

Chapter 861

Hearing this, they were very distressed. They were devoid of a strategy to deal with Tom.

They had thought that as long as Tom didn't reach the God Becoming Level, they could definitely defeat him if they fought against him together.

So they had not been nervous no matter how invincible Tom was. They thought that Tom was definitely not their match in the quarterfinal.

But their confidence vanished now. They became more and more afraid and anxious. Even Solomon, the super master, had been defeated by Tom, so they wondered who could be Tom's match.

They felt that they might not be Tom's match in the quarterfinal.

They were now deadly silent. After a while, someone said, "How lucky H Country is to have an invincible Tom! Will H Country surpass us soon?"

Hearing him, others became even more worried. They all represented their own country to participate in the Kungfu Cup, which was not only a competition but had more profounding meanings.

If Tom really won the championship and reached the God Becoming Level, then their countries would be hugely impacted.

They didn't want that to happen.

After a while, another man said, "Then what should we do now? Are we really going to give up? We are all top masters around the world!"

No one answered him. All of them seemed to be intimidated by Tom.

Someone finally said, "What should we do? We should work harder and kill more H Country's martial artists! If we keep carrying out Solomon's policy, Tom must be affected."

Everyone looked over and saw a tough figure. The man who had said that was a strong man in his thirties. He looked very young, but his aura was powerful.

"The Soldier of God!"

Someone shouted, attracting the attention of others. They all looked surprised. "Aren't you dead? How can you be back to life?"

Rommel, the Soldier of God, was a man with a square face. He was a mixed-race man with a handsome appearance. In a suit, he looked more like a gentle and elegant businessman instead of a martial artist.

Rommel smiled faintly and said, "How could I die? My fake death in the last mission successfully deceived all of you."

Junichiro Nakai stared at Rommel and asked, "You're also here for the Kungfu Cup champion? But you didn't sign up, did you? I didn't see your name on the list."

Others had the same question and they became alert. It was obvious that Rommel was a terrifying rival.

Rommel only smiled calmly and said, "I've signed up. My current name is Danielle."

Others realized that Rommel had deceived them. They hadn't even noticed that Rommel also participated in the Kungfu Cup.

Black Mamba sneered, "Rommel, you won't be the champion. H Country has a top master, Tom, who's just half a step from the God Becoming Level. You will be defeated by him in a terrible way!"

When others heard him, they became less distressed because even Rommel was not Tom's match at all.

So it was not a shame that they had been defeated by Tom.

Before Tom became famous, Rommel was the greatest master among them. In fact, all of them had been defeated by Rommel, so they were somehow hostile to him.

They had thought that Rommel was dead and were excited about that. But they didn't expect Rommel to be still alive and even more powerful than before.

They would have been very alert and more hostile to Rommel because they regarded him as their enemy.

But now, Rommel was no longer invincible because Tom could defeat him, so they even felt maliciously excited.

Rommel could tell what they were thinking about. He snorted, "Tom has the national fortune of H Country, so he can break through to the current level in such a short time. He is H Country's last hope. If I kill him, H Country will decline and collapse!"

But someone refuted him in disdain, "Nonsense. Everyone knew that Tom has gathered the national fortune of H Country, otherwise, how could he have reached such a high level? But the fact is he has been invincible now. We may not be able to defeat him even if we fight against him together."

Others echoed him and thought that Romme's words were nonsense.

However, Rommel sneered and said in a disdainful tone, "You're masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, but you're afraid of Tom? You're cowards. Shame on you!"

One of them immediately retorted, "Rommel, if you have the guts, challenge Tom. I wonder how soon will you be defeated."

Several people laughed mockingly. They thought that Rommel was pretending to be confident and when he faced Tom, they were afraid that he dared not say anything.

Rommel frowned and annoyance appeared in his eyes. However, he did not argue with them but walked forward casually as if the situation was under his control. He said, "Do you think you can provoke me? Tom is indeed a monster that appears once in a hundred years, and he has the great fortune of his country, so who hasn't reached God Becoming Level can't kill him."

After a pause, he added, "But because he has the fortune of H Country, as long as we unite to kill him, we can share this great fortune, and then we can reach the God Becoming Level!"

Hearing his words, Junichiro Nakai raised his eyebrows and he said in a deep voice, "Rommel, do you mean to assassinate Tom?"

Chapter 862

Hearing his words, the others also showed a surprised expression, thinking that Rommel was crazy. Because Tom was already a half-step God Becoming Level expert, they might not be able to kill Tom even they fought him together.

Even if they really succeeded, it was still in H Country. With the God of War who named Albert there, they even couldn't really leave H Country.

This was too risky!

Rommel shook his head and said, "Assassination is definitely unrealistic. We can only take Tom's vigour by killing him in the ring."

Others rolled their eyes and looked speechless. "You said so much nonsense. We all know that we should kill him in the ring!"

"Wait a minute." Johnson, who had been silent at this time, stood up and said, staring at Rommel closely, "Rommel, what can you do?"

Rommel shrugged and said, "As far as I know, the next martial artist on the stage of H Country is Silas, the instructor of Military Intelligence 3's Dragon Blood Team, and he had a good relationship with Tom. If we can torture Silas to death on the stage, Tom's Taoist Heart will definitely collapse! And once his Taoist Heart collapses, then his momentum will also disappear. At that time, he will be swallowed up by his momentum. Then he would fall out of the realm, or go crazy directly."

After saying this, he continued to speak in a deep voice about the details of the plan, so that a group of Major Perfection Realm experts heard it, their eyes lit up. According to Rommel's analysis, if the next step was really to torture Silas to death in front of Tom, then Tom would definitely be greatly affected!

In fact, they could all see that although Solomon had been killed easily by Tom just now, Tom was still injured.

It could be said that Tom's Taoist Heart had some cracks. If their plan was successful, then Tom was still very likely to be directly devoured by the general momentum!

They discussed it seriously. This time, it was more perfect and careful than the "Solomon Plan". They discussed it for three hours, and then everyone left with a smile on their faces.

The fear of Tom had also diminished a lot.

Because this theory was obviously very feasible, once implemented, the probability of success was still very high.

Most importantly, they only had this choice.

