

Chapter 891

Rommel and Junichiro Nakai were so angry for being treated like this. They were internationally well-known cultivators who were among the overmatch and deserved respect. In their country, they were outstanding heroes.

In their mind, they should be the roles who threaten others. Being threatened was totally unacceptable.

But now, Tom really gave them a heavy slap in their face.

They were standing around him and waiting to have a go. But now Tom was so assured that he would beat them and threaten them. They felt being offended. They were so angry that their faces winced.

Tom's words humiliated them! Tom was so hateful! Most of them had never been so angry. At an important event with all martial artists' eyes on it, such insult was completely intolerable for them.

Junichiro Nakai was the first to scold him. "Hmph!"

His strong snort was as if a thunderbolt. It exploded above the ring.

"Tom, you're so arrogant. You're dying and you dare to threaten us with your crazy words!? Do you really think you're a strong God Becoming Level cultivator?"

Black Mamba also scolded loudly, "Tom, today is your day of death. You are only a near-to-God Becoming Level cultivator, and you dare to challenge us, seven God Becoming Level cultivators. I think you are insane! I give you a chance now. You kneel down and kowtow to us. We would consider letting you go. Otherwise, you would die miserably!"

Levski was also rageful that his face turned red. Many of his disciples and grandchildren were on the scene. What's more, the match was held in his country where he was a national martial idol and a great hero. Many people were watching him.

This time, Levski came to the Kungfu Cup with the mission of the country to win the championship. But because Tom took part in the match, his thunder was stolen. He hated Tom bitterly for this.

But now, it was unforgivable for Tom to threaten them in such a situation!

Levski immediately released his aura. His aura was like a storm, sweeping the entire venue. Then his aura turned into a sharp arrow and fiercely shot at Tom. As he released his power, he shouted at the same time, "Tom! You have an exaggerated opinion of your abilities and today you would pay for it! Go to hell! Even God of War of H Country can't save you now!"

The other three Major Perfection Realm giants in the inborn realm also threatened Tom back. The battle had not started yet and they don't want to lose face.

The battle of them was not only physical confrontation but also a spirited fight and momentum fight.

Although they were Major Perfection Realm cultivators, if they lost to Tom in momentum, they might win with difficulty or even worse, lose.

So no matter what, they couldn't lose to Tom in momentum.

Rommel didn't speak until the other six masters finished their words. His eyes were fixed on Tom.

The corners of his mouth rose slightly and a devilish smile appeared. He didn't take Tom's threat serious at all.

"Tom, do you still want to gather aura at this time? That's a smart but useless try." Rommel sneered disdainfully, and then he took two steps forward. Although it was only a simple two steps, to the audience, Tom's aggressive aura vanished a lot for that.

Rommel destroyed the aura that Tom had just gathered.

Then Rommel said, "You haven't stepped into the God Becoming Level, so you're not a match for the seven of us. I admit that you are a genius that has been rare for thousands of years. You have great talent that many people don't have. However, you're too young. You haven't experienced too many setbacks. Your life has been too smooth. You don't know what humility means, and you don't taste the failure."

Rommel's voice was not very loud, but people on the scene heard him clearly. They agreed with his words. Their worships to Tom suddenly were less.

It made sense. Although Tom was extremely talented, Tom was still a person, not a god. Tom was too young and his training path was too smooth, which made Tom so arrogant to challenge seven superior cultivators at one time.

It should be noticed that these seven people on the ring were not nameless people, but the top experts in the world. The obvious fact was that Tom would lose in the fight.

Hearing Rommel's words, many present H Country martial artists' faces changed. They agreed with Rommel's words and became worried about Tom.

As for those foreign martial artists, after hearing this, they felt much more relaxed. They thought that Tom was not so much as an overmatch, and he must have fallen here today.

Although Tom was a genius, once he died, he would not be called a genius anymore.

After a pause, Rommel continued,

"Tom, you're dead today. H Country will fall quickly with your fall. The Great Momentum is a double-edged sword. A part of H Country's Great Momentum has condensed on you. You're already tied to H Country. If you can break through to the God Becoming Level, H Country's national fortune will be stronger. However, once you fall, H Country's national fortune will plummet as well. Unfortunately, you are still too young and too cocky. You are bound to fall here today. And H Country that supports you will also pay for your stupidity!"

After saying this, Rommel's aura suddenly changed. From a very ordinary martial artist just now, he changed into a super strong one. In particular, his aura gushed out like a volcanic eruption!

His momentum was even stronger than that of Junichiro Nakai and Levski.

He was the strongest of the seven Major Perfection Realm players in the innate realm!

The aura he exuded now had covered up Tom!

Rommel outshone Tom, who was originally a God-of-war-like figure and gained dominance.

All the people of H Country present saw this and their faces changed drastically.

H Country's top management, in particular, looked even more worried.

The Little Martial God said with a gloomy face, "No, this Rommel has actually broken through in his realm. If Rommel cooperating with the other six Major Perfection Realm masters in the innate realm, Tom might have trouble."

Chapter 892

Originally, everyone was a little worried. After hearing the Little Martial God's words, they became more sullen.

They also felt nervous.

Tom was their last hope. If Tom really died, it would be a huge blow to all of them.

And what Rommel said just now was also right. Tom's realm had improved greatly in the past month because he had gained the Great Momentum and the fortune of H Country. This was a double-edged sword. One was honored and all would be honored and vice versa. If Tom became a master at the God Becoming Level, then the national fortune of H Country would be greater.

But if Tom died, H Country would be implicated.

"No! He will be fine!"

At this moment, a woman said. It was Lexie. She clenched her fists, her face flushed, and the looks in her eyes were extremely sharp and determined. "He's Tom. He won't lose!"

Everyone fell silent when they heard what she said.

At this time, Barry didn't want to say anything to Lexie anymore, because he also felt extremely worried.

At the same time, someone was worried about and praying for Tom in a corner of the spot of Kungfu Cup.

"Tom, you can do it. I believe in you!"

It was Isabella. She clenched her fists and stared at Tom, but the worry in her eyes was obvious.

Diana was also cheering for Tom. Her face was ruddy. She even wanted to use some of her strength to help Tom.

Not only were they, but many others were also cheering and praying for Tom.

At this moment, they heard that someone said confidently and determinedly, "He won't lose. He will win. Don't worry."

