

Chapter 693

"I'm not your opponent?" Reid shut up and stared at Tom. Then he said in a superior tone, "I've seen ignorant people before, but it's the first time I've seen such an extreme ignorant person like you. Do you think that when you break through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm with the nourishment of the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, you are the real expert of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm? I'm telling you, you are daydreaming..."

Tom interrupted him and picked his ears, looking impatient, "Have you barked enough? Get out of here."

"How dare you! A pariah, how dare you treat the King of Heaven like this..."

The middle-aged man next to Reid was furious and cursed Tom.

But immediately, when he was glared at by Tom, his expression immediately changed. The words in his mouth could not be spat out, and he was just like a duck being strangled.

A wave of turbulence swept from Tom to that man, making him feel a great pressure. He trembled violently and could not help but show a frightened expression.

Of course, think about what realm Tom was in. The man was only in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and he was relatively mediocre in his level. How could he withstand Tom's pressure?

Tom snorted disdainfully, "How dare a nonentity like you talk so much? Even if Reid is here, I will kill you easily!"

"You!" The man was so angry with Tom that he felt very uncomfortable and unhappy, but he did not dare to say anything more as Tom's momentum just now really scared him. It gave him a feeling that Tom was not lying. If Tom really wanted to kill him, even Reid could not protect him here.

Because the gap between the Major Perfection Realm and the fourth stage of the Innate Realm was too big.

The arrogance on Reid and his men suddenly weakened a lot.

Reid was unhappy. He snorted again, "You are risking your neck."

Then he made a strong attack towards Tom.

At the moment he attacked, everyone's eyes darkened. They had an illusion that the sky was about to fall, all the light was swallowed, and the world was about to be destroyed.

This was because Reid's mental strength was so strong that it affected everyone.

Fortunately, it only lasted for a second, or else they really thought it was the end of the world. Even so, so many people present were deeply shocked.

Almost instantly, Reid came to Tom and slapped him. His slap was so hard that even a city would be destroyed.

Rufus and others immediately panicked and subconsciously retreated. Their faces turned pale from fear and they hurriedly retreated.

Phoebe was also afraid. She held Tom's hand tightly and her heart beat faster. Suddenly, she felt a gentle force pushing her away.

It was Tom who did it. He didn't dare to neglect Reid's strength, and had to do his best.

His eyes shone with brilliance. He didn't back down but went forward to fight Reid.

In the eyes of everyone, what Tom was doing was nothing short of Mars colliding with Earth, which would cause huge damage.

In fact, it was true. They made hundreds of moves only in less than a second, which was terrifying.

The ground beneath their feet was cracked, scaring everyone at the scene and retreating for fear of being harmed.

However, they did not fight for long. They had a tacit understanding to separate after a simple fight.

They looked at each other and saw the hostility and wariness in each other's eyes.

Reid narrowed his eyes slightly and became more wary of Tom. Just now, although neither of them did their best to fight, they also tested each other's strength.

Tom was excited. Reid was very strong, even stronger than Waylon. He was the strongest opponent that Tom had ever met. If he could defeat Reid, then he would be qualified to challenge Fausto!

"Tom, you are strong. You don't disappoint me." Reid stood with his hands behind his back and said calmly.

Tom smiled and said, "Really? You disappoint me. Your cultivation is much worse than Fausto's. No wonder you can only be the second in command in the LT Organization."

Reid was furious and glared at Tom fiercely. He had a murderous look in his eyes, but he didn't do anything to Tom anymore. He endured and snorted, "You're a good talker! Tom, I'm challenging you to a due. Ten days later, at King's Landing Mountain, do you dare to come?"

His shout resounded through the skies, as if the thunder rolled in the sky, reaching far away. His momentum was all the more terrifying.

This time, he came mainly to give Tom the letter of challenge. He wanted to take Tom's head in such a high-profile way, so that he could embarrass Fausto.

He never took Tom seriously. In his opinion, Tom was just a pawn.

Tom's strength was not bad, but his foundation was too bad. At best, he could only be considered unorthodox, and could not be compared to such a big shot like himself with deep foundation.

Tom naturally saw through Reid's intent. He was going to seek revenge on Reid. Now that Reid gave him this opportunity, how could he not agree?

"As you wish." Tom nodded and agreed.

Reid took a deep look at him for the last time and turned to leave. Next, he should get ready for the due.

After Reid left, Phoebe asked worriedly, "Tom, do you really want to fight with him in a due?"

Tom held Phoebe's hand and said, "Yes, but don't worry, I won't lose."

Phoebe said, "This man looks very powerful. You must take it seriously."

"Don't worry, I'll win." Tom promised seriously.

Phoebe nodded, feeling much more relieved.

The opening ceremony was ruined, but no one cared about it. Everyone's attention was focused on the due between Reid and Tom ten days later.

In just a few hours, this news spread all over the upper class!

"Hey, have you heard? There's a man named Reid who has challenged Tom to a due. Ten days later, they will fight to the death at King's Landing Mountain!"

"What? Is there such a thing? Tom is now a famous master. Who has the guts to fight Tom? Is he tired of living?"

"Humph, you don't know anything about that. Reid is also a super big shot. He is also an expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. His strength is probably above Tom's! I think Tom is going to lose this time."

"That's right. Tom has been in too much of a limelight in past years. He has already attracted the attention of hidden bigwigs, so they have started to deal with Tom. I think Tom will be in a lot of trouble this time!"

"I found out that Reid was very famous five years ago. He was the most amazing genius at that time. He was nicknamed the Godslayer. You don't know how many masters he had killed!"

"Damn, I remember. Godslayer. He's a ruthless man. His deeds are even more amazing than Tom's. Now he's here? And he even challenged Tom to due. Then Tom may get washed up this time..."

Chapter 694

Ten days was just enough for Tom.

It was enough to digest the Essence of Life of the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit in his body and improved his strength again. When the time came, Reid would be no match for him!

In the past ten days, Tom chose to be in retreat.

And Reid didn't dare to underestimate Tom, so he also was in retreat.

He hadn't take Tom seriously, but after fighting against Tom today, he realized that Tom was not that simple. He had underestimated Tom.

But even so, he was still confident that he could defeat Tom, cut off Tom's head, and give it to the Saint King.

When they were both in retreat, people began to discuss the fight between them fiercely.

Reid had never been nothing. He had stayed in the LT Organization for five years, so he gradually stayed out of the public, but he was still a legendary figure.

He was called as the notorious Godslayer.

Reid was a beast in the early years. At the age of 30, he became the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, and he killed many famous dab hands. But later on, it seemed that he had offended someone he shouldn't have, so he had to hide himself.

Many people thought Reid was dead, but they didn't expect that after five years, he showed up again. The first thing he did when he returned was a big deal, to challenge Tom!

Tom was now the best-known person in G State, especially after his return. He had defeated so many people, and he had become the number one master-hand in G State.

And Tom was also the head instructor of Military Intelligence 3. He got the rank of captain, and few people dared to disrespect him

But Reid dared to challenge Tom, which also showed Reid's confidence.

In any case, this was a fight of the century, drawing many people's attention.

"What? Reid challenged Tom, and Tom accepted?" At the Military Intelligence 3, Thorn was shocked when he heard about this. Not only did he, Marlin and Silas, and other senior executives reacted the same way.

Pence shook his head and said with a bitter smile, "Tom is really a weirdo. He's a trouble-making machine. Everyone has a grudge against him."

Silas also said, "Yes, Tom had never stopped being in trouble. People always rocked the boat. Now even Reid came at him."

Marlin said with a serious expression, "I heard that this Reid is not simple. He is a top master in Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. He can already compete with Fausto. Now that he comes at Tom, I'm worried about Tom."

Thorn also said worriedly, "Isn't that right? Reid was known as the Godslayer and killed a lot of masters. Those deeds he did back then were even more legendary than Tom. If they really started fighting, I don't think Tom could hold a candle to Reid!"

One of the higher-ups said disapprovingly, "So what if about the Godslayer? Have you forgotten that a few days ago, Tom even defeated Waylon? You know, Waylon is also a master of the Major Perfection Realm. I don't think Reid can defeat Tom."

"That's right. I believe in Tom anyway. He has done many miraculous things during this period of time, so Reid is not a problem to him at all." Another senior executive agreed.

Pence raised his hand to stop their discussion and said, "It's useless for us to discuss it now. The challenge letter has been issued. Ten days later, Tom and Reid will fight in King's Landing Mountain. We'll know the result by then. Since Tom dares to agree, I believe he has the confidence. Let's wait and see."

They heard Pence's words and nodded without other words.