On Tom's side, after he killed Solomon, he did not do much. Instead, he returned to the spectator seat and sat still. To everyone, he was like a god sitting there, suppressing all the demons and monsters, making all H Country martial artists feel an extremely strong sense of security.

But in fact, only Tom knew that although he seemed to have killed Solomon easily just now, he was still injured.

The injury was not physical, but mental. There were some cracks in his Great Momentum, and it was not as tight as before.

It was mainly Solomon's sneak attack that interrupted his Great Momentum and had a huge impact on him.

In other words, if it weren't for his mental strength, which was already stronger than many people, and his quick reaction just now, which blocked his senses in time, then Solomon would have succeeded just now.

Fortunately, this was not too fatal, and he would consolidate it later.

He didn't show his injury because he knew that, Now, everyone was paying attention to him, especially the H Country martial artists. He was already the last hope, almost a totem-like existence. If he really showed signs of injury or weakness, then it would be a great blow to the confidence of many H Country martial artists.

Fortunately, not many H Country martial artists participated in the next competition, and the scene was not so bloody. On this day, only Jasper died.

It didn't hurt H Country much.

When the Kungfu Cup was over, Tom left the spectator seat and returned to his resting room. Then he relaxed. His originally ruddy face slowly turned pale.

At the same time, he sighed and sat down a little dejected.

He looked very weak in this state. If anyone outside saw him, it would be a huge blow.

That was it. Pence, Marlin, and the others who followed in later were also shocked to see Tom like this.

Marlin immediately asked with concern, "Tom, are you, are you okay?"

Tom waved his hand and said, "It's okay."

Pence said worriedly, "Tom, are you hurt? It's not serious, is it? You have a competition tomorrow."

Other people were also worried. Tom must be fine now, or else their H Country would definitely lose this Kungfu Cup.

Seeing how worried they were, Tom smiled and said, "Why, don't you believe me?"

"No, no, no, Tom, you misunderstood us. That's not what we meant. We're concerned about you..."

"Yes, Tom. You are our hope of our H Country now. You must not have an accident."

"But speaking of it, that Solomon is really despicable! He dared to attack Tom in secret. He should go die!"

"Country M even dares to be a righteous police officer internationally. How dare they! Over the years, they have done many despicable things like this!"

They all expressed their disdain for Country M.

General Watson said at this time, "Tom, what do you need me to do?"

Hearing this, everyone quieted down and looked at Tom.

Tom smiled bitterly and said, "I'm a little hungry. You can get me something to eat. I'll rest for a while, then I should be fine."

Pence patted his head and said, "Sorry. I forgot about this."

Next, they sent someone to arrange dinner for Tom. They saw that Tom's spirits were much better, but he was still a little depressed. Knowing that Tom would not have too much trouble, they gradually breathed a sigh of relief and began to go out, leaving Tom to rest there.

After Tom ate dinner, he entered a state of meditation and slowly recovered.

Soon, the next day came, Tom recovered a lot.

Seeing his state, everyone really relaxed.

Today, Silas finally came on stage, and everyone was cheering for him.

"Silas, when you get on the stage, you must play your best and show our power!"

"Yes, Silas, beat them fiercely!"

"This time, your opponent is also a master of the Innate Realm, Danielle. Crush him directly!"

Chapter 863

Everyone was very confident in Silas, thinking that he could easily win the opponent, giving H Country a good boost.

In fact, Silas himself thought so. After all, he was a famous expert. As the instructor of the Dragon Blood Team in Military Intelligence 3, he had already reached the edge of the third stage of the Innate Realm, and he would reach the fourth stage of the Innate Realm soon.

And during this period of time, he had improved a lot after receiving Tom's guidance.

The main opponent this time was an unknown opponent with no international reputation, so Silas was not arrogant, but confident.

He smiled brightly and said, "Don't worry, I won't let you down."

After that, he was about to step onto the ring.

Tom looked at the photos of Silas's opponent, Danielle, on the big screen. He somewhat had a bad feeling.

Just as Silas was about to enter the ring, he stopped Silas and said in a deep voice, "Silas, life is more important than the competition."

Silas was a smart man. He understood what Tom meant immediately. He was still touched, nodded, and said, "Don't worry, Tom. I'll be fine."

Since Silas had said so, Tom didn't say anything more and nodded.

Soon, Silas stepped onto the stage under the attention of all the H Country martial artists on the scene.

Because this Kungfu Cup was broadcast live to the world, at the same time, the world's martial artists could see this competition through their unique accounts. Many martial artists of H Country who were not present could also secretly cheer for Silas.

Although Jasper was beaten to death yesterday, others were more confident in Silas. After all, Silas was not a newcomer, and he had a relatively good reputation internationally.

Finally, Silas stepped onto the ring.

At that moment, he felt the attention of everyone in the room, which brought him a lot of pressure.

Although he had competed before, it was the early stages of Kungfu Cup and there was more than one match at the same time. He didn't get so much attention at that time as he was now.

Now that the Kungfu Cup had been holding for so long, there wouldn't be much competition left. Every competition had its own routine.

That was why Silas felt so stressed.

However, after all, he was a person who had experienced a lot. He soon released the pressure and regained his composure.

Not long after he went up, he saw a handsome mixed-race man slowly walking onto the stage.

This man was a relatively new person, and his aura was not weak, but he was at only the third stage of the Innate Realm, not as strong as Silas. Of course, Silas did not underestimate the enemy. At this stage, he could only succeed, not fail.

If he failed again, the blow to H Country would be too great!

When Tom, who was in the audience, saw Danielle, who was on the stage, his eyebrows twitched violently in an instant and he cried out in surprise, "No! He was the expert in Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. Silas is not his opponent!"

Tom stood up with a shudder, scaring Pence, General Watson, and the others beside him.

"What?! Tom, you're not mistaken, are you? According to the information, this person is only a master of the third stage of the Innate Realm." Pence immediately asked in surprise.

Amos also immediately said, "Yes, in the last match, Danielle's opponent was a master of the third stage of the Innate Realm. He also won very hard.

How could he be a master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm?"

"Tom, are you mistaken?"

Many people wondered if Tom had made a mistake.

