

Chapter 671

As time went by, the Chess match between Tom and the God of War was getting more and more fierce, even turning white-hot. Everyone present could play Chess, so they could naturally feel the tension.

Chess could be said to be the most difficult chess game in the world. There was a big gap between people of different levels.

Even the world's number one Chess master would feel ashamed to see the game between God of War and Tom.

Their brain's computing power, to some extent, surpassed that of a computer.

Another hour passed, Tom could only feel that 90% of his physical strength had been consumed, and his whole body was covered with sweat which was evaporated by the high temperature.

Although God of War was not as miserable as he was, he was no better than Tom. He also sweated a lot. Every step took him a lot of time.

Ever since he entered the stage of the Immortal Realm, no one had forced him to this point, Tom was the first.

As God of War of H Country, he had the good fortune of the country. He had just deliberately used the go game to make the world and put the strength of a country on Tom. It could be said that Tom was fighting against the good fortune of a country, which was extremely difficult.

The masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm would break down and he wouldn't recover for a year and a half.

But Tom didn't break down, but he held on. It was rare. Albert couldn't help but think highly of him. It was the first time he had seen a young man like Tom.

In his game, Tom was a grass-root, waving his arms high, showing his unwillingness to surrender, starting to revolt, and rolling bigger and bigger, and he had the strength to resist the country.

Another hour passed. On the chessboard, there were black and white pieces. Each had something of the other. There were all kinds of fights and dangers among it. The people who watched the game could not help but feel shocked.

Finally, when Tom put down one piece, God of War's body trembled slightly. There was a shock in his eyes and he looked up at Tom.

Now, there was a huge wave in his heart, because he lost.

The piece Tom put blocked all his way out.

Albert had been playing Chess for decades and he had never lost. Today, he was beaten by the young man in front of him.

"Senior God of War, it's your turn." Tom said with a smile.

Albert shook his head and said, "No need. I've lost."

He said this with boundless emotion. The people around him, after hearing his words, were dumbfounded and extremely shocked. What was going on? God of War lost?

Joseph opened his eyes wide, carefully observing the chess game with all his might. But he did not find out how God of War lost. It seemed that God of War gained the upper hand. The white pieces were surrounded by black ones, no way out.

Tom said, "Senior God of War, how do you know you lose before you play?"

God of War was slightly stunned. Was there any chance of winning?

He quickly calmed down and looked at the game carefully. He found that there was no way out. However, Tom still needed a few more steps to end the game. He thought about it and decided to continue.

He put down another piece.

This time, it showed his perseverance.

Tom smiled and soon put down one piece. With this one, the game immediately changed again.

He immediately looked up at Tom. Soon, he saw the magnanimity and sincerity in Tom's eyes. He burst out laughing.

"It's fun."

Everyone was stunned. They didn't understand God of War he suddenly laughed, which didn't like him.

Tom smiled and breathed a sigh of relief. He saved his life this time.

Joseph was confused. He said, "Albert, why are you laughing? Have you won?"

God of War stopped smiling and nodded, "Yes, I won. But Tom didn't lose either."

Hearing he called Tom, Joseph's eyes flashed, and couldn't help but feel surprised. They had been good friends for many years, Joseph knew very well that what he meant by calling Tom. It meant that Tom had been recognized by Albert.

Just because of a game of go?

Not only him, but also the thirty or so masters of the Inner Realm, who were present, felt shocked and they couldn't help but envy Tom. It was a great honor to be recognized by God of War.

Tom was also surprised, but he quickly came to his senses. Inevitably, he was flattered.

In fact, just now, he seemed to play go with God of War. But in fact, God of War was testing him, testing his patriotism.

He soon understood. So, he responded to God of War with his own actions, telling God of War that he was not a mediocre person but a genius with his own strength.

However, no matter how talented he was, it didn't mean that he was rebellious. Finally, when he took the God of War's nest, he took a step back, telling God of War that he had no intention to rebel against the country before, now, and never.

God of War was smart, and he immediately understood Tom's thoughts.

God of War waved his hand and motioned others to go out. After a while, only Tom, God of War, and Joseph were left in the yard.

"Tom, you're smart. I won't beat around the bush with you. What was your purpose for the thing last time?" God of War asked directly.

Tom was not surprised. He answered truthfully, "To be honest, I was trying to save my wife."

"What? Is your wife with a terminal illness?" God of War asked.

"Exactly." Then Tom told him all about Phoebe.

After hearing this, Joseph sighed and said, "So you took the risk to rob the Colorful Fruit of Essence to save your wife?"

Tom said with a bitter smile, "I have no choice, or my wife won't be able to live. Shifu, I'm sorry, I was too self-righteous. I disobeyed the military order. Please punish me!"

Tom was a smart man who knew when to stop. Even if God of War had forgiven him, Shifu didn't say anything. So, he would not be complacent. He had to quickly admit that he was wrong to Shifu.

Joseph did not answer immediately. Instead, he looked at Tom with bright eyes. After a while, he said, "Death is not a crime to escape. You disobeyed the military order. It's a serious crime. However, I can spare your life for what you have done for the organization, but you have to make amends for your crimes by good deeds, do you understand?"

There was no reason for Tom not to agree. He quickly stood up straight and saluted, "I understand. I will make amends."

Chapter 672

Tom finally escaped the disaster.

In the end, not only did Joseph not pursue Tom's responsibility, but he also promoted Tom, which was something that Tom did not expect.

However, Tom knew that this matter was definitely not that simple. After all, he committed a big crime this time. Even if he was a genius and the God of War and Joseph appreciated him very much, he still had to receive punishment.

So even if Joseph promoted him, it had no practical effect at all, and Tom's salary was deducted for three years.

Of course, three years' salary didn't matter to him at all. He just pretended to be sad.

Anyway, he was already satisfied with the result.

He spent the night here, and the next morning, he got up early. He found that in the yard, there was a slim short-haired woman, wearing a military uniform, who looked particularly bright and brave. Moreover, Tom found that this woman was actually a master of the Extrinsic Peak. In particular, she had a sense of nobility that no one else had. Tom knew that the short-haired woman must have a powerful background.

He walked out and was about to do some morning exercises. When the short-haired woman heard his movements, she immediately looked over and saw him. She raised her finger at him and said in an arrogant tone, "Come here and practice with me."

"Hmm?" Tom shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, I'm not a ladder player."

His words made the woman frown slightly and she said, "Just come over. Don't talk nonsense!"

Tom realized that she was also an unruly woman.

Tom was naturally not fond of such a woman. Of course, the background of the people who could appear in this courtyard must be very strong. Tom did not want to get into trouble, so he simply pretended not to hear her. He stood still and began to regulate the respiration.

At his level, the cultivation of the body was not so important. Regulating the respiration was the better way to cultivate.