The voice was extremely pleasant to hear and it immediately attracted a lot of people's attention.

Soon, they saw a beautiful, elegant, and graceful woman with a smile on her face. There were deep love and pride in her eyes.

When she saw this woman, Isabella suddenly felt very familiar. It was as if she had seen this woman somewhere.

Isabella had always been very confident in her appearance, but in the face of this woman, she suddenly felt inferior. This woman seemed to be better than her in appearance, temperament and etiquette.

Isabella couldn't help but ask, "Who are you?"

The woman turned around and smiled brightly at Isabella, "My name is Phoebe, his wife."

Hearing this, Isabella's mind went blank. She was stunned and stared at Phoebe in a daze.

Indeed, the woman who suddenly appeared was none other than Phoebe!

Although Tom didn't tell her that today was the competition for the championship, she knew about it because she was also a master who knew about the Kungfu Cup.

She didn't tell Tom that she would come over. She came secretly.

How could she miss such an important thing?

When she arrived, she found that she still underestimated her husband's charm. There were too many young women who had a crush on Tom.

Not only Isabella, but everyone else was also surprised when they heard Phoebe's words.

Diana was the first to react. She stared at Phoebe and said, "Madam, I'm Diana. I'm the apprentice of Tom! Madam, you're so beautiful. It's a blessing for my master to marry you!"

Diana flattered first. At the same time, she secretly observed Phoebe and found that Phoebe was really beautiful

How could she miss such an important thing?

When she arrived, she found that she still underestimated her husband's charm. There were too many young women who had a crush on Tom.

Not only Isabella, but everyone else was also surprised when they heard Phoebe's words.

Diana was the first to react. She stared at Phoebe and said, "Madam, I'm Diana. I'm the apprentice of Tom! Madam, you're so beautiful. It's a blessing for my master to marry you!"

Diana flattered first. At the same time, she secretly observed Phoebe and found that Phoebe was really beautiful and perfect.

No wonder Tom had always disliked Isabella. With such a beautiful wife at home, if she was Tom, she would not be involved in any affairs outside.

Phoebe smiled at Diana and said, "I know you."

When Diana heard this, Diana was a little embarrassed. She didn't know how Tom described her in front of his wife. After all, she was quite presumptuous when she faced Tom.

Phoebe turned her face around and looked at another place. Phoebe saw a beautiful woman. At the same time, that woman also looked over and her eyes met Phoebe's.

That woman reflexively wanted to look away. But immediately, she saw Phoebe's kindness to her. She saw that Phoebe nodded to her. Phoebe took the initiative to greet her. Then, that woman relaxed a lot. There was a shy look on that woman's face. That woman also nodded to Phoebe and greeted Phoebe.

That woman was Amelia.

She also came to see Tom's competition for the championship. It was a crucial battle and she didn't want to miss it.

But she didn't expect Phoebe to recognize her. She felt quite awkward.

Phoebe looked back at Tom on the stage.

Now all the people was quiet. No one made a sound and they all looked at Tom.

They waited to see Tom's reaction.

Then, they saw Tom make a move that surprised them. Tom shook his head and sighed. As Tom walked to the center of the arena, he said, "I've given you the chances. Since you don't cherish, then damn asshole, go to hell."

Tom said these calmly. It was as if he was going to kill a fly.

It was not surprising as Tom said such a thing. But Tom actually took the initiative to walk forward and was surrounded by 7 masters at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. This really went beyond everyone's expectations!

Anyone with a little common sense knew that the best way to deal with the situation when one was surrounded by enemies was to destroy the enemy's siege on the outskirts. Tom, on the other hand, did not do it. Instead, Tom took the initiative to get into the enemies' ring of encirclement. This was an act of committing suicide!

Sure enough, when Rommel and Junichiro Nakai saw it, they raised their eyebrows. They were surprised at first, but then they were uncontrollably angry.

This was because Tom was disdainful and ignoring them. Tom didn't take them seriously at all.

They felt even more humiliated now than they felt when Tom asked them to surrender. Tom actually humiliated them in this way. It was unforgivable!

Tom still walked unhurriedly. They all stared at Tom coldly, their eyes full of anger and crazy killing intent.

Finally, Tom walked to the middle of the seven masters, stopped, and said, "Let's start. I'm in a hurry to go back to eat."

As soon as Tom finished speaking, someone attacked him. They were Levski and two other masters at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. They stood behind Tom.

Without any warning, they attacked without any hesitation.

The battle finally began!

Chapter 893

They perfectly explained what it meant to be deliberate in counsel, and prompt in action. And they didn't make a move easily. Once they did, it was extremely powerful and remarkable.

They were more than ten meters away. And in a blink of an eye, they had already come up to Tom's back and launched the sharpest attack on Tom.

Their sudden attack shocked the audience. And everyone held their breath out of nervousness.

The attack was extremely fierce, divided into three directions towards three key points of Tom. If Tom was hit, then even if he was half God Becoming Level, he would be defeated and seriously injured.

And in this level of battle, once one was seriously injured, it meant he failed, and the result of failure was death.

They wore a cold and confident look. They had been preparing for the move for a long time and had been observing Tom's momentum. When they found out that Tom had shown some weakness, they immediately launched an attack. They tried to use one move and seriously injured Tom.

However, they still underestimated Tom.

Just as their fists were about to hit Tom's back, Tom's figure suddenly disappeared without any warning. He seemed to have appeared five meters away. It looked like teleportation.

"What?" Levski immediately exclaimed in surprise. This was originally a fatal attack, but Tom dodged it so easily? It seemed that Tom was faster than they expected.

However, as the super-strong, they had countless combat experiences in their lifetime. Although this move did not hit Tom, it did not ruin their plan. Almost instantly, they made an adjustment and launched the second round of attack on Tom.

And this time, it wasn't just the three of them who attacked Tom. Junichiro Nakai and Black Mamba, as well as another master of Major Innate Perfection Realm in the other three directions also attacked Tom.

For a moment, Tom was surrounded by six Major Innate Perfection Realm experts. The attack was fierce and even a fly couldn't escape from their attacks.

In other words, Tom had to fight a way out.

However, this was too difficult. They were not ordinary Innate Realm masters, but Major Innate Perfection Realm masters.

"Damn! Tom is surrounded by them. This is not good."