People of Military Intelligence 2 heard the news soon, and Redford laughed out loud immediately. He said happily, "Tom, someone like you shouldn't exist in this world! Now, even Reid come out and enacts the will of the gods!"

Shaw was also full of excitement. When he heard the news, his first thought was that Tom was going to die.

Reid was a notorious devil in the past. He was a martial arts genius. He had defeated many masters. Five years later, Reid must be more powerful. How could Tom be Reid's opponent?

Waylon also smiled. He lost to Tom a few days ago, which was a huge blow to his reputation, and he was depressed for a long time.

Tom had offended Reid and had to fight against Reid. Waylon knew Reid's strength well. Tom didn't have many chances of winning.

He would be much smoother once Tom died.

"Tom must fail this time," Waylon said with a fake smile.

The God of War and Joseph were watching a group of soldiers training in Y City. Joseph received a message. He took his phone out and looked at it with a strange look. Then he said to Albert, the God of War, "Albert, you're right. Reid of the LT Organization had challenged Tom."

Joseph looked at the elegant man beside him and was extremely impressed.

When Albert told him about it, he still didn't believe it. He felt that it was impossible. Reid had been hiding in the LT Organization for so many years. How could he do anything to Tom?

Besides, Reid was the King of Southern State of LT Organization, and he had no grudge with Tom.

But now it turned out that Albert had guessed right. Reid had challenged Tom.

Albert was not surprised to hear this at all. He smiled and said, "It seems that Tom has improved a lot during these days. Reid will not be able to take Tom down at that time, so he decided to send the challenge letter. Tom is a talent. He's progressing fast and amazingly."

Joseph was surprised and said, "Albert, do you mean that Reid is no match for Tom in their fight?"

Albert nodded and said, "Correct. Reid underestimated Tom. He was wrong to give Tom ten days to prepare. If they fight in three days, then the outcome will still be uncertain."

"Reid had been Major Perfection Realm for a long time. He's also talented. Will he lose to Tom? Besides, ten days won't affect him that much."

Joseph said doubtfully.

Chapter 695

Indeed, in Joseph's opinion, what could he do in ten days?

Although he was not a master of the Innate Realm, he was surrounded by them. He knew that, especially when it came to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, it was even more difficult to move forward. Not to mention ten days, even if it was ten months, ten years, the progress couldn't be much bigger!

So Joseph was confused and didn't want to believe it.

Albert smiled and said, "Joseph, you don't know it. Tom has swallowed the Colorful Fruit of Essence and had taken a lot of Essence of Life. Ten days is enough for him to digest all the Essence of Life. When the time comes, he will be stronger. No one will be his opponent."

Joseph said, "That's not right. Didn't the Colorful Fruit of Essence that Tom robbed be eaten by his wife... You mean, Tom lied. His wife's serious illness was a lie?!"

Joseph's expression immediately became serious, with some anger. If Tom really lied to him, he would not spare Tom! This was a matter of principle.

Albert waved his hand and said, "Joseph, you misunderstood. Tom did give the Colorful Fruit of Essence on Lion Mountain to his wife. He's not lying about that."

"Uh..." Joseph was stunned and said doubtfully, "But you said he ate the Colorful Fruit of Essence... Wait a minute, you mean, there are two Colorful Fruits of Essence?!"

Albert's eyes were deep. He nodded and said, "Yes, there are two Colorful Fruit of Essence. Tom swallowed the second one, so he can break through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm in such a short time."

Joseph felt a little confused. "It's impossible, the Colorful Fruit of Essence will bear fruit once a hundred years. How can there be two of them all of a sudden? Besides, Tom are able to get both of them? That's barely possible!"

Albert said, "Who said there was only one Colorful Fruit of Essence? This is not an absolute thing. Now it seems that Tom really ate the second one to have such a strong Essence of Life. This is his luck, he is the trendsetter of this era."

If it was someone else who said that to Joseph, he would not believe it. But this person was Albert, so he believed it. Because he had known Albert for decades and knew Albert very well about his character and ability.

He couldn't help but sigh and say with some emotion, "This Tom is really the trendsetter of the times."

Albert nodded and said, "Let's see the due between him and Reid. I'm looking forward to it. If Reid dies in Tom's hands, will Raoul, that old man, come out?"

When Joseph heard the name "Raoul", his pupils shrank visibly, producing fear and awe. He said in a low voice, "is this old guy Raoul still alive?"

Albert nodded and said, "He's still alive. Although he's hiding deep, I can still sense his breath. He's not dead."

Raoul, the Saint King of the LT Organization. The entire LT Organization, was named after him. But many people didn't know about it, including the people inside the Organization.

Moreover, Raoul had not appeared in the world for a long time. Many people guessed that Raoul was dead, or that become immortal.

Only the core member of the Organization knew that Raoul was not dead.

Albert said seriously, "That's right. He's still alive, and his breath is very strong. It doesn't look like he is dying."

"But Raoul has lived for more than a hundred years, hasn't he? At his age, can he still maintain his strength?" Joseph expressed disbelief. He was even more surprised than before!

After all, Raoul was absolutely terrifying. If it weren't for Raoul, H Country wouldn't have tolerated a reactionary organization like the LT Organization to exist.

Albert continued, "If someone get to the Immortal Realm, the longevity has increased greatly. It's common to live more than 100 years. Let's see if Luo Tian will take action this time. The appearance of a person like Tom is also a threat to him."

Joseph looked at Albert. He suddenly sighed and said, "Albert, your plan has deepened. You let Tom go this time. It's your plan to lure Raoul, the old man, to appear."

Although Joseph was not a master of the Innate Realm, his IQ was extraordinary. Otherwise, he would not have sat in today's position as an ordinary person. He immediately figured it out. The duel between Tom and Reid was actually arranged by Albert.

First of all, Tom's mistake this time, even for his wife, would be punished. But Albert saved him, and also promoted Tom, pushing him to the forefront of the storm, so that someone in the LT Organization could find trouble for Tom. Moreover, it was very likely that Albert had arranged for Fausto to make the first move, and now it was Reid, which wouldn't affect his plan either.

Moreover, according to Joseph's understanding of Albert, Albert must have arranged more than a pawn. Besides Tom, there were many other pawns. However, Tom was quite outstanding, and suddenly stood out from the crowd. So he became the prominent target.

His purpose was to make Raoul show up.

The general plan was like this, but Albert knew that there must be a lot of details in it.

It had to be said that Albert was really terrifying. Fortunately, Albert was the God of War of the H Country, not other countries. Otherwise, H Country would be unlucky.

"Albert, you're still the best!" Joseph sighed sincerely.

Albert laughed and said, "Joseph, do you think I'm scheming?"

Joseph laughed and said, "Not exactly, you're more than that. Haha."

Ten days passed in a flash.

In the past ten days, it seemed especially tranquil. Many people focused their attention on King's Landing Mountain, looking forward to this due and waiting to see who would be the winner.

And with everyone's expectations, the agreed date finally arrived.

Many people gathered at the foot of King's Landing Mountain in advance, waiting for this due of the century!

Of course, this news was absolutely closed to the general public. Most people did not know about it. Only a small part of the upper class knew this due.

While some passers-by were curious to see so many people gathered in the deserted King's Landing Mountain. But when they wanted to come up and see what was going on, they were chased away by a group of bodyguards in black and told them not to go up the mountain.

Chapter 696

"Where's Mr. Howard? Hasn't he finished his practice yet?"

A large crowd had gathered in front of Tom's secret room. Elliot asked worriedly.

Rufus paced back and forth and shook his head, "He still hasn't finished."

"Then what should we do? Today is the date of the final battle. If Mr. Howard doesn't accept the challenge, he will lose." Elliot said worriedly.

Indeed, ten days had passed, and today was the day of the final battle. The news was well known among the upper class, and everyone was waiting for this day eagerly. If Tom broke his promise now, his reputation would definitely be greatly tarnished!

"I don't think so. We've been with Mr. Howard for so long and never seen him flinch." Rufus said seriously.

Malcolm also nodded and said, "Rufus is right. Mr. Howard is very reliable. He will never flinch. I have confidence in Mr. Howard!"

Others also said they believed Tom, but they immediately became worried because of Elliot's words, "What if Mr. Howard had an accident and when he was practicing and couldn't control himself? Then..."

He didn't go on, but what he meant was already self-evident.

If Tom had an accident, they would be doomed. With Reid's strength and means, he would definitely not let Tom off, and they would also be implicated!

After all, Reid was not an ordinary person. Instead, he was a big shot who could challenge Tom and he even surpassed Tom!

