

There was a smile on her face, but she looked arrogant. She clearly did not believe that Tom was capable of running several companies.

How vigilant Tom was! How could he not see what she meant? He smiled faintly and said, "There's a big gap between us. I believe there won't be any opportunities for cooperation."

Tom was telling the truth. With his current business empire, the cooperation projects he was talking about were worth more than ten billion dollars. How could a small boss like Leyla be able to get in touch with him?

However, when hearing what Tom had said, Leyla thought it was a sign of flutter, which made her smile even broader. "No problem, I happen to be planning to go back to H City to expand my business. Although there is a lot of difference between us, as an old classmate, I am still willing to help you."

Leyla's words made many people jealous of Tom. What virtue did Tom accumulate in his previous life? How could he win Leyla's favor?

Dane couldn't listen anymore. He quickly walked out and said, "Leyla, don't tease Tom. Do you think he can afford to run a company? Besides, he came to the class reunion tonight on a small electric bike. He probably earns three or four thousand dollars a month, haha."

He said this very loudly. It looked like he was joking, but in fact, he was humiliating Tom, making everyone present laugh when they heard him.

Leyla also wore a half smile.

Tom was more and more disappointed in them. He really didn't expect those old classmates of the past to become such philistines. He didn't bother to talk to them anymore and said directly to Kai, "Kai, I have something to do. I'll go back first. We'll keep in touch."

Kai was stunned, and he said quickly,

"Ah? You just came here. Why are you leaving? We have some entertainment next. We will go to the resort later."

Tom shook his head and said, "No, I'm not interested in this. Have fun, everyone."

When people heard what he said, they all began to laugh because they had achieved their goal.

A female classmate said, "Oh, Tom, we were just joking with you. Are you that petty?"

Another male student said, "Yes, we had all been classmates for so many years, and you've been missing for so many years, and you haven't come to the reunion all the time in the previous years. We were just joking with you, and you're angry. Aren't you too petty?"

"Tom, why are you being like this? We are all almost thirty years old. If you are being so petty, you can't make money in this society."

"Isn't that right? You're the 'big boss' of several companies. Aren't you magnanimous? Then I really have to wonder if you really have the ability to start a company, haha. But what I said just now was just a joke. Don't take it to heart. I'm sure you still have the ability to start a company. After all, now you only need an ID card to register a company."

Each of them was more sarcastic than the other. They deliberately disgusted Tom. They were so hideous.

It didn't matter to Tom. He was used to it. Besides, he was already disappointed in these students, so how could he be affected? He ignored them directly.

But Kai couldn't stand it. In his opinion, Tom came to the class reunion because of him. Originally, he thought since these students had not seen Tom for so long, they would definitely welcome Tom. But he never expected that it would be such a scene today, and they openly made fun of Tom!

These guys used to made fun of him in the past. It was fine because he was really a piece of trash. After all these years, he was still Leyla's driver. But Tom was different. Tom used to be a super-rich second generation, and he was a smart person. Now that he was down, he was already uncomfortable. And he was ridiculed by these old classmates, it must be tougher!

So his face turned red and he shouted, "Hey! You guys, that's enough! Yes, Tom has been down and out all these years, but do you have to hurt him like this? Everyone comes out of the same class! In the past, when you were in school, Tom took care of you a lot. He often bought breakfast for you to eat, and fruits and snacks, and you all ate a lot! And you, Dane, you offended the head of Class Three that time. If it weren't for Tom, you would have been beaten into a dog! But now that you're rich, you're mocking Tom? Are you still human?"

Kai was especially agitated. He had been living a bad life all these years. He could bear to be humiliated by others for the sake of his own living. He knew that he was useless, but he could not ignore others humiliating his good friend!

Chapter 665

Kai was so excited that he burst out and his face turned red, which made him look especially scary.

And he did scare a lot of people, because he had been very humble all these years. Although he was also in the same class, he was Leyla's driver. Over time, no one cared about him, thinking that he was just a driver, not on the same level as them.

In addition, Kai was indeed very humble. He usually helped out at the reunion. Everyone was used to his inferiority. It was completely unexpected that he would have another side that he dared to yell at them.

Tom was also stunned and looked at Kai blankly. To be honest, he was quite touched.

They were all old classmates of Tom. But Kai was totally different from Dane. It could be said that Kai did not change at all. Tom was also an experienced man in society. He deeply understood how difficult it was to stay true to the original self.

Tom looked at Kai with deep emotions and made a decision in his heart. He must help his old classmate.