But when he ignored her like this, the short-haired woman became even more unhappy. She frowned and scolded Tom directly, "Hey! I'll give you one last chance. Come here, or I'll be angry!"

Tom still ignored her and continued to regulate the respiration. He knew that the God of War would definitely be able to hear it because he was resting in the yard. Anyway, he didn't take the initiative to cause trouble.

Seeing that Tom still dared to ignore her, the short-haired woman was really angry. She snorted heavily and said that he was insane. Then she strode towards Tom and directly attacked Tom.

She slapped Tom in the face, fast and ruthless. If it were an ordinary person who was slapped like this, he would lose his hearing.

Tom also frowned. He was only here for a night. Why did he meet such a unruly princess? If he had known, he would have stayed in the room to regulate the respiration and waited for the God of War and Shifu to get up before coming out.

Tom did not deal with such a crazy girl. He easily dodged and said in a low voice, "I am not a soldier here. If you need a ladder player, find someone else."

The short-haired woman let out a cry. Obviously, she did not expect that Tom would be able to avoid her slap. She immediately snorted and said, "You're kinda capable. No wonder you are so bold and dare to ignore young master's words!"

What the hell, young master?

When Tom heard this, he was slightly stunned. Wasn't this a woman? How could she call herself "young master"?

Soon, Tom looked at the other party's chest.

It was plump.

Just as his gaze was caught by the short-haired woman, she became angry and shouted, "You're looking for death!"

Her attack was even more ferocious. She punched again and again, all in a murderous manner, in the direction of the most vulnerable place on Tom's body.

Tom frowned even more and said, "Enough. I'm Tom. I'm here to look for the God of War and Shifu. I'm not your men. Please stop now."

"Shut up! You rascal, how dare you meet the God of War and my grandfather?!" The short-haired woman shouted.

When Tom heard this, his head ached even more. This time, it was really troublesome. The short-haired woman in front of him had a frightening background!

So she was Joseph's granddaughter.

Why did he provoke such a jinx suddenly?

"I'm not lying to you. I really came to see the God of War and Shifu. Stop it so as not to wake the God of War and your grandfather." Tom had no choice but to say gently, because this unruly princess had such a strong background.

However, the woman did not accept his kindness at all. Instead, she was very annoyed because she was unable to hit him. She said, "Oh, you have some skills. Not bad, not bad."

Tom couldn't persuade her. He deliberately made a big noise, but no one appeared in the yard, which made him very angry. What did they want to do?

"Hey, that's enough. If you irritate me, I'll fight back!" Tom said threateningly.

However, his words made her even more excited. Her eyes lit up and she said, "Okay! I haven't found an opponent for a long time. You can attack me!"

Tom, "..."

He was speechless. How dare a girl at the Extrinsic Peak say that she couldn't find a match?

Yesterday, he saw with his own eyes that there were more than 30 masters of the Innate Realm here. Which one couldn't crush her?

However, he also saw that this woman was a lunatic, and she was too confident in her own strength, thinking that no one else in the world was her match except the God of War.

Anyway, he had already given in enough and made enough noise, but the God of War and Shifu did not come out, which meant that they acquiesced.

Tom's mind flashed. Maybe it was that the God of War and Shifu wanted him to break the woman's spirits?

Maybe that was true.

So he snorted and said, "Since you won't stop, don't blame me for being rude."

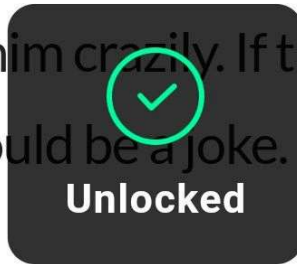

To him, dealing with a woman of the Extrinsic Peak was no different from teasing a child. He just acted casually, but the woman was pressed down so hard that she couldn't breathe.

Originally, Tom thought that if he showed some strength to crush her, she would definitely retreat.

However, not only did she not retreat, but the light in her eyes was brighter, and she said excitedly, "You're a decent opponent. Ha ha, show your full strength and attack me!"

Chapter 673

Tom was speechless. He was a top master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, and he actually fought with a girl who just reached the Extrinsic Peak. This girl was still shouting at him crazily. If this thing was spread, it would be a joke.

Now Tom even wondered if Shifu thought that he had let Tom go too easily, so he especially found an unruly princess to deal with Tom today.

Tom felt it disturbing. If it was another woman, he would just teach her a lesson. But this was Shifu's granddaughter, Tom didn't dare to act recklessly even he had ten guts.

"That's enough. I'm the master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. You're on the same level as me. Stop!" Tom slightly increased his momentum and warned the other party.

However, the other party didn't believe it at all and said with disdain, "The Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm? Don't lie to me! Lie down!"

As she spoke, she attacked even more fiercely. She especially kicked Tom's penis several times. She was so fierce that she made Tom a little angry.

"Shifu, Senior God of War, if you don't come out, I'll only offend you!" Tom said in a deep voice. He knew that God of War and Shifu must know.

However, as he finished speaking, there was still no response as if they were ignoring him.

At this moment, the short-haired woman started to get close to him again and said, "You're a big man. Why are you so afraid of death? What a shame! Take it!"

After saying that, she immediately launched a fierce attack on Tom. It had to be said that she really had some skills with reaching the Extrinsic Peak. Tom might not have been able to beat her if he hadn't reached the Innate Realm.

This was a woman with good martial arts talent, but her temper was too bad, her personality was too self-righteous, and she was used to being unruly, not caring about other people's feelings at all.

A clay man even had a temper, not to mention Tom. He was at least the most powerful master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. He was absolutely invincible because he reached the Immortal Realm. He also had the dignity of a strong person. Now he was provoked repeatedly by a girl who reached the Extrinsic Peak. If he didn't take any action, what kind of strong person would he be?

He stepped back more than ten meters and stared at her seriously. He said in a deep voice, "Enough. My patience is limited. I'm not your training partner, nor your servant. You..."

However, before Tom could finish his sentence, the other party pounced on him and said disdainfully, "Shut up! Beat me if you can, or stop speaking!"

Damn!

Tom was really angry. He had given the other party a lot of chances.

"In that case, don't blame me for offending you!" After saying that, he began to move, almost to the extreme speed. The short-haired woman only felt a fit of dizziness. When she came back to her senses, Tom had come to her with his fist in front of her forehead. "I told you that you are no a match for me."

The short-haired woman was stunned and shouted in her heart. It was so fast. She was not stupid. Now she naturally realized that Tom's Kung Fu was far stronger than hers. But she didn't have any intention of retreating. Instead, she became even more excited. "You're really a master. But I like it more!"

She was not afraid and attacked Tom again.

Tom was confused. What kind of person was she? Was she so unreasonable? She knew that she was no a match for him, but she still kept attacking.