They looked at each other and saw the worry in their eyes.

"Why don't we go in and take a look? If something really happens to Mr. Howard, we'll have time to solve it." Elliot made this suggestion in a low voice and soon got the approval of Malcolm and Rufus. They decided to go in together and see how Tom was doing inside.

However, just as they were getting close to the secret room and were about to open the door to enter, the door of the secret room was opened. Tom came out of it, dressed in plain clothes.

"I'm fine. You don't have to worry." Tom said calmly. Obviously, he had heard their conversation in the secret room.

"That's good. That's good." Elliot and others breathed a sigh of relief. Then they found that Tom had changed a little. They didn't know how to describe the feeling. It looked like Tom was more approachable and ordinary than before.

Rufus also discovered this, and he was amazed. Logically speaking, the stronger a person was, the more powerful and terrifying his aura would be. But Tom's situation was just the opposite. The higher his realm was, the more ordinary he was, as if he had returned to his nature.

"Mr. Howard, did you succeed this time?" Rufus asked softly. Everyone looked at Tom nervously. Rufus's question was also their concern.

Tom smiled and said, "Yes."

Hearing Tom's words, they all breathed a sigh of relief. As long as Tom said that it was okay, then it was definitely okay. During this period of time, they all got into the mindset of trusting Tom completely.

Tom was indeed successful this time. After ten days of practicing, he had turned all the Essence of Life in his body to his own strength. Now, he was really the strongest person in the Innate Realm. He had absolute confidence that even Fausto was no match for him now!

Perhaps, in the hands of a master of the Immortal Realm, he could also escape.

He was not over-confident. This was the truth.

This time, he was absolutely sure that he could defeat Thunder.

When he came out, he saw Phoebe, who was standing there worriedly. When she saw him come out, she immediately trotted over. "Tom, you finally finish your practicing! I heard that Reid is powerful. Five years ago, he was known as the Godslayer. He is fierce and cruel. Let's quit and not fight him."

Phoebe cared too much about Tom. Now Tom was Phoebe's everything, so she couldn't bear to see anything happened to Tom. She was especially nervous.

Sensing her concern, Tom took her hand and said with a smile, "Don't worry, I'll win."

"But..."

"No but. We've been together for so many years. Don't you believe me?"

Phoebe bit her words back. She met Tom's eyes, nodded gently and chose to believe Tom.

Then, Tom saw many relatives and friends cheering for him, with concern, worry, and hope.

This was the first time Tom had felt that so many people were counting on him. It turned out that he was no longer alone. Not only did he get married, he also became a leader of many people.

This was an honor, but also a responsibility.

If it had been in the past, Tom would have felt pressured, but now that he had experienced so much, he was calm.

He was not in a hurry to go to King's Landing Mountain. Instead, he went home, took a shower, had a meal, and took a nap before leaving for King's Landing Mountain.

He looked especially relaxed without any pressure or panic, as if it was no big deal and he was just going to work.

It was precisely because of his calmness that affected the people around him. They were no longer worried and gradually calmed down.

King's Landing Mountain was not in H City, but in Phoenix . Its name was very good. King's Landing Mountain had the meaning of ruling the world. It was actually a relatively ordinary mountain. It was like any other mountain except it was tall.

This was a good place for Reid and Tom to fight. They could exert their strength freely without any qualms.

By the time Tom arrived at King's Landing Mountain, there were already a lot of people. They were all the most important people in society.

"Look, it's Tom!"

"He's finally here. I thought he wasn't coming."

"How is that possible? Tom is the number one expert in G State, and now he is also a master at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. How can he not come?"

"Humph, so what if he's here? He's here to die! He is not qualified to call himself the number one master in G State. If Reid hadn't retired five years ago, Tom would not be so arrogant now."

"You are too bold. How dare you say this? Aren't you afraid that Tom will pick on you if he heard you?"

"I... I was just joking."

Tom got out of the car and looked around. He saw a lot of acquaintances. Most of them had met him. There were business tycoons, martial artists, and some officers.

This battle was indeed the center of attention.

In terms of scale, it was many times larger than the duel with May.

Soon, Tom felt a familiar look. He looked over and saw a red figure in a hidden corner. It was Sunny.

Chapter 697

After a few days, Sunny seemed to have lost a lot of weight and looked a little haggard.

When Tom looked at Sunny, Tom saw it clearly that there were worry and sadness in her eyes. Obviously, she didn't have confidence in Tom and thought that Tom was about to die.

"You shouldn't have promised Reid." Sunny sighed and said sadly.

Tom smiled and said, "You just don't believe in me, do you?"

Sunny said seriously, "Reid is not a nobody. His cultivation is unfathomable. Even the Sword Master Fausto is not likely to win Reid. You are no match for Reid."

"That's not necessarily true. He's at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, and I'm the same." Tom touched his nose and said.

Sunny couldn't help but get angry when she saw that Tom didn't take her words seriously at all! She also got angry as she saw that Tom could still smile at this point. She thought that Tom was not likely to defeat Reid even if Tom had taken Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

Indeed, they were all at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. But the gap between them was also very big. Tom became a master at the Major Perfection Realm in less than two months. He was no match for Reid, a man who had long made breakthroughs and got into the Major Perfection Realm. Besides, Tom did not make breakthroughs through his own efforts. He became a master at the Major Perfection Realm with the help of Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. This brought Tom no good as he made breakthroughs with the help from the outside world. This made Tom even more unable to defeat Reid.

Sunny was now very angry at Tom for not thinking about the reality and she felt sorry for what would happen to Tom.

"You don't know how powerful Reid is! Do you think that you are invincible as you got into the Major Perfection Realm with the help of Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit? Tom, the world is full of talented people. There are many men who are stronger than you. You are too arrogant!" Nanchang said in one breath, looking particularly agitated. "You've had a good time in the past few years, so you think that you can always win. And now, you think you're the most powerful one in the world. You are over-confident, and you don't even take Reid seriously! Do you know what Reid's nickname is in the world? Reid is the Godslayer! Do you know how many powerful men did Reid kill? However, you can't even withstand one single attack from Fausto! How can you defeat Reid?"

In the end, Sunny roared. She was especially agitated. Her face was a little red.

Tom was stunned when he saw Sunny like this. It was the first time he had seen Sunny being so agitated after knowing Sunny for so long. Even when Sunny was forced to have dual cultivation with Sean when Sean was after her, she wasn't as angry as she was now.

But Tom was not angry. Instead, he felt warm in his heart. He knew that Sunny became so agitated because she cared about him.

He said seriously, "Sister Sunny, don't worry. I'll be fine. Reid is no match for me. I've already surpassed him in strength."

Tom looked very serious and sincere now. It didn't look like he was lying. After Sunny looked at him, she couldn't help but be stunned. She had a thought in her heart. Could Tom really defeat Reid?

But as soon as she had this thought, she felt it unrealistic because it was impossible. No matter how talented Tom was, he would not be able to catch up with Reid. One shall know that Reid was also a rare genius in the world.

So she thought that Tom was really over-confident. This was why he said those words!

The more Tom acted in this way, the angrier she became.

She could not tell how she felt about Tom. But Tom was her aunt's only son and he was the man who took away her virginity. There was something left by Tom in her body. It was impossible to say that she had no feelings for Tom.

However, she could not tell what her feelings for Tom were like. Anyway, she would often think of Tom. Besides, after hearing that Tom promised Reid to have a life-and-death battle, she was very flustered, angry, and hopeless.

"Tom, you really disappoint me!" Sunny finally looked at Tom with disappointment in her eyes. "You're too selfish. You went to Lion Mountain two months ago and now you want to have a life-and-death battle with Reid. You've never considered the feelings of others. You're not worthy to be the aunt's son!"

After saying this, Sunny stopped looking at him and strode away. It was as if she was really disappointed in Tom.

Tom opened his mouth, wanting to stop Sunny, but he still didn't say anything. He knew that Sunny had believed that he was no match for Reid. Sunny would not believe in him no matter how he explained. The only way to change the situation was to defeat Reid and prove with facts that he was not over-confident.

Tom regained his composure and went up the mountain.

He had already sensed Reid's presence. Reid had a powerful aura and he was waiting for Tom at the top of the mountain.

Along the way, Tom felt that countless people were looking at him. If it was someone who didn't have a great mindset, his or her mentality would definitely be affected. But this meant nothing to Tom at all.

Tom saw a lot of acquaintances. Many members in Military Intelligence 3 came, including Marlin, Silas, Thorn...