In the audience, Pence's face changed drastically and shouted out worriedly.

The others were also very nervous. They believed in Tom's strength. After all, Tom had already reached half the God Becoming Level, and he could easily crush the seven of them. But that was based on the fact that Tom was not surrounded. Now that Tom was surrounded, he had to face the siege of six Major Innate Perfection Realm masters plus the sneak attack of the strongest Rommel, then Tom's situation was dangerous. After all, Tom had not yet reached the real God Becoming Level.

"How could Tom be so careless and run into their encirclement. Thus, the odds of his winning are greatly reduced!" Amos said anxiously with his forehead sweating.

Thorn clenched his fists and said, "Trust Tom. He must have his own plan if he dares to do so."

"Yes, trust Tom. Tom can always create miracles. Trust him."

In a short span of time, Tom and the six Major Innate Perfection Realm masters were already fighting on the stage.

Their attack was too fast for most people to see their specific moves. They could only see the remnants and hear the sounds like firecrackers.

"It's too fast. I can't even see it clearly. Is this the battle of the Major Innate Perfection Realm? It's too scary!"

"And did you find that the arena made of refined steel began to shake? Is this really the energy that can be produced by human beings?"

"They are so powerful. When can I do that?"

Most of the people present could not see clearly the attack between them. They could only feel the intensity of it.

There were still many people who clenched their fists tightly, not daring to breathe and blink, staring at the stage, and cheering up Tom.

This battle was so important. If Tom lost, H Country would be implicated. As a citizen of H Country, they would naturally be influenced too.

But for the masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, they could still roughly see the moves.

So they could see that Tom was already at a disadvantage.

It was said that no matter how good and great you thought you could be, nothing could beat multiple people working together. And now Tom had to fight six people alone, making it even more difficult.

Under such circumstances, even Tom was much stronger than any of them, he was always alone. So Tom's situation was not good.

Not to mention, there was still a Rommel beside him, always sneak attacked Tom. That meant Tom's situation was now dangerous.

At this moment, Rommel, who had not made a move, suddenly moved.

His speed was at its peak, and without any warning, he appeared behind Tom and launched the sharpest and most deadly sneak attack on Tom.

This sneak attack appeared too fast and too suddenly. Even experts in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, such as Pence and Amos, did not discover. Only people at the same level as Little Martial God could find it.

So Little Martial God stood up immediately. His face was full of panic and worry, and he burst out, "No, Tom is going to suffer."

His voice was so sudden that it startled Barry and the others. When they came back to their senses, their expressions changed. "What?"

As soon as they finished speaking, all they heard was a loud sound. Rommel's attack was successful. Even though he had made the fastest reaction, Rommel kicked him and he fell heavily.

He almost fell out of the stage.

If he got out of the stage, Tom would lose the right to fight for the championship.

This sudden change surprised everyone, especially the H Country martial artists, who obviously did not expect Tom to lose.

Chapter 894

Tom was the favorite to win the Kungfu Cup. But he was defeated?

And he was defeated in less than 10 minutes?

Everyone present, whether they were martial artists of H Country or foreign countries, was shocked.

Everyone had expected to witness an earth-shattering battle.

Moreover, Tom had been so confident, so they thought Tom could definitely win. But Tom was defeated, which was really shocking.

Martial artists of H Country found it unacceptable.

So after a short silence, they suddenly stood up suddenly!

"What..."

"Did my eyes deceive me? Tom... lost?"

"Impossible, that is impossible! Tom is the favorite for the Kungfu Cup. He is the strongest. How could he lose?!"

"It can't be true. Tom is our last hope!"

"Tom also promised us that he would win! He can't lose!"

They all clenched their fists and straightened their necks, unwilling to accept this fact and unable to calm down!

But it was definitely good news for foreign martial artists.

They had always been nervous and timid because of Tom. And their aura was overwhelmed by the people of H Country. They were resentful and were waiting for a miracle. They had hoped that the seven masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm could defeat Tom!

But they all knew that it was almost impossible. Now, when they saw Tom defeated in front of them, they were really excited. Silent for a while, they burst into cheers.

"Ha ha ha ha! Tom lost, he lost!"

"That's great, that's great! Wasn't he very arrogant? But he was defeated within 10 minutes. Shame on you, Tom! Ha ha ha..."

"It's so funny. How arrogant he was a few days ago. I really thought he could win the championship. Now it seems that he is just a clown!"

"That's right. Look at those people of H Country! How ridiculous they look. Now that Tom was defeated, they can no longer be arrogant."

"They are an inferior race. They are destined to be defeated by us!"

"Tom had the national fortune of H Country on him. Now that he has lost, H Country will decline. Ten years later, H Country will descend to a small country. I'm glad to see that!"

Those foreign martial artists, who had been depressed, were now very excited.

And they even made a thumbs-down to provoke the martial artists of H Country next to them arrogantly.

They were humiliating Tom and his fellow countrymen in high spirits.

In their opinion, Tom was doomed because Rommel's kick must have hurt Tom badly.

Many of H Country's top executives in the audience looked gloomy.

They had thought that Tom might lose, but they didn't expect him to lose so soon!

And most importantly, Tom had their national fortune with him. Tom couldn't afford to lose.

Now every person of H Country was all distressed and disappointed. Their momentum had all gone.

"Alas!!" Joseph sighed, his face gloomy and glum. "Can't H Country revive?"

Other higher-ups fell silent when they heard his words.

Tesorang walked over and said with a smile, "Mr. Ross, it seems that the H Country has been out of the title. Don't be too sad."

Joseph's face darkened and he did not answer.

At this moment, they heard a voice,
"He won't lose!"

Everyone looked over and found that it was Lexie. She gritted her teeth tightly, and her bloodshot eyes were full of trust and firmness. She said to everyone again, "Tom won't lose! He has promised me that he would win. He never lied to me!"

Her words were firm and loud, but no one believed her. They just thought that she was comforting herself.

They thought that although Tom was not killed, he was also seriously injured. He could not defeat the seven masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm fighting together against him. If Tom insisted on resisting, he would be killed on the spot.

Barry also sighed. He had high expectations for Tom, and he didn't expect Tom to lose.

Was the H Country destined to decline?

Was national rejuvenation was just a ridiculous daydream?

In another corner of the scene, Diana was pale and she let out a scream, "Oh no, my master lost! He lost..."