"Hey, are you sick? I told you that you're no a match for me." Tom was even angrier.

"Cut the crap. Beat me down if you can, or I won't let you go." The short-haired woman's tone was insolent and full of excitement as if she had found a treasure.

It was the first time Tom had seen such a person. He didn't know she was heedless of consequences or was unreasonable.

However, Tom knew that if he didn't teach the other party a lesson, the other party wouldn't stop.

"Well, in that case, don't blame me for being rude." Tom's aura changed again. He reached out and pressed the shorthaired woman's shoulder, making her body go down and unable to move.

The short-haired woman's eyes were wide open now, and she looked at Tom in surprise. That expression clearly showed that she did not expect Tom to actually dare to attack her.

Lexie was indeed very surprised. She was a bully in the courtyard. Her own grandfather was Joseph, also known as Albert and God of War. His identity could be said to be very striking. No one in the courtyard dared to bully her, but she was the one who bullied others.

As for those masters of the Innate Realm, every one of them had been her training partner, and every one of them had been beaten by her. Of course, it wasn't that they couldn't beat her, but they didn't dare to. They could only hug their heads and be beaten. It was also because of this that she was very arrogant. She thought that the masters of the Innate Realm were just so so.

Now, how could she not be surprised that Tom dared to hit her and made her unable to move?

But after the surprise, she was even more excited. She looked at Tom with her eager eyes, which made Tom's scalp numb.

"Very good, very good. How dare you attack me!"

She was not angry but continued to attack Tom.

When Tom saw her like this, he really felt a headache. In his eyes, the short-haired woman was like an ant on the ground, constantly shouting at him. She was also very confident and not afraid of death. But he couldn't trample the ant to death, which made him very uncomfortable.

"It was you who forced me!" Tom snorted again. Then, a powerful aura emanated from him and oppressed the short-haired woman.

Although Tom did not release all of his momenta, it couldn't be underestimated. If it was other masters of the Extrinsic Peak who were here, they would be so scared that they did not dare to move. However, the short-haired woman in front of him only paused for a moment, wasn't affected, and continued to attack Tom.

Tom was quite surprised that the other party actually ignored his imposing manner. It seemed that her psychological quality was strong.

But it was normal. As a person of such noble origin, she had been surrounded by the big shots since she was young. Over time, her psychological quality naturally surpassed that of ordinary people.

But he felt it more disturbing.

When Tom was in a daze, the shorthaired woman had already punched him in the chest. He did not feel any pain, but the pendant on his chest was broken!

In an instant, his face changed and was sullen!

He was really angry. That pendant was given to him by Phoebe, and it had a special meaning, but now it was broken by this crazy girl!

"You've gone too far. If I don't teach you a lesson, you will keep being so unreasonable!" Tom snorted coldly, and then he attacked again. This time, he did not show any mercy. He attacked back directly, grabbed the short-haired woman's foot, then lifted Lexie up with one hand and let her stood on her head.

Tom's move finally made Lexie panic. She was a woman. It was too indecent to be picked up like this.

Chapter 674

Tom knew it was not decent, but he had no way out. He would not have done so at other times.

"Hey, you rascal, let go of me!" Lexie cursed loudly. She was embarrassed and scared.

She had never been treated like this since she grew up. It was shameful.

Tom didn't let her go immediately. He didn't know if what she would do after letting her go. "I've warned you many times. You made me do so."

Somewhere in the yard, God of War-Albert and Shifu-Joseph had already been there. They had seen what happened in the yard through surveillance cameras. And now, they saw that Tom was holding Lexie's foot in one hand and hanging her up. The scene was very funny and indecent. Fortunately, Lexie was not wearing a dress, or else it would be even more awkward.

God of War said, "Tom goes too far. How dare he treat Lexie like this?"

Joseph snorted and said, "I don't think so. She asked for it. Tom was nice enough to her."

Seeing that Joseph did not vent his anger on Tom, God of War heaved a sigh of relief and asked, "Shall we go out now?"

Joseph shook his head and said, "Wait a moment. She'd better learn a lesson, or she will think that she is the best in the world. Last month, just because I criticized her, this girl pulled out a few of my beards while I was sleeping, which hurts me so much."

God of War was obviously shocked when he heard this. No wonder he thought Joseph's beards were a little strange. It turned out that his granddaughter pulled them off.

He could imagine that Joseph must have been furious at the scene, but there was nothing he could do about it.

That made God of War chuckle.

Joseph snorted, "This girl finally meets someone who can teach her a lesson!"

He said so, but he was still a little worried.

While Tom was also worried after hanging Lexie up. If Joseph found out about how he treated Lexie, he would definitely be angry.

But he did not regret it. He said in a deep voice, "Apologize to me. And I'll let you go."

While Lexie was very stubborn. She gritted her teeth and said, "Don't think about it. You can try not to put me down for the rest of your life. You want me to apologize to you? Impossible!"

Hearing this, Tom was sure that this girl was Shifu's granddaughter.

However, she was so unruly that she didn't fit the tenderness of her name at all.

"Then I hang here!" Tom was irritated. He had embarrassed her anyway, and it couldn't be worse.

Hanging like this, Lexie's clothes were falling down, revealing her belly. This made her feel even more ashamed and annoyed. She struggled hard, but her strength was not on the same level as Tom's.

So no matter how hard she tried, it was still useless. She was now like a bat, hanging from the eaves.

And what's worse was that after hanging for a while, blood went down and made her face turn red and she gasped, "Let go of me! I, the young master, am going to fight you!"

Tom was amused by her. A girl called herself the young master?

"Apologize." That was all Tom said.

"Don't think about it!" Lexie was very stubborn. She grabbed Tom's foot and bit it directly.

Tom shouted out and scolded, "Hey, are you a dog?"

Lexie was not ashamed at all. Instead, she was very happy. She snorted and said, "This is what happens after you offend me. Hey, I'm warning you. Let go of me, or you'll get in trouble!"

Tom did not dare to kick her away, so he could only step back and avoid her bite.

Now Tom had a headache too. He was completely sure that God of War and Shifu knew about this, but they didn't show up. They were watching him teach this girl a lesson.

Why did he run into such a thing? He felt unlucky.

Another minute passed, and Lexie felt even more uncomfortable. Her face turned red, and she even started to have tinnitus. Her words were not as fluent as it had been at first, but she still threatened Tom fiercely. "You bastard, let me go. If you have the guts, let me go. Aren't you ashamed for doing this to me?"

Lexie was getting more and more uncomfortable now. What was worse was her belly was exposed a lot, and even the strip she used to wrap her chest loosened. And she was afraid her chest would be exposed. How embarrassed she was then.

"Apologize. Then I'll let you go." Tom said.

Lexie was so angry that she gritted her teeth. She had never apologized to anyone in her life. Even she pulled out her grandfather Joseph's beard last month, she didn't apologize. How could she be willing to apologize to a subordinate?