However, Kai's words made the others all angry. Dane slammed the table, glared at Kai angrily, and cursed, "Kai! You're trying to get yourself killed!"

Even a nobody like you dare to scold us. You're tired of living, aren't you?"

Another female classmate said, "Kai, what do you mean? How dare you teach us a lesson? Just be aware of your status. You're such a loser. What right do you have to teach us a lesson? The money you earn in a year is not as much as I earn in a month! You're a disgrace to our class. If it weren't for Miss Edwards, do you really think you're qualified to attend the class reunion? Humph!"

"That's right, this kind of person really doesn't know anything about himself. No wonder he has been a driver for the rest of his life! If it weren't for Miss Edwards's kindness to keep you as a driver, you wouldn't even be able to find a job. I think you're just as useless as Tom!"

"What are you glaring at? Are we wrong? Besides, you dare to curse in front of Miss Edwards. So are you blame Miss Edwards too!? Well, you even have the guts to scold Miss Edwards."

They all began to condemn Kai, treating Kai as an enemy.

Leyla also looked at him coldly and unfriendly. She was clearly angry.

Kai was originally very angry, but when he was glared at by Leyla, he immediately began to be timid again. Over the years, he was really afraid of Leyla and had instinctive awe, "I, I was just saying something fair about Tom."

Dane immediately seized the opportunity, stepped forward, pointed at Kai's nose, and scolded, "Who are you? You dare to justify for Tom. So you don't take Leyla seriously? Remember, you work for Leyla. If Leyla didn't pay you a salary every month, you would be worse than a dog!"

Kai's face darkened when he heard this, and he was especially angry. His anger surged into his face. He clenched his fists and stared at Dane. He had a strong desire to beat Dane up!

However, he didn't dare, because Dane was right. Leyla was indeed his boss. If Leyla hadn't paid him, he wouldn't have been able to find such a high-paying job outside. Nowadays, he would have lived worse than a dog without money!

He was not alone now. He was married and had a family to support.

So even if he had a strong impulse to beat Dane up, he didn't dare to do it. Because he knew that once he did, Leyla would definitely be very angry, and the result of Leyla's anger was to fire him, which was something he couldn't bear.

He could only hold it back.

Seeing him like this, Dane was especially pleased and said, "Apologize to us."

"Yes, apologize to us!"

"Kai, you have offended us. You have to apologize to us."

"That's right, apologize!"

The other students began to chime in and strongly ordered Kai to apologize.

Kai gritted his teeth and said, "I didn't say anything wrong. Why should I apologize? You..."

At this moment, Leyla interrupted him and said coldly, "Kai, apologize."

When Kai heard this, his body shook violently. He gritted his teeth tightly and lowered his head. He was especially unwilling and humiliated. If he apologized in front of so many students, his dignity would really be ruined!

However, Leyla had already ordered. If he didn't apologize, Leyla would really fire him!

The worst part was that he still had half a month's salary to be paid by Leyla. If Leyla fired him now, he wouldn't be able to get the money. Anyway, it was tens of thousands of dollars.

"I..." Kai looked up at Leyla pleadingly and said in a pleading tone, "Miss Edwards, I was just casually saying that. I didn't mean to disrespect you..."

However, Leyla would not pity him at all and said coldly again, "I don't have much patience. I'll give you one last chance."

Kai was completely flustered. His heart was filled with immense grievances and pain. He used to be a very bloody person, but over the years, he had been taken down by life and lost his pride!

He took a deep breath and could only lower his head and was about to apologize...

Just as he was about to speak, Tom put his shoulder on him and said with a deep look in his eyes, "Kai, don't apologize. You didn't say anything wrong. It was them who were wrong."

Kai trembled slightly and looked up at Tom with a forced smile, "It's okay. I'm fine with just an apology. Tom, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this to happen."

Tom looked at him and said, "Kai, if I tell you that I'm rich. I'm richer than you think, and I can make you enter the upper class with one word. Even Leyla will show respect for you. Will you believe me?"

"Ah?" When Kai heard this, he was stunned. His first thought was that Tom was joking, and then his second thought was that Tom was mentally ill. Otherwise, how could he say such a thing?

Could a person who really had that much power wear so shabby and ride a small electric bicycle all day long?

"Poof!"

Someone immediately couldn't help but laugh. "Oh, then you're really awesome! You are not going to say that you're the richest man in G State, are you?"

"Hahaha, that's funny. I've seen a lot of people who brag. It's the first time I've seen someone who brags like this."

"This is not bragging. This is crazy. Are you mentally ill?"