In addition, there were members in Military Intelligence 2, Military Intelligence 1, and some acquaintances in the business fields. They all looked at him with different emotions in their eyes. Some of them encouraged him, supported him, and some gloated and thought that he was doomed.

Tom also saw Isabella, Kaylie and Diana.

"Master, fight! you can win!"

Diana looked very excited. She clenched her fists and cheered Tom on.

The word "Master" made Tom a little embarrassed. He touched his nose and nodded calmly.

Amelia came too. She looked at him affectionately and cheered him on. From the eyes of Amelia, Tom saw determination. If he died, Amelia would follow him and die for love.

Tom had completely accepted Amelia.
He nodded at Amelia and smiled.

On the top of another mountain, a temporary shed was built. The shed was surrounded by more than a dozen experts at the Innate Realm. It was obvious that the people in the shed were either rich or influential.

"Tom is really here. A good show is coming." Joseph said with a smile. He held a telescope and could clearly see the scene of King's Landing Mountain opposite him.

Albert, the God of War, could see the scene clearly without using the telescope.

"Of course he will come because he will win." Albert said with a smile.

"Is Raoul here?" Joseph said a little seriously.

Albert shook his head and said, "I can't sense his breath. I don't think he's here."

Joseph was both disappointed and relieved to hear that.

Even the God of War was here, he was still very afraid of Raoul.

Joseph looked at Tom again. By now, Tom had reached the top of the mountain and stood in front of Reid.

Chapter 698

Reid sat cross-legged on a huge rock. He sat cross-legged, closed his eyes, and did not move. It was as if he had merged with King's Landing Mountain. He was a humanoid stone. To oppose him was to oppose the entire King's Landing Mountain.

In fact, Reid had already arrived in King's Landing Mountain yesterday and had been sitting cross-legged on this huge rock in order to make his own spirit integrate with the entire King's Landing Mountain. In this way, his strength would be increased.

At his level, the spiritual level was more important, and the Kung Fu became an assistant.

Now that he had successfully merged with King's Landing Mountain, Tom was even no match for him.

He felt Tom's arrival and opened his eyes. At that moment, a golden light flashed in his eyes, as if the true God of heaven and earth had opened his eyes and everything in the world had to submit.

This was the core and the style of Reid. He had always felt that he was the only protagonist in this world, and the whole world was waiting for him to rule. Even the Saint King was inferior to him. So he would not take Tom seriously.

"Tom, I didn't expect you to come here to court death. It seems that your IQ is not so high." Reid spoke in a low voice, which was still clearly heard by thousands of people on the field. It seemed that he was talking in their ears, which was very magical.

"What's going on? We are so far away from Reid, but why can we hear him? Did Reid install a sound system on King's Landing Mountain?"

"What sound system? You are really green and inexperienced! Reid has a deep internal force, so his words can be clearly heard by us. Not everyone can do this. Tom is finished this time. He is definitely no match for Reid!"

"Wow, Reid is too powerful. If it was in ancient times, he would be an immortal."

"Of course. It's the Major Perfection Realm of the Inborn Realm. Do you think it's that simple? There are few people who have reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Inborn Realm in the five-thousand-year history of China. In my opinion, this time, Tom is behind the eight balls. Tom is going to be killed by Reid."

"Yes, Tom is too arrogant. Once he dies, the businesses he has will collapse and we can have a share in them!"

At the foot of King's Landing Mountain, a group of people was discussing enthusiastically. Most people didn't like Tom. They thought that Tom had been arrogant for so long, and this time he finally ate humble pie.

Tom said, "You came a day early in order to integrate with King's Landing Mountain. It seems that you don't have much confidence in yourself. You have been timid before we fight, so you have already been at a disadvantage."

Reid seemed to have heard a big joke. He burst into laughter. A powerful sound spread from his mouth and spread around, making everyone hear it clearly. At the same time, they felt Reid's pride and disdain, and they felt rather excited.

"What a joke!" Reid slapped the rock with his right hand and used the strong counterforce to fly into the sky. The rock, which was originally under him, could not bear the force of his palm and broke into pieces.

Then Reid fell from the air and stood in front of Tom. The posture, like a god descending from heaven, was too shocking to leave an indelible impression on everyone present!

"Would I be timid to deal with a junior like you? I just came to wait for you in advance! Tom, you call yourself the number one master in G State. You are simply ignorant, not knowing whether you are dead or alive. Today, I will show you how detached the real Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm is!"

Reid spoke like a god as if he was bringing judgment to Tom. Tom was doomed.

It had to be said that Reid was still very powerful. He was the same height as Tom, but his domineering aura was like a king. With him as the center, the people in the world were all untouchables. Even if Tom was also a master of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, he was common in front of Reid.

Reid was so overbearing that everyone present could feel it. Some people with poor psychological quality would even have the idea of surrendering to Reid.

There was no change in Tom's expression, and there was still a faint smile on his face. It seemed that Reid was just a humanoid creature to him, without any threat.

Indeed, although Reid was strong and even was stronger than Waylon, he could no longer put any pressure on Tom.

Albert was right. What Reid did the most wrong was to give Tom ten days to successfully digest the last Essence of Life and become the energy in his body.

"Reid, you want to use me to make Fausto eat humble pie, increase your prestige in the LT Organization, and seize the right to succeed the position of the Saint King." Tom said faintly, with a teasing look in his eyes. "It's a good idea, but you overestimate yourself.

People who hunt will be eaten by their prey."

When Reid heard Tom's words, he couldn't help but be shocked and his expression couldn't help but change.

He had this plan but he never told others. On the surface, he made up his mind to attack Tom because of Sunny. But now, Tom actually said what he was thinking. How could this not surprise him? He even wondered if someone had leaked the news!

He thought carefully but he never told others. Why did Tom know it?

Fortunately, he reacted quickly, and he immediately came back to his senses. He snorted heavily and said coldly,

"Nonsense! Tom, do you think such childish means can disturb my killing heart?"

Tom laughed even more jokingly. "Haha, Reid, you're too gullible. I was just guessing, but I didn't expect to sound it out. It turns out that you've been staring at the position of the Saint King. I don't know how the Saint King will look at you if he knows it."

"You!" When Reid saw Tom's despicable appearance, he found that he had been deceived and be led into a trap set up by Tom. For a moment, Reid was even angrier and was more anxious to kill Tom.

"Little beast, you are courting death!" Reid's eyes became violent and he stared at Tom. Even the people at the foot of the mountain felt a frightening chill, especially uncomfortable.

Tom shook his head, looking disappointed, and said, "Reid, although your cultivation is high, your IQ is not high, so I easily set you up. However, your idea is going to fail, because you are totally no match for me!"

When Tom finished speaking the last few words, he launched an attack but disappeared. When he appeared again, he was already in front of Reid.

As fast as lightning!

The battle officially began.

Chapter 699

What's the meaning of "It never rains but it pours"? When Tom took action now, it was the case.

His initiative to take action caught Reid off guard. Nothing else. Tom was too fast, and his momentum was stormy. It was as if Tom had turned into a natural disaster at this moment, destroying everything, and Reid was just an ant in the disaster. At any moment, he would be obliterated by the disaster.

If it was someone who had just been promoted to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, they would not be able to dodge Tom's attack. With one move, they would be injured by Tom and lose the ability to fight.

In combat, it was called KO. However, Reid was different. He was one of the best in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Facing Tom's attack, he would not be so easily KO. He had already reacted almost instantly and made the most correct response, tangling with Tom.

"Humph, do you want to sneak attack me? You're just making a fool of yourself with your insignificant skill!" Reid snorted coldly and began to fight back. His moves were very exquisite as if they had been calculated especially by artificial intelligence. His moves were almost perfect in playing.

And his momentum was rising steadily. His figure was clearly not particularly tall, but in everyone's eyes, he became a giant a hundred feet tall, covering the entire King's Landing Mountain as if King's Landing Mountain was his weapon, and Tom in his hands was just an insect, not a level at all. It seemed with a light step, he would destroy him.

The battle between Tom and Reid could be said to affect the hearts of countless people. They all wanted to see who could win. This would affect the situation in G State!

"This Reid is really terrifying. He has merged with King's Landing Mountain in momentum. Now that he is fighting on King's Landing Mountain which made his might doubled, and Tom is repelled everywhere. It's good for him to be able to exert 80 % of his strength."

In the crowd, Shaw took a deep breath and said with great emotion.

Will, who was next to him, also nodded and said, "The Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm is really scary. It's a long way from the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Together, the four of us are no match for Reid."

"We can't even take a move, ah..."