Because she had shouted a little loudly just now, and it was getting late. She heard that someone came closer. It sounded like there was more than one person.

When Lexie heard the sound, she became even more flustered. How embarrassed she would be if someone saw her like this!

Tom frowned slightly. He was thinking about letting Lexie go.

"Don't come in!" Lexie shouted to the outside of the courtyard. Unfortunately, because she had been hung upside down for too long, even if she wanted to shout loudly, she couldn't. Instead, she choked herself. She looked especially embarrassed.

At this moment, the door was opened, and Miguel and a dozen others came in. Then, they saw the scene in the yard. Suddenly, their eyes widened, and they were so astonished.

"What the hell..."

It suddenly got awkward.

And Tom was also very embarrassed. He was a top Major Innate Perfection Realm master. It was embarrassing for him to hang a woman like this.

Lexie was even more unbearable. She screamed out, "Get out, get out!"

Miguel and the others shivered when they heard her voice. They immediately left, closed the door, and kept saying, "I didn't see anything. I didn't see anything..."

Tom was speechless.

He lowered his head and saw that Lexie's face had turned red like a monkey's butt. He shook his head and didn't bother to quarrel with her. "I can let you go, but you have to promise not to go crazy again."

Chapter 675

Tom already gave in, but this girl kept going against him and scolded, "I don't want to come down now. I don't believe you dare to hang me forever! Hmph!"

What was going on with this woman? Why did she look dissatisfied after he decided to let her go?

Tom was stunned.

At first, he thought this woman was pretending to be stubborn, but now he thought she was serious.

For a moment, Tom had a headache and felt that he was in big trouble.

It was obvious that this woman was in a tough situation, but she still didn't admit defeat. It looked like she was going to keep going against him, which really made Tom annoyed.

Well, he was going to admit defeat and didn't bother to argue with this crazy girl.

Tom let her go and said, "Okay, I'll let you go, and you stop fighting against me. We..."

However, Tom had just let go of Lexie. Before he could finish his sentence, he saw that after she landed, she adjusted herself and immediately launched an attack on Tom. She was completely unreasonable.

"Hey, you!" Tom was dumbfounded.

Why would she do this?

Moreover, Lexie's gnashing of teeth made Tom scared because it seemed that she wanted to eat him alive.

"Bastard, you dare to hang me, I won't let you go. Either you die or me today!" Lexie said through gritted teeth.

Tom was really confused and helpless now. What was going on here? How did he provoke such a crazy woman? If it was anyone else, he would just beat her up. However, she was Joseph's granddaughter, so he couldn't hurt her at all. He felt terrible.

Fortunately, at this moment, a scolding voice came from the room beside. "Lexie, what are you doing? Stop it!"

It was Joseph, who appeared with Albert, the God of War, with a grim face and a helpless look. He planned to use Tom's hand to knock Lexie down to size and let her know that there were numerous superior masters, but he didn't expect this girl to be so arrogant. She wasn't even afraid of Tom, the master of the Major Perfection Realm.

Tom was a smart guy. He could tell at a glance that Lexie was not some ordinary person and he didn't dare to offend her, so Joseph had to show up.

When Lexie saw her grandfather come out, she was not afraid at all. She snorted and did not stop, continuing to attack Tom, obviously not taking her grandfather's words seriously.

This made Joseph feel embarrassed but helpless.

In the end, Albert coughed and said, "Lexie, stop. This man works for me."

Hearing Albert's order, Lexie stopped and even smiled, "Yes, sir."

And then she deliberately glared at Joseph. Obviously, she had seen through her grandfather, but Joseph was furious.

This girl was getting more and more presumptuous.

Tom breathed a sigh of relief. They finally showed up. If they didn't come out, he would really run away without saying goodbye.

He greeted Albert and Joseph and said, "Mr. God of War, Shifu, it's getting late. I have to go back."

Albert said, "Won't you leave after lunch?"

Tom muttered in his heart, how dare he stay for lunch with this troublemaker? However, on the surface, he wouldn't say so. Instead, he shook his head and smiled, "No, thanks. I have unfinished business waiting for me in H City."

Albert could tell what Tom was thinking, so he didn't force him. He nodded and said, "Since that's the case, I won't keep you here."

After he said goodbye to Joseph, Tom was about to leave when Lexie, who had been silent for a long time, said,

"I'm going to H City with you."

What the hell?

Tom's heart skipped a beat and was shocked. With Albert and Joseph around, he did not dare to argue with this crazy girl, so he looked at Joseph for help.

"Lexie, what nonsense are you talking about? Why are you going to H City with Tom?" Joseph scolded with a serious face.

However, Lexie was not afraid of him at all. She straightened up and said, "He's a master. I want to train with him. Y City is not fun at all."

Because she was Joseph's granddaughter, no one in Y City dared to offend her. Tom was the first one who dared to scold her and even hit her. How could she let him go?

Joseph said, "Come on, Tom has something important to do. He won't have time to accompany you. Stay in Y City!"

"No, I'm going to H City with him today, and I heard that there are many powerful masters in H City, and I'm going to challenge them!" Lexie said proudly.

Tom was stunned. How dare she say that she wanted to challenge these masters with her poor martial arts?

He clenched his fists and said, "Mr. God of War, Shifu, since there's nothing else here, I'll leave first!"

After saying that, he quickly turned around and left. If he really brought this crazy girl with him, he would be annoyed to death.

But just as he left, Lexie immediately followed him, saying, "Don't you dare to leave me behind!"

Tom pretended not to hear her. When he came out of the courtyard, he would disappear. He didn't believe that Lexie could catch up with him.

At this moment, Albert said, "Ross, if Lexie follows Tom, she might get some experience."

Joseph was stunned. He reacted quickly. From Albert's eyes, Joseph saw that he was serious.

So he immediately called Tom, "Tom, hold on."

Tom felt upset, so he pretended not to hear and continued walking.

Joseph was stunned again. He did not expect Tom to pretend not to hear him.

At this moment, Albert also said, "Tom, please hold on."

Albert spoke so loudly that Tom could not pretend not to hear him. Otherwise, it was disrespect. He could only sigh in his heart and turn around and say, "Mr. God of War, how can I help?"

Albert smiled and said, "Why don't you bring Lexie with you? Give her a tour in H City and give her some instructions about her cultivation."

Joseph nodded and agreed.

Tom didn't want to agree at all. He shook his head and said, "Mr. God of War, it's not that I won't take Miss Ross with me, but that I can't. My wife is bad-tempered. If she finds out that I take a woman with me back to H City, she'll punish me."

Chapter 676

After saying this, Tom silently apologized. Under special circumstances, he could only use Phoebe as an excuse.

