

Chapter 801

This sudden change scared everyone present.

No one had expected that the young man would be bounced out like this just by patting Tom, as if he had been hit by a car. It was too scary and incredible.

Angelina and Monroe, especially, both widened their eyes and were completely dumbfounded.

The crowd in the coffee shop was also attracted by the huge noise and thought it was a fight.

"You, you, you..."

Another young man also wanted to teach Tom a lesson, but when he saw this scene, he was immediately dumbfounded.

Just then, Tom opened his eyes and frowned slightly.

It was not easy for Tom to enter a state of meditation, but in the end, someone who should have come to trouble him. What a bad luck.

"What's the matter?" He looked at Angelina and Monroe.

Angelina and Monroe stammered nervously when he looked at them.
"No, nothing..."

The other young man did not dare to look at him and was very afraid.

Because the look in Tom's eyes just now was so scary that they could not bear it at all.

Tom glanced at the man who was blown away by his internal force, shook his head and said, "You can take him to the hospital. He must have broken a bone."

Only then did other people see the man moaning in pain and crying.

The man did not expect that he would be bounced out as if he had been hit by a car. It hurt so much.

Tom stood up and was about to leave when suddenly, he felt something. Looking in another direction, he immediately saw two tall and powerful foreigners, strutting over arrogantly. It was as if the whole street was theirs.

When Tom looked over, they also met Tom's eyes. These two foreigners were two masters of the Innate Realm.

Seeing Tom's eyes, they couldn't help but shiver. Realizing that Tom was more powerful, they quickly lowered their heads, bent down, and walked much more carefully.

That made the others in the coffee shop felt that Tom was very mysterious.

Tom had no choice but to leave the coffee shop, and the Kungfu Cup was coming soon, so he had to go back to the Military Intelligence 3.

Moreover, after this period of practice alone, he improved a lot, both physically and mentally.

After changing his clothes, Tom quickly returned to the Military Intelligence 3.

As soon as he arrived, he immediately sensed that something was wrong.

"These foreigners are so arrogant! How dare they be so arrogant on our H Country territory! They really piss me off!"

"Especially Junichiro Nakai. He's so hateful. I really want to slap him to death!"

"He killed so many agents in H Country. How hateful!"

"Alas, it's a pity that Tom wasn't here yesterday. Otherwise, Tom could have slapped him to the ground."

"Yes, we still have to rely on Tom. Fortunately, Tom is a member of our Military Intelligence 3. Otherwise, we don't know how much we will suffer!"

"Look, it's Tom. Great!"

As soon as Tom came in, he heard a lot of discussions about him. Now that someone even shouted excitedly when seeing him. For a moment, everyone in the hall surrounded him.

"What happened?" Tom asked curiously.

Immediately, they all started to talk about it, letting Tom know what happened at the opening ceremony.

"Tom, you weren't there just now. You didn't see their arrogant faces, especially that Junichiro Nakai. He was too presumptuous. He didn't take our H Country seriously!"

"Tom, the Kungfu Cup will start tomorrow. You must teach them a lesson!"

"I only hate myself for being useless. Otherwise, I will definitely not spare them."

They looked indignant and regarded Tom as a savior. After Tom heard this, he frowned and felt upset.

Those people were really going too far. It was unforgivable to let them go who humiliated H Country like this in the territory of H Country.

People in H Country could not tolerate such a thing.

He nodded and said, "Don't worry. I won't embarrass H Country if I have the chance."

"Okay! Thank you, Tom!"

"Tom must teach these foreigners a lesson."

"It's a good thing that we have Tom!"

Tom nodded and agreed.

Soon, a day passed and the Kungfu Cup officially began.

It was held in a grand manner, and they needed to do a lot because it could not be known by ordinary people.

After everything was done, Tom still admired H Country for its ability to hold the Kungfu Cup properly without letting ordinary people know.

All the previous Kungfu Cup had arranged the battles according to the attendees' strength.

People of the Extrinsic Peak were in the same group, and those of the first stage of the Innate Realm were in the same group, and so on.

In the end, the top four players in the same group could get prizes and the right to challenge up.

In other words, the top four of the Extrinsic Peak were qualified to challenge the masters in the first stage of the Innate Realm, and the top four in the first stage of the Innate Realm were also qualified to challenge the masters in the second stage of the Innate Realm.

And so on.

However, generally speaking, there were very few people who dared to challenge beyond his own level, because it was too difficult.

So in this way, the champion was almost those of the Innate Realm Major Perfection Realm.

Of course, there was no shortage of people who hid their strength before the competition, or broke through in the battle, and could challenge step by step!

Tom looked around. There were more than 200 masters of the Innate Realm in this competition. Among them, there were 12 masters of the Major Perfection Realm beside him.

That could be very scary!

It was known that the Innate Realm masters were rare in the world, let alone the Innate Realm Major Perfection Realm.

Tom was still under a lot of pressure. There were 12 Major Perfection Realm masters, and the last one was a group fight. It was too difficult for him to fight against them alone. Even if he was the first person of the God Becoming Level, it was even more difficult!

He was curious now. Could he really be the only Major Perfection Realm master qualified to compete in H Country?

He felt confused.

Chapter 802

"Are you Tom?"

Tom was on the stage, looking at the huge stadium in front of him. The crowd was in an uproar and the battles were fierce. Suddenly, a voice came beside him.

He looked over and immediately saw a man in a kimono, with a long sword in his hand. The man looked at him provocatively.

When the people next to Tom saw the man, they immediately clenched their fists, revealing hostility and anger.

Even Pence aside gritted his teeth and said, "Junichiro Nakai!"

Tom immediately realized that the man in front of him was Junichiro Nakai. He was indeed arrogant and his strength was also extraordinary.

"It's me." Tom nodded coldly.

Junichiro Nakai was followed by more than a dozen experts of Red Sun State, all of whom were masters of Innate Realm and had extraordinary strength. They walked with their heads held high and looked extremely arrogant, as if they were the owners of this land. They really needed a spanking.

"I heard you beat Johnson, right? I think you also just so so." He said disdainfully again, deliberately annoying Tom.

He raised the corner of his mouth and looked down at Tom in a particularly arrogant manner.

Tom also smiled. Although this Junichiro Nakai was a master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and was stronger than the foreign leader Johnson, he was just like an ant in Tom's eyes and was no match for Tom.

"I heard you have an abnormal relationship with your mother-in-law, haven't you?" Tom said with a half-smile, "You are a typical man of Red Sun State."

When Tom said this, many people present burst out laughing.

Tom didn't slander him, but Junichiro Nakai indeed had such a skeleton in his closet. When Junichiro Nakai was still in the second stage of the Innate Realm, he lost his mind and defiled his mother-in-law because of the mistakes in his practice. It was spread out at that time and became a big joke. It also became Junichiro Nakai's stain.

But after Junichiro Nakai successfully reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, no one dared to joke in front of Junichiro Nakai again.

Because they knew that this was something Junichiro Nakai could not tolerate. Who dared to say that would be killed by Junichiro Nakai!

"Hahaha, ridiculous. Junichiro Nakai actually had an abnormal relationship with his mother-in-law. He's really a talent. He's really a man of Red Sun State."

"That's right. I guess Junichiro Nakai often watches this kind of movie."

"What do you mean by saying that he often watches this kind of movie? Junichiro Nakai is the main character. Well, I heard that the movie at that time was wildly spread in Red Sun State."

"Hahaha..."

Everyone in H Country began to laugh, pointing at Junichiro Nakai and laughing.

They had been humiliated by Junichiro

Nakai yesterday, and they couldn't vent their anger at that time. Now that they had Tom here, they did not have to be afraid of Junichiro Nakai.

And this counterattack was so cool. It was great to work off their anger.

But Junichiro Nakai didn't feel good at that time. Nakai's face turned livid and he was so angry that his body trembled uncontrollably.

This must be his stain. Whoever dared to mention it, he would kill the other party. After he reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and became the strongest man in Red Sun State, no one dared to mention it.

But now, Tom actually mentioned it in front of so many people. Tom was provoking Junichiro Nakai!

No, he was not just provoking him. At that moment, Junichiro Nakai was so angry that he shouted out, "Fuck! The people from H Country, do you want to die?"

Junichiro Nakai was so angry that he hit Tom directly. He attacked fiercely because he wanted to kill Tom directly.

His speed was unbelievable. There were so many people present and they could not see his track except Tom. They only felt that it was a flash in front of their eyes. Then Junichiro Nakai came to Tom and punched him. There came sounds of bang as if a shell had exploded in the air.

The clothes on Tom's chest were blown up and flew away. If Tom was punched, the damage would be no less than being hit by a speeding car.

But how could Junichiro Nakai hit Tom?

The corners of Tom's mouth rose slightly and he smiled disdainfully. But he did not make a big movement. He just dodged Junichiro Nakai's punch easily.

Junichiro Nakai was not too surprised that Tom was able to dodge his punch. After all, he knew that Tom was a master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and had defeated Johnson. He must have had some skills.

In fact, the punch just now was just a cover for Junichiro Nakai, and then it was his real killing move.

Junichiro Nakai missed a punch but did not stop at all. Instead, he punched faster, like a flood, without stopping. His momentum was extremely fierce, like bullets from a machine gun.

He kept throwing punches. Even if Tom had three heads and six arms, he could not withstand such a strong attack.

But in fact, Tom didn't want to dodge them at all. He was just observing Junichiro Nakai's kung fu. Otherwise, he could defeat Junichiro Nakai in three moves.