Leyla also laughed without concealing her disdain for Tom. She was so happy now that she could finally hold her head high in front of Tom! She wanted Tom to know that rejecting her back then was the worst decision Tom had ever made!

Chapter 666

Faced with the taunts of his old classmates, Tom made no reaction. He just looked at Kai indifferently and waited for his answer.

Kai was stunned at this moment. Rationally, he knew it was impossible, while he preferred to believe it was true emotionally. Although Tom looked ordinary now, the confidence alighted in his eyes made Kai believe him intuitively.

Leyla was dissatisfied with his pause. Her face darkened instantly and she said directly to Kai, "It seems that you don't take me seriously. Okay, from today on, you're fired! I'm waiting to see if Tom can really make you a dog man!"

Kai suddenly trembled and began to panic. He said quickly, "Miss Edwards, please forgive me. I was just on impulse. I definitely didn't mean to offend you!"

Leyla snorted heavily and said, "Spur of the moment? I saw you fired away just now and even dared to get me into this bowl of shit. It seems that you think you are tough now that you dare to treat me like dirt. Just now, you even really dreamed of turning your nose up at me and to be a dog man! Okay, then you can just follow him! Let's see if you can find a high-paying job without me!"

Now the bald-faced malice of Leyla had got her image tarnished.

Kai continued to plead, "Miss Edwards, I was wronged. I've been working for you for so many years. You know what I am. Why would I want to crush you under my feet? I'm sure you must be mistaken about that! For the sake of our relationship, don't fire me. My whole family counts on me, I can't lose this job."

Kai was now beseeching earnestly. A job was all for a middle-aged man. Kai's pleading brought Tom complicated feelings. He did not expect that after so many years, Kai had been living such a miserable life, or Leyla was too inhumane.

Their other students gloated without even covering up the sarcastic smile on their faces.

"Come on, Kai, didn't you scold me so fiercely just now? Why do you keep silent now?"

"Kai, you got a lot of balls, why don't you hold on to your arrogance?"

So many people's ridicule gave Kai an icy demeanor, but he did not dare to refute them as before. There was nothing he could do about it. He had given in to life, and he really had no strength or capital to fight for himself.

Kai continued to plead, "Miss Edwards, give me another chance, will you? Please, I'm begging you."

Leyla snorted and said, "Save it. If your students can forgive you, then I can consider keeping you here."

Kai had no choice but to look at the other students. Dane immediately stood forward and said, "Well, Kai, we won't make things difficult for you. It was Tom who caused this trouble. Go over to give Tom a hard slap and we will forget it. We will still be good."

The others echoed, "Yes, we are so easy. If you can't do this, it means that you have no sincerity and don't take Miss Edwards seriously."

They all agreed that they would let it go if Kai would hit Tom.

Kai went angry again. Tom didn't do anything wrong. What would leave him if he slapped Tom? A hypocrite who sold his friends for glory? Besides, he called Tom over. He was already sorry for Tom. He could never do such a thing.

So he said to Leyla, "Miss Edwards, why don't you deduct my salary for two months? You still owe me half a year's salary. I can go with four months' salary."

This was Kai's biggest concession. He lost two months' salary, more than ten thousand!

However, Leyla's face crumpled again and she continued, "Okay, you are trying to be a good friend, aren't you? Then get out of here. From today on, you got the chop, and you won't get a penny!"

"Miss Edwards!" Kai immediately panicked. Half a year's salary was for him to meet expenses. If Leyla didn't pay him payroll, how would he support his family?

Just as he was so excited that he was about to beg for mercy humbly, a large hand pressed on his shoulder. "Kai, you don't have to beg her. Soon, she will beg you in return."

It was Tom who spoke to Kai very seriously.

Kai felt even more nervous when he heard this. He said helplessly, "Bro, please. To be honest, my family is having a hard time, and they all count on my salary."

Leyla looked on. She wanted to see what Tom could say!

Tom said, "I know, so I just told you that I'm rich. I'm richer than you could imagine. I can make you a dog man with a few words. It's not a joke."

Kai did not believe it. Instead, he looked worried. He reached out to touch Tom's forehead and said in a low voice, "Are you okay?"

Tom said helplessly, "I really didn't lie to you. If you don't believe me. I'll take you to my company tomorrow, you'll trust me by then."

Kai became more and more worried about him, thinking that Tom must have suffered a big blow that resulted in some mental disorder.

While their classmates including Dane all burst into laughter, regarding Tom as a clown who was cracking everyone up.

Leyla shook her head and said directly to Tom, "Tom, I really had some expectations for you. Now it seems that I think too much."

Her tone was full of superiority and contempt for Tom.