Sure enough, after hearing his words, Albert and Joseph also felt helpless. Since that was the case, there was no other way. Although they were superiors, they could not force Tom as it was his private things.

Lexie, on the other hand, widened her eyes in surprise and said, "How do you know that I am a woman?!"

She felt stunned now. It seemed that it was unbelievable that Tom could tell her real gender.

Tom, "..."

Albert and Joseph couldn't help but feel awkward. Joseph coughed twice, feeling rather embarrassed.

Tom was speechless. This girl had always thought that she was well disguised, and no one could tell.

Did she think she was a man as she cut her hair short?

Tom cooperated with her and looked surprised, "Are you a man?"

Lexie nodded hard, straightened her chest, and said proudly, "Yes, I'm a man. A man like you!"

After that, she patted her chest as if she was a tough guy.

Seeing her action, Tom really felt embarrassed. He quickly looked away. He had seen a lot of simple-minded people, but it was the first time he had seen such a simple-minded one like Lexie.

"Eh-hem!" Joseph was so angry with Lexie that he coughed a few times and scolded, "Lexie, what are you doing! Is everyone in the world as stupid as you?"

Lexie looked surprised. Could it be that her camouflage skills were not good enough and she was seen through easily? But she already tried her best.

Tom was really too embarrassed to stay any longer. He said goodbye to Albert and Joseph. If he continued staying here, he didn't know how much embarrassing things Lexie would do.

"Hey, don't run so fast. Wait for me." Lexie immediately chased after Tom again. But this time, how could Tom give her a chance? He quickly walked out of the courtyard. When he got out of the courtyard, he disappeared directly.

Lexie ran out, but she couldn't see Tom anymore. She was so angry that she stamped her foot fiercely and scolded, "He actually ran away, damn it!"

But immediately, a treacherous smile appeared on her face. She muttered to herself, "Humph, do you think you can run away? I know you're in H City.

Sooner or later, I'll get you!"

With this thought, she felt happy again.
She looked like a little girl who found a fun toy.

Tom left and he was relieved to see that Lexie did not come after him. But immediately, he was depressed as he knew that with Lexie's capability, she could find him easily as long as she wanted to.

And if such an unruly princess really ran to H City and pestered him, he would be in trouble. It would be hard for him to get rid of her.

If he had known it, he wouldn't have come out for morning exercises today, and then nothing would have happened.

Miguel was going to send him back in person, but Tom refused. After all, Miguel was a high-ranking officer. It was inappropriate for Xie to be Tom's driver. And Miguel said this as Xie wanted to show the politeness. If Tom really let Miguel send him back, Tom was not a man with EQ.

And it was easier for Tom to go back on his own. After booking the tickets online, he didn't rush back. Instead, he strolled around Y City to experience Y City's charm.

Different cities had different auras and charms. If H City was a successful businessman, then Y City was a powerful ruler. The whole Y City exuded a sense of nobility.

At Tom's realm, spiritual cultivation was often much more important than physical cultivation.

When Tom arrived in Y City, he felt the charm of Y City. He felt that he was sublimated.

In the evening, he returned to H City. The moment he got off the plane, he felt something else.

Ordinary people could not feel this kind of change. Only when they reached the realm of Tom could they feel it deeply.

Tom believed that when he was at God of War's realm, he would feel the change even more clearly.

"I'll be at Immortal Realm soon!" Tom muttered to himself and clenched his fists, his eyes filled with confidence.

This time he didn't tell anyone that he went back. He just told Phoebe, but he told Phoebe not to pick him up. It was too troublesome.

Tom didn't tell Malcolm and Elliot. Otherwise, with their personalities, they would definitely arrange a motorcade to welcome him. He didn't want to be so high-profile.

When Tom went back to the Dragon Bay, it was already eleven o'clock in the evening. It was quite late. His mother-in-law and father-in-law had fallen asleep. But Phoebe's room still had the lights turned on. Tom looked over from afar and knew that Phoebe was waiting for him. He immediately felt warm in his heart.

It felt good to have someone at home waiting for you.

When he got back, Phoebe was especially happy to see him. When she learned that he had solved everything without being punished and he was promoted, she was finally relieved and relaxed.

Although she did not say anything these days, she had been worried about Tom all the time. At this moment, she was relieved of her burden and she put on a heartfelt smile.

Seeing that Phoebe was sleeping soundly, Tom smiled with satisfaction and happiness. He kissed her lips gently, and then went to take a cold shower.

A few days passed. Tom had been living a regular life these days. Most of the time, he was by Phoebe's side. After dealing with the Scotts's problems, everything was back on track.

But he had always been worried about his mother. How was she now?

He was about to get his mother back.....

Unlike Tom, who was relaxed, Leyla now was anxious.

Ever since the day of the class reunion, she had been on pins and needles and couldn't fall asleep for several days.

She could not figure out why Tom had suddenly become so powerful. As she investigated, she was getting more and more frightened. And at the same time, she felt something burning in her heart.

Chapter 677

Tom didn't know what Leyla was thinking. Even if he knew, he wouldn't care. To him, Leyla was just a nobody and couldn't affect his life at all.

But Lexie made him headache. He hoped that crazy girl wouldn't come to H City to find him personally, or else it would be troublesome!

In the past few days, he had almost stayed at home. He was about to report to the Military Intelligence 3.

Anyway, the Military Intelligence 3 was good to him, and he still had to explain it, or else it would make them sad.

Returning to the Military Intelligence

3, Tom could clearly feel that the atmosphere was not the same as before, a little more solemn and desolate, as if they were experiencing something important.

"Military territory, idle people stop!"

As soon as Tom approached the Military Intelligence 3 base, he was stopped by several guards at the door.

They stood straight, looked serious, and their faces looked young. It was obvious that they were new recruits to the Military Intelligence 3, so they didn't know Tom.

Tom smiled and said, "I'm instructor Tom of the Fourth Group. I'm here to report."

However, when these recruits heard his words, they didn't take it to heart. They thought he was joking and shouted, "Nonsense. The instructor of the Fourth Group is Chen Soong. Who are you? How dare you impersonate the instructor of the Military Intelligence 3!"

The recruit frowned and looked fierce. He looked indeed imposing.

Tom was quite emotional. He didn't expect that the Military Intelligence 3 wouldn't know him after he hadn't been back in a month. Just as he was about to explain, one of the recruits stared straight at Tom and suddenly thought of something. He said excitedly, "I remember! Tom! He was a former instructor in the Fourth Group, and he committed a crime. He was kicked out of the Military Intelligence 3. I didn't expect him to be back today!"

When he said this, the other recruits also remembered. Their eyes were filled with fear and hostility as they looked at Tom. They held the guns in their hands tightly, pointed them at him subconsciously, and looked at Tom vigilantly.

Seeing their reaction, Tom felt quite helpless and said, "I came back to report this time. Let me in."