It had to be admitted that this

Junichiro Nakai really had the right to be arrogant. His strength was already above Johnson's, especially his study of martial arts, which was more profound. And his moves were very exquisite.

If Tom had just reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, he would not have been a match for Junichiro Nakai at all.

But now, Junichiro Nakai was just an ant.

It was only a few seconds, from the time when Junichiro Nakai was being scolded to the time when Junichiro Nakai was angry and attacked. In these seconds, they had already attacked dozens of times.

The damage was so terrible that everyone else hid away, afraid that they would be hurt.

Because of their fight, so much noise was made that many people in the stadium looked over.

Even some of the contestants in the competition were attracted.

The battle between masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm was rare, and the damage it brought was even more terrifying.

Junichiro Nakai was getting more and more frightened. Originally, he didn't take Tom seriously, but now Tom's performance had exceeded his expectations. He had used 90 % of his strength, and even after dozens of moves, he did not defeat Tom.

Just then, Tom said, "How dare you trouble me with such strength?"

As he finished speaking, Junichiro Nakai suddenly felt a great danger and his heart beat faster!

Chapter 803

"No!"

Junichiro Nakai shouted in his heart. In an instant, he was fearful as he realized that Tom had not used all his strength just now.

What was revealed at this moment was Tom's true power, and it was a power that had completely surpassed his.

He shouted loudly, trying to block Tom's punch, but he still underestimated Tom. Even if he had tried his best, he still failed. Tom's punch broke through his defense and hit him in the chest through his arms. With a loud bang, Junichiro Nakai's horse stance collapsed and he flew out in the air.

Blood flowed out of the corners of his mouth as the Qi and blood in his body was churning.

Although the punch didn't kill Junichiro Nakai, it also hurt him a lot!

The main thing is that the punch was made unexpectedly. One second ago, Tom was still on the back foot. But all of a sudden, Junichiro Nakai was defeated.

That was why so many people present didn't react and stood still.

Only the people from H Country were not surprised. They had absolute confidence in Tom, and they thought it was only a matter of time that Tom defeated Junichiro Nakai.

"This..."

"Did Junichiro Nakai lose? He lost so completely. How could that be possible?"

Who is this? Why haven't I seen him before? There is no information about him in the international league of experts."

"Nakai actually lost. Unbelievable..."

Even the masters of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm not far away were extremely surprised to see this scene. They knew Junichiro Nakai's strength, Just now they were watching to see how Junichiro Nakai defeated Tom.

In the blink of an eye, Junichiro Nakai was defeated.

In an instant, the way they looked at Tom changed. They immediately frowned and got terrified!

But after Tom defeated Junichiro Nakai with one punch, he did not take advantage of the victory, but stopped. Looking at Junichiro Nakai, who was full of surprise and fear on his face, he smiled. "Are you ready? I'm going to start fighting back."

After hearing his words, Junichiro Nakai's pupils suddenly contracted. His heart beat faster again. He was both scared and stressed.

Without hesitation, he began to draw his sword!

Because he realized that if he only fought with his fists and feet, he couldn't beat Tom. Only by using his sword could he defeat Tom, even killed Tom.

Under the circumstances, he gave up the Spirit of Martial Arts. He thought as long as he can kill Tom, being despicable could be accepted.

His speed was very fast. After Tom finished speaking, he put his hand directly on the hilt of the sword and began to pull out the sword.

As long as he pulled out his sword successfully, with his sword skills, the person from H Country in front of him was definitely no match for him!

He was best known for his swordsmanship, otherwise he would not have become the number one master of the Red Sun State.

His swordsmanship was much better than his martial arts!

And for any true master, the strength displayed with and without a weapon was absolutely different.

Other Major Perfection Realm masters in the Innate Realm also sensed Junichiro Nakai's thoughts and immediately heatedly discussed.

"Junichiro Nakai is going to draw his sword and kill Tom!"

"Junichiro Nakai's swordsmanship is extremely terrifying. He's much better than his martial arts. I've heard of a saying that if Junichiro Nakai draws his sword, he could even defeat two strong men of the same realm! This person is in danger."

"If this person is really killed by Junichiro Nakai, then H Country will be disgraced!"

"I think this person will either die or be crippled. Without this person, H Country is no longer a threat!"

Tom naturally saw through Junichiro Nakai's thoughts. He didn't have any fear or panic. Instead, the corners of his mouth lifted slightly, showing a half-smile.

For a moment, he moved, just as Junichiro Nakai's hand reached the hilt of the sword, he disappeared from where he was, and his speed was extremely fast. There were more than ten meters between the two people. As if he was moving in an instant, when he appeared again, he was already standing in front of Junichiro Nakai.

Tom struck Junichiro Nakagei with a slap.

The slap made a thunderous sound, as if it contained thunder in his palm, capable of blowing up everything, including Junichiro Nakai in front of him.

At this moment, Junichiro Nakai had already pulled out half of his sword.

The whole sword was about to be pulled out. As long as Junichiro Nakai successfully pulled out the sword, then his strength would undergo a transformation. He believed that at that time Tom was not his opponent!

But how could Tom give him this opportunity?

"Drawing your sword? No way." Tom sneered and attacked Junichiro Nakai.

His speed was so fast that he first forced back Junichiro Nakai with a palm, of which his palm swept up a gale out of thin air, actually blowing Junichiro Nakai's clothes to flutter, of which his top lifted just enough to block the view in front of him.

It was also at this time that Tom struck again, cutting Junichiro Nakagei's sword with his bare hands and forcing it out of Junichiro Nakagei's hand.

Then he kicked it out with great strength and directly kicked Junichiro Nakai into the air, forming a parabola of 60 degrees. Junichiro Nakai flew in the air for several seconds before falling down!

"Thud!!"

After Junichiro Nakai fell down, his face was pale, full of fear and weakness. He opened his eyes wide. In disbelief, he looked at Tom with fear in his eyes. He was completely speechless. He looked at Tom examining his sword, very shocked and horrified.

Tom now looked very relaxed, just like taking a walk after dinner, without the appearance of having fought intensely.

It was a stark contrast to his current predicament.

And most importantly, Tom directly grabbed his sword.

To a swordsman, a sword was his second life, an organ in his body.

For so many years, he had never been robbed of his sword!

This showed how terrifying the person in front of him was!

For a moment, Junichiro Nakai even suspected that Tom was not a master of Major Perfection Realm in Innate Realm, but a master in the God Becoming Level!!!

Chapter 804

Junichiro Nakai was not the only one who thought this way. Many people present felt the same.

When they stared at Tom again, their attitude was different.

It was visible that their contempt to him vanished.

Now that they were stunned by his capability, or to be more exact, felt scared of him.

Tom was far more powerful than they imagined!

In the Major Perfection of Innate Realm, they had never seen someone with such terrifying strength. Even a master like Junichiro Nakai was subdued before he could pull out his sword.

That proved that the gulf between them was enormous. Tom could easily kill Junichiro!

Even the delegation of H Country knew that Tom was awesome, but little did they expect that he was able to defeat Junichiro Nakai!

After all, Junichiro Nakai was not just somebody. In the international masters list, included in the best of best, he could still rank almost the top!

Over the years, many H Country agents were killed by Junichiro Nakai, but they could do nothing to him. Even when he came to their country to join the Kungfu Cup, and they had no choice but allow him.

Until now, Tom defeated Junichiro Nakai in such a relaxed manner and even grabbed his sword.

His winning not only added honour to H Country, but also gestured the failure of the Red Sun State!

Upon seeing Tom's winning, the audiences from H Country were soaked in excitement that they couldn't help shouting, "Well done! Tom! Brovo!"

"Tom did a good job! We can finally teach them a lesson! Hahaha!" Some shouted happily.

"Well done, Tom! From now on, Tom is my idol!" Some said in a happy tone.

Some seconded, "It's a blessing for H Country to have a talent like Tom!"

"Hahaha, Junichiro Nakai, you little trickster, wasn't you very arrogant just now? Your arrogance shall be your downfall! Compared with Tom, you're nothing. Tom snatched your sword away quickly and easily!"

"Great! Awesome!"

Waves of applause rang out from H Country people, and they were all filled with pride and excitement. Thorn and Marlin's eyes were even wet. They clenched their fists in excitement and joy.

The way they looked at Tom was not only admiring. They were also moved by the glory he brought to the country.

It couldn't blame them for being so emotional. After all, in the past years, H Country had experienced too many slights in international society due to their weakness. They wasn't able to gain revenge for their former colleagues. The pangs of grievances and angers had been holding back in their heart for many years!

Now that everything was changed. Tom's performance had greatly boosted their morale, as if the uncomfortable feeling that pent up inside them all these years was suddenly eased! They had not been so happy for a long time.

Tom noticed their emotions and responded with a smile. At this moment, the happiness surged throughout his body. He burst out some bright laugh. "Hahaha! Junichiro Nakai, is this your strength as the number one expert in the Red Sun State? So much for the Red Sun State!"

"You!!" Upon hearing his words, Junichiro Nakai was so angry that he spat out another mouthful of blood.

His subordinates quickly rushed to help him up in fear.

At this time, Tom directly threw out his own sword without looking back. The sword was planted right behind the flag of the Red Sun State. Then he said coldly, "Junichiro Nakai, I'm taking the sword of yours. When someone from Red Sun State can defeat me, then I'll return the sword!"