Tom had tolerated her for a long time, but she had made things difficult for Kai just now, which left Tom with a totally negative impression. "Leyla, you merely just made little achievements. You really don't have to make a fuss about it or make things difficult for Kai. Even if you ignored your relationship as old classmates, at least Kai has helped you a lot during his years of work for you."

Leyla's face immediately crumpled. She took a step forward and said with a sneer, "Haha! A little achievement? Tom, you loser, how dare you bluster and bluff in front of me? How hilarious!"

Dane was the first to speak up and defend Leyla. He pointed at Tom and scolded, "What do you mean by a little achievement? Tom, you don't have qualifications to say that with your menial status. Do you know how much money Miss Edwards has now? One billion, more than one billion. Her five companies conduct business in clothing, real estate, and financing! And you, who are you? In front of Miss Edwards, you're just a piece of trash!"

Other students also quickly came out to agree and belittle Tom. Tom laughed at that time and thought that these people were only looking at the world through a keyhole.

He said directly to Kai, "Kai, let's go. I'll make you a dog man tomorrow."

Kai sighed heavily. Until now, he couldn't stay any longer. He shook his head and left with Tom dejectedly.

However, at this moment, Leyla opened her mouth and stopped Tom, "Stop!"

"Anything else?" Tom turned around indifferently.

Leyla stared at him and said, "Tom, do you know why I agreed to allow you to come to attend the class reunion party tonight? That's because I want to tell you personally that in the third year of junior high school, your refusal to my love was the worst decision of your life! I should thank you for your rejection that made me work hard and get where I am today through effort and talent! And you, in the end, are just crap, who can't even afford a car!"

After saying this, she felt easy all over. She had been waiting for this moment for so long tonight.

When the others heard this, they were surprised. They didn't expect Leyla to be refused by Tom. Now that they thought Tom was a nut that he actually rejected Leyla. Now he must have gone mad with grief!

Dane, in particular, couldn't help but snicker.

Chapter 667

After Leyla finished speaking, she waited to see how angry and regretful Tom would be.

But she was disappointed. There was no expression on Tom's face as if he didn't care at all. This made her very unhappy. She thought that Tom's reaction would definitely be very intense and he would even beg for her forgiveness.

"So you asked me to attend the class reunion tonight just to tell me this and wait to see me regret it, right?" Tom sneered and said disdainfully.

Leyla snorted heavily. She hated to see Tom like this. He was definitely pretending to be stubborn. He must regret it so much, but he pretended to be indifferent!

"Tom, you don't have to pretend. You must be regretting it now!" Leyla said recklessly.

Tom smiled and said, "Why should I regret it?"

"I knew you would be stubborn, but it doesn't matter. I don't care anymore. Let me tell you that I'm no longer that fragile little girl! I have five companies now, and one of them is going public soon. I have a billion dollars and I can't use it up all my life. You're just a loser in life." Leyla said proudly.

Tom sneered again. "I'm sorry to disappoint you. I'm not a loser in life. In fact, your billion dollars is nothing to me."

"Hahaha!" Leyla seemed to have heard a big joke and burst out laughing. "Tom, I've seen a lot of tough people, but it's the first time I've seen someone as tough as you."

Tom looked at Leyla, shook his head, and said, "Leyla, you disappoint me. Behave yourself."

Leyla was particularly unhappy and shouted, "Stop!"

Tom ignored her and continued walking with Kai. Leyla was even angrier when she saw that Tom dared to ignore her. She shouted, "Stop him."

Dane and his lackeys immediately chased after Tom, trying to stop him. Kai picked up the wine bottle on the table and looked at them fiercely. They were immediately frightened and did not dare to act rashly.

Leyla was furious. Just at this moment, a few people came in from outside. They looked extraordinary and must be big shots. The man in the middle looked in his early thirties and his back was straight. He looked doughty.

When they came in, their powerful momentum stunned many people. When Leyla saw the man in the middle, her eyes lit up and she smiled happily. She quickly went up and said, "Mr. Promes, you're here. It's great."

Quincy was imposing and arrogant that he seemed to not care about anyone in the world. However, when he faced Leyla, he smiled slightly. "Miss Edwards, I'm sorry I'm late."

"No, no." Leyla walked quickly to him with a shy expression. Her beautiful eyes were full of affection. It was obvious that she had some feelings for Mr. Promes.

Dane's face darkened when he saw this. He could tell that Mr. Promes was a big shot and had an affair with Leyla. It seemed that he had no chance.