However, the recruits were eyeing Tom with hostility. "No! You're a sinner. We can't let you in!"

"No, we're going to arrest you!"

They looked at each other, and then they really attacked Tom and wanted to catch Tom.

Tom frowned slightly. Of course, he couldn't stand still and wait to be caught by these recruits. He moved quickly and dodged their encirclement, "Well, I'll go straight in."

"No, he's going to break in!"

"Tom, I order you to stop and raise your hands to surrender. Otherwise, don't blame us for shooting you!"

As they spoke, they really put their guns up and pointed them at Tom as if they were going to shoot at any time.

It could be seen that they were very afraid of Tom. Although they had just joined the Military Intelligence, they had also heard some comments about Tom. So in their minds, they thought Tom was a very scary person.

Tom frowned even more. He didn't expect that after a month, he would encounter such a thing when he came back to the Military Intelligence 3. Could it be that the whole of the Military Intelligence 3 thought he was a traitor?

At this moment, Tom felt something. He looked up and saw six people walking over quickly. They shouted, "Stop! What are you doing? Put the gun away!"

It was the Fourth Group. They immediately rushed over and ordered them to stop.

"Class monitor, isn't this person a sinner of the Military Intelligence 3?"

"Yes, class monitor. He disobeyed the military order. Aren't we going to arrest him?"

When the six people in the Fourth Group heard this, their expressions were complicated. They looked at Tom and one of them said, "Tom, why are you back?"

This man was Dax, who used to worship Tom very much. Under Tom's guidance, his strength had increased a lot. However, after what Tom did at that time, his feelings for Tom became complicated.

Not only him, but also the other five.

Tom also realized it. He said, "I came back to look for Director Pence this time."

Dax thought for a moment and whispered to Tom, "Tom, I think you'd better not come back. You're wanted now. Especially for the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, if they knew you were back, they would definitely come and arrest you."

The other five soldiers looked at Tom with the same expression.

Tom smiled and said, "Don't worry. I've already cleared my name. I came back this time to report to Director Pence."

"Ah? Really?" Dax and the others were stunned and excited.

"Of course it's true. When have I ever lied to you?" Tom smiled.

"That's great!"

With Dax and the others' guarantee, the recruits did not dare to stop Tom anymore and let him go.

As soon as Tom returned, the news spread quickly in the Military Intelligence 3. Many people ran out. When they saw that Tom really appeared, they were shocked.

"Wow! It's really Tom!"

"But isn't Tom dead? How can he come back?"

"I've told you, a man as powerful as Tom would not die so easily. You don't believe me."

"Humph, so what if he comes back? Do you think he can escape the punishment of the military law? He disobeyed the military order and stole the Colorful Fruit of Essence. He might be fine if he didn't come back. Now that he's back, he must be sentenced to the military court! What awaits him will be a lifetime in prison!"

Everyone was in a heated discussion. Tom's return made the Military Intelligence 3, which had been desolate, suddenly become active again.

Soon, the news reached the ears of Thorn, Marlin and other senior management. When they heard it, they were shocked. They immediately left their work and walked out.

When they came out and saw Tom, they were also stunned, not knowing what to say for a moment.

Instead, Tom seemed very generous and took the initiative to say hello. "Director Sunn, Marlin, long time no see."

"Tom, you..." Thorn came back to his senses, looked at Tom, and said, "Why are you back?"

Tom recognized what Thorn meant. He meant that Tom should not come back.

Marlin reacted the same way. Their feelings for Tom were quite complicated.

"What? I'm a member of the Military Intelligence 3. Can't I come back?" Tom teased.

Thorn looked at him and said heavily, "When you come back, you will be sentenced to a military court. The lightest sentence will be fifty years in prison."

Chapter 678

Tom burst into laughter.

Everyone frowned at him and wondered why he could still laugh. Was he trying to provoke anger? Or was he crazy?

Marlin said in a deep voice, "Tom, you're a sinner who are wanted all over the country. You shouldn't be here, because we're going to arrest you."

As his voice fell, everyone in the room began to move, forming a circle around Tom. They were ready to attack Tom at any time and arrest Tom!

Even Thorn had a very grim expression now. Even if he liked Tom, there was no room for discussion on this matter. According to the duty of the soldiers, he had to arrest Tom!

Tom should be sent to the military court for trial.

Dax and the others were stunned when they saw this. He said quickly, "What are you doing? Tom said that he had been cleared. You don't have to arrest him!"

Thorn shook his head and said, "I didn't receive the order from Shifu. Tom is still a sinner."

Marlin said, "Tom, since we are all colleagues, we don't want to fight with you here. You can arrest yourself. In the military court, we will try our best to plead for you."

Now the entire Military Intelligence 3 had come out, forming a huge encirclement. Tom was surrounded by three layers. Everyone had guns in their hands. No matter how powerful Tom was, he could not get away!

Seeing this situation, Tom was not too surprised. It was in his expectation and he also verified the idea. Although God of War and Shifu had let him go, there must be some tests.

Tom looked at them and said, "I've already met God of War and Shifu. Now I'm not a sinner. Didn't you get the order?"

Thorn and Marlin were obviously stunned when they heard this, and the others were equally surprised. Tom actually went to see the God of War and Shifu? God of War, in particular, was the anchor of H Country. He was the idol of the three armies. They couldn't even see him once!

"Tom, you're not lying, are you? Have you seen God of War and Shifu?" Thorn said in disbelief. He knew very well how powerful God of War was, and ordinary people could hardly see him! Besides, Tom was a sinner!

Tom didn't care to beat around the bush and told him what had happened that day, indicating that he had been cleared of the crime.

This matter was very unbelievable for them, but after Tom's explanation, they decided to believe him for the time being. Thorn immediately called his superiors to report Tom's return and verify whether what he had said was true.

After a while, it was verified, and they all became assured.

Tom didn't lie. He was really cleared. That was great!

Not long after, director Pence also came back. He was extremely happy to know that Tom had returned.

Especially when he learned that Tom had met God of War and Shifu directly, he was even more surprised. When he looked at Tom, his look became different!

"What? Tom has returned to the Military Intelligence 3?!"

Not long after, the Military Intelligence 2 got the news, and their executives were furious.

Redford and Shaw, in particular, were even ferocious and gnashing their teeth. They hated Tom so much!

They thought Tom was dead, but they didn't expect that he would dare to strut back. The most hateful thing was that the Military Intelligence 3 dared not arrest Tom!

Redford said, "Waylon, this Tom is way too arrogant and lawless! We can't let him go free like this. We must arrest him and send him to a military court!"

Shaw immediately followed, "Waylon, Old Redford is right. Tom disobeyed the military order and was bold enough to come back and hurt us all. It's a great sin. We can't let him off so easily!"