Tom's move once again shocked all the audiences, making the noisy atmosphere quiet again.

Junichiro Nakai had never been humiliated to such an extent. He spat out another mouthful of blood and then losing his consciousness.

After he fainted, the entire delegation of Red Sun State lost their backbones and began to panic. They lowered their heads and did not dare to make any eye contact with H Country people. They quickly retreat dejectedly while supported Junichiro Nakai .

As soon as they left, the compliment and applause broke out at the scene.

The H Country people shouted in chorus,

"Long live Tom!"

"Long live Tom!"

"Tom is invincible!"

At that moment, all the H Country viewers restored their courage and confidence. From that day on, they could no longer feel like they were inferior in front of the foreign experts as before and began to really raise their heads and chest.

Tom earned the H Country people the proud and courage they deserved.

When Tom saw this change, a broad smile suffused his face as he thought that his effort were worthy.

Now, H Country was indeed confronted with hostility from many countries, which made the H Country people feel unconfident or even feel inferior. However, he knew that they were never great, only lacking a sense of national confidence.

He couldn't do anything to change that since he was not powerful enough. Now that he had the ability and status, he should help the people regain this national confidence!

His eyes flashed across the faces of many foreigners present. Although it was calm gaze and without hostility, with his performance just now, his image of incomparable devil was already deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

As a result, everyone who was stared by him lowered their heads and did not dare to look at him.

Even the dozen Major Perfection Realm experts were subconsciously dodged his gaze.

Their scare amused Tom. He raised a disdainful smile. No matter how many foreign experts there were, they were just nothing to him. None of them was his match.

Turning around, he saw Pence, Marlin, and the others. They looked at him with burning eyes, which made him a little uncomfortable. He smiled and said, "What! Why you guys look at me like this? Is there something wrong with me?"

He was in the mood for a joke.

Pence and the others took a deep breath. The next thing they did left him dumbfounded and flattered. They all bowed to him and said in one voice, "Tom, thank you for venting the anger for us."

"You guys..." Tom was stunned for a moment and quickly waved his hand, "Damn! What's the big deal, huh? I'm H Country people! This is the least I can do."

"No, Tom, you don't understand." A executive of the Military Intelligence 3 said seriously, "Tom, you joined us late. You have never experienced the humiliation we have suffered internationally over the years. Especially that Junichiro Nakai. We hated him gut and wanted to tear him apart, but unfortunately we don't have the ability. And today, you did what so many of us was eager to do for so many years. This is the way we thank you!"

"Thank you, Tom!" He added.

He said in a solemn tone.

The others held the same feeling, which made Tom silent at this moment.

He felt everyone's suffering all these years and how grateful they were to him at that moment.

After a moment of silence, he also said seriously, "Please rest assured that with me in the future, I will do my best to resume the dignity that H Country once lost!"

Chapter 805

Tom said this seriously as if it was his mission. Others felt at ease after hearing it and thought that as long as Tom promised, he would definitely be able to do it.

When Tom was just an ordinary person, he had no concept of country, nor did he know his country was facing this kind of problem. If he still had no ability, then let it pass. But now, he had grown up in the stable and warm environment of the country. It was time for him to serve the country.

So he made a decision. He must win the championship in the Kungfu Cup this year, and make the H Country a good reputation in the international community. Fighting for the motherland!

That was what he should do.

The atmosphere was so strange after what had happened just now. The martial artists who were originally participating in the competition felt Tom's strength, and they all fell into torpor, and a huge sense of powerlessness arose in their hearts. With such a strong person like Tom, it was almost impossible for them to win the championship!

For those foreign experts in the Innate Realm, none of them spoke anymore. They looked meaningfully at Tom and were extremely frightened and shocked.

Even the top experts of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm were now much more modest and did not dare to be as arrogant as before.

Although they were also masters of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm and were bound to win the championship this time, they really didn't have much confidence after seeing Tom's strength.

And they all considered Tom as their biggest threat!

From now on, they would analyze Tom earnestly, get Tom's information as soon as possible to learn his weaknesses.

This time, prizes provided by the Kungfu Cup were too rich, especially for the champion. It was a golden opportunity for them to be qualified to enter the secret realm. All the attendees wanted to get this opportunity. As such, they all wanted to win this championship.

How could Tom ignore their thoughts? However, he didn't take them seriously. What he did just now was a deterrent.

Otherwise, he could just defeat Junichiro Nakai and there was no need to crush him in a humiliating way to make him the public enemy.

When he did this, he wanted to frighten others, put more pressure on himself, and find out what his limits were.

Now, he was invincible of the God Becoming Level, and no one could defeat him on the same level. The only thing that could pressure him was that several people fought with him at the same time.

And the competition system this year was exactly what he wanted.

Although Tom usually looked gentle and elegant, he was actually a very crazy person, full of the genes of adventure. Otherwise, no matter how talented he was, he would not have reached the current level in such a short time.

Then, the official made the Kungfu Cup continue.

It soon returned to normal. Even though the champion was very attractive this time, other people including the top four, the top eight, and even the top four of each group could win rich prizes.

Even if Tom was the favorite of the championship, they could still compete for other rankings.

Moreover, the atmosphere in the Kungfu Cup was too grand and exciting. This was a carnival of martial artists. As long as you had confidence in yourselves and were addicted to martial arts, you would not want to waste such an opportunity!

You know, over the years, a great number of martial artists have broken through and gained fame in the Kungfu Cup?

Even if there was a high death rate of the Kungfu Cup, many were attracted to the fierce merciless competition.

So the competition quickly returned to normal. Tom sat in his seat. He was one of the organizers of the Kungfu Cup this time and was almost the head of the security group for the Kungfu Cup.

Some experts in the Innate Realm with sharp insight could not help but discuss with each other when they saw Tom sitting in that position.

"The Chinese! He is so powerful that even a master like Junichiro Nakai can't do anything to strike back! If he has participated in the competition, he would probably take away the champion."

"That's not necessarily true. The competition system of the Kungfu Cup is different from the traditional one. After the top eight have been selected, the following competition is not a one-on-one match, but a group fight. At that moment, he was the only person from the H Country, so the other seven people will definitely work together to kill him first. Do you think this Chinese can beat seven with one?"

"That's true. These are seven 5S-level superpowers. Even though each of them punches him once, he would be dead."

"Moreover, have you noticed that the Chinese person sits in that position for the head of security group in H Country? He might not participate in the competition."

"Is that true? Unbelievable. The H Country would not let him compete unless it is crazy. How can it be? This is the only hope for the H Country, right?"

"Hey, have you forgotten that?. H Country, the lion of the past, is already much weaker today. There haven't been any powerful experts for so many years. What's more, their biological technology is incomparable to powerful countries like Country M. Naturally, it's impossible to cultivate too many powerful people. Besides, due to the competition system, if this Chinese went up by himself, he would be a dead body. Do you think the H Country is such stupid to let him participate?"

"That makes sense. From this point of view, H Country still has no hope of winning this time. Hahaha."

"I think that's probably the case..."

Many people said the same thing in different places. According to what they knew of the H Country, it had been too weak over the years. The Country would not allow Tom to participate in the match due to the competition system as he is a powerful expert who hasn't been seen for many years.

Unless H Country wanted Tom to die.

So Tom wasn't a big threat to them.

Of course, this was just their analysis. It was still unknown what the H Country would do.

The first day of the Kungfu Cup passed quickly. Because there were a great number of participants, and the Kungfu Cup only lasted for two months, there had been a lot of competitions every day.

The Kungfu Cup was held in H Country this year, so there were many martial artists in this Country. The number was 400, accounting for a quarter of the total.

However, the results were not satisfactory on the first day. Most of the H Country martial artists lost their games. On average, eight out of ten Chinese competitors were lost. What a tragedy!

More than half of the H Country fighters died in the arena.

"Alas!!"

General Watson, who saw this tragedy, sighed deeply with his face full of sadness and helplessness. He said sincerely, "Our H Country's martial artists are still weak!"

The others also lowered their heads and were very disappointed...

Chapter 806

Tom didn't feel well either.

Indeed, H Country still had a long way to go.

H Country was not as well developed as other powerful countries in the world, whether in terms of technology or martial arts.

And though he had trounced Junichiro Nakai and showed everyone his strength, it didn't help improve his countrymen's strength.

Marlin said resentfully, gnashing his teeth, "They're too arrogant! They are so ruthless and they don't even give their rivals a chance to surrender. If I hadn't lost the qualification to participate because I'm over 40, I would have fought against these scumbags and killed them!"

Not only him, but many others were also indignant.

Amos slapped the table so hard that the wood table was smashed into pieces. "These scum! They've gone too far! How dare they kill H Country's martial artists? They're important to our country! I really want to kill them!"

But Tom was silent. Then Silas said to Tom, "Tom, as far as I know, you should be qualified to participate. Aren't you going to participate in the Kungfu Cup?"

Now everyone was looking at Tom.

Indeed Tom was qualified to participate. He was not yet forty years old!

But because Tom was too invincible and had never lost, they regarded him as a pillar and even forgot that he was still young.

Their eyes lit up. If Tom was to participate, then those foreigners would suffer.

But Tom said, "I'll wait for my superior's instruction."

Hearing his words, everyone realized that Tom was not an ordinary person. If he participated and got into the last eight, he would face tough rivals.

They all became silent.

But an angry roar suddenly came from under the scene, "Hey! Damn you! My brother has clearly surrendered, why do you still want to kill him? You must give me an explanation!"