However, Tom's expression was incomparably solemn. He took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "No! Danielle is indeed a master of the inborn Major Perfection Realm, and he is even a very powerful existence in the inborn Major Perfection Realm! Danielle shouldn't be his real name. He also hid his real look now!"

Then, he took a deep breath and said, "He's pretending to be weak. He's here to hunt Silas!"

Everyone sucked in their breath when they heard Tom's words. If that was the case, then Silas was indeed in danger.

As a master of the third stage of the Innate Realm, Silas could not win that person at all.

But someone immediately found a loophole in the logic. "Tom, it doesn't make sense. If this Danielle is really a Major Perfection Realm expert in the Innate Realm, then why would he hide his identity and target Silas?"

This person's logic was very simple. Indeed, it was impossible for a Major Perfection Realm expert in the Innate Realm to plot against a third stage expert in the Innate Realm. It was too embarrassing.

Tom said deeply, "Have you forgotten why they killed Jasper and the others?"

Hearing Tom's words, they suddenly came to their senses!

That was right. Danielle's purpose was still Tom.

As long as he kept killing the H Country players, it would have a great impact on Tom.

And Silas was Tom's colleague, so he had a close relationship with Tom. If Silas was really killed in the ring, then Tom would be affected greatly!

"What should we do?"

"What else can we do? Let Silas admit defeat! He can't lose his life!"

"I'll talk to Silas right away."

Tom sighed when he saw how nervous they were. He knew that Silas's death was inevitable.

Marlin wanted to run to the ring immediately to remind Silas, but it was too late because the competition had already started.

Silas did not see Marlin running over. At the moment the bell rang, he found himself locked in by his opponent. At that moment, he felt a strong spiritual force lock him in, causing his mind and his heart to stop.

He even felt his world became dark at the moment.

He immediately realized that his opponent was far superior to him.

His hands and feet began to freeze, and subconsciously he was about to admit defeat, but that's too late. The moment he was about to shout out, he was grabbed by someone else, and then he was raised high, and then someone hit him to the ground heavily. He was in so much pain that he almost fainted.

Chapter 864

All of this happened so fast that for so many people on the stage, what they saw was that Silas was knocked down by Rommel with ease just as the bell rang.

It was so fast that they couldn't even realize what had happened!

"This..."

Those H Country martial artists who had cheered for Silas just now were all stunned. Their eyes were wide open and they were extremely shocked. They could not accept what happened just now for a moment.

For those foreign martial artists, it was a stimulant that made them excited at once.

Marlin had just run down the ring. He was going to cheer for Silas, but when he saw this, he stopped.

Especially when he looked up, he happened to meet Danielle's eyes... No, Danielle was a fake name. He was Rommel, a super-strong man who was not inferior to Solomon!

His eyes were extremely cold, full of ridicule and pressure, which made Marlin feel unprecedented pressure at that moment, making his hands and feet cold.

Then, Rommel lifted Silas up with one hand and looked at Tom on the audience. The corner of his mouth rose, revealing a teasing and provocative smile. He said, "Tom, you are the strongest person in the Kungfu Cup this time. Unfortunately, you can't even protect your friends."

He spoke the language of H Country fluently without an accent. It sounded completely like local people.

At this moment, all the H Country people present and watching the live broadcast were enraged and started to scold, but they could only complain, and there was nothing they could do about Rommel on the stage.

Tom's face was expressionless, and his eyes were cold, making it hard to tell what he was feeling.

He stood up, looked at Rommel on the ring, and said calmly, "What's your real name?"

Rommel did not answer him but continued to strangle Silas's neck with one hand as if Silas was a chicken.

This scene was too much for everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 to bear!

Especially the Dragon Blood Team agents, they clenched their fists and their eyes were red. Silas was their instructor. In their minds, he was like a father. Now his life was on the verge of death. Being humiliated like this, their hearts were about to explode with anger!

Rommel revealed a disgusting smile.

His hand began to strangle hard, making Silas's bone crack. "Tom, are you very angry now and want to come up and kill me? Unfortunately, you can't. Even if you are strong, so what? You're not the best in the world after all. You still have to be restricted by the rules. Hahaha!"

What he said made all the H Country people angry.

"Damn it, why are you so arrogant? Tom can kill you easily!"

"You are such a coward to do this to Silas. Why don't you challenge Tom? Are you afraid he would crush you?"

"Danielle, if you dare to kill Silas, I swear I will kill you!!!"

"If you don't want to die, let go of Silas!"

Faced with the anger from them, Rommel did not show any fear at all. Instead, he burst out laughing and enjoyed the scene immensely.

He strangled Silas's neck with his right hand and lifted him up. Then he made a thumbs-down gesture to all the H Country people present with his left hand and said, "You are all trash."

In the end, he challenged Tom, "Tom, you don't have to pretend. I know you're angry now. You can't control yourself. I admit that you're a genius, one in a million, but so what? A person like you shouldn't exist! How dare you brew the Invincible Spiritual Momentum in the Kungfu Cup? Do you really think you can go on so smoothly?"

Tom remained silent as if he had guessed what he thought. Instead, Pence, General Watson, and the others beside him were extremely nervous and worried.

In fact, when they stood beside Tom, they could feel the change in Tom's mood. Tom looked calm on the surface, but deep down in his heart, he was already burning with anger and turbulent murderous intention.

Rommel continued, "I'm going to kill Silas right in front of you and see what you can do! You can't do anything!"

After saying that, he grabbed Silas's right hand and broke it. Silas screamed and struggled desperately.

This scene was a great thrill to so many people present, especially to the people of the Military Intelligence 3, which made them gnash their teeth harder, and they all hated Rommel to the extreme!

Marlin couldn't help it the first time. He was about to step on the stage, pointing at Rommel and scolding, "Stop it. I'm going to kill you!"

However, Rommel did not take his threat seriously at all. Instead, he smiled playfully, signaled him to come over with his finger, and said provocatively, "Come on, I want to know how can you kill me."

He spoke in a very fluent H Country language, but the more he was like this, the more anger and hatred he could cause for all the H Country people.

Marlin was a hot-tempered man. How could he stand such a provocation? He was desperate to step onto the stage and attack Rommel.