Pale, Isabella bit her lips, and she clenched her fists tightly, nails dug into her palms. She stared intensely at Tom on the ring, almost heartbroken. She had never been so desperate before.

If Tom really lost, her faith would also collapse.

In fact, not only her but also the other people of H Country present shared the same bitterness.

However, at that moment, they heard a calm but firm voice, "Tom will not lose. This is his strategy. He never lies. Since he has said he would win the championship for H Country, he will do it."

Others looked over and found that the voice belonged to Phoebe, Tom's wife, the great beauty.

Diana immediately walked over and stared at Phoebe. She asked in a weak and timid voice, "Really? You-you are not lying to us? Can he really win?"

Others also looked at them.

Phoebe smiled brightly and nodded, "Trust him. He will win."

They suddenly calmed down after hearing Phoebe's words. Their eyes returned to Tom on the ring...

And at that moment, Tom stood up from the edge of the ring.

Chapter 895

Tom stood up with his body making a cracking sound. It sounded like he was rubbing his joints.

His every move attracted the attention of the entire audience, especially the martial artists of H Country who worried about him.

Finally, he stood up straight and stretched himself. Then he looked up without looking painful. Instead, he smiled and said, "Ah, it's comfortable. All my muscles are relaxed. Rommel, I need to thank you."

His action stunned everyone. What was going on? Hadn't Tom been attacked by Rommel and was seriously injured? Why did he look like nothing happened now?

It seemed that he was enjoying it, as if he had been massaged. Damned it.

Rommel was the first to react. His pupils constricted and he shouted, "That's impossible!!"

This was the first time he had lost his composure since he took part in the Kungfu Cup.

After all, Rommel knew exactly how heavily he kicked Tom. With his strength, he could destroy a tank, not to mention a person. But Tom was not injured at all. It was unbelievable!

The only person who could withstand his all-out kick without getting hurt was the master of God Becoming Level...

Could it be that Tom had broken through to the God Becoming Level?

No, that was impossible!

Rommel quickly shook his head, unable to believe that!

Rommel knew very well how difficult it was to get through to the God Becoming Level. He was an outstanding genius, but he had been stuck in the stage of Major Perfection Realm for a long time. How old was Tom? How could he reach the God Becoming Level so easily?

Not only Rommel, but also the other six masters of Major Perfection Realm were now staring at Tom in disbelief.

Especially when they saw Tom was not hurt at all and smiled at them, they felt numb and scared in their hearts! It could not have happened from their point of view.

After a moment of silence.

A wave of applause erupted.

"Hahaha! Great, Tom is fine. Tom is fine!"

"I told you. Tom is the best. How could he be knocked down so easily?"

"It seems that Tom isn't injured at all. He's too strong. Tom really didn't disappoint us!"

"Fighting, Tom!"

"Long live Tom!"

All the H Country martial artists were once again ignited by Tom at this moment.

As for those arrogant foreign martial artists, their smiles were now stiff and they were speechless. They didn't expect that Tom would be fine after being heavily kicked by Rommel. Was Tom a human or a ghost?

Many executives of H Country at the audience were also relieved. Even Joseph wiped off his cold sweat and said with relief, "Tom is fine. I almost scared to death just now."

Barry also said, "I told you. Tom doesn't look an arrogant man. If he's not sure of success, he wouldn't have fought with Rommel."

Joseph then asked Tesorang, "Mr. Tesorang, what did you just say?"

Tesorang snorted. He could only pretend not to hear and not to respond to Joseph's sarcasm.

Little Martial God's pupils narrowed and his eyes were deep. He stared at Tom on the stage, then found Tom's momentum kept improving and he was not hurt at all. Little Martial God also understood that Tom just pretended to be weak.

In other words, Tom did not take these seven masters of Major Perfection Realm seriously, and Little Martial God even was not qualified to be Tom's opponent, because they were not at the same level.

Thinking of this, Little Martial God sighed, then he said with a little bleak, "The youth would be more outstanding than the old. Now it is the world of young people."

When Pence, Amos and the others heard his words, they nodded in agreement. It was indeed the world of young people like Tom now.

At the same time, on the stage, Tom stood up straight and began to walk towards Rommel and the others. He teased, "Is this all your strength? You really disappoint me."

Hearing Tom's words, the face of the seven of them darkened. And they even began to fear and panic because of Tom's approachment.

They felt like they were surrounded by Tom, and involuntarily took a step back. Now they had already lost a lot of momentum.

When Tom saw their reaction, he immediately said disdainfully, "How dare you to fight for the championship with me, you cowards? You're actually seeking death."

As Tom approached step by step, they had already begun to fear, but this did not mean that they would retreat.

After all, this was not a private battle, but a fight for national dignity! They represented not themselves, but the country behind them. If they retreated, it would affect their country.

So they could only march forward, not retreat.

They looked at each other, exchanged ideas for a short time, and then regained their fighting spirit. No matter what, they had to attack Tom down.

"Tom, you're already injured and you're pretending to be fine. Do you think we can't tell?" Junichiro Nakai snorted and said disdainfully.

Meanwhile, they started to move and surround Tom again. Moreover, they were preparing to use the same trick to defeat Tom!

They didn't believe that Tom cannot be hurt.

After the eye contact, they stopped hesitating and attacked Tom fiercely!

The fight began again. This time, even Rommel also launched an attack on Tom together with his fellows, because he also saw that Tom was indeed powerful, and his sneak attack just now didn't hurt Tom. Now he had to do his best to defeat Tom!

Tom faced their siege and smiled, "None of you seven can escape today."

As soon as he finished speaking, his eyes widened, and his entire body exuded an aura at this moment, like a solar storm, which could burn the entire field. His seven opponents were impacted the most.

Additionally, Tom didn't keep defending passively this time, but took the initiative to attack!

Chapter 896

At first glance, Tom was surrounded by seven masters and was in danger, but in terms of momentum, it was the opposite.

It was more like that Tom surrounded them.

Tom's aura far surpassed all of theirs, and his figure, in everyone's eyes, was constantly magnified.

He became a devil, and Junichiro Nakai, Rommel, and the others were just seven nonentities to him. If they dreamed of challenging the devil, the final result was that they would be trounced!

At the moment, Tom had been fighting them for a while.

Bang, bang...