All of a sudden, they were all very disappointed. After all, they were first-class geniuses themselves, standing on the Pyramid of man and surpassing 99.99 % of the people in the world. However, they could not even take a move in front of a top overmatch like

Reid, and they were no different from ants.

What made them most uncomfortable was that Tom was originally their junior and was below them in strength. A year ago, they could strangle Tom just like strangling an ant.

But it was only a year passing, and Tom had left them far behind. This strong contrast really made them disappointed and sad, but there was nothing they could do. Ever since Waylon was defeated by Tom, they had no courage to fight Tom. They could only secretly curse Tom in their hearts.

Especially for Redford, it was even worse!

The more powerful Tom was, the more uncomfortable and unwilling he became.

"Humph, Tom will certainly be defeated this time. Reid is one of the best in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Five years ago, even Waylon was defeated by him. Now, five years later, Reid must have grown up to an extremely high level. However, Tom is just a young. How can he be Reid's opponent?" Redford gritted his teeth and said, "Tom will definitely lose this battle!"

Yes, they all didn't believe Tom would win, thinking that Tom would pay the price for his expansion, and the price was death.

On the other side, there was a red figure. Her eyes were fixed on him tightly, filled with worry and despair, especially when she saw Reid's moves forcing Tom to step back and didn't have the power to fight back, she was even sadder.

"You arrogant guy! Why did you agree to Reid's challenge? He came to kill you on purpose. You have no idea how strong Reid is. He already has the right to challenge Fausto. How can you compete with him?!" Sunny said hatefully. She was no longer the light-hearted fairy before, but a woman with many emotions and desires. This kind of change happened step by step after she met Tom.

To be honest, she could no longer tell how she felt about Tom, and even wondered if she had developed feelings for Tom.

One thing she was sure of was that she didn't want to see Tom fall. If Tom really died, she would be very sad.

However, no matter how anxious she was, it was useless now. This battle was completely out of her control, and she could no longer handle it.

She still remembered that when she first met Tom, Tom had just stepped into the Innate Realm. At that time, Tom was so weak that she could defeat him with one hand. But now, it wasn't long before Tom had grown to this extent. She didn't know whether to be happy for Tom or disappointed.

Tom and Reid had already taken more than a thousand moves in this short time!

Their speed was extremely fast, and their strength was great. They were completely two tyrannosaurus in humans shape, and their bodies contained endless power.

Fortunately, this place was King's Landing Mountain. Otherwise, if they were in the big city, they would probably demolish all the tall buildings!

"Tom, is this your strength? It's too weak, hahaha..." Reid was obviously skillful and at ease. As he launched a fierce attack on Tom, he was able to speak leisurely, which showed that he did not exert his full strength, and this had already beaten Tom down and left him nearly no room for fighting back. It was obvious who was better.

Tom did not speak. He frowned slightly as if he was strenuous and it was only a matter of time before he lost.

"Albert, things are not good. Tom has fallen into a disadvantage. He doesn't seem to be Reid's opponent!" On another mountain, Joseph said with a frown.

Albert, on the other hand, was drinking tea leisurely, not worried at all. He smiled faintly and said, "Joseph, you're wrong. Tom is not at a disadvantage. He's just learning Reid's martial arts. This time, Tom surprised me again.

With such a high martial arts talent, it's really possible for him to step into Immortal Realm."

Joseph was shocked when he heard this. He had known Albert for many years and he had never seen Albert praise a person like this. It seemed that Tom was really strong...

"Wait, the situation will change soon." Albert added meaningfully.

Chapter 700

"What's this noise? Why does it sound like there's a bomb?"

"Listen, it seems to be from King's Landing Mountain. Is someone blowing up the King's Landing Mountain?"

"No way. King's Landing Mountain has no value in mining. How could anyone do that? And I haven't heard any news about it."

Near King's Landing Mountain, a group of people looked over curiously when they heard the voice.

This was a group of well-dressed young people, more than ten of them.

They were all handsome men and beautiful women, who came here for a holiday, but they didn't expect to hear something like explosions, which immediately aroused their curiosity.

A rich young man with long bangs and greasy hair suggested, "Let's go and take a look. I heard from the older generation that King's Landing Mountain has many many secrets."

Hearing his suggestion, others began to feel interested and they walked towards King's Landing Mountain together.

The closer they got to King's Landing Mountain, the clearer they could hear the explosion on King's Landing Mountain. But when they got closer, they heard it again. It didn't seem like an explosion, but there were some large creatures destroying something. The noise was so loud that even at the foot of the mountain, they could feel the tremor from the mountain, similar to an earthquake.

This aroused their curiosity, so they quickened their pace.

"Here we are!"

The person who ran in front shouted, and then he opened his eyes wide as if he had seen something incredible.

He saw a lot of luxury cars parked in front of him. Even the cheapest one was more than a million dollars, and the expensive one was worth even tens of millions dollars!

What was going on here? Was there a moto show held by a big group?

But even if it was a moto show, there shouldn't be so many luxury cars. Besides, King's Landing Mountain was just a remote and desolate mountainous area, so no one would hold a car show here.

However, if it wasn't for the auto show, it would be even more inexplicable. Why were there so many luxury cars parked here?

Was he hallucinating?

"Hey, Jim, why are you stunned? What did you see... Jesus!" The second person also saw this scene, and he immediately opened his eyes wide and shouted out in an extremely exaggerated way.

Then, the people behind them came over one after another and saw those luxury cars in front of them. They just couldn't believe it and wondered why there were so many luxury cars here.

"What's... going on here?"

These people also said in astonishment.

At this moment, a loud bang came from King's Landing Mountain, scaring them all. All of them looked up and saw a scene that they would never forget for the rest of their lives.

On the top of King's Landing

Mountain, there were two people. Each of them held a huge tree in his hand as a weapon and threw the tree at the other party fiercely. Their attacks were so fast that it seemed that even the air was cut, and the whining sound was heard.

Then, the two big trees collided fiercely and broke.

But they did not stop. Then, the two people on the top of the mountain fought again. They seemed not to be human, but giant beasts, monsters, or immortals. They had endless power, and they could easily pull up the big tree next to them and throw it at each other.

And the rocks on the mountain were also their weapons. They threw at each other with all kinds of stones. Some of the rocks even flew in these young people's direction, which flew over their heads, fell to the ground hard behind them, and broke several big trees.

"It... It is..."

It took them ten seconds before anyone could react. They swallowed and said in astonishment and disbelief!

"I don't know. Is someone making a movie?"

"Nonsense! This is definitely a fight between immortals! Oh My God, I've read a post, saying that there are supermen in this world who can fly and burrow! They are extremely strong. I didn't believe it in the past and thought it was a joke. Now it seems that it is true. Superman does exist in this world!"

A man said excitedly.

Another man beside him was also excited. He quickly pulled him and asked, "What forum is it? Send me the link to the post."

"It was deleted a long time ago. That post only existed for a few minutes before it was deleted. I thought it was a fake one at that time. Now it seems that it's true!"

When others heard this, they were also excited and yearning. Their eyes were fixed on the two figures on King's Landing Mountain.

Unfortunately, it was too far away, and there were many tall trees in the middle, which made them unable to see the two figures clearly. They could only hear the sound of vibration, which made them feel anxious.

They were eager to get close to those two men since they thought they had discovered immortals, ignoring the danger.

"They seem to be on another mountain. Let's go and chase them!"

"I think they are either supermen or immortals! If they appreciate us and take us as their apprentices, it will be great!"

"Exactly. With my qualifications, they will definitely appreciate me!"

They were all very excited as if they could attain the highest level in one step. If they became as powerful as that two people, who would dare to offend them then? They could take revenge on those that they didn't like before! The imagination made them thrilled.

So they couldn't wait to rush over.

However, they didn't get close enough and were blocked by a group of men in black.

"This place is forbidden to go. Leave quickly!"

A strong man looked at them threateningly.

They could tell at one glance that these men in black were also very powerful. Their aura made those young people timid all of a sudden. The more this happened, the more it proved that the two people fighting on the top of the mountain must be immortals! Even if they weren't, they must be something like superhuman.

"King's Landing Mountain is not a military base. Why don't you let us in?"

"That's right. What's wrong if we insist on going in? This is our right."

"Don't think you can deprive us of our right just because you're fierce."

Obviously, this was a group of well-educated college students and said in a decent way.

However, at this point, even if they were well-educated, it would not be useful.

The stout man's face darkened and he snorted heavily, "Get lost! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

As he spoke, he clenched his fists and set his jaw as if he was going to beat them up if they didn't leave.

These college students were all frightened and could not help but take a few steps back.