This voice was very loud. Even in such a noisy situation, Tom still heard him. He immediately looked over.

Then he frowned.

On a ring, many indignant people were surrounding a tall black man. There lay a dead man of H Country, whose eyes were still open and full of unwillingness and confusion.

Tom immediately realized what happened. The man of H Country had surrendered, but the black man did not let him go and even beat him to death.

Tom felt angry.

In fact, the Kungfu Cup had clear rules. As long as one's rival surrendered, he must stop attacking, or he would violate the rules.

But this black man killed his rival, which showed that he didn't take the rules and H Country seriously at all.

Tom had shown his strength but the black man still didn't take his country seriously. He couldn't tolerate that.

He snorted and strode over.

The others also realized this. Anger appeared on their faces and they walked over quickly.

There were conflicts on the ring. Other black men rushed to the ring and ganged up on the people of H Country.

They were ruthless.

No others dared to stir up trouble in the Kungfu Cup before.

"Stop!"

Amos was the first to go up to the right. His roar blasted out. He glanced at everyone with burning eyes, and at those black men indignantly.

But those blacks did not stop. Instead, some of them took the opportunity to make more attacks on the people of H

Country.

Amos glared at them and was about to teach them a lesson.

However, at this moment, from another direction, there came a solemn and intimidating voice, "Amos, what do you want to do?!"

Then a tall black man appeared on the ring. When Amos saw him, he immediately stopped and did not dare to make a move. He recognized that this black man was a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. Gritting his teeth, Amos said, "Black Mamba! Are you taking the lead in stirring up trouble?"

Black Mamba was two meters tall and extremely strong, like a bear. He was at least three hundred kilograms in weight. But he wasn't clumsy at all. Instead, he was very nimble and agile.

And he exuded a surging momentum, which was very frightening. Amos was completely overwhelmed so that he didn't dare to do anything.

Black Mamba could speak fluent Mandarin. "I think you're the one who's stirring up trouble. Amos, as the organizer of the Kungfu Cup, how could you people of H Country interfered with the competition and made things difficult for my fellow? What do you mean? Do you think that you can do whatever you?"

His words were very loud and full of authority, but that was nonsense.

But his level was higher than Amos's, so Amos didn't dare to refute him.

Amos avoided his gaze, looked at those people of the H Country, and asked, "Tell me, what's going on?"

Immediately, a middle-aged man stood up with tears all over his face. He cupped his fists at Amos and said loudly, his voice full of anger and grief, "Please help me seek justice! My brother Cao Wei and this black man had a fight. My brother had surrendered, but he ignored the rules and continued to attack my brother. He took advantage and punched my brother in the temple. And my brother... was killed on the spot!!!"

After he finished, the others also shouted, "Please help us seek justice!"

Hearing them, Amos felt a surge of anger and clenched his fists tightly. He took a deep breath and said to them, "Don't worry, we will help you."

He said seriously. Then he looked at the black man and questioned him, "Since your rival has surrendered, why did you kill him?"

Amos's momentum made panicked. After all, he was only at the level of Extrinsic Peak. But he heard Black Manba's snort and felt the pressure disappeared. His face showed a fearless expression again.

"I didn't hear his surrender." The black man said indifferently.

Chapter 807

He looked arrogant and even was easy. He did not take Amos seriously at all and even was sarcastic in his eyes.

As a black man, he had the advantage and was strong. So he looked down on the skinny people of H Country. In his opinion, they were weak and could not be compared to them.

Even if Tom looked powerful just now, so what? Not all of the people of H Country were as strong as Tom. He couldn't beat Tom, but he could beat the weak people of H Country.

That was why he was confident.

What's more, he was protected by Black Mamba. He didn't believe that the people of H Country would dare to do anything to him.

Amos looked at him and was furious. Immediately, the people of H Country behind him shouted, "You are a liar. You clearly heard my brother surrender a few times just now. You killed my brother on purpose! A life for a life. You broke the rules of the Kungfu Cup and must die!"

He was the elder brother of the deceased. He felt hatred and anger. And several martial artists of H Country were with him. They were upright and was angry. They wanted justice from the black!

Amos was about to speak when General Watson and Pence arrived. General Watson said, "Instructor Lee, what's going on?"

Amos quickly told the story. After General Watson heard it, he frowned and was angry. He snorted heavily and said, "You broke the rules of the Kungfu Cup. He surrendered. Why did you kill him? You have to give an explanation!"

Although General Watson was not a military officer, he was imposing. The black man was tall, but he was shocked by General Watson with awe on his face. He subconsciously took two steps back and hid behind Black Mamba.

Black Mamba said, "He was articulate. He didn't hear that his opponent surrender! There's a saying in your country that it's not a crime if you don't know. My people don't know that he has surrendered. He thought his opponent was brave and was attacking him."

Black Mamba said it and also teased the people of H Country. They were not brave and surrender when they could not fight. They were cowards.

A lot of people's attention was attracted here. General Watson and Pence looked at each other and realized that if they didn't handle it well, things like it would happen again.

And the H Country martial arts would definitely be targeted further. When the Kungfu Cup was held, many people might die.

It was not easy to cultivate a martial artist. The 400 martial artists present were important talents for the H Country. They couldn't lose many martial artists.

So they had to deal with it well.

General Watson snorted and said, "You have no evidence. Every battle is monitored. We can watch the surveillance. If we find out that the H Country martial artist has surrendered and this black martial artist is still holding on, we will definitely punish him severely!"

When Black Mamba heard it, he frowned slightly. He looked a little fierce in his eyes.

But immediately, the black man whispered to him and Black Mamba looked bright. He said in fluent mandarin, "There's no need to check the surveillance. He didn't know your language. He didn't know that his opponent was surrendering. He thought that he was talking touch."

There was nothing wrong with his logic. Immediately, the black man said, "Your language is not widely used in the world. You should surrender in our language."

After saying this, the foreigners beside him began to laugh. They whispered and ridiculed the H Country.

It was so humiliating to surrender in a foreign language in the territory of H Country.

Suddenly, the people of H Country were furious. Even General Watson, Pence, and others couldn't help but fly into a rage!

But they couldn't find any reason to refute for a moment, which was the most uncomfortable.

Compared to their language, the language of H Country was used less and was not used internationally.

"You!"

The people of H Country were all angry, especially the brother of the deceased. He gritted their teeth and wanted to kill the arrogant black man to avenge his brother!

However, the black man said unscrupulously, "I suggest you surrendering next time in our language. Otherwise, we won't understand and will kill you, hahaha..."

The foreigners laughed after hearing his words.

General Watson, Pence and the others clenched their fists. All people of H Country looked at them with desire and pleading. They hoped that they could be upright and help them. They could not let these foreigners be so arrogant!

General Watson also realized this and said loudly, "You are so eloquent that you can confuse right and wrong! Even if you don't know our language, you should know the body language of surrender! You are deliberately reckless! Come on, detain the black player who breaks the rules!"

General Watson waved his big and looked powerful. In an instant, a few agents with high martial arts began to catch the black player!

But immediately, a few tall black men came out to stop the agents. They confronted each other directly.

Amos immediately widened his eyes and said loudly, "Are you going to break the rules with violence?"

They were pressed by Amos, but they didn't retreat. They looked careless and did not take Amos seriously at all, which made Amos even angrier.

He snorted and attacked them.

No one except Black Mamba was a match for him.

But just as he attacked, Black Mamba also attacked. He stepped out and punched Amos with a seemingly easy punch.

Amos collided with him and was swung. He took several steps back and almost lost his balance.

At the same time, his vital energy and blood were vigorous and he almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

Black mamba was superior to him. He was no match for Black Mamba.

"Black Mamba! Are you going to unreasonably protect your people?" Amos immediately scolded.

However, Black Mamba just flicked his fingernails casually and said, "He explained it clearly just now that he didn't know that the opponent had surrendered. But your officials confuse right and wrong and protect your people unreasonably. You want to arrest my people. You are not just and are breaking the rules of the Kungfu Cup. You should give us an explanation!"

Chapter 808

Black Mamba was very determined. He barked back and looked at Amos and General Watson fiercely.

His attitude was extreme arrogant.

General Watson's face immediately darkened and he said coldly, "Black Mamba, as a strong master at the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, are you going to go against our H Country?"

Black Mamba was not afraid of General Watson's threat at all. He even smiled and said disapprovingly, "I'm just telling the truth. But for your sake, I won't blame your people for being rude."

General Watson was very angry, but for a while, he had no choice. After all, Black Mamba represented not only himself but his country. If he was not handled in a proper way, conflicts may come.

Just then, a voice came from the audience.

"We are being rude?"

When everyone heard this voice, they immediately became excited. They saw Tom walking over unhurriedly. Everyone around him moved aside and looked at him with admiration.

General Watson was relieved to see Tom.

He suddenly felt relaxed a lot.

Even he himself did not notice this change. Unknowingly, Tom had become the backbone of the Kungfu Cup. As long as Tom was around, all the trouble would be solved.

Tom had actually arrived early but he didn't show up immediately. Instead, he hid in the crowd because he wanted to see if General Watson and Pence could solve the problem without him.

However, he was disappointed. It was not that General Watson and Pence were not capable enough, but that they were not strong enough to defeat them. And these foreigners, who had bad intentions, were full of hostility to H Country. Without power, it was difficult to deal with them.

No wonder the superiors chose him as the head of security for the Kungfu Cup. They had already expected this to happen.