"And the Military Intelligence 3. They cover up sinners and break the law. We have to report it to Shifu to have them punished!"

"I think there's no need for the Military Intelligence 3 to exist. Look at how bad they are doing when it comes to foreign powers!"

In front of Redford and Shaw stood a tall, middle-aged man with a square face with stubble. He looked especially imposing and ruthless. He was just the director of the Military Intelligence 2, Waylon.

An absolute powerful master and Redford and Shaw's immediate superior.

His eyebrows were especially thick and black, as if they were drawn with a brush. They were raised at the end, which made him especially imposing.

In particular, the aura on his body was even more impressive. He just stood there, but it was as if the air in the room was stirred to spin around him.

He raised his hand gently. Immediately, Redford and Shaw did not dare to speak. They quickly shut up and waited for Waylon to speak.

"Did you say this Tom has reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and defeated all four of you?" Waylon said faintly, with something intriguing in his tone.

After Redford and Shaw heard this, they couldn't help but feel awkward. This was indeed a terrible thing for them.

But at this time, they had to admit it.

"That's interesting. It seems that the Colorful Fruit of Essence is very effective. It can make a person in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm break through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm in an instant. Moreover, I estimate that the origin of Tom's life has not been fully digested. Maybe it can make him break through to the Immortal Realm." Waylon's eyes revealed a trace of calculation.

After Redford and Shaw heard this, they gritted their teeth: they were envious and hateful.

Yes, if they were the ones who ate the Colorful Fruit of Essence, then they must be in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm by now. They might even get into the Immortal Realm!

Once they broke through to the Immortal Realm, they would be the number one in the world. From then on, they could conquer the whole world.

Redford gritted his teeth and said, "This Tom is born to be rebellious. When the time comes, he will break through to the Immortal Realm and he will definitely harm our people. We must kill him before that!"

Shaw agreed with Redford.

"Waylon, I beg you to personally take Tom back, send him to the military court, and sentence him to death!"

Waylon didn't answer immediately. Instead, he thought for a while before saying, "Wait and see what the Military Intelligence 1 has in mind."

At about the same time, the Military Intelligence 1 got the news and began to discuss it enthusiastically.

Their conclusion was similar to Waylon's. They thought that Tom could not be spared and reached an agreement.

Not long after, they agreed to set off for the Military Intelligence 3 together and decided to arrest Tom in person!

Chapter 679

Military Intelligence 3.

Tom had been back for two days, and his life seemed to have returned to the same pace as before. What was different was that Pence directly promoted him to the position of chief instructor of the Military Intelligence 3. In that case, even the Scout Team and Dragon Blood Team were under Tom's control.

Logically speaking, this was not in accordance with the rules, but there was no objection in the whole Military Intelligence 3.

In particular, when they saw that Marlin and Silas were not his match even when they fought together and were easily defeated, they were even more obedient to the decision. They even felt that it was an honor to be guided by Tom.

"No, no!"

In the conference room, a soldier rushed in with a panic expression.

"Why are you in such a panic?" Thorn scolded him immediately.

"Something bad happened. Director Sunn, the Military Intelligence 1, and Military Intelligence 2, they're here to arrest him!"

Thorn was slightly stunned when he heard this, "Make it clear. Have Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2 come to arrest him?"

The others in the conference room also frowned. The status of the three divisions was equal, and they were just responsible for different matters. How come Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 arrest people? Who would they arrest?

"Tom. They want to arrest Tom. They are coming at a fierce speed. We can't stop them."

Hearing this, the people in the conference room were shocked.

As soon as he finished speaking, the door of the conference room was pushed open and a group of people rushed in. The head was Waylon, followed by Redford, Shaw and others.

They were all masters.

Seeing this, even Pence's pupils began to constrict. He realized the seriousness of the matter!

After all, Waylon was the head of the Military Intelligence 2, leading the whole division. Besides, he was a top expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. He would not be easily deployed at ordinary times! Now that Waylon came to arrest Tom, it meant that he was bound to get Tom.

If it was just Redford and Shaw, Thorn still had the confidence to beat them, but with Waylon, he was not sure.

And what worried him most was whether Tom had lied to them. Did he not have his crime cleared? Perhaps that was why they came to arrest him.

In an instant, many thoughts flashed through his mind.

When the others saw Waylon, their faces darkened drastically, filled with fear and awe.

Waylon was also a legend.

Originally, people of the Military Intelligence 3 in the conference room were very angry when they saw these people barging in, but when they saw Waylon, their aggressiveness immediately weakened.

"Waylon, why are you rushing to my Military Intelligence 3 with a large group of people? It's against the rules!"

Pence stood up and said coldly.

Waylon did not answer him directly. Instead, he glanced across the conference room and did not see Tom. He frowned slightly and then stared at Pence, "I'm here to arrest someone. Hand over Tom."

He spoke in a commanding tone. Pence was of the same rank as him in the military, but he did not show respect to Pence. Instead, he was rather arrogant.

Pence said, "Waylon, you haven't informed me of you being here, yet you came to my Military Intelligence 3 to arrest someone. You're so arrogant!"

Waylon said impatiently, "Pence, I won't argue with you. Tom is a sinner and must be sent to court for trial. Your Military Intelligence 3 dares to protect him because you may have eaten the gall of a bear and don't know death is awaiting you all. I think we still have a friendship. I will not report this matter. But you should hand over Tom, the sinner, right now."

Redford also stepped forward and said with narrowed eyes, "Director Pence, you were also there that day in Lion Mountain. You saw what Tom did with your own eyes. That was an absolute felony. If you dare to protect him, be careful that the director's position is not guaranteed!"

Thorn said, "I think it's you who are bold. Tom has personally seen Shifu and God of War. He has been cleared of the crime, and you still arrest him in the name of a sinner? You don't take God of War and Shifu seriously!"

When Waylon heard this, he frowned slightly. He immediately looked at Redford as if questioning him. Redford immediately said, "Waylon, don't listen to their boasting. Tom is a sinner. How can he be cleared of the crime? Besides, how sacred is the God of War? Tom is nobody. How could he have seen God of War!"

If Tom was really acquitted and they still came to arrest him, even if it was not a crime, it was inevitable for them to lose face. Especially this time, Waylon came here himself, and they needed to be more cautious.

However, he had also been around to inquire about it in the past two days. He had not heard any news that Tom had been cleared of his crime, and even the arrest warrant was still there. Otherwise, he would not have come over like this.

"Pence, you just see that Tom is in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, which can guide your Military Intelligence 3 to rebuild its glory, but have you ever thought about whether you have the ability to save him?" Waylon said in a cold voice, full of authority, which made the atmosphere in the conference room even tenser.