Mr. Promes looked at Leyla, and his eyes were a little ardent. He smiled and said, "Are these your classmates, Miss Edwards? They are all outstanding people."

Leyla immediately introduced, "Come on, let me introduce you. This is Mr. Promes. Mr. Promes is a dignitary in the army. Even the Lord of the city should be respectful when he is in front of Mr. Promes."

Hearing this, everyone was surprised and looked at Mr. Promes with even more reverence and awe.

Mr. Promes was especially proud. He waved his hand and said, "I am just serving the people. I am no different from you."

It was also a coincidence that Leyla met Quincy. He was the most powerful person in her connections. He was so young and single. She had already made up her mind to see if she could hook up with this big shot!

Tom was slightly delayed because of this Mr. Promes's arrival. Now he continued to walk forward. Leyla found him and immediately pointed at him and said, "Mr. Promes! Please do me a favor. This man just humiliated me and bullied me. I can't do anything about him. Now that he wants to leave after bullying me, please help me do justice, Mr. Promes."

"What?" When Quincy heard this, his expression suddenly changed. He glared at Tom. A strong momentum emanated from him and he shouted, "Who is this brat? How dare he be rude to Miss Edwards? Stop!"

His majesty was great. To ordinary people, they felt great pressure. Kai's face turned pale in fear when he faced his threat. He stopped where he was and did not dare to move.

He was even so scared that his legs were trembling.

Tom frowned slightly. Considering that Leyla was his old classmate, he didn't want to haggle over with her, but Leyla didn't appreciate it.

"What do you want?" Tom stopped and asked Leyla.

Seeing that Tom was afraid, Leyla smiled smugly and said, "I want you to kneel down and apologize to me."

Tom said with a grim face, "Leyla, you went too far."

"Too far?" Leyla sneered, "Why didn't you say you went too far when you mercilessly rejected me? Do you know how sad I was back then? I know you despised my background and thought that my family was poor and that I couldn't match a rich second generation like you! But did you think that you could fool me at will? You don't have the right!"

Leyla was talking nonsense. Tom didn't bother to talk to her anymore and turned to leave.

However, Leyla obviously wouldn't let him go. She let Quincy stop Tom, and insisted that Tom should kneel down to apologize to her.

Tom's eyes flashed with cold light. His patience was limited. Leyla kept making things difficult for him, and he would not stand still.

"How dare you, a common person, be presumptuous and arrogant! I think you're tired of living!" Quincy waved his hand and ordered his men to attack Tom violently.

Tom's eyes grew colder now. He snorted. He took action directly and defeated these men in a few seconds.

"I didn't know why did you dare to be so arrogant just now. It turns out that you are a martial art practitioner. It seems that I should fight in person!"

Quincy rubbed his hands together, took off his coat, and wanted to attack Tom. He was a strong master of the Extrinsic Peak. He could not tell Tom's strength. He thought that he would definitely defeat Tom by himself.

However, at this moment, more than a dozen people quickly walked in from the door. One of them was a middle-aged man in military uniform. When he saw that Quincy was going to attack Tom, he was angry and shouted, "Quincy, are you courting death? Who gave you the courage to attack Tom?"

Chapter 668

Quincy was about to attack Tom, but when he heard the shout, he trembled in great surprise. When he looked up and saw the person, he was even more surprised. He blurted out, "Captain! Why are you here too?"

Quincy was extremely surprised at this moment. This was his immediate superior, whose status was far above him. He usually had a lot of work to do every day. How could he appear in such a place for common people?

And most importantly, the people who were with the captain were also big shots at a high level. Everyone of them was higher than him.

Quincy immediately realized that something big had happened.

Did these superiors come here because of him? Were those dirty things that he had done discovered? However, it was impossible. Even if they found out, he wouldn't have the "honor" to let so many superiors appear to arrest him at once.

Besides, his dirty things were not particularly serious. At most, he would be punished slightly. How could he deserve so many big shots to come here at one time?

The others in the banquet hall were even more frightened when they saw this group of big shots coming. Although they were so arrogant in front of Kai and Tom, they were actually just ordinary people. In front of these big shots, they were just nobodies!

Although Leyla was not as nervous as Dane and the others, her heart was beating fast now.

Because she knew how high Quincy's status was, and now these big shots were obviously Quincy's superiors. What levels should they be in? She couldn't figure out.

At the same time, she was also excited. Maybe she could get to know these big shots. As long as she befriend them, she would have a meteoric rise directly.

The group of people quickly walked over and glared at Quincy fiercely. When Quincy saw this, he became more nervous and his heart beat faster than ever.