But at this moment, a voice sounded, "Zhao, don't be impulsive. If you go up to the ring, he has the right to kill you."

It was Tom. He had walked to Marlin.

Marlin heard him and stopped, but he gritted his teeth and his eyes were wide open. "Tom, are we going to watch this beast torture Silas?"

At this moment, a lot of Military Intelligence 3 members gathered here, and they were all extremely angry. They clenched their fists and stared closely at Tom. As long as Tom asked, they would rush to the arena altogether and kill Rommel, even if it was to break the rules!

However, Tom shook his head and said, "You can't do this. The competition has to continue."

"But!" Marlin gritted his teeth and said, "Can we just watch Silas being tortured to death by him?!"

Tom's eyes were deep, and he did not respond. Instead, he looked at Rommel and said, "You're playing with the fire.

Once I can hold on, my Invincible Spiritual Momentum will be even stronger. By then, all of you will be no match for me in the top eight final."

Tom was telling the truth, but Rommel smiled grimly and said, "I bet you can't hold on."

After that, he began to torture Silas again...

Chapter 865

Silas immediately let out a shrill scream. Upon hearing the scream, people knew that he was extremely painful.

Rommel tortured Silas unscrupulously in front of Tom. And everyone felt extremely uncomfortable.

"Fuck....." Silas could only scream, but he could not admit defeat, because Rommel grabbed his throat and made him unable to say a complete sentence.

In just a short while, Silas was already scarred. Blood was all over his body, and the bones of his hands were cruelly broken by Rommel.

"Enough!"

Tom couldn't bear to see this any longer. He shouted, "Let go of Silas. I can spare your life."

Tom said coldly. Facing Silas's pain, Tom finally couldn't keep his composure.

However, Rommel laughed. "Ha ha ha, Tom, you really think you're invincible, and you want to spare my life?"

After that, Rommel began to torture Silas again.

Silas was now beaten black and blue. When everyone saw Silas, they all clenched their fists and felt endless pain and resentment in their hearts. But there was nothing they could do. According to the rules of the Kungfu Cup, they could not stop Rommel at all!

Everyone looked at Tom. They knew that at this time, only Tom could save Silas.

Tom took a deep breath and continued, "Tell me what you want!"

Rommel finally let Silas go. Rommel smiled meaningfully, and said, "It's very simple. I want you to kneel down and kowtow to me three times. Then, I'll let him go."

Rommel's words were full of banter and ridicule. He just wanted to tease and annoy Tom.

After hearing Rommel's words, all the masters from H Country were even angrier.

"What did you say!"

"Damn it. You son of a bitch. How dare you humiliate Tom? You damn asshole."

"Go to die. Motherfucker. You are dead!"

"Tom, you can't! You are our hope. Tom kneels to no one!"

They were right. Now Tom did not just represent himself. He carried the faith and hope of countless people. If Tom knelt down, it would be a huge blow to everyone. Even the national faith would be destroyed!

This was something that no one wanted to see.

How could Tom not know about this?
But if he didn't kneel, Silas would definitely die.

Silas was a hero who served the country and the people. Tom couldn't just fold his hands and see Silas die

And even if Tom now disregarded the rules of the Kungfu Cup and rushed up forcefully, Tom could not save Silas. It was because Rommel was not an average master at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Rommel was at the same level as Solomon.

Rommel could have broken Silas's neck before Tom rushed up.

Tom stood there in a daze, gritting his teeth. But there was nothing he could do. Tom had not been so helpless for a long time!

Rommel really went too far. Tom wanted to kill Rommel the most.

Rommel saw that Tom didn't answer and he became more sullen. Rommel snorted and said, "What? You don't want to kneel? It seems that you are also a fake hero. You don't care about your countrymen at all."

After saying this, Rommel continued to exert more strength, intending to break Silas's neck.

"Wait a minute!"

Seeing that Silas was about to be strangled, Tom shouted out when he saw him being painful.

When Rommel heard this, a teasing smile appeared on his face again. "There's a saying of your country that a wise man submits to fate. Tom, you know what to do now."

Tom was in a dilemma. He had thought about rushing up and killing Rommel countless times as it was not a difficult thing for him to kill Rommel now.

But Tom knew that this was wanted Rommel wanted. It was because as long as Tom did this, Tom would definitely lose the qualification to participate in the competition. If this happened, no one in the H Country would be the Kungfu Cup's champion.

However, at this moment, Silas, who had been motionless, suddenly had a domineering momentum. It was as if Silas had exhausted the last bit of energy in his body. Unexpectedly, while Rommel was not paying attention to him, Silas suddenly broke free from Rommel's shackles. And then Silas stared at Tom. Silas shouted, "Tom, avenge me! The nation can live without me, but not without you!"

When Tom saw this, his body suddenly trembled violently. He saw the determination and resolution in Silas's eyes and the smile on Silas's face. Tom realized that a bad thing was about to happen. Tom shouted, "Silas, no!"

However, it was still too late. Silas suddenly raised his hands and hit his head heavily. With a bang, Silas fell straight to the ground.....

Rommel wanted to stop Silas, but he was still a step slower. Rommel did not expect Silas to be so resolute. Silas was already covered in bruises but he still could do this.

All of a sudden, the whole spot fell into silence. Everyone looked at the ring. Silas, who was already motionless, was dead.

There was still a smile on Silas's face. There was some pride in his smile. In his last moment, Silas was glad as he did not embarrass H Country.

Tom stared blankly at Silas's body. Tom couldn't tell how he felt now.

In an instant, Tom seemed to have lost a lot. But it was as if he had also gained something.

He stood there in a daze. At this moment, time seemed to become extremely slow and he could not feel anything.

Tom had always appreciated Silas.

From the first day Tom met Silas, Tom had a good impression of Silas. Silas was a man who had devoted his life to the country and the people. He had devoted his life to the Military Intelligence 3 and H Country.

Originally, such a hero should have enjoyed his last time in honor and peace. But Silas chose to sacrifice himself in order not to make things difficult for Tom. Silas chose to die for the hope of H Country and let him stay in the Kungfu Cup.....