As soon as they fought, there was an incessant sonic boom, as if even the air could not withstand their attack and was directly exploded.

Moreover, that kind of sound of fist to flesh made people feel their blood spurting out, incomparably excited!!!

This time, Tom moved extremely fast. At the same time, his moves were the most exquisite in the world. Even the most advanced artificial intelligence in the world could not calculate the subtlety of his current moves.

Therefore, even if he was facing the siege of seven great masters, he could fight them with just two fists skillfully. Moreover, he kept suppressing his opponents and seizing the upper hand.

Their movements had even exceeded the speed of sound.

Therefore, the result was that the sound could not keep up with their movements. Usually, they had already put ten punches into each other before the audience could hear the sound of the first punch.

This did not have much impact on the average audience.

But for masters like Pence and Amos, it was a different experience.

They were completely stunned and swallowed heavily.

"Oh my god! Am I right? Their speed is completely faster than the speed of sound! Is this really the speed that humans can reach?"

"Not only that, but their strength is too great. Even the arena made of refined steel is starting to be pitted! Horrible, too horrible..."

Little Martial God sighed deeply with emotion, and said, "Men should learn from Tom!"

His words got a lot of people's approval. Yes, which man didn't want to be like Tom? This was the right way for a man to behave.

For Lexie, she raised her head and her face was full of pride. This was the man she liked, so he was naturally the best!

Bang.

At this moment, Tom punched directly into a master in the Major Perfection Realm on the right. The punch was so heavy that the opponent directly flew out.

Tom said calmly, "This is the first one."

Soon, the audience saw a tall figure flying out of the arena, flying tens of meters directly and falling heavily to the ground.

And when he fell down, the man's neck was twisted, and his facial features were bleeding, looking very miserable.

However, he was not dead yet. His eyes were wide open, filled with confusion, fear, and pain. He could not figure out why he was hit by Tom.

He could feel his neck being broken by Tom. The piercing pain spread from his neck to his whole body.

The most terrifying thing was that he could clearly feel his vitality running away...

He knew a terrible thing that he was going to die.

"Ah..." His mouth opened, but he couldn't say anything. He could only scream hoarsely. He wanted to ask for help, and he didn't want to die. He had suffered so many difficulties to reach this level of cultivation. He was the god of war in his country, a hero. He still had a good life to enjoy. He was really unwilling to die like this.

However, no matter how he screamed, it didn't help. His life force was still running away crazily, and even his consciousness began to blur. He knew that he was really going to die. Now he was extremely regretful. If he had known that Tom was so horrible, why would he still oppose Tom? No matter how bold he was, he would not go against Tom!

Unfortunately, there was no ifs. He was really going to die...

A few seconds later, his legs straightened, and his eyes began to wander. He was dead.

It wasn't until then that the audience realized that Tom had killed an invincible master in the Major Perfection Realm in less than a minute.

For Rommel and the others, their scalp was numb now because they did not see clearly how Tom struck and killed this master in the Major Perfection Realm.

But they all felt the power of Tom's punch. It was so heavy that it was like a train hitting, giving them goosebumps.

"Tom, you're dead! I'll see if you have so much energy to fight us!!" Junichiro Nakai roared. Originally, he had reserved some of his strength. After all, after killing Tom, he still had to compete with others for the Kungfu Cup championship, but now, he had no choice. If he didn't do his best, Tom would kill him!

"Dudes, don't keep your strength. Let's go all out and kill Tom!!" Junichiro Nakai roared, and then he began to set an example. He was the first to push out all his potential and launch a deadly attack on Tom.

Others saw Junichiro Nakai's actions and agreed with him. After all, Tom was too scary. If they didn't try their best now, they wouldn't have the chance.

How could the champion of the Kungfu Cup be more important than their lives?

But Tom smiled disdainfully again.
"Just you nonentities want to fight me?
Whether you try your best or not,
you're just nonentities to me."

"Arrogant!" Levski was the first to shout. Tom was really too arrogant. Did he really think that he was a strong man at the God Becoming Level and invincible?!

Levski was the first one to burst out, unleashing 100 % of his strength, and caught a perfect angle to give Tom a full blow. With a bang, his speed was so fast that he made a sonic boom and a gust of wind, and he crashed heavily into Tom's chest. The thunderous force hit Tom.

But how could he hit Tom with this punch?

Instead of retreating, Tom kept moving forward, keeping the distance from his behind area and closing the distance between him and Levski. Moreover, he punched at the same time to fight Levski!

In terms of body shape, there was a big gap between him and Levski. He was a head shorter than Levski.

Visually, everyone would think that Tom was about to be blown away, but in fact, the person who was blown away was not Tom, but Levski.

With a crack, Levski's wrist was broken, and then he let out a scream.

He flew out of the arena and spat out blood in the air.

"Overestimate yourself." A cold gleam flashed in Tom's eyes. He moved at a pace that was obviously faster than the others. He jumped out of the encirclement and chased after Levski in the air. Then he grabbed Levski's foot and pulled it. In Levski's panicked and terrified scream, Tom slammed Levski to the ground!!!

Chapter 897

There was a loud bang!

The whole stage shook violently.

This huge tremor spread through the ground of the arena. And the loud sound it caused reached the ears of every audience.

The extremely shocking noise, coupled with everything that unfolded before them, brought great shock to everyone.

Not only the people present, but even the people who were watching the live broadcast all over the world felt the power of tremor and the destructive force at this moment.

Soon, the dust dispersed. The situation on the stage grew clear to them, which horrified them to point of trembling.

Levski's huge body was smitten to the ground by Tom. Even the arena made of refined steel caved in because of the smash.

And Lewski was lying flat on the ground, dying.

At the edge of the pit, a lot of blood was spattered.

And the most terrifying thing was that Levski's whole body seemed flattened a lot!

His bones were broken. He couldn't move. Without the bones, he was just like a giant meat pie.

If he was just an ordinary person, he would have died a long time ago. However, Lewski was a master of the Major Perfection Realm in Innate Realm. His strength and the life force were far beyond that of ordinary people. Even when he suffered such a serious injury, he did not die instantly!

But because of this, it was torture for him.

Laying on the ground, he could clearly feel that all his bones were broken, and even his internal organs began to deform, causing irreparable damage.