However, just as he thought the captain would greet him, a scene that he had never expected appeared. He saw the captain walk up to Tom and say respectfully, "Tom, God of War wants to see you."

Hearing the word God of War, Quincy heard a "bang" in his head and he was completely dumbfounded!

As a man in the army, he knew very well what the word God of War meant. It was the supreme being in all the armies, and it was also one of the soul of H Country! He had been in the army for so long, and he had only heard of God of War's name. He had never personally seen God of War before. Now, more than a dozen big shots at least in the level captain came here just to invite this man in front of him.

So who the hell was he?

Quincy didn't dare to think about it anymore.

Thinking of how he had scolded him for being a brat and how he dared to be rough with him just now, Quincy was terrified.

As for Leyla, she was also dumbfounded, unable to come back to her senses for a long time. She could not understand why such a thing happened. That was totally beyond her intellect's ability.

He was Quincy's superior, which meant he was a big shot. But now he invited Tom in such a low manner? Then who was Tom? This was not unbelievable!

Not only was she, but so many students in the banquet hall were also dumbfounded and completely confused. What happened has completely overturned their understanding. At their level, they could not imagine why such a thing would happen.

Tom had already sensed the appearance of these dozen people, so he was not surprised at all. What surprised him was that the person who wanted to see him was God of War.

He had heard a lot about the God of War that he was the head of the three services and the guardian god of H Country. He was extremely supreme. Tom guessed that God of War's cultivation must have broken through to the Immortal Realm.

However, no matter what, it was already clear that God of War would send someone to invite him instead of arresting him.

He was not the kind of person who didn't know what was good for him. Legends like God of War had already shown him nice gesture. Naturally, he wouldn't put on airs. He immediately smiled and said, "Since it's lord God of War's invitation, then I definitely won't refuse. However, this Mr. Promes ordered me not to leave, and he also wanted to capture me personally..."

Then he stopped speaking, and it was obvious what he meant.

When Quincy heard this, his face turned pale and his feet trembled with fear. This was a great man who made the God of War send someone to invite him. How could a small person like him offend Tom?

How could the captain not know what Tom meant? He saw what Quincy had done just now. He kicked Quincy over and scolded, "Quincy! You are so bold that even dare to offend Tom. I think you are tired of living! Tom is a master in Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. He can destroy you with only a breath! Apologize to Tom right now!"

"What? The Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm..." When Quincy heard this, he was really scared out of his wits. He was rude to such a powerful man just now. Wasn't he looking for death?

How could he have any dignity now? He ran over quickly, bowed and apologized to Tom, begging Tom for forgiveness.

Tom didn't want to be tangled with this kind of little person. Also, he had to save Quincy's superior's face. He just waved his hand and let Quincy go.

Then he glanced at Leyla for the last time and followed them away.

After they all left, the whole room was silent, and no one could speak...

After a long time, Quincy was sure that Tom and the others had left, so he turned around and scolded Leyla angrily, "You rat, how dare you be rude to Tom? I was almost implicated because of you!"

Leyla shuddered. Quincy's majesty was like a mountain, making her pale and trembling, "I, I don't know that he actually..."

Quincy interrupted her and said threateningly, "I'm warning you, Tom is a super big shot. Even the God of War god has sent a captain to invite him. Think about it yourself! I advise you to find a chance and apologize to Tom obediently. Otherwise, he can destroy you with a breath!"

After saying this, Quincy also strode away.

Leyla was left there, pale and panicked. Moreover, she was full of doubts and puzzlement. Tom, wasn't he already come down? Why could he change and become a super big shot?

Not only her, but Dane and the others were also in panic. They had humiliated Tom a lot just now. If Tom really wanted to teach them a lesson, then they would be over.

Some timid people even cried out in fear.

Chapter 669

"Well, don't you know me?"

Tom said with a smile after he came out. Kai was still in a daze.

Kai slowly came back to his senses, swallowed his saliva hard, and looked at Tom as if he didn't know Tom. "You, who the hell are you?" he asked.

Now he really felt that Tom was too strange for him.

Tom laughed and said, "I'm your junior high school classmate, Tom."

"But you..." Kai's mind was still in a mess. Tom's change was so huge that Kai could barely recognize him.

Tom said, "Okay, that's it for tonight. Go home now and have a good sleep. I'll come to you tomorrow. You'll know my identity by then."

Kai's mouth moved and he had a lot to ask Tom, but he bit back the words he was about to say when he saw more than a dozen big shots beside him who all looked aggressive. He felt great pressure.

He nodded and said, "Okay, then I'll go back first."

"Well, go ahead."