He was almost certain that Black Mamba was behind them, and that Black Mamba might have negotiated with other masters at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm.

But Tom had just defeated Junichiro Nakai, wasn't it enough to intimidate them?

Tom could not help but shake his head, and a sneer appeared. Since that was the case, then he should make them more afraid!

When Black Mamba saw Tom, his eyes narrowed slightly, but he was not too afraid, and soon returned calm.

"Tom, I admit that you are very good at fighting, but what happened just now was the official fault of your government. You have to teach martial artists to communicate in English. It has nothing to do with my people. You should be responsible for the death of this man!" Black Mamba said loudly.

He spoke very fluently as if he had been prepared this speech to deal with Tom.

The others looked at Tom and wondered what he would do.

Tom ignored him, and said, "Is it because our H Country has been keeping a low profile internationally all these years that you have the illusion that we are weak?"

He said this and looked straight at Black Mamba. His eyes were very deep, like a bottomless pool, which made Black Mamba panic. He avoided eye contact and snorted, "Tom, are you threatening me? Everyone can tell that it was your man's fault!"

His eyes were clearly saying, "I'm not afraid of your threats. Do you dare to hit my people?"

Tom ignored him again and said directly to the agents, "Go arrest the black man and deal with him according to the Kungfu Cup rules."

"Copy that! Tom!"

Tom's arrival gave them courage all of a sudden, and they were not afraid at all. They strode towards the black man again, wanting to catch him.

Immediately, some black men stepped forward to stop them.

But at this moment, Tom's eyes swept over them, full of pressure. When the black people's eyes met his, they immediately stood there in a daze. Fear appeared in their eyes, and sweat dripped down their foreheads, and they didn't dare to move at all.

These agents successfully captured that black man.

As Black Mamba saw this, he became unhappy and snorted, "Tom, are you showing off your strength? I'm afraid it's not up to you!"

Then he began to exert terrifying pressure on these H Country agents. As an expert at the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, although the pressure he exerted was not as intense as Tom did, it was still very scary. All of a sudden, the agents did not dare to act rashly.

But immediately, Tom coughed, and the agents relaxed and regained their senses.

Black Mamba's face darkened and he said fiercely, "Tom, you go too far! Do you think you can do whatever you want because you're the organizer of the Kungfu Cup?!"

With a wave of his big hand, he ordered his men to attack the agents directly.

Amos and Pence would not let this happen. Anyway, with the support of Tom, they did not have to fear Black Mamba at all.

Moreover, they all understood that this was a good opportunity to build their reputation.

Those foreigners were no match for them at all, and they were beaten back.

Amos and Marlin didn't hit them too badly. After all, the Kungfu Cup still had to go on. If something serious really happened, it would not be good for H Country.

But when Black Mamba saw this, he was unhappy. Finally, he attacked Amos, Marlin, and the others.

His strength, compared to Junichiro Nakai, was much higher. And his strong figure brought great pressure to Amos and Marlin, which made their expressions change.

But it was also at this time that Tom made a move and teased him, "You finally can't help but make a move?"

Then Tom's body disappeared. When he appeared again, he was in front of Black Mamba and directly punched Black Mamba's fist.

The smile on Black Mamba's face stiffened and turned into a painful expression. His huge body was hit back.

"Tom, you..."

Black Mamba was punched back by Tom and felt as if he had been hit by a train!

Before he could finish his sentence, Tom appeared in front of him again and kicked him over. It was too late for him to dodge, so he could only hastily raise his arms to resist, but he couldn't stop Tom's kick and was knocked out.

Chapter 809

Before Black Mamba fell down, Tom was in front of him and punched him roughly again.

At this moment, Black felt Tom's incomparable strength. Even though Tom was much smaller than him, he was no fighting match for Tom.

The others couldn't help but be shocked to see Tom kick Black away, but because of what happened to Junichiro Nakai just now, they weren't so surprised.

"Since you want our H Country to explain to you, I will explain on behalf of it." Tom's voice sounded normal, but the pressure and coldness in his tone was chilling.

Fortunately, Black was also a master at the Innate Major Perfection Realm. He adjusted his posture soon and dodged Tom's punch from an exquisite angle. Then he landed again and began to fight back against Tom.

He had extremely rich fighting experience, as well as a natural fighting advantage with his powerful race, so he was very confident in himself. Even if Tom had defeated Junichiro Nakai just now, he believed that he had the power to fight against Tom!

Besides, even if he lost, so what? At least he could try out Tom's strength!

"Tom, others are afraid of you, but I am not afraid of you!" Black snorted coldly and began to fight back. He was so fast that he looked like a huge brown bear. He was very agile and powerful. Every punch and kick he made was full of explosive power!

If it was Junichiro Nakai, he would not be Black Mamba's opponent without drawing his sword. No wonder Black Mamba had the guts to provoke Tom after he saw Tom defeated Junichiro Nakai.

However, since Black wanted to provoke Tom, he had to pay the corresponding price!

This time, Tom did not show weakness as he had done a few times before. Instead, he directly used 70 % of his strength to beat Black up.

And even though he was beating Black up, he didn't use any subtle moves, but directly fought him!

He wanted to defeat Black in his confident field!

Black obviously noticed Tom's movements. He smiled coldly and thought that Tom was so arrogant and reckless.

Everyone in the world knew that the advantages of H Country's martial artists were their exquisite moves, and their weakness was their lack of strength. But now, this man from H Country actually wanted to crush him in strength, which was completely suicidal.

Although he was punched back by Tom just now, it was because he did not stand up well and did not give play to 100 % of his strength.

Now he was ready, but Tom still wanted to confront him. He was just courting death.

He revealed a grim smile, feeling that he was sure to win.

However, his smile did not last long. Soon, when he collided Tom, his expression changed! Because he felt the ferocious power coming from Tom. Every punch that hit him shocked him a lot, making his bones uncomfortable.

He even felt that his blood was rolling around, and he wanted to vomit.

On the contrary, Tom had no reactions, but walked leisurely. It seemed that he didn't use all his strength.

But how could that be possible? Black Mamba was a strong man with racial talent. In terms of strength, he was far more powerful than the people in H Country.

"That's impossible!" Black couldn't help but exclaim.

Tom just sneered and said, "How dare you challenge me with your weak power? You just want to court death!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Tom immediately began to intensify his attack. His punch directly broke Black's defense and reached his face.

With a bang, Black's huge body was heavily knocked out.

And he didn't scream this time because he had fainted.

If he was in a wrestle, he had been defeated by Tom.

Tom stopped and did not follow up the victory with hot pursuit. He looked at the group of foreigners who had been stunned and said coldly, "You dare to behave atrociously on our H Country's territory. Do you really think that our H Country has no people to deal with you?"

His words were very plain, but the toughness and domineering air in his tone was something that they had not seen on the people of H Country over the years.

Over the years, because of the great decrease in H Country's power, many martial artists of H Country began to keep a low profile and endure silently internationally. It had been a long time since someone as strong and tough as Tom appeared.

So when they saw Tom's eyes, they didn't dare to look at him and hurriedly lowered their heads.

Tom snorted coldly and said to Amos and the others, "Detain those people who violate the rules and disqualify them from the competition."

"Yes! Tom!"

They responded loudly with enthusiasm and excitement. And they also admired and respected Tom immensely, even Amos.

Amos had no longer hated Tom, because he knew that he would never surpass Tom in his life. Especially after seeing Tom's wild power, he couldn't help but develop much admiration for Tom.

This was the worship of the strong.

This matter was quickly resolved by Tom.

And he didn't have to worry about what happened next. He was only responsible for force deterrence.

Professional staff will be responsible for the specific details.

However, after this incident, Tom erected his authority further more.

Most obviously, in the next competition that the martial artists from H Country participated in, all the foreign martial artists did not dare to be as arrogant as before, nor did they dare to fight after surrendering.

In this regard, all the martial artists of H Country present could not help but feel grateful to Tom.

Black woke up soon, but he didn't dare to be as tough as before. Even without Tom, he became much more obedient and cooperated with the work of H

Country.

Of course, as a master of the Innate Major Perfection Realm, it was unrealistic to disqualify him from the competition.

But his clansmen were not so lucky. Anyone who had participated in the group fight just now was disqualified from the competition.

Then the Kungfu Cup continued for a week.

In this week's time, there had been more than 200 matches, and the situation was very intense, with many people killed.

After all, not everyone had the chance to surrender.

Moreover, in order to ensure the Kungfu Cup's value, each contestant only had two chances to surrender. Once used up, there was no right to surrender. And once on the competition terrain, unless the opponent was willing to show mercy, there were only two ways for the competitor, to defeat the rival, or to be killed by him.

The situation of H Country was not good, because it had already lost more than half of its martial artists and eliminated at least two-thirds of them.

It could be expected that if this continued, H Country would definitely not get any good rankings.

So many people were wondering if it was time for Tom to give up.

Chapter 810

Indeed, there were no other martial artists on H Country's side who could fight except Tom.

Even some masters of the Innate Realm, who were under the age of 40, were few in number, and their strength was not too strong. They were no match for these foreign martial artists at all!

In the past week, the H Country martial artists did not achieve good progress in each group. Even two groups failed to enter the quarter finals. It could be said that the H Country almost failed.

At the same time, there were also a lot of ridicule of the Kungfu Cup. No matter how powerful Tom was, could a person's strength represent the strength of a country?

H Country was still weak, and there were no masters at all.