His brain, in particular, was crushed. He tried to move a little. Yet moving an inch was hard for him and he could even hear the crack from the cranium!

Thinking of how miserable he was now, the tears trickled down his face.

He was losing his consciousness.

He vaguely saw Tom, standing right in front of him, looking down at him. He could feel Tom's eyes filled with indifference and coldness as if he was looking at a pig or a dog.

Levski was drowned in scare and dread. He wished he could travel back from time and he would never challenge Tom again.

But when he opened his mouth, he could not utter a word. Coldness, he felt, from the ground and his own body. His life force was dying down swiftly.

He knew that he would not survive this time, but he was really unwilling to die in this way! Even now, he still couldn't understand how Tom killed him so easily.

He wanted to beg for mercy. However, his neck was broken, and his windpipe was blocked. As a result, he couldn't speak at all.

Never had he experienced such despair. Tom was so powerful that no human could be paralleled with him.

Tom didn't continue his attack for he knew that Levski was finished, and even the gods could not save him this time.

Moreover, he didn't possess a cruel character. But confronting these ruthless people, he had no choice but to beget violence with violence!

Not only was he punishing them, but he was also trying to convey a message to the others that the strength of H Country was higher than ever, and those who wanted to offend H Country shall pay the price!

Finally, after Levski's convulsion, with endless fear and regret, he died, unable to close his eyes.

At this time, the drone captured his expression accurately and zoomed into the big screen for everyone to see.

All of a sudden, the audience quieted down. It was a strange silence that people could even hear a pin drop. Even the top management of all countries was deeply shocked by the power and cruelty that Tom showed at this moment!

Even Adam, a God Becoming Level expert in Country M, narrowed his eyes and stared at Tom. His eyes filled with coldness and hostility, and even a little fear.

The fear was visible in his eyes!

Logically speaking, Adam was a master of the God Becoming Level while Tom only almost reached the God Becoming Level. He should be no threat to Adam.

However, Tom was so young that he had reached this level before the age of 30. Adam, aged more than 50, had never heard of or seen someone with such talent.

It was conceivable that once Tom arrived at the God Becoming Level, he would definitely be a strong match for Adam!

Even at that moment, he had thought of assassinating Tom.

With his skill, the success rate of shooting a concealed weapon to assassinate Tom was still very high!

Moreover, he was a God Becoming Level expert. Even if he got busted, he could escape back to Country M. The H Country could do nothing to him!

Even God of War from H Country couldn't catch him.

Although this kind of behavior was shameless to an expert in God Becoming Level like him, it would be worthy to kill an enemy that would be a threat to him in the future.

In just a second, Adam came up with countless ideas in his mind and finally made up his mind to kill Tom.

The next second, a few small balls of steel appeared on his fingers. He was sure that Tom would definitely not be able to dodge his attack from this distance and angle.

However, just as he was about to make a move, he was stopped.

Suddenly, he felt a cold vibe pressing down on him, which made him startled. And his whole body trembled uncontrollably.

Immediately, he looked in that direction. He saw an old man with a cap from H Country. Just then, they made eye contact and Adam saw the coldness in his eyes.

The old man was clearly warning him that if he dared to attack, what awaited him would be death.

Adam and the old man looked at each other. Adam's face became even paler due to fear. All of sudden, the murderous intent he had disappeared.

It turned into shock and fear.

Judging from the strong aura field, Adam knew the old man's skill was far above his!

He had an absolute power. Even among the experts in God Becoming Level, he was one of the best.

Just now, Adam's face darkened. He knew that if the old man attacked him, then he was definitely not the match for him. So he gave up his previous thought.

But he couldn't figure out since when H Country have another God Becoming Level expert!

He had never seen that old man before!

He knew that there were two God

Becoming Level experts in H Country, one was God of War Albert, also the guardian of H Country. Adam had met Albert and even fought with him.

Another God Becoming Level expert was the mysterious King of LT Organization. But he, strictly speaking, wasn't H Country people. So there was no threat to Country M.

"But who was the old man in front of him?"

"And he seemed to have a good relationship with Tom? Was he the person behind Tom?!"

At this moment, there were already countless thoughts flushed across Adam's mind.

Chapter 898

He looked away, without looking at the old man in H Country. At the same time, he quickly withdrew the iron ball from his fingers.

Although he was very unwilling, he had to admit that he couldn't stop Tom!!!

At this moment, Tesorang came over and whispered to him, "Mr. Adam, this guy is a great threat to us. Why haven't you made a move yet?"

In spite of his low voice, some people around him heard him, such as Little Martial God, Pence and Amos...

So immediately they all looked over.

Adam coughed and glared at Tesorang.

Sometimes he couldn't figure out how this crazy guy came to power.

Instead of answering, he replied in a low voice, "Focus on the game."

Tesorang immediately shuddered. He realized that he might have infuriated Adam, but he couldn't figure out how. He didn't do anything.

Although he was a little bit upset that Adam obviously didn't want to talk to him, he didn't say anything. Instead, he just looked at the stage.

At the same time, the audience finally came back to their senses and exclaimed with excitement!

"Wow!"

"One move!! Tom defeated this insufferable Levski..."

"Cool! That's so cool!! Tom is so awesome! He pulled him out of the air and hit him on the ground!!! It's too cruel, too exciting! But I like it!"

"Great! This is the style of our H Country. This is how we should treat them!! Let's see if they dare to give us a hard time!"

All the martial artists from H Country stood up and shouted with excitement!

Tom's name echoed around, which was imposing and dispirited all the martial artists in other countries.

Besides, the H Country martial artists, who were watching the competition all over the world, burst into great cheers.

Some were in the company, some in the park, some in tourist attractions, and even some in school... Everyone burst out cheering at the same time, frightening people around them, thinking that something had happened.

It was the first time that this kind of global grand occasion happened since the establishment of H Country.

For Isabella and the others were relieved. They couldn't help but shed tears of excitement and exclaimed, "He did it! He really did it!!"

Diana came over excitedly to hold Phoebe's hand and gushed, "Madam, did you see that master really did it?

Ah..."

Phoebe broke into a satisfied smile.

She looked at Tom, the most important man in her life on the stage with a deep gaze. A smile touched the corner of her mouth. At this moment, she felt once again that she was the happiest woman in the world.

Amelia, who was in another corner, was smiling happily, proudly, and cheerfully.