Just as they were at a loss, an arrogant voice suddenly came from the top of the mountain. "Ha ha ha, Tom, you are running out of your energy. You're dead this time!"

When the group of college students heard this voice, their hearts beat faster. They had an indescribable sense of fear and awe.

Then, a casual voice rang out, "Reid, I have already figured out your Kung Fu. In this case, you're not worth anything to me anymore. Go to hell."

Chapter 701

It was Tom. As soon as he said so, his momentum changed drastically all of a sudden while he was at a disadvantage and was about to lose before.

If he was a scarred lion before, then now he had changed into a powerful lion king, who could shatter the world, a complete reversal!

Instead of retreating, he attacked Reid!

Moreover, his attack was extremely fierce, like a huge wheel, rolling forward at high speed, and Reid was just an ant under the wheel that he would be destroyed at any moment.

Reid felt his change, his pupils instantly contracted, and his scalp began to numb. He screamed, "That's impossible!"

He was indeed extremely shocked. He had clearly crushed Tom. Although Tom was very tough in the middle, he put a lot of effort to defeat him. He thought Tom would be defeated by one last hit.

But now, Tom swept away the decline, his entire momentum rose, and instantly took over from Reid. This was unreasonable!

Even if Tom was in the Major Perfection Realm, Reid couldn't understand why he could still turn around in this situation. This was completely impossible!

Could it be that Tom had been hiding his strength just now and was teasing him?

No! He could not accept this explanation at all. He had been an absolute genius since he was a child. He was only 35 years old this year, and he had already cultivated to the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. He was only one step away from the Immortal Realm, and he could completely stand on the peak of mankind as a god!

But now, a man suddenly showed and completely suppressed him. He was too arrogant to accept that.

Therefore, at this moment, there was a huge change in his mind, causing his speed to decrease a lot, and he got panicked, revealing flaws to Tom.

And in front of a strong opponent like Tom, showing such a big flaw meant losing. The result of losing was death!

Tom took advantage of this flaw, his pair of hands, under his lightning speed, had seemingly turned into thousand of hands. In an instant, fists and his thousands of hands covered Reid's entire body. Under such an attack, no one could catch Tom's hit except he was in the Immortal Realm

Not even an expert like Reid!

With a bang, Tom punched Reid in the chest. In the sight of everyone, Tom's hands hit Reid heavily.

The strength of this punch was extremely heavy. Even if Reid was in the Major Perfection Realm, and his physical body was already invincibly strong, he could not bear Tom's punch and was knocked out.

Someone with sharp ears could vaguely hear a crack. His chest was smashed down by Tom's punch, and several ribs were broken.

Tom did not let Reid go just like that. He quickly chased after Reid and squared with him. Before Reid could land, he reached out to grab Reid in the air and then slapped him hard on the ground.

This hit was even more powerful, with a loud thud!

The whole of King's Landing Mountain could be heard clearly, and Reid's body was directly slapped deep into the ground.

All of a sudden, the King's Landing Mountain quieted down. Everyone was stunned and looked at this scene in disbelief!

After all, Reid was not some ordinary man, but an absolute big shot, the well-known Godslayer. Many people thought that Tom would lose this time.

From the beginning to just five seconds ago, Reid did face Tom down, making him unable to fight back at all.

But, all of a sudden, how could Tom turn the tables? What the hell was this? It was too fast for them to react. They thought they were hallucinating!

"So..."

Many people, including Redford and Will, couldn't accept this fact for a moment. Why did all this happen? Could it be that Reid let go of Tom, or did Tom plot against Reid with hidden weapons? But even if it was a hidden weapon, it shouldn't have taken Reid down so quickly!

Only Waylon looked calm. His deep eyes were fixed at Tom, reminding him of an ignominious memory. Back in the Military Intelligence 3, Tom also turned the tables like this! He thought he had gotten one over on Tom and crushed him. In fact, it wasn't. Tom just didn't do his best.

When he was defeated, he was depressed for a long time. Now, someone finally understood his feelings. He had a perverted pleasure in his heart. At least, he was not the only one who was treated like that by Tom.

It took ten seconds for someone to come back to their senses and make an uproar at the foot of the King's Landing Mountain.

"Am I right? Did Reid lose?"

"But Tom has been at a disadvantage from the beginning. Why did he fight back so quickly? It's not right. Did Reid let him go?"

"Are you nuts? Reid is not a fool. Isn't he looking for death in a fight at this level? Besides, he hates Tom to the bone. Why should he let him go?"

"So, Tom didn't do his best from the beginning? He used all his strength just now, and Reid was no match for him... Then, how strong was him?"

"It's over. No one can defeat Tom anymore. It's scary. It's really scary!"

"Is Reid dead?"

"It's hard to say..."

The King's Landing Mountain was now boiling up, and the discussion never stopped.

The strength that Tom showed just now really shocked them deeply.

Gulp!

Shaw swallowed heavily. His whole body was in a state of numbness. He looked up at the top of the mountain, the seemingly small, but incomparably magnificent figure. Now he was truly afraid, from the bottom of his heart. He didn't dare to go against Tom again!

He now knew that Tom had completely grown to a powerful master, and there was a huge gap between them, and he was no longer a match for him...

He had a feeling that if he dared to fight Tom again, then what awaited him was death!

He was not the only one who had the same idea. Everyone present thought so. What happened just now really impressed them! They wouldn't forget it for the rest of their lives...

Especially the more than a dozen college students, who were now in a complete daze, muttered, "He is immortal. He is a god..."

Chapter 702

On the other side, there was a woman in red, who was also dumbfounded.

It was Sunny. She witnessed the fight between Tom and Reid.

In the beginning, Tom was at a disadvantage and could not fight back. He was almost defeated, and what waited for him was death. Sunny was very anxious. She thought she must stop Reid.

But... in the blink of an eye, the situation changed drastically. Tom suddenly showed an overwhelming strength and in less than five seconds, he defeated Reid!

Sunny felt how powerful and destructive Tom's sudden strength was even though she was so far away from them.

She was sure that if she was there, she would be smattered by Tom.

Even a master like Reid couldn't stop Tom's counterattack. He was punched away and Tom grabbed his foot and threw him heavily to the ground. Others couldn't even see him!

Sunny couldn't calm down.

Tom defeated Reid in such a cruel way.

Tom noticed her. He blinked at her with a bright smile, as if to say, "See, I didn't lie to you, did I?"

Sunny's face immediately turned red and she felt very shy. She thought of what she had said to Tom at the foot of the mountain, and now she only felt her face burning.

It turned out that she had misunderstood Tom. Tom was absolutely sure that he would win!

But she had scolded Tom for being complacent and had said that he would be killed...

Thinking of what she had said, she was embarrassed.

But she was relieved that Tom was not dead. That was great.

She looked at Tom's strong figure. He seemed as tall as the mountain. His overwhelming strengthen deeply impressed him, and she had a stronger feeling for Tom!

If Tom wasn't Saintess's son, that would be great.

Then she could...

'Stop, stop!

Sunny, what are you thinking?' Sunny stopped herself.

Tom didn't know what Sunny was thinking at the moment, or he would have been scared by her thoughts.

Now he was standing with his hands back behind his back in the wind excitedly.

Reid was his strongest opponent, and he had defeated Reid head-on. Now Reid was seriously injured, and it was impossible for him to recover.

Tom lowered his head and saw everyone at the foot of King's Landing Mountain. All of them looked up at him in awe and fear. At this moment, he felt that he was the king, and those below were all his subjects.

After defeating Reid, he could clearly feel that the connection between King's Landing Mountain and Reid was cut off, and then he replaced Reid to connect with the King's Landing Mountain. He could sense the momentum in King's Landing Mountain, which was really heroic and dominating.

He closed his eyes but could feel the flowers and trees on King's Landing Mountain. This feeling was wonderful, and he could not describe it in words.

In that instant, he felt that he was King's Landing Mountain, and King's Landing Mountain was him, and they were completely integrated.

The moment he closed his eyes, all the animals on the mountain stopped and looked in his direction, as if they were worshipping their king.

But others couldn't see that. What a pity! Otherwise, there would be quite a stir, because they would know Tom was really the master of King's Landing Mountain.

Only God of War, Albert, who was at the top of another mountain, found that. He looked at Tom's straight figure and sighed sincerely, "Tom is really amazing!"

Joseph, who was beside him, was surprised to hear that. He changed his impression of Tom.

He had already seen a new star rising in the land of H Country, who was unstoppable!

However, he didn't know whether it was a good or a bad thing for H Country.

"Eh-hem..."

In a pit, Reid coughed in pain.