At this moment, apart from the solemn feeling caused by Silas's death, Tom felt the national responsibility he shouldered for the first time. Tom also felt the spirit that one could sacrifice his/her life for his/her country.

Tom closed his eyes and tears flowed from the corner of his eyes.

Tom said to himself in his heart, "Silas, don't worry. I will avenge you. I will lead H Country to glory."

Chapter 866

After three seconds of silence, a huge movement erupted in an instant. All the martial artists of H Country were irritated, and they constantly rushed over to the arena to kill Rommel and avenge Silas!

"Fuck!! Silas is dead. Let's rush up together, kill that bastard, and avenge Silas!"

"I'm going to kill you!!!"

"Silas..."

Even if Rommel was strong, in the face of this situation, he was shocked and felt frightened. If these H Country martial artists attacked him together, then he would definitely be unable to resist.

So Rommel was about to leave the ring as soon as possible.

But soon, he was stopped by a man. He looked closely and saw a face showing hatred and anger, and a pair of eyes full of murderous intent, which made him feel numb and terrified in an instant, and his heart beat quickened a lot.

Because the person standing in front of him was Tom!

Now, Tom was like a demon from hell, looking frightening. It seemed that the air around Tom was black. With just one look, Rommel could feel the smell of hell.

"Tom, what, what do you want to do? If you kill me, you won't win the championship!" Rommel threatened harshly and took two steps back. He was extremely afraid of Tom.

It was not until now that he knew how terrifying Tom was.

Rommel realized that he could resist Tom at all. He believed that if Tom really attacked him, he might not be able to resist even three moves!

Tom still stared at Rommel coldly and did not answer him.

At this moment, the martial arts from H Country all surrounded Rommel. As long as Tom gave an order, they would recklessly besiege Rommel, tear him apart, and avenge Silas.

Then those foreign martial artists also rushed over and surrounded martial artists of H Country.

People from other countries shouted, "Tom, what do you want to do? Do you really want to lose your qualification?"

"Don't think that you can do whatever you want as the organizer. The Kungfu Cup belongs to the whole world, not only H Country!"

"Tom, if you dare to attack Rommel, you will be disqualified immediately!"

"Tom, you have already violated the rules of the Kungfu Cup!"

This situation suddenly became much tenser. The fight would be triggered at any moment.

Everyone's eyes were focused on Tom. If Tom really did not restrain himself, then the competition would really turn into a group fight. By then, the Kungfu Cup would be ruined, and great impact would ensue.

General Watson and Pence, who were in the crowd, looked at each other and saw the worry in each other's eyes. Rationally, they did not agree to attack Rommel directly. Because in this way, Tom would be immediately disqualified from the competition, and H Country would be influenced. Moreover, H Country was probably not qualified to participate in the next Kungfu Cup.

However, they were really furious about Rommel killing Silas.

Finally, Tom withdrew his murderous intent and said, "Wash your neck and wait for me to remove your head."

After saying this, Tom turned around and say to all the H Country martial artists in front of him, "I will revenge Silas."

Then, he walked back to the ring, picked up Silas's body, and left.

When everyone saw his action, they were both sad and relieved. In the end, Tom restrained himself.

He didn't make big mistake.

Other martial artists of H Country also slowly dispersed with an extremely heavy and sad mood.

At this moment, all of them felt more sorrowed.

Especially for everyone in the Military Intelligence 3, Silas's death was a huge blow.

Silas had just been chatting with them, but now he became a corpse, and his soul dispersed.

Many agents in the Dragon Blood Team felt more pain, and some of them even cried.

When Pence and the others saw their reaction, they also sighed heavily, not knowing what to say.

Before the Kungfu Cup, they had never thought this would happen. It was so tragic and grieving.

Seeing even those agents felt quite sad and stressed, Pence and others couldn't imagine how painful Tom would be.

After leaving the Kungfu Cup, Tom went to a park not far away. He put down Silas's body and slowly closed Silas's eyes.

There were still a lot of people in the park. When they saw this scene, they were all shocked. They gathered around Tom and talked about him.

Now Tom's face was pale and he looked scary.

His face was bloodless.

Most importantly, they could see that Silas was dead, and he died a horrible death. His whole body was covered in blood, and even his forehead was dented.

His body was covered in bruises, which made him look scary.

Tom stared blankly at Silas, his face full of pain.

The images from this period of time flashed in his mind. The death scene of many H Country martial artists and their screams were all intertwined in his mind, as if they were all root in his mind.

Tom was really cheered up and reached to the Great Momentum through the national spirit, but it was also a double-edged sword. Now he began to be influenced by the Great Momentum.

Tom had never been impacted until today because he was mentally strong enough.

After suffering so much humiliation in his wife's family in the past few years, Tom had been forced to grind his mind and became as hard as iron.

But today, Silas's death became the last straw to crush the camel!

Finally, Tom couldn't bear the pressure and broke down!

Once he closed his eyes now, the images of the deaths of his fellow countrymen flooded into his mind, as well as Silas's heroic sacrifice. All those scenes had become a demonic sound, echoing in his mind.

Tom's expression began to look ferocious. He hugged his head and struggled.

He felt alternately hot and cold and began to roar.

He looked especially frightening, like the Monkey King being punished by her master reciting the spell.

The onlookers in the park were immediately shocked.

"What's wrong with this man? Is he a murderer?"

"He seems to be in pain..."

"Hurry up and call the police. He looks so scary."

Chapter 867

Tom looked scary now. He was like a wild animal and was losing control.

He emitted great momentum, which shocked many people around him. Many of them took out their phones and called the police. They stayed far away from him and didn't dare to approach him.

If Pence and the others were here, they would know that Tom was damaged by his Invincible Spiritual Momentum. He was in danger. If he was injured slightly, he might degrade. But if he was injured heavily, he might go wrong in cultivation.

Once he went wrong in cultivation, it would be terrible.

Considering his strength, only the masters, who reached God Becoming Level at least could control him.

When he went wrong in cultivation, he would not degrade but became more powerful. But he would be controlled by evil and had no consciousness. Consequently, he would kill many people.

Tom knew it and endured it bitterly. His veins burst out and he was in great pain. It was as if a beast in his body was trying to break through his body. His body and mind were torn violently!