Although she was not acknowledged as his woman, she took him as her man. Her heart and Tom had always been connected.

Now that she saw Tom shine and win glory for the country, she was excited and proud.

She knew that the best thing she had ever done in her life was to support and die for him. At that moment, she moved Tom's heart...

Tom, who was on the stage, also smiled. At this moment, he felt the existence of 'Great Momentum' again. The hearts of all the martial artists in the country were connected to him.

This feeling was very beautiful, very rare, and even, he felt that he was much more involved with the invisible and intangible 'national fortune'.

He understood that he was closer to H Country.

From now on, he was not only a martial artist in H Country, but also the soul, the representative, and the pioneer of H Country. He was responsible to lead H Country forward.

It was H Country that gave him nutrients to grow, so it was time for him to repay his country.

He beamed a smile from the bottom of his heart.

His smile was also captured by the camera and spread all over the world.

Someone, however, was sad. For Rommel and others, that was terrible news!

"Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!!!"

Nakai shouted loudly with his eyes almost popped out.

His malevolent face twisted in anger. He clenched his fists and stared at Tom with fear.

Tom's power was beyond his expectations!

He knew very well how powerful Levski was. He was unable to believe that he was killed by Tom.

In particular, the method Tom used just now was not something that the Major Perfection Realm could do at all!

Originally, the seven of them fought together, but now there were only five of them left.

So could they really defeat Tom?

To be honest, at this moment, they were panicking and overcome with fear, and even some people had the idea of retreat.

They were the masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, geniuses of all mankind. Having been through countless battles in their lives, they hoped to be invincible.

But now this hope was crushed by Tom!

Tom had cast a shadow on them. That was to say when they were possessed one day, their devil was not themselves, but Tom, a mark that could not be erased in this lifetime!

But it was unknown whether they could survive.

Tom, however, just patted his sleeve lightly, as if he had just done a very insignificant thing, and even his body was not stained with Levski's blood.

At most, he looked a little travel-stained.

Next, he looked at Rommel and Junichiro Nakai, smiled, and said politely, "Are you all ready to be killed?"

Hearing Tom's words, they were lost for words with a livid face, because panic overtook them.

Chapter 899

After Tom said this, he did not seem to be in a hurry to make a move. With his hands on his back, he acted like a guru and walked towards them step by step unhurriedly.

Although he seemed to be walking normally, every step he took was so powerful as if a giant were stepping on the stage. The whole stage trembled with every step he took.

This scene was very shocking for everyone present. The arena was not an ordinary concrete arena, but was made of refined steel up to half a meter thick.

It was now badly destroyed because their fight just now.

In particular, the remaining five people on the ring felt Tom's terrifying energy. He was not hurt at all and was full of energy.

Among them, Black Mamba and another Major Perfection Realm expert in the Innate Realm, faced with Tom's powerful momentum, both took two steps back in fear, and their momentum was already much lower.

"Don't panic! Don't retreat!!"

Rommel shouted out in a deep voice. His eyes were sharp and he stared at Tom. His muscles tightened!

He knew that at this point, they had no chance to retreat. The only way was to defeat Tom!

Junichiro Nakai also realized this, and he said loudly, "Rommel is right. We can't back down. At this time, we have to unleash all our potential and even exhaust ourselves. We have to kill Tom, or we will die!"

Their momentum kept rising.

It turned into two pillars of air and rose into the sky. For a moment, their momentum was able to compete with Tom's.

The remaining three people were also infected. In this situation, they really had no way out. This was no longer an ordinary life and death struggle, but a battle involving dignity.

All the martial artists in the world were looking at them. If they really retreated, not only they but also their country would be humiliated!

And they would also become the sinners of the country.

They could not bear the consequences.

Moreover, the momentum on their bodies began to change. In the beginning, it was strong, but then it was slowly tinged with somberness...

To them, Tom was no longer as simple as an opponent, but a big devil riding on their heads. They had to kill Tom. Even if the chance was not big, they still had to do it!

They were ready to die.

For a moment, after their somber momentum was produced, all the foreign martial artists felt it and were infected. They all clenched their fists, praying and cheering for the five Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm on the ring.

Tom felt this tragic emotion, and revealed a faint smile. "It's quite tragic. It seems that you are all ready to die. Since that's the case, let's start."

After saying this, Tom's body suddenly disappeared from its original position. To everyone present, he really disappeared out of thin air.

However, only the five people on the ring could sense that Tom had not disappeared, but that he was too fast. They did not know what kind of skill he was using that he did not produce a sonic boom. Everything was so quiet.

In an instant, when Tom appeared again, he was already in front of Junichiro Nakai.

Junichiro Nakai frowned and his heart stopped beating! At the same time, a feeling of unprecedented danger rose in his heart, giving him goosebumps all over and freezing his blood!

He knew that Tom was going to hit him, and it was an absolutely fierce blow. If he couldn't stop it, he would be killed.

Before he could think about it, he roared and in an instant subconsciously gathered all his strength to resist Tom's punch.

However, he still underestimated Tom's strength, or rather, he overestimated his own strength. Tom's punch directly broke his arms and hit him hard on the chest with a bang!

The sound of fists hitting deep into the body echoed in the room, accompanied by the sound of broken ribs.

Then, Junichiro Nakai's feet left the ground. He was sent flying.

With one punch from Tom, Junichiro Nakai was seriously injured. He flew more than 20 meters and fell heavily to the ground. Moreover, after Junichiro Nakai landed, he spat out lots of blood. In particular, there was a hole in his chest!!!

There was a brief silence, and then the arena was overwhelmed with cheers.

The strength that Tom showed was too terrifying. With just one punch, he defeated Junichiro Nakai, such a powerful man.

Now the camera was focused on Junichiro Nakai, and the painful expression on his face, mixed with fear and regret, could be clearly seen...

He tried to stand up, but he was too badly injured to get up, his face ghastly pale.

For all the Red Sun State martial artists, Junichiro Nakai's defeat was like a heavy hammer that hit their hearts hard, making them lose their confidence all of a sudden. Their spiritual beliefs collapsed, and more than half of them even began to cry.

Tom did not stop. He continued to pounce on a Major Perfection Realm expert in the Innate Realm while saying, "This is the third one. There are four left."

Because of Tom's previous move, the remaining four people were scared out of their wits. They knew that Tom was powerful, but they never expected that Tom was already so powerful.