He was the most shocked one. He had mixed feelings. Fear, unwillingness, disbelief, regret, anger, frustration, helplessness surged into his heart.

He could now clearly feel that his internal organs had been smashed by Tom, and any breath would make him extremely painful.

Tom's punch almost crushed his chest.

He couldn't believe it was true, and he didn't want to believe that he had been defeated by Tom in this way!

He was too arrogant and conceited to accept that.

He looked up and saw Tom above him, who was looking down at him with a cold look full of disdain.

Tom's eyes were filled with disdain and hatred.

He knew that Tom would not let him off.

But Reid couldn't accept the reality. It was incredible. He himself was a rare talent who successfully broke through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm at the age of 30. He was 35 years old this year, and he almost reached Immortal Realm. However, he was defeated by Tom!!!

Why did Tom appear and even defeat him?!

He was reluctant to accept the fact. He was furious!

"Reid, you lost." Tom's emotionless voice came from above.

Reid wanted to say something, but he couldn't. If he was agitated and his breathing became rapid, his internal organs would hurt so much that he would keep coughing.

He had never been so embarrassed in his life. He was like a stray dog now.

"No, it's impossible! How can I lose to you, you bastard!" Reid shouted reluctantly and seemed to be crazy.

Tom ignored Reid. He stamped hard and the strength hit Reid through the ground. Reid seemed to have been wounded by a bomb.

Tom grabbed his neck. As long as Tom tightened his grip a little, Reid's life would be ended.

Reid panicked. Ignoring the sharp pain in his body, he screamed, "Tom, you can't kill me. I'm the King of Southern State of LT Organization! If you kill me, you will be killed by the Saint King!"

"Really?" Tom smiled brightly, but the murderous look in his eyes became more intense.

Just as Tom was about to make a move, a clear voice suddenly came from the east. "Tom, stop."

Tom squinted at the young man in white stepping on the leaves and flying towards him. He said meaningfully, "Fausto, you finally show up."

Chapter 703

Yes, the man who seemed to be riding on the wind and stepping on the branches was the young man in white, Fausto.

He didn't look like an excellent master at all. Instead, he looked like a high school student. Wearing a white sports suit, he appeared young and lively. Strangers would regard him as a teenager. No one would believe that he was almost 60 years old.

In fact, Tom didn't understand why Fausto looked so young. It was completely unbelievable.

At this time, others also saw Fausto. Most of them did not know Fausto, and they had never heard of the name. But for real masters, they would be afraid when they heard the name.

Because they all knew that Fausto was a real big shot. He was the number one master under the throne of Saint King Raoul and was also the strongest being under Immortal Realm. His reputation was widely accepted. Even if Reid was not given in to Fausto, he still had to show his respect for Fausto.

"Is Fausto here too? Is Raoul's men going to come back again?"

Shaw's pupils constricted and he spoke in horror. After all, Fausto was even more famous than Reid.

Moreover, the most important thing was that Fausto had retreated. He had been living in seclusion in the LT Organization. So, many people did not know Fausto. But for Shaw, Will these veteran masters, they still remembered him clearly.

Redford's gloomy eyes suddenly lit up. Originally, he had no method about Tom and did not dare to have any thoughts of confrontation. But now, Fausto's appearance gave him a hint of hope. If Fausto fought against Tom, then Tom might still be killed.

Although he did not dare to go against Tom, he was still very excited if someone would take revenge for him.

When Waylon saw Fausto, he narrowed his eyes and was not surprised. In fact, not long ago, he had already sensed Fausto and knew that Fausto had come.

In fact, he had always been very afraid of Fausto, because Fausto was from his era, much earlier than Reid. At that time, Fausto was very proud and arrogant. So many geniuses in those years were defeated by Fausto, including himself.

He was hostile to Fausto, but it was undeniable that deep down in his heart, he held respect for Fausto.

Now he had some expectations that Fausto could strike and kill Tom. If so, he could at least regain the reputation of the people of his era.

Sunny instantly became nervous and her heart beat faster.

Her pupils contracted violently and a look of fear appeared on her face. Fausto was the person she revered the most in the entire LT Organization.

She knew very well that Reid was unable to surpass Fausto as long as Fausto was alive.

Now that Fausto had appeared, Tom was in great danger.

After a while, Fausto had fallen in front of Tom. His appearance did not conform to his status. Especially his voice one of a middle-aged man. "Tom, no one has surprised me for many years. You are the first one these years."

He was not very tall, only 1.7 meters tall. He had a babyface, but his voice was very husky. It could not be more strange.

He looked at Tom with a complicated expression. He was surprised, confused, and appreciative. When he was in Lion Mountain, he wanted to take Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. It was originally a foolproof thing, but he did not expect that Tom had taken it and even escaped from him. This was the first time for him.

In the beginning, he did not take Tom seriously because Tom was not on the same level as him.

But only two months had passed, and the ants of the past had grown into big shots who could protest against him. This strong contrast was really quite impressive.

Fausto had indeed been here for a long time. He had seen all the battles between Reid and Tom just now.

Even he was deceived by Tom. He didn't know that Tom had hidden his strength and could kill Reid in the end.

Now that Reid was about to be killed, he had to show up.

For Tom, he had sensed Fausto's existence a long time ago, but he didn't say it.

It was not that he was arrogant and looked down on Fausto, but that he believed that God of War Albert would not stand by on such an important occasion. Although he didn't sense God of War Albert's existence, he was sure that Albert was there. So he didn't worry about being attacked sneakily even if he knew Fausto was hiding in the dark.

Now that he was already a talent of H Country, how could Albert let him take risks?

However, now that he saw Fausto, he had a complicated feeling. Two months ago, he was still an ant in front of Fausto, and now he had grown into a master who was comparable to Fausto.

When Reid saw Fausto's appearance, he immediately became excited and hurriedly shouted, "Master Fausto, it's great that you're here! Hurry up and kill Tom the bastard!"

He was strangled by Tom and hung up. It could be more fun to see.

Fausto looked at him with disappointment and disgust in his eyes. "Reid, you're really Raoul's shame."

Reid's excited expression froze on his face and he became angry from embarrassment. "Master Fausto, you have no idea. Do you think I cannot defeat Tom? He used a concealed weapon to attack me! Otherwise, I would have killed him long ago."

He wanted to continue scolding, but soon, he couldn't speak. Because Tom put more strength on his right hand, and Reid was unable to speak. Now, he was just a chicken in Tom's hand.

"Fausto is right. You are indeed a shame to LT Organization." Tom said disdainfully.

Reid's face became ashen out of embarrassment. But he could not struggle. He could only kick in the air. Now he had completely lost the strength to fight.

Fausto stared straight at Tom and said, "Tom, you win. Let him go. Your enmity with Raoul can be forgiven."

This condition sounded very tempting. Sunny rushed over from afar. And when she heard it, her eyes lit up immediately and she wanted to agree on behalf of Tom.

However, Tom smiled. "What if I don't?"

Chapter 704

As Tom said this, the atmosphere at the scene changed subtly. Many people present felt inexplicably nervous and their hearts beat faster.

Sunny, who was rushing over, suddenly paused and stared at Tom in surprise. She was so disappointed at Tom. She wondered whether Tom's brain was damaged as he would actually say such a thing.

As long as Reid was released, the feud with Raoul could be erased. What a good deal!

It was natural for a normal person to decide what to do, but Tom refused. He must be out of his mind!

As a senior member of the LT Organization, Sunny knew clearly how powerful the LT Organization was, especially the superior Saint King, who was like a god. If Tom was really ungrateful and angered the Saint King, he would be totally dead!

Fausto narrowed his eyes and said meaningfully, "Young man, your achievements are indeed extraordinary, but the world is big, and there are still many things that you should fear. I am not saving Reid, but saving you, do you understand?"

Tom still had a smile on his face. He took his eyes away from Fausto, looked at Reid, and said with a smile, "Do you think I should let you go?"

He seemed to be talking to an old friend. At this moment, there was no killing intent on his face. It was precisely because of his posture that Reid relaxed a lot. So Reid snorted and said threateningly, "You don't dare to kill me. You know very well that once you kill me, you will die. You will be killed by Raoul with all his might! By then, even if you run to the ends of the earth, you will die!"

Now Reid seemed to have regained his composure and believe that Tom did not dare to kill him. Because Tom did not look like a fool at all. As long as he was not a fool, he knew what to do.

So Reid was quite proud. Even if Tom defeated him, so what? Behind him was the entire LT Organization, and even the H Country had to be afraid of it!