Pence snorted heavily and said, "Waylon, do you think I'm a fool? If Tom didn't clear his name, how dare I cover for him? But you, the director of the Military Intelligence 2 and an expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, are actually doing public good for private and taking public revenge. If it is known by Shifu, I don't know what the result will be!"

Pence was a level lower than Waylon, but he was not afraid of him at all. He fought against Waylon and wanted to protect Tom.

He was not being impulsive, but he was trusting Tom according to his intelligence and judgment, although there was no clear order now that Tom was acquitted from the top. However, from a different perspective, the news of Tom's return was no longer a secret.

Shifu must have known about it, but Shifu did not send anyone to arrest Tom, which indirectly showed that Tom had been cleared of charges.

Waylon saw that Pence was so tough, and he became tough too. Anyway, he had already come over today. No matter what, he had to take Tom back. Even if Tom had been cleared of the crime, but Shifu had not issued a clear order, he could do whatever he wanted to torture Tom.

Of course, he didn't do this simply to vent the anger for Redford and Shaw. Instead, he seriously suspected that Tom had eaten the Colorful Fruit of Essence to break through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. At that time, he could draw Tom's blood and study it carefully!

He had been in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm for a long time, and now he dreamed of breaking through to the Immortal Realm. He would try everything for that!

He had tried many ways, but they all failed. Now Tom's appearance gave him a ray of hope, so he had to take Tom back!

He brought out the worst in himself and said in a superior manner, "Pence, I'm not here to argue with you today. Tom is a sinner. I have to take him back. If you know what I mean, hand him over obediently. Otherwise, don't blame me for being unkind!"

Chapter 680

After he said this, the atmosphere suddenly became tense.

Many people behind him were also on the alert against any possible fights and threatened everyone in the conference room with a sharp look in their eyes.

The expression on Pence's face changed again and he regretted bitterly in his heart. He knew very well how powerful Waylon was. To put it bluntly, all the people in their conference room combined were no match for Waylon, let alone more than 20 masters in Innate Realminnate realm behind Waylon!

It became tricky now. Did Pence really need to hand over Tom?

Marlin had a quick temper and he snorted loudly, "Waylon, are you going use force? You should think about the consequences of making a scene in our Military Intelligence 3. If Shifu knows it, can you abate his anger?"

However, Waylon did not take him seriously at all and did not even look at him.

Waylon's disregard made Marlin even angrier.

But there was nothing that Marlin could do because Waylon was so much stronger than him.

"It seems that you are determined to cover Tom up? Well, then don't blame me for not showing you mercy!"

Waylon seemed to have lost his patience. He looked at them with a frigid stare that was full of threat, and he was about to start the fight.

All of a sudden, everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 felt great pressure, and even Pence's heart beat faster.

If Waylon really wanted to attack them, the odds were heavily against them.

What was worse, the only person who had reached the Major Perfection Realm inborn of Innate Realm in their Military Intelligence 3 was not here.

But at this moment, the powerful vibe among Waylon suddenly receded like the tide and disappeared completely. His eyes narrowed, and a meaningful smile appeared on his face. He then said, "Interesting."

After that, he turned around and strode away.

The rest in the room were all confused. They didn't understand why Waylon suddenly left. Was it because Waylon realized that the consequences and decided to retreat?

But immediately, Silas said, "No. Tom must have appeared and Waylon must have found him out!"

Hearing his words, everyone realized that since Waylon had made such a scene only for Tom, he would not leave until Tom appeared.

To be honest, although they knew that Tom was also a master in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, they did not think that Tom was strong enough to be Waylon's opponent. It was not that they looked down on Tom, but that Waylon had established a great reputation of invincibility. As the head of the Military Intelligence 2, he had made so many achievements in countless wars all the way. Many foreign powers were also afraid of him!

Tom, on the other hand, had just reached the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm less than two months. How could he be a rival to an experienced strong man like Waylon?

They did not dare to linger and immediately ran out.

Soon, they saw Tom standing on the playground with his hands behind his back and waiting for Waylon's arrival.

Tom went out and didn't attend the meeting, so he wasn't in the room.

But he guessed that Redford and Will would definitely get the news and come to arrest him personally as he came back to the Military Intelligence 3 publicly this time.

And he thought this was also a test that God of War and Shifu had put on him, so they did not mention his fault and their punishment for him in the courtyard just now.

Seeing Waylon, he was a little surprised. He didn't expect that the head of the Military Intelligence 2 would personally arrest him.

Waylon soon stood in front of Tom. He also felt Tom's power. He hid his contempt and looked a little more serious. As a master in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm just as Tom, he immediately felt that Tom was not that easy to deal with and that he was absolutely a master!

What surprised him the most was how young Tom was. And Tom's spirit that was full of Essence of Life, which made him jealous.

"Tom, do you admit to your mistakes?"

Waylon scolded Tom directly with a great tension that was so overwhelming that everybody present could feel it.

All the Military Intelligence 3 members came out and gathered together. They were all intimidated by Waylon's great power and could not help but step back with fear on their faces.

Even Marlin and Silas, who were masters in Innate Realm, were also shocked. In their eyes, Waylon was like a mountain they could not conquer!

But for Tom, he felt no fear. Instead, Waylon's great power stimulated his desire to fight with him.

Was this the test God of War and Shifu had put on him?

"Are you going up on your own or with others?" Tom did not panic or fear at all. Instead, he smiled and looked at Waylon calmly as if he was talking to an old friend.

In other words, he didn't take Waylon seriously at all.

He went straight to the point.

His attitude made everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 feel much more relaxed somehow.

Waylon was a well-known master. Even though they knew that Tom was also a master in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, they had no confidence in Tom.

But now, Tom's calmness and composure restored their confidence in Tom, and also reminded them of Tom's performance all along. In their memories, Tom had not been defeated by anyone.

Even Fausto could not kill Tom. At that time, Tom was only in the fourth stage of Innate Realm, while Fausto was already in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. There was a great difference in their ability. And Fausto couldn't kill Tom at that time, not to mention that Tom and Waylon were at the same level now.

Perhaps Tom could create another miracle this time to beat Waylon.

Waylon's face darkened quickly. He had been famous for many years and had always been respected by others. In H Country, he had never admired anyone but God of War.

And Tom, who was just a brat, dared to challenge him publicly. It was unforgivable!

"Hmph, what an arrogant tone. Don't think that you are invincible after reaching the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm with the help of Colorful Fruit of Essence. Let me tell you, there is a huge gap between us even if you have reached the same Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm as me!" Waylon knew that no matter how much he said, it was useless. He had to defeat Tom and arrest him.

It was peaceful before he started the fight, while after he started to use his strength, a storm was brought in and the sky was shaken.

Despite the distance of more than 20 meters between them, he appeared in front of Tom in almost a second. He then kicked Tom quickly, accurately, and fiercely, with strength as if it was from the void realm that could destroy everything.