It was much more hurting than giving birth to a child. People who didn't have a strong mind would lose control in a few seconds!

He was more painful than scraping the poison off the bone and having an operation without being anesthetized.

Moreover, Tom had to endure mental pain.

In an instant, his pores all over the body were opened. It seemed that his body was boiling and a lot of mist came out!

It was extremely scary and frightening.

The people around him were more shocked.

"Hello, police. Here is a psycho. Come and arrest him!"

"Hey police, here is a murderer. Come here quickly..."

Many people started to call the police and stayed far away.

Tom couldn't hear the voice of the citizens. He was suffering and struggling painfully.

He had never felt such great pain.

It was even more painful than swallowing Purification Pill to reach Innate Realm!

His pain scale was ten at that time, but it was one hundred now!

It was ten times more!

"Ah!"

Tom finally couldn't bear it. He held his head tightly and rolled on the ground.

He could clearly hear that the voice of the evil in his mind was louder.

Moreover, the evil was more energetic and powerful. The evil was constantly growing in his body and was about to break out of his body at any time!

He felt that his body was like a paper cage and a fierce tiger was in it. He was so fragile that his body could be torn apart at any time.

But he had to suppress it with his will. He knew what would happen if he failed!

"Tom, you can't relax! You can't be controlled by the evil!"

Tom kept roaring to remind himself in his mind.

The people around him were even more scared when they saw it. They took out their phones to take videos. If they posted the videos online, it would definitely become a hot topic. Tom now looked like a beast.

Not long after, a police car honked on the side of the road. A police car arrived, and soon a group of police came. When they saw him, they looked serious. It seemed that there was also a body on the ground!

Many young policemen took out their guns and were serious.

They slowly walked up to arrest Tom.

"Don't move. Raise your hand! You're under arrest!"

Finally, a policeman spoke. Tom felt that they approached. He looked up difficultly. His eyes were bloodshot and they were shocked.

"Go, go, come on..." Tom said in a hoarse voice. He told them with his remaining willpower.

He could felt that he was about to collapse. He couldn't hold on!

Once he was controlled by the evil, everyone present would be killed!

However, the police didn't listen to him. Their duty was to get rid of the bad and help the good.

Seeing that they didn't leave, Tom shouted out with his last will, "Go! Come on!"

After saying it, he felt that he was even worse. He was about to be torn apart. He was not reasonable gradually.

He was extremely tired as if he had not slept for three days and nights. He really wanted to sleep.

He knew that once he fell asleep, he would never wake up again.

He would be controlled by evil and became a demon who could only kill others!

It was what Rommel wanted. The consequences would be unimaginable!

He wanted to control himself, but it was too difficult.

However, the citizens and the police didn't know how painful he was. The police looked at each other and began to arrest Tom violently!

Tom saw that the police were going to arrest him. He looked painful and wanted to say something, but he couldn't speak. He was in pain because the police would be killed once they touched him!

Suddenly, they heard a voice!

"Get out of the way!"

He didn't speak loudly and he sounded majestic. When the police heard him, they couldn't help but obey him and stopped.

Subconsciously, they looked back and immediately saw an old man, who was walking slowly from the crowd.

The old man was dressed in a Tang suit. He didn't look very old and didn't have many wrinkles on his face. He was only sixty years old according to his figure.

But it seemed that he was old and experienced vicissitudes of life from his eyes and temperament!

When he appeared, many people around calmed down.

Moreover, something strange happened...

Chapter 868

Soon, the citizen's and police' eyes dulled, and then they staggered down like they were drunk.

At that moment, the whole park was left with only Tom and the old man. As the old man walked to him, he was rolling on the ground in pain.

This scene was extremely strange. If Pence and others saw it, they would definitely be frightened!

They couldn't figure it out despite that they were martial artists. In their opinion, no martial artist was able to hypnotize so many people in an instant.

Even people in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm could not fulfill it.

Tom was the only one who saw this scene. His vision was blurred because of bloodshot pupils. In this blood-red world, he saw the old man walking over and found it hard to believe that he hypnotized so many people!

"You, you, you..."

Being shocked, Tom was dumbfounded, which made him widen his eyes and see the old man clearly.

When he saw the old man, he was shocked!

That kind of shock froze him, even if he was in a state of war between heaven and man, and he was in pain. He was stunned!

He thought he was hallucinating, unable to believe what he saw.

Because the old man in front of him was his grandfather, who died three years ago!

At that moment, he froze and time became still.

But how could that be? His grandfather had been dead for three years!

It was only after his grandfather died that he inherited his inheritance. It was at that moment that his life changed.

But now, his grandfather came back from the dead?

Tom was unable to figure it out.

"Gra, grandpa?"

Tom said in a hoarse and trembling voice.

Even he himself did not know that he was already in tears. Grandfather's appearance was the most shocking and incredible thing for him all those years!

Compared to his mother, Anna, his grandpa had the most influence on him.

His three views, his martial arts, and everything he had came from his grandfather.

When he knew that his grandfather became a vegetable, he was devastated.

From that moment on, he was hopeless and resigned to be expelled from the the Howards. He married into the the Scotts and became a loser in other's eyes!

And now, he never expected his grandpa came back to life...

He was trembling violently, and the shock in his heart directly overwhelmed his Great Momentum.

The old man walked up to him and gently stroked his face, breaking into a kind and caring smile. "Tom, I'm back."

Hearing his grandfather's voice, Tom burst into tears. "Grandpa, grandpa..." he sobbed.

However, immediately, he was finally unable to resist the counterattack of Great Momentum. He was gradually being devoured, holding his head in pain and with his hands smashing on the ground, leaving a hole on the concrete floor.

"Grandpa, let's go, let's go..." Tom said through his teeth.

He was stricken with grief. His reunion with his grandfather was under the circumstances that he was about to be possessed!

If he was really possessed, then he would completely lose his mind and his grandpa would be hurt by him.

When grandpa heard his words, he stroked his head and said kindly, "Tom, you've suffered over the years..."

"Grandpa, go..." said Tom in a weak tone.

Grandpa said, "You did well enough. Leave it to me. I won't let anything happen to you."