This was not something they could resist at all. Even if they fought against him together, they were no match at all.

Even the determined Rommel was shocked at this moment. His eyes widened and he felt cold all over.

"This..." Rommel swallowed.

As for the other three, they were even more frightened.

However, Tom did not give them a chance to react. Now that he had already taken action, he was going to kill them in one fell swoop to worship the dead H Country spirits!

Immediately, after Tom defeated Junichiro Nakai, he immediately looked at another Major Perfection Realm expert in the Innate Realm and smiled grimly. "Your turn. Are you ready?"

This expert was also famous internationally. His life was a legend and was even written in the book by his country. He became a hero. But now, facing Tom's threat, he was scared out of his wits and no longer wanted to resist. He screamed and turned around to run!

Chapter 900

Tom was not surprised by his reaction. Tom just smiled disdainfully and said, "You want to run? Can you run away?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Tom was already chasing after the man.

Rommel immediately shouted, "You can't run away! We have to fight together!!!"

However, the man did not pay any attention to Rommel at all. At this time, he was already scared out of his wits. Now, all he thought was running away with all his strength!

The man's speed was already very fast. In a second, he had already reached the edge of the arena, and was about to jump out of the arena and run away.

But at this moment, the man suddenly felt a chill in his neck and Tom's breath, right behind him!

Then, he realized that his neck was tightened and his feet were off the ground. His body, which had been speeding forward, stopped and was suspended in the air.

"No!!!"

It turned out that after he rushed to the edge of the arena, Tom grabbed him by the neck and lifted him up, as if Tom was pinching a chicken. His feet kicked wildly in the air, but he could not struggle. It seemed that the difference in their strength was extremely big.

Tom's voice rang in his ear. "Do you think you can run away?"

The man was at least a master in the Major Perfection Realm. He had fought countless battles in his life and was experienced. He realized the huge gap between himself and Tom. In an instant, he thought of the most correct reaction, which was to fight back and kick Tom under the crotch!

That was men's vulnerable part. If it was kicked, even Tom's abnormally strong body would get hurt!

Unfortunately, even if his reaction was already very fast, for Tom, it was still too slow.

Tom didn't make any difficult moves. Tom just pinched hard and a crack sounded. The man's neck was broken by Tom. His violent kick made himself lose balance and only weakly hit Tom in the thigh. For Tom, it was like being bitten by a mosquito.

Then, like abandoning a doll, Tom threw the master in the Major Perfection Realm at the feet of Rommel and Black Mamba.

"Only you three are left."

Tom smiled brightly at them, looking like greeting old friends.

But for the three of them, this was the most terrifying and grim smile in the world, completely disturbing their courage and their minds.

Even Rommel had the idea of escaping now!

None of their seven top masters in the Major Perfection Realm was a match for Tom. It was only a short time before only the three of them were left.

If they didn't escape, they wouldn't have a chance to run away.

Black Mamba was now stared at by Tom, and his whole body trembled. Without any hesitation, he turned around and ran away.

He only had one thought right now. That was escaping. Use all his strength to escape!

He would run as far as he could. He would never step into H Country again and never want to see Tom again!

Not only Black Mamba, but the master in the Major Perfection Realm next to him also ran away.

Tom sighed and said, "Do you really think you can run away?"

After saying that, Tom first chased after the master in the Major Perfection Realm. The speed was so fast that even the most advanced cameras in the world could not catch Tom's movements. The next moment, when he appeared, he was already in front of the master in the Major Perfection Realm. Tom didn't talk anything but just kicked him out.

Tom caught an extremely tricky and unexpected angle.

The opponent was obviously also a top fighter, and his moves were exquisite. He caught Tom's attack and quickly stepped out to confront Tom.

"Great. You can still react." Tom was not stingy with his praise, but next, Tom broke the man's right leg.

"Ah!!!!!" He let out a shrill scream and slumped down. Internationally, he was known as the "Leg King," but when he fought Tom, his leg was broken by Tom! How terrifying was Tom's strength and physique?

The man didn't dare to imagine it anymore.

Tom walked over and pinched his neck.

"Don't kill me! Please, don't..."

With a crack, before he could finish his sentence, Tom broke his neck and he died.

Now, only Black Mamba and Rommel were left.

Rommel froze and stood on the other side of the arena, while Black Mamba was running away.

Tom just glanced at Rommel and then chased after Black Mamba.

Black Mamba used his secret technique to stimulate 150% of his potential, which was an overdraft for his body. It would take several months for him to recover. But at this time, he could not care so much. His life was the most important.

"You can't run away."

He had already run out of the arena and rushed towards the exit, but at this moment, he heard Tom's voice and was immediately scared out of his wits.

Tom didn't talk much nonsense. After rushing behind him, he punched Black Mamba hard on the back, making a "bang" sound. Black Mamba fell down, slammed into the pillar in front of him, and knocked the pillar sideways.

Black Mamba felt his life force running away at a high speed, and his eyes began to blur. It was the feeling of death.

In his sight, he saw Tom walking towards him. A strong desire for survival rose from his heart. He crawled forward and shouted for help. "Save me, save me. I don't want to die. I don't want to die yet..."

He shouted in several different languages, which showed how much he didn't want to die.

However, no matter how much he begged for mercy, Tom would never let him go.

Tom walked up and stepped on his back. With a crack, Black Mamba was dead...

In the end, Rommel was the only one left on the arena.

Instead of running, he stood on the arena with his pale face and watched Tom come over.

His move surprised Tom.

"Why didn't you run?"

Rommel smiled bitterly. "Is running useful?"

Tom nodded and said seriously, "Well, it's really useless."

After that, he was ready to hit Rommel.

"Wait!" Rommel shouted, "Tom, I surrender!"

"I don't accept surrender." Tom's expression was cold.

Rommel continued, "I am willing to be your dog! From now on, I'll only serve you. Can you let me go?"

Hearing this, Tom was surprised. "Aren't you afraid of embarrassing your country?"

Rommel remained silent for a few seconds before saying, "I just want to survive."

Tom nodded. "Very real reason."

Rommel was immediately overjoyed, "So you agreed?!"

"No." Tom said with a smile, "Since you killed the martial artists from H Country, you are doomed to die."

After saying this, Tom suddenly took action.