As Kai left, his eyes lingered on Tom. He was indeed very uneasy now.

After he left, the lieutenant said, "Tom, I haven't had time to introduce myself to you. My name is Miguel, a lieutenant under the throne of the God of War."

Tom said in folded hands, "So it's Lieutenant Miguel. I've heard a lot about you."

Then the others greeted Tom separately and introduced themselves. Tom was also surprised that these people had high positions in the army.

Now that more than a dozen people came to invite him, they showed great respect to him!

Originally, Tom was very calm, thinking that he was now in the Innate Realm of Major Perfection Realm. As long as there was no treason, as a rare genius for H Country, he wouldn't be punished severely.

But now, God of War sent so many powerful people to receive him, which made him a little worried. Was God of War trying to intimidate him?

However, there was no way back and all he could do was to let nature take its course.

He believed that God of War would not make things difficult for him.

He thought they were trying to test his loyalty to H Country!

God of War was not in H City, but in Y City. He could arrive in a few hours by helicopter.

This was Tom's first time in the capital, and he was looking forward to it.

As soon as he arrived in Y City, Tom felt a majestic aura of dragon veins rushing towards him. The whole structure of Y City was like a crawling dragon in the east. It was gradually waking up, and soon it would soar up and look down on the world.

This was not a metaphysics, but national luck. Ordinary people could not see it, but Tom, who was at a high realm, could feel it very clearly.

Moreover, Tom also sensed that in Y City, there was a strong aura that was tightly linked to the entire Y City, like the eyes of a dragon.

Tom knew that the aura must have come from God of War.

After a while, he flew to a huge yard and landed.

"Tom, here we are. God of War is inside," said the lieutenant Miguel.

Tom nodded and smiled, "Thanks, everyone."

"Tom, you're welcome. It's our duty," Miguel said. Along the way, they chatted with Tom and became more and more fond of him. They found that he was a very calm young man, and there was no trace of impatience or arrogance on him.

The yard was very big, covering tens of thousands of square meters. Tom looked around and found that the yard had a history of at least fifty years.

On the plane, Tom could also feel a strong aura of Y City, but when he arrived here, he could not feel it. In his perception, this courtyard did not have the aura of Immortal Realm, but of more than 30 masters of Innate Realm.

But Tom knew that God of War must be inside.

This meant that God of War's realm was above him too much, so he couldn't sense it.

Tom couldn't help but get excited as he was about to meet the legendary Immortal Realm!

Although this courtyard had been around for a long time, both the layout and the location were very good. It was obviously designed by a master. Ordinary people's fortune would be on the turn after they lived in it for a long time.

Tom walked all the way in, feeling more and more that the momentum inside was extraordinary.

At first, he was even a little nervous. He knew that this was God of War's pressure.

But he quickly adjusted his mind, regained his composure, and strode inside.

Miguel led him in and said respectfully, "God of War, Tom is here."

Soon, a steady voice came from inside.

"Come in."

"Tom, God of War wants you in."

Tom nodded and strode in.

As soon as he came in, the first thing he saw was more than 30 masters of Innate Realm, some of whom were in the fourth stage. When Tom came in, he felt a huge pressure, like a mountain pressing on him.

Even if he was a Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, facing more than 30 masters of the Innate Realm brought great pressure on him.

If they attacked him together, then he would be no match for them. He could kill more than half of them at most.

Beside, the God of War made it more impossible for him to beat them.

The next thing he saw was two men playing go in the yard. One of them was over sixty and the other looked much younger, about in his forties.

Tom knew that this middle-aged man was God of War, and he was definitely not as young as he looked. He was at least sixty or seventy years old!

The moment Tom saw God of War, he couldn't look away from him!

In an instant, even the light was gone, and everything in the world was gone. The man who looked very elegant and gentle was the only thing in Tom's eyes.

In Tom's perception, God of War was like a black hole, able to absorb everything around him. Even Tom could not see through him at all.

The old man opposite God of War had an air of authority. He looked very energetic. Although he was over sixty, he was in a very good state of mind. He had a noble aura, and it could tell tell at a glance that he was a powerful man.

Tom was a smart man. He quickly guessed that this old man should be his teacher (Shifu).

"I'm Tom. It's my honor to be here to meet God of War and Shifu ," Tom said respectfully.

Chapter 670

He said it in a neither haughty nor humble way. He was not terrified because of their titles. His calmness had already won the admiration of Albert and Joseph.

Albert looked up at him with a faint smile and said, "Can you play chess?"

Tom said, "a little bit."

Albert said, "How about play a round with me?"