After saying this, his grandpa's momentum suddenly changed. It was an extremely powerful momentum. To Tom's spiritual level, it was like a nuclear explosion. Even with his current cultivation, he could not resist his momentum. He had a blackout fainted.

After he fainted, there was a complicated look in his grandpa's eyes. He picked up Tom and left.

After he left, the ordinary people on the ground began to slowly wake up, with a confused look on their faces.

"What happened just now? Why am I lying on the ground?"

"It's strange. Why do I feel like I forgot something?"

"Inexplicable..."

They all lost their memories.

Moreover, the video they had just taken on their phone was nowhere to be found.

Unfortunately, no one knew what had just happened. Otherwise, it would definitely cause a huge stir!

However, in a building far away, there was a man standing with his robe flowing. With deep eyes, he looked at the park for a long time before he drew back his sight. With a meaningful smile on the corner of his mouth, he muttered, "Old man, it turns out that Tom is your grandson. You finally revealed yourself."

After saying this, he disappeared with the speed of light.

Tom seemed to have had an incomparably long dream, in which he had experienced many things. And this dream was incredibly real. He could feel the ups and downs, the joys and sorrows.

But it was so real, and he knew it was a dream.

This was something he had never experienced before.

Finally, after a long time, he slowly came back to his senses. He opened his eyes. His vision gradually changed from blurry to clear, and he saw clearly what was in front of him.

He found himself in a wooden house, in which only an oil lamp was on the table, lightening the room.

It seemed that the room was very dark and unique.

This was real, and he immediately realized it.

But he didn't know why he was in the cabin... Soon, he thought of something and straightened himself!

He was overwhelmed by Great Momentum and possessed... Then he met his grandfather...

Yes, grandpa!

Chapter 869

All the memories flooded into Tom's mind at this moment, making him remember everything in a flash!

Originally, he was already counterattacked by the Invincible Spiritual Momentum, and was about to go crazy and become a demon losing his mind and humanity. At this time, his grandpa suddenly appeared.

And grandpa's momentum was so strong that he had surpassed the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

Thinking of this, Tom was shocked and couldn't come back to his senses for a long time.

His grandpa was also a master of God Becoming Level?!

This news was too shocking for him. He grew up with his grandfather and knew him very well.

Grandpa was a martial artist, and Tom's martial arts foundation came from grandpa. However, he remembered that his grandpa was just an ordinary martial artist. In his memory, grandpa didn't even reach the Innate Realm. How could he be a master of the God Becoming Level?

This was completely unreasonable!

What a master of the God Becoming Level would be? It could be called the strongest martial artists on earth. In the whole world, how many God Becoming Level experts were there? There were definitely no more than 20. And his grandpa was one of them?

That was not reasonable. If his grandpa was really a God Becoming Level expert, then how could the the Howards have such a status?

If his grandpa was really a God Becoming Level expert, then it was even more impossible for him to become a vegetable back then.

Did he see someone else instead of his grandpa?

At this moment, his mind was in a whirl. He could not figure it out on his own.

Fortunately, he quickly calmed down. He couldn't figure it out, so he didn't continue to think about it. Instead, he forced himself to calm down and began to focus on reality.

He found that he was in a wooden room, and there was only an oil lamp on the table. The light was very dim.

In this room, there was not any modern electrical appliances. It looked like an ancient building!

Therefore, in such a moment, he had the idea that he had traveled to ancient times.

But soon, he dispelled this suspicion.

Because he clearly felt that he was still himself...

He began to pay attention to himself, and soon he realized that the signs showed that he was going to go crazy had disappeared. He was now full of energy and his cultivation had been greatly improved!

His realm was stabilized in half of the God Becoming Level. He clenched his fists and could feel the explosive force in his body that could punch through the earth!

This was a great power that he had never had before. He knew that he had completely absorbed this "Invincible Spiritual Momentum" and that he would no longer suffer the counterattack of it.

He was instantly surprised. As long as he could stabilize himself, he would definitely win the Kungfu Cup championship, save H Country's dignity, and avenge so many of his dead compatriots.

And Silas...

When he thought of Silas, his heart still ached.

He immediately came back to his senses and immediately got off the bed and began to walk out of the cabin.

Now, his mental strength had improved a lot, and he was much stronger than before!

He was ten times stronger than himself in the past.

When he came out of the wooden house, he found that the wooden house was built next to a small lake and surrounded by dense forests.

"Where is this place?"

Tom could not help but wonder.

He used his mental strength to sense the surroundings, but he did not find any traces of his grandfather, which made him feel disappointed. Had his grandfather left?

"Grandpa! Where are you?" Tom shouted.

His voice echoed in the forest, scaring a lot of insects, birds and beasts, but he did not get a response from his grandfather, which made him feel disappointed.

Had his grandpa left?

Why? Grandpa was obviously a super strong man in the God Becoming Level.

Why didn't grandpa want to see him?

Or was the old man who saved him not his grandpa, but an old man who looked like his grandpa?

He didn't want to believe this conjecture. He missed his grandfather too much. If he could see his grandfather again, it would be his happiest moment!

He continued to shout a few more times, but still did not get a response. He sighed heavily and sat on the ground dejectedly, feeling endless disappointment in his heart.

The joy of his success in stabilizing himself in half of the God Becoming Level also dissipated a lot.

However, after a while, he heard footsteps, which made him suddenly happy. He quickly turned around and looked in the direction of the sound.

"Grandpa..."

Suddenly, he saw a familiar figure walking slowly towards him from the forest.

But it was not grandpa, but a fiery figure.

It was just Sunny whom he hadn't seen for a while!

"Sunny?"

When Tom saw Sunny, he cried out in surprise. He was extremely surprised. How did Sunny appear here?

Did Sunny have anything to do with grandpa?

After a while, Sunny actually broke through her realm and reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

Because of the improvement of the realm, Sunny looked even more beautiful. She looked like a peri, and a feeling of respect and admiration arose spontaneously from the bottom of Tom's heart. Tom had seen Sunny several times. Now that he saw Sunny again, he could not help but be amazed by Sunny's grace at this moment.