And in order to protect Tom, it was obvious that H Country was not going to let Tom play in the next match.

So H Country wouldn't take the Kungfu Cup champion this time.

Seeing this, General Watson and Pence were very anxious. Finally, General Watson couldn't help but say, "Tom, don't you think about joining the match? This situation is not good for our country."

As General Watson finished talking, Amos immediately said, "Yes, Tom, you are the only one who can save H Country now! Alas, it's a pity that I'm over forty years old. Otherwise, I really want to join in the match and teach these foreigners a lesson!"

Marlin also said, "Tom, if I remember correctly, you are only 29 years old this year, and you are fully qualified to participate in the competition! With your strength, Tom, once you take part in it, you must beat these bastards up and piss them off!"

When they heard that Tom was only 29 years old, many people were still surprised. They knew that Tom was young, but they did not expect Tom to be so young. It was simply abnormal!

"Of course. What kind of person is Tom? The invincible strong under the God Becoming Level, the most rare genius in the world for thousands of years. As long as Tom gets out, let alone teach these foreigners a lesson, even the champion is easy for him to take!"

They spoke with ease and had high confidence in Tom. Their confidence was like blind faith, as if Tom could do anything. As long as he did it, there was nothing he could not make it.

They were the elites of society, and their thoughts should be very mature. It was unlikely for them to have this kind of blind confidence, but Tom's performance these days was too amazing. To H Country, he was like a stability anchor.

Even for the God of War back then, it was nothing more than that.

Of course, Tom's current state could not be comparable to God of War's, but they believed that Tom could reach God of War's state with a little more time!

In particular, the Kungfu Cup champion was qualified to go to the Secret Realm. When Tom got the chance to go there, he would be a master of the God Becoming Level.

When the time came, there would be the two God Becoming Level strong players in H Country, then H Country would really be strong. It was not impossible for it to become the strongest country in the world!

They had high hopes for Tom.

Tom naturally knew what they were thinking. At this moment, Silas, who was standing aside, said in a deep voice, "I don't think Tom should join in the match easily."

"Why?"

Immediately, many people asked.

Silas went on to explain, "Because not only do we want Tom to join in, the dozen or so strong Major Perfection Realm players of the Innate Realm must also be waiting for Tom to fight. In the quarter finals, they will definitely unite and besiege Tom. By then, Tom won't even have a chance to withdraw. The risk is too great."

Silas's words clearly expressed his meaning.

In fact, they all thought of this, but because Tom's power was deep in the hearts of the people, plus with the severity of the current situation, they all selectively ignored this point. Now that Silas mentioned it, it made their hearts heavy again and they fell into deep thought.

Marlin said reluctantly, "Is there no other way? This Kungfu Cup is a rare opportunity. It's finally our turn to host it in H Country. If we have the advantage of the home court and can't win the championship, it's too bad! At that time, our reputation will..."

When others heard this, they began to worry.

They were all people who had been there before, and they completely could expect what would happen if that was the case.

In particular, if H Country could not win the championship this time, and could not nurture a master of the God Becoming Level, but let other countries make it, then H Country's international status would be even lower.

Tom did not say anything. There was no expression on his face. Others could not see through his emotions. He was just like a deep pool of water.

At this moment, Pence's cell phone suddenly rang. When he saw the caller ID, he immediately became serious and walked aside to answer the phone.

Not long after, he came back, took the phone to Tom, and said in a deep voice, "Tom, it's the Joseph's call."

Hearing the words "Joseph", others couldn't help but straighten their backs. Even General Watson became serious and quickly looked at Tom.

Joseph represented the peak of H Country.

Tom didn't have a surprised expression on his face, as if he had expected it. He nodded, took the phone, and did not avoid arousing suspicion. He just answered the phone, "Hello, Joseph. I'm Tom."

On the phone, Joseph's voice came, "Tom, come to Y City today. I have something to talk to you."

"Okay." Tom nodded.

If one looked closely at his expression, one could see that when he heard this, there was still some relief in his eyes that he finally got this call.

He guessed right. Joseph wouldn't let him fight right now.

This must be the reason why he was summoned to Y City this time.

But immediately, what Joseph said made his expression strange. Joseph said, "By the way, that girl should be with you. You can bring her back this time."

Tom was stunned for a moment, then he quickly remembered that Joseph was talking about Lexie.

"Joseph, ugh, I'm not with Miss Ross." Tom said awkwardly.

Joseph said, "Ha ha, Tom, you don't have to be nervous. I don't mean anything else. I just think that since you come to Y City, you can bring her along. This girl has left Y City for a while, and her family misses her very much."

Since Joseph had already said that,

Tom could not say any more, so he had to agree.

After hanging up the phone, he sighed helplessly. It was a little awkward for him to contact Lexie now.

Especially the last time he had an awkward affair with Lexie...

Chapter 811

Tom immediately called Lexie and asked where she was now.

The first call didn't get through. Tom wondered if Lexie didn't answer his phone on purpose. Was she angry with him because of what happened last time, or was she embarrassed

Tom automatically thought of what happened last time. He and Lexie had indeed had intimate contact and he finally took Lexie to that house. What they did was beyond ordinary friends and made them look like a couple.

If Joseph hadn't given him the order, he didn't want to have anything to do with Lexie anymore. After all, he was a married man.

But there was nothing he could do now, so he had to text Lexie again, saying, "I'm going to Y City right away. Your grandfather asked me to take you back with me. Please call me when you see the message."

After the message, Tom put his phone back in his pocket and prepared to contact the helicopter and fly to Y City.

After a while, he received a message. It was a reply from Lexie. She only sent an address. Lexie clearly meant that he should pick her up himself.

Tom felt a little headache. The address was quite far from him. It took him half an hour to drive.

Fortunately, he had just defeated Black Mamba and built his fame again. Otherwise, he would not have been able to leave easily.

There was no other way. Tom could only leave to pick her up. He hoped that there would be no more trouble this time.

Lexie put down her phone and put on a happy smile.

Tom replied to her message and wanted to take her back to Y City...

She didn't know why she was happy. Was it because she could see Tom again?

But she had hated that guy. He was a dull guy who didn't care about her beauty at all. Unlike other men who were fascinated by her beauty and identity, he was cold to her. She should be disgusted with him, but actually, she didn't. Instead, she liked the feeling when she was with Tom.

Especially after the last time she had been so intimate with Tom.

It was Tom who saved her recklessly that night, resulting in the rest happening. Although she was scared and said a lot of annoying things, she was grateful to Tom. She knew that if it weren't for Tom's rescue, she would have died. Not to mention the comfort and protection that Tom had given her when she was scared to death in the dark...

Over the past few days, every time she thought of this, she would have an indescribable strange emotion in her heart. Her heart would beat faster uncontrollably, and she couldn't stop thinking of Tom.

Several times, she couldn't help but want to contact Tom, but she still restrained herself. It wasn't that she didn't dare but that she felt embarrassed because she was reserved now. It didn't mean that she didn't want to see Tom again but was waiting for Tom to contact her.

But Tom was such a stick. He didn't care about her or her feelings at all. He didn't contact her after so long as if he had forgotten her. What a hateful man!

To wait for Tom to find her, she stayed at the house. She did not believe that Tom would not come back!

If he didn't come back, she would mess the house up.

Today, some friend asked her out, and she agreed in a fretful mood. They were her friends in the capital city, but Lucian didn't come.

She would refuse to go if Lucian was there.

"Lexie, are you really with that guy?"

A woman stared at Lexie and asked curiously.

Her words caught the attention of the other women, and they all stared at Lexie.

"Why are you asking this? Wasn't it obvious last time?" Lexie blinked and said.

Another woman said, "I think it's not true. That guy is from H City. He comes from an ordinary family and doesn't deserve you at all. Why would you like this guy?"

The other women also nodded. They knew Lexie, and they did not believe that she would like an ordinary person.

Lexie saw through their thoughts. She glanced at them and snorted, "You guessed wrong. He's not ordinary. In terms of energy, he is far better than Lucian."

Lexie did not brag. The more she knew about Tom, the more certain she became. A trust-fund baby like Lucian was not comparable to Tom's power.

However, her words did not gain their trust. They thought that Lexie had been brainwashed, and what she said was just out of her affection for Tom.

Another woman gossiped, "Lexie, what exactly is your relationship with that guy? Have you slept with him?"

Her words aroused the curiosity of the other women. They stared straight at Lexie.

Soon, they saw that Lexie was surprised briefly. She then blushed and said, "I told you last time that I have slept with him."

"No way. Did you really have sex with him?"

"Oh my god, if the others know about this, how many people will be heartbroken?"

"Lucian is going to be crazy!"

"But Lucian was beaten up last time. I guess there's nothing he can do about it."

They began to have a heated discussion.

"No." A woman said, "Lexie, you must be lying. If you were really like him, your grandfather would have summoned him back to Y City!"

"That's right, and you're not walking that way. You must be a virgin."

Someone questioned.

Lexie rolled her eyes and said, "Whatever."

Since she acted like this, the others started to believe that she had had sex with Tom.

They were in the bar, and they were all good-looking, elegant, and noble. No ordinary woman could hold a candle to them.

They attracted the attention of most men in the bar. Men were especially obsessed with Lexie's beautiful face.

Finally, a few men walked over to chat up.

"Hey, ladies, our boss wants to invite you over for drinks."

Chapter 812

These men didn't look like decent people. With tattoos on their bodies, others could tell that they were hooligans.