To be honest, when Tom came, he thought of many possibilities, including the God of War would play rough on him, or even beat him, but he did not expect that God of War would be so polite to him. Even Shifu was very polite to him as if he was their old friend.

Tom did not hesitate much. He was calm now. He also smiled and said, "Well, if you say so."

Joseph stood up and stepped aside and let Tom sit down. He said with a smile, "Tom, I'll depend on you. He totally beat me."

After that, Joseph patted Tom on the shoulder, as if he had high hopes for Tom.

Although Tom had never seen the old man in front of him, Tom had already guessed from the temperament of the old man that he must be a very noble big shot. It was no surprise. After all, he was able to play chess with God of War.

Now that Tom sat down and faced God of War, he immediately felt a chilly aura of blood and battle, as if he heard the sound of thousands of horses galloping and soldiers fighting.

Tom was shocked. He knew very well that this was due to God of War's temperament. His aura was too strong, which directly affected Tom. This was a terrible thing. After all, Tom was already a master of Major Perfection Innate Realm.

He was at the top of all people but was still vulnerable in front of God of War.

It seemed that the gap between the Innate Realm and the Immortal Realm was even greater than he had imagined.

Fortunately, Tom was not affected too much. He had recovered to normal almost in seconds. A calm smile returned to his face and he said, "God of War, please."

Seeing that he was able to recover so quickly, God of War showed a little appreciation. He nodded secretly and appreciated Tom more.

He had seen a lot of talented young people, but it was the first time he had seen someone as calm and sedate as Tom. After all, most of the geniuses were arrogant, and after making some achievements, they became smug. But Tom didn't.

"Tom, you go first." God of War also smiled, and then signaled Tom to play first as he was the guest.

Tom didn't refuse, because he knew that God of War must be skilled at Chess, even better than professional players. Because the higher the cultivation, the higher the development of the brain. In theory, when someone reached the Immortal Realm, his or her brain was developed at least 50%.

And Tom only reached 30%.

Tom held a white stone and quickly put it down. He soon calmed down and focused on playing chess with God of War.

Seeing Tom focused so quickly, God of War was even more satisfied. He didn't hesitate and immediately picked up the black stone.

Tom was good at playing Chess. When he was young, he played it almost every day. He was as good as professional players.

However, after he married into the Scotts, he almost never played. At most, he played a few rounds online in the office of ZQ Media when he was leisure. He found that the so-called masters on the internet were very mediocre. They were not his opponents at all. He then lost interest and did not play anymore.

So he had not played for a long time. Generally speaking, his skills would definitely be rusty, but it wasn't. Because he was a Major Perfection Innate Realm master, and the development of his brain was much better than that of ordinary people.

At first, they all played quickly. In just two minutes, half of the board was occupied.

Because their speed was too fast, the people next to them were unable to see clearly. Especially for Joseph, it was beyond his reaction. He had to admit that Tom and God of War were both great masters.

However, no matter how fast their brains worked, they had their limits. Their speed gradually began to slow down. Tom frowned unconsciously.

In fact, from the first move, Tom began to calculate. He had to think of dozens of steps before he made a move. Literally, even the most advanced artificial intelligence might not beat him.

However, as he played, he found that he could not defeat God of War. And unknowingly, he had fallen into a disadvantage.

Moreover, God of War's style was particularly fierce. It was like a long sword aimed straight at his fortress.

God of War's every move was filled with a fierce aura, and also with the power of the whole country. It was especially terrifying. Tom only felt that every move he took was against a country.

Since he was young, he had played more than a thousand games of Chess, and even played with the world's champion at that time. His level of Chess was at least world-class. Especially when he reached the Major Perfection Innate Realm, his skills were even more exquisite. But he still couldn't compare with God of War.

However, he did not admit defeat. He continued to concentrate on playing with God of War under great pressure. There was a tenacity in him to not admit defeat.

This was also an important factor that he made such an achievement.

Twenty minutes later, Tom began to sweat on his forehead. Moreover, the temperature on his skin was extremely high. The sweat came out of his forehead and was soon evaporated by the heat of his skin.

At this moment, he was like a computer running at high speed and radiating heat crazily.

Tom was so concentrated that he did not notice that Joseph, who was standing beside him, looked at him with surprise and respect.

God of War was also frowning deeply.

Although he was not sweating all over, it was obvious that God of War had met his opponent. He needed to think a long time before taking any step.

Joseph had known God of War for at least 30 years and had never seen God of War played so difficultly before.

From this, it could be told that Tom was not only good at cultivating, but also very good at thinking.