Sunny was so beautiful now, which made Tom really have the idea that Sunny was really a fairy at that moment.

When Sunny saw Tom, her eyes flashed with surprise, but it quickly disappeared. She walked up to Tom step by step and said, "He's gone."

When Tom heard this, he immediately frowned, stared at Sunny and said in a deep voice, "Sunny, do you know my grandfather?!"

Sunny did not answer directly, but nodded gently.

After seeing Sunny's response, Tom's heart was filled with joy. He could finally confirm that grandpa was not dead. He was still alive!

At that moment, his mood was extremely complex, mixed with surpris, happiness, and confusion...

Sunny looked at him quietly, without interrupting him.

Sunny had not seen Tom since he came out of the LT Organization.

When Tom lowered his head, he did not see that Sunny looked at him with love and admiration.

Finally, Tom looked up and asked Sunny, "Has my grandpa been doing well all these years?"

Chapter 870

Sunny nodded gently to Tom and said, "He's doing well."

Sunny said in a relaxed tone, but Tom caught a flash of sadness in her eyes.

Tom immediately said, "No! I just caught the sadness in your eyes. Did something happen to my grandfather? Is that why he's been pretending to be a vegetable and hasn't come to me for so many years?"

Sunny frowned slightly and said, "You think too much. Your grandfather is a strong martial artist of the God Becoming Level. Do you think there is anything in this world that can restrain him?"

"Then why did he pretend to be a vegetable? Why did he disappear?!" Tom caught this loophole and stared at Sunny, trying to find the trace of lying in her eyes.

But this time, he stared at her for a long time, yet she still looked natural.

Sunny was as cold as ever. She said, "He has his reasons for doing this. When the time comes, he will see you."

Tom fell silent and did not ask further because he knew her character, and it was useless for him to do so.

After a while, Sunny broke the silence and said, "You're taking a risk this time. If your grandfather hadn't taken action, you would have gone crazy."

Tom sighed and said, "This is not what I want to do."

After that, he shook his head bitterly.

Sunny stopped talking because she knew that Tom was not lying. Tom indeed did not ask for all of this.

Ever since Tom became the organizer of the Kungfu Cup, his ending seemed to have been predestined. It was the foreign martial artists who took the move first, and the same went for the Invincible Spiritual Momentum. From the beginning to the end, he was forced to accept things.

Originally, he could bear all of this even though he had no other choice. It wouldn't take long before he could completely condense the Invincible Spiritual Momentum. With his own strength and will, he could have been halfway to becoming a God Becoming Level expert and defeated everyone else in the Kungfu Cup with ease!

However, Silas's death became the last straw that crushed the camel, making him unable to bear it.

Thinking of this, he sighed helplessly.

"How did grandpa save me?" Tom asked.

Sunny's eyes softened a lot. She slowly walked to the lake, looked at the reflection of the moon, and said, "Your grandfather is a master of the God Becoming Level. He naturally has a way to save you."

Tom nodded. He thought so, too. But soon, he caught the flush on Sunny's face through the moonlight. He was a little curious and asked, "Why are you blushing?"

When Sunny heard this, she looked a little nervous, as if she had been caught doing something embarrassing. She immediately turned her face away, and said coldly with her back to Tom, "I'm not."

Tom was not stupid, and he knew Sunny's character. Every time Sunny did this, it was her being shy.

He thought of something, and his expression became strange. He lowered his head and looked at his clothes. "Did you help me change my clothes?"

After asking this question, he regretted it a little. Although it was the truth, it was embarrassing to say it.

Sure enough, Sunny's breathing quickened and her face turned even redder.

After a few seconds, she changed the subject and said, "You slept all day and night. Your friend worries about you. You should go back."

Hearing this, Tom was shocked. He actually slept all day and night? That was too long!

"Where's my phone?" Tom asked immediately.

Soon, Sunny turned around. She opened her palm where Tom's phone lay.

Tom took it and found it still had battery left. He breathed a sigh of relief. Sure enough, he found that there were a lot of missed calls and messages that came to care about him.

He called Phoebe first for a safety check, then Pence and General Watson.

"Hello, Director Pence..."

As soon as he spoke, he was interrupted by Pence. "Oh, my, you finally call me back! I thought something happened to you!"

Pence's anxious and worried voice immediately came from the phone and he went on and on. Tom could hear that there were other people beside Pence who were also concerned about him.

When Tom heard this, he felt a little warm.

He didn't interrupt Pence but waited for him to finish. Then he said, "Director Pence, I'm fine. Safe and sound. Don't worry!"

Hearing this, Pence finally breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Good, good. By the way, where are you? I'll pick you up right away. The Kungfu Cup needs you!"

Tom said, "I'll be back soon."

Pence didn't insist either. He just asked Tom to come back as soon as possible. Tom heard the anxiousness in his tone and immediately asked, "Did something happen during the twenty-four hours I left?"

Pence on the other end of the line was silent for a while, then he sighed heavily and said, "Tom, we've sacrificed too many people here. The higher-ups said that if you didn't come back yet, H Country might have to withdraw from the competition."

Pence said in a serious tone, and Tom could tell how bad the situation was!

Originally, in the Kungfu Cup this time,

H Country's power was very weak, and it was all because of Tom that it could hold on. When Tom was here, everyone still had hope. But Tom's disappearance made the entire H Country panic, and even the higher-ups began to think about withdrawing from the competition!

Indeed, if H Country continued like this, it would lose too many young martial artists. Moreover, its next contestants were all experts in the Innate Realm, which was considered the significant treasure of the nation.

Tom didn't say much. He just said calmly, but firmly, "I'll go back. Wait for me."

"Okay!" Pence cheered up a little.

"Tom, we're all waiting for you to come back!"

After hanging up the phone, Tom put it away and said to Sunny, "I want to go back to the Kungfu Cup."

Sunny nodded. She just said, "Okay."

Tom turned around and left. Sunny looked at his back, lost in thought...

Two hours later, Tom returned to H City. He had a lot of dirt on his body, especially his feet. It was obvious that he had run all the way here.

When he appeared at the Kungfu Cup, he immediately attracted a lot of attention.

There was a brief silence at the scene, followed by a sensation...