They were obviously drunk. Lexie and her friends smelt alcohol on them and frowned, feeling they were disgusting.

Of course, they were not afraid of hooligans. Instead, they felt it interesting because they had never encountered such a situation before. They were from rich families of the Y City and were well protected. Even big bosses with hundreds of millions of assets were respectful to them.

They had only seen such a scene in TV drama.

"Who's your head?" A woman asked.

"Beauty, he is the king of H City. You will recognize him when you see him."
A hooligan answered in a roguish tone.

"The king of H City?" After hearing this, the girls laughed because they found it interesting. They didn't expect to meet the king of H City in a bar.

Of course, they were not that naive to believe his words. They knew the hooligan was bragging.

And they were amused.

"The king of H City. It sounds awesome. But we are the king of Y City, so we're not afraid of your head."

One of the women teased them.

The hooligans' expressions became colder, and one of them said threateningly, "Girls, we sincerely ask you to drink with him. You'd better be sensible, or don't blame us to be rude."

Then they all looked up and down the women with menace and lust in their eyes.

"Ha ha, really? Then I want to see how will you bring us to your head."

"Damn it. You ask for it!"

"Take them down!"

The hooligans became angry and decided to take Lexie and others girls away by force.

They were already drunk and excited. They knew these good-looking women were rich ladies and they didn't have a chance to get close to such girls before, so they were getting more and more excited.

They were not worried about any retaliation at all, because they had the king of H City behind them.

They thought they could molest the girls while taking them there. They felt thrilled.

They had a good plan, but unfortunately, they underestimated the girls.

They rushed over but were counterattacked by these women from

Y City before they could even touch them. They had to retreat. And two of the hooligans were slapped and their faces were swollen.

"Bitch, how dare you! You're doomed. You ask for it!"

After being taught a lesson, the hooligans became angry and did not dare to do anything else. They threatened the girls again and left dejectedly.

However, their words did not intimidate Lexie and her friends. Instead, they felt it funny.

Each of them had a great family background in Y City. They had learned some martial arts since they were kids.

Although they were not great masters, they could deal with hooligans effortlessly.

But they had never had a chance to fight, so now they felt very excited after teaching the hooligans a lesson.

Lexie only shook her head when she how excited her friends were. She had fought many times before so she didn't take the hooligans seriously at all.

But she suddenly felt something. Her face darkened and she said, "Something's wrong!"

Soon, more than twenty strong men came over and surrounded them.

One of them was a tall, burly man with a scar on his face. He looked fierce.

"These bitches are arrogant. They looked down on you and beat us up!"

"Right, you can't let them off!"

The hooligans were accusing them.

Lexie's friends were in a panic now. Although they had practiced martial arts, they knew they couldn't win so many bulky men!

Their fierce head's eyes light up and he gulped when he saw these beautiful women, especially Lexie.

"Did you hit my man? How dare you!"
The head directly put the blame on them.

"You're done. You'll suffer!"

Those women immediately looked at Lexie. At this time, they could only count on her.

They knew that Lexie's martial arts were much greater than theirs.

And they had asked their bodyguards to wait outside the bar because they believed Lexie, or they wouldn't have panicked.

Lexie stood up and said, "You know why we hit them. I don't want to talk to a nobody. We're from Y City. You cannot afford to offend us. If you're sensible, get out of here right now. Otherwise, I'll make you disappear with just a phone call."

Lexie's domineering words made her friends clap.

However, they thought she was bragging and immediately burst out laughing, and their head said in a sarcastic tone, "Oh, I'm so scared. So you're big shots from Y City? Wonderful! However, I like to conquer big shots the most, especially beautiful big shots! It seems that you're not lucky!"

Lexie's face darkened even more, while her friends were panicked.

"I advise you not to do anything!" Lexie clenched her fists and said.

Although she was a master of Extrinsic Peak, it was impossible for her to fight against more than twenty people alone, not to mention that she was drunk now so her strength had weakened a lot.

The head of the hooligans was called Reed. He looked at Lexie with lustful eyes and said, "Not to do anything? I'll do more later! Ha ha..."

Other hooligans also laughed wickedly, and their eyes were really lewd.

"Take them down!" Reed commanded, and all hooligans immediately began to attack them.

Lexie's face became gloomy. She tried her best to resist while asking her friends behind her to call the bodyguards.

However, she had overestimated her strength. She was no match for so many bulky men at all. And her friends did not have the chance to make a phone call. Their resistance was useless and they felt despair. But at this moment, they heard a loud noise from the door and everyone looked over.

Chapter 813

Under everyone's gaze, he saw a slender figure standing at the door and slowly walking over.

It was Tom, who had just arrived.

Lexie was the first to recognize him. Her nervous mood immediately relaxed a lot, and she felt a great sense of security and began to smile.

For some reason, every time she saw Tom, she felt an indescribable sense of security, as if as long as Tom was around, she would be especially safe, and nothing in the world could hurt her.

As soon as Tom came in and saw this scene, he frowned slightly and sighed in his heart. He could guess easily what was going on here. Needless to say, Lexie must have caused some trouble again.

Now Tom was more and more convinced that Lexie was here to torture him.

Fortunately, they were just some gangsters and it was not difficult to solve.

"Hey, why does this man look a little familiar?"

Immediately, a woman in Lexie's team asked a question.

Because the light was dark, and Tom came in with a backlight, they couldn't see Tom clearly from their angle.

Soon, a woman said in surprise, "I remember. Isn't this the guy from last time, Lexie's boyfriend?"

"It's him?!"

The others immediately looked at Lexie surprisingly. Lexie smiled, confirming their guess.

Soon, the gangsters came to their senses and stared unkindly at Tom.

Because their boss had not spoken yet, they couldn't act rashly for a moment.

Tom walked over and said to Lexie, "Let's go. The plane is ready."

He didn't want to waste time talking to Lexie.

He just wanted to take Lexie back to Y City directly.

Lexie obviously didn't think so. She said, "Really? It doesn't seem that we can leave easily now."

Tom glanced at the gangsters around him and said, "What happened?"

When those women saw Tom, they stopped panicking and regained their composure because they knew that Tom was an outstanding master. With Tom around, they didn't need to be afraid at all.

Lexie hooked her bag and said with a relaxed smile, "Can't you tell? These ugly men want to come on to us."

Tom rolled back into his head. It was ridiculous for Lexie and other rich ladies to encounter this kind of trouble.

Besides, they didn't even bring bodyguards to places like bars?

Sometimes Tom wondered if Lexie had deliberately caused trouble and waited for him to come over to solve.

After all, Lexie was good at causing him trouble.

But at this time, Tom didn't bother to argue with her. He didn't take these gangsters seriously.

Lexie went over and held his arm and said to the boss, "Hey, Baldy, I'm sorry. My boyfriend is here, so you guys should get out of here. Otherwise, if my boyfriend loses his temper, all of you will suffer."

After that, she deliberately blinked and rested her head on Tom's shoulder.

She deliberately provoked that bald man.

When the lecherous boss saw this, he was furious. He had a bad temper and drunk a lot of wine tonight. Seeing a stunning woman like Lexie throwing herself at another man, he couldn't stand it.

At that moment, he let out a low roar and cursed, "Damn it! You gigolo, how dare you seduce the woman I like? I think you are risking your neck!"

He took a bottle of wine from the table and strode towards Tom.

He did it in a fierce manner, which, coupled with his ferocious appearance, was really quite intimidating.

In his opinion, Tom was just a tall and thin man. He was no match for a strong man like him.

The others in the bar saw this and thought that Tom was going to be doomed.

The way of the world was the weak were the prey of the strong. If a person without any ability dared to go against the strong for beauty, he was completely looking for death.

When Lexie saw this, the smile on her face became even more bright. She found that she actually enjoyed the situation.

Tom was expressionless. He knew that it was useless to waste his time talking to such a person. The most effective way was to directly hit him and show his strength with his fists.

Over the years, he had long understood it.

So after the man came over, he didn't say anything and just kicked him out.

Tom hit him heavily in the stomach, which actually kicked his huge body of 200 kilograms out and knocked over several his men behind him.

All of a sudden, they wailed.

In an instant, there was silence at the noisy scene.

Everyone was stunned, as if they had seen a ghost, and looked at Tom in surprise.

Tom said at this moment, "Okay, don't waste time. Let's go."

Lexie said, "What's the hurry? It's so fun. They are quite cute."

Her words got approval from other women. For them, fighting was too fun especially when their opponents were a group of thugs, which made it even more interesting.

Tom was speechless when he saw their reaction.

How stupid and native these rich ladies were.

He would cooperate with these women and said directly with a serious face, "Hurry up and leave! I don't have the patience to waste time here with you."

Those young ladies did not expect Tom to be rude to them. They were hotcakes even in Y City.

And Tom in front of them dared to scold them?

However, they immediately thought that Tom was not some ordinary man, but was appreciated by God of War, and he even dared to beat Lucian. In an instant, they behaved themselves and did not dare to talk back.

They didn't even feel humiliated. Instead, they had an unspeakable excitement and enjoyment. It seemed good to be scolded by a powerful man.

If Tom knew what they were thinking, he would be speechless and seriously suspect that they were masochistic.

Because of Tom's kick, the rest of the gangsters did not dare to act rashly.

They watched Tom leave the bar with these outstanding beauties...

Chapter 814

After leaving the bar, Tom arranged for a motorcade. He took Lexie to the helicopter to fly back to Y City.

He felt that the other women were all looking at him curiously and full of interest.