Reid was no longer afraid, and his mind slowly began to work. The moment Fausto appeared, he knew that his life was saved. Moreover, the Saint King was also concerned about this battle. And Fausto's appearance must have been what the Saint King meant!

"Really? Then it seems that I can only let you go." The smile on Tom's face became even bigger. To bystanders, he seemed to have succumbed to the obscene power of the LT Organization and did not dare to kill Reid.

Reid snorted and said, "If you're not afraid of death, try to kill me."

Tom was lost in thought, and he seemed to struggle.

However, Fausto still frowned without any relief. Because he did not feel that Tom's murderous intent was dissipated. Instead, Tom's murderous intent was getting stronger and stronger!

Tom was going to kill Reid!

But most people didn't notice it. They all thought that Tom was being cowardly. Many people were still gloating and discussing it in a low voice.

"Well, it seems that Tom is too timid to kill Reid. This is the disadvantage of having no background. Even if Tom defeated Reid, so what? The LT Organization behind Reid is a giant. Tom can only be submissive."

"Yes, Tom is already a coward. If he wins Reid, he loses to the LT Organization. Besides, he beat Reid up like this and he will hold a grudge with the LT Organization. By then, his will definitely not end up well."

"By the way, what's the history of this LT Organization you're talking about? Why haven't I heard of it?"

"Of course you didn't. The LT Organization is a mysterious organization that has existed for more than a hundred years. It is impossible for you to know if you don't belong to that level. This LT Organization is so powerful that it can be called a small country. Especially the legendary Saint King, he is even more like a god. I heard that even the God of War is afraid of him. Otherwise, H Country wouldn't have allowed the LT Organization to exist for so long..."

"Damn, is this LT Organization so awesome? I've never heard of it. It seems that I'm ignorant."

They discussed it all at once, and for a moment, it became heated. They all thought that Tom did not dare to kill Reid.

On the other side, Joseph looked over with military-grade telescopes. He frowned and said, "Why is Fausto here? Is Tom really going to let Reid go?"

As the official superiors of H Country, Joseph had always been hostile to the Raoul organization. But because the LT Organization was too strong, he couldn't act rashly. If Tom really let Reid go, he would be disappointed.

"Tigerangpu, what do you think?" He couldn't help but look at God of War.

Albert said, "Tom won't let Reid go."

"Oh? Then this guy has the guts to fight the LT Organization head-on." Joseph said with admiration.

However, Albert shook his head and said, "That's not the case. Most likely, he guessed that I was here and wouldn't stand by."

Joseph frowned and said, "Is this guy so smart?"

"Only higher."

"So do you feel Raoul's breath?" Joseph asked in a deep voice. He looked around with some fear.

Albert narrowed his eyes and shook his head, "Not yet."

He used the word 'yet', and Joseph immediately knew what was going on. Raoul would most likely appear, but Albert hadn't noticed it yet. In this way, Joseph was even more worried. Because if Raoul was already here, and Albert could not feel his breath, then it meant that Albert was not strong enough for Raoul!

"Tom!"

On this side, Fausto said in a low voice, "Don't make a mistake. Reid is the King of Southern State of the LT Organization. If you kill him, you will declare war with the LT Organization. You can't bear the consequences!"

His words sounded a little strange to everyone. Wasn't Tom already scared and gave up killing Reid? Why did he say that?

"Really? Why don't I make an exchange with you? As long as you let mother go, I'll let Reid go, okay?" Tom said with a smile.

Fausto's expression became even colder and he said, "Tom, you are challenging Raoul's authority. The consequences will be serious."

Tom shrugged and said, "So there's nothing to talk about."

"I don't have much patience. You should let Reid go now. I'm not negotiating with you, but giving you orders!" Fausto said coldly. His momentum was rising. If Tom dared to kill Reid, then what awaited him was Fausto's furious anger.

When Reid saw this, he was even more proud and provoked Tom, "Tom, if you're smart enough, just let me go. There's still a way out. Otherwise..."

However, before he could finish that, he heard a crack. His neck was broken, and his pupils dilated in an instant, revealing disbelief...

Chapter 705

Reid could not speak as his neck had been twisted off by Tom. But Reid did not stop breathing immediately. Instead, he opened his eyes wide, looked at Tom in fear, and struggled desperately.

All of a sudden, it was silent. Everyone looked at Tom in disbelief. They would never have thought that Tom would be so bold to twist off Reid's neck in the face of the threat of LT Organization. That was a declaration of war against the LT Organization!

Even Fausto's pupils constricted, and the next moment, he roared, "Tom!!!"

He was furious. Tom actually killed

Reid in front of him. It was completely unforgivable!

Reid was the King of Southern State of LT Organization. He was a noble, powerful person, and had contributed a lot to the organization. Now that he was killed by Tom, it was a huge loss to the organization!

The others were also stunned, not expecting that Tom would actually dare to kill Reid. They all thought that Tom must be crazy, and it was no different from looking for death.

Sunny only felt her scalp numb and her body could not help but tremble. "This lunatic really killed Reid. He's doomed..."

Her face turned pale.

Redford and Shaw, on the other hand, burst into laughter and gloated. Tom dared to kill Reid in front of Fausto, which was equivalent to offending the entire LT Organization, especially the Saint King who had lived in seclusion for many years. Tom would lose his life!

On the other side of the mountain, Joseph said in shock, "Tom actually killed Reid. Now he's going to suffer."

Albert showed appreciation and said, "Tom is very bold. Not bad."

Reid was a Major Perfection Realm master in the Innate Realm. Even if his neck was twisted off, he would not be dead for a while, but it was also impossible to survive.

He never expected that Tom would have the guts to kill him.

Now he had regretted it. If he had known that Tom was such a lunatic, he would not have declared the fight. Now he had put his life in danger!

As one of the rarest geniuses in the world, Reid cherished his life more than anyone else. He could imagine that in time, he would definitely be able to break through to the Immortal Realm. At that time, he would be invincible.

But now, everything was in vain...

Tom threw him aside as if he were throwing rubbish. He smiled at Fausto and said, "I'm sorry. I hate threats the most. If you had talked to me well, I would have let him go."

Fausto stared fixedly at Tom and his eyes were filled with anger, like a demon coming to destroy everything in the world.

"You're looking for death!" As soon as Fausto finished speaking, he was already in front of Tom and began to attack him.

In an instant, Tom felt the overwhelming pressure, and even his breathing became a little rapid. Fausto was too strong to be on the same level as Reid, completely beyond Tom's expectations.

Tom did not dare to neglect him at all. He knew that if he made a mistake and was caught by Fausto, he would be bound to suffer a lot.

So he could not relax at all.

Although Fausto was very powerful, he was not afraid at all. Instead, he was very excited. Now, he had the ability to fight Fausto than two months ago.

Fausto's style was completely different from Reid's. Every punch and kick of him carried sharpness. Tom's body was cut, bleeding, and his wound was constantly torn.

This was the second time Tom had fought Fausto. This time, he could really feel how terrifying Fausto was.

Now he finally knew why Fausto was called the name, because Fausto's sword was like ice, penetrating, cold, and destructive.

He thought that after he had digested the Essence of Life in his body, he had the strength to fight Fausto, but now it seemed that he was still a little less powerful.

But that did not mean that he would be afraid. No matter how strong Fausto was, it would not affect his will to fight.

Fausto was also very shocked. He had no mercy anymore. Every time he gave out more than 90% of his strength, but Tom was able to dodge it. The improvement Tom has achieved shocked him.

No matter how talented Tom was, now that Tom had killed Reid, the only way for Tom was to die. Fausto's eyes were even colder.

Blood appeared on Tom's eyebrows. It looked like a sword, and it kept turning red until blood dripped down, falling to the ground.

"Tom, it's undeniable that you're talented. It's not an exaggeration to call you a rare genius for a hundred years. I originally wanted to keep you here, but unfortunately, you denied it. In this case, I'll let you see what level the real Immortal Realm is!"

Fausto's mouth did not move, but his words spread all over King's Landing Mountain and exploded in Tom's ear.

At this moment, Tom felt an unprecedented sense of crisis. He had an intuition that he could not stop Fausto from hitting him!

However, he did not wait to die. At the critical moment, he made the most correct reaction and began to gather his strength to block Fausto's next attack.

Almost in an instant, Fausto punched Tom, seeming to cut the air into pieces. Tom kept retreating, dissolving Fausto's power. At the same time, he kept waving his arms, creating a whirlpool in front of him, quickly. He wanted to suck in Fausto's power.

However, Fausto was still too strong. Tom could not bear it at all. In the end, Tom's arms were hit by Fausto's punch so that he could not bear this force and flew backwards.