"Hey, Tom, what state are you in now? It was quite easy for you just now."

Finally, a woman couldn't help but ask.

The other women looked straight at him. They found that Tom did look extraordinary, different from the other men they had met before.

It was not that Tom was handsome but that he had an indescribable aura. He was calm, confident, and powerful. He was completely different from the peers they had met.

They even felt that Tom was born to be a leader. He was just like a prince.

Tom didn't respond to their curiosity. He said, "It's late, and you should go home. I'll take Lexie back to Y City."

The woman was a little angry when Tom ignored her, but she asked in surprise again when she heard that Tom was going to take Lexie back to Y City, "What? You're going back to Y City? Damn it, you and Lexie aren't going to see your parents? It's too fast between you two!"

The other women also widened their eyes in shock.

Lexie didn't answer their questions. Instead, she gave them a thought-provoking look. She wanted to confuse them.

Tom said emotionlessly, "You have misunderstood. I just took her back under Joseph's order."

Although he explained it this way, their eyes still showed that they didn't believe him.

However, Tom didn't bother to pay any more attention to them and said to Lexie, "Well, it's time to go back."

Lexie nodded and said meekly, "Okay, honey, It's all up to you."

He shivered after hearing her coquettish tone and say, "Can you speak normally? I have goosebumps."

The coquettish expression on Lexie's face faded away, and she was irritated from embarrassment. What an unromantic man!

However, the other women became more convinced that there must be something between Tom and Lexie. They all knew Lexie well. Lexie wouldn't have been so intimate and coquettish if she wasn't interested in Tom.

The motorcade arrived. Tom was going to take Lexie to the car. He was going to leave all the other women behind.

The others resisted his action.

"Hey, Tom, what do you mean? Don't you give us a ride? We're Lexie's best friends."

"Yes, if you offend us, we'll speak ill of you in front of her."

Tom ignored them and got into the car, then let the driver drive.

"Damn it! It's outrageous!"

They watched as Tom and Lexie got into the car and abandoned them here. They stomped their feet in anger.

They had never met anyone that did not take them seriously like Tom since they were young.

If they were in Y City, they would have taught Tom a lesson. Now, their hands were tied.

They had to admitted that Tom was indeed not an ordinary person. His strength was far beyond their imagination.

Soon, one of them spread the news. She found a chat group in the Y City circle and sent a message, "Big news! Lexie Ross is taking her Mr. Right back to Y City tonight."

The chat group had been silent for a long time. The message aroused a heated discussion. Messages popped out one by one.

"That's impossible!"

"Gigi, you must be bragging. You are joking, right?"

"That's right. How could Lexie date anyone now? It's impossible!"

"@Gigi, who's the Mr. Right?"

"Whoever he is, he's my enemy."

"@Lucian..."

All of a sudden, there were more than a hundred messages in the chat group.

The chat group, which had been silent for a long time, was now active again.

Many of them mentioned Lexie, but Lexie didn't show up all the time, nor did she replied any private chat.

As a result, the news seemed unreal, and many people guessed that Gigi was joking.

After all, Lexie was the belle of the ball in their circle. She was the best in terms of her appearance, ability, and family.

Most importantly, Lexie was demanding. So many men in the circle pursued her over the past years, and she had never been with anyone. Now that she suddenly dated someone, their first reaction was that it was fake.

Not long after, Gigi sent a photo to the chat group. The discussion became even livelier.

The messages were much more than before!

In the photo that Gigi sent, Lexie was leaning against a man. They looked exactly like a couple.

Gigi took the photo from the side under a somewhat dimmed light, but people could still recognize at a glance that the girl was Lexie.

As for that man, they had never seen him before. He did not belong to their circle.

"Damn it!! Our dream woman is really dating someone! No, it can't be true. I heard my heart breaking!!"

"Who is this man? Why haven't we seen him? Is he in our circle? @All."

"Hey. This man doesn't look handsome. He looks average. He's not as handsome as I am. How can he be with Lexie?"

"Is this fake? Could it be photoshopped?"

At first, some people suspected that the photo was photoshopped. After all, the photoshop technology was already mature, and non-professionals could not tell if it was true.

But soon, some professionals denied it. They said that it was a real photo.

In this way, they had to believe that Lexie was dating someone out of their circle.

This news was a huge blow to all the men in the circle.

Especially the unmarried ones, who were more or less affectionate towards Lexie. They saw Lexie as a goddess, and now their goddess was actually with someone else, which was not something they could accept.

So they began to do whatever they could to search for Tom's information based on the photo.

Soon, the people who had seen Tom began to talk. They confirmed that Lexie was with this guy, and this guy was arrogant and beat Lucian up at a party.

The news was undoubtedly another huge bomb.

Lucian, who had been quiet, finally sent his first message...

Chapter 815

Lucian asked Gigi directly.

"Gigi, are you sure Tom is coming to Y City?"

After Lucian sent out the message, the chattering people in the Facebook group immediately did not dare to speak and fell into a short silence.

Gigi replied quickly, "Yes, they should have gotten on the helicopter by now. And they should be in Y City soon."

Gigi immediately replied with another message, "Lucian, I don't think Tom is easy to deal with. He came back to Y city under the order of Mr. Ross. He even brought Lexie with him. I don't know what they were going to do together."

Seeing her message, Lucian, in a luxurious manor, twitched the corner of his mouth violently.

He directly lost his temper and slammed the things on the table to the ground, breaking it into small pieces. The young woman who was rubbing his shoulder behind him was immediately shocked.

Lucian gritted his teeth. He knew what Gigi meant. She was hinting to him that Tom and Lexie were going back to Y City to see their parents this time!

Once they met their parents, he would have no chance. Most importantly, everyone in the circle knew that he liked Lexie and was almost tied up with her, and many people thought that they were well matched. If Lexie married another man, Lucian would definitely become a joke!

Lucian could not accept such a thing. He was so angry that he gritted his teeth and smashed everything in front of him.

His actions frightened many people in the room, but no one dared to say a word for fear of offending this bad-tempered master.

After a while, he slowly calmed down. His eyes were bloodshot, full of anger and hatred.

"Tom!" He said these words almost through his teeth. He had been investigating Tom a lot these days. Tom was once regarded as the biggest enemy of his life, but the more he investigated, the more powerless he felt.

It was not that he was incompetent, but that Tom was too outstanding to be compared to himself. In particular, Tom's martial arts cultivation was at the top of the human race. It could be said that God of War was the only one in H Country who could suppress Tom.

But did he really have to watch Tom be at large and take his woman away? He was really unwilling!

At this time, not only him, but many people in the group also realized the meaning of Gigi's words. Lexie was going to be pursued by Tom, to the point of meeting their parents...

After a while, someone said, "Who is Tom? How could he chase after our goddess easily? Does he have three heads and six arms?"

"No matter who he is, if he dares to pursue Lexie, he has to pass us."

"He and Lexie are going to Y City tonight, aren't they? Brothers, let's find a chance to greet this guy and see who he is."

Many people began to say that.

Finally, Lucian began to speak again. "If he really dares to come to Y City, I will challenge him!"

"I support Lucian!"

"That's necessary. I support him too."

For a moment, a lot of people in the group began to support Lucian. They agreed that when Tom and Lexie arrived in Y City, they must challenge him, seeing what kind of man he was that he could take away their goddess.

It would have been better if Lexie was chased after by Lucian. After all, Lucian was in their circle, and his status was not low. But Tom, who was outside the circle from H City, was just a bumpkin to them. This was a fact that they could not accept for their noble birth.

At the same time, Lexie saw all the messages in the helicopter. She smiled slyly, as if she had found something interesting.

She had been looking at the messages in the group and knew that they had already targeted Tom. She felt that it was especially fun. She was not worried that Tom would suffer losses because she had absolute confidence in him.

Moreover, if Tom was really made difficult by them, her relationship with him would be confirmed.

Thinking of this, she secretly glanced at Tom, who was resting with his eyes closed.

The more she got along with him, the more she realized that he was not simple. He was especially mysterious and full of secrets.

"Hey, what are you doing back in Y City this time?"

Lexie put away her phone and asked curiously.

Tom did not open his eyes, saying faintly, "Business."

"What business?" Lexie asked again.

Tom ignored her.

Lexie rolled her eyes and said, "Hey, are you trying to propose marriage to my father? I won't promise you. Don't be delusional."

When Tom heard this, he twitched the corner of his mouth twice and said, "You have a rich imagination."

"Isn't that right?" Lexie snorted, put on an arrogant look and continued to say, "You just like my beauty, don't you?"

Tom knew that Lexie was teasing him on purpose, so he didn't say anything.

After a short silence, seeing that Tom did not fall for it and ignored her, Lexie rolled her eyes and said, "Hey, where did you learn your martial arts? Can you teach me? I can give you tuition."

After Lexie finished speaking, she reached out to touch Tom's arm, which startled Tom. He quickly opened his eyes and glared at her, "What are you doing?!"

"Let me see your muscles." Lexie said naturally.

Tom knew that Lexie was teasing him. If he didn't say something, she wouldn't let him go. He suddenly regretted why he was on the same plane with Lexie.

"I trained with a famous teacher."

"Which famous teacher?"

"You don't know him."

"Teach me."

This conversation continued. Lexie had endless questions and kept asking Tom, and Tom also responded fitfully in order to deal with her.

Finally, the plane arrived in Y City.

It landed directly in the courtyard of the Ross Family.
